Sonora's "B" team whalloped the Eldorado "B" team 30 to 12. Robert Mata scored three of Sonora's touchdowns. In the first quarter he ran back a 60-yard punt for the first six points of the game. The two point conversion was good. Also in the first quarter Mata ran an end sweep for 30 yards and another touchdown. Again the two point conversion was good. Neither team was able to score in the second quarter and the half ended with the score 16 to 0. In the third quarter Mata ran another punt back for 40 yards and a touchdown. The two point conversion was good again. Eldorado struck back with two touchdowns by Page and Doyle. The try for conversions failed. In the fourth quarter Richard Perez plunged five yards for another Sonora touchdown. This time the conversion was no good. That ended the scoring and the game ended Sonora 30, Eldorado 12.

The Sonora Junior High nipped Eldorado Junior High 6 to 0 in a hard defensive battle. Kerry Joy scored the Sonora touchdown on an end sweep for 20 yards. The try for the two point conversion was no good.

Australian Ranchers Tour Sutton County

Livestock raisers are always interested in ranch operations being carried on in other regions and countries, especially when that region produces the same range products.

Australian rancher C. Rollo Hawkes and his wife, Faerlie, have visited ranching friends from their native Australia to South Africa, Rhodesia and West Texas. The Hawkes' have been hosted in Sonora by the Norman Rousselot family.

"Australia is a very large country... larger than the U.S. and sheep are important in almost all of the country," Hawkes said. "The ranches are large also, some in the more arid regions are as big as 150,000 acres to one million acres", he added. He also said that most all of the population, industry and agricultural activities are confined to a 500 mile deep fringe of land extending inland from the coasts. "Rainfall", he said, "ranges from tropical rainfall on the northern coasts to as little as 5 1/2 to 9 inches in the arid central regions farther in from the coast. He said that most of the sheep were raised in this arid region.

Hawkes said he has devoted his life to ranching and loves to tell his experiences and gain information about methods and techniques of other areas. He operates a 40,000 acre ranch in the southern part of Australia.

According to Hawkes, the most popular breed of sheep raised in Australia is the Merino. Of the 170 million sheep in the country about 95 percent are Merino Neville, the new department will have a vinyl tile floor and paneled walls. He stated that the plans were formulated to facilitate easier shopping and provide more space for his merchandise.

According to Jack Kerbow, the Home Hardware Company is also expanding. He plans to move the hardware into one section of his store to provide more space for an expanded furniture line. Much of the furniture store has been repainted and plans call for new flooring.

West Texas Utilities Company has recently repainted their interior. Boyd Lovelace, manager of the company, said he will install new doors and draperies in the building. James Trainer, of Piggly Wiggly Grocery has repainted the interior of his store.

The Garment Factory located in the old Sonora Gas Company building, has finished the major part of the preparation of their building. Training of six workers is in progress and manufacture of garments will begin September 26. Ten new machines arrived at the factory last Tuesday.

The famous "Mystery Package" was purchased by Nathan Donsky of Nathan's Jewelry in San Angelo for $160. The price paid last year was $100. The history of the mysterious parcel goes back 29 years when the "gurgling" box was first donated. Last year's purchaser, John I. King, returned the item unopened for auction this year.

Proceeds from the auction go into the treasury of the Lions Club for use in their civic betterment programs. Auction buyers seldom let the actual value of an item interfere with their bidding price. A complete list of donors, purchasers and items will be published in the Devil's River News at a later time.

Barbeque prepared by Freeman Mears kicked-off the annual event. About 300 people attended the auction and barbeque.

Heavy Rains Make Mosquito Problem

Mosquitos are a major problem in Texas, and conditions brought on by the widespread rains have increased their numbers.

These insects are a menace to man and animals alike. They cause farm animals to lose weight through continual biting and annoyance, and several kinds of mosquitoes transmit diseases such as malaria and yellow fever to man, encephalitis to man and horses, and heartworm to dogs, says County Agent D. C. Langford.

Mosquito control can be an expensive and complex job, but if certain precautions are observed by each individual much of the

"SO WHAT"

Saturday, Sept. 17, Citizenship Day. For many citizens, the reaction is, "So what." Which means that you never miss the water until the well runs dry.

Even if you were born an American citizen, you are descended from people who weren't. They became citizens through the difficult processes of immigration and naturalization, except for some who became citizens of the United States by establishing the United States by means of a war.

For those people, citizenship was not a "so-what" proposition. It was one of the most important things in their lives.

Citizenship means full membership in a country. A country and its citizens are not really separate. Citizenship involves both civic and political rights, as well as civic and political duties. Bills of rights in the United States Constitution and in state constitutions guarantee civic rights to all Americans. A child possesses civic rights, such as the right to worship as he pleases, from the moment he is born.

In turn, each citizen owes allegiance to his country. It is his civic duty to support his government, obey its laws, and defend his country. Democratic government fails unless citizens show the same eagerness to serve their country that they expect the country to show in serving them.

Citizenship Day—first proclaimed by President Truman in 1952—fell on a Saturday this year... a day for golf, for football, for closing the summer cottage, for raking up the first leaves of fall.

But it might be well to stop a moment and think of the people who won for you your citizenship in this "nation of immigrants"—whether they won it with musket and bayonet nearly 200 years ago, or by crossing the Atlantic in a reeking steerage in the 1840's, or by riding on a DC-6 in 1948.

And think, too, of the people who raised their right hands on Citizenship Day and took the oath of allegiance to the United States—the final step in becoming a naturalized citizen—the oath that begins:

"I hereby declare, on oath, that I absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty, of whom or which I have heretofore been a subject or citizen; that I will support and defend the Constitution and laws of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance..."

In fact, you might even murmur that oath to yourself for Citizenship Day.

DEVIL'S RIVER PHILOSOPHER SEZ:

Everybody Expects Perfection

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bittered ranch on Dry Devil's River seems to be a little hot under the collar about something this week.

Dear editor:

The other morning I had some important work to do and got up real early to get at it, but when I pushed the starter button the tractor wouldn't start.

My neighbor, who had agreed to come over and help me, was put out.

Why didn't you check that tractor out yesterday?" he wanted to know. "I can't stand around here all morning."

"Now just a minute," I said. "Look at this." I pulled a copy of a newspaper out of my pocket and showed him an article about how much trouble the astronauts had getting off on their latest flight into space.

"Look," I bore down, "if those fellows, with 50 million dollars in expense money, all the brains you can hire, the best mechanics on earth, and all the scientific equipment there is, can turn up with a leak in the fuel line and have to postpone a flight, what's so outrageous about this tractor's not starting?"

The more I thought about it the madder I got and I told him to go on home and I'd do the work some other time. As he left he tripped over a loose board on the back steps and flung back over his shoulder, "You ought to fix those steps, too."

"Fix em yourself," I muttered to myself.

The trouble with some people is they don't read enough. Hasn't he been keeping up with the condition of the United States Capitol building in Washington? One whole side is about to fall down and they've got it propped up and boards put up overhead to keep bricks from falling on people going in from that side.

What sort of a neighbor have I got that expects me to have a better tractor than the Gemini Rocket and a better house than the United States Capitol, the seat of government of the richest nation on earth?

A man can do just so much, and people who are always expecting perfection would do well to look around and find out how little there is.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Quick Treats
For cool days when the folks like hearty eating, saute an onion in butter until golden, then add two cans of frozen potato soup and a pound of cooked, cleaned shrimp. Top with grated American cheese and chopped parsley.

A package of beef-vegetable soup makes a whole meal if you add to it a package of cooked, mixed vegetables, a can of drained kidney beans and a half pound of thinly sliced salami.

Like to dress up canned luncheon meat? It will look pretty and taste good when spread with orange marmalade and baked for 20 to 25 minutes or until heated through.

Mocha Cream Frosting is ideal for Angel Food or Sponge Cake. Whip one cup of cream and sweeten with 3 tablespoons sugar, then flavor with 1 teaspoon instant coffee and 1/4 teaspoon vanilla.

Plenty of garden tomatoes? Scoop them out, fill with roast beef or corned beef hash, bake through and serve with cheese or mushroom sauce.

Scrape corn off the cob of those which are leftover and make into corn pudding. Serve this with chicken, roast pork, Canadian-style bacon or sausage patties.

Helen's Favorite Broiled Chicken
(4 servings)
1 cup salad oil
1/4 cup lemon juice
3 tablespoons soy sauce
1 teaspoon oregano
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 2-pound chickens, split and cleaned

Combine all ingredients except chicken. Pour over chicken halves and let marinate in refrigerator for 4 to 5 hours. Place on a rack about 7 inches from heat and broil about 20 minutes on each side or until done, turning once or twice.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Passenger In Distress
While seated in a cross-country bus, a woman accidentally twisted her knee, throwing it badly out of joint. Although she asked for a doctor, the driver said he had no time to arrange for that. He finally deposited her at her destination, 12 hours later.

In due course the woman sued the bus company, not only for causing her needless pain but also for making her condition worse. And the court upheld her claim.

True, the bus company was not even remotely to blame for the woman's original injury. And, as a rule, the law does not require Good Samaritanism—that is, it does not require one person to go to the aid of another in distress.

However, the court's ruling was based not on Good Samaritanism but on the special relationship between the two parties. They were not merely two strangers. They were carrier-and-passenger. When there is such a relationship, and an emergency arises en route, the law generally does impose an affirmative duty to give aid.

That doesn't mean the passenger can hold the carrier liable under all circumstances. For one thing, before there is any duty to help, there must be some clear sign that help is needed.

Thus, a railroad was excused for not aiding a seriously ill woman, when the only sign of her affliction was that she had rested her head on her hand.

But once the peril is apparent, then the carrier's duty begins.

How speedily must help be given? That depends on the particular situation. For example:

In a medical emergency involving an expectant mother on a train, a court held that the train should have been halted at the next town, rather than at the next regular stop.

And how long does the carrier's duty last? Possibly even beyond arrival at the passenger's destination.

In one case, a bus rider who had suffered a severe eye injury was left in the station, alone and helpless. The bus company was later held liable for not making sure the victim was placed in responsible hands.

Summarizing the law, the court said: "The carrier owes to the passenger the consideration and care of common humanity".

4-H Club Members Elect Officers Make Plans For Yearly Programs

The Sutton County 4-H and 4-H Parent's Club met at the 4-H Center September 13 to elect officers for the 1966-67 year and to make plans for coming 4-H sponsored events.

Senior officers elected were Mark Jacoby, president, Jim Fish, vice-president, Kaye Ellis, secretary, Cecelia Johnson, reporter, and Bert Bloodworth, parliamentarian.

Officers in the parent's club are Glen Richardson, president, Lano (Pete) Thompson, vice-president, Nell Wallace, secretary, Dorothy Baker, treasurer and Marie Aldwell, reporter.

Sweetheart for the organization is Cecelia Johnson and 4-H Beau is Bert Bloodworth.

The annual achievement program was planned for October 22 and the Sutton County 4-H Livestock show was scheduled for January 14 of next year at the Center.

Judges selected for the coming livestock show are: W. M. Day Jr., Rankin county agent, to judge sheep and cattle and Stanley Lackey, Roosevelt, to judge Angora goats.

GREEN NEWS

Well, we knew we kept the borrowed typewriter for some reason. This seems to be the season for substitutes or pinch hitters. Baseball and football does not have a priority on them, the green news has one for this week, so bear with us and we will try to do a good job for the regular writer.

GN

Sonora was represented by four golfers at the Llano Ladies Tournament Tuesday. Sammie Espy won low net in the first flight, plus the long drive contest. In the second flight, Mary Barrow won second low net and Peggy Sharp brought home the door prize. Bobbie Fawcett had a good time.

GN

Speaking of tournaments, Doyle Morgan, Clayton Hamilton, Patch Cochran, Francis Archer, J. W. Neville, George Johnson, Mickey Powers and Rusty Horton attended the Brady tournament over the weekend. No prizes were brought home, but Mickey and Rusty had a good first round with a five under par. Maybe it was because they had a gallery. Sammie Espy, Clair Powers and Rick followed this foursome. Seems Rick didn't miss a play plus dragging up everything on the course.

GN

A complaint overheard from the group that plays with Pete Thompson: Pete talks so much it upsets the other players. They only hope that Pete and Patch Cochran never play together, because neither one will get in a word.

GN

Last Wednesday Dorothy Ratliff won the low-putt play. We understand she only had twelve putts on nine holes. Figure that out for yourselves, that's pretty good putting.

GN

Ann Hill got in nine holes Sunday before heading north.

GN

If you didn't know it was September you would think it was Easter, the way everyone hunts for their balls. The weeds are so high that you might as well add thirty minutes onto your game time to hunt for your ball.

GN

Barbara Snodgrass has been coming out on Wednesday and playing with the ladies. Welcome and see if you can't bring a friend.

GN

Wade Hopkins was doing some loud talking Sunday, but father Jerry couldn't hear a word over the put-put of the motor.

GN

Do you know how to upset Sammie Espy on Bingo, Bango, Bungo? Just let two, chip in on five, for par.

GN

Has anyone seen the latest in putters? Steve Thorp has one that looks like something from the plumbers catalog.

GN

Visitors this week were Joe Luttrell and Rusty Horton. We don't think Rusty played golf from the way he was dressed.

GN

Batts and Wilma Friend played golf last week. They have been in Ruidoso for awhile. Welcome back.

GN

Sunday morning was spent by several golfers arranging for "A Big Match". Jackie Sharp shot a 39, all in vain, to tie his opponents. Better luck next time, but we know several who would take a 39 any day in the week.

GN

Anyone for going to Big Lake Saturday? Big Lake is having their annual Ladies Tournament. Let's pack up and go.

GN

Thanks for putting up with me. Your "Regular" will be back next week.

Minyard Enrolled In N. M. Institute

Among the 406 new cadets entering the New Mexico Military Institute, Roswell, New Mexico, is Cadet J. Howard Minyard, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Potmesil. Cadet Minyard is a sophomore in high school. He transferred from Sonora High school. The Institute offers a program of three years of high school and two years junior college training.

lost. There has been an additional loss of about 2½ million cattle", he added. Hawkes felt the severest part of the drought was broken except for some of the more arid parts of the country. He stated that some 8 million sheep are grazed in the low-rainfall area still suffering from drought. Losses tabulated in terms of Merino wool from the lack of rain amounted to about 500,000 bales of wool. The Australian bale weighs about 300 pounds.

Hawkes pointed out one big difference, as far as terrain is concerned, in the development of the wool industry in Australia as compared with Texas. He spoke of the vast areas of brushland that are suitable for grazing except for thickness of the brushy vegetation.

One of the most organized development programs in his country is the efforts expended in clearing large tracts of brush. He stated that he had just finished clearing a 5,000 acre tract of land, so thick that a compass was required to navigate through it. Hawkes said the vegetation was of the Eucalyptus variety, with root systems similar to Texas mesquite, growing in white, badly-leached sand, comparable to caliche.

To accomplish the job, tractors with 28 inch treads are used to pull disc plows weighing as much as 3½ tons to crush the thick growth and chop it into small pieces. This process plows the soil to a depth of 15 inches. To clear an area this size requires about 13 weeks, working from dawn to dusk, Hawkes said.

After the initial plowing, the area is replowed to break up rocks and any remaining roots. After this operation the land is rolled with a 23-ton roller, 16 feet long and almost four feet in diameter. This procedure is used to push all of the remaining rocks and roots below the ground surface.

Hawkes said that the prepared acreage was then planted in clover, with protective, wind-cover crops of African velt grass and oats.

Hawkes estimated the cost of this program at approximately $15 an acre. Because of the great distances involved between his ranch and urban areas, Hawkes kept a stock of tractor and equipment parts valued at $2,000 on hand at the site during the work.

Hawkes and his wife are now enroute back to Australia by way of California and Tahiti. While in Sonora they toured several ranches in Sutton County.

Children's Tickets For Benefit Movie Suffer Sales Slump

Girl Scout ticket sales for the benefit movie to be shown Wednesday, September 28, are going well according to Mrs. O. L. Richardson Jr. She said that while the adult tickets were selling well, children's tickets were not being bought as rapidly as had been planned.

Proceeds from the benefit will be used to finance a trip to an international Girl Scout camp in Mexico. Plans for the trip have been based on a three-year fund raising program.

According to Mrs. Richardson, the scouts would like to raise enough money to be sure that each girl in the local troops will have a chance to go.

Persons interested in purchasing a ticket may contact Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Vernon Cook or purchase a ticket at the Bronco Drive-In before the movie.

Lions Club contributions toward Scouting are used for paying na-

Officers For Groups Reelected For Year

The Sutton County unit of the American Cancer Society held its first meeting of the new fiscal year Thursday, September 15.

Last year's slate of officers were reelected. They are Mrs. Alvis Johnson, president, Mrs. Ben Cusenbary, vice-president, the Rev. Arno Melz, secretary and Dorothy Baker, treasurer.

In their report of last year's activities, the schools, theatres, civic groups, churches and doctors were named as sources used for the dissemination of cancer information.

Dr. C. F. Browne, chairman for professional education, said that the aid of local dentists had been enlisted in the detection of early oral cancer. He added that all local persons involved in various phases of medicine were cooperating in the early diagnosis of skin cancer.

Riley Sloan, the field representative of the ACS for this district, said the national headquarters of the ACS was negotiating with Congress to purchase 3½ million silver dollars from the government at tional dues and major expenses. Income from the movie will go to individual troops to be used for supplies.

face value, to be resold to coin collectors for a profit.

Plans for the annual Cancer Crusade to be held next spring will be discussed at a later meeting.

Increase In Polio Predicted By State

Throughout the state, cases of polio are increasing again after the disease was brought under control several years ago according to the Texas State Department of Health.

In 1962, the state sponsored community-wide polio immunization at many local schools. Due to this program the incidence of polio fell to a new low for the next two years and then began to creep up again.

It is important for all children who were immunized in 1962 be given an oral booster polio vaccination. Children who are older than two months of age and who have not been immunized should be given the vaccine now.

USSR Questions Parks Department About Magazine

Relations between the Sovereign State of Texas and the USSR are not about to be disturbed. But that fellow in Moscow paying for a subscription for Texas Parks & Wildlife Department magazine is slightly unhappy.

Through the proper periodical channels, he has advised that the magazine has been arriving late. The New York City export subscription agency passed along the "observation."

The other 52,304 subscribers to the magazine, many of them in foreign areas, have not been heard from.

For eleven cents postage, prepaid, plus the home front news, the global reception elsewhere might be happier. The Department noted, however, there may be some Red tape involved.

Snips, Quips, and Lifts

By Lottie Lee Baker
—A great many people are already working a four-day week, but it takes them five or six days to do it.

—For every person who wishes dreams came true, there are at least ten who thank heaven they don't.

—The young man who thought the world owed him a living, is the old man who is blaming the world for his failure.

—Progress always involves risk. You can't steal second base and keep your foot on first.

—There are three traffic problems: urban, suburban, and suburban.

—Don't think that every sad-eyed woman has loved and lost—she may have got him.

—A man has reached middle-age when he is warned to slow down by the doctor instead of the police.

—You can tell some fellows are not afraid of work by the way they fight it.

—Just imagine one of today's college graduates talking to his son twenty years from now: "Yes, sir, I started for a measly $500 a month and worked eight hours a day, five days a week."

—Somehow or other, as we get older, work seems a lot less fun, and fun seems a lot more work.

—The condition of a man is best judged by what he takes two at a time—stairs or pills.

—A good neighbor is one who can watch you take it easy without thinking you're lazy.

—One thing about silence—it can't be repeated.

—Optimism is unraveling a piece of string knotted up, that you know won't be long enough anyway.

—It is probably later than the fellow who says it's later than you think thinks it is.

—Don't throw away your empty seed packages. They are often just the right size to store your crop.

A LIFT FOR THE WEEK
If your foot slips, you may recover your balance, but if your tongue slips you cannot recall your words.

To Judge

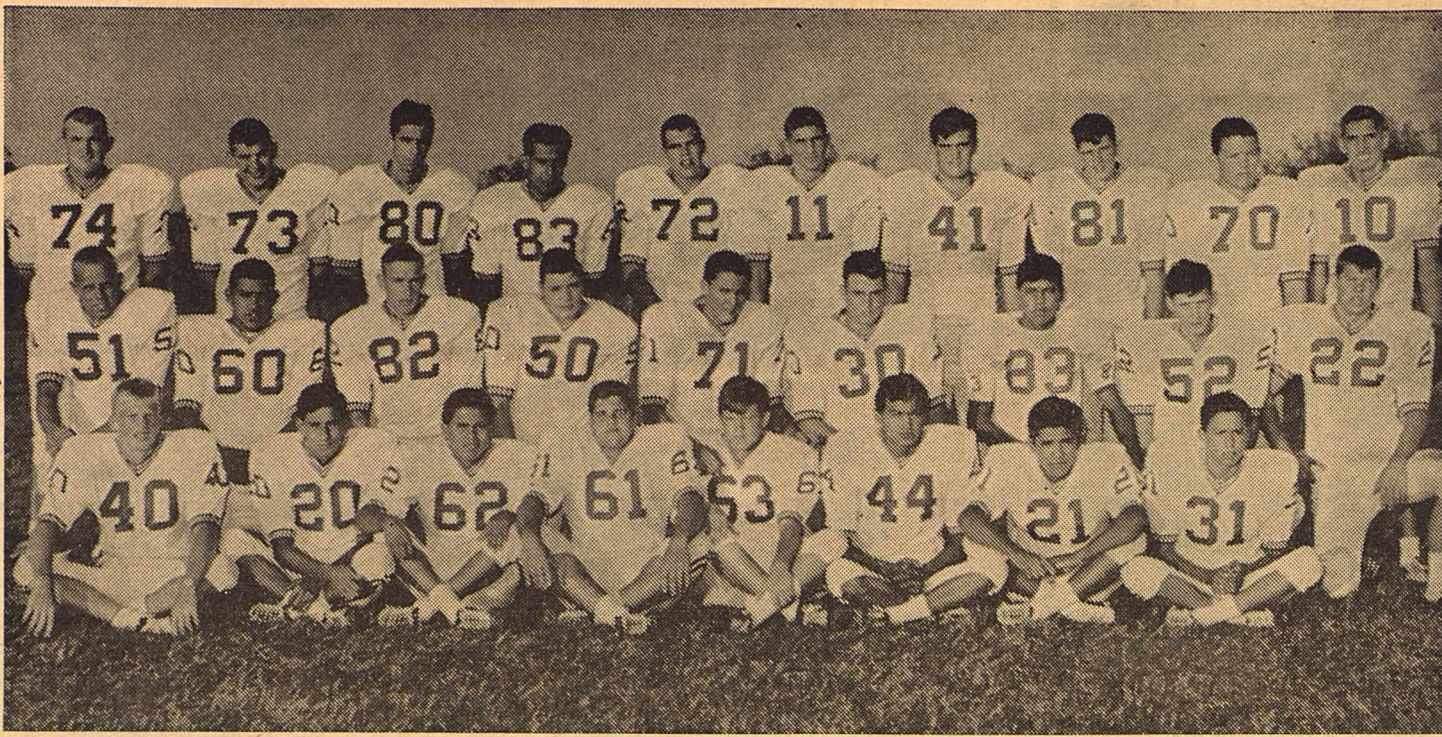

"Gather to me my faithful ones, who made a covenant with me by sacrifices!" The heavens declare his righteousness, for God himself is judge."
—Psalms 50:5,6

It is not faith to expect that God will perform a miracle; that God will answer a troubled plea with a thunderbolt and instant correction of problem or grievance. God may not change the way things are, but God will increase strength and endurance. Rely on faith. Ask God not for favors, but for the strength to be a better person. Do more than pray when circumstances prevail against you. Live with your problem; try to do something about it and do not believe you can transfer it through prayer. Ask God for greater faith, not for instant relief.

Success Finds Teen Musicians

Good businessmen are sometimes hard to find . . . especially when they are still in their teens, like Freddie Gandar, 18, a junior in high school.

Freddie came up with an idea about six-months ago to form his own band to play at dances and social functions in the Sonora area. His idea grew until they now play over a large area.

The name of his band, Ruben and His Royals, was Freddie's idea too. "Ruben", Freddie said, "is my 12-year-old cousin who plays the saxophone". "I felt that because of his size, age and skill, the name would catch on better", Freddie added.

Business became so good the band had to buy a panel truck just to carry their instruments from place to place. Freddie has also purchased several new instruments with the profits he made from the band. He owns a guitar, organ, trumpet and saxophone, all of which he plays. He said, "I started playing the guitar when I was 11 and then learned the bass." As he became proficient with each instrument, he started learning a new one.

Freddie said that one important factor in getting the band started was the support they received from the West Side Lions Club and the G.I. Forum. They were the first groups that gave them a chance to play in Sonora.

The band is planning a tour next summer of the larger cities in Texas with possible plans to go as far as the west coast. Freddie said, "One thing the band is looking for is an opportunity to play a battle-dance in Sonora with the 'Scorpions', the other local band."

When the band was first organized they played only rock-and-roll. Young Gandar said, "We can now play any music a potential employer wants. This is probably why we have had some popularity".

Next month the band will make a record in San Antonio for the Chemiro Record Company. It will feature modern Spanish music.

The band members are Ruben Castilleja, 12, Salvador Castilleja, 14, Milton Castilleja, 22, Ben Castilleja, 27, and Robert Bermea, 22, Ben and Freddie are both cousins to the three Castilleja brothers, but Robert Bermea is no relation to the other bandmen.

Luxton's Transfer To San Angelo Jail Favored By Judge

Charles Ray Luxton, 31, of Big Lake, under indictment charging murder with malice in the slaying of another Big Lake man, will be moved to the Tom Green County jail in San Angelo.

The move was recommended by 112th Judicial District Judge, Charles Sherrill and Luxton's court-appointed counsel.

His case was recently moved from the 83rd district court to the 112th to increase chances of empanelling prospective jurors. Luxton was in Reagan County jail under a $5,000 bond.

Sam Houston Clinton Jr., of Austin and Jerry Shurley have been appointed as Luxton's counselors.

Since the change of venue was granted, the normal procedure is to move the prisoner to the place of trial, which will be Sonora. Judge Sherrill said the jail facilities in Sonora are not adequate and favored moving Luxton to Tom Green County jail. Luxton's mother also reportedly requested he be transferred to another jail.

Luxton's trial is being planned for the first or second week in November. 112th District attorney Dixon Mahon and Bill Earney, district attorney of the 83rd District will try the case.
