FORTY-SEVENTH WEEK

Odds And Ends

The Lions Club's new brochure on Sonora and Sutton County is off the press and ready for distribution. Mostly pictorial, the folder tells the story of the city and county, their industries, schools, churches and other institutions and facilities.

A large share of credit for preparation goes to Pat McBride, Hillman Brown and Oliver Wuest. Pat spent many an hour in the darkroom developing and printing and took most of the photographs too.

Hillman put in lots of time and trouble rounding up, sifting through and compiling facts and figures for the needed statistics. And Oliver took his first stab at map-drawing for the brochure. His map of Sonora occupies a prominent place in the folder and we think he did a marvelous job. Thanks, Patrick. Thanks, Hillman. Thanks, Oliver.

That "stranger" in town the early part of the week was not one of the Russians that got left-but Ralph (Buddy) Mayer who took advantage of his trip with the Explorer Scouts to raise a bumper crop of chin and lip whiskers.

But Bud (The Sheik) learned his "Be Prepared" motto as a Scout and he plans to shave before the Miss Wool Pageant.

M. G. Car Club Of England To Stop Here On Cross Country Trip To Big Bend Park

For the second consecutive year, members of the Dallas Center of the M. G. Car Club of England are staging a large regional sports car rally from Dallas, through Sonora and south to the rugged Big Bend National Park country.

Spotted Rain Showers Cover County Dropping From .50 To 4.00 Inches

By E. B. Keng

Widespread rains blanketed most of the Edwards Plateau SCD over the past weekend. Rains showers were very spotted, and moisture varied from a scant half-inch on the Fred Earwood ranch to near 4.00 inches in other areas.

Most of the rain came in slow showers, soaking into the dry soil without causing runoff. Grass greened up very rapidly, putting a temporary end to the threat of grass fires.

A heavy stand of bitterweed seedlings were evident by Tuesday, which is quite unusual for August. Bitterweed normally waits for moisture in September or October before germinating.

If the current rainfall is followed by normal moisture before November, grass will cover most of the remaining bare areas before frost. A good crop of grass seed is being produced on property grazed ranges.

Representative rainfall measurements for the weekend rains are as follows:

Sonora 1.20; J. A. Cauthorn 3.00; Tom Davis 1.18; Alice Jones Dd. 1.60; 6 mi. 3.30; Jim Adamson 2.50; Experiment Station 2.77; George Brockman 1.97; Harold Friess 2.20; J. V. Alley 3.75.

"Miss Wool" To Be Named In San Angelo This Week

Miss Miriam La Cour of Raywood, Texas, "Miss Wool of Texas for 1958", will be among the 13 contestants for the title of the nation's "Miss Wool". The lucky young lady will be selected from representatives of the 13 wool producing states and will be honored with all they royalty the wool kingdom has to offer August 29 in San Angelo.

"Miss Wool of 1958" will be crowned at an extravaganza pageant starring Dennis Day. Charles Meeker, State Fair Musicals in Dallas, will stage the gigantic musical and fashion revue in San Angelo's new $1 million Coliseum. This is the first year the wool pageant has been held on a national basis.

Finalists in the Miss Wool Pageant will be entertained for a week in San Angelo. Arriving August 25, the contestants began a round of public appearances, parties and fittings for the $5,000 all-wool wardrobe to be modeled by them at the pageant and awarded the new wool queen. Other gifts planned for "Miss Wool" include an overseas trip by air and use of a new automobile for the year. She will vacation two weeks in New York and travel extensively as official representative of the wool industry.

In addition to music and entertainment by Dennis Day, the coronation pageant will feature the 50 Golden Debs, Dallas drill team; a 48-voice choir and full orchestra. Several professional specialty groups are also slated during the two-and-a-half hour show.

Other public events planned during Wool Fiesta Week are the Wool Parade, followed by a street dance August 27. Russ Carlyle and his orchestra will also play for dancing that night in the Cotillion Room of the Town House Hotel. The wool queen finalists will entertain with music and dramatic talent skits during the Carlyle dance.

All candidates for the "Miss Wool" crown are between the ages of 18 and 25 and have completed at least one year at an accredited college or university. They are between 5 feet 4 inches and 5 feet 8 inches tall and wear size 12 garments. Final selection of "Miss Wool" will be made on

"We Are Optimistic" - - Joe Turner

What are the prospects for this year's high school football in Sonora? What about our opponents? What kind of a team can we expect? These questions were answered for us this week by Joe Turner, head football and track coach at Sonora High School.

Just generally, we asked, what does the team look like? Joe's answer: "This bunch of boys looks better at this time (pre-season) than any clubs in the past two years. Spirit and morale are high."

And our opponents? "Blanco is an unknown quantity," Turner said. "They are too far away for me to know to much about them. Our next game is with Eldorado. The Eagles only lost one man last year and should have a good team."

"Iraan lost 16 seniors and will rely almost entirely on sophomores and juniors and so will not be as strong as last year. Ballinger is a Class AA school and always good. Alpine beat us 7 to 6 last year but they lost two of their backs and this game, October 3, should be a top game. Mason is good and big. The Cow-

Crews Completing Work On Watershed Dam Sites

By E. B. Keng

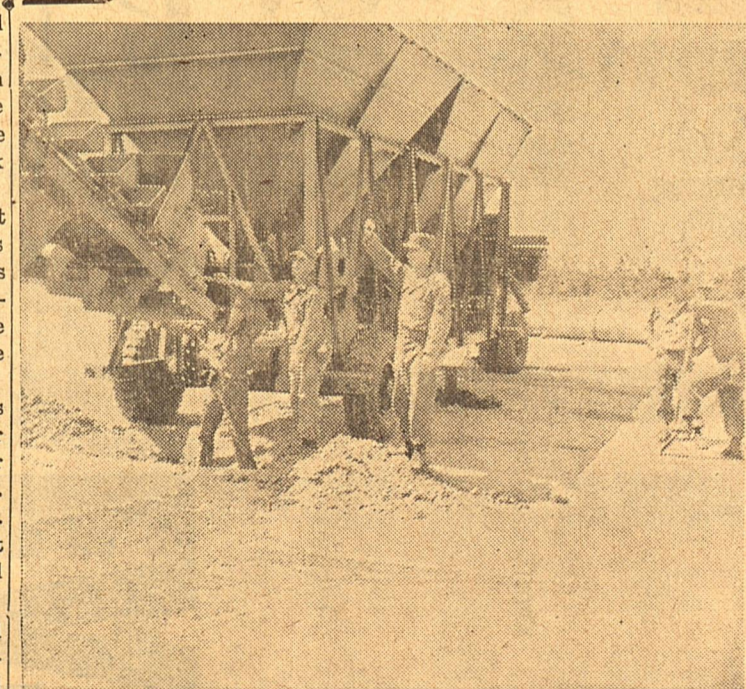

Work is in progress to collect detailed information necessary for construction designs and bids in Sites 9 and 10 on Lowrey Draw.

Dub Groce, SCS geologist, with a seven man crew, is making the core-drill investigation. Ralph White, project engineer at Ozona, is in charge of an engineering survey party collecting the engineering data. White and other party members will move to Sonora later in the year, when the Ozona project is completed.

A core drill party has completed Site 9 (Thompson Estate) and started on Site 10 Thursday. Each site is core-drilled to determine the nature of the below ground material, the presence of cracks on caves which might make a structure unsafe, and the type of rick material which must be removed from the spillway.

Samples of the fill material are taken and will be hant to a laboratory for data on degree of compaction necessary to get a safe structure. Borrow areas are core drilled to determine the depth and amount of fill material available.

Sites 11, 12, and 13 are scheduled to be core-drilled in early October. Contracts for the five structures on Lowrey Draw are scheduled to be awarded from January to April, 1959. Construction will start on each structure immediately after the contract is awarded to the successful bidder.

"Company "B" of the 830th Engr. Bn. (Heavy construction) is a part of the 420th Engineer Brigade which has projects underway such as completing an airfield, constructing a hasty airstrip in the field, a fixed pile timber bridge, and laying concrete paving in addition to the asphalt plant shown above," said Lt. Burkart.

Possibly Dangerous Weed Appears On Local Ranches

By E. B. Keng

A new weed which may be poisonous to livestock has been found on a number of ranches in the Edwards Plateau Soil Conservation District.

The weed has been identified as Kochia scoparia, and is commonly called Mexican fireweed. Other common names are kochia, burning brush, and summer sycress. The plant was originally a native of Europe and Asia.

This plant, which is related to lambsquarter, is an annual, yellowish green in color, and is presently growing up to three feet in height. The flowers are very small, greenish, changing to reddish in ripening, and are formed in narrow spikes near the top of the plant (somewhat resembling carless weed or lambs-quarter seed). The plant turns red toward fall.

A plant bulletin published in Kansas in 1941 says "This sapo-nin-possessing, poisonous plant cultivated in gardens as an ornamental, together with the narrower, more feathery Kochia tri-cophylla, has run wild in recent years (since about 1926) and spread over much of the state (Kansas). Drought has favored it, but its poisonous, free-seed-ing qualities and dense growth make it objectionable."

No additional information on the poisonous properties of this plant is available at present. Plants observed near Sonora have been grazed to some extent by livestock, indicating that it is palatable.

Though the possible seriousness of this plant is unknown at this time, the information from Kansas and elsewhere indicates that the plant is well worth knowing and watching. A specimen plant is available at the Sonora Wool and Mohair Company, and at the Soil Conservation Service office.

The plant was probably brought here in hay. It might be found any where hay was fed during the drought. It will likely be found in a bare or disturbed area, probably at or near where hay was fed.

Since the plant comes from

Devil's River Philosopher Wants To Be Foreign Policyed Same As The Kings In Middle East

Editor's Note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitter-weed ranch on Devil's River may be taking a narrow view of the international way of doing things, his letter this week indicates, but you'll have to decide that your-self.

Dear editor:

After considerable reading on the subject for the past few weeks, I have come to the conclusion that the trouble with our foreign policy is that it's used on foreigners more than it is on us folks at home.

For instance, I was reading last night in a copy of a newspaper which an insurance salesman left out here earlier in the day—incidentally, my foreign policy toward all salesmen showing up out here on my bitterweed ranch is to accept their newspapers and free samples but don't buy nothing from em—where the King of Jordan over in the Middle East says his country can save itself if we'll just let it alone, except for one small item.

"We can solve our own problems without outside interference, provided we can get some financial assistance from the United States," the King said seed each year, it can probably be controlled by good range management designed to favor native grasses. If only a few plants are found on a ranch, however, they should be pulled and burned immediately.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelley and Bobby accompanied Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Murphy to Austin where they attended the Cessna Dealers meeting Mr. and Mrs. Kelley and Bobby spent several days in San Antonio before Kelley returned home and Mrs. Kelley and Bobby visited her mother. Mrs. Harry Pearson in Beaumont.

SCS personnel will be glad to help ranchmen make positive identification of any strange plants which might be Kochia scoparia.

Now that's the kind of foreign policy I'm talking about that I'm in favor of, if it's used at home.

For example, as a rancher, I don't want any interference from Washington, I can solve my own problems, with of course, a little financial help. Me and the King of Jordan see eye to eye on this sort of thing.

Me and the King aren't asking for any Marines, especially me, I like the Marines but I can't think of a thing I could use em for on this ranch, don't even have a place for em to land and further more him and me don't want anybody telling us what we have to do. We'll make our own decision, let Washington just mail us the money and we'll decide for our-selves what to do with it. This old idea that you have to be dependent on Washington for every-thing doesn't set well with me and the King of Jordan. If a man can't take some money and spend it like he thinks best, without calling up Washington to find out what to do with it, then the world has come to a pretty pass and old-fashioned independence and self-reliance have disappeared from the earth, but me and the King will stand as a bulwark against this weak-backed trend.

YOUR MINISTER SAYS

By Rev. Allan Guthrie

"He who is not with me is against me" (Luke 11:23) Also Matt. 12: 43-45:

The cost of discipleship in the Kingdom of God is complete self-commitment. To keep oneself back from self-commitment is not safe. Moral neutrality is constant-

All I'm asking is that Wash-ington foreign-policy me the same time it does the King of Jordan, and me and the King will take it from there. We've got minds of our own, and we can make it on our own, if somebody will pay the bills.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

ly in peril. The peril is in its emptiness.

How typical of our own lives is this emptiness. Plagued by the devil of some wrong habit, we rid ourselves of its presence by a fine resolve. The house of our soul is swept empty by some kind of superficial reformation. But no house can remain empty. Undesirable tenants find their way back. Every man has some mas-ter. For one it is the body; for another, hard work; for another, pleasure or money; but others, like Paul, are "the slaves of the Lord Jesus." We are compelled to serve. There is no choice between self-commitment and neu-trality. The course of human life has shown that there is only one service and one Master. You are either against Him or for Him; neutrality is impossible. He either says "Well, done thou good and faithful servant" or "Thou fool, this day is thy soul required of thee." Which is it for me—for you?

"Our Commonwealth is in heaven" (Philippians 3:20).

The real world for Jesus was not the seen; the real world was the unseen. To us heaven may be a dream of earth, but to Him earth was a broken shadow of heaven. The material was a sign language of the spiritual.

Except for occasional moments when our souls are lifted into God's presence, we cannot escape from the images of sense. In the opinion of God, however, there may be no greater blessing than the quiet hour when reality is seen through earthly form. How do we know love except that it is outwardly spoken—a word, a look in the eyes, or the clasp of a hand? The tiny seed, the dry water course, the child at play, were for Jesus but the handwriting of our God. Ever mindful of our dim sight, He used these, and many others, to show us the un-seen world and to teach us, what Paul has termed in characteristic phase, that "our commonwealth is in heaven."

God grant that we may more and more be able to overcome the "flesh" that we might "see" things as they really are.

Prime Products of Our Talent Farm

Every year . . . at great expense in time, money and love . . . we turn out another fine crop of young men and women . . . trained and schooled and ready to take their places in the adult world. And every year the big cities get most of them.

It's very generous of us to go to all of this trouble and expense to furnish high grade personnel for city use.

Of course, we could use nearly all of them here at home, if we should develop a selfish streak some day. The money we spend out of town every year, if most of it was spent here, would provide many, many more job and business opportunities for our young people.

It would make the grass a good deal greener for most of us older characters, too.

punchers haven't beat us in seven years but they did tie us last year and will be out for blood."

And our conference opponents? "Ozona has 12 lettermen returning and has a good frosh team. I just hope they don't get sick again this year! They've got lots of speed but that doesn't worry us what does worry us is their passing game Junction lost a lot of men through graduation but most of their team is as large or larger than our club but they lack experience.

"Menard has a new coach in the person of Gerald Centillie, former assistant coach. The Yellowjackets always play a tough game. Our new conference member this year is Big Lake and they have only beat us once in the 25 or 30 years."

Turner plans to carry about 18 on his varsity squad: Jerry Potmesil, George Caldwell, Wallace Anthony, Armando Reyna, Bobby

Turner says he has a big line and a fast backfield. Junior Castro, All-District guard last year, is weighing in at 217 and looking good. Alfred Sykes, who got his first taste of varsity ball last year, is speedy in short runs, runs hard and has good balance. Eddie Sosa looks good, Turner says, and is running better. Sam Galindo is handling the team capably, he adds.

"Ben Castillo has stepped in and is doing an able job as blocking back in the place of Alfred Sykes who has moved to the tail-back slot," Turner commented. "Sykes is doing a superb job of ball carrying-looksk like the type of back Sonora fans are used to watching. He is a rugged, George Wright type runner."

Wallace Anthony, two-year man in center position, is running now but not taking part in contact work due to his injured leg.

On the offensive line Joe Turner says, "McClelland, Brodhead, Chalk, Smith, Caldwell and Potmesil show enough determination to demonstrate that they will be an aggressive forward wall this year.

"We (the coaches) are optimistic," Turner concluded.

Explorer Scouts Return From 16 Day Trip Into Canadian Lake Country Via Canoe

By Johnny Fields

Twenty-eight boys from Concho Valley Council and three adult leaders left Camp Sol Mayer August 7 by chartered bus to make a canoe trip in the Canadian lakes above Ely, Minnesota.

The boys stayed at Air Force bases for overnight stops. The first night out they spent at Vance Air Force Base, Enid, Okla. The boys and their leaders were guests at the officers club and had swimming pool privileges at the officers pool. The second night they spent at Off-fritt Air Force Base, Omaha, Nebr. where they were given passes to attend a dance at Teen Town. The third night they stayed at a Naval Installation at Minneapolis, St. Paul International Airport.

Sunday services were held in a beautiful roadside park in Central Minnesota. They arrived at Charles L. Summers Wilderness Canoe Base on Mosse Lake. Upon arrival at the base they were given final instructions, broken into crews, checked out equipment and plotted the route. Each crew was made up of ten boys, one adult leader, a guide and a swamper.

Traveling two and three men to the canoe they left the base on August 11 for eight days of exploring the lakes mapped out for our crew.

and fine set at $5.50 plus costs, total $25.00. Pending. Charge by Sheriff's Dept.

August 25, 1958. Perry D. Ory was charged with being drunk in a motor vehicle and fine set at $50.00 plus costs, total $70.00. Charge by Sheriff's Dept.

Each crew took a different route. The crew of Sonora and Eldorado boys with Herbert Fields as leader traveled through Moose Lake, Newfound Lake and Sucker Lake on the United States side. We passed through Canadian customs at Prairie Portage's after custome we passed through Besley Bay, Burke Lake, North Bay, Port Lake, Side Lake, Sarah, McIntyre and Brent Lakes, Commee Lake, Suzanne, Burk and Marj Lakes, Joyce Lake, Kahashahprivi Lake.

Some of the portages were a half mile in length. We carried our canoes and equipment packs over these. The crew was wind-bound for a half day and two separate time. We fished for Northern and Walleye Pike, Lake trout and Small-mouth bass. We found enough wild raspberries for two pies. This was the only wild fruit that we found as it was late for the berry season.

We returned to our canoe base on August 19 and returned home by the same route with all the courtesies of the same bases and arrived at Camp Sol Mayer on August 23.

Boys from Sonora making the trip were Curt Schwiening, Charlie Howell, Mike Ellis, Bobby Harris and Johnny Fields. Five Eldorado boys also made the trip.

Adult leaders were Herbert Fields and Ralph (Buddy) Mayer of Sonora and John Slover of San Angelo.

Mrs. Muriel Hamilton, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Rees in Big Lake last week accompanied them on a trip to Ruidoso, Cloud Croft, White Sands and other points of interest.
