CINDERS

By John T. King

With water backed up more than 150 feet deep behind the 99 percent completed Amistad Dam, Sonora suddenly finds itself with a big new fishing hole practically in its own back yard.

The huge dam has been placed across the Rio Grande by the United States and Mexico near Del Rio. That's only 91 highway miles from Sonora, not far at all according to standards by which distance is measured in the wide open spaces of West Texas.

Development of Amistad National Recreational Area is already underway.

It is expected to attract two million visitors a year from all over the United States and beyond.

Many of these will be traveling through Sonora, which is on Highway 277, a direct route to Lake Amistad. Thus, Lake Amistad will have a healthy impact on Sonora's economy as well as

Animal Health Conference Planned

Jim Menzies and W. T. Hardy, DVM, will be among the speakers at the Southwestern Animal Health Conference for Livestockmen in San Antonio, February 28 and March 1. The conference will be held at San Antonio Convention Center. Dr. Joe David Ross is a member of the program planning committee.

Menzies will discuss goat projects at Sonora Experiment Station, and Dr. Hardy will also speak at the sheep and goat section for the conference.

Billy Holland Services Held In Rocksprings

William L. (Billy) Holland, 54, died February 23, 1969, apparently of a heart attack in an ambulance which had left his ranch 36 miles south of here en route to Sonora.

Mr. Holland was born March 16, 1915, and had lived in this area since he was three years old. Services were held at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday at the First United Methodist Church in Rocksprings, with burial in Rocksprings cemetery.

Survivors include his wife; a daughter, Mrs. Oscar Lee Carpenter of San Antonio; his mother of San Angelo, and a grandson.

Ratliff-Kerbow Funeral Home was in charge of the services.

Producers and veterinarians will gather in common sessions to discuss the problems of disease control as they affect all segments of the industry. Five special afternoon sessions are scheduled on two afternoons for technical papers covering a variety of topics.

Speakers are specially picked so that the livestockmen and veterinarians can interpret his presentation and apply it to his own situation. The program is being sponsored by the Texas Veterinary Medical Association and the College of Veterinary Medicine, Texas A&M University.

LIONS TO MEET AT SCHOOL The Downtown Lions Club members will have lunch next Tuesday at the school cafeteria in observance of Public Schools Week. After the meal Lions will adjourn to the auditorium for the program.

WELCOMING ARRIVALS to the Fling Ding Saturday were Bill Stewart, Mrs. Lea Roy Aldwell, and Mrs. Herbert Fields. At right is Mrs. Louis Olenick, one of the many visitors who came for an evening of entertainment.

FLING DING DANDY—W. H. McCaw, San Angelo doctor, caused a sensation at the Fling Ding in the mod clothes which he bought on London's Carnaby Street. Some thought the ruffles, lace, and velvet followed the George Washington's birthday theme of this year's dance. Others thought it was a sign of modern times that the most talked-about outfit Saturday night was worn by a man.

Mrs. Clay Holland Dies In Menard

Mrs. Clay Holland, sister-in-law of Mrs. Muriel Hamilton, and Mrs. Juliet Driskell, died February 22, 1969, in Menard Hospital following a six-month illness.

Services for Mrs. Holland were held at 11 a.m. February 24, at the First Baptist Church in Junction.

Survivors include her husband; two sons, Norman Clay Holland of Sierra Vista, Arizona, and Rufe Holland of Junction; one daughter, Mrs. Will M. Hannis of Olney and eight grandchildren.

Basketball Teams Finish Year Have Goods Records For Season

Sonora basketball teams finished up the season last Tuesday with games against Junction in Bronco gymnasium.

"B" teamers coached by Bob McMinn began with a 48-33 victory. Mike Taylor hit for 10 points to pace the Sonora unit while Bob Allen and Sepeds scored eight each for the Eagles.

Sonora girls dropped their game to the Eaglettes by a 52-29 decision. Trouba Teaff put in 21 points for Sonora while Sheri McNutt scored 18 points for the visitors.

The "A" boys avenged an earlier defeat by whipping the Eaglettes by a 81-73 margin. Jess Cook connected for 32 points and was the high point man of the contest. Brent Rice had eight field goals and four free throws for a total of 20 points.

"B" Team Record The "B" team had a season record of seven wins and four losses. Mike Taylor led the field with 128 points. Gary Hann made 66, Jimmy Cade had 49, and Eddie Sutton, 38. Terry Hann had 28 points in the games he played. He was out much of the season with an injured tendon.

Charles Cooper scored 21 points; Rick Street had 21 also; Freddie Gonzales had 19; and David Kniffen hit for 12. Tim Cole, Arnold Samaniego, and Lupe Espinosa all had 13 points to help the "B" team's bid for victories. Roger Langford made eight points while Gene Trainer had two.

Girls Had Good Year of Play The girls did an impressive job for their first year of playing. Many visiting team members and coaches remarked on their ability and how much improvement was made from the first of the year as compared to the last.

Trouba Teaff scored 159 points for the season followed by June Alexander with 66. Becky Tittle boosted Mrs. Evan's team with 50 points while Jessie McCutchen put in 29. Billie Ann Stewart made nine points and Kay Kerbow before changing to guard, made 20 points. Yvonne and Ramona Hodges contributed five and four points respectively in their duties of playing guard and forward both.

Boys Varsity Team Coach Jerry Phillip's Broncos won seven games and lost nine during the 1969 basketball season. District play left the Broncos with a 7-3 record and gained them a tie with Eldorado for second place behind the Mason Punchers. This young team, composed of five juniors, two seniors, and two sophomores, should be in a superior position when Heart Sunday, last Sunday, saw canvassers going house-to-house collecting donations for the organization.

More Than Just "Book Learning" Needed

Are law and order being thrown out of the window? Are they old-fashioned? The answer to both these questions should be no.

For 115 years, Texas has strived to give its young the kind of education that includes much more than just "book learning." And, because this "something more" is so important, Masonic Lodges across the state banded together to implement the promotion of our public schools. But, they need help. Your help! We've all heard about the tremendous progress made in teacher training, in educational innovations, and methods. How many of us have taken the time to review them for ourselves? This year, you're urged to do so.

Teach your children the value and appreciation for a good education. Let them know how fortunate they are, and prove it by being interested yourself.

Only through you can the schools begin to teach our youngsters that authority and law and order are not necessarily synonymous with tyranny and dictatorship, but that only through education do they not become these things.

Law and order is a way of life. A good way of life, because all living things are born out of and live out their life patterns in an order.

Let us educate our children to the facts that they are responsible for the kind of future they and their families will enjoy. Let us help them understand the importance that books, classrooms, and study hold for them. Let us appreciate and support our public schools in Texas.

But don't support and appreciate them silently. Speak out. Visit a public school in your community March 3 through 7. It will be a rewarding experience for you, and a living example for your child.

Keep law and order in the hands, hearts, and minds of our children. Support your public schools so they can support you.

THE DEVIL'S RIVER PHILOSOPHER SEZ . . .

He Thought About Taking Advice About Planning, But Hurriedly Changed

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Dry Devil's River this week contemplates better planning for his ranch this year, but then backs off.

Dear editor:

"The trouble with you," an agricultural expert told me the other day, "is you don't plan your ranching operation far enough in advance," and I was thinking about this, wondering if a man sleeps better not knowing what he's going to do the next day than he does knowing he's got to get up and start digging post holes, when I picked up a newspaper I'd been saving for emergencies before I could even sit down my eyes caught a headline: New York City Draws Up Master Plan For Next Ten Years.

Now there's planning, I said, ten years in advance, maybe that's what I need after all for this bitterweed ranch, and sat down and read the article.

According to it, New York has prepared a 300,000-word plan to be printed in six volumes outlining what it needs to do to keep from choking to death on metropolitan civilization.

I won't go into detail, some of the ideas sounded all right, like elimination of all crime, all poverty, all traffic congestion, all slums, all transportation problems, all pollution, etc., but the clincher was how the city's going to swing it, as the report estimated it will cost 50 billion dollars the next 10 years.

"Most of the 50 billion dollars," the report added as an afterthought, "must come from the federal government." New York you must remember, like a lot of other cities and this ranch, is mostly financially busted.

I got to thinking about this and decided, by George, that agricultural expert is right, I'd better get to planning myself before New York plans Washington out of most of its money.

Furthermore, you know if New York wants 50 billion from Washington, it won't be long before Los Angeles and Philadelphia and Chicago and Detroit and all other 22 major cities in the U.S. put in their claims, saying, look, we're just as civilized and busted as New York, and for the 22, at 50 billion apiece, that'd come to 1100 billion, or, in round numbers, $1,100,000,000, which I think is pronounced 1 trillion, 110 billion.

This of course, leaves out the natural badwagon claims from Sonora, Eldorado, Christoval, and all of the other thousands of smaller cities and towns in the United States which certainly would want in on the proceeds from planning.

The competition is too stiff. I've dropped my own planning. I tell you, there's something to be said for waking up in the morning not knowing what you are going to do.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

AUSTIN REPORT

by Hilary Doran Jr.

Thursday Governor Smith recommended necessary measures for our state and the necessary taxes to implement these measures.

For the next two years, an additional $259 million will have to be raised by taxes. If the Cavness bill is adopted, it will mean a reduction in taxes of approximately $72 million leaving a net balance of $187 million that will have to be raised by new or increased taxes.

The bulk of the new spending is in education, particularly in salary raises for teachers. The Governor is also placing special emphasis on technical-vocational training. Education will be the recipient of almost 90 percent of the recommended additional State expenditures.

To finance these new measures, the Governor recommended the following new taxes or tax increases:

- (1) Cigarettes, an increase of 3c per package;
- (2) Equipment that is leased or rented to be taxed at 3 percent on each individual lease or rental;
- (3) Placing a $10 penalty on each conviction of a moving traffic violation which would go to the State;

- (4) Placing all alcoholic beverages under the general sales tax;
- (5) Including all personal services such as laundry, dry cleaning, dyeing plants, repairs, parking and cable television services under the general sales tax.

The next few months should prove interesting. In my opinion several of the taxes recommended will not be enacted, and several new taxes not recommended will be enacted into law.

I guess there is no way to make a news letter concerning the subject of more spending and new increased taxation very pleasant, but I and many other members of the Legislature will strive to see that new or increased taxes enacted will be equitable and hopefully not punitive or unfair to taxpayers concerned.

A Parson's Eye-View of Sonora
By The Rev. ROSS T. WELCH

The story is told that a goat-herd followed one of his flock into a cave near the Dead Sea and found a large library of ancient scrolls, which became famous as the Dead Sea Scrolls. These long hidden treasures have contributed to our understanding of the Holy Scriptures.

A similar story is told of how our Sonora Caverns were discovered by a sheep herder whose dog ran into a small hole and fell into the first entrance room of the caverns. Then came the spelunkers, first in pairs, then in groups.

But the real beauty of the Sonora Caverns remained a secret until that day one of the cave crawlers mustered enough courage to cross the ledge above the pit. This led to wet, 'live', sections where the really beautiful formations are.

Yes, you guessed it, I have been through our Caverns again. This time I accompanied my brother and his wife. I have been through a number of times the past three years, but I am certainly not in the running for 'Most visits for persons other than employees' award.

Some of those who have made the tour around two dozen times or more are Mary L. Shurley, and Juanita Buntyn.

oped cavern that we appreciated is the Natural Bridge Cavern, near New Braunfels.

Did you notice how many porch lights were burning in Sonora just about dusk Saturday evening? And how many extra cars were parked in driveways? The population of Sonora almost double the night of the Fling Ding. But it is positively amazing how few of the visitors get up and go to church the next morning.

Soon after you have read these words, the annual Speech Meet will be in full swing. For a good many years now the Sonora Speech Meet has ranked as one of the most popular among high school participants anywhere in Texas.

This is doubtless due to the fact that the entire community goes 'all out' to make this a pleasant experience for those who participate. Homes are opened to the young people and their sponsors as honored guests. The Lions Club sponsors a free barbeque dinner. Also the meet is well organized and taxi service is provided.

Providing judges for the great number of events is no small undertaking in a community of this size. Medical authorities are now saying that the average cigarette smoker gives up a moment of his life for every moment that he smokes. Surely those planning this event must shorten their life expectancy quite a few days for each of these speech meets.

But one thing can be said, the visitors DO appreciate their ef-orts. Randy Rountree, who was speaker for the Blue and Gold Cub Scout Banquet and will return this week for his fourth visit to the Sonora Speech Meet, was very high in his praise of the local event.

He also stated, for my benefit no doubt, that his favorite was Bible reading. Not many speech meets include such an event.

It was good to see Sonora featured in the pictorial section of the Monday morning Standard-Times.

Poor Siambur! Just about now he is probably undergoing a very painful operation — having his claws removed. There is no telling what it will do to his personality.

The Siamese are very proud cats. We have heard that they were used as watch dogs in the Oriental countries. Certainly they could inflict considerable pain if they attacked anyone who was barefoot or only wore sandals.

But in addition to the pain and the possible fright if Siambur greeted one unexpectedly, he would also be a menace to ladies' hose. So we had to send him to the 'vet.' The question that bothers us—What will Siambur be like when he comes home sans claws?

Well, it is track time—athletic wise; and tennis time. But, alas! the parson will not be playing tennis. Anyone want to buy a good tennis racket?

OUR NEWSLETTER

By O. C. Fisher

The defleecing of sheep by the use of a chemical drug called cytozan may soon be a reality. The idea of using this drug developed from work by the National Cancer Institute where it was used in an experiment to stop the growth of cancer cells.

The Agricultural Research Service at Beltsville, Maryland, picked it up and has undertaken extensive tests by using the drug on sheep, under direction of Claire E. Terrill, chief, Sheep and Animal Research Branch, at Beltsville—one of the best of its kind in the world.

First results were encouraging, after which the scientist observed: "Nothing looks as naked as a chemically defleeced sheep."

The chemicals being tested interrupt cell growth in the bulb of each wool fiber, causing a ringlike constriction. The con-tion moves up from the bulb of each fiber as it grows and in 6 to 7 days, reaches a position just below the skin surface, it was reported.

At this point, the fiber breaks easily and the whole fleece can be separated at the skinline, thus leaving the sheep completely bare. An operator grabbing a handful of wool and rolling his wrist along the skin can defleece a sheep quickly.

The most recent test showed that defleecing can be delayed beyond the 6 or 7 days after chemical treatment, allowing for a short growth of new wool below the constriction point, which would give the sheep some protection against bad weather. The drug would work equally as well on mohair.

But despite preliminary suc-ses, more research and testing is necessary before the process can be used in shearing pens.

Mr. Terrill has informed me that additional testing is needed for possible harmful side effects not previously detected. This phase of the research is being done by Dr. J. M. Shelton of the Livestock and Forage Research Center at McGregor, Texas.

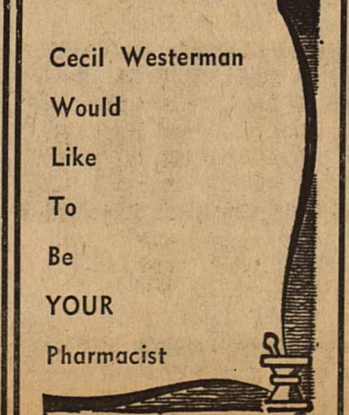

"We are hopeful," Mr. Terrill recently wrote me, "that chemical shearing can be developed for practical use in a relatively short time. It offers hope of reducing the cost and difficulty of an essential job of sheep production. Our research is aimed at this objective for all phases of sheep production and this process is certainly encouraging."

GROUNDBREAKING CEREMONIES took place January 19 on the new church building planned by St. Ann's Catholic Church. Bishop Tschoepe turns a spade of ground while dignitaries and friends of the church look on. They are Oscar Jimenez, Pablo Favela, Polo Cervantes, A. E. Prugel, Jimmy Harris, Lupe Chavez, Tomas Favela, J. W. Elliott, Ed Harrell, Anna Maria Fernandez, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Davis, Jack Neill, and Willie Duran. Father Michael Fernandez is pastor of the church.

WHILE THE FLING DING provides dancing entertainment for many, others enjoy the hospitality and visiting with friends. Miss Georgianne Schwiening chats with Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Fisher, while her grandfather, Alfred Schwiening, talks to those around him. In back of Schwiening, are Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Richardson. Others in the group include Mrs. Bob Vicars, Mrs. R. A. Halbert, and Mrs. Belle Steen.

Saint Ann's Recaps

by Monica Davis

St. Ann's was greatly honored this past week when Bishop Thomas Tschoepe blessed the ground for our new church. A special blessing was given on the spot where the altar is to be placed. The Bishop was assisted by Father Michael Fernandez.

Those present for the ceremony were the Mayor, A. E. Prugel, County Judge, Web Elliott, city manager, Jimmy Harris, superintendent of roads, Jo Ed Harrell, bank president, Jack Neill, publisher, John King, and members of the building committee, Polo Cervantes, Pete Gomez, Louis and Monica Davis. We hope to get the foundation down this week.

Cinco de Mayo plans are progressing very well. The ladies of the Altar society, had an enchilada supper this week for their queen candidate. Of course all proceeds go to the building fund.

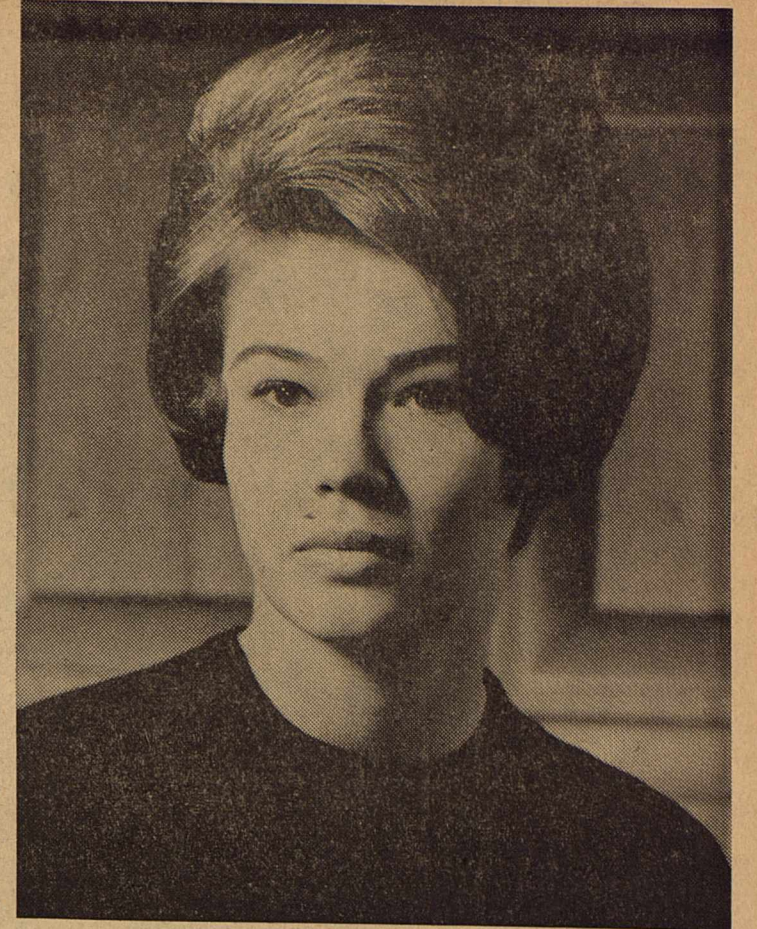

We are having our Masses in the Parish Hall since our old church building has been moved from the premises, but we still go ahead with our monthly Masses and Communions for the Holy Name Society, CYO, and the Altar Society.

Our Fling Ding Tournament was a huge success! There were fifty-three golfers who took part in that tournament.

Two teams won first place: The team of Ann Hill, Donnie Letsinger, Wayne Herrmann, and Red Cleveland tied with the team of Lucille McMillan, Jerry Don Balch, Salty Barton, Louie Trainer, and Buddy Brown.

Two other teams tied for third place, and they were the team of Peggy Sharp, Norman Rousset, John McClelland, and Walter Pope, and the team of Bobby Fawcett, Cullen Luttrell, Marvin Landers, and Dub Black.

There were a number of bridge players, and Muriel Brown was the big winner this week.

Besides golfers and bridge players there were a number of people at the club just enjoying visiting and kibitzing with their friends they hadn't seen in a long time.

All in all, I do think it was a nice ending to the nice weekend of the yearly Fling Ding.

The auxiliary had its monthly meeting at the Commercial Cafe on February 19. Hostesses were Marilyn Bloodworth, Wanda Cahill, and Yvonne Carroll. Nineteen members were present.

Trophies were awarded to the winners of the Ladies Club Tournament. Sammie Espy was medalist winner. Winners in the championship flight were Sammy Espy, first; Peggy Trainer was runner-up, and Pauline Thompson won consolation.

First flight winner was Mary Barrow, while Peggy Elliott was runner-up, and consolation went to Marilyn Bloodworth. Martha Black was winner in the second flight. Monica Davis was runner-up, and Yvonne Carroll was consolation winner.

In the third flight Nelda Mayfield was winner, Libbye Lowe was runner-up, and Mary Lois Brown won consolation. Luncheon day was a cold, rainy day, so no golf was played, but several women did play bridge. Others did some house cleaning so the club house would really be clean for the Fling Ding Tournament.

Our three months score fest tournament was won by Sammy Espy's team. Other members of the team were Bobbie Fawcett, Muriel Brown, and Marilyn Bloodworth, with a score of 1405 points. Key chains with whistles attached (watch out fellows) were prizes.

Plans for the Ladies Invitational to be held in August, are being discussed. It is our biggest and best tournament.

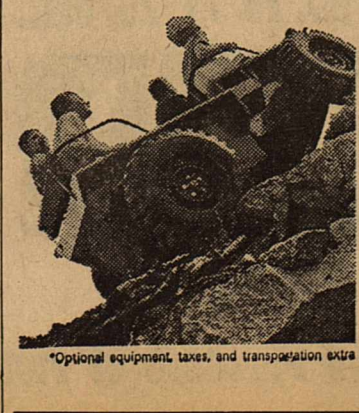

Eldorado has invited us to play with them March 20. It is on Thursday, and their luncheon day. We should let them know as soon as we can just how many of us can go.

This same theme will be continued on the following Wednesday at the 7 p.m. service with the subject, "Life's Accident's". On Wednesdays an informal discussion period over a cup of coffee will follow the sermon.

Another $6 billion is spent in institutions such as hospitals, colleges, homes for aged and children and camps. Hotels and motels account for $3 billion and another one billion goes to such places as drug and department stores, delicatessens, movies, private clubs and factories.

a prayer for everyone

"Tonight, I want you to ask God to bless everyone in the whole wide world.

"On World Day of Prayer, children in every corner of the globe, grown-ups too, will pray that God will make this world a better place.

"Remember last summer at camp when you called out at the edge of that cliff and your echo came answering back? Well, imagine all the people in the world calling out at once in prayer. Imagine how big the echo would be, and how much it would please God to hear it.

"You are lucky because you live here in America, because you have your Church and the right to attend it. So tonight, thank God for things like that, darling, even if you don't entirely understand them. And when you've finished... ask Him to bless everyone."

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Secondhand Bargains

Buy a secondhand lawn mower from the man next door and, generally speaking, you take your own chances. If it falls apart sooner than you expected, you would have small chance of getting your money back—at least, in a court of law.

For in the eyes of the law, one ingredient of the typical secondhand purchase is the buyer's acceptance of extra risk. You pay less not only because there is less wear left in the article but also because you don't get the implied assurances that come along with something new.

However, even in a secondhand purchase, you still have a certain degree of protection.

To begin with, you are entitled to know that the article is indeed secondhand. Consider this case:

A music dealer put a used piano, nicely polished, on display among his new pianos—and an unsuspecting woman then bought it. When she discovered the instrument was secondhand, she sued the dealer for deceiving her.

"I told her no lies," he protested in court. "She just failed to ask me whether the piano was new."

But the court ruled in favor of the woman. The judge said the dealer had an affirmative duty to clear up a misunderstanding for which he himself was to blame.

Besides information that the merchandise is used, you are entitled also to a fair description of its identity. Thus:

A man who bought a "1964 Ford," which turned out to be a 1963 Ford, won damages in court—despite the fact that he had bought the car "as is." The court decided that "as is" does not include "as isn't."

Where does the law draw the line between "new" and "used?" In one case an appliance dealer insisted that the TV set he sold as "new" really was new, even though he had already repossessed it from an earlier purchaser.

"It is new," he explained in court, "in the sense that it was this year's model."

But the court held the second sale invalid because, to the average customer, "new" means never-before-used.

In short, even in secondhand transactions the law fixes a basic standard of fair dealing.

"Honest men need not fear it," said one judge; "dishonest men should fear it."

S. Jacoby Wins Calf Scramble At Stock Show

In the calf scramble at the San Antonio Stock Show, Scott Jacoby brought his calf over the line in first place.

During the popular calf scramble, twenty 4-H and FFA boys were turned loose in the arena attempting to catch and halter ten wild calves. Rules of the contest state that the boys are to carry a halter with a short rope which they must place on a calf, and drag it across a finish line without help of any kind.

Jacoby brought his calf over the line at the show February 9.

How Conservation Helps Texas

Second Place Soil Conservation Essay by Mark Jacoby

1915 A.D.—The flag of Spain flew over the land now called the State of Texas. In 1845, the State became the twenty-eighth state to be added to the United States of America. 1969—Texas is currently the second largest state of the union. In the early days of settlement this soil supported a few hundred people. Hunting and fishing were the main sources of livelihood. Today, the population is somewhere near 11,000,000. Texas still has abundant hunting and fishing available. It has a fertile farm belt, vast sheep, goat and cattle industry and a large oil production. It not only largely supports itself, but also exports many products to its sister states and even foreign countries. How has this growth been possible? What lies ahead for the proud Lone Star State?

Our forefathers found rich soil, abundant game and plenty of pure water when they first came into this area. However, as the population grew, these rugged pioneers realized that few blessings last forever without a little T.L.C. (tender, loving care). Through the years, all phases of our resources have been analyzed and protective measures adopted.

Recently, a new president of these United States selected his choices for secretaries of the various cabinet posts. Only one man was seriously questioned and delayed his appointment. Why? A few men doubted his views on conservation. The seriousness of this subject is very apparent. Are we becoming complacent and taking our resources for granted? No, indeed. The genes of our far-sighted forefathers have been passed down through the generations, retaining that intense pride in this our state.

How does conservation help Texas? It will insure that our children may sing our state song with truth and certainty as we sing it now —

"God bless you, Texas! And keep you brave and strong,

That you may grow in power and worth, throughout the ages long."

Public Schools Week Set March 3 - 7

This year, Texas Public Schools Week has been designated as March 3 through 7, and marks the 115th birthday of Texas Education on a full public level.

The Texas Public School Week movement was started and has been sponsored by the Masonic Lodges of Texas, in the interest of continuing educational opportunities.

Sonora Masons have been interested in public schools since the town was first organized. Dee Ora Lodge was moved from Wentworth to Sonora in the fall of 1891. The lower floor of the lodge building was used for the school from 1891 until the new school building was completed in 1905.

Museum Society To Meet Sunday

Sutton County Historical Society will meet Sunday at 4 p.m. in the Miers Home Museum.

Mrs. Ben Cusenbary, county chairman of the society, said a discussion is planned for remodeling of the building, yard maintenance, and other improvements. She said several new members come into the organization each month, and charter membership is still open for those interested in joining.

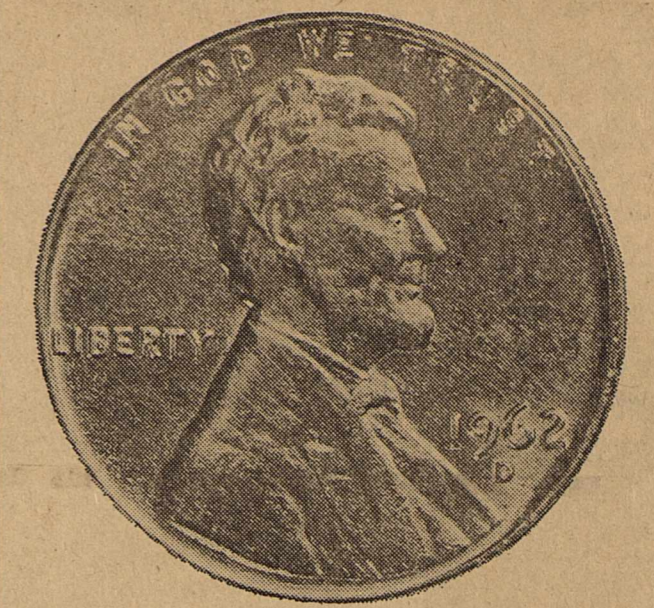

The public is invited to the meeting.

SOME UP SOME DOWN

There were more cattle, hogs and turkeys on Texas farms and ranches January 1, 1969, than a year ago but fewer sheep, goats and chickens, reported the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. Cattle numbers were up 5 percent; hogs 1 percent; turkeys 6 percent while sheep numbers were down 7 percent; goats 18 percent and chickens 10 percent. Total value of livestock and poultry on January 1 was placed at $1,696.8 million, 12 percent above a year ago.

HEAD COACH and ATHLETIC DIRECTOR, Jerry Hopkins, stands beside a copy of the Senate Resolution shown on the high school bulletin board. The resolution commends the coaches, managers, and players for their performances as State Class A Champions in 1968.

Jess Cook was the high point man of the team by making 107 of 234 field goal attempts for 45.7 percent on the season. Richard Perez was close behind with a 42.1 percent from the field. Dick Hamilton had a 41.7 percent with Kerry Joy next for a 37.4 percent season.

Percentage wise Erasmo Lumberras had 36.3; Willie Gutierrez, 31.6, and David Wuest made 29.8. Ruben Chavez hit for 21.9 and Steve Thorp had 15.0 to round out the field.

In district play, Jess Cook had a 20.2 point average to lead the team.

SUTTON COUNTY DEER CROP IMPORTANT

The deer population of Sutton County is now estimated at 118,000 head and last year's harvest from this and other wildlife resources in the county returned to ranchers and businessmen an estimated $1.2 million.

What has brought about the change? Determination, better use of resources and united community action have been big factors in restoring wildlife now enjoyed for sport and profit, says County Agent, D. C. Langford. A strong management association, now almost 30 years of age, has been the educational push behind the restoration program.

on the team this year by Kerry Joy and Willie Gutierrez. Joy made a total of 61 points for a 7.7 game average. Gutierrez added 42 points to the Bronco's efforts for an average of 4.2 points a game. Senior Dick Hamilton aided in the cause by laying in 23 points to give him a 2.5 game average.

With such talented sophomores and juniors coming up next year, the Broncos should be very much in the running for the district crown in 1970. It is believed that an exciting season is in the future for basketball fans.

providing new recreational opportunities for the enjoyment of citizens here.

Already, the fishing is terrific. Anglers are harvesting full limits of bass, running from two pounds up.

Lake Walk and Devil's Lake, long popular with fisherman in the Sonora area, are now submerged below the waters of the huge new reservoir. They have become the Devil's Arm of the big new Amistad, which has emerged as the hottest winter fishing spot in the area.

Because these lakes were already well stocked with 22 different species of fish and because the Rio Grande has long been famous for its mammoth cats, fishermen at Amistad did not have to experience the long wait that is customary before new reservoirs become producers of keeper-size fish.

By last fall, Amistad already had good fishing and it has continued to get better as rising waters have spread over thousands of acres of rugged rangeland.

The lake is readily accessible and convenient to nearby Del Rio, a border city with facilities of all types to accommodate the visitor.
