FORTY-SIXTH WEEK

How Good Is Your Memory? Name Class A Bronco Allstars

Odds And Ends

Principal topic of conversation around the county (as around all of Texas) is the weather. Here it's unbelievably hot and undeniably dry. In central and east Texas it's undeniably hot and unbelievably wet.

Our sometime friend and erstwhile writer Peter Sederstacker (alias Hondo Crouch) of the Comfort "News" put it this way. It will be hot tomorrow with the high in the low 90's and the low will be high.

Had a visit this week from Ace Reid of the Draggin's S Ranch, "Cowpokes" and more recently, also, the Comfort "News". He, his wife and son Stan were very enthusiastic over their visit to the Caverns.

WANTED: URGENT! Flagstones for use in the sunken garden. Contact Mrs. Charles F. Browne.

As you read this week's edition of "The Devil" your next week's issue will be in the final stages of preparation. The shop here will be closed all next week to enable the editors and printers to have a week off. Lindy will be on hand to take care of office supply needs and to receive news items for the issue of August 16.

Mrs. Pat Cooper and Betty Jack spent Tuesday and Wednesday of last week in Fort Davis and Fort Stockton.

The international situation. Ho Hum! Dull business to this young lady who cuts her teeth on a rattling instrument used in an African tribal dance. She's just awakened from a long summer nap, where visions of Bongo-Bongo-Bongo danced in her head, probably. Six months old Nancy is pictured with her parents Dr. and Mrs. Gary D. Boring. GULF RESTAURANT UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Watson, formerly of Sheffield, have assumed management of the Gulf Restaurant.

Natives of Waco, the Watsons formerly operated restaurants in Waco, Pecos and Sheffield and have been in the food business for over 23 years.

The Watsons go to the Church of Christ. They have two sons, Mike, aged 12, and Ronnie, a student at Sul Ross.

LIONS ROAR

The Women of St. John's Episcopal Church served luncheon to the Sonora Lions Club at their regular meeting this Tuesday, July 31 at noon.

Sam Logan, now stationed in Afghanistan with USDA, spoke and showed slides. Mr. Hakim, Logan's Afghanistan associate in agriculture development there, spoke on religion, foreign aid, and Afghanistan's resistance to Communism on religious grounds even though the country is bounded by Russia and Red China. Hakim has a degree from Texas A. and M. and has been to this country five times. He is visiting with the Logans.

Guests were J. V. Alley, O. L. Richardson, Sr., Danny Wagoner of Houston, and Jim Menzies. Experiment Station Texas A. and M. College.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman W. Rousset and children and Elaine Mearns have returned home after a visit of several weeks in California with Rousset's parents and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Hinds and Berry of Comstock were Sunday visitors this week of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Duncan and Alice Lee.

Open House Friday To Honor New Baptist Minister

The Board of Deacons of the First Baptist Church will honor the new pastor and his wife, the Rev. and Mrs. Bob Brackney, and family with an open house at the parsonage from 7:30 to 9:30 Friday evening August 3.

Acting as hostesses will be wives of the deacons, Mrs. Troy Selzer, Mrs. M. C. Scott, Mrs. Clarence Key, Mrs. A. C. Elliott, Mrs. Joe Nance, Mrs. Bill Morris, and Mrs. Thomas A. Morris.

An invitation is extended to the community to be present to meet the Brackneys.

J. C. (Buck) Bishop Buried Tuesday At Rocksprings

Funeral services for John Cephus (Buck) Bishop, 83, of Rocksprings, were held Tuesday afternoon, July 31 in a Rocksprings funeral home. Bishop, who had ranched near Rocksprings for 35 years, died in Rocksprings Monday morning, July 30.

He was raised in Junction and was active in the ranching business prior to moving to Rocksprings five years ago. He and his wife had been married 62 years.

Survivors include his wife; four sons, Leo Bishop, Ted Bishop and Neil Bishop, all of Cart Valley, and J. C. Bishop of Dallas; three sisters, Mrs. Hydie Felps and Mrs. Kate Johnson, and Mrs. J. E. Byrd of Phoenix, Arizona; nine grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

Burial was in Rocksprings Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trainer were on their ranch near San Antonio last week and spent Monday visiting with his mother, Mrs. Rena Trainer.

Cubby Emdy and Earl Johnson told their wives they were going out to play a few holes of golf before breakfast. They missed breakfast and lunch. The game is fascinating and wonderful when wives get such a holiday. Cubby said he would claim one of the three rounds they played. No telling what his score would have been if he had eaten.

Mentioned that prizes will be awarded in the men's division at the tournament Saturday. There will be prizes in the women's division, too.

Lunetta and Raymond Morgan, Jerry and Bill Tittle were recent golfers at the Sweetwater course. They said the course was "out of this world". It is built on rolling hills and the walk down makes the walk up worthwhile.

Saw Barbara Armer and Melinda Earwood putting in on Number One green Sunday afternoon. We could tell that Barbara was shooting right along with Armer because she had a big smile and wave for us after her last putt. Armer was still concentrating on the green.

Wanda (Mrs. Son) Allison's brother, Aubrey Brewer from Fort Worth was a frequent golfer while visiting Wanda and Son. He said we have a nice course and it is a little rough. The rocky hazards helped him realize for the first time the close resemblance some of these West Texas rocks have to golf balls. He usually left early for the golf course—not to get in an early game—but to look for the golf balls he had lost the day before.

-GREEN NEWS-

Nancy (Mrs. Reggie) Trainer, Jane (Mrs. Milton) Cavanaugh, and Clara Lloyd (Mrs. Harold) Scherz are directors for the Ladies Tournament to be held Saturday beginning at 7:30 a.m. Deadline for entering is Friday, August 3, at 4:00 p.m. Entry fee will be $1.50. This does not include the barbecue supper ticket. The supper will be served by the Sonora Ladies Golf Club at seven o'clock. Women who plan to enter the tournament may mail entries to Box 463 or phone one of the tournament directors.

Entries for the Saturday, August 4, Men's Tournament must be complete by ten o'clock that morning. Scoring will be on the point system and prizes will be awarded the top four teams. Tee-off time for the men's matches will be 12:30. The five dollar entry fee for men includes the price of the supper. Other plates for the barbecue will be $1.25 and 50 cents for children. Jerry Hopkins is director of the Men's division and may be contacted for entries or entries may be registered at the club house on or before the deadline.

Wallas Renfro is director for the children's and junior divisions to be played Friday, August 3.

Dr. Howell used a number four iron for his drive on Number Nine. Accuracy in direction and distance was the result—ball dropped within four feet of the hole. We did not ask him which hole is his favorite!

Very early Sunday morning Louis Davis, Shelly Lowe and Jack Mackey were observed sitting on the grass at Number One tee box. Why?

Sunday afternoon golfers—Jack Mund of Eldorado and Jack Browning, Eden's coach. Browning and Mund had played morning and afternoon. We asked Browning if it wasn't just a little warm for afternoon golf and he said it was perfect golf weather. They both complimented the course, saying it was in excellent shape for a young golf course. Browning showed no evidence of fatigue, in fact it looked as if they might play nine more holes before dark.

Vernon Rogers of Eldorado and Jackie Sharp with others have been working on a shade and lean-to type shelter by Number One tee box. This frame is about 16 by 20.

Texas Voters To Say Yea Or Nay On 14 Constitutional Amendments

There will be 14 amendments to the Texas Constitution to be voted upon in the upcoming General Election, November 6, 1962.

Following are summaries of the first four amendments, as numbered on the November ballot, to be voted FOR or AGAINST:

NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT (HJR 25)-To amend the Texas Constitution so the Legislature can provide suitable laws for the administration of Workman's Compensation Insurance for all employees of counties or other political subdivisions.

NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT (SJR 9)-To raise the limit on state funds from Forty-seven Million Dollars ($47,000,000) to Fifty-Two Million Dollars ($52,000,000) to be expended on needy blind, needy aged, and needy children who are bona fide citizens of Texas By this amendment the amount of state assistance expended on a needy individual can never exceed the amount provided by the federal government.

NUMBER THREE ON THE BALLOT (SJR 22)-To give the Legislature power to authorize creation of hospital districts coinciding with county lines of Ochiltree, Castro, Hansford and Hopkins Counties. The counties so named may then be authorized to levy a tax not to exceed Seventy-five (75c) on each One Hundred Dollar ($100) valuation of taxable property, tax to be approved by a majority vote of the participating resident qualified property taxpayers voters. Rate may be lowered at subsequent elections if obligations are not impaired.

NUMBER FOUR ON THE BALLOT (HJR)-To authorize the Texas Water Development Board to acquire and develop storage facilities in reservoirs and to dispose of such facilities and water as the Legislature shall prescribe. Texas Water Development Board and the Board of Water Engineers may execute long-term contracts with the United States or any of its agencies for the acquisition and development of storage facilities in reservoirs constructed or to be constructed by the Federal Government. Such contracts when executed shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas, just as if they were State bonds.

Complete texts of these and all other amendments appear elsewhere in this week's issue.

Violators Find Game Wardens On The Alert

Game wardens still get around. And they usually show up when you least expect them. A number of surprised fishermen found this out during the month of May when they came face to face with wardens who wanted to see their licenses. Undoubtedly, several thousand people over the state were visited by wardens during a day on the lake. However, 200 of them who didn't have licenses and had to pay fines probably will remember the occasion longer than the others. Other than 58 arrests made for the sale of fish in retail outlets without the proper licenses, law violations remained at a lull in May.

Altogether 346 cases were filed. Of these, 31 were dismissed, 3 served time in jail, 2 appealed their cases, one was found not guilty and one was suspended. Fines and court costs amounted to $5,952.35.

J. B. Phillips, law enforcement coordinator for the Game and Fish Commission, reported that wardens in the state have been instructed to make frequent trips to fishing waters. "The people who have been fined for fishing without the proper license in the state this year cannot honestly say that they forgot to buy a license or that they had no reminders from the Commission," said Phillips. "We are constantly reminding sportsmen that they must have a license according to law. All I can suggest is that before leaving the house fishermen check to see if everyone in the party has a license.

YOUR MINISTER SAYS

By Rev. Jim Hill, Pastor Calvary Baptist Church

The wall of Jericho seemed impregnable. The wall was of double construction. The basic wall was seven feet thick and sixteen feet high. On top of this wall was another about eight feet high and made of bricks. In addition to this wall, there was a beautiful forest of palm trees some eight miles long and three wide to the east of this city. On the other sides of Jericho there were mountains.

Nevertheless, Joshua was faced with the seemingly impossible task of annihilating the city and its inhabitants.

As we continue to read the Biblical account of Jericho, we see that it was destroyed, not by the weapons of war or by brute strength, but by the intervention of God.

So many times we, as individuals and even collectively as a city, consider ourselves impregnable to defeat. In the process of this consideration we evaluate our financial, patriotic, industrial and political potentialities and erratically bypass any consideration of our spiritual strength. Then one day we find ourselves, as a community, faced with increasing welfare problems and criminal acts. Then we begin to look back to find our mistakes.

Allow me to suggest these:

1. Violation of traditional ecclesiastical days that have been set aside by God and His people to minister to the spiritual needs of a community and its people. (How so?—By scheduling civic affairs which compete with the program of the church, both as to time and to precepts.)
2. By individuals, whether civic or spiritual leaders, forgetting the basic truth of mankind, that we are our brother's keeper, both spiritually and physically.

Out of these two suggestions we can compound one basic and erroneous concept of sinful man: that being that too many people do not believe in a personal judgment by a personal God for our personal sins.

What have we tried to say in our multiplicity of words? Simply this. We need to check the materials of our city's walls and see if they are spiritually substantiated. Not with just religion but with basic Christianity.

Scripturally: (Zechariah 4:6) "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts."

Let us not be unaware of the Spiritual Kingdom of God which exists in our presence each day.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Jones, Mrs. Pat Cooper, Betty Jack Cooper, Alice Claire Jones and Mary Adele Wilson have returned from Monterrey, Mexico where they spent several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Mitchell and Keith, Jr. were Sonora visitors Sunday.

Devil's River Philosopher Says He Has Nothing To Say Worth Launching A Satellite For

Editor's Note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitter-weet ranch on Devil's River write about talking this week. He seems to be against it. Dear editor:

I never try to stand in the way of progress—I've tried it and it won't work—and if people want to bounce television shows and telephone conversations off a satellite, it's all right with me, but I am curious about what they have to talk about that's so important. I can't imagine anything I could think to say that would require the launching of a satellite to bounce it to the other side of the world.

Quick communication, I've been told, is a boon to understanding, but have you ever listened to two women talking on the telephone for 45 minutes without ever coming to any understanding?

I understand also you can now install a telephone in a jeep, but I always figured a man with something so important he needed a phone while spraying is too important to be spraying in the first place. I guess I could get a phone installed in mine, but I can't think of anything I could say that couldn't wait till I could write it down and mail it, and I don't know of anything anybody could call me about that would make riding a jeep any better. Couldn't even hear him anyway. The way my jeep sounds.

I have a notion that what all this hurry to talk to somebody amounts to is the exercising of the age-old habit some people have just for talking, and my theory is that quicker communication systems don't improve conversation, they just enlarge the field of coverage.

However, I read last night that somebody has perfected a typewriter in which you can talk and your conversation comes out typed, and here is one invention I believe may have great possibilities.

Under the present system, if somebody is talking to you, you almost have to listen, whether you pay any attention to it or not. But under this new system, you could turn on your typewriter, tell your conversationist to go ahead and talk, you'll read it later, and you could keep on reading or watching television or whatever it is you're doing, even if it's just sitting and staring. Then after he's gone, you could read what he had to say, or wad it up and throw it away. I could use one of those machines, with a large wastebasket to go with it.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Savings Bond sales in Texas for the first 6 months of 1962 totaled $76,720,875 which represents 102.3% of the 75 million dollar Freedom Bond Drive goal for Texas. June bond sales in Texas were $11,489,268.

These figures were reported reported recently by George H. (Jack) Neill, chairman of Sutton County Savings Bonds committee. Neill also reported that bond sales in Sutton County were $5,444.00 for the first 6 months of the year. This figure represents 26.8% of the 1962 sales goal of $80,000.00.

The Campus Revue cast—85 college students strong—goes into its finale after a fifty-minute action-filled show on the Amphitheatre stage of Six Flags Over Texas. The students, representing eight universities and colleges in three states, perform three shows nightly at the magnetic tourist attraction located midway between Dallas and Fort Worth. Numbers in the show include all-company song and dance routines, plus musical and specialty acts by members of the cast.

COLLEGE SHOW SMASH HIT AT SIX FLAGS

If any one of the new attractions of Six Flags Over Texas has captured the fancy of the thousands of visitors to the 10.5 million dollar tourist attraction located midway between Dallas and Fort Worth, it has to be the Six Flags Campus Revue.

Comprised of 25 students from eight Southwest colleges and universities and one 10-year-old from the Tyler School in Belton, Texas, the Campus Revue has played to over 100,000 visitors since the show's debut June 17.

Its standing room only in the Six Flags 1,000-seat Amphitheatre with three shows a night and for seven days a week.

The Campus Revue was the brainchild of eminent showman Charles R. Meeker, Jr., consultant to Six Flags. The idea jelled and during the months of February and March a series of auditions were conducted by Mr. Meeker and other talent scouts from Six Flags at schools in Texas, Louisiana and Oklahoma.

From the 600 students who auditioned, 26 were chosen for the coveted roles.

Under the astute direction of Mr. Meeker, who also wrote and produced the 50-minute show, the Campus Revue has been acclaimed a smash hit from critics and the general public alike. The talented performers are rewarded each night with seemingly endless ovations and calls for encore after encore.

The Campus Revue show's story line takes place after graduation exercises at Gilchrist University. The name Gilchrist was selected in honor of Six Flags President Angus Gilchrist Wynne, Jr., who is responsible for the creation and development of the 105-acre Park.

During the graduation party after the commencement exercises, the students have a last reunion where the class prophesy is read. The prophesy reads that each student will go into some phase of show business and as each name or act is mentioned, the students take their turn at performing. While the story line is fiction, many of the talented singers, dancers and specialty acts making up the show will make their career in front of the spotlights in the show business world.

Before the Campus Revue closes on September 3, an estimated 300,000 people will have witnessed the show.

After September 3, Six Flags Over Texas will be open on Saturday and Sunday only until the season ends on Thanksgiving week-end.

Pictured is the arrival of the Sonora stage in front of the "Ranch" and "Maude S." Saloons, owned then by A. J. Swearingen and G. W. Morris, respectively. Both buildings were destroyed by fire and rebuilt by 1902, complete with an architectural innovation, iron fronts. The "Maude S." was named for a race horse, whose picture graced its front.

One tragic Saturday morning in April 1905, two ranching partners were gambling and arguing. They left the "Maude S." and in front of it, Coleman Whitfield shot four times and mortally wounded Frank Sparks, described in his obituary as "a successful trader who provided amply for his family."

Sonora was a stormy youth at the turn of the century with a half-dozen or so saloon-gambling places. As yesterday's youth matures, the riproaring sites have given away to respectability. Well-groomed women now shop Sonora first, on the very ground where once no respectable woman ever set foot.

The saloon sites at left are still alive with activity as the home of Jack Mackey's Home Hardware and Furniture Company. The present business was built in 1942, and Mackey came to stay in September 1944. He had formerly come into the town with a wholesale grocery concern, liked Sonora and decided to settle here.

In 1962 as in 1900 Sonora merchants and businessmen are devoting their time and talents to building a larger and more progressive home town. They are always striving to offer their customers the latest and best merchandise at the lowest possible prices.

Sonora's 75-year history has been one of merchants and ranchmen co-operating to establish and maintain fine schools, good Churches, active civic and charitable organizations and a reputation for friendliness and hospitality.

East is east and west is west, but the twain have met. A judge recently drew a line defining the eastern boundary of West Texas. He said, "By West Texas, I mean a line from Childress to San Angelo to Del Rio." Well, your Honor, just a minute. With such a line, Sonora is just a mite east. Now, just another minute, Your Honor. West Texas is a State of Mind that has little or nothing to do with geography, and it will be mighty hard to start acting like those East Texans overnight.

This won't really be necessary though. For the judge was really only looking for an unbiased place to try a man from Pecos. He didn't say unbiased in whose favor, tho.

You can walk on water, if you trust and buy some new recreational shoes now on the market. These shoes, made of urethane foam, are five feet long and weight seven pounds each. They will support 350 pounds and allow a man to move at three miles an hour over the surface of water. The shoes may be used as water skis or as surfboards.

A liquid form of this same urethane is used to coat wood floors and furniture to protect them from scratches.

Sonora Seen-ery: The sunken garden site is becoming less sunken all the time, thanks to Rancher G. H. Davis who donated close to 20 loads of good black soil and to Carl Cahill who furnished the loading and hauling. Interest in this project is certainly of the accruing kind.

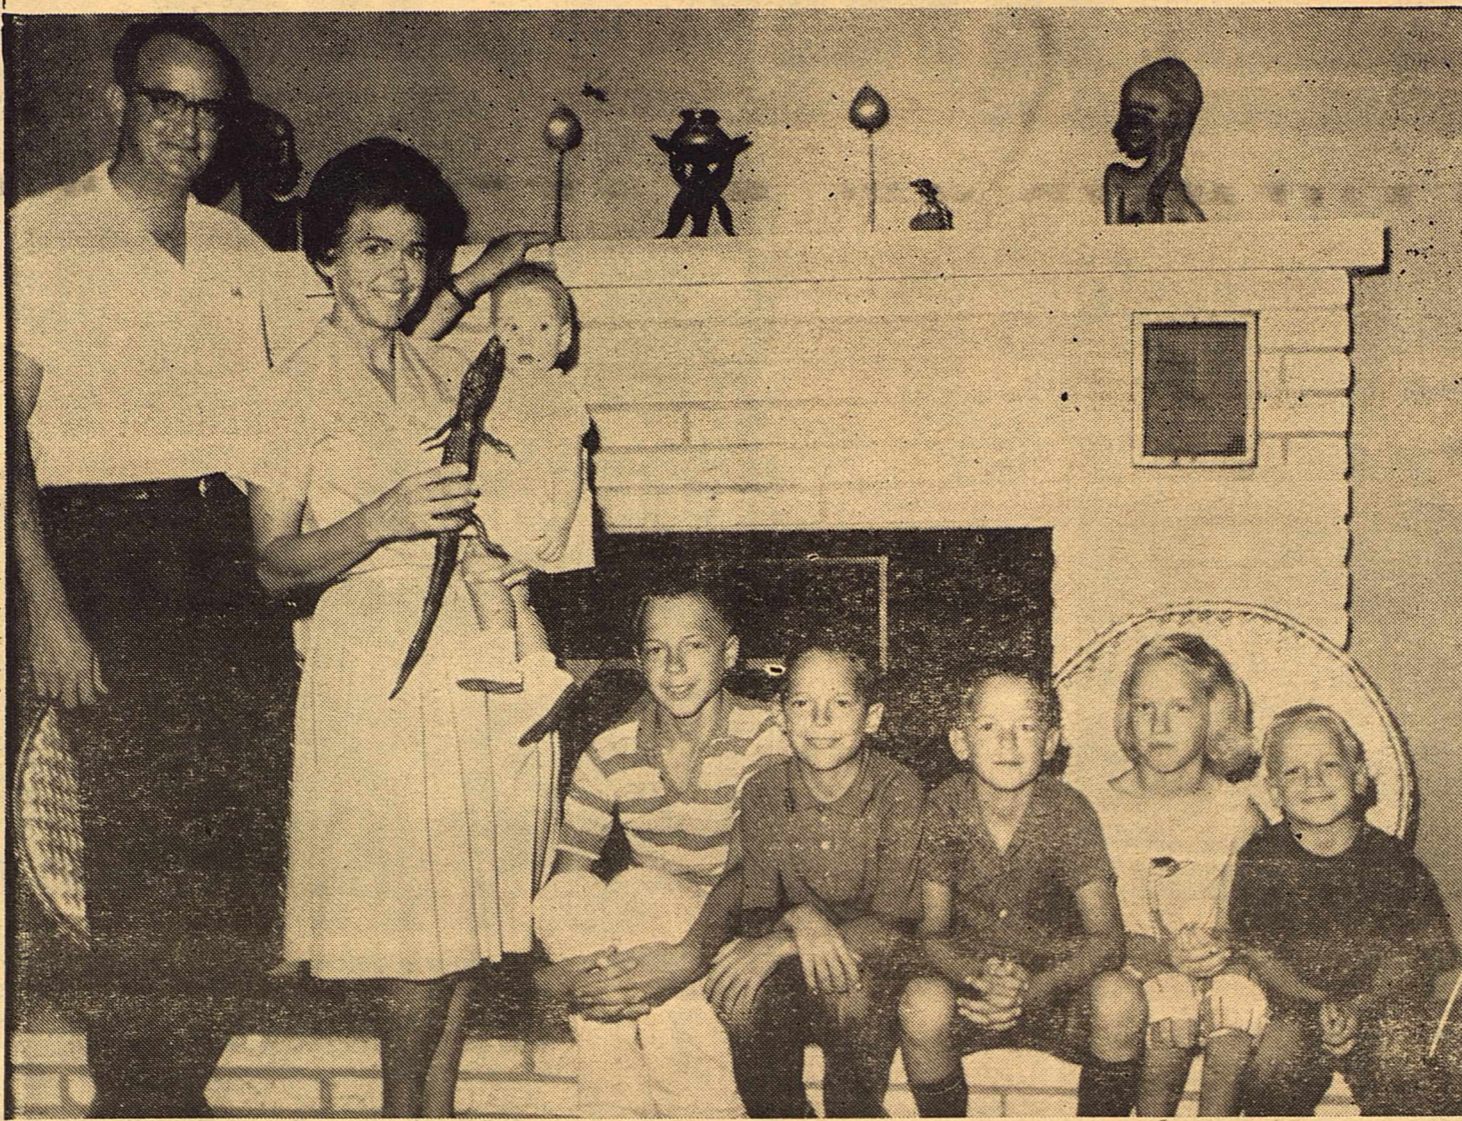

The project engineers—sidewalk project engineers that is—have also been busy with some suggesting tables be put up for a community mail reading center. Still others want a touch of the old country with a sidewalk cafe. Still another would like to see the site named for the owner in a dedication ceremonial. A historian thinks a time capsule containing facts about Sutton County and Sonora should be buried for posterity.

The dreamers dream, but the workers work. And the one constant factor in all of this is the energetic new garden club president, Mrs. Charles F. Browne.

so-called woman intuition. Its function is the same as that of woman, to act as the carrier of heredity.

Some fertile jokes are coming out of the sterile fly program. About five percent of the flies are retained fertile to produce more fertile flies, under controlled breeding, so they can be sterilized and released to never reproduce. And this is great for something as distasteful as flies.

A renowned lecturer has said that to untie marriage is like unscrambling eggs. It is a mystery how the oneness of marriage can ever become the twoness of di-voice. And who can ever untie the miracle of Chromosome "X" or untie heredity?

It's something like social security. You pay your money and you have no choice. For the money can never reproduce or even hold its own. If this socially insecure program were stopped right now, if no more new people were admitted, and the program continued to collect from those already in, Social Security right now comes up $298 billion short computed against what is to be paid out to the present participants. 298 billion dollars, this is. And did someone say there was a little shortage out in Pecos?

It's something like the men who stripped an abandoned car along the highway, because if they didn't some "robbers" might do it.

Ho Hum, into each life some rain must fall . . . and some days must be dark and dreary. But how long, oh how long, before we experience some of this sadness, called rain . . . and some dark, dreary rain-soaked days. Writing things like this is supposed to cause it to rain.

Afterthought: Whoever said, "Saving for a rainy day only makes it rain", obviously did not farm or ranch in West Texas. And West Texas we still are. Even if a judge did draw a line, we can play like we didn't see it. People lose something valuable when they forget to play like they did not see what was not really true, hence could not really hurt. Take prayer. Is more breath and thought going into protesting the right to pray publicly? Or, are we as a nation of wronged people really looking for the solitude necessary for the right kind of prayer? If we believe in individual responsibility, there can be no collective prayer, in fact. There are only individual coinciding prayers.

"Oh, we are just a fairly average family," pretty Mrs. Gary D. Boring told us as she lined up their even half dozen children and stood by her rather tall world-traveler husband on a tiger skin in front of a mantel pleasingly arranged with carved wood and bronze from India, wood carvings from Kashmir, and ebony figures from Africa.

Dr. Gary D. Boring, Texas A. & M. graduate and a Tyler, Texas native, is a pathologist and Doctor of Veterinary Medicine. He is here with Merck Chemical Company and is currently doing field trials to combat internal parasites by drenching sheep with Thibenzole.

These are average people, all right, from six months old Nancy to Michael 5, Ann 7, Martin 9, John 10 right up to Stephen 13. You know that from the minute you walk in the entrance hall and are greeted by cob antelope horns. Dr. Boring shot the cob antelope in Africa to supplement wild duck and tinned meats. Then John brought out a shell encrusted crown topped off with antelope horns. This was a ceremonial crown bought from an African chieftain for about 15 American dollars. There were also miniature talking drums which the chieftains use for communication. The drums resounded for miles in language the natives understand.

All these world-wide souvenirs attest to the fact that Dr. Boring's work has carried him around the globe and back. He was with the State Department, International Cooperation Administration, for three and a half years in the Far East, Europe and Africa.

Someone facetiously suggested giving baby Nancy a skull to cut her teeth on. Martin at once whipped out a baby crocodile, then a large rattling instrument used in African fiesta dances.

A perfect baby tiger—perfectly fierce—graces the Boring hearth in form of a rug complete with staring eyes and head sans whiskers. No. 5 son, Michael dewhispered the tiger the same day he gave the live Siamese cat a crew haircut and dewhispering. A leopard skin lurks somewhere too, all trophies of the Boring marksmanship.

The family joined Dr. Boring for two years in Ghana, where the children went to a good international school, not found everywhere in Africa. For news they had the British Broadcasting Company until independence of Ghana, resulting in dictatorship, blocked it out. Then, they had the United States Information Service, Pan American Airlines News Sheet, and international copies of American magazines such as Life and Newsweek. Drum Magazine was an African Control Chiggers With Insecticides Says Health Dept.

Call them red bugs. Call them harvest mites. Call them chiggers. By whatever name, they mean sleepless nights and ceaseless spasms of itching misery.

This is their season. It will last from now until cold weather cuts into their ranks. A few people have an apparent immunity to chigger attacks, but the vast majority of us are oh-so-susceptible.

They-the chiggers-have a special affinity for low, damp places covered with vegetation. Bermuda grass harbors them well, but for some unexplainable reason they are not usually found in carpet grass.

Just for the record, it's the larvae which do the damage, attaching themselves with their mouthparts and sucking blood until they become engorged and fall off. The fiery itching is caused by an anti-coagulant material they inject into their host.

Although adult chiggers-large, red and velvety-are probably harmless to humans, their wayward offspring can be serious as well as annoying. Not that they spread any specific disease-at least not in this country-but their bites demand scratching which frequently causes secondary infections in the form of sores and boils.

To learn where chiggers are harboring, stand a piece of black cardboard on end where you suspect their presence. If after a few moments you see tiny yellowish or pinkish mites accumulating on the upper edge, you know it's time to check your supply of insecticide.

Chiggers attack lizards, snakes, birds, and rodents with the same vigor and resourcefulness they display in attacking humans. No distinction is drawn between man and lesser animal species, which is hardly complimentary to us Homo sapiens.

Light applications of sulphur dust on lawns and low branches of shrubs have been successfully for years to control chiggers. Nowadays, the new insecticides such as chlordane and lindane give better results. Just follow the directions on the label.

A quick word of caution: Be sure to avoid unnecessary exposure to the insecticide. If you spill the concentrated material on your skin, wash it off immediately. And be sure to keep children and pets out of the yard until the spray dries.

Texas Cattle, Sheep Producers Lead Nation

Texas leads all other states in the livestock production of cattle and sheep, but ranks 15th in hog production. Iowa is the top hog producing state by a wide margin.

The total number of pounds of cattle and calves produced on Texas farms during 1961 reached 2.8 billion pounds, reports Ed Uvack, extension livestock marketing specialist. During the same period, sheep and lamb production amounted to 195 million pounds while 288 million pounds of hogs were produced, he says.

Thus, Uvack points out, Texas production last year of cattle and calves represented almost 10 percent of the nation's total output. Though the number of sheep and lambs produced in Texas far exceeds the next ranking state, the percentage of livestock production amounted to only about 12 percent of the nation's total. This, Uvack says, is due to the fact that Texans are not as heavily in the lamb feeding business as operator in California and Colorado.

Liveweight production for the nation last year was 29,688 million pounds of cattle and calves; 20,216 million pounds of hogs and 1,688 million pounds of sheep and lambs.

Uvack explains liveweight production as the total number of pounds produced on farms. This includes the weight gained by animals on hand, bought or born during the year.

the current 'hurricane season.' Barlow supervised state parks' participation in last September's greatest successful peacetime refugee movement in history.

When Hurricane Carla bore down on the Upper Texas coast, countless thousands of coastal residents swarmed inland and reached temporary shelter without a single fatality.

Previously, during the prevailing agitation for civilian safety in a nuclear war, state parks had been suggested as survival centers. Publicity of this arrangement prompted harassed traffic authorities to divert some of the mobile populace when

Schedule For Immunization Against Polio

Due to the presence of active paralytic Poliomyelitis in the vicinity, the recommended vaccination schedule is being published so that individual immunization status can be determined. Also included in this schedule is the recommended immunization schedule for Diphtheria, Tetanus, Pertussis (whooping cough) and Small Pox. These are the only customary immunizations given; however, Typhoid-Paratyphoid, Typhus and others are recommended on special occasions. All pre-school children should have the below listed vaccines before registration.

The American Academy of Pediatrics recommends this schedule:

- Age two to three months: Diphtheria, Pertussis, Tetanus, Poliomyelitis (DPT-POLIO).
- Age three to four months: DPT-POLIO.
- Age four to five months: DPT-POLIO.
- Age five to six months: Small Pox.
- Age 16 months: DPT-POLIO.
- Age two years: POLIO.
- Age four years: DPT-POLIO.
- Age six years: Small Pox and Polio.
- Age eight years: Diphtheria, Tetanus, Polio.
- Age ten years: Polio and Small Pox.
- Age 12 years: Diphtheria and Tetanus (Adult type).

The Polio vaccine referred to above is the Salk type. Oral Sabin type vaccine is also available and the type immunization used should be determined by the physician in the individual case. No immunization program should be considered without first having an examination to determine if the person is in good health. For adults the recommended poliomyelitis schedule of Salk vaccine is two injections one month apart, followed by another injection in seven months. Booster doses at two-year intervals are then advisable. The Oral Polio vaccine is given in three doses at monthly intervals followed by booster doses at two-to-four year intervals. The current cases in Texas indicate that while most cases occur in young people, no age group has escaped.
