Mrs. Hull expressed disappointment at having missed seeing Jackie Kennedy, who visited the palace a day later than the Eastern Star group.

Mrs. Hull emphasized the friendliness of the Hawaiian people especially to her Eastern Star group. When she arrived in Hawaii, she was immediately given a traditional Hawaiian welcome and then she and her group were invited to tour the ornate Eastern Star and Scottish Rite facilities in Honolulu.

On her visit to the island of Hawaii, Mrs. Hull saw the volcanic craters and found that one of these volcanoes was an orchid grove. She visited many historical sites of

Tourist Clinic Is Success With 88 People Attending

The first "Selling and Serving Tourist Clinic" held here June 22 and 23, was termed a big success by almost everyone who attended the classes.

Purpose of the five-hour course taught by George Jordan, West Texas Chamber of Commerce representative, was to help those who come in closest contact with tourists and the traveling public. The course was inclined primarily toward the tourist business in Sonora, but those who attended got valuable information on public relations in general.

Some 88 people attended the clinic held in the 4-H Center in two sessions each day. This number was the best attendance Jordan has received in any other one of the six clinics he has taught this year.

In Wednesday's classes Jordan devoted 2½ hours to explaining "What's It All About." In these classes he explained that tourists were "Home folks away from home," and he listed some 20 items able information on public relations in general.

CAN WE WAVE THE FLAG TOO MUCH?

Is it possible to wave the flag too much? Provided, of course, that you wave it with integrity? Is it possible to study Lincoln or Shakespeare too much? Is it possible to read the Bible too much?

The great, the good, the true, are inexhaustible for inspiration, example and strength. I believe that we are not waving our flag enough, not nearly enough.

It seems to me that we are developing a tendency to be timid or even apologetic about waving the stars and stripes. Walk up and down the streets on July 4th and count the flags. It is our nation's birthday, a sacred day in world history, the most important day of America. Why isn't the flag flying on every rooftop and from every home and building? This complacent attitude is strong evidence of cancerous patriotic decay. The flag is a symbol of our national unity. It is the spirit of our undying devotion to our country. It stands for the best that is in us... for loyalty, character, and faith in democracy.

Isn't our flag a synonym of the United States of America? Does it not represent man's greatest, noblest, most sublime dream? Is it not the zenith of achievement, the goal to which generations have aspired?

Ladies and gentlemen, I believe it is time for us... for the mad, rushing Twentieth Century American... to stop for a moment and think. Let us arrest our near reverential admiration of material success and return to the spiritual and ethical values. Let us imbue and rekindle in ourselves and our children the so-called old-fashioned way of patriotism, a burning devotion to the principles and ideals upon which our country was founded.

Should not every home own and proudly display the colors on holidays and other such occasions? Isn't the flag Patrick Henry, Jefferson, Franklin, Washington, Nathan Hale, Gettysburg and Valley Forge, Paul Revere, Jackson and other great men and women who have given us our heritage. When you look at the flag can't you see the Alamo, Corrigedor, Pearl Harbor, The Monitor, The Merrimac, Wake Island, and Korea? Lest we forget, isn't the flag Flanders Field, Bataan, Iwo Jima, Normandy, Babe Ruth and Davy Crockett? The great events of our past and present are wrapped up in our flag.

It is a symbol of this blessed nation, a giant in industry, education and commerce. Millions of fertile square miles, wheatlands, coal mines, steel plants. Our great republic, the chosen infant destined to be man's last and remaining hope for suffering humanity, a shining beacon of light, noble and glorious, the haven for the oppressed and persecuted and truly God's gift to mankind.

That is what the flag means to me. Can we wave it too much? I don't think so.

BELLS ON INDEPENDENCE DAY

This year there will be many four-year-old Americans ringing bells on July Fourth, who will grow up believing that this was always the custom. Actually it was, from the first Independence Day till about a century ago when the sounds of peace were drowned out by the noise of war, and the day became celebrated only with firecrackers and rockets.

Writing a book called The Seasons of America Past a few years ago, the author unearthed the story about Independence Day bell-ringing, and he mentioned that "it seems with firecrackers disappearing we might well revive that early American custom."

The idea quickly took hold and, supported by organizations and churches and newspapers, it reached millions of people. In 1963 it was passed in Washington as Senate Concurrent Resolution 25, requesting that all American bells, public and private, church, school, fire, college and town bells ring simultaneously at 2 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time on July Fourth.

Some places now ring bells for two minutes, others for four minutes, along with many radio, TV programs, and even public loudspeakers in parks, race-tracks, ball games and on ships at sea.

For the past three years the "Bells on Independence Day" project has been included in Governors' Fourth of July Proclamations, and this holiday which was losing much of its solemn significance, was rekindled into a day of bells ringing out America's birthday, just as it was in the beginning.

It has been said that a thing must be done four times before it becomes a habit, so this fourth year, for the revival of the early American custom of ringing bells on Independence Day, is a most important one.

Perhaps there will be no great bells within reach of your hearing, perhaps you will seem to be the only one ringing a small handbell; but you will know that all over the nation in every state, millions of bells will be ringing out the message democracy and liberty.

A safer and less noisy pastime for children, let them ring bells on this day, proclaiming it America's Birthday. And wherever we are, let us remember this greatest of American days with joy and reverence.

DEVIL'S RIVER PHILOSOPHER SEZ:

He Is Not Planning To Drain U.S. Dollars

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Dry Devil's River indicates his travel plans for the summer.

Dear editor:

According to an article I read in a newspaper which fell out of a tourist's car on the road near my bitterweed ranch the other day—he was bound to be lost, there's nothing out here to see, no hotdog stands, no junkyards, no traffic jams, no road repairs, no big billboards, no motels with "No Vacancy" signs — the United States is concerned about the number of people planning on traveling abroad this summer.

Last summer two and a half million Americans went to Europe and spent nearly 2 billion dollars. This summer the figure will be even bigger, and what worries Washington is the drain on the U.S. dollar. The tourists leave money over there, the Europeans see to that, and once a foreign country gets hold of an American dollar, it never gets back home. Europe argues this is fair, since the Americans are bringing culture back with them, but this is debated in some quarters and actually has never been proved. Oh I guess they pick up some and start back with European wanting to come over here and look at me, and this goes for one or two others around here I could name. As for me, I don't plan to go abroad this summer and upset the dollar balance. Time I make it into Sonora once or twice, I'm played out and my dollar's gone.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

If you think you'll lose, you've lost

Success begins with a person's will
It's all in the state of mind.

Hard work is the yeast that raises the dough.

There are no vacations from the school of experience.

Nothing dries sooner than a tear.

The Devil is never too busy to rock the cradle of a sleeping saint.

Most girls' ambition is to make some man a good husband.

Fun becomes more expensive as you get older... gets scarcer, too.

Miss Kay Campbell and Vance Everett Marry in Candlelight Ceremony Saturday

Miss Kathryn Lee Campbell and Vance Wayne Everett exchanged vows in a candlelight wedding ceremony at First Methodist Church Saturday afternoon, June 25. The Rev. Ross Welch, pastor, officiated at the double-ring rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wray Campbell, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert M. Everett Jr. For her wedding the bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a formal gown of white angemist taffeta with re-embroidered Alencon lace. Seed pearls were scattered on the bodice, elbow-length sleeves, and bell-shaped skirt which swept to a chapel train. She wore a pearl necklace, a gift from her brother.

Her finger-tip veil was of tiered English illusion, and she carried a colonial bouquet of gardenias and mums.

Attending the bride were Miss Karen Davis, maid of honor, and Miss Judy Lancaster, bridesmaid. They wore street-length A-line dresses fashioned of blue sibonne. Matching blue circlets held their net headpieces, and they carried nosegays of white mums.

Roy Glasscock was best man, and Maxie Delrie was groomsman. Ushers were Leslie Phillips Jr. of Fredericksburg and E. H. Griswold IV of San Antonio.

Candlelighters were Gregory Everett, brother of the bridegroom, and Rodney Willman, cousin of the bridegroom.

The mother of the bride wore a blue linen dress with blue accessories, and the bridegroom's mother wore a beige lace dress with green accessories.

Nuptial music was presented by Miss Irene Davis, who sang "Oh Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. S. M. Loeffler, organist.

A reception after the ceremony was held in the fellowship hall of the church which was decorated with ivy and arrangements of garden flowers. Arrangements of white mums in a silver epergne adorned the oval serving table, which was covered with white nylon over taffeta.

Assisting in the houseparty were some 15 friends and relatives, including Mrs. Joe Bob Lawrence of Harlingen and Mrs. R. E. Jones of Dallas, aunts of the bride. Piano music was presented by Mrs. Alfred Schwiening Jr. and Miss Jane Sawyer.

Among those present for the occasion were some 150 out-of-town friends and relatives from Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, Harlingen, Abilene, Fairchild, Fredericksburg, Harper, Mason, Austin, Junction, San Angelo, Bandera, Eldorado, and Fort Worth.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N.M. For traveling Mrs. Everett wore a sea-blue raw silk suit with white accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett both attended Sonora High School, and she is a graduate of an Austin business college. They will be at home in Corpus Christi. Everett is a movie projectionist stationed at the Naval Air Station in Corpus Christi.

GREEN NEWS

by Lunetta Morgan

Oh, oh, what a nice weekend. We found the oasis in the middle of the desert, the Joe Chandler Guest Ranch. Mr. Chandler had his first golf tournament and it was attended by seven Sonora teams plus eleven rooters.

Attending were: Whiskey and Ann Hill, Wilma and Batts Friend, John and Faye McClelland, Jackie and Peggy Sharp, L. P. and Marilyn Bloodworth, James D. and Peggy Trainer, Mickey and Claire Powers, Jo and J. W. Neville, Raymond and Lunetta Morgan, Clayton Hamilton, Doyle Morgan, Shelley Lowe, Jimmy Harris, Bobbie Fawcett, Lin Hicks, George Johnson, Shorty Taylor and Bennie Babb of Pecos.

Clayton and Doyle won the third flight.

An independent appraiser met with Lea Roy Aldwell, the club president, Monday to discuss costs and future plans of the course. This is the first of many meetings that will take place before any steps can be taken on the new course. Let's hope that we can do something before the traffic starts flowing overhead.

Those using the new putting green were Jimmy Trainer, Gary Hardgrave, Chris Berger and Dick Hamilton. No signs of lights yet, but maybe in the near future. Let's hope so.

Do you have a cart and would like a place to put it or are you planning to buy one and would be interested in a shed? The club has voted to build more cart sheds, but they have to have a definite commitment from prospective renters before they can proceed. So please, if you think you want one or will want one, contact Jerry Hopkins or Lea Roy Aldwell.

Golfers on vacation have been the Cavanesses, the Wuests, Jimmy Trainer and Pauline Thompson. We have missed you all.

Midland is having a partnership women's tournament July 6. Anyone interested in going must turn in his handicap by July 5.

The Club is having its annual Fourth of July Tournament Monday. I maybe wrong, but I think that it is to be a mixed low ball foursome. Better check on this, but they are having a tournament, this much we do know.

Golfers having birthdays this week were Chris Berger, Bill Title, Wallas Renfro, Stanley Mayfield, Gary McGilvray, and George Johnson. Happy Birthday!

Jackie Sharp was floored Sunday. Maybe we should say grounded. Jackie walked into a club being swung by Bennie and was hit in the head. After an hour's delay, play was resumed. For awhile John was looking for a substitute and Lin Hicks was already to take over, but Jackie recuperated enough to shoot a 39 by himself on the round. Every time Jackie would flub, John threatened to hit Jackie again.

Word has been received that the ladies are planning a Scotch foursome for July 17. Since the men have their tournaments set up for the first Sunday in the month, we will have a Scotch foursome on the third Sunday. Details on this later.

J. W. Neville played in the San Angelo Invitational Tournament last week. He and Ralph Mayer were partners and were defeated Saturday. As Clayton said, "Some can win and some can't".

Miss Sarah Sawyer Given Luncheon On Davis Ranch

Miss Sarah Sawyer was honored with a luncheon at the ranch home of Mrs. G. H. Davis on June 25. The honoree's chosen colors of yellow and white were used in decorations. The serving table was centered with an arrangement of yellow gladiolas and white mums.

Approximately 20 guests were present, and Miss Sawyer, the bride-elect of Preston Neely, was given a gift.

Mrs. Glasscock Honored with Coffee

Mrs. V. J. Glasscock honored Mrs. Tom Glasscock with a coffee June 15 at the home of Mrs. Sim Glasscock.

The table was decorated with a white linen cloth and was centered with a silver bowl of pink carnations. The register table also had a white linen cloth and a bud vase with a rose.

Those in the houseparty were Misses Jessie Lem Johnson, Cindy Galbreath, Betty Jack Cooper, and Mmes. Turney Friess, Clay Cade, Jerry Zizelman and Fred Savage of San Antonio, R. D. Stephens of

A Parson's Eye View of Sonora

by the Rev. Ross Welch
Fellow Sonorans and Any Visitors Who May be Privileged to Be in Our Midst—Greetings:

After some arm-twisting your editor agreed to let us have space in his paper for a weekly (not weakly, we hope) column in his attractive paper.

For the past three years we have performed such a service for the Devine News. It seemed right appropriate for a parson to write for a publication known as the Devine News. It remains to be seen how well we fit on the Devil's River.

We sat for five hours in a Tourist Clinic last week sponsored by the West Chamber of Commerce. George Jordan had something to say, said it in an interesting and clever manner, and held the attention of his audience, one of the largest he has attracted in any of the towns where he has held his sessions.

The important question that he put to his "students" at the end was, "Will this Clinic have a lasting benefit to Sonora?" Our answer was, "It will if we remember to practice the things you have suggested."

One of the objects of the W.T.C.C. is to induce the visitor to spend another day in West Texas. One of the objectives of the Sonora Chamber is to get them to spend an extra day (or HOUR) in Sonora. Why? Because every hour they spend will make a difference on somebody's cash register.

We were amazed to find there was not a single guest ranch or dude ranch in the area. Most of the out-of-state visitors who stop in Sonora would give their eye teeth (if you have been to the dentist lately, you know that isn't hay) to spend ONE night on a ranch where they could watch normal procedures of shearing, branding, or what have you.

We have the stopper here, The Sonora Caverns, one of the best in the State. But most of those who stop to see the Caverns have a lot of folding green still in their pockets—and they would gladly part with some if they could spend a night on somebody's ranch—cat ranch fare, ride on a second-hand saddle on a gentle horse—not too far—and sleep in a bunk house—with modern plumbing of course. Somebody's missing a bet.

Of course, we parsons would like to have our weekend visitors spend Sunday somewhere in the vicinity and come to church. Jonah discovered a long time ago that one cannot run away from God's jurisdiction, a fact for which every tourist should be thankful; but if he is going on vacation anyway, it does no harm to acknowledge his presence once in awhile.

Whether these visitors drop very much in the plate or not, they surely help to fill the pews left vacant by members who are looking elsewhere for those greener pastures.

The first question many Sonorans have asked us on our first meeting and observing our stature was, "Have you a son old enough to play football?" Sorry, too late.

And it's positively AMAZING how many persons, when we confessed to having been born in Sterling County, asked, with a perfectly blank look on their faces, "Where is Sterling County?"

Are Sutton County people that provincial? Here we are in the same part of West Texas, on the same Edwards Plateau, engaged in the same type of ranching economy, only a couple of counties, Schleicher and Irion—and a little neck of Tom Green, between us—and NOBODY knows where Sterling is!

If we remember correctly Texas' Miss Wool in 1964 was from Sterling County.

How are we going (to use George Jordan's words) "scratch each other's backs" if we do not know where each other live?

Unless you travel quite a bit, you just cannot realize what a distinct impression is made upon the mind of the stranger by little signs of civic pride. For example, the first time we walked up your main street after our arrival, we passed an open alley between two places of business. First, we glanced down between the buildings expecting to see the usual growth of weeds and grass (Johnson that is), candy wrappers and empty cans. We stopped dead still! It was as neat as your front yard.

Then when we reached the end of the street and saw the lovely little sunken garden, Sonora stock went up on our market.

We went home and composed this slogan for the slogan contest: "GOD PUT A LITTLE BIT OF HEAVEN DOWN ON THE DEVIL'S RIVER—AND WE CALL IT 'SONORA'—Stockman's Paradise.

Accidents on Fourth To Claim 31 Texans

The Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety today reported that DPS estimates indicate that 31 persons will die in traffic accidents during the three-day Fourth of July holiday, and cited incidents from last year's Independence Day holiday as examples of how these mishaps might occur.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., DPS director, said the estimate was compiled by the DPS Statistical Services on the basis of past experience and the current trend of traffic deaths. Last year, 28 persons lost their lives in traffic accidents during the holiday period.

"On the first day of last year's holiday period," Garrison said, "a speeding driver lost control of his car and struck a guard rail. His car flipped high into the air and landed upside down. A passenger was killed.

"In another accident, a car pulled from a country road onto a major highway, directly into the path of an oncoming truck. The truck skidded 134 feet but couldn't stop in time. The driver of the car was killed.

"In still a third fatal accident, one car attempted to pass another on the right hand side. The car in front moved to the right, causing the passer to swerve, lose control and overturn. One person was killed, one was injured.

"Our files contain the details of each tragedy," he continued, "and each of them is made even more tragic by the fact that, with proper awareness, they could have possibly been avoided."

Garrison pointed out that the responsibility for avoiding an accident rests with each individual driver.

"Most drivers are basically good drivers," he said. "But too often even the best driver lets his attention wander... and lack of attention to one's driving can be a fatal fault... for instance, last year one man was driving a car with five children as passengers. He entered a curve too fast, hit his brakes and lost control of his car. The vehicle overturned, killing one of the children."

To focus attention on the added dangers of holiday travel and the need for awareness while driving, the DPS will conduct "Operation Mortocide" during the holiday period. From 12:01 a.m., Saturday, July 2, through 11:59 p.m., Monday, July 4, traffic fatalities will be tabulated by the Department and the totals will be announced officially three times daily as a means of keeping safety uppermost in the minds of the motoring public.

"If each driver will assume an attitude of watchfulness and awareness toward the actions of other drivers," Garrison said, "the number of accidents can be materially reduced. Paying attention could well make the difference of a split-second between a near-miss and a fatal crash."

As a part of the DPS' operation, calling for maximum enforcement and public support, additional personnel from other uniformed services of the DPS will augment the regular Highway Patrol force.

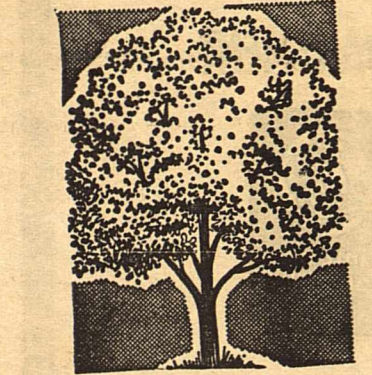

In addition, Garrison added, numerous agencies, organizations and individuals will help in the coordinated program to cut down on traffic accidents by taking part in the Operation Mortocide.

The Texas Council of Safety Supervisors and the Texas Motor Transportation Association will conduct a "Holiday Road Patrol" in which a fleet of 35 to 40 cars will be used over the state to assist stranded motorists, thus relieving highway patrolmen for enforcement work.

The Texas Safety Association will stress the need for awareness and acceptance of responsibility on the road, and will coordinate local safety council holiday safety programs calling for cooperation with law enforcement officials to cut down on the number of traffic deaths.

The Texas Highway Department will conduct an information and education program stressing the need for caution in and around construction areas and on freeways. They will utilize special area construction maps and bulletins to warn drivers of hazardous conditions in specific areas.

Make STRONG COMMUNITIES

Sure Mercy

"I will give you the sure mercies of David."
—Isiah 55:3

Do we sometimes expect too much of a merciful God? As Christians, we know that God is forgiving. We know that God is merciful.

But, do we have the right to anticipate forgiveness? Do we not stand on unsure ground... then plunge thoughtlessly into some wrong act or deed knowing that tomorrow we shall know regret; that we shall repent and call upon God to be merciful and to overlook our weakness?

When we knowingly do wrong, we turn our back on God for a moment or, at least, we think that we do. We cannot turn our backs to God, no more than we can turn our face away from the sky above.

We should remember always that judgement awaits; that God is merciful; yet God is just.

Shower Honors Miss Kay Campbell

Miss Kay Campbell was honored with a kitchen shower in the home of Mrs. S. M. Loeffler last week. A dinner was served to the friends of Miss Campbell.

White and blue daises were used in decoration, and the mantel was decorated with various navy items. The individual tables were adorned with sailboats and were centered with an epergne of blue and white daises.

A skit depicting the lives of navy men was presented, and the guests embroidered cup towels with their names on them. The bride-elect also received a recipe from each guest.

Mrs. George Boucher, the former Janis Sykes, of Elko, Nevada is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sykes. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sykes and Sherri and Alfred Sykes of Port Arthur will be here the weekend of the Fourth for a barbecue dinner and family get-together.

YOUR MINISTER SAYS

by the Rev. Arno Melz
Pastor, Hope Lutheran Church

"Oh give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good; because His mercy endureth forever". Psalms 118:1
This is one of the best known Psalms, and one used by many to return thanks after each meal. It expresses the feelings of the writer David for the blessings God had given him.

David had experienced much of God's love and mercy in his lifetime. He was of humble birth, and spent his childhood days herding sheep. The Lord was with him when he fought the giant Goliath, which brought freedom to his people. David was chosen as king, and became a rich and powerful man. During the midst of this power, David committed adultery and murder, but repented of his sin and was forgiven by God. This Psalm is a real heartfelt expression of David's thanks to God.

We also have reason to use this Psalm often and from our heart as we give thanks to God. When we count our blessings we find that God has been good to us. We have our families, our communities, our jobs, our freedom, our churches,

Advice to the 'Woe-Be-Gones'

by Agatha Crump

Dear Agatha,
I have read in several "advice" columns about wives who go through their husband's pockets while they are asleep, looking for money.

Well Helen, my spouse, has no such obvious motives behind her search—she is only interested in swiping my matches or lighter—or anything else that makes fire! Do you think I should make her see a doctor? We've had many quarrels over this.

Concerned,
Alfred

Dear Alfred,
Beyond a doubt, someone does need to see a medical expert of some sort. If Helen is eating her "loot", call an internist. If she sets fires, get in touch with a psychiatrist. However, keep in mind that if you carry these fire-making properties for the purpose of lighting cigarettes, the possibility that you might need to see your doctor does exist!

My mother reads your column and agrees with everything you say—so could you please put in a good word for me?

My girl friend's parents own a fishing boat and go deep-sea fishing quite often. They are planning to have a weekend party for Sally and some of her friends. Her parents will be there and will chaperone all activities.

My mother says I'm too young (15) to go off on a fishing trip with a bunch of teenagers for a whole weekend.

Please Agatha, help me out!
Sincerely,
Melinda

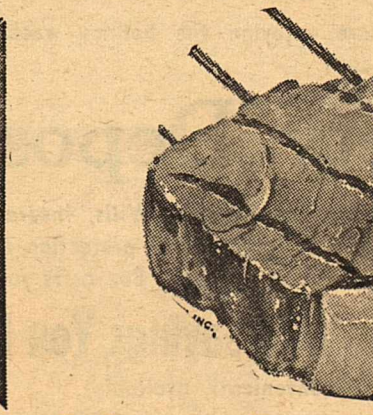

Dear Melinda,
Glad to help!
Mom, since the group will be chaperoned I think Melinda should go. She'll probably have a whale of a time!
Love,
Agatha

(Editor's Note: If some of Agatha's readers have insurmountable problems, we feel sure that Agatha will be glad to impart new light on the subject. Mail letters to Agatha Crump in care of the Devil's River News.)
