Showers Continue This Week But General Rains Still Needed

A good June shower slipped in unannounced early Tues. morning and left moisture that varied from a trace to over 2.0 inches. Rains of 4.5 inches were reported on the J. V. Drisdale ranch north of Juno, sending an eight foot rise down Devil's River. Rainfall reports in the Sonora area included Sonora .50 to 1.30; R. A. Halbert 1.15; John Fields 2.21; L. P. Bloodworth 2.00; Thomas Morris 2.10; Hospital Ranch .75; Experiment Station

1.88; Alvis Johnson .60 to 1.10; G. H. Davis 1.20 to 1.90; Frank Bond .70 to 2.0; Joe Logan .75; Ben Cusenbary 1.50; David Shurley (deBerry) 1.40; Norman W. Rousselot 1.00; Bundy Ranch 1.50. Fourteen rain gages in the Lowrey Draw watershed varied from .07 on the James Hunt ranch to 1.30 at Site 13 near the hospital.

"Rainfall has followed a rather peculiar pattern with light showers and no general heavy rains", E. B. Keng, SCS Conservation Service technician, pointed out. With practically no rainfall from October through March, light showers have fallen quite regularly during April, May and June. The grass has stayed green over most of the area, but there is little or no deep moisture to sustain production if the showers stop. Most of the shower clouds have formed over western Sutton County and moved eastward. Much of Crockett and western counties is very dry.

Participants left the Indiana University campus at Bloomington, Ind., on June 9 for a 10-day trip by motor caravan to study geologic phenomena en route to the station.

HIGH LIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS FROM THE STATE CAPITOL

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association
Texas' crime situation looks a little better.
FBI reports covering the first three months of 1962, based on statistics from the 12 largest cities, show major crimes down 6.7 per cent.

Across the U.S. in cities of comparable size, major crime rates rose one per cent.
Texas' crime rate actually is down in number of crimes reported from 1961, despite a population growth during the year of some 200,000.

OUT OF JOBS—Finding a job in Texas is a little easier these days.
Texas Employment Commission reports April unemployment at 4.3 per cent of the labor force as compared to 5.4 per cent a year ago.

Average factory wages rose from $91.21 a week last year to $96.10 this April. Range was wide, however, depending on the industry.

Leatherwork was the lowest paid, an average of $52.13 a week. Oil workers got the most, an average of $132.07 weekly.

Number of Texans working outside agriculture now has passed the 3,000,000 mark. Houston had 19,800 unemployed; Dallas 16,000.

Statewide, 375 persons are working at agriculture. This makes the total working force 4,629,400.

TOO MANY COLLEGES? Dr. Ralph Green of the Texas Commission on Higher Education thinks the Legislature should quit creating four-year, state-supported colleges.

He told a House Committee on Saving Taxes that 20 state colleges are about enough.

Legislators have extended state support to four new colleges in the last four years. Biggest of the new ones, the University of Houston, will enter the state system this fall. This will substantially increase the state's higher education bill.

U of H now ranks second in size to the University of Texas.

WATER SUPPLY—Texas enters the summer with its major reservoirs 76 per cent full.

Texas Water Commission reports that May rains couldn't keep up with use and evaporation, so the water supplies shrunk by 291,000 acre feet.

As June opened, supplies were 76 per cent of capacity, compared with 83 per cent a year ago.

SAFE FOURTH—Gov. Price Daniel urged the 5,000,000 Texas drivers to help hold down the traffic death list during the July 4th holidays.

"Slow down and live" is the theme of the traffic safety campaign by which Texas traffic people hope to hold down the death rate below the statisticians' predictions.

July 4th comes on Wednesday this year, so fewer Texans will kill themselves on the highway than when the holiday falls near a weekend.

CROOKED HOLES—Tedious job of checking suspected oil wells in East Texas continues.

Railroad Commission and Attorney General's Department spokesmen say it will take several months to finish the job.

Four more oil operators were enjoined from interfering with Commission checks of their wells. In two weeks, only 23 wells have been checked out of "several hundred" that Atty. Gen. Will Wilson thinks will have to be investigated before they can write an end to the East Texas investigation.

Wilson has obtained donations from major oil companies to finance the surveys to see if holes were diverted so as to reach oil under someone else's lease. So he has taken over direction of the surveying from the Railroad Commission.

FIRING RESUMES—There was only a brief respite from campaigning after Democratic primaries.

John Connally, the Democratic nominee for governor, and Jack Cox, the Republican nominee, both had their chance to talk at the meetings of their respective state executive committees Saturday, convening to canvass the returns.

Campaigns will start in earnest September 18th, when both parties have their state conventions.

But the two young gubernatorial nominees both have state campaign headquarters in operation in Austin. They sound like they plan all-out campaigns in the summer and fall.

Sen John Tower will be a major campaigner for the Republicans. Vice-President Lyndon B. Johnson and Sen. Ralph Yarborough will take to the stump for the Democrats.

They are beginning to make this look like a two-party state. Whether the label sticks depends on what the voters say on November 6th.

Mouth To Mouth Rescue Breathing In Wide Use

A person can live three weeks without food, three days without water, but only three minutes without air.

Would you know what to do if a member of your family or neighbor became unconscious and stopped breathing and there was no doctor around?

In just a few minutes anyone can learn the technique known as mouth to mouth breathing. This method has been known to man since biblical times but has recently been proven much more popular than any other method of artificial respiration.

This technique may be used to revive all unconscious and non-breathing victims of drowning, electric shock, smoke or gas inhalation, drug or chemical poisoning, injuries to head, chest, neck and abdomen, convulsions, cardiac arrest, and other causes.

Mouth to mouth rescue breathing starts with clearing the mouth of any foreign objects such as tobacco, food, seaweed, toys, loose teeth or other small objects.

Then, with one hand grasp the victim's chin, placing the other hand on top of the head and with a rotating motion tilt the head backwards. A roll of clothing or blanket placed under the victim's shoulders will help keep the neck in favorable position.

Insert the thumb of one hand between the victim's jaws. Grasp the lower teeth and pull the jaw forward. Never let the victim's chin sag or let his head return to normal, relaxed position. Stop air leakage through the nose by pinching the nostrils closed with the thumb and index finger of the other hand.

Next, take a deep breath and place your mouth over the victim's mouth as firmly as possible in order to prevent air leakage. Keeping the mouth open wide breathe deeply into the victim's lungs.

As soon as you see the victim's chest rise you have delivered adequate breath. You must then remove your mouth so that the victim may exhale naturally. Repeat rescue breathing about once every three or four seconds, about 12 to 20 times a minute, until the victim breathes naturally or until a doctor arrives. If the victim is an infant or small child, breathe gently using only small puffs from the cheeks and throat.

TWICE AS MUCH COOLING

With the patented features of Paramount Coolers

Yes! This famous Paramount 5000 c.f.m. evaporative cooler gives you up to twice as much cooling because of these patented features:

— Many coolers lose as much as 70% of cooling efficiency because dust, dirt and salts clog the filters. Patented No-Clog Sta-Fresh Filters are guaranteed clog-proof, assuring 100% cooling efficiency all summer long.

— Filters saturated with water become heavy and often sag and settle from the top, drawing hot, unfiltered, uncooled air into the cooler which may create as much as a 70% cooling loss. Patented Grip-Lock Filter Holders are guaranteed to prevent sagging and settling of filters assuring 100% cool, clean, filtered air.

— Without correct water trough adjustment, sections of the filters remain dry, resulting in substantial cooling loss and costly service expense. Patented Free-Flo Visible Water Troughs with external adjustment assure 100% saturation, and 100% cooling for the entire life of the cooler.

— Added feature — Patented Window Closing Attachment lets you close and lock your window. Eliminates entry of dust, rain and drafts into your home.

Devil's River Philosopher Comes Up With A Brand New Source Of Tax Revenue -- $5.00 Per House Cat

Editor's Note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitter-weed ranch on Devil's River is trying to be helpful this week, but he may cause more storm than calm in some quarters. That's his lookout.

Dear editor:
If a man invented an automobile that'd run on water, a rocket ship that'd glide into space without a blast-off, or a device to control the weather, he'd win considerable acclaim, but nothing like the man who invents a new source of tax revenue. If there's anything this country needs, above everything else, it's some place to get new revenue to run its governments, from town government to county to state to national. Governments today are like the man who's earning twice as much as he did ten years ago and still lacking half enough to get by on, with the exception that it takes more than an act of Congress to increase his debt limit. To do this, you've got to deal with a banker,

Therefore, without seeking any glory, I've been hunting up new sources of tax revenue and from time to time may mention them all, but right now the best idea I've had is a tax on cats.

I read just last night that it's not unusual for a city of say a million population to have half a million cats.

All right, there you are. I can't explain this, but anybody with a cat, a claimed cat, a cat he admits is his, would a heap rather part with $5 than the cat. I've never been able to understand this low estimate of money and high estimate of cats, but it's a fact.

Therefore, if a city with 500,000 cats puts a $5 annual tax on cats, it has $2,500,000 in new tax revenue the first year, and no telling how much six months later. Why right there in Sonora there with at least 1,650 cats, and you can figure up how much tax revenue that'd come to.

I don't know how many cats there are in the United States, I don't guess anybody knows, but there are millions, say 10 million just to be safe. All right. At $5 a cat, that's 50 million dollars a year, and that's only the city and town take. As anybody knows, what a local government can tax, the state and Federal governments can too, or vice versa. This is a democratic country, ain't it?

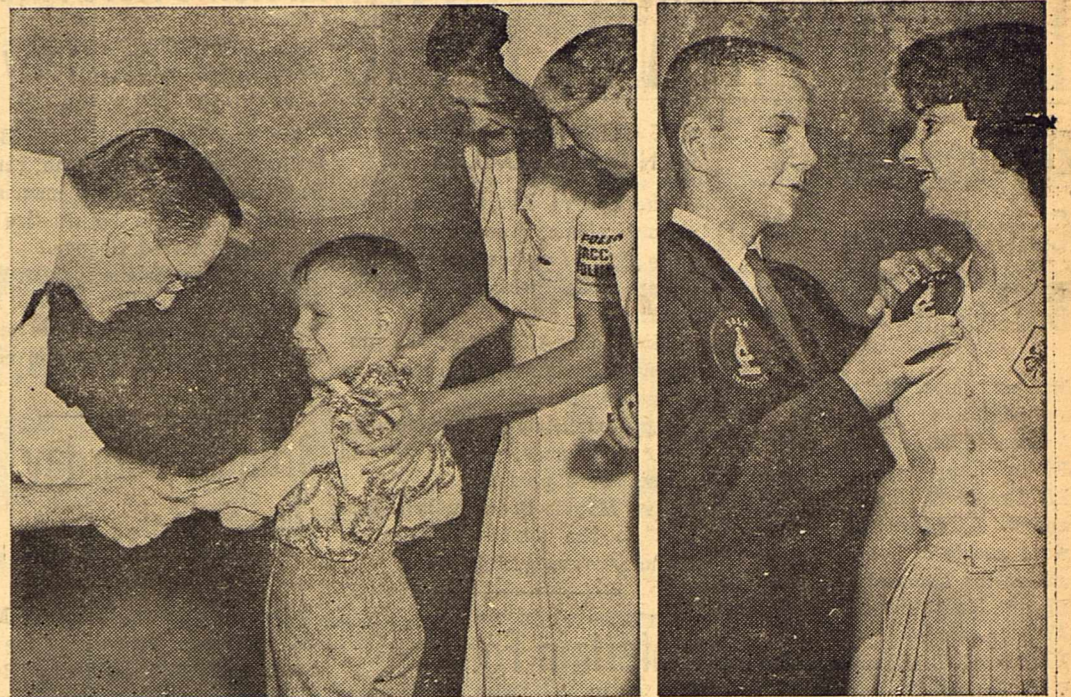

I estimate that if all units of government get in on this new cat tax, the total new revenue will come to around 100 million dollars a year, from now on, be-

Polio Pioneers Blazing New Trail

In April, 1954, six-year-old Randy Kerr received the first shot launching the giant nationwide field trials of the Salk polio vaccine. Eight years later Randy presents a Salk Institute lapel button to Crystal Brown, 18, a March of Dimes Teen Age Program leader and delegate from Warwick, R. I. at the 32nd National 4-H Conference in Washington, D. C.

Young Randall Kerr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor H. Kerr, Oakton, Va., is growing up to the title he has held for eight years—the nation's No. 1 Polio Pioneer.

In April, 1954, he was the first of millions of young school children who participated in the giant March of Dimes-financed field trials which helped prove the safety and effectiveness of the Salk vaccine.

Now going-on-15, Randy is official leader of today's 15-year-old Polio Pioneers who are out to build a laboratory wing of the Salk Institute for Biological Studies in San Diego, Calif. To be constructed with funds raised by teenagers representing many schools and youth organizations across the country, the laboratory wing will be an enduring tribute to the youth of America and the historic success of their partnership with science against polio.

“We were just kids when we first got our Polio Pioneer pins,” partments and food handling personnel in most areas voluntarily attend training courses in food handling sanitation.

Tourists who wish to fill their thermos jugs or procure drinking water for other purposes may do so from any one of Texas 375 approved city water systems. They may swim in any one of many municipal or community pools which are inspected by sanitarians of local health units.

Finally for those who prefer to rough it in comfort, Texas has well protected camping areas in state and national parks where a high degree of sanitary protection has been provided without eliminating the satisfying aspect of living next to nature.

“But now we're old enough to realize how much the protection they represented has meant to us and to children everywhere.”

A top-notch student majoring in chemistry and math, Randy is completing his sophomore year at the Flint Hill School in Oakton. Like most teenagers, he is far more aware of the giant strides of modern science than many adults.

“Dr. Salk's idea of a center where great scientists can work together for better understanding of the processes of life makes sense,” Randy says with youthful positiveness. “Things like heredity and all sorts of disease are complicated. They have to be studied from a lot of different viewpoints if we're going to get the scientific knowledge we need.”

The Salk Institute for Biological Studies, scheduled to open in 1963, will be directed by Dr. Jonas Salk. He will be joined by many world-eminent scientists in biology, chemistry,

“I can't think of a better way to celebrate,” he says, “than by joining all the rest of the country's Polio Pioneers to thank Dr. Salk in this concrete way for the protection we've enjoyed. As tomorrow's adults, we can look forward to big dividends from our shares in the Salk Institute.”

Travel Texas For Fun And Health

Have you ever thought of the advantages of spending your vacation this year traveling in your home state of Texas?

Travel in Texas not only provides the tourist with some of the nation's leading historical and scenic attractions but with a healthful atmosphere as well.

The climate is generally mild although there are extremes of heat and cold. But while these extremes can be uncomfortable, they are usually of short duration.

Due to the state's great size and varied terrain, it has a wide range of temperature so that the tourist can virtually take his pick.

While Texas is growing industrially, the state is still practically free of atmospheric conditions that trouble the more heavily industrialized areas. The air is not completely free of pollutants, but Texas cities are generally not plagued with inversion, smog, and such.

There are many other advantages which, while not exclusive with Texas, certainly can be claimed as advantages. For example, there has not been a single case of smallpox in Texas in seven years.

While there is still some typhoid fever, its danger is remote if tourists use reasonable judgement in their eating and drinking habits. Typhus is virtually nonexistent, and the danger of contracting malaria, formerly a serious hazard, is also insignificant.

Travelers dining in approved restaurants, coffee shops, and cafeterias are served food prepared under sanitary conditions. All food handling establishments are regularly inspected in areas served by full time health de-

Cash Drawing On Stained Shrimp

Green-headed shrimp are going to be worth greenbacks to some lucky fishermen on the lower Texas coast this summer. Tens of thousands of shrimp carrying a special green stain in their gills were released by biologists of the Texas Game and Fish Commission in a shrimp migration study, and six of these are worth $25 each.

Fishermen who return marked shrimp along with catch information to Commission personnel become eligible for a cash drawing to be held at the end of the study. Awards of $25 will be given by the Texas Shrimp Association to each of six persons whose names are drawn from among those who have returned stained shrimp. Each returned shrimp entitles its finder to an entry in the drawing.

Fishermen should return the green-headed shrimp, either frozen or preserved in alcohol, along with information on when and where it was caught, to any biologist or game warden of the Game and Fish Commission. Each returned shrimp will entitle the finder to an entry in the drawing.

The Texas Shrimp Association, a state-wide group of shrimp fishermen and processors, is sponsoring the drawing as a part of their program to aid in further research in this valuable natural resource. In this study the shrimp biologists of the Game and Fish Commission will trace the migrations of the brown shrimp from the Laguna Madre to determine the location of the fishing grounds of the shrimp from that area.

Warns Mothers Of First Graders To Get Birth Records

Parents have their hands full remembering all the things needed for a child beginning school for the first time. But one item they should put on their list is a birth certificate.

This word of advice comes from W. D. Carroll, state registrar, whose vital statistics staff at the Texas State Department of Health is responsible for handling the flood of requests for birth certificates for children entering school for the first time this September.

Many parents tend to put off requesting copies of their youngsters' birth record until the last moment, resulting in a heavy work overload.

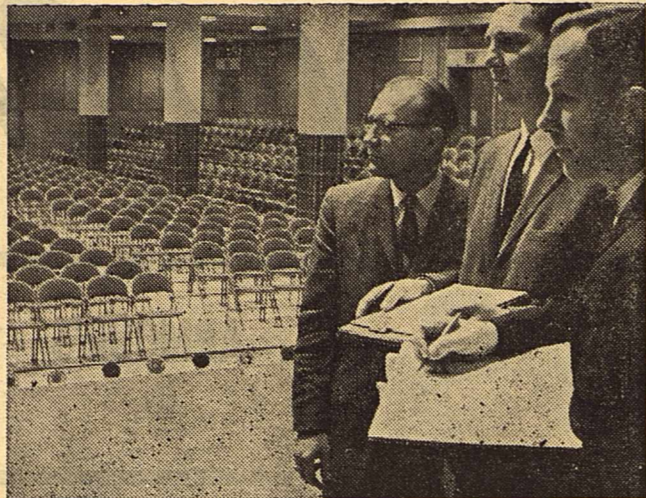

The vital statistics staff, despite long hours of night and weekend work, can process just so many requests before school begins.

More than 270,000 children are expected to enter elementary schools of Texas for the first time this fall. The estimate is based on calculations made by the Texas Education Agency.

A good many parents, some Carroll's advice to parents:

of whom may have waited too long in past years, have already requested and received birth records on this year's new scholars, but tens of thousands of additional records will have to be processed between now and the first time that first school bell rings in September.

More than one youngster has been forced to postpone his first days at school simply because his parents couldn't produce proof of his age when it came time to register for him.

ARCHITECT-ENGINEER survey team checks on the fallout shelter potential of a church basement auditorium at Independence, Mo., as part of the National Shelter Survey financed and directed by the Defense Department's Office of Civil Defense. Thousands of teams of experts have nearly completed the survey's first phase by locating potential shelter space for an estimated 50-60 million Americans. In the next few months they will be checking the same sites for additional details on existing or possible radiation shielding, ventilation, power needs, and costs of necessary modifications. (Department of Defense Photo)

"Send in your request today to the local registrar, county clerk, or the State Department of Health."

All you have to do is give the child's name, date and place of birth, the mother's maiden name, and the name of the father. This information, with the necessary fee should be addressed to the local registrar, county clerk, or to the State Department of Health, Section on Records and Statistics, 410 East 5th Street, Austin, Texas.

Only One Way To Find Out If Maggots Are Really Screwworms

Are they really screwworms? The only sure way to identify a screwworm is to collect maggots for microscopic examination by a specialist. This is why livestock producers are asked to collect worms from every infested livestock wound.

Success of the eradication program will depend, in part, on positive identification of as many cases as possible. These records are vital in the day-by-day execution of the program. Cooperation in Sutton County to date has been excellent, but County Agent Langford also stressed the importance of continued cooperation.

Although the largest number of wounds infested with maggots are infested by those of the true screwworm, other kinds of maggots may be involved. This has been confusing to some producers.

The true screwworm is only one of a large group of flies, most of which are referred to as common blow flies. However, screwworm maggots infest only the wounds of living warm-blooded animals.

Some of the maggots infesting wounds may be maggots which breed primarily in carcasses. When they are found in living animals, carcass-breeding maggots are usually found feeding on soiled wool or in wounds containing decaying blood and tissue.

The true screwworm is distinguished from common blow fly maggots by two dark parallel air tubes. These tubes are readily visible in full-grown maggots of the screwworm but are scarcely visible in the maggots of other blow flies. Screwworms have a pinkish tinge when they have completed feeding and are about ready to leave the wound. Most common blow fly maggots have white, yellow, or gray colors.

However, microscopic examination by a specialist is the only sure means of identification. Producers should continue to collect 10 or more worms from deep in each wound and take them to their county agent, vocational agricultural teacher or local livestock inspector.

76 cases of screwworms had been confirmed in Sutton County as of May 19.

A way to save that pays you more than interest

U.S. Savings Bonds pay you more than interest because they do more than earn money.

It's a matter of what happens to your Bond dollars. Deposited in the U.S. Treasury, they strengthen our economy at home.

At the same time, they help Uncle Sam take the side of freedom wherever possible in the world. And the opportunities to do so continue to grow.

By standing up for freedom elsewhere in the world, we insure our own personal freedoms. We make it that much surer that we'll be able to enjoy the things we're saving for.

All in all, it makes a pretty substantial return on your savings dollar—one that begins the moment you plunk down $18.75 for a $25 U.S. Savings Bond.

U.S. Savings Bonds pay a unique return. Most Americans agree that the most important part today is not measurable in dollars and cents.

Under communism, the party decides what to print. Under freedom, the people decide what to read. One way to keep our press free is to keep financially strong—as individuals and as a nation.

Fisher Looks At Proposed Medicare

By Congressman O. C. Fisher

WILL MEDICARE UNDER SOCIAL SECURITY lead to socialized medicine? That question has become a live one in view of what has been said by sponsors recently.

At the recent propaganda campaign launched in Madison Square Garden, one of 33 similar rallies over the nation, President Kennedy likened his proposal to the British system of medical care.

"What we are talking about doing", he confessed, "most countries of Europe did years ago. In Britain they did it 30 years ago!"

Britain, of course, has socialized medicine. So do other European countries where socialism is generally accepted.

Aimee Forand, former Congressman from Rhode Island, a chief architect of the compulsory method of providing health coverage for all over 65, regardless of whether desired or needed, recently stated: "If we can only break through and get our foot inside the door, then we can expand the program after that".

Sponsors are a bit coy when it comes to spelling out the expansion they have in mind. Obviously it would include reducing the eligible age, increasing the social security tax even more, and paying more of the costs for hospital and doctors' bills.

AS IT NOW STANDS, sponsors have to admit the pending medicare proposal, known as the King-Anderson bill, would be woefully inadequate. It provides coverage for only about one-fourth of the costs incurred for needy elderly people. It includes no aid for doctors' and drug bills. It deals only with hospital bills, and requires those who are aided to pay $10 per day for up to 9 days for hospitalization.

Moreover, it includes no aid whatever for the three million or more over 65 who would be left out in the cold because they are not under social security.

TWO YEARS AGO the Congress enacted the Kerr-Mills Act which provides federal grants in aid to all states which desire to set up medical and hospital aid programs for all needy elderly people. Already in effect in 25 states and territories, it has just begun to function. At the same time it has been revealed that 75% of the American people now carry some form of voluntary health insurance.

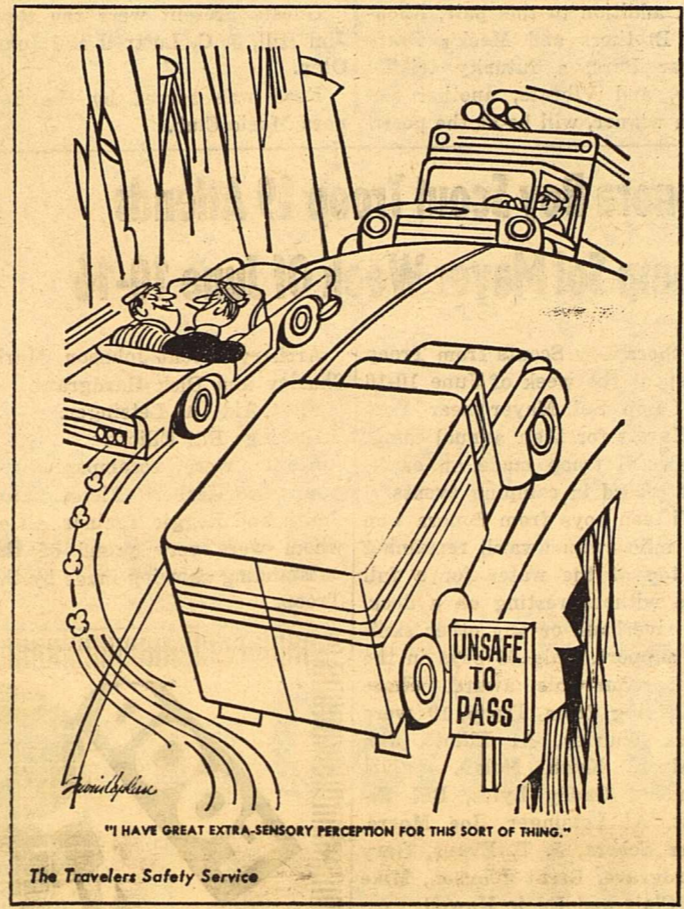

IT FOLLOWS that the only logical explanation for now initiating a new compulsory plan under social security is to get a "foot inside the door", make expansion of benefits and coverage an issue in very political campaign in the future until America is saddled with a system of political or socialized medicine for everyone. Let us hope that will never come about in free enterprise America!

RECENT GUESTS have included the Clint Langfords and son and daughter, Roger and Claire, of Sonora; Vestel Askew of Sonora.

Mrs. Lois W. Young and daughter Cissy have returned from a trip to the World's Fair in Seattle, Washington, and to Canada.
