

$50,000 Shipping Pens Planned Here

Plans for construction of livestock shipping pens to serve ranchers of Sutton and surrounding counties started rolling Monday when two committees met and voted favorably on the proposition.

The new $50,000 corporation will be owned by area ranchers and Sonora businessmen and leased to Charlie Schwartz, owner of the Junction Stockyards.

Santa Fe owns the only other yards in this area. Their pens were closed to non-rail shippers in 1956.

One Sonora rancher explained that today the majority of his livestock is shipped by truck. He said that recently when he sold his animals they had to be loaded, trucked to San Angelo, unloaded, sorted and then sent on their way. He said that lack of nearby facilities was a common problem and that most ranchers had to bear this extra expense.

The Chamber of Commerce Ranch and Livestock Committee composed of Stanton Bundy, Lea Allison, James Hunt, Vestal Askew, Bill Tittle, and Edwin Sawyer met Monday evening and formulated a plan to present to a larger committee composed of 20 ranchmen from all parts of the county.

The second committee unanimously voted to:

1. Form a stock pen corporation.
2. Locate and execute a land agreement.
3. Negotiate a lease-operator agreement with Charlie Schwartz of Junction concerning terms of the arrangement.

4. Delay the land agreement until members could have a conference with Santa Fe officials about leasing land adjacent to present Santa Fe facilities or some other joint arrangement.

Purpose of the new pens will be to make available to area ranchmen all the facilities to most efficiently sell and ship their livestock. This will include pens for sorting, holding and feeding, a sales arena and drenching, vaccinating, tagging and shearing facilities.

The project is expected to cost approximately $50,000. When finished, it will permit the rancher to take advantage of every selling opportunity. This will include pens to hold and finish livestock.

Letters offering corporation stock in shares of $100 denominations to ranchmen of Sutton and surrounding counties and to Sonora businessmen will soon be mailed. A limit of $2,000 per persons has been proposed.

A modern sales arena with specialized sales is planned by Schwartz. He has employed a resident manager for the Sonora operation.

H. V. Stokes, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, said that at one time Sonora was the largest livestock shipping point in Texas besides the primary markets. At one time livestock from all or part of 9 counties came through Sonora. He said that today shipping business and prestige had slipped to its lowest ebb.

"It is hoped that the facilities we provide will renew Sonora's livestock shipping by rail and truck. We can't get all the business back, but there is still a definite labor, freight and shrinkage advantage we can offer area ranchers," said Stokes.

Stanton Bundy, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Ranch and Livestock Committee, said that plans for the pens had been in the making for three years. Some 25 ranchers have been working on the project.

Bundy estimated that 67,000 cattle, 664,000 sheep and 35,000 goats were located with a 50-mile radius of Sonora. Within 75 miles, excluding Reagan, Tom Green and Concho counties, are an estimated 102,000 cattle, 1,200,000 sheep and 642,000 goats.

"The establishment of pens here will make Sonora a leading stock center in Texas," said Bundy. "Where Kansas buyers now spend two or more weeks buying small bunches on several ranches, they can soon fly in, inspect and buy livestock in the pens, and fly out the same day."

"No finer livestock is grown in any area," he said. "The pens will provide us with all the necessary facilities plus machines and office space for private treaty sales."

A jet pilot once explained the sensation he felt when taking off in one of the supersonic fighters: "It's like getting a good swift kick in the rear." That's the sort of welcome jolt that the new livestock shipping pens should have on Sonora's economy.

From any way you look at it, Sonora is in the center of a large livestock-raising area and is the most logical place to ship from. Hats off to the many men who have done three years' leg work to get the project moving. And best of luck to Charlie Schwartz, the new manager.

The Sonora Lions Auction is once more only history. But it will be remembered all through the coming year as the $5,000 plus is distributed for charitable causes. A salute to the Lions, the bidders and the donors who worked so hard to insure the success of the sale.

If you have read the Just Arrived birth announcement columns recently, you may have noticed more and more mention of great grandparents. This is not a sign that kids are marrying younger; the grown-ups are just living longer.

Friday night the Broncos and half of Sonora will travel to Ozona for the yearly football battle. If you plan to go and have room for passengers, or if you want to go and don't have a way, call 2-2881. You may find that a friend of yours is planning a trip to Ozona, too.

The following first printed in a Kentucky paper, is a sample of what might have been had the focal point of a wedding been centered about the male rather than the female.

With all due respect to brides, so beautiful coming down the aisle, we reprint this bit of Kentucky wit:

Peering out of the left breast pocket were four tips of a cleverly folded white linen handkerchief while on the left lapel quaintly held by placing the stem through an unused buttonhole and securing it with a small silver hat pin, was a white carnation.

"He wore a shirt of white nylon, severely plain, which was held together at the front by little buttons of plastic. Around his neck and under the shirt collar was a tie of black jersey, knotted carefully in decorative style, and held to the shirt front with a clamping device of gold plated brass. The cuffs of his shirt sleeves were closed with links of the same plated metal.

The Sonora Colts, Junior high team, took the Eldorado junior high team in a 32-14 win last Thursday, September 26.

Colt Ed Lee Renfro scored four of the touchdowns, and Mike Gosney scored one touchdown and two points afterwards.

"The whole team did a fine job on defense, especially defensive tackles and ends," commented Bob Snodgrass.

The "B" team lost their game, 20-0.

The next games scheduled for both junior high and "B" teams are at Ozona on October 10.

Mike And Ike

Our two wise forecasters, Ike and Mike, each gave an extra polish to the crystal ball last week and boosted their batting averages on their predictions of the week's football games. Ike raised his score by a whopping three points, and Mike raised his two big points.

Last week Ike was so glum over his average of 50 per cent correct that he went out on a limb and took Ballinger over Mason and Eldorado over Menard. He was right on his long-limb guesses, but he says, "Some of the cinch games just about cinched me." He predicted 5 winners out of 9 possible to raise his over-all batting average to 53 per cent.

Steady Mike got 6 out of 9 right last week to raise his average from 63 per cent to 65 per cent.

This week's predictions are as follows:

Broncos Knot It Up Again, Tangle With Lions Friday

By Dick McMillan

The Sonora Broncos, hampered by a bad case of fumbleitis, managed a 6-6 tie with the Big Lake Owls in Big Lake last Friday night. Only a tremendous defensive effort by the Broncos, led by massive Arturo (Square) Sanchez, kept the Broncos in the game.

Eddie Howell returned the opening kickoff of the game 40 yards to the Big Lake 25-yard line. The Broncos drove to the eight where the drive stalled on a Bronco fumble. The first half ended in a scoreless tie.

In the third quarter, with the Broncos driving deep in Big Lake territory, Owl fullback Wayne Luxton stole the ball and ran fifty yards to the Sonora 31. The Broncos held and took possession. However, their Luxton proceeded to stun the Broncos by stealing the ball again and racing 20 yards for a touchdown. Conversion attempt failed.

The Broncos scored their lone touchdown late in the third quarter, when fullback Eddie Howell swept for 20 yards and a touchdown. Conversion attempt was unsuccessful.

The Broncos battled back in the fourth quarter and the last play of the game saw Bill Elliott's field goal attempt fall inches wide of the mark.

OZONA

Friday night, the Broncos hit the road again to travel to Ozona and take on the Ozona Lions in one of the oldest rivalries in West Texas football. The Lions this year have a record of two wins and one loss. They won over Bronte and Rocksprings, and lost to McCamey of District 7-AA by only 6-0 score. The Lions have three-year letterman Leroy Cooper guiding them from the quarterback position. Guard Joel Huff heads a small, but aggressive Ozona line. Kickoff time will be at 8:00 at Lion Stadium.

Last year the Broncos downed the Lions 26-20 in a thriller here at Sonora.

HENRY PEREZ WINNER OF FOOTBALL CONTEST

Last week's football contest was a close one with many entries guessing more than 14 correctly.

The winners of the contest were as follows: first place, Henry Perez; second place, Ben Perez; and third place, Gil Trainer.

The One Cent Special Consolation Award goes to Pat Combest.

Crane Racks Up Four Wins In A Row; Mason Punchers Toppled By Ballinger

Of Sonora's six remaining football opponents, only Crane can boast an unspoiled 4 win, no loss record. The mighty Mason Punchers fell to Ballinger 8-6 last Friday night.

The Ozona Lions meet the Broncos this week with two wins and one loss. With only six lettermen returning Coach Pete Hickman's Lions were considered the inexperienced underdogs in their first game of the season against McCamey. They held McCamey to one touchdown but lost the game 6-0.

The Lions broke into the win column by dropping Bronte 14-6 in their second game. Richard Vargas gained 101 yards rushing, Paul Perner picked up 68 yards rushing, and quarterback Leroy Cooper gained 53 yards rushing and completed 4 of 8 passes for 40 yards in the air.

Vargas scored twice to give the Lions their second victory when they played Rocksprings last week. Rocksprings threatened with drives to Ozona's 10, 3, 7, and 14-yard lines, but the defense held. The final score was Ozona 14, Rocksprings 6.

Mason's Punchers were toppled for the first time this season when Ballinger bested them 8-6 in a close battle last week. The Punchers rest this Friday and will meet Sonora October 11 with a 3-1 record.

Last Friday the McCamey Badgers trounced Iraan 28-0 for their second win of the year. The Badgers have lost two games this season.

Alpine also has a two win, two loss tally after triumphing over Rankin 28 to 19 last week.

Stretching their winning streak to four straight, the Golden Cranes of Crane took a 23-0 victory from Pecos last Friday.

Stanton fell into the loss column last week. The Stanton Buffaloes were defeated by Fort Stockton 25 to 0 for their first loss of the season. They tied their first two games.

Lions Gross Over $5,000

The 1963 Lions Auction held at the 4-H Club Center Tuesday night goes into the record as one of the best in recent years.

About 300 people attended to eat smoked lamb and barbecued goat, to visit with neighbors, and to spend over $5,000 for merchandise.

At latest count the adding machine tape showed $5,127. Final corrections will add a few more dollars to put this year's total well ahead of last year's amount, $4,527.

Rex Lowe, president of the Lions Club, and the members of the auction committees accumulated, listed, displayed, and distributed the items contributed to the fast-moving sale. Lem Jones teased the bidders to higher prices, sometimes making four sales per minute.

The abundance of contributions varied from dressed spanish kids to a red toy fire engine, bought by John Webster Elliott for $50. Bryan Hunt opened the night's buying with the purchase of an ice chest for $27.50.

The sale of Old Faithful, the Berry Duff mystery package, was a highlight of the auction again. Contributed by the First National Bank, it broke its previous price records by bringing $120 this year. Ben F. Meckel was the purchaser.

Pharmacy Offers Careers Of Satisfaction

Few career fields offer the personal satisfaction, as well as monetary rewards, as that of medicine and its related sciences. Today, pharmacy is the fastest growing of the allied medical sciences, with unlimited opportunities for men and women alike.
What should youth look for in a career? What should it provide? A satisfying career should give you the chance to employ your talents constructively; there should be the challenge of development and advance; and there must be recognition, personally and professionally. Modern pharmacy in all its variations offers this and more. It offers the opportunity to serve mankind.
In the past few years, pharmacy has experienced a period of dynamic growth and its full potential has yet to be reached. Pharmacy today combines an ancient heritage and tradition with the complex technical skills of tomorrow.
Studying in America's 76 colleges of pharmacy are almost 11,000 youths, pursuing five, and six year curriculums in a combination of sciences. Every year 4,000 of these graduates will join the ranks of the 124,000 registered pharmacists now practicing.

As the growth of pharmaceutical development goes forward, so does the responsibilities of the pharmacist. As the drug expert on the health team, the pharmacist must constantly keep abreast of the new drugs entering his inventory. He must keep the physicians of his community advised of the new drugs and their uses. He must constantly be alert to his responsibility as a health educator in his community and the role of his pharmacy as a health information center. A career in pharmacy has its personal rewards, but it also has its responsibilities.
During this week, National Pharmacy Week, it is only fitting to salute America's pharmacists and urge our youth to investigate the profession of pharmacy for a rewarding career.

Devil's River Philosopher Delighted To Discover He Owns A Status Symbol

Editor's Note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Devil's River discovers he has a new standing, his letter this week reveals.
Dear editor:

In my time, I have called this bitterweed ranch a lot of things which you wouldn't be interested in printing, but it was only last night I found out the correct thing to call it.

It's a status symbol.

According to an article I read in a magazine, owning a farm or ranch is a status symbol, and a status symbol, as I understand it, is something to prove you're a notch ahead of somebody else, like white sidewall tires or a $6,000 automobile that won't go any faster or smoother than a $2,500 one.

"With a growing number of city people, land ownership is a status symbol," the article claimed, adding that formerly a city man, when asked what he was going to do on the weekend, would say he was going to play golf, but now he says he's going out to his ranch. This is supposed to add to his status; it proves he has luxurious tastes.
Well now, while I'll admit I'd just as soon stay on this ranch

The growing demand for beef in the U. S. will require that the number of beef cattle be increased at the rate of 5% annually for the next 7 years. The USDA estimates that we will have to have 14 million additional acres of grazing annually to produce this number of cattle.

PRINTING AT NEWS OFFICE

as play golf, I didn't know till now it was improving my social position to do it.

However, if fighting the weather and insects and high costs looks like a hobby, I will accept this new status with all the grace befitting a man of my position in the society world.

I figure if it helps the standing of a city man to be able to go out to his farm or ranch on the weekend, it must send my rating over the top to be able to stay out here seven days a week the year around.

There is a catch, however, and ranching won't reach its full social standing until a rancher can say, Well, I think I'll go into town for the weekend to check on my bank.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Miss Nova Crawford And Louis Olenick Exchange Vows In Ceremony Saturday

Miss Nova Crawford and Louis Olenick were married in Saint Ann's Catholic Church at 4:30 p.m. Saturday by Father Joel Byrne.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Crawford. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Olenick of Falls City.

Miss Sandra Skinner was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Anita Thompson and Miss Shirley Crawford, sister of the bride. They carried colonial bouquets of lavender carnations with matching streamers and net.

Serving as best man was Sam Hester of Ozona. Groomsmen were Jack Moore and E. R. Olinick, Jr., the bridegroom's brother. Gene West and C. W. West, Jr., of Junction were the ushers.

For the double-ring ceremony, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white lace over white satin made by her mother. The long-waisted bodice featured tapering lines in the front and back. Seed pearls and a stand-up collar of ruffled lace outlined the rounded neckline. The gown was accented by long, tapered sleeves trimmed with ruffled lace and seed pearls. Matching seed pearls were at the waist above the full, gathered skirt, which fell in a scalloped design to a ruffle of white sparkle organza.

Her elbow-length veil of sparkle organza was bordered with lace and seed pearls. She wore a pillbox hat of satin, lace, and seed pearls. Her single accessory was a cultured pearl given to her by the bridegroom.

She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations with a shower of velvet tubing and pearls, topped with a lavender orchid.

Nuptial music was provided by Miss Irene Davis.

At the wedding reception held at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Jack Moore registered guests. Serving refreshments were Mrs. Gene West, the bride's sister, Mrs. Lucian Moczygmba of San Antonio and Mrs. Bobby Morgan of Kenedy, both sisters of the bridegroom. The table was laid with a lace cloth over orchid and had a centerpiece of orchid gladiolus.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Farris and Mrs. Lem Crawford, all of Richland Springs; the bride's aunt, Miss True Crawford of Richland Springs; and the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Olenick of Falls City.

Also attending from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Moczygmba and Roger of San Antonio, Mrs. Bobby Morgan and Rebecca Lynn of Kenedy, Mrs. H. E. Crawford of Brady, the Rev. and Mrs. Thomas R. Brower, Tommy R. and Marlene of San Antonio, and Bron, Thomas, Alphonse, Jimmy and Carolyn Olenick, brothers and sister of the bridegroom from Falls City.

After the reception the couple left for a trip to Fort Davis, Big Bend, and Carlsbad Caverns.

The bride is a graduate of Sonora High School, and the bridegroom is a graduate of Falls City High School. He is employed by the State Highway Department in Sonora. The couple will live in Sonora.

PTA HEARS MRS. LOWE

Modern-day children are raised by their mothers and have little contact with their fathers. Mrs. Rex Lowe, speaking before the PTA Tuesday afternoon, pointed this fact out in "Family-A Home Basis."

She said that a few years ago fathers had more time to devote to raising the families but work, committees and clubs sapped more and more of the father's leisure hours. This companionship is still needed although it is no longer available.

Mrs. Lois Fields reported on the district workshop held in Eldorado recently.

The Devil's Workshop

An Idle Mind Column

By Della King

"Sonora Store—where is it, or where was it? Can some of our well-informed readers tell us about this picture and where it was taken? Scratch your heads and think back, but don't be surprised if you come up with a wrong answer." That was our invitation to our readers last week.

We sat back to watch the results, and we were surprised.

The Pinkerton crew of Sonora accepted the challenge and soon dissected that picture and discovered more facts from it than I had dreamed of.

The guessers knew immediately that the store is not presently in Sonora. The first speculations placed the building here years ago.

"Maybe it was the old Gibson store that burned," Joe D. Cook commented. Boyd Lovelace and others remembered the W. W. Gibson store, a Cosden station located on old Highway 290 close to the present-day Lutheran Church.

John Eaton tried to recall an early-day Sonora Store. "But the scenery doesn't look right," he said.

Then the guessers started to close in, and the trail got hot. Like Perry Mason, they began to collect the evidence.

"Those gasoline pumps are the new type," said Joe Neil Smith and many others, proving that the picture had been taken within the past few years.

Another group, including Bill Smith, spied the gasoline sign in the upper left-hand corner. "DX gas isn't sold here," they told us.

Well, there were the facts, ma'am. The equipment is fairly new, and the gasoline brand is not sold in Sonora, Texas. Furthermore, our readers informed us that the design of the cigarette packages pictured, the filter cigarettes being sold, and the plastic on the screen doors all confirmed the fact that the picture is not a relic from the past.

And so the conclusion was reached.

"I don't think it's in Sonora," said Gene Shurley.

"It's Sonora somewhere else," commented Dave Locklin.

"Not in Sonora," said Louie Trainer.

"That store is not in Sonora, Texas," said Jimmy Harris and many others.

If it isn't in Sonora, Texas, where is it? And that turned out to be a knottier question.

"There's a Sonora, Mexico," Boyd Lovelace said.

"There are also Sonoras in Kentucky, California, and Pennsylvania," Bob Hemphill added to the store of information after some research at the Post Office.

Others mentioned Fort Terrett and Juno. Harold Scherz guessed that it might be in Colorado.

James Trainer did some careful thinking and entered Conway, Arkansas, as his guess.

"I wonder if there is a Sonora, Arkansas," Bob Hemphill mused SONORA STORE—Our well-informed readers examined the picture and catalogued a score of facts about it. They told us clearly where the store wasn't and where it isn't.

So the Devil must confess. The Sherlocks of Sonora are right. Jack McDermott snapped the picture recently in an Arkansas village named Sonora when he was on a fishing trip. The village is between Tulsa, Oklahoma, and Mountain Home, Arkansas.

We thank Jack for bringing the picture in and giving us and our readers a lot of fun.

And I'll bet the Sonora Store owners would be amazed to know about the examination their building has had this week.

Child With Income
May Be Claimed
As Tax Exemption

This is the time of year when fathers worry about how much summer income their sons and daughters earned before going back to school. According to the Internal Revenue Service, Dad has an income tax exemption for his son or daughter if he provides principal support.

There are still a lot of Dads who fail to understand that although Sue may have to file a tax return on her own income because she made more than $600, he can still claim an exemption for Sue on his own tax return. Sue claims her own exemption on her return. Dad will also claim her on his return.

As long as Dad provides principal support and Sue is a full time student or under 19, Dad keeps the exemption. Of course, if she gets married and files a joint return with the new husband, Dad loses Sue and her exemption.
