Over 500 Deer, 95 Turkeys In Lockers As Highly Successful Season Progresses

An unidentified out-of-town hunter holds the season record for the heaviest deer turned in to local check stations with his 155-pound buck killed on the Alice Jones Ranch soon after the season opened. Bill Stewart's 141-pounder is runner up. Largest number of points so far is a 14-point buck killed by a San Angelo man. Mrs. Mack Cauthorn is in second spot with a 13-pointer.

A buck with a 23 7/8 inch spread killed by Gus Eustace on the Harrison Ranch is the leading contender for the prize being given by Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber Company. An Abilene man won the prize for the first deer turned in at Lambert's. Some 95 turkeys are in the storage houses. Boyd Lovelace's 18-pound gobbler killed Tuesday is the heaviest reported to date.

Charity Work At Hudspeth Hospital About $200,000 In First Ten Years

Hudspeth Memorial Hospital, now in its eleventh year of operation as a non-profit organization, affords one of the greatest services to the people of Sonora and Sutton County as well as to the people of surrounding counties. And what is most remarkable about this is that the hospital is completely self-supporting. The hospital receives no funds from taxation or from city, county, state or federal government.

That this is one of the few hospitals of its size in the state which draws no subsidy from any source is due to two factors: first its endowment by the late Roy Hudspeth and second, the sound management policies established and maintained by its board of directors.

Evidence of sound management is found in the extremely low room rates charged by the hospital. Over the nation, the average hospital room charge is $22.00 per day. Here at Hudspeth Memorial, charges are $12.00 and $14.00 per day. The board of directors have established the low-room-rate policy in an effort to keep hospital charges at the very minimum so that more people will be financially able to take advantage of the services offered by the institution.

Throughout the history of the hospital there has been a remarkable record of the absence of mis-use of the hospital by doctors in the area. This is pointed out by the fact that the average patient load of the 24-bed institution is 10 patients, or less than half of capacity.

Charity work has so far accounted for about one-fifth of the hospital's expenses during the past ten years, or approximately $200,000. Of this amount, some $50,000 has been spent for charity work outside of Sutton County. In an effort to reduce some of the hospital expense while continuing to maintain the high level of service, the board has decided to limit charity work to the hospital's home county.

The hospital board has as its basic policy—the maintenance of a first-rate institution at charges within the reach of everyone. By keeping rates low, charity work will be kept at a minimum and more and more of the citizens of the community may be served.

Of prime importance in avoidance of an increase in charity expense to the hospital is the individual's plan for hospitalization and medical care for himself and his family. Every budget should include provisions for these whether through a budgeted saving or through hospitalization insurance.

Next week's article will be an analysis of the different types of hospitalization and medical insurance.

Devil's River Philosopher Ponders
Another Side-Splitting Problem
The Russians Are Now Faced With

Editor's Note. The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitter-weed ranch on Devil's River discovers an amusing problem for the Russians, in his letter this week. It is something to think about.

Dear editor:

Ever since Russia startled the world by being the first to put a satellite into orbit, not to mention a man into orbit, the rest of the world has sort of lost its sense of humor about that country.

For example, too many people get the notion that every test the Russians make comes off successfully the first time, that it just never does make a mistake, that it has no problems to speak of, etc.

Well, I've been thinking about one of Russia's problems, and I'm surprised nobody else has mentioned it. You know, the late Stalin, who was a hero in Russia for a long time, has now been re-classified as a bum by Khrushchev, and the Russians are busy trying to eliminate all reference to him. History books are being re-written, Stalin's body has been removed from Lenin Square, his statues are being torn down, his pictures are coming off of walls, etc.

Now I can see how they can change the name of Stalingrad to Leninville, and Stalin Avenue to Lenin Alley, and things like that, but have you ever stopped to think that during the long dictatorship of Stalin, when he was the Russians' substitute for God, there must have been thousands of babies named after him? What are they going to do about that?

There must be hundreds of grown men in Russia, born when Stalin was a hero, named Stalin Jonesky, Stalin Smithsky, Stalin Brownsky, etc. After all, it'd be natural thing to do. In our country, we've got hundreds of George Washington Smiths, Roosevelt Browns, and such like.

This is bound to be a ticklish problem in Russia right now. After a man has been called Stalin Smithsky for 20 years or more, it's mighty hard for him to switch with a straight face and say, "My parents made a grave historical error, my name is really Nikita Smithsky and I hope you'll bear it in mind." You know that when a friend yells, "Hey, Stalin, let's grab a bite of borsch and go bowling," he's bound to respond, before he remembers his first name is really not Stalin, starting week before last. And what's Nikita Smithsky going to do when whoever re-places Nikita Khrushchev comes into power?

There are a lot of funny things happening in Russia these days, and the rest of the world is missing a bet if it doesn't start laughing at them.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Never Neglect
A Child's Cold, Says Health Dept.

Now that school days are routine and winter is starting to push fall aside, there will probably be the usual increase in communicable diseases common to children.

Thousands of unnecessary cases of communicable diseases and deaths could be prevented every year in Texas, if all parents would only realize the danger of the common cold.

Colds, especially a child's cold, should never be neglected.

But how many times have you heard a parent mention that Junior or Susie "have the sniffles" but they "seemed" well enough to go to school.

And what's more they will continue to go to school as long as they're able to walk, and only when they become seriously ill does the careless parent call the family physician.

But by that time a good many children in Junior or Susie's classroom have become exposed, thus setting up a chain of sickness and time lost from school.

And with the threat of the various types of flu hanging over the State, the common sense protection of keeping a child home when he or she is not feeling up to par makes more sense than ever.

A child who is sent to school feeling tired, perhaps because of inadequate meals, is handicapped. He not only lacks the aptitude for learning, but he is running the chance of falling prey to disease germs.

A youngster who is allowed to go to school suffering from a cold or the flu, runs the risk of serious complications. These troubles may develop into pneumonia, or if his resistance is low, signs of tuberculosis may appear.

However, when a slight illness is promptly and properly cared for, the child is usually well in a day or so.

The teacher can also be alert to notice if a child isn't feeling well. Of course, she is not expected to diagnose disease, nor is it her province to give health examinations, but she can recognize the common signs of pallor, a cold, and fever.

For his own protection and of other children in the classroom, a sick child should not be allowed to stay in school.

Devil's River Philosopher Figures There's Profit In Education, The Same As There Is In Fertilizer

Editor's Note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitter-weed ranch on Devil's River discusses education this week. At least that's what it sounds like he's doing.

Dear editor:

I never do object to a new idea. I don't do anything about one, haven't done anything especially about all the old ones, but I don't mind one being brought up.

Consequently, I was very interested in an economist's idea the other day that the government ought to pay college students to go to school. He said it would show a profit, that the difference in what a college graduate earns over what a non-college man earns would amount to enough to pay the government back in increased income taxes, hence the program wouldn't really cost anything. I guess it's like putting fertilizer on a crop; the cost of the fertilizer is more than made up in increased yields,

Every 24 hours, a half million tons of oil are moved from the fields to Texas refineries.

Texas has oil reserves of more than 18 billion barrels,

It costs an average of $11.40 per foot to drill an oil well in Texas,

A gas well drilled in the Gulf of Mexico will cost $88 per foot, or an average of $973,000.

Some 6,500 companies engage in the oil business in Texas, operating 200,000 wells in more than 7,000 fields.

There are 63,000 miles of oil pipeline in Texas.

There are more than 4.4 million motor vehicles in Texas,

Texas with 59 refineries processes more oil than any other state.

Texas has about 46 per cent of the U.S. gas reserves.

Oil and gas are produced in 196 of Texas' 254 counties.

if you don't mind me putting higher education and fertilizer in the same economic bracket, although understand I haven't checked with universities or the fertilizer people either about this.

I got to thinking about this idea, along with another idea I also read, namely that the old age pension level be lowered from 65 to 45.

Here's the way the two ideas would work; public schools and parents would take care of a person until he finished high school, then the government would pay him to go to college for four more years, with maybe a year or two of graduate work thrown in. Then with a year or two in the army or Peace Corps, this would get him up to the age of say 25. Then he'd be on his own till 45, and I don't think this is unreasonable. Under the free enterprise system a man ought to earn his living part of the way, just to prove the system is still sound.

Texas farmers and ranchers operate some 278,000 tractors.

KNOW YOUR NAVY

I Give You Texas

By Boyce House
Have you ever searched your memory for the very earliest events which you can recall?

Some of the events in my life are so early that actually I can not recall them; but, from having heard them related vividly, I feel that I remember them.

Such as the time that, carrying my pink parasol, I marched down the church aisle, the parasol still raised, to the very first row.

And the custom I had, regardless of what the congregation might be singing, of rendering, "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder"—good and loud, too.

Also, when my sister Vivian was a baby, I would watch her gurgling with delight as my mother pretended to nibble her tiny toes.

Any man who isn't willing to work 20 years, provided of course he's on a five-day week, six-hour day, ain't worth his salt.

This system of paying kids to go to college would enable everybody to go and would increase the income and raise the national educational level, although of course it wouldn't improve the athletic system any, as I understand athletes are already being paid to go to college. I guess though we could raise their pay, just to keep the thing in balance.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

One day, the baby's cries brought Mother into the room and she asked, "What's sister crying for?" My reply was, "I bit her toes, like you did."

All these events however are only hearsay.

The easiest way to begin is at the beginning so—

I was born in Piggott, Arkansas, the oldest of three children, the others being my sisters, Vivian and Marion. My father was N. E. House; my mother's maiden name was Margaret O'Brien. My father was the editor and publisher of the Banner; and he set, by hand, most of the type which made up each week's issue.

Piggott was the county seat of Clay County in the extreme northeastern corner of the State, with Missouri on the north and also on the east. We moved away before I was old enough to remember but, during my early boyhood, we revisited Piggott several times. I recall meeting Dr. Thornton who, as it was expressed, "ushered me into the world."

When I can first remember, we (father, mother, Vivian and I) were living in Doe Run, Mo. I understand that this was in the lead-mining region and was a rather turbulent town. My father ran a cafe, a fact which I can recall.

There is also the recollection of a clicking mechanism into which a man would thrust a newly-purchased cigar for the purpose of clipping off the end. In a spirit of scientific investigation, I thrust in a finger and, with a scream, withdrew the bleeding digit. My father ran over, pale of face, but the wound was a mere nick.

There was a customer who was always giving me a coin or a trinket. One day, he came in and

Devil's River News-Sonora, Texas, Thursday, December 7, 1961

I ran toward him. And then an inexplicable thing happened. My father seized a baseball bat and ran the man out of the place! I understood. It was not until several years later that I learned the reason: the man had been drinking and in his hand, was an open knife; consequently, my father had feared I might be harmed.

TEXAS LAWMEN

RANGER JAMES BUCKNER BARRY

"If there's fightin' to be done... get at it!"

James Buckner (Buck) Barry never shirked a duty. But somehow, duty as he saw it usually included at least some fighting. Coming to Texas from North Carolina in 1845, Buck served in the Army of the Republic of Texas under John Coffee Hays. With the outbreak of the Mexican War, he joined the Texas Rangers and headed South for a little faster action. He got it, also a severe wound at Monterrey. Mustered out, Barry convalesced on the banks of the Trinity, with only Indian horse thieves to keep things lively. Such calm couldn't last, so he took on the job of Sheriff of Navarro County, serving three terms. Then Indian fighting seemed to offer renewed opportunities for action, and he was commissioned by Governor Sam Houston to organize a frontier defense company. This action merged into a prominent role in the Civil War, with a rise to Lieutenant Colonel. In his later years Buck Barry reluctantly consented to battle with words only, and represented the Bosque District in the State Legislature... another Ranger who helped to shape the frontier wilderness into the great state of Texas.

Today Texas owe much to the lawmen who brought peace to the frontier, and to industry and commerce, bringing prosperity and pleasure. The brewing industry has provided community revenues, payrolls and the refreshment of moderation. In Texas "Beer Belongs," and the United States Brewers Association is constantly at work with brewers, wholesalers and retailers to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly and law-abiding conditions.

HOTTEST NOVEMBER IN FORD HISTORY!

And here's what started the heat wave!

Last month more Americans bought Fords than in any November in history. The blazing success of the long Ford line was end-to-end, all across the country and up and down it, too. ■ Everywhere the people flocked into their Ford Dealers and bought smart new Falcons, and the new Falcon Squire, the glittering swift Galaxies, the famous Ford Station Wagons and the hot Thunderbirds. And they poured in to see and buy up the brand-new Fairlans just introduced. ■ There are four magic reasons—why behind the smashing success of the long Ford line for 1962. First of all is utterly modern styling, the fresh crisp lines that are now being so widely copied by other car-makers, the smart look that dominates the industry. Second is absolute power in eleven kinds of engines, giving you anything you could want in engine options. Third is total economy—every Ford model is priced directly at your pocketbook, and every Ford, large, medium or small, gives you gasoline mileage outstanding in its class. Fourth is the service-saving concept—every Ford car is built to cut down maintenance worries and problems, with service-saving features other cars may have some day. ■ Ford leadership from Falcons to Thunderbirds is founded on trend-setting innovations... The hot ideas come from Ford. And at the heart of Ford success is an almost revolutionary new concept of quality... most serious and direct concern with the actual part-by-part quality. For the hot trends in the hot cars, for a new experience in quality, and for the best buys on the American Road, see your Ford Dealer.

PRODUCTS OF MOTOR COMPANY

NOW THERE ARE FOUR CLASSES OF CARS...AND ONLY FORD HAS ALL FOUR!

COMPACT CLASS:

FORD FALCON

This class includes cars with 106- to 114-inch wheelbase. Most popular by far (a million happy owners!) is the Ford Falcon. Falcon is America's lowest-priced* 6-passenger car, set a 25-year record for Sixes or Eights in last spring's Mobilgas Economy Run, gives you a choice of 13 models, including the Futura and new Falcon Squire wagon.

FAIRLANE CLASS:

FORD FAIRLANE

The Ford Fairlane is the first member of a new class which combines the advantages of both compacts and big cars... you get big car room, ride and performance... compact savings and maneuverability. Priced below many compacts, Fairlane even rivals some in gas economy. Has twice-a-year maintenance introduced by the Galaxie.

FULL-SIZE CLASS:

GALAXIE BY FORD

The class for families who want big car comfort, performance and prestige. Value leader is the Ford Galaxie—which has every essential feature of far costlier fine cars. With the optional Thunderbird 390 V-8 engine, a Galaxie will outperform America's most expensive luxury cars. Requires servicing only twice a year, or every 6,000 miles.

LUXURY CLASS:

FORD THUNDERBIRD

The top class—cars for people who want the very finest. First of the trim-size luxury cars, the 4-passenger Thunderbird is the most distinctive car in this class. Its styling set the trend for an entire generation of cars and now finds a new elegance in the Landau. And Thunderbird's performance is just this side of flight.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE COMMENTS

GOING- The eventful ole year of 1961 is on its last leg and what a year? World wide there has never been one like it. About the only peaceful spots in the world today are in our own back yards. Nation wide, we find the economy of the country holding up remarkably well even though most of it is coming from Government spending. State wide, taxes seem to be a permanent arrangement and now the sales tax. Sutton County wide, we find more grass on the ground than perhaps ever, prices fair (except sheep) so conditions are good. This brings us down to where we live, Sonora, Texas, U.S.A.

Sonora continues to improve, as a place at which to look as well as a place in which to live. There are very few small cities, as Sonora, that has what we have and furthermore we continue to improve. The Twin Oaks Motel is open, twenty five units, and it is a nice addition to any town. The Golf Course is open and what an improvement! Remember what that piece of land looked like last year? Now a radio station, one powerful enough to be an area station! The home building program hasn't ceased since the fall of 1958. The Kirby house is finished and the family has moved in. The Harris house is just about ready for occupancy. The Duke Wilson home is well under construction and more building planned.

HUNTERS- This seems to be the most successful hunting season Sutton County has ever had, from the standpoint of the hunters and from the economic angle, as well. Nearly every hunter reports good luck, some hitting the jack pot. The deer kill has not only been good but many turkeys have been brought in. And from another angle, the land owners of Sutton County have taken in more this year than ever and the business institutions of Sonora report a fine business, particularly the Motels, Cafes, service stations and grocery stores. On the opening day of the season there was more than a million dollars investment in airplanes at our Berger Port. Two DC 3's and several smaller planes. Most of these planes plan to land here several times during the hunting season.

HOUSING- The housing activity of your CC has been terrific this past two weeks. With the Atlantic crew moving back in, the Thompson drilling group moving in and the normal influx of citizens, this has been a pretty busy office. Most of Thompsons personnel live in trailer house and a good part of Atlantics.

The Thompson Drilling Co. is drilling a deep test a few miles northwest of Loma Alta, on the Earnest Quigg ranch. The test is scheduled for 18,000 to 25,000 feet. It is said that this rig is the third largest in the world. The Atlantic group include most of those who were here last year. It was almost like old home week when they returned.

CHRISTMAS shopping season in Sonora was officially proclaimed by his honor, the Mayor, last Saturday afternoon, the merchants of Sonora say they are ready. The merchants make two pertinent statements; one, Son Allison says the youth can learn in two ways, do as Les says or, don't do as Son does. This column hopes to see golf installed as a sport in our high school soon. Just think, very few ever play football beyond their high school days while you will play golf, where ever you go, as long as you live.

The women folks of Sonora are really getting the big break. Just think, they will hear something now besides the weather, Castro and taxes. It'll be Golf, Golf, Golf. That's why they call it the hoof and mouth disease, walk it all day and talk it all night. They say: Wanda Allison

FOR FREE- Les Strawn, who is highly qualified, has offered to teach golf lessons to any high school student on his days off. Strawn shoots in the low seven-ies and has done some preening. Son Allison says the youth can learn in two ways, do as Les year to back up any merchandise they sell and two, that they do appreciate Sutton County folks looking over their stocks at their convenience. So, when buying for Christmas or any other occasion, please give your home town merchant a chance.

The Christmas party last Saturday did not seem to draw as many people as that of last year. Some were wondering why? This year registration was from eight a.m. while last year it was from three p.m. Another thing, some fifty to sixty Sonora citizens were searching for Black Tail deer, west of the Pecos and then, many from Sonora were in San Angelo, hoping to witness San Angelo whurping Wichita Falls. At least twenty two people were glad they came.

Dr. Browne Speaks On Mental Health At Elliott PTA

Dr. Charles F. Browne was principal speaker at the L. W. Elliott School PTA meeting at the school Tuesday night, December 5. Dr. Browne spoke on mental health, giving an account of the different types of mental illness.

He cited as the most common type, one probably shared by all in our modern times, emotional tension. Then he listed the psychoneurotic or neurotic person.

A psychotic person, he explained, suffers from personality disorganization. This may mean he is a depressive, usually either up or down in his emotions; a paranoid who feels something is wrong; or may suffer from schizophrenia or split personality.

Finally he described the senile psychotic who generally has a mental illness caused by a blood clot or some other brain injury.

Dr. Browne emphasized that mental illness can be helped and should receive immediate attention once it is detected. He stated that when a person is experiencing an abnormal condition he should seek help from his minister or his physician.

Miss Mina Maria Miller of Laidlaw Publishing Company spoke to a group of Sonora teachers at L. W. Elliott Elementary School this week on the use of the new English text books.

Miss Miller offered many helps to each teacher in the elementary and junior high schools.

Teachers from L. W. Elliott, Central and Sonora Junior High attended the meeting.
