Broncos To Host Menard Yellowjackets Here Friday Night In Conference Tilt

Coach Joe Turner and his Sonora Broncos will play host this Friday night to the Menard High School Yellowjackets in the third conference game of the 1957 season. The Yellowjackets have been rated in the cellar of District 8-A since early in the school year but they handed pre-season favorites, the Junction Eagles, a surprise tie in their game two weeks ago.

Menard holds a unique spot in 8-A ratings, having played only one game in conference football and tied that. Sonora has one victory and one loss to its credit. Junction has a record of one tie and one loss while first-place Ozona has two victories, no defeats.

Probable starters for the Broncos: Ends, John Ed Neville and Freddy Fields; Tackles, Bobby

SCHWIENING BUYS CATTLE

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schwiening, Sr. and Glen Green returned Friday after spending the week in Oklahoma City where they visited Fred Martin and attended a dispersal sale. Schwiening bought 29 head of registered cattle including bulls, cows and calves.

Joe Smith and Doroteo Castro; Guards, Gene Brodhead and Dan Cauthorn; Center, Wallace Anthony; Backs, Sam Galindo, Eddie Sosa, Vivian Vasquez and Allen Wall.

Parade Of Spooks At 6:30 Tonight Opens Annual Halloween Carnival

Thursday night, October 31 the Sonora High School and Central Elementary School will combine to hold their annual Halloween Carnival.

Highlight of the evening will be the coronation of the Halloween Queen. Candidates for the honor are chosen by popular vote of the individual classes and final selection is made by penny votes. Boxes for votes are placed around town. Funds go to the High School Student Council for its activities.

Candidates for Queen this year are Addah Wardlaw, senior; Edwin Hawkins, junior; Jo Ann Capps, sophomore; Jo Ella Archer, freshman, and Barbara Wright, eighth grade. Following the Queen's coronation, the carnival will be officially opened with classes and other school organizations sponsoring booths.

The Elementary School will have their customary Country Store and Fish Pond. Seniors will again be in charge of the concession stand which will open in time to offer sandwiches and drinks for supper. Juniors will raffish off an electric skillet and a rifle and the Sophomores will sponsor a talent show. Freshmen will have a sponge throw while the eighth grade will have a teddy bear throw.

The GAA's will again sponsor a cake walk, the band will have a bingo stand with prizes donated by merchants and individuals and the Library Club will have a wheel of fortune. FHA'ers will sponsor the bean guessing and the Science Club will have a string pull and rifle shoot.

The area on Concho Street from the Main Street intersection to the end of the block by Sonora Grocery and Sonora Motor Co. will be roped off to allow space for activities.

Prizes will be given for the best-dressed spooks, with participants in the contest divided according to grades and ages.

The carnival will begin with a parade from the Courthouse to the reviewing stand at 6:30 p.m.

Broncos Roll Over Eagles 49-13 In Lop-Sided Battle

Quarterback Allen Wall (center) plunges through the Junction tackle spot to score the opening touchdown of last week's conference game. Sam Galindo made Wall's six point into seven by carrying over the conversion attempt. Other identifiable are (left) Wallace Anthony, Number 73, and Alfred Sykes (right) Number 60.

Odds And Ends

Sometimes it just happens that way. The best news stories are the ones you can't print or don't know how to handle. Well, it happened this week and the story came from the wilds of Colorado where a drama unfolded involving Robbie Jo Teaff, housewife, mother, bookkeeper and elk hunter; Eddie Sosa, truck driver, father of halfback Eddie Sosa, and cook; a Colorado ranchers wife; E. L. Harrell, county road superintendent; and Bob Teaff, innocent bystander.

The Teaffs, Harrell, and Eddie were heading home to Sonora from a successful elk hunt, the hour was late, and Bob thought he would relieve Eddie at the wheel of the truck and let Robbie Jo drive the car. So, the two vehicles stopped by the roadside, Eddie insisted that he wasn't tired and would keep on driving so Bob decided to check the tires—er something—while the opportunity presented itself.

Well-Eddie had said he'd lead for awhile so he drove off. Robbie Jo naturally supposed Bob was in the truck so SHE DROVE OFF. Poor Bob! Alone on the roadside, no jacket, no light and the thermometer (somewhere) saying 22 degrees.

A few miles (and unkind thoughts) later, our innocent bystander stumbled upon a lone ranch house and knocked upon the door. It was answered by the Colorado ranchers wife, alone in the wilderness and scared stiff. No phone, no car, and the rancher gone to town.

All that Bob managed to find out was that it was another four and one-half miles to town. So he picked 'em up and put 'em through the cold Colorado country side until he reached the town, found the law and told his sad story.

Some 70 miles down the road Robbie Jo, Harrell and Eddie were intercepted by the law's long arm and there, for the first time, discovered that Bob was no longer in the party. Robbie Jo's state of mind as she drove back to get her cold, tired husband can only be imagined.

Wish we could have been on hand for Bob's greeting remarks.

Showing a return of the fire which they had earlier in the season, Coach Joe Turner's Broncos drubbed pre-season favorites, the Junction Eagles by a score of 49 to 13 here Friday night.

The Eagles showed good offensive form despite being weakened from current and recent bouts with the flu. Spencer McDonough, Charles Fox, Mickey Cavaness and Bert Mansfield manned the Eagles' try for the winner's spot but were unable to carry through.

The Broncos drew first blood with Back Allen Wall carrying over tackle in the initial period with Sam Galindo converting. Junction retaliated with Charles Fox carrying and Mickey Cavaness kicking the extra point.

In the second quarter Galindo and Wall reversed the procedure with Galindo carrying off tackle for the touchdown and Wall converting. Eddie Sosa increased the Broncos' lead with a 55-yard run which had spectators on their feet. The try for extra point was good and the Sonora team led 21 to 7.

After the half, Galindo scored again off tackle and Wall made the conversion good, the score 28 to 7. But the Eagles' McDonough rallied with a touchdown for Junction. The try for extra point failed and the Eagles trailed 28 to 13.

In the final period of play, the Broncos stacked up an additional 14 points with Wall carrying over center at the climax of a drive which started on the Eagles' 30 yardline. Glindo carried for the extra point. Then a pass from Wall to Fields was good for the final TD with Wall converting. The final score read 49 for Sonora, 13 for Junction.

Statistics-wise: First Downs, Sonora 23, Junction 7; Yards gained rushing, Sonora 556, Junction 146; Yards gained passing, Sonora 114, Junction 20; So-completed five passes and Junction, one. There were no interceptions. Each team lost the ball one time on fumbles. Sonora drew one 15-yard penalty and Junction drew two for a total of 20 yards. Junction punted five times for an average of 30 yards. The Broncos did not punt.

On the subject of Colorado where one of our favorite Broncos—George Johnson—is pursuing higher learning and pigskins, we heard from Louis Davis that state's university has 59 men on its grid squad—27 native Coloradans and 32 imports. If all their imports are as hot as Johnson O. U. can kiss their winning streak goodbye next season.

And a final word on one of our favorite subjects: good sportsmanship. Junction's head coach, Skip Johnson, played Sonora last week when his team was severely hit (honest Injun) by flu. Skip obviously knows that the cards sometimes fall the other way and did his best under adverse circumstances. Knowing Coach Turner, if the bug hits the Broncos hard, he'll take it just like Johnson did—on the chin.

Buick, Chevrolet Show This Week Ford, Pontiac, Cadillac Due Soon

Sparkle and glitter appeared on the Sonora auto mart this week as Buick and Chevrolet were presented for public approval. Crowds were enthusiastic over new body lines and power plant features. 1958 models of Ford, Cadillac and Pontiac will show November 7, 13 and 9 respectively.

Advancements common to nearly all new models include more power, easier ride and dual head- and tail-lights.

Buick Show New Grille
The 1958 Buick, longer and lower than before, is new from stem to stern. The most striking feature of the new model is an intricate checkerboard grille. As with some other makes, Buick uses a modified tail-fin to give an overall sleekness of line.

Chevy Introduces Impala
Chevrolet's newest offering to the style dominated market is the Bel-Air Impala, appearing in two models both reminiscent of the GM Dreamcar design of several years ago.

Other Chevy innovations are rubber bellows, "Level Air" suspension, new turbo-thrust engine, X-shaped frame said to be 30 percent more rigid, and rear-wheel coil springs. These Chevrolets are nine inches longer and two and a half inches lower.

Pontiac Due November 9
In Pontiac, General Motors again uses an intricate pattern setting off a multitude of new colors and color combinations. Pontiac's big push for fourth place in the auto sales market is spearheaded by their "Chieftain" line—"The big car at the little price."

Another Pontiac series is the new Bonneville presented with sports coupe and custom convertible. In this GM strives for a futuristic family sports-type car.

Fords For '58—Nov. 7
1958 Ford cars feature major style changes, the most efficient engine in the car's history, a new automatic transmission, and new optional air suspension.

The company has spent $185,000,000 to put an entirely new Ford on the '58 market. The new Cruise-O-Matic transmission, when combined with the 352-cubic-inch engine, gives instantaneous solid footpedal response with imperceptible upshifting.

All in all, the car market for 1958 is startlingly packed with beauty and mechanical improvements.

CHEVROLET INTRODUCES IMPALA

Chevrolet offers in its 1958 Bel Air series two interior luxury in the low-price field. A new Impala models, named after and strongly reminiscent of a "dream car" in the GM Motorama. This is the Impala sport coupe, distinctively styled from any angle, and setting a new standard for one of four new series of Chevrolets this year.

Check Your Home For Fire Hazards

Fire Marshall

City Fire Marshall John A. Martin, Jr., this week released a check list for all citizens:

"Do you have your smoke flues from the furnace or heater cleaned at regular intervals to prevent fires?"

"Do you supply metal containers for ashes from furnaces, heaters and stoves?"

"Do you have your gas pipes and gas appliances inspected regularly to detect leaks?"

"Do you use moisture-proof wiring on all you electrical fixtures in your laundry room?"

"Do your electric cords show signs of being worn or otherwise defective?"

"Do your fuses for electric lighting and power appliances have the proper amperage? Consult your electrician."

"Do you provide metal containers for matches, and are these kept out of the reach of small children?"

"If you have one "no" answer, you may be harboring a fire hazard. Don't be haphazard with fire."

"What Free Enterprise Means To Oil Progress"

Editor's note: The following is the first-place winning essay written as a part of the Sutton County Oil Information Committee's Oil Progress Week observance.

OIL IS WHERE YOU FIND IT! The significance of this oft spoken truth is fully realized only by oil producers who spend millions of dollars each year on wells that yield no oil. Great drilling units are constantly the mountains, the deserts—even the ocean floor—in pursuit of the black gold that makes America great.

The story of the oil industry in America is truly a thrilling example of progress with free enterprise. Starting from infancy near the turn of the century oil progress has stayed abreast of the world's greatest industrial development period—plus two global wars. Oil exploration, production, refining, distribution and research have never lagged behind for a single moment, but are constantly forging ahead.

New and improved fuel and lubricants are being developed for tomorrow's machines—in the oil industry's own research plants. Constant discovery and testing of new uses for oil by-products—aspalt, rubber, chemicals and countless others—meet the ever increasing needs of our prosperous economy.

How can the oil industry—which requires far more risk capital than any comparable industry—continue to meet successfully this great industrial challenge? Free enterprise—the right to try to make a profit without rigid government control—is the answer. The oil industry has proven that it has leadership with vision, risk capital for expansion, and the technical know-how to meet and surpass America's oil needs.

Oil progress has not only been outstanding at home, but the American oil industry has attained unchallenged supremacy in world oil production. American oil companies have discovered oil reserves in Canada, Mexico, South America and the Middle East—to supply the present and future needs of the world's expanding population. The oil industry has played a most important part in making America a great world power.

The oil industry—under our great free enterprise system—is rapidly making oil and gas available to the northern and eastern population centers for more economical heating and manufacturing. Huge pipelines are being built to take the life-blood of the nation to more people.

The oil industry has met every challenge under the free enterprise system—without government subsidy or control. Competition between privately owned oil companies has resulted in cheap fuel for every use—even with 8c per gallon taxes—plus constant improvement in quality. Employment at fair wages is provided for millions of people. Every segment of American industry has been favorably affected through efficient operations by the oil industry.

The oil industry must remain under free enterprise to continue its great progress. Millions of dollars must be spent on further exploration, improved oil recovery methods, and new refineries. Only the free enterprise system will provide the incentive and risk capital to keep the oil industry forging ahead.

SHACKLE THE OIL INDUSTRY WITH GOVERNMENT CONTROL AND YOU SHACKLE THE PROGRESS OF AMERICA!

Devil's River Philosopher Wonders If Russian Farmers Are As Happy Over Sputnik As Their Bosses Are

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Devil's River reviews the satellite situation once more, with a different slant, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:
 You may think I'm in a rut, writing about the Russian satellite for the third week in a row, and I may be, although if I am I got there on my own without the help of the Russians and anyway I don't mind, being in a rut is a lot safer than being on most highways I know about, but I have been thinking some more and have come to the conclusion the reason the Russians were in a hurry to get that satellite up into space was to take the Russian farmers' minds off their share of the earth.

Now I don't know anything about the Russian farmers personally, but I have an idea the average farmer over there, working the land for the government and being told how many hours a day he has to work and how much of his crop he can keep, had just as soon believe the earth is flat and own some of it, than to work for the state and conquer space.

Khrushchev may chortle when that satellite goes hurtling around the globe, but I imagine a Russian farmer, looking up in the twilight from his job of milking a government cow, would enjoy the sight of Sputnik more if the cream went to him instead of Moscow.

Understand, I'm in favor of the United States getting on a little faster with its guided missile program, and I have an idea it will, now that Washington has heard from the folks at home, but I'd like to point out that science is not the complete answer. The man who thought up the idea of a system that allows me to own a piece of land out here and live on it like I please, with nobody able to take it away from me as long as I pay the taxes, well, he was a pretty smart man, but he wasn't a scientist.

Science makes freedom more fun, but science without freedom is like a penitentiary with air.

I wouldn't swap my ranch for a dozen satellites, but I have an idea there are a good many Russian farmers who'd swap all the Sputniks the Communists can launch for one little piece of land they could call their own. But they needn't be looking to me. This bitterweed ranch out here on Devil's River is not for sale or trade.

By Hugh Williamson .. the duck breeding season in the North was a successful one, and you have every indication of good duck hunting in Texas during the coming season.

A lot of Texans, you may be sure, have been thinking it over, inasmuch as the duck season opens November 1 and extends to December 30.

Big rains this year have broken the drouth along the Gulf Coast, providing plenty of surface water for the birds. Conditions in the marsh areas of the lower coast are the best in 10 years.

There will be an excellent crop of such native waterfowl food as wild duck millet, smartweeds, duck potato, and pondweeds.

Along the lower coast, the duck prospects are also very good. October rain caused habitat conditions to improve rapidly.

How To Do It

Add to all this the fact that .. What's the secret of duck hunting, or any wing shooting? Well, it takes a steady hand, a clear eye, and good coordination, of course, but it also takes a gun that fits the shooter.

With time and money, you can do business with gun specialists who will fit the gun to your particular needs.

You'll get all kinds of tests, including some in the field. At the end of a year or so you'll have your gun, which will fit you like an old shoe. It will cost you about two thousands dollars.

Most of us don't have that kind of moola. But we can take our time in selecting a weapon, try it out, borrow a gun from a friend, talk about it and be sure, before we purchase, that the gun fits.

Then we can go duck hunting, and if all the factors are right we can get birds.

At 12 yards, a duck looks bigger than a turkey. At 20 yards he shrinks to chicken size. At 30 yards, he's more like a pigeon, and 40 yards, he's down to dove dimensions. Off there at 50 yards he's an English sparrow, and at 60 yards, he's a hummingbird.

By E. B. Keng

Root plowing and reseeding is in progress on 2,000 acres of mesquite infested land on the upper Ward and the Edwards Plateau large additional acreage is planned for 1958.

Root plowing to control mesquite is quite new to the Edwards Plateau SCD. Some 700 acres was plowed in 1955-1956 on ranches owned by Mack Cauthorn, Rip Ward, Billy Galbreath and Herbert Fields. The practice was over 99 per cent successful in killing mesquite.

The 700 acres plowed from October 1955 to May 1956 was all seeded with a good mixture of desirable grasses, including blue panic, sideoats grama, blue grama, buffel grass and KR blue-stem. Extreme drought during the growing season of 1956 with only a few widely spaced showers resulted in only fair to poor seeding results in 1957. Mack

A NEW AND EXPANDED LINE OF STATION WAGONS BY FORD, producer of the most popular wagons, is offered for 1958. New to the line is the six-passenger Fordor Ranch Wagon (above), one of Ford's six new models built on body shells entirely separate from the Ford passenger cars. Ford spent $185,000,000 on changes, including safety dual headlights, new jet intake grille and massive bumper, sculptured metal treatment throughout the car's exterior, and twin safety taillights as well as a completely new power train from engine to axle, all-new Cruise-O-Matic drive and optional Ford-Aire suspension. The 1958 Fords will be displayed at all Ford dealerships beginning November 7.

Root plowing costs approximately $10 per acre, and seeding is an additional $2 to $4 per acre, depending upon kind and amount of seed used. Root plowing is the only satisfactory method of killing mesquite in the area at the present time. Additional studies are being made on seeding mixtures, time to plow, and germination of new mesquite seedlings.

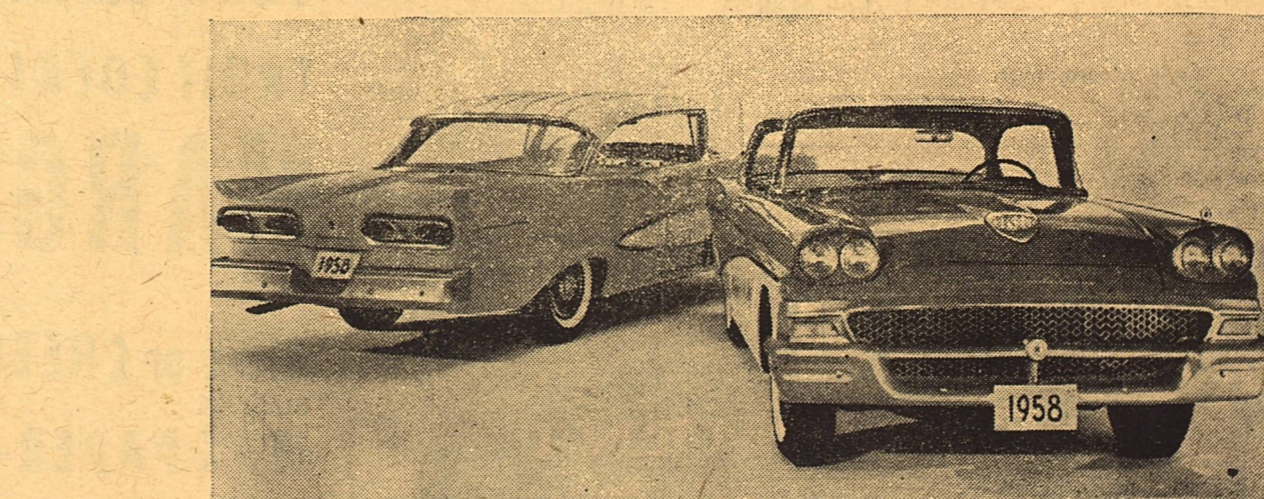

Ranchmen who have a heavy infestation of mesquite and little grass on deep soils should investigate root plowing. The Sutton County ASC program will allow $5 per acre cost sharing assistance for plowing heavy mesquite and seeding grass, up to the $1,000 limit per ranch.

Governor Daniel Urge Passage Of Water Amendment

Gov. Price Daniel has urged all eligible Texans to go to the polls on Nov. 5 and vote for the water development amendment, which is proposal Number 3 on the ballot.

"The urgent need of dams and reservoirs in the state is evident to everyone," Daniel stated. "Proposal Number 3 will make possible such projects. It is a self-financing plan and the water amendment does not call for and will not necessitate any tax."

Daniel pointed out that all of the state's public officials are backing the proposal. "Furthermore the amendment has been endorsed by a multitude of state associations and other organizations, newspapers, manufacturers and chambers of commerce." "Here is Texas opportunity of a lifetime," the governor added. "Here at our finger tips is a potential $600,000,000 for water projects to be paid out of revenues."

Texas' chief executive also cited the flood damages and the tremendous loss of lives and property that have resulted from uncontrolled waters.

"Why should Texans continue to suffer millions of dollars in property damage every year? Why should good water that can be used by cities, by industries and by agriculture be allowed to flow unrestricted off our rich lands and on into the Gulf of Mexico?"

"The recreational advantages that would follow the addition of more lakes and reservoirs naturally will be of interest to hunting and fishing enthusiasts as well as those who enjoy boating and other outdoor sports, but most important to the State are the financial aspects of the program. And they are vitally important," Daniel stated.

Then as if to answer all questions, he summed up his remarks with the statement that "The water development amendment, which is third on the Nov. 5 ballot, is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for Texas and all Texans to have what is greatly needed and without taxes. For this is a self-financing program that not only will pay itself out, but eventually may mean millions of dollars in revenue to the State."

While discussing the water amendment the Governor also tossed in his recommendations of the other two proposals appearing on the November 5 ballot.

"It is my sincere hope," he concluded, "that Texas voters also will approve the two other proposals—the old age pension increase and the state employees retirement plan."
