Chamber Of Commerce Director Ballots In Mail To Members For Voting

In spite of the extreme cold weather a good crowd was present for the Chamber of Commerce membership meeting at the school cafeteria Thursday evening, January 4. Dr. Charles F. Browne, president, presided over the meeting which was called in order to discuss problems of Chamber members and incorporate these problems into the Chamber's program for the coming year.

Vestel Askew, a director of the Chamber and second vice-president of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association, discussed problems confronting ranchmen in the area. Among these he numbered the ever-present problem of parasites, explaining the proposed screw worm eradication program. He also told of progress in combating brucellosis and told of the

Some Foreign Ranch Employees Covered By S.S.

There has been some misunderstanding by farmers and ranchers as to which foreign born agricultural employees are covered by social security, according to Floyd B. Ellington, manager of the San Angelo Social Security District Office.

If you are a farmer or rancher and contract with a foreign government for specific temporary agricultural workers, then wages paid to these employees are not taxable wages under the Social Security Act. However, wages paid to other foreign born persons who are admitted to the United States under a temporary Visa are covered if they meet the agricultural employment tests.

A farm or ranch worker is covered by social security if he is paid $150 or more cash wages in a year by one employer or if he works for one employer on 20 or more days in the year for cash wages figured on a time basis.

Ellington emphasized that employers are requested by law to keep accurate payroll records in order to report the employee's name and social security number as it appears on his social security card along with the amount of wages paid during the year.

For further information about social security provisions contact your San Angelo social security office or a representative from this office when he is in your locality.

very real danger of grass fires. Livestock shipping problems were also discussed. Problems of the tourist trade were discussed by H. V. (Buzzie) Stokes, chamber manager. He emphasized the importance of routing more traffic over the two major highways, U.S. 290 and U.S. 277, on which Sonora is located. Also brought out was the necessity of each Sonora businessman's acting as a salesman for his town. Cecil Westerman discussed problems of the retail merchants. He stressed the importance of merchants working together to combat their mutual problems of out-of-town trading and discount houses. Only by co-operating and by becoming competitive against these two main problems can they be solved, he said.

Broncs Lose 33-24 In Season Opener At Junction

The Sonora Broncos dropped their first conference game of the 1962 season in Junction Friday night, January 5. The Broncos trailed in the first quarter 18 to 12 but rallied in the second period to lead the Eagles 33 to 24. Again in the third period the Broncos were in the lead 42 to 35 only to lose 51 to 49 in a final burst by the Eagles in the fourth quarter.

Junction's Martin Willis was high point man with 15 points. Bob Nevill and Primo Gonzales each scored 14 for Sonora.

Sonora's B team won over Junction B 54-32.

Other conference games Friday night found Ozona downing Eldorado 51-36 while Big Lake was idle. Tuesday night's play saw Ozona take the conference lead with a 52-30 win over Junction while Big Lake defeated Eldorado 52-35. Sonora was idle.

The Broncos are in Ozona this weekend participating in the Ozona Basketball Tournament.

GAA's Active In Sponsoring SHS Activities

The Girls' Athletic Association at Sonora High School is one of the more active organizations in the school. Main goal of the GAA is to provide the opportunity for students to express themselves, whether through school spirit, dramatics, athletics or any of the many activities sponsored by the organization.

Proceeds earned in the various fund raising activities are used to promote school spirit, to sponsor all girls' athletic teams, aid in school dances, school trips, etc.

This year's football season was climaxed with a charter bus trip to the bi-district game at Wink. The bus was made available to all GAA members. Such accomplishments certainly make this a worthwhile organization.

The next public event to be sponsored by the GAA will be an Easter Parade on April 17.

Poll Tax Sales Show Increase But Still Slow As January 31 Nears

Poll tax sales at the office of Sutton County Tax Assessor Collector Herman E. Moore have only reached 407 as of Wednesday morning, according to Mrs. Zilpha Wheelis, chief office deputy.

Sales on a comparative date in 1961, an off-year politically, were only 336 while in 1960, the last major election year, sales were 640 at this time. Total votes in the Democratic primary in 1960 was 974.

There is only one contested race this year, that for County Judge. Candidates are incumbent J. W. Elliott and D. L. Locklin, retired ranchman. Other offices to be filled and announced candidates are: County Clerk, F. L. McKinney; County Treasurer, Mrs. E. Lucille Hutcherson; Justice of the Peace, Alfred Cooper; Commissioner of Precinct Two, Collier Shurley; Commissioner of Precinct Four, R. L. Hardgrave. All are incumbents.

Wednesday, January 31, is the final date for paying poll taxes and February 5 is final day for filing as a candidate for office subject to the May 5 Democratic Primary.

Black Bandits Win Championship In Intramural Girls' Cage Meet

The Black Bandits, coached by Mike Evans and Gil Trainer, became champions of the Girls' Athletic Association intramural basketball tournament at the school gymnasium Saturday night. The Black Bandits won the championship by defeating the second-place Running Maids, coached by Julio Samaniego and Primo Gonzales, in the Saturday night finals. Winner in the consolation flight was the Kandy Kanes, coached by Johnny Merck and Dick McMillan.

Named to the All-Tournament Team were Guards Joyce Hearn, Black Bandits; Alma Sanchez, Running Maids; and Carla Whitworth, Kandy Kanes; and Forwards Margaret Sanchez, Running Maids; Diana Cahill, Black Bandits and Allison Esby, Kandy Kanes.

The Boobs and the Twisters, teams composed of town ladies, fought to 9-9 deadlock. They received gift certificates for hamburgers and cokes. Certificates were awarded the winning teams and the champions and All-Tournament award winners received hamburger and coke certificates.

In preliminary play the Mustangs, coached by Arthur Bermea and Augustin Chavez, defeated the Black Panthers, coached by Tiny Noriega; the Running Maids downed Tee's Team; the Black Bandits won over the Fillies, coached by John David Fields and Jerry Anderson; and the Kandy Kanes drew a bye.

In consolation playoffs the Black Panthers and Kandy Kanes defeated Tee's Team and the Fillies, respectively.

The Girls' Athletic Association made a profit of about $80.00, according to Miss Wanda Shelmutt, organization sponsor. She also expressed the club's gratitude to all participants and spectators for making the intramural tournament a success. "We feel it provided clean entertainment or everyone," she said. "The players experienced a few sore muscles but learned a good lesson in physical fitness and sportsmanship, which was the major objective of the tournament, and everyone had a lot of fun."

Devil's River Philosopher Not Surprised That Scientists Can't Detect Life On Other Planets

Editor's note. The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Devil's River discusses a new scientific research problem this week, not too scientifically.

Dear editor:

It's amazing sometimes to find out what scientists are up to. For example, the other day I read that a group of scientists for several months now have been spending their time listening for radio signals from other planets, on the assumption there is life out there somewhere and if so maybe those people have discovered radio.

The result of the listening was bleak, the scientists reporting: "We listened for but did not find intelligent radio signals from other worlds."

It's not for me to be advising scientists, but I'd like to say they shouldn't give up.

Look at it this way: say there are similar scientists on some planet far out into space and right now they've hit on the same idea, trying to find out if there is life on some other planet too. All right. They've got their radios tuned in, they're switching back and forth on the dial, and suddenly they pick up a broadcast from this Earth.

Can you be sure it'd sound intelligent? What makes you think they wouldn't turn off their sets and report: "We listened for but did not find intelligent radio signals from other worlds?"

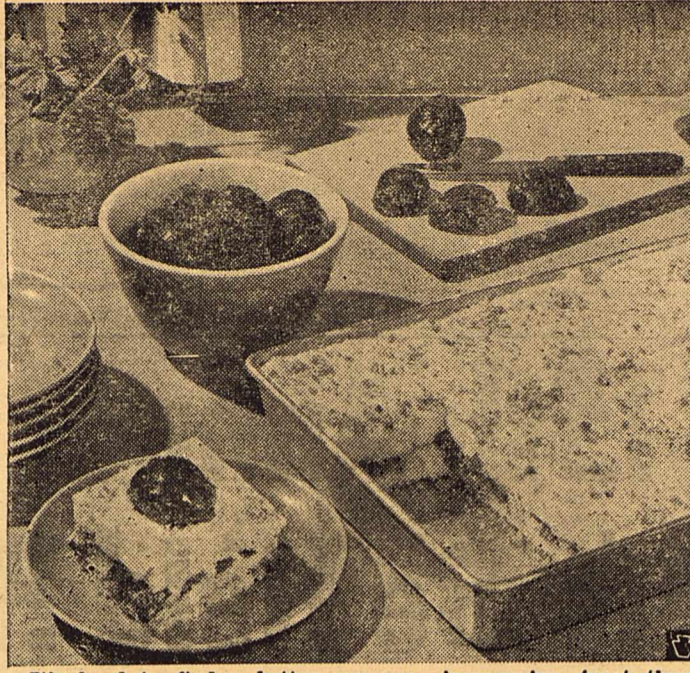

What if they tuned in during the last ten seconds of a professional football game? During a political campaign? What if they picked up one of Khrushchev's six-hour speeches? Or one of Castro's ten-hour jobs? Or a guitar player performing a singing commercial? Or right in the middle of an all-out war?

Man sometimes gets a little conceited about his accomplishments, but it's entirely possible, if there is life on other far distant planets, that those folks have already found out about us and are keeping it quiet, have pulled down their broadcasting towers, outlawed radio, and are trying to keep away from us just as long as possible. It's something to think about.

On the other hand, they may be in worse shape than we are and maybe we're the ones who ought to be keeping quiet. Sometimes people are a lot better off than they realize.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Juicy Purple Plums Enhance Dessert

It's hard to find a better—or more inexpensive—treat than "Society Dessert" to serve at a club meeting in your home. If there's any left over, the family will go for it, too.

Graham cracker crumbs form the base and topping for a filling of canned purple plums, chopped pecans and whipped evaporated milk in a lemon gelatin mixture. A luscious purple plum half atop each chilled serving provides an elegant touch.

Rich-looking canned purple plums, which have been scarce for the last two years, are now available in good supply in grocery stores to add delightful flavor to many desserts—and entrees.

Society Dessert

- 1 can (14 1/2 oz.) evaporated milk
- 1 can (1 lb. 15 oz.) purple plums in extra heavy syrup
- 1/2 cup chopped pecans
- 2 packages lemon gelatin
- 3 cups hot water
- 1/4 cup fresh lemon juice
- 1 tablespoon grated lemon rind
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 1/2 cups graham cracker, ginger or vanilla cookie crumbs

Pour evaporated milk into refrigerator tray; chill until icy cold and partially frozen. Drain plums. Pit and cut into small pieces. Add nuts. Dissolve gelatin in hot water and chill until partially set. Whip until light and fluffy. Add lemon juice, rind and sugar. Whip chilled milk and fold into gelatin mixture. Line bottom of 13 x 9-inch pan with crumbs, reserving 1/4 cup for top. Pour in half of gelatin mixture. Arrange plum mixture over it. Spoon in remaining gelatin and sprinkle with remaining crumbs. Chill until firm. Cut into squares to serve. Garnish with purple plum half, if desired. Makes 35 servings.

Writer Says Javelina Not Too Dangerous

The javelina or collared peccary is a potent but not necessarily a dangerous game animal for hunters, according to Dan Glepper, outdoors editor of the SAN ANTONIO EXPRESS-NEWS, writing in the current issue of TEXAS GAME AND FISH magazine.

Klepper describes the hunting of the javelinas west of San Antonio, with dogs and .22 rifles and pistols.

"The stories about javelinas 'treeing' hunters usually are nothing but exaggerations of the truth or incidents involving hunters throughly unfamiliar with the animals," Klepper says. "In most instances when these near-sighted pigs burst from cover in all directions, two or three invariably race toward the hunter,

Jan. 31 Deadline For Employers To File W-2's

Employers, Internal Revenue service has a reminder for you: Employees should receive two copies of a Withholding Statement, Form W-2, on or before Wednesday, January 31, 1962.

S. Baker Mallett, Administrative Officer, of the Internal Revenue Service at San Angelo, said, "This statement shows the total wages paid and the income tax and social security tax withheld if any, during the calendar year 1961."

Total wages shown on an employee's W-2 must include amounts received as sick pay from his employer, even though no tax has been withheld on such sick pay. Sick pay is not required to be shown separately.

If it becomes necessary to correct a W-2 after it has been given to an employee, a revised statement must be issued and marked "corrected by employer."

Twenty-two Texas public high schools have taken advantage of a new, State Board of Education Standard which authorizes state-accredited high schools to advance superior and talented students at their own rate through advanced standing and advanced credit examinations.

who doesn't realize that this is a natural occurrence."

Klepper also thinks that after the hunter has retold the story a few times it has been embellished quite a bit to make the javelina look much more dangerous than it really is.

Although the season is closed on javelina in many counties now, there are still some areas in the state where shooting the javelinas is permitted.

Balanced Budget Up To Congress, Says O. C. Fisher

By Congressman O. C. Fisher

THE NEW SESSION of the Congress, coming as it does on an election year, is sure to be a lively one. The President's State of the Union message outlined a number of domestic proposals that are sure to provoke controversy. His reference to our defense posture was reassuring and his reaffirmation of our determination to protect Berlin at any cost was timely and unequivocal.

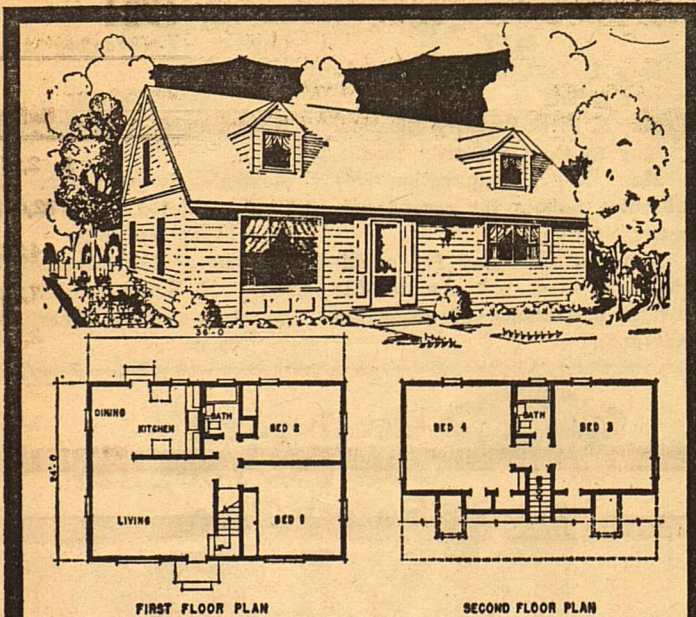

While promising to offer a balanced budget for the next fiscal year which begins next July, the President's message bristled with plans for new and expanded programs which if enacted will do violence to most any budget plan.

It will be the responsibility of the Congress to take a long, close look at nonessential spending measures and then attempt to cut the cloth to fit the pattern. Holding the line will not be easy, however.

IF A BALANCED BUDGET is to be achieved there are several steps that should be taken. Among these are: (1) unpack the Rules Committee; (2) repeal the depression-patterned Depressed Areas Act, which has already become quite a boondoggle (for example, under this program $435,000 is being expended in 16 Mississippi counties to train people how to drive farm tractors); (3) repeal the unsound features of the multi-billion dollar housing bonanza bill enacted last year; and (4) cut two or three billion dollars out of foreign aid, confining it in the future to Nations on OUR side and only where it is clearly to our self-interest.

Such a program would be progressive and would put America on the high road toward fiscal soundness and realistic planning. If after enacting these needed reforms and a few other essential measures plus the necessary annual appropriation bills, the Congress would pack up and go home, American taxpayers could breathe a sigh of relief. The American people want and are entitled to a breathing spell.

HIGH LIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS FROM THE STATE CAPITOL

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association
Substantial progress has been made by the Legislators toward enactment of Gov. Price Daniel's program.

Lawmakers seeking re-election this spring are diligently at work. They want to be home by the filing deadline . . . Feb. 5.

Loans: House of Representatives sent a much-amended loan regulatory bill to the Senate. Bill would set up tight supervision

YEARS AGO

Saturday, June 1, 1895

There will be a meeting at the court house Tuesday night to make arrangements for the celebration of the Fourth of July. Every body should attend.

J. M. Cusenbary has opened a fruit, confectionery and ice cream parlor next to the post office. See card in this issue.

The post master general has granted the petition asking for a mail route from Sonora to Junction City twice a week. Bids will be received up to June 8th for the carrying of said mail. Particulars may be obtained at the post office.

Those who favor organizing a debating society are requested to meet at the court house Saturday night June 1st, at 8 o'clock p.m. Messrs. S. D. Foote, W. W. Rasor and others will address the meeting.

A school trustee is to be elected to day.

Ben Robertson and John Hall were in town Thursday from down the draw and tell remarkable stories of the high water. Nothing definite has been heard from Prosser's, Baker's or further down the river.

Saturday, June 8, 1895

Mat Karnes was in for supplies Tuesday.

David Adams of the North Llano was in Sonora Thursday, making inquiries about getting a postoffice established at his place.

J. H. Morrison the windmill man came in town Friday from Mollenhauer and Hedden's ranch on Buffalo Draw of the North Llano. Mr. Morrison had with him 2 flint lock gun barrels. These with 21 others of similar make were found this week by Wm. Mollenhauer on his range in a mot. How they came to be there or what history they could tell will probably never be known. We hope to obtain more particulars of the find next week.

over those who lend in amounts less than $1,500. Exceptions are banks, credit unions, savings and loan associations and various kinds of cooperative credit groups.

Those exempt from the regulatory law would be limited to 10 per cent interest per year. All loans over $1,500 would likewise be held to 10 per cent.

House bill allows a 3 per cent per month charge on loans under $100 . . . 2½ per cent on the part of the loan from $100 to $200 . . . 2 per cent on $200 to $500 . . . and 10 per cent on the part of the loan between $500 and $1,500.

When interest allowed on a loan over $20 is less than 4¢, the lender can charge 4¢ in lieu of interest.

Rural Roads: Senate passed the proposal by Sen. Neville Colson of Navasota to cut the spending on farm-to-market road construction-improvement by $17,500,000 a year. This amount will be used for construction of secondary and primary highways.

A House rural bloc on the Agriculture Committee favored a smaller reduction. They preferred a ten year graduated cut . . . to reach the goal set by Governor Daniel, Texas Farm Bureau, the County Judge and Commissioners Association and the Texas Good Roads Association.

Tourism: Large crowds turned out for the Senate and House committee meeting on these bills: (1) to appropriate $300,000 for advertising for tourists; (2) for expansion of the juvenile parole system; (3) and for repairs to the San Jacinto Monument.

Opposition came largely from advertising people who felt the Highway Department isn't the proper supervisor of an advertising program.

TOURISTS READ TO TRAVEL—Formation of the Texas Tourist Council became official at a luncheon here which honored state representatives. Council urged appropriation of $300,000 for out of state advertising.

Tourist Council elected as its president James Gaines of San Antonio. Vice-presidents are Glen Alexander of Corpus Christi, Everett Fulgham of Lubbock, Ed Leach of Galveston, Charlie Meeker of Dallas, T. P. Newhall of Greenville, John Ben Shepard of Odessa and John Simpson of Austin. Ed St. John of Austin was elected secretary.

Speaker James A. Turman told the 500 luncheon guests that the old joke "it is easier to pick a tourist than a bale of cotton" is about to go stale. He said Texas must let the rest of the nation know what it has to offer.

TEXAS CALLED BOOK DESERT—University of Texas Chancellor Dr. Harry Ransom told members of the Texas Commission on Higher Education that the State of Texas is laboring under the label of "the book desert of the United States."

Dr. Ransom made the statement in support of a plea from Dr. F. L. McDonald, President of Lamar State College of Technology, for a more realistic appropriation recommendation for libraries in Texas' 19 state colleges.

Reappointed to the State Board of Examiners for Teacher Education were Dr. Glenn Barnett of the University of Texas; Mrs. Kate Bell of Houston Public Schools; Dr. Arvin N. Donner of the University of Houston; Dr. Frank Hubert of Texas A. & M.; Dr. Herbert LaGrone of Texas Christian University; Dr. Emmett D. Smith of West Texas State College, and Mrs. Florence Vaughn of Tyler Public Schools.

The Board also appointed a 16-member Junior College Study Commission on Budget Procedures and Reporting. This to comply with a bill for appropriations to public junior colleges passed in the summer session of the 57th Legislature.

1962 Will Be Year of Challenge for 2 Texas 4-H Club Winners

Garland Weeks

Joyce Rodgers

The new year will be one of challenge for two Texas 4-H'ers who were named the state's top boy and girl leadership award winners in 1961. Garland Weeks, 19, of Wichita Falls, and Joyce Rodgers, 16, of Brownwood, will be seeking to do even better in their 4-H Club work than they did previously.

Weeks was awarded a trip to the 40th National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago by the Sears-Roebuck Foundation. Miss Rodgers received a special citation.

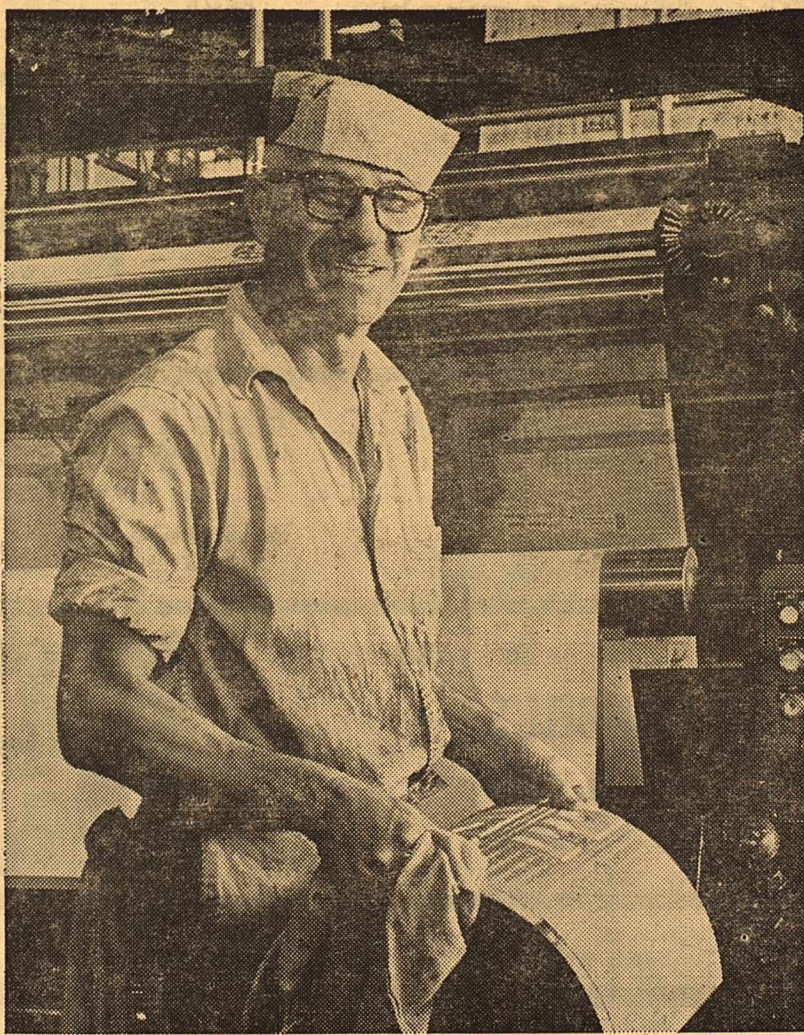

Weeks was chairman of the 1960 State 4-H Roundup held at Texas A & M. He has held every office in his local club. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glynn C. Weeks, who operate a farm in Wichita county.

Miss Rodgers, who was co-chairman of the Brown County 4-H Council in 1960, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Rodgers.

James T. Griffin, president of the Sears-Roebuck Foundation, was presented the crested clover plaque in appreciation of outstanding service by Sears-Roebuck to the 4-H youth of the nation.

Dr. E. T. York, administrator of the Federal Extension Service, made the presentation during the congress.

Thank you, Texas Newspapers!

For 20 years, Texas newspapers have been giving the government free space in which to advertise U. S. Savings Bonds.

You've seen the ads: you save more than money with U. S. Savings Bonds. Those ads have sold an impressive number of bonds in Texas, bonds that have helped, and are helping, your government defend freedom at a precarious moment in history, when freedom is in desperate need of defending.

When you buy these bonds you serve well the cause of liberty. You enable your country to build up her own defenses without doing damage to her economy. You insure the future for this and succeeding generations.

The space occupied by the ads that sold those bonds was donated to your government — and that means to you — by the newspapers of Texas.

We thought you'd like to know.

"The public-spirited newspapers of Texas have made an important contribution to the well-being of this country," says Ed Gossett, Co-Chairman of the Texas State Savings Bond Committee.

"We are happy to salute the generous newspapers of this State. They have done their part, and more, in giving the public an understanding of the importance of Savings Bonds — to individual buyers, and to the cause of freedom. And they have certainly made this Committee's job easier."

You can imagine the mail is heavy at a newspaper office, especially with a friendly evening journal such as ours.

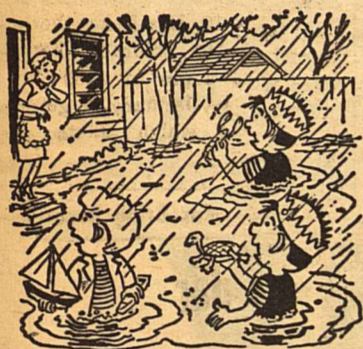

One of our most faithful mail contributors is Ken Zeigler who manages things in Tempe for Arizona Public Service.

TOWN of 1,000 persons in the exact proportion in which the world population is actually divided.

In such a town of 1,000 there would be only 60 Americans!

And these 60 Americans would receive half the income of the entire town.

Only about 330 of the remaining 940 townfolk would be classified as Christians. Fewer than 100 would be Protestant; some 230 Roman Catholics.

At least 80 townspeople would be practicing Communists and 370 others under Communist domination.

The 60 Americans would have an average life expectancy of 70 years; the other 940 less than 40 years.

The Americans would produce 15 times as many possessions per person as all the rest of their neighbors.

The Americans would produce 16 percent of the town's food supply and, although they'd eat 72 percent above the maximum food requirements, they would either eat most of what they grew, or store it for their own further use . . . at enormous cost.

There would be 53 telephones in this one-town world . . . Americans would have 28 of them!

The Americans would also enjoy a disproportionate share of electric power, coal, fuel, steel, and general equipment.

The lowest income group among the Americans would be better off by far than the average of the other townsmen.

The 60 Americans and about 200 other representing Western Europe and a few classes in South America, South Africa, Australia and Japan would be relatively well off, by comparison.

Half of the inhabitants of our one-town world would be ignorant of Jesus Christ, but more than half would have heard and would continue to hear Karl Marx, Lenin, Stalin and Khrushchev.

Could this one-town world survive?

If you were one of the 60 American townfolk, what would you do to preserve this tiny world?

Chances are you'd be plenty worried about the problem.

Chances are you'd do SOMETHING.

What do you think it would be?

State Health Dept.
Lab Services
Show Progress

Laboratory services offered by the Texas State Department of Health have come a long way since a State chemist and bacteriologist first began work at the tail-end of the Nineteenth Century.

Since then, needed services have been added as the State grew and progressed. During the same period of growth, many local health departments installed their own laboratories to meet the needs in their areas.

During World War II the demand for decentralization of laboratory services, especially serology tests, was enhanced by Selective Service Commission. Quicker results were required on venereal disease serological tests because sending the samples all the way to Austin and waiting for results often took several days—delaying the draft program in some areas of the State.

Also, personnel at the local laboratories became aware of the need for greater standardization among the regional laboratories.

For these reasons, a system of regional laboratories was established. As financing became available the number of laboratories and services provided were expanded, until today there are 22 laboratories located outside of Austin serving nearly the entire population of Texas. Areas without regional services continue to submit specimens for testing to Austin.

The bulk of regional laboratory services include serological studies, water and milk bacteriology and some identification of disease organisms related to communicable disease control.

Biologics production—manufacture of vaccines—and rabies identification, except in Houston, are performed solely in the Austin laboratory.

Standardization is maintained

Hunt Success
On Game Areas
44.6 Percent

Game management area hunting during the past season showed a 44.6 percent hunter success, according to figures just released by Howard Dodgen, executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

There were 1,578 hunting on five game management areas of the state. They harvested 704 deer for the season.

These were hunters who made application for permits to hunt on these management areas, for the removal of surplus game. There were 17,450 applications, 2,136 permits issued, and 1,578 hunters showing. Biologists had estimated a desired kill of 825 animals, with 704 finally reported. There were 355 bucks and 849 doe harvested.

Best hunter success was on the Engleling area in East Texas, where there was a 63.2 percent kill. On the Black Gap management area in far West Texas, there was a 54.3 percent hunter success; Kerr area 61.2 percent; Sierra Diablo 61 percent, while in the Angelina area there was a 19.5 percent hunter success.

"These were all controlled hunts, fitting into good management practices," Dodgen said. "Excellent cooperation was had with all the hunters on these areas where the no-cost hunting was provided. These hunts are set up each year to remove surplus game, to keep the sex ratio in proper balance, and to prevent overstocking of the range."

among the regional laboratories with frequent seminars and training sessions in Austin and by standardization tests. Syphilis serology is tested, for instance, by samples distributed for examination which have been coded, so that the central laboratory knows in advance which are positive and which are negative.

Scores are recorded. Each laboratory must maintain a certain percentage of correct examinations.

Show Increase
For November

Violations by deer hunters accounted for the bulk of the work of game wardens during November, according to the monthly report just issued by J. E. Phillips, coordinator of law enforcement of the Game and Fish Commission.

Top on the list of violations was night hunting, with 45 arrests. There were 25 arrests for killing deer in closed season. Wardens also took other hunters on charges of illegal possession of doe deer, fawn and spikes.

Fines up to $400 were levied against several hunters by courts in different parts of the state. One "telephone fisherman" in South Texas was fined $200 for a fishing violation, $50 for hunting in a closed season, and $200 for possession of deer with evidence of sex removed.

In all, there were 297 arrests, with total fines and costs amounting to $12,452.44.

Texas public schools are visited regularly by staff members of the Texas Education Agency. Observations made on visits form the basis of evaluation reports describing the manner in which schools meet State standards for accreditation. Agency representatives visited 114 schools during the first semester of this school year and reports of their visits go to local school officials.

Chapel For The Children To Be Dedicated Sunday

At the Austin State School more than two thousand retarded children, who have been gathered in from most of the counties in Texas, will now have a beautiful chapel where the most competent of them can gather and worship.

The $100,000 structure, which will be dedicated at four o'clock on Sunday, January 21, represents not one dollar of taxpayers' money, but is the result of contributions—from pennies to thousands of dollars, and from people all over Texas. For the more than forty years that the State has maintained the Austin State School there never has seemed to be enough tax money available to do more than to properly house and feed and cloth the children there. It is a gratifying and heartening thing to know that hundreds of our citizens have given beyond their tax dollars to make possible this appropriately named "Chapel for the Children."

Devil's River Philosopher Wonders What Would Happen To Government If Congress Operated Like A Bank

Editor's Note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitter-weed ranch on Devil's River gets into a complicated financial discussion this week, and leaves it complicated.

Dear editor:
I'm not saying we need more bankers in Congress, but if we had more Congressmen as bankers, things would certainly ease up for me and a few other I could name.

What I'm talking about is an item I read in a newspaper last night about a request the Secretary of the Treasury has made to Congress. He said he would like for Congress to increase the national debt limit by a couple of billion dollars right away, as the government will need more money to operate on.

Asked why, he said the government's income is uneven, it doesn't flow in steadily, and even if the budget is balanced on a 12-months basis, there are months when expenses far exceed income and the debt limit ought to be raised.

Only a few of us financial experts can understand this matter, but Congress indicated it would go along with the raise, strictly on a temporary basis. Actually, the debt limit is 285 billion dollars, but Congress each session has raised it a little, temporarily only, till the government can work out of its financial difficulties, which takes a little time, and the limit has now been raised to 298 billion, which 2 more billion expected to be added shortly.

This is why I say I would like to see more Congressmen as bankers. The United States Treasury and my own financial situation are exactly alike. My income doesn't flow in steadily, it has its up and downs, and I don't want to go further into debt permanently, just temporarily. But it's hard to find a banker with Congressional ideas. When one of them fixes your debt limit, that's it until you increase your assets enough to justify the increase. Sometimes it's hard for me and impossible for the government to operate on these terms.

Come to think of it, though, it's probably better like it is, with bankers running banks and Congressmen running Congress. If you think there is a crisis in Berlin and Africa, think what kind there'd be in Washington if the Secretary of the Treasury had to confront a Congress run like a bank. On the other hand, think of how much fun I could have if I could find a bank run like Congress.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

State-wide interest in air-conditioned school buildings may lead to year-around school use in some test areas. Several communities now have fully "climate-controlled" buildings. "Wind-dowless" school buildings are said to effect savings in construction costs, custodial costs, and heating costs, but are said to pose a real problem for a boy that likes to look outsider - - - occasionally.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE COMMENTS

COLD- The attendance at the membership meeting last Thursday evening was smaller than hoped for yet a nice crowd was out. Few are those who did not have an unnatural problem to face during this cold spell. Many ranches did not have livestock water and most every home in town had a water problem.

The program at the membership meeting was divided into three parts, one to do with ranchmen's problems, one with Tourism and one with the merchants' problems. In all three categories there are many problems. In the field of tourist trade it was brought out that what Sonora needs is or more people to travel U.S. 290 and U.S. 277, for more of these travellers to stop in Sonora, and for Sonora business men to make walking or travelling advertisements out of them by the way we treat them.

ELECTION- Directors election is now going on by the members of the Sonora Chamber of Commerce. In the nomination ballots 67 members received votes. The election committee is Clayton Hamilton, Jack Kerbow and Charles F. Browne.

4-H- This is the week, January 20th is the day for the 4-H Club boys and girls of Sutton County. This is the culmination of their year's work. Quarter Horse Show is part of the program this year.

The boys and the girls are not the only ones interested in this show this year. Every citizen of Sutton County is interested, for it is being held in the new Club building, in which nearly every citizen has a financial interest, all via Chinese Auction. This year another Chinese Auction is being held with the hopes of raising enough money to pay off all indebtedness, including air-conditioning. THIS IS YOUR CHANCE, SUTTON COUNTY CITIZEN, to participate in this unique method of building, equipping and finally paying for
