Churches Plan To Resume Bible School In Fall

The Rev. Homer Akers, pastor of the Church of the Good Shepherd, and the Rev. Norman E. Griffith, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, have announced that the weekday Bible School jointly sponsored by the two churches will be resumed next fall.

Weekly meetings will be held Wednesday afternoon. This choice was made in order to avoid some of the conflicts with other community activities throughout the year.

The initial meeting is planned for Wednesday, September 3.

Children from three years through the second grade will meet at the church of the Good Shepherd at 3 p.m. Third grade through sixth grade children will meet at St. John's Parish Hall at 3:30 p.m.

All the four precincts will be consolidated with the election being held at the courthouse. Polls will be open at 8 a.m. and close at 7 p.m. as designated by law.

School Tax Rate Raised To Cover Budget Deficit

The Board of Trustees for Sonora Independent School District voted a tax increase to cover an anticipated deficit of $33,119 in the 1969-70 operating budget when they met Monday.

Superintendent of schools, Ken McAllister, presented to the board estimated figures in the operating budget with details to be worked out later. Operating expenses of $518,100 are anticipated for the coming school year. It was expected that an additional sum of $18,264 would be needed to balance the budget for this year; therefore the necessity arose to increase the tax rate from last year's rate of $1.65, which was broken down into two funds with $1.29 for the maintenance fund and .36c in the sinking fund.

The board increased the maintenance rate to $1.45, and set the sinking fund at .29c, making a total of $1.74. There was an increase in the value of lands made at the Board of Equalization meeting in June. Estimated valuation of taxable property in Sutton County was given as $17,787,100.

Preliminary work has begun on the rest rooms at the football stadium with Wallas Renfro in charge of the construction. Cost of the work is estimated to be $6,500.

OTHER BUSINESS

—First National Bank was approved as depository for school funds.

—Board members voted not to renew contract with the law firm of Huey & McQuary of Austin, who have been in charge of collecting delinquent tax accounts for the past several years.

—McAllister will draft a guideline and set up administrative policies with his recommendations for the approval of the board. He outlined some of his proposed recommendations along with some of the state laws in school administration policy.

Present at the meeting were Armer Earwood, Gene Shurley, George Wallace, R. S. Teaff, and Bill Tittle.

McAllister said the school is still looking for a band director and an English-Speech teacher in the high school.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS BY VERN SANFORD

Texas has a wonderful fishing hole. Anyway, at least half of it is in Texas.

It's Toledo Bend Reservoir on the Sabine River, between Texas and Louisiana. Covering some 200,000 bass-stocked acres it is about 40 percent open water and 60 percent brush.

This new lake is just east of bountiful Sam Rayburn lake in the Angelina National Forest. Among the closest towns to Toledo Bend reservoir are San Augustine, Hemphill, Jasper, and Newton. It is a little more than 100 miles north of Beaumont and is pretty well surrounded by good roads.

Toledo Bend Reservoir has been stocked heavily with largemouth black bass by the conservation department of both Texas and Louisiana. These bass now are yearlings and ready to catch. During the fall and winter months they are schooling.

Early last fall the lake was only about one-third full. Winter and spring rains have added much more water, however, and the fish have been spreading and will spawn this spring.

Like Lake-O-Pines and Rayburn, much brush has been left in the lake. It has been engineered for the fishermen, however. A boat road has been cleared along the channel of the Sabine, for something like 40 miles upstream. In addition lateral boat roads have been cut through the brush to the more than a score of landing places and public camp grounds now available.

This lake is a project of the Sabine River Authority and was built entirely without federal funds. It holds water for release to generate hydro-electric power. Lines tie into a trunk system serving both Texas and Louisiana. These two states entered a compact for construction of the dam and sold revenue bonds. They were based on contracts with 3 power distribution companies.

Site for the dam was first discovered 35 years ago by Carr Forrest, a young engineer, now the senior member of Forrest and Cotton, consulting engineers of Dallas, who engineered the dam. Forrest is a fisherman himself, and you can bet he was cognizant of the ideal conditions for piscatorial proclivities when he and his staff laid out the lake in the middle of the Sabine National Forest.

Fishing there today is still rather primitive. More and more rigs are being rented, but to be safe you should take your own boating equipment along. Construction, however, is in progress on a half-dozen camps on both the Texas and Louisiana sides.

When you go there, however, be sure and check the license requirements because you may be fishing in Louisiana. There is still some debating over reciprocity, although this is expected to be worked out.

And take along plenty of line and lures. With so much underbrush, if you fish in good bass water you are going to lose lots of lures and break quite a few lines. But you'd catch fish!

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Commotion In Church

Charles, a pious churchgoer, had an odd habit. He would put such enthusiasm into his singing that, at the end of a hymn, his voice would linger on after everyone else had fallen silent.

This habit became so irksome to certain members of the congregation that they finally had him arrested on a charge of "disturbing a religious meeting."

But the court dismissed the charge. The judge said he had no right to interfere with Charles' method of worshipping God.

The case illustrates the rule that, whenever possible in religious matters, the courts will keep hands off. This applies not only to the method of worship but, also to matters of religious doctrine. Thus:

A woman hailed a priest into court, complaining that he had refused to administer communion to her. But here too the court decided to take no action. The judge said:

"Her religious rights as a communicant are not enforceable in the civil courts."

Nevertheless, there are times when the law must and will step in. A church is not altogether

"off limits." Crime is no less a crime merely because it takes place inside a church building.

For example, a court held it a punishable crime for a man to deliberately—and noisily—crack pecan nuts during a service. Even a minister was found guilty of public indecency for using profane language in the course of his sermon.

Furthermore, the law will take a hand if there is merely a question of property rights to be settled.

Suppose a church organization splits into two warring factions, each of which claims ownership of church property. A court will ordinarily take the responsibility of deciding which faction is right, so long as it can do so without getting involved in doctrinal issues.

"Much of such dissensions among the members of a religious society should be regretted," said the United States Supreme Court. "The courts when called upon must perform their functions as in other cases."

Christian Case

By Everett H. Jones, Retired Bishop of the Episcopal Church

Some years ago, the brilliant Oxford don, C. S. Lewis, wrote a book entitled "The Case for Christianity." During my recent world tour, especially as I came into frequent close contact with Buddhists, Muslims, and Hindus, I asked myself: "How do these people affect my own religious orientation? What would be my case for Christianity if I had the chance to make it?" I would like to share, in barest outline, how I answered my own questions:

—The very existence of these world religions bears witness to man's spiritual hunger and his need for God. No nation has ever found it possible over a long period to eliminate God or to exist without some form of worship.

—In these various religions, as in Christianity, there are different levels of apprehension and response, of maturity and immaturity. In their most mature form, they come very close to many of our best Christian insights, e.g. concerning prayer, sin, forgiveness, immortality, the primacy of love and brotherhood. However, they lack the depth, the purity and the power of the Christian interpretation.

—One test of religious truth is practical: Does it work? Does it renew, purify, and enlarge human life? Jesus said: "By their fruits you shall know them." It is by this test that we Christians are judged; if we have a higher claim to truth, it is here that we must prove it.

—Our greatest Christian possession is Christ. He never suffers by comparison. He is never inadequate. He is not only the highest example but the greatest life-changing force. Ultimately, the Christian case rests on our discovery that there is no one else to whom we can go with the same confidence, or from whom we can gain the same illumination on the meaning and purpose of life.

MRS. JACK LEE WHITE

Miss Priscilla Ann Howell Marries Jack Lee White In Brownwood Church

Miss Priscilla Ann Howell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Howell of Brownwood, formerly of Sonora, and Jack Lee White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin White of Baytown, were married at the Union Presbyterian Church in Brownwood, July 5, at 7 p.m. The Rev. Charles Morris, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor length gown of silk organza fashioned with empire waistline, high boat neck, and long Bishop sleeves. The gown featured Alencon lace appliques accentuated with seed pearls. The Watteau chapel train also had the same lace motifs. The net veil fell from a pearl embroidered lace crown. The bride's bouquet was of white roses surrounded by white daisies and pom chrysanthemums.

Soloist Mike Dabbs of Taylor, sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "One Hand, One Heart", accompanied by Mrs. Don Jordon Jr. of Brownwood, at the organ.

Miss Maxine Davis was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Becky Banks of Austin, and Miss Susan Prugel. Their flowers were cascade bouquets of daisies and poms with white velvet handles.

Serving as best man was David Fritsch of LaGrange. Groomsmen included Bob Webster of Pasadena, and Danny Parrish of San Antonio. Ushers were the bride's brother, Eddie Howell of Houston, and Mike Tich of San Antonio.

The bride's mother chose a pale yellow linen sheath dress with roll collar and the bridegroom's mother wore a three piece blue knit suit.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the fellowship room of the church, and the table was laid with a white lace cloth. A centerpiece of daisies and gladiolas were used with candles as table decorations. Fruit punch and the three-tiered wedding cake were served.

Included in the houseparty were Miss Laura White, sister of the bridegroom, of Baytown; Miss Karen Flanagan, cousin of the bride, of Ballinger, and Miss Carolyn Banks, and Miss Sandra Banks both of Taylor.

The bride is a 1967 graduate of Sonora High School, and graduated from Durham Business College in Austin. The bridegroom is a 1964 graduate of Hearne High School and a 1969 graduate of Texas A&M University.

After a wedding trip to the Gulf Coast area, the couple will be at home in Baytown, where the bridegroom is employed by Humble Oil Company.

Now it's official. The special 30-day legislative session to draft a biennial budget and a $300 million tax bill will start July 28.

Gov. Preston Smith has issued the call and put lawmakers on notice to report back to work on the final Monday in this month.

As expected, Smith worded his session summoning proclamation so as to try to prevent the legislators from giving him another one-year appropriations bill like he vetoed on June 21.

However, the Governor told newsmen that if Texans approve a Constitutional Amendment on August 5 calling for annual legislative sessions he might relax his directive to permit a single year spending pattern. Actually, Smith sees no chance of the amendment being approved. What he expects is for voters to strengthen this demand for biennial budgeting by firmly rejecting annual sessions—as they have done before.

Governor Smith will permit lawmakers to consider other subjects in the 30-day session only after they have completed their mandatory duties of financing the government for a two-year fiscal period extending until August 31, 1971.

Apparently Smith will hold no pre-session conferences on taxtion with House Speaker Gus Mutscher and Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes since Barnes is now in Tokyo, Japan.

However, Mutscher plans to hold a series of appropriations committee meetings on the budget before July 28 and also endeavor to arrive at a negotiated understanding with the Senate on the perimeters of spending.

"The real key to the success of the session," commented Mutscher, "is how much work we put in before it actually opens." He has already conferred with his tax and appropriations committee chairman and most of the individual House members.

The speaker wants the House Committee to complete both appropriations and tax bill hearings during the first week of the session and send the measures to the Senate by the end of the second week.

Smith indicates that he will spell out his tax bill program on the opening day of the session. He has been swapping revenue ideas with staff members but still isn't offering any hints as to his final decision on the type of tax or taxes he will propose.

COURTS SPEAK

An historic federal court decision prohibiting a cut in welfare payments to mothers with dependent children also prevents the State Welfare Department from receiving federal funds unless a new plan for aid to families with dependent children is worked out.

So, the Welfare Department is boxed in.

A constitutional restriction limits welfare payments to $60 million a year. At the same time, court rulings continue to make more families eligible for AFDC. This problem will be relieved soon if voters approve a Constitutional amendment on August 5 to increase the welfare fund to $80 million. If this amendment fails, an emergency condition will exist which may bring federal action to invalidate the constitutional restriction altogether.

Liquor Control Board has no authority to prevent managers of private locker clubs from buying liquor for club members. So held the Third Court of Civils Appeals in affirming a trial court decision.

Even a "basically illegal" and "fundamentally erroneous" school district assessment procedure does not restrict a district from collecting taxes, says the same court in a Bertram school case. Twenty-eight taxpayers, alleging that assessments ignored market values, sought an injunction to prevent collections on 1968 tax rolls.

Texas Supreme Court refused to reverse two lower courts' decisions and ruled against 80 Sanger ISD taxpayers in their suit to keep the district from raising taxes by more than doubling assessed valuation of property.

APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED
Dr. Billy M. Jones of San Angelo will become president of Southwest Texas State University at San Marcos on September 1. Dr. Frank Harrison who has been acting president of the University of Texas at Arlington was made president effective July 1.

Past House Speaker Jim Lindsey of Texarkana has been named chairman of the Real Estate Developers group, a sub-division of the Governor's Committee of 500.

REPUBLICANS REORGANIZE
First complete change in the state Republican guard in seven years has just been approved by the GOP executive committee.

William M. (Bill) Steger, Tyler attorney, was elected state party chairman in a close race with Millard K. Neptune of Austin. Mrs. Malcom Milburn of Austin was designated vice chairman. She won over Mrs. John Andujar of Fort Worth. Peter O'Donnell Jr. of Dallas, who has served as chairman since 1962, moved into a national GOP committee post in Washington thus creating the opening in Texas. Steger pledged his efforts to improve communications with all elements of party.

Drug Claim Procedure Void
Texans with claims against five major drug companies involved in a state anti-trust suit were advised by Atty. Gen. Martin to file their claims by August 16. Under Federal court order, consumers must file a verified statement certified to by a local pharmacist showing their total expenditure for 1954-1966 for Aureomycin, Terramycin and tetracycline products, the name of the product and where purchased.

Martin urged all citizens who bought the antibiotic drugs during this period to submit their claims for refunds of overcharge. Refunds probably will be delayed at least six months.

ON THE ROADS

The Highway Commission has been busy with two days of hearings. Requests were heard for big roads, little roads, and farm-to-market roads from lots of folks, including the delegations from Franklin, Titus, Reeves, Anderson and Borden counties.

East Texans came to suggest routes for connection from Houston to the Indian Nation Turnpike, with Kilgore, Palestine and Tyler-Jacksonville routes proposed.

Gregg County presented a 12-point highway-need package and Jefferson County asked for the State to take back a bridge linking Port Arthur and Pleasure Island and Louisiana—a bridge the State built and gave to Jefferson County.

Calhoun County wants a road from Indianola to Port O'Connor with a bridge over Powderhorn Lake.

Chairman DeWitt Greer says the department won't know how many roads it can build until it gets some money—which is up to the legislators.

SHORT SNORTS

State Commissioner of Health Dr. James E. Peavy has been named as an adviser on the United States delegation to the 22nd World Health Assembly in Boston, July 8-26.

Planning assistance grants of $27,000 were awarded by the State to Nortex Regional Planning Commission, Ark-Texas council of Governments, Brazos-Valley Development Council, Deep East Texas Development Council and Smith County-Tyler Area COG.

Secretary of State Martin Dies Jr., told a six-state criminal justice council meeting all law enforcement groups is the key to combating crime.

State Board of Dental Examiners will meet in San Angelo on September 19.

SYKES FAMILY HAS GUESTS

Janis Boucher of Elko, Nevada has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sykes and her brothers and their families, Jack Martin, Alfred of McQueeney and Albert of Ft. Stockton. Also visiting in the Sykes home was Miss Pat Sheehan of Omaha, Nebraska. Both Janis and Pat are teachers in the Elko schools.

Chain Reaction

With great ceremony, the boy gave the lead domino a gentle poke. A rapid series of sharp clicks proceeded down the line, paused briefly at a gap too large, then continued onward. Then, abruptly, everything was still.

He was tickled speechless. He clapped his pudgy hands together and gave me a big, proud smile.

Giving our faith to God is like pushing over that first domino. It starts a chain reaction—one that results in a richer life, greater happiness and a deeper confidence in ourselves and in the future.

Why not come to church this Sunday?

Let God start a chain reaction in your life.

Analysis Of The Nine Constitutional Amendments Facing Texas Voters Aug. 5

The Texas Constitution of 1876 has been amended a total of 191 times, most recently in 1968, when seven of fourteen proposals submitted to the electorate were adopted. Changes in the Constitution are the most permanent form of legislation and also constitute the one area of legislation in which Texans may participate directly by endorsement or expressing veto power. It is therefore in the public interest that voters have access to information regarding proposed constitutional amendments to assist them in making an informed judgement on merits of the changes proposed. To help fulfill this need, the Texas Legislative Council prepares analyses of proposed amendments prior to the election at which they will be considered.

Nine Proposed Constitutional Amendments Analyzed is designed to assist the citizen who desires to be knowledgeable on proposed changes in the Texas Constitution that will be on the ballot at the special election on August 5, 1969. The remaining seven of the sixteen proposals advanced by the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, will be voted on at the general election on November 3, 1970.

The nine proposed constitutional amendments to be considered on August 5, 1969 are:

To Be Voted on August 5, 1969

Amendment No. 1
Making no substantive change but cleaning up obsolete, superfluous, or unnecessary sections of the Constitution by repealing Sections 42, 46, and 48 of Article III, Sections 3a and 7 of Article VII, Section 12 of Article VIII, Section 3 of Article IX, Sections 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9 of Article X, Section 10 of Article XI, Sections 3, 4, 5, and 7 of Article XII, Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 of Article XIII, Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 of Article XIV, Sections 3, 4, 7, 13, 29, 32, 34, 35, 36, 38, 42, 45, 46, 54, 55, 57, 58, and 60 of Article XVI.

Amendment No. 2
Granting the powers and flexibility of operation to the Texas Water Development Board necessary to develop sufficient water resources for present and future economic development of the state.

Amendment No. 3
Authorizing the legislature to set the salary of the lieutenant governor and the speaker of the house of representatives at not more than one-half of the salary of the governor and to set the salary of other members of the legislature at not more than the salary of a district judge.

Amendment No. 4
Exempting nonprofit water supply cooperations from ad valorem taxation.

Amendment No. 5
Increasing the maximum amount which may be expended in one year from state funds for public assistance payments to needy aged, needy disabled, needy blind, and needy children to $80 million, in order to comply with federal requirements for obtaining matching funds.

Amendment No. 6
Authorizing removal of constitutional interest-rate limitations on certain bonds subject to limitations imposed by the legislature.

Amendment No. 7
Adding certain governmental employees, officers, and agents, including members of organized volunteer fire departments and members of organized police reserve or auxiliary units, and others, to the list of persons whose surviving spouses and children are eligible for assistance as provided by law.

O. C. Fisher Gets First Fred Earwood Memorial Award At TS&GRA Convention

Congressman O. C. Fisher, 21st district of Texas, received the Fred Earwood Memorial Award at the 54th annual convention of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association during their annual membership banquet Tuesday night at the Terrace Motor Hotel in Austin.

This first presentation of the special award to memorialize the late Fred Earwood was given for Fisher's dedication and efforts in behalf of the sheep and goat industry.

Congressman Fisher was born on a ranch in Kimble County and still maintains a ranch there. He was elected to Congress in 1942 and is now serving his 14th consecutive term.

The Fred Earwood Memorial Award, established early this year, is to be presented annually to an outstanding ranchman or to recognize some deserving person for service to the sheep and goat industry. It is the first such special memorial fund established by the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association.

Mr. Earwood was born in Kimble County and ranched in that county and the adjoining counties of Edwards and Sutton during his lifetime. He died in November, 1968. A leader in the sheep and goat industry from Texas to international levels Earwood spent his entire lifetime working toward improved wool and mohair, improved breeding practices, greater market demand, soil and range conservation, pro-

Keep It Beautiful

If America hired people for the job, it would take the largest sort of army to keep our country free of litter. But there's no need to hire anyone. It's a job we can do for ourselves. All of us. Every family that spreads a picnic lunch. Every boatman who cruises the lakes and waterways. Every motorist who uses our roads and highways.

It is the pleasure of the U. S. Brewers Association each year to give its fullest support to the Keep America Beautiful Campaign. Remember: Every Litter Bit Hurts. This is our land. Let's treat it right.
