PRICE—TEN CENTS

CINDERS

by John T. King

Sheep have been successfully sheared at the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Research Center, Beltsville, Md., without the use of clippers.

The innovation was made possible by biologist Dr. Ethel H. Dolnick and colleagues in USDA's Agricultural Research Service. These sheep were dosed with an experimental chemical, previously used mainly in cancer therapy. Medical scientists found that the drug, aimed at stopping cell growth in tumors, also interrupted cell growth in hair roots, causing test subjects including sheep to lose their hair or wool temporarily.

In sheep, Dr. Dolnick said, the chemical causes a ringlike constriction in each wool fiber beneath the skin surface. The constriction will move from the bulb of each wool fiber as it grows, and in 5 to 7 days reaches a position just below the skin surface. At that point the fiber breaks easily and the entire fleece can be separated at the skin-line, leaving the sheep completely bare.

If the fleece is left on longer than 7 days, the constriction will grow out above the skin surface, so that after fleece removal, a short coat of new wool protects the skin, much as in shearing.

Chemical defleecing, unlike shearing, leaves no nicks nor cuts on the skin. Wool has grown back normally on chemically defleeced sheep regardless of the interval allowed between dosing the sheep and removing the wool. But further studies are necessary to determine whether this type of defleecing causes chemical residues in the meat or alters wool growth or quality, say the scientists.

The cost of this experimental treatment has not been determined in dollars and cents but its practical advantage is indicated. With a few minutes of training a person can do a most satisfactory job. He grabs a handful of wool and rolls his wrist along the sheep's skin and pulls off the fleece without strain on himself, discomfort to the sheep, or wastage of wool.

Can't you just imagine an absent minded rancher who turned out his sheep and later discovered his wool clipping hanging from the branches of trees?

A little old lady being examined for jury duty in a small county town was asked if she knew the defense lawyer.

"Yes," she snapped, "he's a crook."

"And the plaintiff's lawyer?"

"Yes, he's a crook too."

With that the judge called both lawyers over for a conference. He whispered, "If you ask her if she knows me, I'll fine you for contempt of court."

Sunday is the day everyone has been waiting for. It's the long awaited day when the clock is changed back to Central Standard time. In case you're wondering which way to turn your clock, remember this phrase: Spring forward, Fall backward.

Turn the clock back to one hour earlier Saturday before you go to bed and you'll be right on time when you wake up. Or if you prefer, wait until Sunday morning and know that you have an extra hour for sleeping.

Both second quarter touchdowns With seven minutes to be played were made by David Wuest to in the first quarter, Robert Mata Thurston McCutchen passes. Wildlife Abundant In Edwards Plateau

By E. B. Keng, SCS Technician
With the approach of colder weather fall migration of birds has started. George Brockman and Mary L. Shurley reported seeing sandhill cranes going south on Monday.

Incidentally, sandhill cranes fly with the neck fully extended, have a 6 to 7 foot wing spread, and utter a deep rolling k-r-r-oo, repeated several times. The great blue heron, sometimes called a crane, flies with its neck and head drawn back against its shoulders.

The Canada goose, which often flies across this area, has a 2 to 3 foot wing spread. Its voice is a musical honking ka-runk or ka-lunk with the second syllable higher.

The colorful Monarch Butterflies were abundant in Sonora last week. Mary L. Shurley noticed hundreds of butterflies on her pecan trees and wondered what havoc might result from their visit. A note from bug-specialist O. G. Babcock, retired USDA entomologist, indicated that the butterfly was the Monarch, and that it was performing its annual migration from north to south. He expects no bad results to follow, since the butterflies were simply resting and dining on our trees on their way south.

Porcupines—the colorful animal that was once widely believed to be able to throw its quills now seems to be increasing in abundance and spreading its historical range. They have long been found west of the Pecos River in Texas, but until recent years were not reported as occurring in the Edwards Plateau. They are common in the western United States, Canada, Alaska, and the northeastern U.S. At least three have been killed on local highways within the past two weeks. One was found near the Stella Keene ranch turn-off on US 290, and two on US 277 south on the Gene Shurley and J. A. Cauthorn ranches. Porcupines are often seen along yards and the second pass went for 80 yards. Renfro added the extra points. This was the last score of the first half making it 28-0 in favor of Sonora.

Again in the third quarter the Broncos went to the air. This time Jesso Cook tossed a 49 yard pass to McCutchen and Renfro made his first conversion of the night.

The Menard Yellowjackets got on the scoreboard early in the fourth period on a 14 yard scamper by their halfback, Lane. The extra point try was no good.

Shortly after, Mata got his second six points of the evening on a 14 yard ramble. The PAT failed.

The Broncos travel to Mason Friday night to play the game that could decide who will be the State Champs of 68. The Punchers are undefeated this season and the Broncos have a 4-2 record with losses to Reagan County and Balinger. The game is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m.

Dolph Briscoe Urges Ranchmen To Help Control Spread Of Screwworm

A well known Texas rancher and animal health leader called on livestock owners Friday to do their part to help control the spread of costly screwworm cases, as Texas recorded its highest weekly infestation in some six years. The tally for the week was 992 cases, to up the state's 1968 outbreaks to 5,875.

Dolph Briscoe Jr., of Uvalde urged producers to postpone animal surgical operations—such as dehorning, castrating or branding—until cold weather arrives. Additionally, all wounds should be checked and properly treated, and worm samples from all wounds should be sent to the Mission Screwworm Laboratory for identification.

New Residents In County After May 5 To Vote In Clerk's Office By Nov. 1

Voters in the coming general election who moved into the county or after May 5, 1968, must vote in the County Clerk's office by November 1, according to information received from County Clerk Erma Lee Turner.

Formerly, persons who moved from one county to another could not vote during the first six months after the change of residence, but a new law enacted last year now permits them to vote on all state-wide offices, including President and Vice President, and on proposed constitutional amendments, but not on local offices and issues.

However, instead of voting at a regular polling place on election day, they must vote during a special time period in the county clerk's office in the county of their new residence. This period, which is the same as the period for absentee voting, began on October 16 and will end on November 1.

If the voter has lived in the same congressional, legislative, or judicial district for six months, he may also vote on that district office.

In order to vote, the person must be registered as a Texas voter for the 1968 voting year, and he should have his registration certificate with him when he applies for his ballot at the county clerk's office. However, if he has lost his certificate, he may vote after making an affidavit of its loss.

"It's up to us—the livestock producers—to use good management practices, and continue reporting all cases so that prompt sterile fly treatment can be initiated to bring the cases under control," emphasized Briscoe.

Sutton County had an additional six cases of screwworms last week on the W. L. Davis, Bill Tittle, Whitehead and Brown, Vestel Askew, and Wesley Sawyer ranches.

Record Sales At Auction Boost Lions $5,476.50

Auctioneer Lem Jones got the bidding off to a brisk start Tuesday night at the Lions Club Auction, and kept it going strong with a total of 167 items bringing $5,476.50, an all-time high for the event. Last year's receipts came to $4,893.00, with this year showing an increase of $583.50.

Jones has donated his time for the past several years as auctioneer for the annual event held by the Lions to raise funds for community projects, such as 4H Club work, aid to the blind, Little League program, the wool show, and numerous other civic projects.

The Mystery Package which was purchased last year by R. A. Halbert for $140 and has brought a total of $2,007.50 since it was first auctioned, was sold this year to W. L. Miers for $200. Miers made the first purchase in 1945 for $55, and has since been high bidder for the package four times. The highest price paid for the package heretofore was by Nathan Donky of Nathan's Jewelers of San Angelo in 1966, and the price was $160.

Mrs. Joseph VanderStucken's basket of homemade preserves and jellies brought $55 from Sonora Light and Power. Bud Smith, owner of Twin Oaks Motel paid $40 for 1 room, 2 double beds for the Fling Ding from Western Motel.

Westernman Drug gave $80 for Mrs. Alvis Johnson's German chocolate cake, and Rex Cusenbary paid $115 for a goat donated by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wade, which was the highest price paid all night for a dressed goat.

A "silent" haircut donated by Phillip Cooper was purchased by George Barrow of Barrow Jewelry for $15. Barrow and Hardesty of Eldorado bought a $250 submersible pump donated by Bill Green Water Service for $280, and Mrs. Bill Whitehead's painting, "Hombre", brought $80 from Producers Auction of San Angelo.

"Lucky" George Brockman was awarded a permanent wave by West Texas Utilities who purchased the wave from Juanita's Beauty Shop.

A complete list of purchasers and donors will appear later.

Doyle Morgan, president of the Downtown Lions Club, expressed his appreciation to the community for the enthusiastic support given the auction in donations and purchases. He especially thanked all those who donated their time and efforts in helping to make the event a success.

Laws Under Which We Must Live Decided By All Voters In Election

In the last election, one third of the nation's eligible citizens failed to vote and thereby carry out the first obligation that every U. S. citizen owes to himself and his country.

Between now and election day, every voter should make sure that he is registered and take the time to familiarize himself with candidates and the point of view they represent.

In this year's general election, the American people will select a President and thousands of other office holders including U. S. Senators and Representatives, governors and state legislators. These officials will make and administer the laws of the land under which we must live. They will decide on the roll of government in our lives, the amount of taxes we must pay, the wars we must fight and how many of our young men must serve in which branches of the armed forces and for how long. Every voter owes it to himself to take part in selecting the best men and women to carry out these vital functions.

If you expect to be away from home on election day, November

5, arrange to cast an absentee ballot. It is estimated absentee voting accounts for from one percent to six percent of the total vote. This can mean victory or defeat for the candidates of your choice. This November, know the issues and the people—then VOTE.

Part of Free Elections

Those who question the importance of a free press as a vital safeguard of liberty should have their doubts dispelled by recent events in Czechoslovakia. Among the reforms in that country was the granting of press freedom. This was one of the straws that broke the camel's back and brought on the invasion by Soviet Russia. The communist hard-line dictators were afraid their system could not withstand the test of a free press.

Here in our own country as an election approaches, every act and utterance of candidates is subjected to the views and comments of thousands of editors, and this stimulates the thoughtful weighing of candidates and issues in the minds of millions of voting citizens. A free press is as much a part of the election process in our U. S. Republic as the actual act of going into a voting booth.

No doubt there are the experts who can come forth with statistics to show that the influence of the press is negligible in deciding the fate of candidates. This may be so, but in nations where there is no free press, elections are a farce. A free press and a free nation are one and the same thing, and no one realizes that better than the Russians.

THE DEVIL'S RIVER PHILOSOPHER SEZ . . .

World-Wide Control of Weather Is Fine Up To A Certain Point

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Dry Devil's River apparently has discovered winter's coming on.

Dear editor:
I was in town the other day to pick up another ten-cent bolt for a quarter and as I was finishing the transaction the store owner asked, "Well, how's the weather out your way? Need a rain?"

"Yeah," I whispered, looking around to see who else was in the store. "I could use a little rain." "What're you whispering about?" he asked. "You either need a rain or you don't." The whole store could hear him, and I got my bolt and cleared out.

What he doesn't understand is that among ranchers and farmers the weather is a delicate subject and it's considered highly unneighborly, not to say rude, to hope for a rain out loud when some people around you haven't got the crops out yet. Speak not of rain in the house of those who still have hay on the ground.

It's not that anybody thinks hoping has any effect, but it's as risky as denouncing Baptists or Methodists or Catholics when you are in a cafe and don't know what denomination the people at the next table belong to.

After I got home I opened up the newspaper I had hauled off and bought when I was in town, if the price of newspapers was as inflated as tractor bolts and warfare they'd cost a dollar instead of a dime, and immediately ran into an article on weather control.

According to it, scientists are working on eventual worldwide control of the elements. Some day, it claimed, man will be able to decide when it'll rain, when the sun will shine, where we need snow and how much; will be able to eliminate tornadoes and hurricanes and will never have a ball game called off on account of rain.

In fact, it said, the whole world will be air-conditioned, winter and summer.

This will be fine, until somebody in the dead of winter when everybody has thrown his blankets away, has his window open and is running around in his shirt-sleeves. . . . the electricity goes off.

Personally I intend to keep a supply of firewood on hand, if I can get somebody to saw it for me.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

A first rule in fruit and vegetable buying: always buy in season for better quality and more reasonable prices. These are in season in Texas now: bananas, seedless white and Tokay grapes, Italian prunes, plums, cantaloupes, pears, eggplant, cooking greens, cabbage, carrots, squash, dry yellow onions and potatoes.

A Parson's Eye-View of Sonora

BY THE REV. ROSS T. WELCH

As we waited for some members of the wedding party to arrive for the rehearsal last Friday afternoon in preparation for the Diana Black-Gil Trainer wedding, I turned to Diana's little brother and asked, "Jimmy, what part do you play?"

With eyes on far horizons, he answered, "I think I'll play tackle." He thought I was speaking of really important matters.

The entire community was happy to welcome Big A and Mammy back from Temple last week. They realized they were not forgotten while they were in Temple, for they received many cards, telephone calls and even visits from Sonora friends.

Interest in the United Christian Youth Fellowship is growing. The Youth Chapel at the First United Methodist Church was almost filled Sunday night. Next Sunday afternoon they will join with the young people from other churches in the community to solicit funds for C.R.-O.P. The Christian Rural Overseas Program not only puts food into empty rice bowls, it does a great deal to help the farmers in lands of hunger to grow better and more abundant crops.

We received a very nice letter from Diana Cahill Stanley. It is good to hear from readers who live at a distance and to know that when they read our weekly effort they feel they have had a brief visit home.

Mrs. A. C. Elliott says she has reached the point that she dreads to see a change of pastors in her church. When I visited her in the local hospital recently, she said it seemed that something happened in her life every time she was without a pastor. I offered to substitute, but—of course—it is not quite the same.

Fortunately, she was not hospitalized long this time and reports that she is improving at home.

My wife was one of more than eight hundred math teachers who attended the regional meeting of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics at Corpus Christi last week, Thursday through Saturday.

Friday morning Frances was the presiding officer at an elementary school session on "Effective Teaching of Fractions at the Intermediate Level", where Dr. John L.

Creswell, of the University of Houston, was the speaker.

Frances also attended a number of lectures, film showings and banquets in connection with the convention.

Last week I visited Joe Brown Ross, Dan Cauthorn and Mrs. Pharis in the Shannon Hospital. Since Frances was gone and I was closer to Sterling County than to Sutton, I went up on the Divide to spend the night with my brother and his wife.

They were not at the ranch home, but I found the key, built a fire in the fireplace, and had a very quiet and restful night and morning. I left before noon and visited the hospital on my return trip.

After I returned to Sonora, I discovered that my brother and his wife had come here and spent the night in the parsonage while I was at their home in Sterling County. We need a traffic director.

The Olympic Stadium in Mexico City has heard the strains of our national anthem a good many times the past few days. If you have watched television you know that when the three awards are made after the finals in any event, three flags are hoisted representing the countries of the three top competitors.

Meanwhile the band plays the national anthem of the gold medal winner. Many world records have been broken. An amazing number of these outstanding athletes are Negroes. It is regrettable that two of them did not show proper respect and were disqualified.

I have not seen anything like all the broadcasts, but some of the thrilling moments I witnessed were: The phenomenal broad jump of twenty-nine feet two and one-half inches, beating the world record by nearly two feet; The final event of the decathlon, a gruelling two-days of competition in ten events to determine the outstanding all-around athlete, won by a junior high school teacher from California. His closest competitor, a lad from West Germany, came over to congratulate the winner and collapsed in his arms.

I was also impressed by the lad from the United States who competed in the high jump, jumping over the bar backwards. I did not witness the finals.

A great deal is riding on the game in Mason Friday night. Both teams will probably be keyed up to play one of their best games of the season.

It is not just a district championship that is involved, the winner should go a long way toward the State crown. This should be the game of the week in West Texas. Mason trounced Eldorado on their own field last week.

Even when we were not in the same district Mason seemed to make a special effort to try to beat Sonora. The Broncos will have to be at their best to win this one. We believe they will be.

Dorothy and Ben Cusenbary are certainly enthusiastic about their recent visit to Hawaii. They were welcomed with the traditional leis, which they promptly mailed back to their grandchildren.

They reported that the beauty of the flowers in the Islands is indescribable. There are large fields of orchids and hibiscus.

Two times on the trip Ben threatened to come home because he did not feel well, once before he left Texas. Now he is mighty glad he went ahead and finished the tour. His reason for going, "Dorothy is getting along in years and I was afraid she would not be able to make the trip much longer."

It was sort of a second honeymoon for them and we are so glad they got to go. There were ninety on their tour and they were the only Texans, so Ben's hat and boots drew considerable attention.

I hope we can go before Frances gets too old.

Workers Approaching Retirement Age Should Check With SS Office

Workers approaching retirement age should check with their social security office at three important times.

Because of recent changes in the social security law regarding earnings after benefits begin, many workers and their families may receive some or all of their social security checks during the year, even though the worker continues on his job. For this reason, a worker who is nearing age 62 should look into possible benefits even if he is not planning to stop working.

A second point at which a worker should contact his social security office, is when he approaches age 65. Although his earnings may be too high to permit monthly payments, he can make application for hospital and medical insurance protection under Medicare at age 65, while he still continues to work.

And lastly, once the worker becomes 72 years old, his earnings no longer prevent him from receiving social security checks. If he has not applied for social security prior to that time, he should definitely make application at age 72.

GREEN NEWS

By Monica Davis

There were several of our Golf Club women in San Angelo last week for the Angelo Country Club's annual tournament team play.

Ernestine Hext and Wanda Cahill won first place in the First Flight. Marilyn Bloodworth and Lunetta Morgan tied in the Fourth Flight, and had to have a play-off, but lost.

Other club members attending the Tournament as teammates were Jo Neville and Lucille McMillan, and Bobby Fawcett and Sammy Espy.

On October 16, we had our monthly luncheon at the Commercial Cafe. Ann Herrmann and Pat Shroyer were hostesses. Nineteen members were present, and our very special someone, Lunetta Morgan, from Del Rio joined us. The play for the day was team play. Libbye Lowe, Lucille McMillan, Sammy Espy, Marilyn Bloodworth, and Yvonne Carroll were on the winning team.

Ann Herrmann is going to give all the members of the auxiliary copies of our luncheon dates, and who the hostesses for that date will be. If for some reason, anyone is unable to have the luncheon on the date assigned to her, it will be her responsibility to find someone else to exchange with for that date, and take her turn at a later date.

Ladies, on number nine green, we now play it as the men do. The draw is fairway, and either side is considered rough. In other words, play number nine, the same as number two.

THIS AND THAT: Ladies, please finish your matches—several as yet have not been completed. Our Auxiliary has been invited to Iraan and Robert Lee for their tournaments—Hope some of us can make it.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hopkins hosted the 7 at 7 Club in their home October 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Neil Smith won high club prize; Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Harris, low; Mr. and Mrs. George Wallace, high guest; Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Parker, bingo, and Joe Lane won the traveling prize.

Others at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Bob McMinn, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Savell, Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander, and Mrs. Joe Lane.

The Halloween theme was used in the party decorations and refreshments of apple pie and ice cream were served.

Extension foods specialists suggest you use a favorite recipe for a graham cracker crust and substitute crushed cereal for the graham crackers. If the cereal is sugar-frosted, you may want to decrease the amount of sugar or leave it out entirely. Fill the crust with ice cream for a refreshing treat.

Teen Scene

by Kay Kerbow

When I walked into the school Monday morning I felt a blanket of tenseness which hung like a cloud over the entire campus.

Signs covered the walls of the upstairs and downstairs. These signs were to boost the spirit in preparation for the coming Mason football game.

The game will be played on Mason's home field Friday night. The game is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. The student body would appreciate support from the entire town and request your presence at the game Friday night.

This game is supposed to be the game of the year and is thought by some people to be the game which will determine the State Champs of 1968.

The Broncos are preparing themselves physically as well as mentally for the tough Puncheders. With the Broncos playing their best football, the spirit of all the student body, and the townspeople behind them, how can we lose?

The varsity smothered the Menard Yellowjackets Friday night, 48-6, in the first district game. A victory dance followed the game in the Parish Hall.

The B team plays Mason here tonight with the seventh and eighth grade Colts traveling to Mason to test their hosts. The seventh grade game begins at 5:30 with the eighth grade game immediately following.

In the games in Junction last week, Sonora won two out of three in this series. The seventh grade won by a score of 28-0. The eighth grade wasn't as lucky and received a 40-0 defeat. The B team, behind the running of James Noel, handed the Junction Bandits a 38-6 defeat. The B team Broncos are 4-1 for the season with their loss coming from the Ozona Lions in the first game of the season.

The band's performance Friday night was of its usual entertaining caliber. The twirler's fire baton routine added to the quality of the performance.

The band will attend a UIL marching contest in Brady, Saturday, November 23. The contestants are rated by their sharpness in marching, maneuvers, and their playing. The Bronco band received a II rating in last year's contest. A-I is perfect, III is average, and V is far below average.

The members who wish to try out for twirlers must compete in the twirling contest held the same day in Brady. To be eligible to try out for twirler, the competitor must make at least a III in the contest.

With such standards, its no wonder the band performs as well as it does.

Sonora Colts Beat Eaglets By Score 28-0

by Larry Cade
The 7th grade Sonora Colts football team won its second victory of the season beating the Junction Eaglets 28-0.

The Colts scored quickly in the first quarter with David Wallace scampering 60 yards for the TD with the game only 20 seconds old. The extra point attempt failed. Neither Sonora nor Junction scored again in the first half. The score at half time was Sonora 6 Junction 0.

The Colts scored again in the third quarter with Bruce Kerbow running from 16 yards out for the TD. David Wallace made the extra point.

The Colts held a strong defense against Junction not letting them score. Bobby Draper, Carey Draper, Jack Sykes, Ladd Turner and Randy Hill made this strong defense wall. The Colts never scored again in the third quarter, but the Colts came back strong in the fourth with Freddy Virgen making 2 TD's. Larry Cade made 1 of 2 extra points.

The final score was Sonora 28 Junction 0. The Colts play again this week in Mason at 5 p.m., October 24.

PAUL EGGERS

New Leadership For Texas!

Though our state has great manpower and resources, we still lag behind the national average in education, personal income and other important areas.

To make lasting progress, Texas needs a two-party system in state government. Competition assures the taxpayer maximum results for every dollar invested in his government.

The election of Paul Eggers will build a strong two-party system for Texas, with leadership independent of special interest groups.

The office of governor is an executive job—not a legislative job.

Paul Eggers has what it takes to be an effective governor. He has built a solid record of achievement in professional, business, civic and church activity.

A tax attorney, he was recently elected chairman of the Taxation Section of the State Bar. In 1966 he received a Sports Illustrated Silver Award for former football players who have achieved success in their chosen fields.

We urge you to join the team supporting Paul Eggers for governor.

You'll be proud of Paul Eggers as Governor of Texas

—Distributed 5,696,000 educational leaflets in the April crusade

"We are all proud of these accomplishments," Everett stated. "One entire session was devoted to a discussion of how to influence more people through 'action oriented' community cancer control programs." Everett added, "I am confident the decisions made will be reflected in an increased emphasis on cancer control here and throughout Texas this year."

Later in the meeting, the practical medical applications now being used to fight cancer were demonstrated when nine prominent Texas physicians, all past presidents of the Texas division of the society, discussed four different cancer cases.

The cases represented the various successful cancer treatment techniques now being used in the management and cure of cancer. The final keynote address was made by Arch Avary Jr. Avary, an Atlanta, Georgia, banking executive, and past president of the Georgia Division of the American Cancer Society, told the 300 delegates to "protect the needless cancer deaths" by stepping up local educational crusades to get more people to go to their doctors for complete cancer examinations.

Attending to the business of the society, the delegates elected sixty-two directors-at-large. Charles F. Browne, M. D., of Sonora was elected to serve on the state board of directors during 1968-69.

It's easy—when you know the answers

All of life is not far removed from the classroom. There are truths to be learned every day. And there are questions to be answered.

But some people don't have the answer when they need it. And some people do...

Any teacher will tell you it's a question of preparation. And any preacher will tell you the same.

The people who go to church on Sunday have no more problems than those who stay home. Nor do they expect as a result to have any fewer.

They believe simply in preparation—preparation of the mind, conscience, heart and soul... faith.

This is the preparation God offers men... for the questions that will confront us all tomorrow!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

High Prussic Acid In Plant Growth Hazard of Cold Weather And Frost

Whether we like it or not, frost and freezing weather are just around the corner. The change in weather will affect plant growth. When the growth of all members of the Sorghum family, including Johnsongrass, sudan, milo, forage sorghums and all hybrids, is stopped by frost, they sometime develop a high prussic acid content and become a hazard to grazing livestock, points out County Agent D. C. Langford.

Certain chemical changes occur in the frost-wilted plants, and are responsible for the prussic acid development, explains the county agent. The poison acts quickly and can kill an animal within a very short time after the damaged plant is eaten. Whether a poisoned animal can be saved depends upon how soon a veterinarian can get to it, says Langford.

Frosted Johnsongrass or sorghum should not be grazed until the damaged plants are as dry as good quality hay or for at least a week after the frost, warns the county agent. If it is ready to cut for hay before the frost, it may be cut immediately, provided adequate curing time is allowed. Silage made from frost-damaged plants is safe as soon as the ensiling process is complete.

Young plants or second growth suckers are more likely to cause trouble than older plants nearing maturity, explains Langford. Too, the more luxuriant the growth, the more likely the plants will be dangerous when their growth is interrupted.

Additional information is available from veterinarians and county agents on questions relating to the grazing and or harvesting and storing of frost wilted plants.

Zone PP&K Contest Held In San Angelo

The Punt, Pass and Kick competition sponsored by Ford Motor Company and the National Football League entered zone action Saturday in San Angelo. The event was held in the YMCA field.

Local boys who entered the competition were Chuck Browne, Randy Hill and Alan Harris.

Poultry is still top value for the family table. Turkey prices are expected to increase before the end of November because of decreasing supplies.

First place winners in the event were Rafie Ramero, 8, of San Saba; Richard Rickman, 3, Brady; Mike Mosey, 10, Ozona; Richard Henderson, 11, David Dodson, 12, and Sidney Hendren, 13 of San Angelo. Those boys will compete in district October 26, at Dallas Sam- uel Park.

Thank you for making me your Democratic Choice for State Senator, 25th District. All appreciate your continued support on November 5th.

The Holy Name Society had its monthly meeting, Sunday, October 13. A new member, Antonio Guerra, was installed into the Society at seven o'clock Mass and Communion as all other members participated in the ceremony.

After Mass, the men held their regular meeting, and it was decided to have a weekly social gathering to raise more money for the building fund. The men are already cleaning the place and making room for the church. This week, the men will be moving the garage, the block house, and the Nun's house. Father Michael Fernandez urgently hopes that all the people of Sonora will be cooperative in this work by donating their free time in helping with this great task. The new church will add greatly to the beauty of the whole community, and we shall all benefit from it.

Henry Dienda, from San Angelo had his Boy Scout troupe of eighteen boys, Troup 322, at Mass, October 13. The boys spent Saturday night at the Sonora Caverns camping grounds, and planned to visit the caves later Sunday morning.

The newly formed CYO group had Communion Sunday on October 20. After their meeting, the group decided to have a dance and dinner on October 26, for the purpose of raising money for the organization.

Dr. C. F. Browne Elected Director Of Medical Group

Dr. Charles F. Browne attended a medical meeting in Corpus Christi for the Texas Academy of General Practice.

Highlights of the program beginning October 14, included treatments for heart disease and new immunizations schedules, including vaccine for German measles. Approximately 450 doctors were present for the four-day meeting.

Dr. Browne was elected a director to the organization which has 1900 members in Texas.

4Hers Plan Supper

The annual 4H achievement program and supper is planned for October 29 at the Sutton County 4H center, beginning at 3:30 p.m.

The event is held to honor outstanding 4H members and 4H leaders. Ray Siegmund, of District Extension Agency, of Fort Stockton, will be the speaker.

Range Management Emphasized In Two Westex Meetings

Two range events, one at Sonora on October 24 and the other in Abilene on November 1, should be of much interest to ranchmen of West Texas. B. J. Ragsdale, Extension range specialist, says the Sonora meeting will be held at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research Station and the Ranch Management Conference on the campus of Abilene Christian College.

The Sonora meeting will feature a tour of the research pastures at the Station with emphasis on stocking rates, best combinations of livestock, and grazing systems. The tour will begin at 10 a.m. Tour speakers will include Dr. Leo Merrill, range scientist and Pat Reddon, research associate, both of the Station; Dr. C. L. Leinweber, head, A&M's Department of Range Science; J. L. Richmonds, area conservationist, SCS, San Angelo, and Ragsdale.

The Sutton County 4-H Club will serve a dutch treat barbeque at noon.

Immediately after lunch, Dr. L. S. Pope, associate dean of A&M's College of Agriculture, will speak on "Building a Coordinated Livestock Forage Management Plan." Dr. W. J. Waldrip, manager of Spade Ranches, Colorado City, will discuss "Adapting Research Results to a Ranching Operation" and Charles Ramsey, Extension wildlife specialist, will speak on "Economics of Wildlife on Rangelands." The meeting is scheduled to adjourn by 3 p.m.

Ragsdale says the purpose of the Ranch Management Conference at Abilene is to bring ranchers practical information on problems they encounter in their ranching operations.

Such items as grasslands leasing, reseeding on rangelands, grazing distributions, grazing systems and economics of grassland management will be discussed by Fort Worth Banker Arthur Scharlach; J. B. Harlan, SCS, Henrietta; Ragsdale; Dr. Leo Merrill; John Merrill, Texas Christian University and Henry Turney, Dublin rancher.

Persons interested are invited to both meetings, Ragsdale said.

Other Oddities In Election Years And Idiosyncrasies Recounted

by O. Clark Fisher

The presidential campaign, now in full swing, brings to mind many prior ones in our history—some normal and some unusual. It is understandable that we are all prone to be become emotional and over-excited during such contests.

But this had been true throughout our history. When Adams ran against Jefferson in 1796, following the eight years George Washington had served, the campaign cry was: "Turn the rascals out!" Adams had been Washington's vice president, but was a bit critical of his boss. At one time during the campaign he was quoted as saying of the Father of our Country: "He is an old muttonhead." The great Farewell Address was dubbed by the opposition as: "A campaign document."

Adams won with 71 electoral votes while Jefferson got 68.

Cleveland and Blaine also looked like a landslide for Grover until a couple of days before the election when a scandal broke. A newspaper revealed that Cleveland had kept company with a widow named Maria Halpern and they had an illegitimate child. There was no denial and the news spread like wildfire. Republicans screamed: "Ma! Ma! Where's my Pa? Gone to the White House, ha! ha! ha!"

Cleveland won New York by 1-149 votes—and that was the difference between victory and defeat. After the election the Democrats had to reply to the opponent's battle cry with this one: "Hurrah for Maria, hurrah for the kid, we voted for Grover, and we're durned glad we did!"

A real squeaker was the Nixonpearance during the first debate with John Kennedy.

This year may be another one for the books—the possibility the three-way battle may not give a clear majority in electoral votes for any candidate. That would then force the election of a president into the House of Representatives.

Observers are still speculating that Dick Nixon's defeat may have been caused by his poor TV appearance during the first debate with John Kennedy. It probably will not happen—but it could very easily, and in that event things will really buzz.

A TIME FOR DECISION

A Presidential election, the most important one in our lifetime, is close upon us. With three candidates in the race Texans are confronted with such a variety of appeals that some confusion is not surprising. We see some of our top state political leaders urging support of Hubert Humphrey on the self-serving appeal of party loyalty. We see fine Texans tempted to support George Wallace because they like his outspoken position on certain issues and are thus swayed by an appeal of sheer emotion. With full respect for the right of every Texan to make a personal decision, this message in behalf of Richard Nixon is offered as change. He has proved consistently anti-Texas. He is famous for his filibuster against Texas owning its tidelands. He has fought our right-to-work laws and sought to destroy our vital oil depletion allowance. On every issue of world importance his position is contrary to that of most Texans. Humphrey, an ultra-liberal founder of the ADA organization, would gain executive authority for radical minority viewpoints should he become president. This cannot happen by popular vote. In view of his vicious attacks upon George Wallace, what a ghastly miscarriage of intent it would be if Wallace supporters themselves should throw the election into the House of Representatives where every Wallace vote in Texas would automatically go to Humphrey!

...AN APPEAL TO REASON!

HUBERT HUMPHREY WILL NOT

GEORGE WALLACE CANNOT be denied his impressive showing. A number of fine people heed his third party call. The very least that can be said is that he has dramatized the desires of many people for a change of direction in the affairs of our government. However, the very most his supporters can hope for is to split the popular vote so that all of us would be at the mercy of Washington politicians who would elect our president for us. This is Hubert Humphrey's only hope for election. The more positive way to vote for change is to recognize the many fine merits of Richard Nixon and his program, then vote for Nixon to assure the election of our president by the people instead of by the Congress!

RICHARD NIXON CAN...AND WILL supply dynamic, experienced leadership for an immediate change of direction—at the top—in all our national affairs at home and around the world. Your concerns are his concerns!

- NIXON ON LAW AND ORDER is pledged to help improve local police protection, to appoint an Attorney General dedicated to rooting out crime, to restore balance in our courts strengthening peace forces against criminal elements and to cease freeing so many of the guilty on technicalities.
- NIXON ON VIET NAM will call upon his experience as vice-president during eight great Eisenhower years of peace to reform world alliances now in disarray, to redirect our strategy on new global terms. He will end this war and avoid future ones by dealing with adversaries in the only way they respect—through strength, collective security and patience.
- NIXON ON LOCAL GOVERNMENT is pledged to move control of local schools and all other governmental functions which properly belong at the local level closer to the people.
- NIXON ON OTHER PROBLEMS has solid solutions PLUS solid backing of enough members of Congress to implement those solutions.

IF YOU REALLY WANT A CHANGE... AND IF YOU WANT TO BE SURE YOU REALLY GET IT... VOTE FOR NIXON/AGNEW

Conference Committee System Under Attack By Eggers

The conference committee system used by the Texas Legislature is under heavy attack this year, according to Charles F. Browne, M. D. of Sonora. "We have no quarrel with this procedure, but we protest vigorously the fact that: (1) This group meets behind closed doors; (2) The group adds millions in 'special little projects' and creates five-figure salary positions that have not been recommended by the governor, the budget board or have come through the regular legislative process; and (3) The remaining 171 legislators are faced with the unreasonable choice of accepting or rejecting the entire appropriations bill which includes not only the extra spending but the appropriations needed to operate our state government. "Governor John Connally vetoed some of the extra spending, but much of it was tied into cleverly-drafted provisions that forced him — along with the majority of legislators — to accept the bill. "We're proud of Paul Eggers' determination to work for needed reforms. In this day of inflation and rapidly rising prices, government at all levels must work hard to see that the taxpayers' money is spent wisely," said Browne.

Since 1947 CROP has been a community channel of the churches for a person-to-person program of continuing aid, disaster relief, self-help and community development. CROP's primary purpose is to provide help to the hungry and to attack root causes of hunger. CROP provides high-protein foods, food-for-work, emergency supplies, agricultural tools, seeds, fertilizer, and funds for community and agricultural development.

If no solicitor approaches you, you may send your contribution to CROP, Box 1131, Sonora, according to the Rev. Stuart Firnhaber, pastor, Hope Lutheran Church.

HOW TO SAVE MONEY ON YOUR NEXT SHIP LAUNCHING.

Use Champale®. It looks, tastes and sparkles like champagne, so your ship will never know the difference.

But Champale costs only pennies more than beer. And you buy it wherever beer is sold. So you'll know the difference.

If you don't have a ship, try launching your next party with Champale. Or your next meal, cocktail-time or anytime you feel in the mood for something a little different, for something bubbly, light and dry to pass the time of day.

Champale's flavor, sparkle and bouquet are at their best when you serve it well-chilled in a champagne glass.

For other ways to serve it, we'll send you two free booklets full of recipes for mixed drinks or gourmet cooking with Champale Malt Liquor. Write Dept. N-1, Champale, Inc., Box 2230, Trenton, N.J. 08607.

And anchors aweigh.
