

Broncos Defeat Eagles 13-0 Before Overflow Crowd

Despite a rash of injuries to the offensive unit, the Sonora Broncos defeated Junction 13-0 for their second district win.

Among the injured are David Wuest, starting quarterback, Royce Mears, defensive stalwart, and veteran linemen, Alex Castro and Mitch Trainer. Fullback Mike Gosney has been nursing an injured ankle but has been able to play in the last two games.

The Sonora offense was hampered throughout the game by penalties which nullified many long-gainers and thwarted sustained drives.

The first Bronco score started when they took control of the ball at the midfield stripe in the first quarter. Fullback Gosney broke loose from the Junction defenders and moved to the Eagle 37-yard line. Good gainers by Erasmo Lumbreras and Ed Lee Renfro moved the ball to the Junction three-yard line. Gosney tumbled through his left guard for the score. With David Wuest out of the game, Renfro soccer-kicked the extra point to give the Broncos a 7-0 lead with 2:35 left in the first period.

In the second period the Broncos drove from their own 25-yard line, after J. V. Cook intercepted a pass, to the Junction 12-yard line. The Junction defense strengthened and the ball went over on downs leaving the second quarter scoreless for both teams.

The second Bronco score was set up by end Armando Noriega at midfield. On fourth down Junction dropped back to punt. The kick was faked but Noriega was on top of the punter to give the Broncos the ball at the Sonora 47-yard line.

First downs by Renfro and Robert Mata moved the Broncos to the Junction 27-yard line. Runs by Gosney and Barrera moved the ball to the Junction four. With the ball within six inches of the goal, J. V. Cook rammed over for the second Sonora score. Renfro's kick failed.

The fourth quarter of play was outstanding defensively for the Broncos. Hard rushes were put on the Junction passers by Monte Dillard and Tom Trainer. Manuel Sanchez and J. V. Cook were alive in the defensive backfield breaking up passes, and Noriega and Cook stopped the desperation drive of the Eagles by recovering a fumble at the Junction 30-yard line. Sonora went on to score again but had the scoring play by Gosney called back. The Broncos controlled the ball most of the fourth quarter but were unable to score again.

Sonora will play their third home game at 7:30 p.m., Friday, October 13, against the Rankin Red Devils. The Sonora B-team will meet the Eldorado B-team here at 7 p.m. Thursday, October 12. The junior high school has an open date.

HALFBACK ERNEST BARRERA takes an over-the-shoulder pass from quarterback J. V. Cook. The pass play covered almost 40 yards. Barrera was stopped moments after the catch by the unidentified Junction defender.

MRS. LEE LABENSKÉ

Celebrates 90th Birthday

"Floor Length to Hip Length is History Of Fashion", Says Mrs. Lee Labenske

Can you picture yourself living through almost ninety years of fashion changes?

Mrs. Lee (Annie) Labenske who celebrated her 90th birthday October 4, in Hudspeth Memorial Hospital has done just that.

Mrs. Labenske was born in Buda, in 1877. She married Lee Labenske November 13, 1896, and they have one daughter, Mildred (Mrs. John Cauthorn). Mr. Labenske will be 93 in February.

The first job Mrs. Labenske held was with the W. P. Hawkins Dry Goods in Winters. Since she liked fashions, she decided to open a dress shop in 1922.

Building space was not readily available in downtown Winters, but her home was located on the main street, so she and Mrs. C. W. Gregory opened a dress shop by utilizing the living room and a bedroom. Finally they were able to rent store space in the business district.

Most of the hats they sold were designed and made by Mrs. Gregory. Mrs. Labenske said the hats were "as fashionable as any you could find in the Dallas markets."

In December of 1929 the fashions drastically changed from the short "flapper" era to ankle length once again. One of the few who dared to stock the new length dresses, the Labenskés sold them like "hot cakes."

In June of 1930, the Labenskés moved to Sonora, and opened the "Style Shop". Housing rentals were scarce in Sonora, so they had to maintain living quarters in the building where they conducted the dress shop.

"We had to get up early, before time to open the shop, and take the springs out back and box the mattress—also get rid of the cooking odors before the customers came."

The Labenskés used a "pot-bellied" stove for both cooking and heating the store, but eventually found a place to live and later they bought their home on Crockett Avenue where they now live.

Until two years ago, Mrs. Labenske still spent at least part of each day in the dress shop that she loved. She has an alert mind and a keen sense of humor. Asked if she had seen many changes in the dress lengths, she laughingly replied, "Well, yes, from floor length to hip length!"

Commissioners Reject Bid Of $67,000 From Humble

The City Commissioners rejected a bid of $67,000 by Humble Oil Company for 1.09 acres of city-owned land situated at the future intersection of Interstate Highway 10 and U.S. 277 North.

Commissioner Fred Earwood said, "I personally feel that the bid is entirely too low. The value of the property is about $100,000."

The bid from Humble was the only firm bid made at the regular meeting of the city commission Monday, October 9.

The Texas Company made a tentative bid of $138,000. A representative of the company said that the figure named was not yet approved by the executive board of the company and asked for an extension of bidding to January 31, 1968.

The city commission has ruled to open up the property for negotiation. Mayor A. E. Prugel said, "We will be willing to talk to any interested party about the land and sell if the price is right."

Two representatives of Mobil Oil Company were also present for the meeting.

SENIOR CLASS SALE

The senior class magazine subscription sale will continue until Thursday, October 13, according to business manager, Georgeanne Schwiening.

She said that anyone who has not been contacted and wishes to subscribe to any national magazine may contact the senior class through Mrs. Leon Neely or Charles Brown at the school.

French's Big Tree Restaurant planned to be closed Wednesday and part of Thursday for repainting, repairing, and the installation of a new tile floor. Since the restaurant is normally open 24 hours every day, Mr. and Mrs. Frank French, owners, explained that it would be necessary to close while some of the work was going on. They plan to reopen Thursday night or Friday morning.

Parks and Wildlife Department Sets Date for Antlerless Deer Permits

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department has announced the dates and locations for issuing antlerless deer permits in eight of the 10 regulatory responsibility districts.

Section 6 of Senate Bill 295, passed by the last legislature prohibits the Department from issuing permits later than 10 days prior to the opening of the deer season. If by E. B. Keng, SCS Technician Range vegetation in the Edwards Plateau soil and water conservation district is getting a great boost from good September rains. Most grasses are rapidly putting on a good seed crop.

Along with the good grasses, however, ranchmen should be on the lookout for a bad one—burrograss. This undesirable grass is gradually shifting its range eastward as seed become scattered and germinate on droughty rangeland. It has been found on two new locations during the past week, and on some 15 ranches during recent years.

Burrograss can be readily recognized by ranchmen during the next two weeks. It will very likely be growing on valley or divide sites—near a road—and will be in distinctive shiny patches. The plant is seeding now and resembles needlegrass (threeawn). It will be in spots or isolated patches varying from a yard to several yards in diameter.

Burrograss is a turf forming grass with runners similar to buffalo and curlymesquite grasses. The leaves feel sharp to the back of the hand, and the plant is practically worthless to livestock. Once in the past, the minimum bill was based on the first 1,000 cubic feet of gas used. The new rate will be based on 800 cubic feet and will result in an approximate 26 cent net increase.

Leon Neely, representing Lone Star Gas said that another change would also be made affecting billing procedures. He said that persons using less than 800 cubic feet of gas per month would not be billed as they had been billed under the old minimum.

The last rate increase by Lone Star was in 1960. The new ruling will go into effect at the third reading of the ordinance, which will

Ministerial Group Plans Bible Display

The Sonora Ministerial Alliance, in cooperation with the American Bible Society, will attempt to make it impossible for anyone in the Sonora area to say, "I don't have a Bible because I cannot afford one," as the ministers of the community promote National Bible Week next week.

Most of the churches will provide bookmarks in their services Sunday morning outlining the Scripture passages to be read from October 15 to November 23, according to the Rev. Ross Welch. "It is planned that Christians everywhere will be studying the same passages each day," he added.

A Bible display will be set up in the Sonora TV Service Company on Main Street. Bibles worth hundreds of dollars will be on display there. Some will be shown for their historical significance, or for some unusual reason. A variety of Bibles will be for sale, including modern translations and large family Bibles.

"To insure that no one goes without the Word, New Testaments in both English and Spanish will be given without cost to any who need them," said Welch. There will also be economical large-print editions of the New Testament and Psalms available, he added.

The public is invited to view this display and also to purchase Bibles for personal use or for gifts.

CINDERS

By Jim Barnett

The Sutton County 4-H Club will hold their annual achievement program Saturday, October 14.

It is a time of year for the recognition of the outstanding boys and girls within the club and their volunteer leaders.

Through the 4-H Club the young people of the county are given the opportunity to enter into projects to give them a better understanding of the problems sometimes faced in the adult world. The success or failure of these projects can give them the important insight into numerous practical problems.

The volunteer leaders of the 4-H Club are to be saluted too. All too often, some adults are just "too busy" to help mould the youth that will someday be the leaders themselves.

A salute goes to all of the youth and leaders in 4-H Club for a job well done.

Newspapers Get Things Done

By Kenneth Byerly

Humility and pride—there's reason for both during National Newspaper Week now in progress.

The late Senator Alben Barkley of Kentucky made this evident back in 1943 when he was a candidate for vice president as Harry Truman's running mate.

He arrived in a Montana city just before the luncheon meeting where he was to make a major campaign speech.

The local reporter learned with dismay that Senator Barkley would speak from notes rather than prepared copy.

They regard it too as an obligation to report the news fully and fairly with decency, judgment and kindness.

This—National Newspaper Week—is a time when newspapers and newspaper men and women repledge themselves to this task.

Help for University of Texas at Austin students who have personal or academic problems is no further away than the telephone.

A continuous telephone information service, staffed by professional counselors, is in operation 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

The new "dial-a-counselor" service is part of a plan to expand and improve student advisory programs in each institution of the UT System.

Which was true, but how many in his position would have said it? A newspaper's ability to decide how and what and how much it

A PARSON'S EYE-VIEW OF SONORA

BY THE REV. ROSS T. WELCH

A young attorney from Devine was the Laymen's Day speaker in the Methodist Church last Sunday. After the service was over and he was at the Parsonage assisting his little daughter change her clothes for a trip to the Caverns, he asked her, "Did you hear what Daddy said this morning?"

who have to live somewhere else read this column? Frequently we get word indirectly that some member of a family who no longer lives in Sutton County appreciates our attempt to give a running commentary of the local scene.

Beeville next Monday.

Congratulations to Edgar Glasscock and the Sonora Girls' Grass Judging Team for placing second at the Texas State Fair competition. Special words of praise go to Patti Richardson, who made a perfect score—and was the high individual contestant.

In case you did not know, let me spell this out more specifically as County Agent D. C. Langford did for me. This was an open competition of the best 4-H and FFA teams throughout Texas with twenty-nine teams entered.

Most of the teams are composed of boys who study grasses and problems related to range management in their vocational agriculture classes under teachers trained and employed for that purpose.

Edgar Glasscock trains the grass judging teams from this county on a voluntary basis. The girls give their time to learn grass judging on a voluntary basis over and above all their other studies and interests. In addition to Patti, the team was composed of Janet Pope, who placed tenth in individual scoring, Cora Pope and June Alexander.

The Walter Popes took the girls to Dallas.

In praise of Coach Glasscock, Clint said, "If I had a dozen leaders like him, we could have a youth program that would not quit."

The Devil's River Philosopher sez: If Sportswriters Choose Top Teams, The Teams Should Choose Top Writers

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Dry Devil's River comes up with an odd idea this week, as follows:

Dear editor: You wouldn't call me an expert on football since all I know about it is what I read in the papers or see on television, but then you can say the same for most of the experts on Viet Nam who are a lot louder in saying what shouldn't be done than what should. Yet if a man keeps reading newspapers there's no excuse for his not forming some strong opinions on both football and Viet Nam. And what's an opinion for unless you express it?

Since nearly everybody in Congress and the United Nations has spent the last week discussing Viet Nam, I thought I should confine my letter this week to football.

As you know, the sportswriters of the country vote each week on who they think the top 10 teams are. They are so expert at it they even decide who the top 10 are before the season starts, before a single game has been played.

Now I have been watching these selections and I notice they change all the time. You get the notion some teams have a lack of confidence in the list. As example there was Notre Dame and Michigan in the first two places and here comes a couple of unmentioned teams and knock them off.

This however doesn't faze the sportswriters, they just say it was an upset and juggle the names, bring in the two newcomers they somehow had overlooked, and draw up another list which is then printed by newspapers all over the country.

Now it seems to me what the football teams of the country ought to do is draw up a list of the top 10 sportswriters, and every time one turns out wrong, call it an upset, kick him off, and add somebody else.

When a sportswriter calls such-and-such a team No. 1 and somebody beats it, then certainly his name ought to show up on what would be called the Bottom 10 of Sportswriters.

We ought to know not only who the sportswriters think are the top 10 football teams, but also who the football teams think are the top sportswriters, even if the list changes every week. All the teams could vote every Monday, in time for their list to appear alongside the sportswriters list that week.

If you think this is a good idea, I would like to hear what your solution to the Viet Nam problem is. Yours faithfully, J. A.

Presumption, Presumptuous Sins

I have told you in the past about the Church of Christ. We speak where the Bible speaks and silent where the Bible is silent.

I must preach to the Church in order to prepare them for those who will come to be saved. If a man comes to Christ and we in the Church will teach him to do that which God did not command him to do then we destroy the works of Christ. Are you a Christian? Hear the word of God.

Psa. 19:13 "Keep back thy servant from Presumptuous sins." De-ut. 18:20. "But the prophet which will presume to speak a work in my name which I have not com-manded him to speak, even that prophet will die." For this reason we are not to speak where the Bible is silent.

Matt. 18:20 "Where two or three are gathered in my name, there will I be in the midst of them." So when you go to Church to gath-er in the body of Christ, he is there in the assembly with you and the first thing he will notice about you is your appearance. Are you dressed properly? Second he will notice your heart, is your heart in the right spirit? Rom. 10:10 "for with the heart man believeth unto right-eousness." Matt. 22:37 "Thou shalt love thy Lord thy God with all thy heart."

Dear Brother, Friends, hear the word of God. Gen. 3:16 "Unto the woman he said, I will greatly mul-tiply thy sorrow in thy concep-tion; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; thy desire shall be to thy husband and he shall rule over you." 17 "and to Adam he said, because thou has hearkened unto the voice of thy woman, and hast eaten of the tree, which I commanded thee saying thou shalt not eat of it, cursed is the ground for thy sake." It stands that man is commanded to rule his wife, and she is to be subjected to his rule, but only in the Lord.

1 Cor. 11:13 "But I want you to know that Christ is Supreme over the man, the husband is Supreme over the wife, and God is Supreme over Christ. 4 So a man who will pray or speak God's message with his head covered dishonors Christ. 5 and any woman who will pray or speak God's message with her head uncovered dishonors her hus-band; there is no difference be-tween her and a woman who has shaved her head. 6 If a woman will not cover her head she should also cut her hair off. Since it is shameful for a woman to shave her head or cut her hair, she should be covered with something over her head. 7 A man should not cover his head because he reflects the image and glory of God. But the woman reflects the glory of man. 8 for man was not created from woman but the woman was created from the man. 9 and the man was not created for the wo-man's sake but the woman for the man. 10 So then woman should have a covering over her head, be-cause of the angels, to show that she has given all authority to her husband. 11 But in the Lord the woman is not independent of the man, nor is the man independent of the woman, 12 for woman was created from man, in the same way that man was born of woman; but all things come from God."

You will say, God does not say how long my wife should or can wear her hair. So, will you speak where God has not commanded you to speak? You say that God means the hair as the cover. If this is so, we men are in sin because we pray with our heads unshaven, the same covering that man is forbidden to use, is the same covering that wo-man is commanded to use. Verse 5 says there is no difference be-tween a woman who will shave her head and a woman who will not cover her head when she prays. Verse 6 The word ALSO describes her as having long hair when she refuses to cover her head. (If she will not cover her head, let her also cut her hair.) Brother, do not presume to speak a word in Christ's name that he has not commanded you to speak.

As Christ came not to save the saved, but the lost; let us dress not for the saved but for the lost with fear of God and trembling hearts. The world changes every day but the word of God has not changed since the day it was spoken. Christians are to present themselves to God a sacrifice, in body and spirit. Rom. 12:1 "I beseech ye therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice Holy and acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable ser-vice, and be not conformed to the world; but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove that which is good and acceptable and perfect will of God."

Brother will you have God say the same word to you that he said to Adam. "Because thou hast har-kened unto the voice of thy wo-man, and hast done that, which I commanded thee saying, thou shalt not do it, cursed is the ground for thy sake." Ben Perkins, Box 1008, Phone 387-2743, Sonora, Texas.

Firemen's Corner

Following up the decision to pre-plan tactics for fires in major buildings, several firemen met with school officials to observe fire drills at Central Elementary and L. W. Elliott Friday, October 6.

After the drills, Bob McMinn took the firemen on a tour of the junior high building and they discussed fires and fire drills in that particular building.

The firemen were pleased with the children's performance during the fire drills. Cullen Luttrell, fire chief, complimented the children on their orderly conduct and behavior. He said that if the children react to a real fire in the same manner they did in the practice drill there would be no problem in the event of a fire.

The men's and women's pumper teams continued their pre-convention practice. They practiced Tuesday and Wednesday of last week and met again Sunday afternoon to practice the bucket and nozzle races.

Both teams are doing exceptionally well, but the ladies are doing excellent. They ran a 16.4 during their practice session Monday afternoon.

Chief Brown reads rocks

Charles "Chief" Brown probably knows more about one valuable layer of rock than anyone else in the world.

An El Paso Natural Gas Company geologist, Chief is in charge of the development of gas reserves in the Pictured Cliffs Formation which lies far below the surface of the San Juan Basin in northwestern New Mexico.

Chief keeps exact data on the location and performance of each well tapping this gas-bearing sandstone. He knows the depth and thickness of this sandstone throughout the San Juan Basin. Carefully analyzing information, Chief recommends where further drilling should be carried out and which wells should be reworked to keep natural gas in abundant supply.

Other employees apply detailed knowledge of every producing formation in fields ranging from Canada through the Rocky Mountain area to New Mexico and Texas.

Chief Brown's skills along with those of the other 5,400 employees of El Paso Natural Gas Company — whose backgrounds range from chemistry through electronics to geology — are among the reasons that the West has assured supplies of natural gas.

EL PASO NATURAL GAS COMPANY

Through its pipelines El Paso Natural serves Texas and ten other western states.

Neither Catholic, Protestant Nor Jew . . .

As Jesus was neither John the Baptist, Elias, nor Jeremias, so the church of Christ is neither Catholic, Protestant, nor Jewish. We are unique and different for we are endeavoring to go all the way back to the original New Testament church, Using the New Testament as our blueprint we have re-established in the twentieth century Christ's church. It fits no modern label. It is not just another denomination. We believe in the restoration of New Testament Christianity, speaking where the Bible speaks, and being silent where the Bible is silent. We believe in calling Bible things by Bible names and insist on having a "Thus saith the Lord" for all we do. Being neither Catholics, Protestants, nor Jews, we aspire to be Christians only.

The attempt to consider the followers of Jesus Christ under the labels of Western Civilization obscures the Christ, and the beauty of New Testament Christianity. Is it possible to be just a Christian today? Can a person be a Christian and not be a Catholic? Even the Catholics will admit that he can. Is it possible to be a Christian and not be a Protestant? Most Protestants spend much time in proclaiming that this is true. Is it possible to be a follower of God and not be a Jew? The Jews today will answer in the affirmative. Then why not be just a Christian, Christianity, speaking where the Bible speaks, and being silent where the Bible is silent. We believe in calling Bible things by Bible names and insist on having a "Thus saith the Lord" for all we do. Being neither Catholics, Protestants, nor Jews, we aspire to be Christians only.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

BY VERN SANFORD

White-tailed deer, the species common to most of Texas, are well known but certainly not known well.

Consider, for example, the deer's antlers, or horns as they are commonly called. It is a widespread belief that the age of a deer can be determined by the number of points he has.

"This is not necessarily so," says Russell Tinsley in his book, Hunting the Whitetail Deer (published by Harper & Rowe). An 18-month-old buck might have eight points, while one seven years old may have no more than a spike.

Many factors determine the size of a deer's antlers, including heredity, food and minerals.

Soon after the hunting season closes, the buck loses his antlers. But they start growing again right away. Antlers are the fastest growing bone known. Most crucial time for antler development is in late winter and spring. That's when the bone begins to sprout from the deer's head.

A healthy 18-month-old buck (a second-year deer) should have at least forked antlers. If a deer has only spiked, straight horns and is almost two years old, this is not good. It means he was either a late fawn or did not have the right kind or ample food during the growing season. A healthy deer with bountiful food might have eight points, although the young 18-month-old animal will be small physically.

By the time it is 2½-years old, the deer likely will have at least eight points, possibly 10. But only a scant few of the deer, despite their age, ever get more than 10 points. The typical whitetail buck has eight or 10 at full maturity.

Ideally, both sides of the antlers should be almost perfectly matched. And deformity, usually is a sign of some injury to the animal.

At 2½-years-old the deer may have reached his peak, as far as antler development is concerned. For the next few years, his antlers may be almost the same size, year after year. Only a few continue to grow in size. However, the antler beam may get heavier on a deer's antlers even though they do not get wider or higher.

At some point the deer starts regressing. His antlers get smaller rather than larger. If he should live long enough, he may have no more than two short, straight antlers when he is near death from old age.

In Texas, few deer live to see a third birthday. Studies by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department reveal that a vast majority of the deer killed each year are 2½-years old or younger. Thus few deer grow old enough to sport large antlers.

This is true in the much-hunted Hill Country or Edwards Plateau. But in South Texas, where hunting is much more difficult because of the dense, thorny brush, the deer live longer. Also the mineral soil is more conducive to growing larger deer, both in antler size and physically. In this sector, an older buck is not unusual, one that has escaped the hunters long enough to attain a large size.

Environment plays an important part in the development of deer. Some experiments have been tried with South Texas deer, such as moving them to the Hill Country of Central Texas. But with little success. When a deer from this sector is moved to the crowded conditions of the Edwards Plateau region, it doesn't grow much larger than the native deer.

While the Hill Country grows deer in quantity, the South Texas brush area grows them in quality. Sadly, as both landowners and hunters have found, you can't have both quality and numbers.

Our thanks also goes to Carl and Wanda Cahill, my brother and sister-in-law, who subscribe to your paper for us and have for some time now. A gift we all thoroughly enjoy.

Since they are quite Bronco football fans, we too have become so through your reports on the games. We feel we are right there cheering them on with the Cahills. May they have a happy and victorious season.

Last, but not least, they aren't the worlds best when it comes to corresponding, so many times the "Devil's River News" tells us what they and their friends we have met are up to before their belated letters arrive.

May you have continued success in your business and remain there as Editor for many years to come.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. Klein E. Brady

P.S. I fully intended to write you sometime ago, but somehow never quite found the time, or perhaps maybe I was a little shy. But now I really had a good excuse to get me on the ball, since as of October 1 we have moved to a new address.

Snips, Quips And Lifts

by Lottie Lee Baker
—Living in the lap of luxury isn't bad, except you never know when luxury is going to stand up.
—When you get a chance to buy things for a song, it's a good idea to check the accompaniment.
—About the only thing you can do on a shoeing these days is trip.

—Inflation is when nobody has enough money, because everybody has too much.

—When a speech is boiled down it isn't so dry.

—It's costing us more to make history than the stuff is worth.

—When our alarm clock rings the best part of our day is over.

—The problem is how to stay in the groove without making it a rut.

—Live within your income and you'll live without worry—and a lot of other things.

—A theory is a hunch with a college education.

—If you allow your actions to be guided by rumors, you'll be doing things the HEARD way.

—The man who tends strictly to his own business has a steady job.

—The first telephone directory was issued in 1878 by the New Haven Connecticut Telephone Company, and it listed the names of just fifty subscribers.

—Did you hear about the experimenter that crossed a potato with a sponge? It tasted terrible, but it held a lot of gravy.

—There are two sure dates for good fishing—the day before you go, and the day after you come back.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Money in a savings account? Money in a checking account? Money in your pocket? These all add up to a fine sense of security. But as everybody knows, the security of money can disappear. The stock market drops, expenses chew up your savings.

There's another kind of security that is not based on the fleeting, material treasures of life. It is the security needed when sickness strikes, a son or daughter disappoints us, or death takes a loved one. This security chases out doubt and fear. It enables us to go right on living day by day, certain that we will not walk alone. In fact, God has said that He will never leave us nor forsake us.

Discover for yourself this security! In your church you can find those eternal values if you trust in the security of Him who cannot fail.

Sonora School Board Lets Contract

The Sonora School Board let a contract for the construction of a new teacherage during their regular meeting Monday, October 9. Architect for the home is Everett Dupree of San Angelo. The home will be constructed on a lot already owned by the school system.

Your Questions On the Draft . . .

Editor's note: Below are questions now being asked at draft boards. The answers are by Col. Morris S. Schwartz, State Selective Service Director, 702 Colorado Street, Austin, Texas 78701. He will welcome your questions.

Q—In order to qualify for a II-S student deferment, must I enter college in the first class commencing after graduation from high school?
A—No. If you are not reached for induction on account of your age before you enter college, you may receive the deferment even though a period has passed when you were not in school, provided you are not yet 24 years old. Once enrolled, you must request deferment from your draft board in writing, then remain a full-time, satisfactory student.

Q—How can I become a member of the local draft board?
A—If you are a citizen, at least 30 years of age, reside in the area over which the board has jurisdiction, and are not a member of the armed forces or its reserves, you are eligible. Contact the present members of the board, or write the State Selective Service Director, or the Governor, indicating your interest. Members are recommended by the Governor and appointed by the President of the United States.

Q—I am a graduate student. Will I be eligible for a I-S (C) classification?
A—Yes, if you were deferred by your board in Class II-S prior to June 30, 1967. Otherwise, you are not eligible.

Episcopal Minister To Become Rector Of Beeville Church

The Rev. Rollin Polk, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church will hold his last service here Sunday, October 15, before he and his family move to Beeville Monday.

The Rev. Mr. Polk will become rector of St. Phillip's Episcopal Church and will conduct services at the Church of the Good Shepherd in George West.

The Polks moved to Sonora early in 1965 from San Antonio. The Rev. Mr. Polk has been active in Lions Club and chamber of commerce activities during his tenure here.

He said that one of the most significant things during his stay was the formation of the Sonora Ministerial Alliance, the organization of the pastors of several of the local churches. He said, "The Alliance is a compliment to Sonora in showing that various faiths can and do work together. I see this as a forecast of what the future church may be like."

The Rev. Lea Roy Aldwell will conduct services at St. John's Church until a permanent rector is named. Joseph VanderStucken is the senior warden of the church. Sunday services will be held at 8 and 11 a.m. Services after October 16 will be held at 9 a.m., only.

County on Lookout For Pecan Buyers

The Sutton County-owned pecan crop at Camp Allison may "go begging" this year if a buyer cannot be found.

The county published notices for bids on the crop to be submitted to the County Commissioners at their regular meeting Monday, October 9. No one appeared at the meeting with a bid.

The commissioners ruled to try to find potential buyers of the crop. Interested parties may contact county judge J. W. Elliott.

Don't Give

A Chance To Start!

What's the real cause of fires? Do they start from a match in the hands of a child, a neglected cigarette, a pile of rubbish, faulty electric wiring? Whatever the immediate cause, the basic cause of wasteful, costly, tragic fires is just plain carelessness.

Remember, firemen put out our fires, but only you can prevent them.

Be careful . . . about fire hazards around your home, ranch, or business. Be careful when handling flames in any form. Act now . . . to stop fires and save lives.

Fire Prevention Week is Oct. 8-14

Schleicher County Elects to Go "Wet"

The local option election in Eldorado Saturday, October 8, was passed by a close 358-350 margin for the off-premise sale of alcoholic beverages.

The measure was defeated in the last option election held in 1948 by a 3-1 margin.

A total of 708 voters cast their ballots. The figure was lower than the recent hospital district election held in Eldorado.

Hunters . . . Look Again Before Firing that Gun

This article is aimed directly at the hundreds of thousands of hunters who are taking to the fields and woods this fall in search of game—

Before you pull the trigger, know what you're firing at.

Sporting arms, from a single-shot .22 calibre rifle to a heavy big game weapon to a fast-shooting automatic scattergun, are designed to kill birds and animals. They also can kill or wound humans.

Each fall several hundred hunters return from fall outings via hearse. Thousands of others return with a load of bird shot or a rifle bullet to be dug out. Behind almost every hunting accident is one cause: carelessness. The hunter who blazes away at everything that moves runs a big risk of bagging a fellow hunter.

Never cross over or through a fence or climb a tree with a loaded gun. It might fall and discharge. Unload first and reload after crossing. Don't shoot at a hard, flat surface. Ricocheting bullets can carry long distances with killing power.

Even a small bore rifle has considerable range. Know where your bullet will stop before pulling the trigger.

Keep guns away from children. Never leave a weapon unattended without unloading it. Store guns and ammunition beyond reach of youngsters, preferably under lock and key.

Always carry a gun so that you can control direction of the muzzle even if you stumble. Keep the safety catch on until ready to shoot. Always be sure the barrel is clear of obstructions. A barrel clogged with mud or snow may burst.

Guns and alcohol don't mix. If you like a nip around camp, wait until you're through hunting for the day and all weapons are unloaded and cased.

Treat guns with respect at all times. They may be loaded, despite all precautions. Thus never point a weapon at something unless you plan to shoot it.
