Commission Eyes Road Possibility

Members of the County commission met Monday morning and voted to pass a resolution, subject to the approval of the majority of landowners involved, with Kimble and Edwards counties requesting the Texas Highway Commission to build an area development road.

The proposed road would come from Rockspings north all the way through the Station B road to the present US 290, then the road would branch at the Roy Baker ranch, and come to the northwest to join in with the Bond road coming to Sonora. The road would also branch off about one mile north of the Sutton County line and go east down the "Cardwell" road to Telegraph.

1965-66 basketball season and finished regular district play undefeated with a 95 to 65 win over the Junction Eagles. The win brought the season record to 17 and 9.

The Broncos scored eight points before Junction was able to get the ball through the hoop and stayed ahead throughout the game.

This was the Broncos largest scoring thrust of the season and it proved to be too much for the Eagles. So much, in fact, that they went into a stall the last two minutes of the ball game to keep Sonora from scoring any more.

Four members of the red and white were able to get into the double figures in scoring. Mike Wuest led the Broncos with a fantastic 33 points. Laney Cook followed with 20. Noe Chavez had 18 and Eddie Howended up with 11 points. For Junction, Tommy Randle dropped in nearly half their total points with 31.

Score By Quarters:

	1	2	3	4	T
Sonora	27	23	20	25	95
Junction	16	17	20	12	65

The "B" team also had a field night with their Junction counterparts as they scored 94 points while allowing their opponents only 32.

Mike Gosney had 19 points to lead the "B" teamers. He was followed by J. V. Cook with 18, Bud Smith with 16, and Dick Hamilton with 10. The "B" team finished its season with a 13 and 7 record.

'66 Battle Lines Drawn For Upcoming Primaries

Politically speaking, the die is cast for 1966. All politically aspiring Texans made their desires public when they filed before the deadline last week to run in either the Democratic or Republican primaries, May 7.

As the Democratic primary draws near, the spotlight falls on the race for State senator for the 25th district and State representative for district 65. These are the only two offices wherein the candidates meet with opposition.

The race for State senator finds incumbent Dorsey B. Hardeman pitted against W. E. (Pete) Snelson, also an incumbent who served in the Senate representing district 29. Because of the State's compliance with the federal court's "one man, one vote" ruling, redistricting combined areas served by both of the prospective Democratic candidates and resulted in a race between two incumbents.

Hilary Doran, an attorney from Del Rio, will run against Albert R. Smith, an Eagle Pass real estate broker, to determine which Democratic candidate will run for the position of State representative, district 65.

Incumbents O. C. Fisher, representative of the U. S. Congress, 21st district, and District Judge Charles Sherrill will meet with no opposition in the Democratic primary.

Filing with the Republican committee for the office of State senator, 25th district, was Raymond J. St. Germain, an independent oil operator, of Midland.

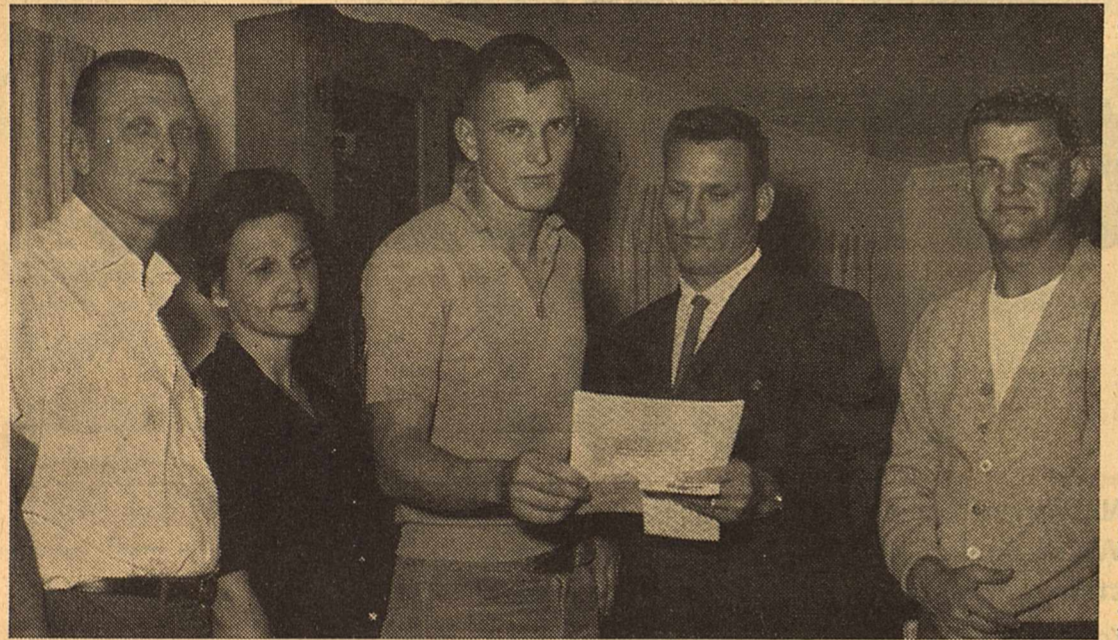

Locally, all incumbent officials are seeking reelection this year. This list includes J. W. Elliott for County judge, Mrs. Erma Lee Turner for County clerk, Collier Shurley and R. L. Hardgrave for County commissioners, Mrs. B. W. Hutcherson for County treasurer, and Alfred Cooper for justice of the peace.

Joe Brown Ross will run for chairman of the County Democratic executive committee, having held that position for many years.

Mike Wuest Signs With Red Raiders

by Gary McGilvray
Mike Wuest, All-District and All-West Texas end for the Sonora Broncos, has signed a letter of pre-enrollment with Texas Technological College in Lubbock.

Wuest signed the letter last week and will sign a contract to play football at Tech after he has finished his high school sports competition.

He will receive a full four-year scholarship to play the end position and possibly to do the kicking chores for the Red Raiders.

Wuest, at 6 feet 4 inches and 193 pounds, was one of the largest players on the 1965 Bronco football team which won the District 8-A championship and defeated Clint in Bi-District before being stopped by Coahoma in the regional contest.

He also had the kicking duties for the Broncos and averaged 41.2 yards a punt. He converted on 22 out of 25 extra point attempts with one field goal to his credit.

In addition to his football honors Wuest was named to the All-District squad in basketball last year.

Miss Whitworth Win Debating Honors

Miss Carla Whitworth and her colleague, Miss Elaine Yarbrough, members of the North Texas State University debate squad, recently defeated a Baylor University team in the finals to win the first place trophy in senior women's division at a tournament at Abilene Christian College.

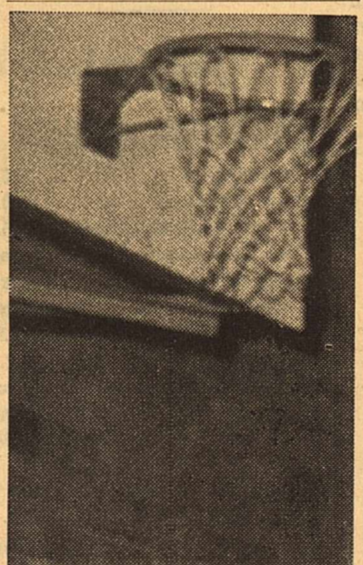

The previous weekend they won second place at Baylor University's tournament in Waco. Schools from California, Georgia, Kansas, Oklahoma, Mississippi, Missouri, and Texas competed in the tournaments.

Originally of McAllen, the Shaffers have lived in Sonora for a year and a half. The promotion includes a relocation in Rio Grande City. Shaffer will take over his new post February 21.

The Shaffers have one son, Michael Lynn.

GOING FOR TWO POINTS is Eddie Howell as a Junction defender looks on helplessly. This action was in the Junction-Sonora game played here last Friday night. The Broncos won this, their last regular season game, by a lopsided score of 95-65.

G. Wallace, B. Teaff To Seek Reelection To School Board

George Wallace and Bob Teaff, incumbent members of the Sonora School Board have announced recently for reelection. The election date was set for April 2 to be held at the Courthouse, when the board met for a regular meeting Monday morning.

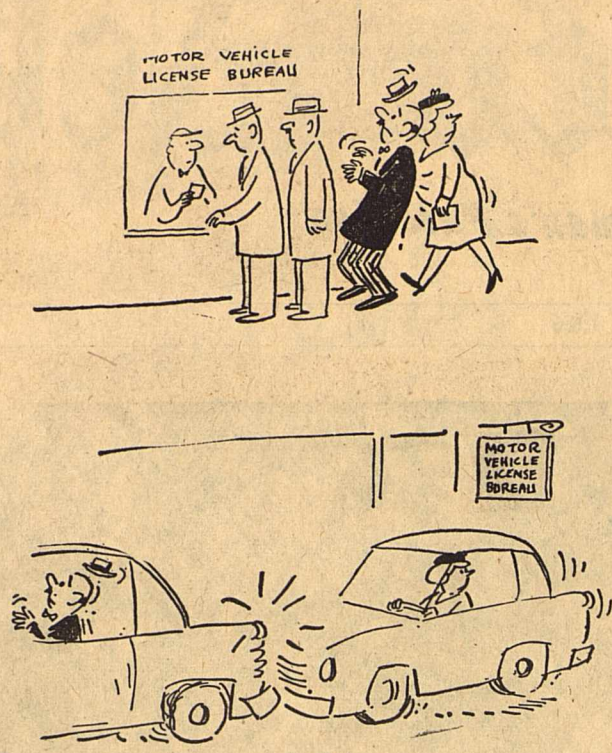

The school board voted to meet with four architects February 21 to discuss the possibility of entering into a contract with an architectural firm to devise preliminary plans and cost estimates on a new gym and certain other facilities.

HEART SUNDAY - AND YOU

The heart and blood vessel diseases are now costing this nation about 1,000,000 lives yearly. They account for about 54 percent of all deaths. Latest statistics indicate that about 14,600,000 adult Americans suffer from heart disease, and an additional 6,900,000 are victims of hypertension. In addition to the 14,600,000 persons with definite heart disease, there are 13,000,000 persons with suspect heart disease. Is the outlook hopeless? Not at all. For those aged below 65, the tide has seemingly begun to turn. Since the onset of massive cardiovascular research program in 1950 there has been a 15 percent decline in the death rate from heart and blood vessel disease among men and women aged below 65. For men aged 45-64 the overall decline was 7½ percent, 1950-1962, despite an actual increase in the death rate due to heart attack.

Now is the time to remember that this life-or-death fight has one central, spearheading force — your Heart Association. It has been in the thick of the battle since the first Heart Fund Campaign in 1949. It has the support, confidence and direction of 30,000 physicians and scientists — men and women who represent the most authoritative body of opinion on heart disease in the United States.

Now also is the time to remember that you have a very definite stake in this fight, since hearts come only one to a customer. So be generous. When you Heart Sunday volunteer calls at your home, February 27, give her a warm welcome. Open your heart, and your pocketbook. Give — so more will live.

Philosopher Says Castro Needs Lessons On Communistic Ways

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch explains some of the facts of life to Castro in his letter this week. Unfortunately, Castro doesn't subscribe to The Devil's River News.

Dear editor:
According to a newspaper which a friend in town gave me yesterday, well I don't think he exactly gave it to me, he rustled it sort of impatiently to indicate he had something else to do besides talk with me and handed it over as I left to make sure I was on my way, Castro is having some more trouble in Cuba.

In addition to being pushed off the front page by Viet Nam, Castro is having a hard time understanding Communism.

Red China, he explained to his people in a four-hour television speech, promised to deliver him a million tons of rice or some such amount and to take some of his sugar in exchange, but now she has gone back on her word and he thinks this is outrageous.

Somebody ought to take Castro aside and tell him all about Communism. He ought to find out that when a Communist leader for example says I'll send you a million tons of rice, it means what the ordinary person means when he says I'll dance at your wedding. It has nothing to do with dancing or delivering rice. When a Russian Communist says Stalin was a saint, what he means is he's a saint till everybody is ordered to call him a bum. Truth in Communist countries is like a calendar in other countries. After 30 days you tear off a page and start over. What you said in January has nothing to do with what you say in February. Castro is sort of new at the Communism business and I'm afraid he's in for a lot of disappointments if he goes around believing what his new friends tell him. It's a very unreliable way to get any rice. Fidel, a Communist's word is as good as his bond, which is why nobody would buy one.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Texas Press Association
AUSTIN—They're back at it again! Texas legislators were called back to Austin for a special session Monday by Gov. John Connally.

A three-judge federal court's order knocking out the poll tax as a requirement for voting prompted Governor Connally, on advice of Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr, to call the extraordinary meeting of lawmakers. Purpose is to pass a voter registration law in case Carr's appeal of the lower court's decision to the U. S. Supreme Court is lost.

Texas has no other form of voter registration than machinery for collecting the poll tax, noted the governor. If the Supreme Court agrees that the $1.75 levy is an unconstitutional infringement on due process, Carr and Connally feared local election officials would find it "virtually impossible to determine who is a qualified voter."

Connally made it clear that if the Supreme Court accepts Texas' appeal and delays final disposition through 1966 elections, only those who paid the poll tax by January 31 will be permitted to vote. Come what may, the governor thinks those who paid the levy should be considered automatically registered this year.

Federal judges here, while convinced the poll tax is an improper "charge on a very precious constitutional right", disagreed with U.S. Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach that it has been employed in modern times to deny Negroes the right to vote. All evidence, they concluded, is to the contrary.

As limited as the special session's subject matter is, state lawmakers already are finding room to disagree. Some think voters should be required to register every year to guarantee purity of the ballot box. Others feel the new law should allow re-registration by voting in elections.

A proposed state constitutional amendment to abolish the poll tax which will be voted on next November calls for annual registration.

CAMPAIGNS BEGIN—They're off and running in the May 7 primary elections!

Filing deadline last week found seven contested Democratic races and eight Republican candidates filed. All eight GOP candidates were unopposed.

Democratic primary spotlight is on the attorney general's race between Crawford C. Martin (who resigned as secretary of state) and Sens. Franklin Spears of San Antonio and Galloway Calhoun of Tyler.

P. S. Ervin of Dallas joined the Democratic contest for railroad commissioner which included incumbent Byron Tunnel of Tyler and Rep. Paul Haring of Golliad.

Fred Williams, Del Rio, was a late entry against Democratic Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler.

District Judge John F. Onion of San Antonio is opposing Court of Criminal Appeals Judge W. T. McDonald of Bryan.

Rep. Bill Hollowell of Grand Saline, last man to post his $1,000 filing fee, is taking on Lt. Gov. Preston Smith. Lubbock, Hollowell's teammate, Stanley C. Woods of Houston, and Mrs. Johnnie Mae Hackworth of Brenham, are opposing Governor Connally.

Agriculture Commissioner John C. White of Wichita Falls, Comptroller Robert S. Calvert of Austin, Treasurer Jesse James of Austin and three incumbent State Supreme Court judges have no Democrat opposition.

Emphasis this year obviously will be on the November general election clash between GOP U. S. Sen. John Tower, seeking re-election, and the Democratic nominee. Candidates on the Democratic primary ballot are Waggoner Carr and John R. Willoughby of Houston.

Other Republican candidates are T. E. Kennerly, Houston, for governor; Kellis Dibrell, Seguin, for lieutenant governor; Robb Stewart of Dallas for attorney general; Rudy T. Garza, Corpus Christi, comptroller; L. D. Gilmer, Houston, treasurer; Albert B. Fay, Houston, land commissioner; and Jack Garrett, Danbury, agriculture commissioner.

APPOINTMENTS—Governor Connally named T. D. Armstrong of Galveston, Wells Stewart and Ralph S. O'Connor, Houston, to the board of directors of Texas Southern University.

Governor picked as new Texas Animal Health Commissioners R. W. Hodge of Del Rio and Dent Ingram of Carrizo Springs.

He appointed Mrs. Margarette Bortel of San Antonio to State Board of Cosmetology.

EDUCATION STUDIES BEGIN—Two important studies of the public school system have been launched. A spokesman for one predicts teachers will ask another $500 a year raise at next year's legislative session.

Governor's Committee on Public School Education, directed to make a far-reaching report on school needs, held its first meeting here and selected Glenn H. Ivy, Texas Research League staff member, as its director.

House Interim Committee on Education decided to collect comparative data on what teachers are paid over the nation. Rep. Charles Wilson of Lufkin said he believes teachers will ask another pay raise in 1967. They got one in 1965.

MANUFACTURING AT RECORD LEVEL—All-time highs in employment, payrolls and value of output were set by Texas manufacturing industries in 1965, and outlook is even brighter for 1966.

So concludes a study of Texas industrial expansion by the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Total Texas manufacturing employment this year is expected to rise by 13 percent, with highest increase in electrical machinery production. Estimated value added by manufacture for 1966 is anticipated to be slightly above $8,500,000,000, a 21 percent rise over 1965.

A serious problem facing Texas manufacturers, BBR noted, is a shortage of skilled labor (particularly machinists) and engineers for the Manned Spacecraft Center in Houston.

Shortages of engineers, machinists, technicians and managerial talent emphasizes again the "need to provide a superior educational system at the elementary, secondary and college levels," BBR stresses. Many industries, Bureau warns, can move where needed labor is available, and there is less and less work for the uneducated and unskilled.

WATER RIGHTS—The March 15 hearing of the Texas Water Rights Commission will begin a review of some 200 water permits and certified filings which reports to the commission indicate have not been used for ten years.

Commission was given an assignment by the Legislature to cancel unused water rights, so the water in Texas streams can be allocated to cities and others who need and intend to use it.

Law required cancellation of rights which have not been used for ten years.

Hearing on five such rights on March 15 will launch the review. A second set, involving rights in Lee, Ellis, Wilson, Oldham and Jack Counties, is set for hearing March 30.

CALLING A HALT TO SOME OF THE BOOSTER HI-JINKS that prevailed throughout last Thursday night's game, which pitted the "Fatbellies" against the "Flatbellies," is coach Jerry Hopkins, far left, Marciano Hernandez Jr., George Johnson, Norman Rousselot, and Melvin Semmler were some of the Boosters who participated in one of the featured events of the evening—boxing-glove basketball. Coach Oliver Wuest, right, attempts to untangle the pile up, while at far right, Buddy Brown takes it easy.

Teen Scene

By Margaret Bundy

The main point of interest during the past week was the stock show in San Antonio. The Band left at 3 p.m. Thursday, and 4-H members were gone off and on all during the week. Some of the other kids who were down there were Larry Shroyer, Jim Fish, Susan Allison, Joe Moore, Wayne Bryant, Libb Wallace, Chris Berger, and Mark Jacoby.

Erwin Seydler of Uvalde was in town visiting Jackie Cargill during the weekend.

Sherry and Cari Eustace were in Sonora this weekend, too.

Janice Middleton reports that she has been grounded for polishing cars with the wrong kind of polish. How many times did you have to wash that car to get the shoe polish off, Janice?

Everybody is looking forward to the speech meet next weekend. All the speech students are working diligently trying to prepare their selection. The Junior class will have the concession stand again this year.

Charlie Hopf is home on leave. He will be here for a couple of weeks, and then he is going to Florida.

The Volleyball girls are working hard trying to get ready for their first game. Several of the kids have been hurt, though none of them too seriously. Prissy Howell cracked and chipped her thumb, Brenda McCutchen had "surgery" on her knee, and Glenda Delrie sprained her wrist.

Last week's "Who's Who" was Janie Letsinger. This week's mystery person is a Junior boy. He is about average height, and has dark hair and eyes. He played football this year. Though he has changed an awful lot from the picture, he still is a real cowboy!

The Broncos finished the games for this zone with no defeats. We are all so happy! They will play for the district championship Friday night. GOOD LUCK, BRONCOS!!!

Card of Thanks

To my dear friends and co-workers of the Sonora community, hospital personnel, and the hospital auxiliary:

May I take this means of expressing to you my deep appreciation for the wonderful reception you gave for me on February 6 in recognition for professional service rendered to this community during the past 32 years as a physician. I assure you it has been a pleasure for me to do so.

It is impossible to describe in words what a happy occasion it was for me to be honored in such a way on my seventieth birthday.

I am especially grateful to the ladies who worked so graciously in preparing the beautiful birthday cake and other refreshments at the tea tables.

For the numerous gifts, flowers, cards, telegrams, and other messages, may I say a great big thank you.

I realize that much time and planning was put into preparation of an event such as this turned out to be. My special thanks go to the Bronco Booster Club, Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Browne, Mr. and Mrs. Albert M. Everett, the nurses in the hospital, Mrs. Cris Haines, Mrs. C. M. With Care, Good Guns Can Last A Lifetime

By Vern Sanford
 A good gun can last a lifetime. There is little reason why most any good gun can't last well beyond the life of its owner. All it takes is a little care.

Too many of us get careless with guns. We fail to clean and oil them properly. We toss them around in the back seat of an automobile, or store them away for several months of the year in some damp spot where rust can develop.

In the olden days much better care was taken of fowling pieces. In the first place, a gun was essential to a man. He needed it for taking food and sometimes for protection. He used black powder, with mercuric primers that would cause corrosion.

Back in those days when the hunter came home he swabbed out the tubes of his shotgun with soap suds, or wiped his rifle barrel clean with a good commercial cleaner capable of eliminating the mercury flakes from the primer.

Then along came the non-mercuric primers. Black powder gave way to smokeless and we were told it was no longer necessary to clean a gun after every shoot.

Some believed this. As a result their guns became pitted. Not from the effects of the primer and powder, but from handling and moisture that got into the barrels.

If you are shooting a gun every day, it still is a good idea to clean it often. It should be wiped thoroughly with a silicone cloth after every handling.

I know a fellow who has a cabinet containing a dozen or more fine guns. They are under a locked glass door, away from easy handling. But occasionally some friend does get to look them over. Before they are put back into their rack they are wiped over with the silicone cloth. This prevents any possibility of barrel rust from damp fingers, and handprints.

This chap has one gun in his case that is 60 years old. It has been used a lot under almost every condition. First shells shot in it were black powder with mercury primers. But today that gun is just as shiny as it can be. It has no rust spots, even though the blue is worn thin in places. And the wood still retains its polish.

There are many agents on the market today for cleaning guns. Some are solvents, some are inhibitors which can be applied under pressure. Then there are the old reliable oils, any of which will do a good job.

Many gun owners find that a 15¢ can of household lubricant available in any service station is adequate. It certainly is better than nothing at all.

If you treat your gun properly you won't care whether it is guaranteed for your lifetime or not. It still will be shooting good when it passes into the hands of your grandson.

A motorist, hurt in a collision with a freight train, sued the railroad for damages. But in court, the railroad retorted that the motorist himself was guilty of negligence.

"He crossed those tracks twice a day for months," noted the railroad. "Yet he admits he failed to look out for a train."

"On this particular occasion," explained the motorist, "I just happened to forget about the tracks. But that isn't negligence. Everyone has a lapse of memory once in a while."

However, the court ruled that his excuse was no excuse at all and that he was indeed guilty of negligence.

If you should ever seek damages for an injury, your own conduct is likely to come under careful scrutiny. Were you partly to blame for the accident? If you knew that danger lay ahead, is it an excuse to say "I forgot about it"?

The general rule is: no. On the contrary, forgetfulness itself is one of the commonest forms of negligence. Said one court:

"Though we may regard with amused tolerance the proverbial abstractions of middle age hunting for the thimble on its finger, and of old age troubled that it cannot find the glasses on its nose, absentmindedness is not a satisfactory standard of care in the modern world."

Nevertheless, the law does not expect you to have instant and total recall of everything you have ever known. Mitigating circumstances may make your forgetfulness forgivable.

One such circumstance is the mere passage of time. Thus:

A schoolteacher who stumbled in a hallway won damages from the school board, even though she had known the floor was defective. Because the defect was hard to see, and because three weeks had gone by since she noticed it, the court decided she bore no blame for the accident.

Another possible excuse for forgetting is that something suddenly and forcefully diverted your attention.

In one case an elderly woman, walking home alongside a lonely road, heard men's voices in the darkness ahead. Terrified, she crossed the road—momentarily forgetting, in her panic, that there was a sharp dip on that side.

She fell, suffered assorted injuries, and sued the county. And the court, in upholding her claim, found no negligence in her impulsive action.

"There is a clear distinction," a judge commented, "between forgetfulness which is one phase of negligence, and a sudden arising of conditions which throw one off his guard."

Come in and take on a tiger!

The only thing that looks low-priced on a Pontiac Tempest is its price sticker.

And that's removable.

Take it off, and there's just a pure, unabridged Pontiac: crisp, Wide-Track style and handling. A handsome interior. Plus the effervescent performance of a new, overhead cam 6 engine that puts out with all the spunk of an 8, yet saves like the traditional 6. And of course, being a Pontiac, Tempest allows you the luxury of choice—with options in engines, transmissions, suspensions, practically everywhere. And like all Pontiacs, Tempest also has a standard safety package with items like seat belts to buckle—front and rear. (That ought to do for now. We'll tell you the rest when you get here.)

YOUR MINISTER SAYS

by the Rev. Arno Melz, pastor, Hope Lutheran Church

"The fool hath said in his heart, there is no God, They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good." Psalms 14:1

We are living in a day and age when there are many fools, according to this definition. On the radio and television, in magazines and newspapers, people are quoted as saying there is no God. This week a college professor at a supposedly religious school boldly stated, "God is dead." These people are fools.

The Bible tells us why they are fools and the cause of their foolishness. People who deny there is a God are fools because the very existence of the world stands as living proof of a divine maker and preserver. This knowledge has also been written in man's heart. Everyone has a knowledge of a higher power. Finally, to remove all doubt God has revealed Himself to us through His Word, as the one true God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

The Bible states that people are sinners, all have done evil. This message has no great terror to the believer, because through Jesus we have forgiveness. The unbeliever, not having this comfort, tries to comfort himself by saying there is no God. The unbeliever tries to quiet his conscience by saying no God, no punishment.

Many times in the past Christians have merely said, "The poor fool," and remained quiet, sort of turning the other cheek. This is not true Christianity, followers of Christ are to be heard. We have the command to preach the Gospel to everyone. We cannot be witnesses by being quiet when others publicly declare there is no God.

These fools are dangerous. They are dangerous to themselves, because there is no hope of forgiveness or heaven without Jesus. These fools are dangerous to us because of the close connection between people who say there is no God and Communism. These fools are dangerous because they are trying to make fools of you and me.

Don't be a fool, don't act like a fool. There is a God! He is watching you, protecting you, providing for you, He loves you. Take time to learn more about Him through Bible Study, worship and prayer. Don't be a fool.

100 DPS Positions To Be Vacant Soon

Career employment in the ranks of the Texas Department of Public Safety uniformed services is currently being offered young men between the ages of 21 and 35, it was announced today by Col. Homer Garrison Jr., DPS Director.

"More than 100 of these positions of trust and public service will soon be open for qualified men," Garrison said. "They include opportunities for advanced education, excellent physical conditioning, and a permanent career of serving mankind."

There are four branches of service for which men are directly recruited—highway patrol, license and weight, motor vehicle inspection, and driver licensing. Trainees are assigned to the service for which they are best suited.

Upon graduation from the 16-week training program at the DPS Law Enforcement Academy in Austin, the trainee is commissioned into one of these services. At the academy, he will receive a salary while in training. He will be taught such subjects as Texas Highway Law, accident investigation, first aid, professional driving, care and use of firearms, and many others.

Benefits afforded patrolmen include two weeks annual vacation; 12 or more holidays each year; 12 days sick leave each year; $10 per month longevity for each five years of service; modern liberal retirement privileges based on age and years of service; travel expense. DPS patrolmen are furnished all uniforms and equipment necessary for performance of their duties.

Garrison urged interested men to get their applications in early. June 6 is the deadline for receipt of applications for the June 11 examination for the next training school opening August 9.

Applications and full information can be obtained by contacting any DPS patrolman or office, or by writing to Personnel and Training, Texas Department of Public Safety, Box 4087, North Austin Station, Austin, Texas 78751.

STRONG CHURCHES Make STRONG COMMUNITIES

Watch That THUMB!

Peter loves to "fix things," even though he sometimes gets hurt in the process. Yesterday he pinched his finger with the pliers. Today, he'll probably end up by banging his thumb with the hammer. But tomorrow he'll be right back at it again... learning the hard way!

From childhood, we learn best by personal experience. Our natural curiosity makes it difficult for us to accept advice from others. We want to find out for ourselves... and life has some hard lessons to teach us. Among other things, we have to discover that material possessions are no guarantee of happiness... and that money can't buy love, or health, or peace of mind.

Religious faith is another aspect of life that must not be left unexplored. Christianity has been tested by time... and it stands ready to be tested by YOU. Don't miss the greatest experience of all. Visit the church of your choice this Sunday.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Researchers Need Golden Eagle Bodies

Nolan Johnson urged ranchers recently to turn into him the bodies of any depredated golden eagles, taken under federal regulations.

He pointed out that many ranchmen are reluctant to turn in the eagles because they are not aware that the taking of golden eagles without a permit has been authorized by federal law under certain conditions. The birds, however, are not protected by State law.

Johnson said that the bodies of these birds were needed for studies concerning age, migration, and other data.

He explained that the taking of golden eagles without a permit to seasonally protect domesticated livestock during the period from December 15, 1965, through June 15, 1966, in Sutton County was subject to the following federal conditions:

1. When taken for the protection of domesticated livestock and only by livestock owners and their agents.

2. When taken by any suitable means or methods except by the use of poison or from aircraft.

3. When taken in accordance with these conditions, the birds may not be possessed, purchased, sold, traded, bartered, or offered for sale, trade, or barter.

4. Any person taking golden eagles in accordance with these conditions must at all reasonable times, including during actual operations, permit any federal or State game law enforcement officer free and unrestricted access over the premises on which such operations have been or are being conducted; and shall furnish promptly to such officer whatever information he may require concerning such operations.

CONSERVATION: THE KEY TO PLENTY

Editor's note: Following is the essay which won first place in the high school division of the 1966 annual essay contest sponsored by the Edwards Plateau soil conservation district.)

by Jim Fish

The future may be entered through one of two doors. We can open the first one simply by turning the knob; however, the other door can be opened only with a special key.

Behind the first door lies a land that has been laid to waste by misuse; a land of fields no longer fertile, range land no longer able to support livestock, and wildlife no longer present. The trees that once beautified our land are gone. The few rivers that still flow do so sluggishly, polluted to the point that they no longer contain fish. The Great Plains is a true "Great American Desert." It is a maze of gullies, no longer capable of supplying the grains that now feed our people and our animals. The people, our grandchildren, great grandchildren, are weak from malnutrition. Yes, behind this first door is a famine unlike any that the world has ever known.

But, let us not forget the other door. Behind it lies a land where the wildlife drinks cool, clear water from the many rivers in which fish are abundant. Trees stand majestically in the forests. The fields are fertile and the range lands are still covered with grass. Living on this beautiful land are our tomorrows, healthy and vigorous because food is plentiful. We can hardly associate our thriving land with that which is seen through the first door, the door that can be opened so easily. Yet to have a land in the future like that behind the other door, we must use a special key. That key is conservation—the key to plenty!

Prevention, Key To Curbing Accidents

Kitchen safety is no accident. It requires careful planning and good work habits, according to Mrs. Wanda Meyer and Mrs. Elsie Short, Texas A&M University Extension home management specialists.

The following are some suggestions for staying safe in the kitchen:

Reduce the probability of falls by wiping up all fat splatters and spills as soon as they occur. Avoid excess wax, and buff the floor well following each waxing.

Use a steady stool for reaching high objects. If tightening all screws still fails to make the stool firm and steady, it's time to replace it.

Many burns—another cause of serious accidents—can be prevented. Store lifting tongs close to the cooking center. Pot-lifters for handling hot utensils should be kept close to the oven. Mitts serve well for this—just be sure they are well padded. Keep utensil handles and tea-kettle spouts turned toward the back of the stove and out of all traffic lanes where they might get upset.

Tighten all utensil handles regularly. A loose handle or one that turns is a frequent cause of burns, the specialists caution.

Safe storage and careful use of knives and can openers can help reduce the possibility of cuts. Guard against fatigue. Remember that too much haste makes people more accident prone.

Store sharp knives separately, and preferably in a holder. Use a cutting board whenever possible. Establish the good habit of cutting away from yourself.

All electric cords, plugs and switches should be checked regularly. Repair or replace them as needed.

Texas 4-H Horse Show Set in Alamo City

The Texas Youth Development Foundation has accepted the invitation of the San Antonio Chamber of Commerce to hold the 1966 Texas 4-H Horse Show at Joe Freeman Coliseum, Aug. 12-13.

Jerry D. Wheat, Foundation board chairman, announced recently that the Alamo City was selected as a site for the 1966 Horse Show as a result of a joint invitation extended by chamber president Red McCombs and Joe Freeman, general chairman of the chamber's Farm and Ranch Committee.

Wheat said planning and staging the show will be coordinated by the Farm and Ranch Committee, the Texas 4-H Youth Development Foundation and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The Texas 4-H Horse Show brings together winners of 12 4-H district shows held throughout the state.

Some 300 winners of district competitions will vie at the coliseum in August for trophies and ribbons awarded annually by Texas Electric Coops, Inc.

Youths interested in participating in the show should contact D. C. Langford, Sutton County agent.

Stainless Steel May Well Be Next Carpet, Rug Fiber

Think twice before discarding those used stainless steel razor blades. The textile industry may soon want them for fibers to turn into carpets and rugs, says Mrs. Jane Berry, Texas A&M University Extension housing and home furnishings specialist.

Stainless steel may well be the next carpet fiber on the market, and the transition from razor blades to rugs may offer opportunity for industry development, according to leaders in the home furnishings industry field. Finely drawn stainless steel filaments for carpets could well be the next major industry development, they predict.

They emphasize that ultra-fine steel filaments are already being knitted and woven into many textile structures for space age requirements, including grids and meshes for special military needs and survival gear for astronauts.

One of the most recent developments comes from a Swedish firm that has successfully processed stainless steel into fibers 7,000th of a millimeter thick. The steel fibers can be woven into materials resembling normal light weight textiles.

Mrs. Berry said the filaments are reported to be soft to the touch and show possibilities for use in carpets and rugs that would never wear out. An advantage of the new material is that the steel acts as a conductor, resulting in static-free floor covering and garments.

Several companies in the United States are currently engaged in research designed to perfect metal fibers that can be successfully woven or knitted into fabrics suitable for apparel and home furnishings.
