CINDERS

by Jim Barnett

Kids can do some funny things when they are forced into the adult world.

G. G. (Shorty) Bennett brought in a clipping which reflects some of the humorous incidents of children in the adult world.

One part of the clipping was devoted to some of the things children say when being taught the basics of religion in Sunday school.

One child, repeating the Lord's Prayer said, "Harold be thy name," and "give us this day our jelly bread."

Another child, age 2, was reported to have said while being taught his prayers, "Thank you Lord, come in" (instead of amen).

Another, being taught one of the verses of "God Bless America" sang, "A light from a bulb," instead of "A light from above."

Probably everyone can remember something similar that a child has said; some might even admit it.

Mrs. Carrie Cooper Dies in Angelo

Mrs. Carrie Albe Cooper, 85, died in San Angelo at Rabb Nursing Home November 10, 1967, where she had been for the past three months.

Mrs. Cooper was born February 24, 1882, in Gillespie County, but had lived most of her life in Sutton County. Her husband, Don Cooper, preceded her in death in 1929.

Survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Annie Muerer of San Angelo and Mrs. Maggie Brown of San Antonio.

Graveside services with the Rev. Rodney C. Dowdy officiating, were held November 12 at Sonora Cemetery. Pall bearers were Tom Nevill, Mat Adams, A. C. Hudson and C. A. Luckett.

Broncos Win District 8-A, Play for Bi-District Here

A tough Bronco eleven, with the aid of a razzle-dazzle first quarter play and 367 yards rushing by Ed Lee Renfro, clinched another District 8-A title for Sonora, beating the Iraan Braves 42-12.

The win will pit Sonora against the winner of District 7-A, Canutillo, here Friday, November 17.

Scoring got underway early in the first quarter of play with some razzle-dazzle, apparently learned the hard way from the Menard Yellowjackets.

On Sonora's first play from scrimmage, quarterback J. V. Cook pitched out to Ed Lee Renfro, who ran the ball to the right sideline. The Braves apparently well-versed in Renfro's running ability forgot that he might throw a pass. Renfro sailed his thirty-yard aerial to halfback Ernest Barrera, who was 15 yards behind the Iraan defense. Barrera went in for the Bronco score without being touched. Renfro's extra point was good for an early 7-0 lead.

It did not take the Broncos long to get on the scoreboard a second time. After Iraan punted to the Sonora 22-yard line fullback Mike Gosney moved to the Sonora 36 on two runs. Renfro broke away from the defenders at the Sonora 40,

Rites Held Here For Mrs. Reed

Mrs. Frank (Lillian Maybell) Reed, 55, died November 11, 1967. She was found about 8 a.m., inside her burned car about 1 and one-half miles from her ranch home. Mrs. Reed had been dead several hours, according to Sheriff Herman Moore. The car was gutted by the fire. Peace Justice Alfred Cooper ruled her death accidental.

Mrs. Reed was born in San Patricio County November 13, 1912. She married Frank Reed in Eldorado in 1928 and he survives her.

One daughter, Mrs. Sherrill Dannheim of Eldorado also survives her. Other survivors include one grandchild, two brothers T. H. Osteen of Del Rio, James Osteen of Sweetwater and two sisters, Mrs. Robert Harper of Blooming Grove and Jewel Osteen.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. November 14 at the First Baptist Church with the Rev. Rodney C. Dowdy, pastor, officiating. Interment was in Ft. McKavitt Cemetery.

Pall bearers were Birl Davis, Collier Shurley, Alfred Schwiening Jr., George Wallace, Billy Galbreath and Billy Doran.

and went all the way for the score. As Renfro threaded his way through the Iraan line several tacklers were bowled over.

End and kicker Dennis Schmidt came on the field for the extra point and made the score 14-0 with 4:20 left in the first quarter.

After the following kickoff, Iraan's passing combination of quarterback Pat Gladden and end Tim Armstrong began to click.

Iraan ran back the Bronco kickoff to the Iraan 38-yard line and quickly moved to the Sonora 48 on a Gladden to Armstrong aerial. With a first down at the 48, Iraan scored on another Gladden to Armstrong pass. Their two-point conversion attempt failed, making the score 14-6.

Gosney took the following kickoff and returned it to the Sonora 30 before being knocked down. The Broncos moved rapidly with Barrera dragging several Braves to the Sonora 41-yard line and a first down. It was Barrera again to the Iraan 34, followed by runs by Renfro and Gosney to the Iraan five-yard line. Renfro burst through the middle for the third Bronco score and then kicked the extra point. The first quarter ended before the score to give the Broncos a 20-6 lead early in the second quarter.

Iraan was unable to get a drive going and turned the ball over to the Broncos at the Sonora 40-yard line when a fourth down and two-yard pass play was broken up by defensive back Robert Mata.

The Braves were able to contain the Bronco offense and forced them to punt to the Iraan 20-yard line. Again the passing game of Iraan was good for a score.

Gladden to Armstrong passes moved the Braves to the Sonora 21-yard line. Little Ricky Rylander, the 125-pound halfback, moved to the Sonora six, on one run and into the Bronco end zone on a second ending the Iraan scoring.

Their extra point try failed. From that point on, it was the Bronco ball game.

Renfro was the man to score the last touchdown of the first half. He went all the way from the Sonora 41-yard line on a reverse. Schmidt's kick was good to end the half with a 28-12 score.

As the second half began the "terrible trio" of Renfro, Barrera and Gosney, moved for the first score of the second half. Renfro took the scoring honors from the Iraan 27-yard line and Schmidt again kicked the extra point.

The last Bronco score was set up on an interception by J. V. Cook at the Iraan 36-yard line.

From there Barrera and Lumbreyas moved to the Iraan four-yard line. Barrera crashed the line for the score and Renfro kicked the extra point making the final score 42-12.

LUTHERAN SERVICES

Hope Lutheran Church will hold a Thanksgiving Day service November 23 at 11 a.m.

Arno Melz, pastor, said the public is invited.

FLEET HALFBACK ED LEE RENFRO is moments away from contact with Iraan back Roger Wortham. Renfro gained a total of 367 yards in the district championship game. The Broncos will meet Canutillo in Bronco Stadium Friday for the Bi-District title.

Weekend Opens Season With High Kill in County

Sutton County's first weekend of hunting season opened Saturday, November 11, for the first crack at the $1,200,000 hunting revenue goal set by the chamber of commerce.

Manager Boo Johnson said the season got off to a very good start despite the warm and damp weather. All 30 of the ranches that are accepting day hunters were full for the first weekend. Johnson said that everyone that stopped in the chamber information center was helped to find a hunting spot.

An accurate count of deer killed over the weekend is not known, but estimates place the figure as high as 500 deer. Both Whitworth's Drive-In and the Branding Iron Smoke House took in several good deer. Leroy Whitworth said the best deer brought in to his plant was a nine-point, 120 pound buck killed by Wayne Parker of Ralls. Freeman Mears of the Smokehouse dressed a 12-point, 112 pound deer taken on the Bryan Hunt ranch. Both locker plants took an approximate total of 300 deer.

One rancher, G. H. Davis, said that he had three hunters over the weekend and all got their limits. One of his hunters got an eight-point buck.

The county deer population has dropped since last year due to the dryness of the last winter and spring. While the drop in population was considerable, an adequate supply of deer are in the county. Game officials said the turkey population remained fairly stable because of the drought conditions. The county did not have a hatch of new turkeys this year, they said. Bob Johnson said that the results of the first weekend were very similar throughout the general area. Most all of the surrounding areas were faced with the same general weather and hunting conditions.

Commission Canvasses 58 Amendment Votes

Sutton County voters approved three of six proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution in the general election Saturday, November 11.

The County Commissioners canvassed the 58 ballots in their regular meeting Monday, November 13. The amendments that were approved were the second, fourth and sixth proposals. The second proposal authorizes municipalities to establish facilities for mental health and public health. The fourth amendment gives counties the right to pay medical bills for law enforcement officers injured in the line of duty. The sixth amendment authorizes non-elective state officers to serve in other non-elective offices which are of benefit to the state.

Locally, the amendments that were defeated would have enabled the county to place all tax money in one fund, to extend the Veterans Land Bill to include veterans of the Vietnam war, and to enable the state to issue bonds for the purpose of purchasing state park land.

Statewide, the amendments approving mental health, revival of the Veterans Land Program, medical coverage for county law enforcement, and allowing state employees to hold non-elective positions were passed.

In other county business, the commissioners ruled to officially name the roads in Sutton County by their generally accepted names. The officials of the Texas Highway Department recommended naming the roads that would later become interchanges on the new Interstate Highway 10. The roads named are Baker Road, Ross Road, Allison Road and Station B Road.

Tickets on Sale

Reserved seat tickets for the Sonora-Canutillo bi-district game Friday, November 17, are now on sale in the foyer of Central Elementary School, according to superintendent Ralph Finklea.

The ticket booth will be open 9:30-11 a.m., and 1:30-3 p.m., Thursday, and from 9:30-11:30 a.m. on Friday.

Much That is Right

Those who like to criticize often downgrade the accomplishments of our economic system on the grounds that it has made us a nation of materialistic gadget collectors and a diminishing capacity to pursue or appreciate things of the mind. But, if this were true, why is the educational level of our young people on a constantly rising curve? Why is it that the best-trained minds in medicine, the sciences and the arts come to the United States from other countries to learn and perfect their abilities in their chosen fields? How is it that this country is concerned with improving opportunities available to those now living at substandard levels.

The fact is that the competitive enterprise system produces the material necessities and luxuries of life so efficiently that it does not take all the average family's income just to pay for food, clothing and shelter. There is much left over for a stereo sound system. There is an insurance policy or a savings account for the youngsters' college. There is time to read and learn. There are increasing opportunities to travel. There is political freedom, and the constitutional system that guarantees individual rights and liberties.

Yes, there is much RIGHT with the United States. Because of all the things that are right, we have a far better chance of solving the problems and correcting the inequities that remain with us than any nation of people the world has seen before.

The Devil's River Philosopher sez: Being President of the United States Not All It's Cracked Up to Be

Editor's Note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Dry Devil's River takes a look at the national political scene this week. We don't know what he sees.

Dear editor:
 Although political writers don't seem to have much better luck predicting elections than sports writers predicting football games, neither group ever gives up and right now, according to all the news papers I've found out here in the past few weeks, the speculation is centering on who's going to run for President next year.

I won't go into all the names, politicians are like honorees at a wedding, if you leave one out of the paper you're in trouble, but one of the men being speculated on by the writers, Gov. Rockefeller of New York, when asked if he was considering running, said he didn't want to be President.

This seemed to shock the political writers, but not me. I know exactly how he feels. We might as well face up to it, being President of the United States is not all it's cracked up to be. The salary isn't bad, but that basketball player, Wilt Chamberlain, makes over twice as much and has never been picketed.

Sure, the President gets to fly in an airplane, but millions of Americans fly every week and nobody writes editorials about them. It's one thing to be able to walk out of your office and go to your ranch when you want to, but you're not getting away from your job because if you're a President it follows you wherever you go.

The average man has enough to do handling his job, his health, his family, his in-laws and his neighbors but a President has all those plus Congress and 200 squabbling nations on earth, not to mention university professors, the Gallup poll, and 200 million American taxpayers.

In fact, when you stack it all up, you begin to have a strong feeling for the position of the man who doesn't want to be President, but this doesn't seem to make any difference and I doubt if the office will ever go vacant. Right now there are men all over the country clamoring for the job, but not being a political writer I won't predict who's going to get it.

Yours faithfully,
 J. A.

Stock Poisoning Hazard after Frost

The season when prussic acid poisoning becomes a hazard to livestock is here, reports County Agent D. C. Langford. Prussic acid poisoning occurs when certain plants are grazed immediately after they have been damaged by frost explains the county agent.

Sorghum species, including Johnsongrass, sudangrass, and the grain sorghums, can become the source of poisoning. Cattle are the most susceptible although other domestic animals can be affected. The poisoning is rapid acting and signs of illness may start within a few minutes after the animal has eaten the plant. Death may occur within 15 minutes or an animal may live for several hours.

The most common symptoms of poisoning are salivation, labored breathing and bloat. Affected animals should be removed from the pasture or field and treated immediately by a veterinarian if possible. Sorghum species, warns Langford should not be grazed after frost until they have dried out which usually requires 7-10 days after frost.

A PARSON'S EYE-VIEW OF SONORA

BY THE REV. ROSS T. WELCH

Rather belatedly some of us had the pleasure of meeting Father Michael Fernandez, recently appointed pastor at St. Ann's Catholic Church. Father Michael grew up and was educated in Spain.

His Spanish is not quite the same as that spoken on the local scene, but he will surely make the adjustment in short order. He at least has the advantage over his predecessor, who spoke no Spanish.

Father Michael is eager to try his hand at hunting. Fortunately he has several invitations to go hunting.

His niece is here with him. Mrs. Wilson should see some improvement in the speaking ability of some of her male Spanish students—we hear a number of them are trying to master the language now.

I am not sure who called the coin-toss that determined where this week's bi-district football game will be played. Whoever it was deserves this community's unlimited thanks. We could have lost every other toss this year so far and, having won this one, would have been far ahead.

Canutillo has been playing in some high-scoring ball games, and so far they seem to have been the team doing most of the scoring. But "so far" they have not played against the Sonora line.

I predict they will do well to score at all Friday night. Despite their high ranking in the state I doubt if they are stronger than Iran. I think they will have to plan to make more than 30 points to hope to win over the Broncos—and I just do not think they can do it.

Back to that lucky toss—there is no way of estimating how many thousands of dollars that meant to our community, disregarding the gambling angle. And it might be worth a couple of touchdowns on the playing field. No other distance can seem so far, now that the dread of having to go to Canutillo is removed.

The Rex Loves have not lost their interest in the success of the Bronco Football Team. Perhaps the next game can be played in San Angelo and we can all go and spend the night with them.

For the ministers of the community, I want to thank those officials responsible for arranging the play-off games on Friday rather than Saturday night.

Some football players get hurt in the game; others—like Monte Dillard—bounce a crow bar off their noggins. For goodness' sake—let's be careful.

We had better not complain about the weather—here it is mid-November and my chrysanthemums are still very pretty. Also, we noticed in driving around over Bill Whitehead's spread Saturday afternoon that the weeds are coming on fast after recent rains. The rains were almost ideal, general, gentle and generous.

Very little water ran off, however, Bill's stock tank was at a low ebb.

If you saw some little boys taking a few leaves off your shrubs last week, you would have understood had you known that the sixth grade science teacher had assigned her pupils the task of gathering and identifying the various types of leaf structure.

Hunters are waiting for some sharp cold mornings to make the bucks come out of the thickets. I remember how we used to wait for the first sharp cold spell to kill the first hog on the farm.

Since the sausage and bacon from last year's hogs were pretty well used up by late spring and most of our summer meat had consisted of fried chicken, we were really hungry for that first, fresh-killed pork.

If it were not a school morning when the norther blew in, Dad would roust us out well before daylight to get the pots filled with the water and the fires built around them, so there would be a good supply of boiling water.

Usually the hogs were rather large and fat. After the hog was killed, we used a horse to drag him from the hog pen to the place of butchering. We would catch the hook on each end of a single-tree inside the hamstrings on each hind leg of the animal to drag him along and also, with the help of a block and tackle to lower him into the barrel of scalding water and take him out again.

Then the fun began, with sharp butcher knives we literally gave the hog a shave. Every square inch of skin had to be clean and free of hair, for my mother used even the head and the feet.

My father always did the work of cutting the carcass into pieces, because he knew how to trim the hams and shoulders, which meat should go into the lard and which into the sausage.

One of the jobs I disliked most was cleaning the intestines to use for casings for the sausage. Sometimes my mother used long cloth sacks that she had made ahead of time.

As soon as the sausage was ground, seasoned, and properly mixed we would make out a skillet full of patties and cook them over the embers of the fire that had earlier burned with such a lively blaze around the pots. By that time my mother would have returned to the kitchen and made a large pan of buttermilk biscuits.

I am sure that I never enjoyed anything more than those well-seasoned sausage and homemade biscuits, eaten with half-brown hands around the dying embers of an out-door fire.

You older readers may have memories of similar experiences, but the younger generation has had no such experience. If someone does not put it into print, it will be lost and gone forever.

When the first good norther blows and the temperature drops, there always comes to mind the expression we used in my childhood, "hog-killing weather." Today we say—"football weather."

Sonora Doctor Advises Vaccines

According to Dr. Charles F. Browne, the need for increased attention to diphtheria immunization has been brought sharply into focus by the occurrence of five clinical cases of diphtheria in one Texas county during the period of September 28-October 29. All cases were in school children.

Dr. Browne says that "many children here are behind on their vaccines" and he recommends immediate immunization.

He advises parents to contact their physician for immunization against polio, measles and smallpox in addition to diphtheria.

GOLF TOURNAMENT PLANNED

The Sonora Golf Club will hold a mixed foursome tournament Sunday, November 19.

Entry fee will be $2.50 per person and deadline for entry will be 1 p.m., Sunday. Tournament play will begin at 1:30 p.m.

LILIA PEREZ has been voted band sweetheart by the members of the Bronco band. She was presented a bouquet of roses by band president Mike Gilly during halftime ceremonies last Friday. All of the senior band members were also honored and presented gifts. Maxine Davis was named football sweetheart at a pep rally before the Friday game. Mike Gosney presented her with a gift and corsage on behalf of the football team.

There were several college kids home over the weekend. Nedra Raye, Yvonne Young, Gary Hardgrave, Brent Johnson, Jimmy Trainer, Wade Stokes, Carl Teaff, Joe Moore, Allen Hearn and Jack Hearn were a few of the ones who made it home.

Lilia Perez was chosen as the 1967 band sweetheart. The senior members of the band were presented with gifts at the game Friday night.

Mike Gosney, Ernest Barrera and Manuel Sanchez will be the football team captains for the rest of the year.

A pep rally was held Thursday night at the Bronco Drive-In. Coach Hopkins was the speaker for the rally. The victory torch was then lighted.

Maxine Davis is this year's football sweetheart. At the pep rally Friday, Mike Gosney presented her with a mum and a present from the team. Cheers to Mr. and Mrs. Hillman Brown for furnishing hot dogs and cokes for the pep rally Thursday night.

Firemen's Corner

Escaping from fires in the home is more likely if certain basic facts about fires are known. During a fire the air near the floor is the safest because heated air and carbon monoxide tend to rise. Also, fire tends to travel faster when doors and windows are open. Besides protecting oneself from the actual flames it is especially important to protect the respiratory passages, the hands, and the face.

If periodic fire drills are held in the home and the plans for escape are fixed in each person's mind the chance for escape is good because cool-headedness is more important than speed. The first thing to be done in case of the fire is to notify the fire department immediately, giving correct address and type of fire. Next, everyone in the house should be waned. Then, everyone should leave the house immediately and should not return for any reason. On leaving the house, every door that is passed through should be closed to slow down the spread of the fire. Do not open any door if it feels hot. In going through smoky areas crawl on hands and knees. In case clothing catches on fire do not run because running fans the flames. Instead, roll in a coat, blanket or on the ground to smother the flames.

The firemen met November 8 at the fire hall. Due to the Civil Defense Lecture being held the meeting was not long. They will meet again November 14 at 7:30 p.m.

The ladies auxiliary was held November 13 at the fire hall with Mrs. Kyle Donaldson as hostess.

The story of P. K. Wrigley and THE LOCOMOTIVE

One day P. K. Wrigley was riding on a train with a friend and the conversation turned to the chewing gum business. The friend, who had an eye for saving a penny, suggested now that "I could ask the conductor of this train the same question," replied the financial genius, "This train is now going 60 miles per hour, so why not disconnect the engine? Advertising in merchandising is what a locomotive is to a train. It is the power which keeps it going."

TURKEY DAY
 Turkey day is drawing near. Mom is singing, I can hear. She's baking cakes and pies galore. All those "goodies" we adore. Granny and Gramps are coming down. A big parade is planned in town. Our turkey is cooking, oh so nice. Mother has turned it once or twice. Smells so good, just like it oughta. It will fill the sons and daughter. Sure am glad we have this day. Sure do like to eat this way. And if we get fat as Jackie Gleason's Mother's cooking will be the reason!

The Background of Integrity

There are millions of men in this world whose word is trusted—whose handshake is a binding contract—whose integrity others accept without question.

We've come a long way from the days when a strong man and a stout club were the social graces.

And this growth in man's capacity for integrity has paralleled his growth in religious expression.

Of course, the cynics will point to men and nations who still live by the code of the cave man. Must we believe that the clock of progress has turned . . . is running backward?

The sound, the sensible, the sincere still feel the strength of God's Bible in every handshake. With their children they are finding new spiritual opportunity and hope in the churches they cherish.

Are you with them? Are you, too, pushing forward the frontiers of faith?

Last Rites Held For Mrs. Parish

A former Sonora school teacher, Mrs. Vivian Gooden Parish, 63, died Thursday, November 9, in Crockett County Hospital after a long illness.

She was born in Harwood and had been a teacher for 26 years. Mrs. Parish taught school here for several years at the L. W. Elliott Elementary school.

Services were held November 11 in Calvary Baptist Church with Eastern Star graveside rites at Cedar Hill Cemetery.

Survivors include her husband; a daughter, Mrs. W. D. O'Bryant of Ozona; a sister, Kathleen Holleney of San Antonio; two brothers, Hugh Gooden of San Antonio and Ralph Gooden of Houston, and a grandson.

Doctor Warns Patients of Hazards Of Certain Types of Diet Pills

Dr. Charles F. Browne warns that diet pills can have serious side effects and in some instances have been suspected of causing death among some patients in Oregon according to an article in the American Medical Association News by Russell C. Henry, MD, of Portland, Oregon.

Dr. Henry made national headlines recently by charging that at least six women—possibly eight—have died over the past four years as a result of taking certain diet pills.

According to Dr. Browne, the majority of those involved in most investigations are "osteopathic physicians." In addition, in the Oregon investigation, at least one chiropractor and three physicians were involved.

Dr. Browne says that Dr. Henry has made a study of the diet pill cases for more than two years, and he stated he had not encountered any case where the medications were prescribed. They were entirely dispensed by the doctor and most of those people dispensing the pills had set up clinics and in some cases total practices in obesity control.

"The patient in most instances, goes to these individuals for examination of varying degrees of completeness. Then the patient is given a month's supply of the pills. In theory, at least, the patient is supposed to go back at least once a month for a 'checkup.'"

He says the patients are instructed to take a large number of pills a day, ranging from four to 17. The pills are color-coded and the patients are told to take so many of the red ones, so many of the green ones, and so on.

In Dr. Henry's investigation he received letters from "many women describing the symptoms compatible with hypokalemia and/or digitalis effect. A couple of them have described what would sound like very nearly fatal effects for which they were hospitalized and recovered."

Dr. Browne says that MDs know the pills are known to contain, either singly or in combination, such drugs as digitalis, thyroid, a thiazide diuretic, a laxative, barbiturates, and amphetamines.

He warns that "any physician whose patients are following such a regimen should keep them under close surveillance."

According to AMA, the Senate Antitrust Committee reportedly has subpoenaed the records of at least nine diet pill firms for an investigation of the promotion of the pills and is said to be contemplating a bearing on this next year.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Moore, Moore was awarded a special scholarship. A 1964 Sonora High School graduate, he is a senior history major.

How To Become A Christian

Dear Catholic Friend,

I received your most welcome letter, and I accept your challenge to answer questions about your Catholic Church.

First, let me give you scriptures for the Catholic Church and the True Church. In the tract you sent me titled What Is A Catholic, I quote, "However, the Pope is not merely a private individual, nor is he merely a private theologian. He is the official head of the Church on earth, the vicar of Christ, and his teaching demands respect (worship), obedience and accent." In the San Angelo Times an article about Pope Pious, which I cut out of the paper, reads, "The Pope who is entrusted with the supreme office of teaching and ruling..."

Now hear what the apostle Paul said, who your Pope names himself after, Eph. 1:22, 23. "And gave Him to be the head over all things to the church, which is His body." Again the apostle Paul says in Col. 1:18, "and He is the head of the body of the church." Again in Col. 1:24, "for His bodies sake, which is the Church."

I give you some scriptures to read at your own time, "and call no man Father upon the earth; for one is your Father, which is in Heaven," Matt. 23:9. Read Romans 12:4, 5; 1 Cor. 12:12; Eph. 2:16; Col. 3:15; Eph. 4:4.

You said the Church of Christ was started in the year of 1800, but this is not so and you contradict yourself, "the Church of Christ that the Bible speaks of is the Church started by Christ, himself." This is the same Church we worship in today. The Church of Christ has only one teacher, and that is Christ. Psalms 111:9, "He sent redemption unto His people: He has commanded His covenant forever: Holy and Reverend is His name."

Who will you believe? The Bible says Holy and Reverend is Christ's name.

Again, you spoke of Christ's founding His Church on the rock and no other church shall prevail against it. Only one Church was spoken of, this is true. But friend, this is the very reason that you are deceived.

I can tell by your writing that you are somewhat intelligent, and I believe if you will read the scripture you will find that Jesus did not found the Church on such a frail thing as Peter, as is said, but on the confession that Peter made. Read Matt. 16:15, 16, "But whom saith ye that I am, and Simon Peter said, thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. Then speaking to Peter, He said, "blessed art thou, Simon Barjona; for flesh and blood hath not revealed it to thee, but My Father in Heaven." That is to say that through the miracles and wonders which Christ did through the power of God, Peter recognized Him as the Son of God. Then He said, "and I say ALSO unto thee, that thou art Peter (which means little pebble) and upon this rock (which means mountain) I will build My Church. The confession that Peter made is the foundation for which the apostles started the Church of Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit, with power.

These things are confirmed in Acts 1:8, "but ye shall be witnesses unto Me both in Jerusalem and unto the uttermost parts of the earth." You say I do not know much about your church, but let me give you some history about the way power has been used to make your church universal.

Revelation 11:3, "and I will give power unto My two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and three score days, clothed in sack cloth." Verse 7, "and when they have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and shall kill them."

Since the word of God says that a year to us is like a day to God, and the book of Revelation is symbolic language, 1260 days would mean 1260 years to us, so if you will turn to your history books, Gideon, Vol. 4, Page 528, you will find an account of a persecution inaugurated by the monarch, Justinian, year A.D. 527, in order to make all conform to the Papal rule. Gideon says, "his reign was a uniform, yet various scene of persecution."

You did not give me your name because the Word that I preach is not my own, but Christ's. There is power in His words to convict the wayward of their sinful ways. If you will write me or come to see me I will show you more, and teach you more about Christ.

I will answer more of your letter next week.

If the person who wrote this letter has left town, would his friends please send him a copy of this article or give me his address?
