

Eleventh Annual Junior Rodeo 3-Day Event To Kick-Off With Parade July 9

Numerous contestants and spectators will converge here next week when the eleventh annual Junior Rodeo will begin with a parade at 4 p. m. Thursday, July 9. The parade will start at the courthouse, come down main street, then precede to the park grounds. Mrs. Louis Powers, secretary for the event, said all interested parties are invited to participate in the parade. Miss Becky Bland, Miss AJRA for 1970, will take part in the parade and will be introduced before each rodeo performance. Mrs. Powers said the number of early entries already received indicates that a record crowd of contestants are expected for this year's rodeo, scheduled July 9, 10, 11. She reminds participants that entries close Monday, July 6 at 8 p. m. Entry fees and office charges can be mailed to her at 108 W. College street. An office will be set up Thursday morning at the Western Motel. The rodeo is open to boys and girls in the 16-19 age group with boys to participate in bull riding, tie down calf roping and ribbon roping. Girls can participate in barrel racing, pole bending and break-away roping. Thirteen to fifteen year-olds will take part in similar events. Boys twelve and under can enter steer riding, break-away roping and pole bending. Girls twelve and under will compete in barrel racing, pole bending and break-away roping.

Producers will furnish stock for the event. Two big western dances are planned for Friday and Saturday nights at the 4-H Center, following rodeo performances. David Graf orchestra of Del Rio and Rocksprings will play for the dances.

MRS. BRYAN HUNT unveiled the marker that will be placed at the site of the Miers Home Museum. Some of the descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Miers, pioneer settlers of Sutton County, who attended the dedication ceremonies are shown here with Mrs. Hunt, who holds the marker. At the ceremony were Bill Miers, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bill Miers; Mrs. Winnie Whitehead and her sister, Mrs. Ed Jarrett, both of Del Rio, daughters of Bob Miers and the late Mrs. Miers. John Eaton gave the history of the Miers family, and the history of the founding of Sutton County. The Isaac Miers family came to this area in 1884, and their daughter, the late Mrs. Theo Savell, was the mother of Mrs. Hunt. Bob Miers, who lives in Del Rio, is 98-years-old, and is the only surviving child of the late Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Miers.

Final Check For "Missed Families"

One of the final steps in the 1970 census in rural and small city areas of the southern States—a check by mailmen—is now under way, according to the U. S. Department of Commerce's Bureau of the Census.

The '70 census was taken by two methods; by mail-out and mail-back of questionnaires in most major metropolitan areas and by census takers in the rest of the United States.

The latter procedure entailed the mailing out of questionnaires and subsequent visits by census takers who would pick up filled-in forms or, lacking this, interview families while following a house-to-house route.

Canvassing in the metropolitan areas required checking of addresses by postal employees before the mailout. A similar step is now being taken by mailmen following the visits by census takers.

This is the procedure: When census district offices completed their preliminary counts, they turned over to the post office a set of white cards listing every address canvassed.

The mailmen, in turn, check these addresses against the household on their routes. If the mailman discovers what he considers a "missed" address, he fills out a blue card noting this fact. The blue cards are referred to the Census Bureau, which will check them against the census records.

The Census Bureau has found from experience that many households for which such cards are filled out have already been enumerated. This can happen for a number of reasons. For instance, some people get mail at two or more addresses, or there may be differences in the way a rural address is described.

The Census Bureau will check the blue cards turned in by mailmen and then take appropriate steps to provide a complete census count.

Mrs. Rose Thorp Funeral Services Held June 28, 1970

Services were held June 28, for Mrs. Rose Thorp, 82, pioneer settler of Sutton County. Mrs. Thorp died June 27, 1970, at 1:30 p. m. in Hudspeith Memorial Hospital. She came to this county at the turn of the century with her parents, the late Chestina and G. W. Stephenson.

The Rev. John M. Weston officiated at the funeral services held at the First United Methodist Church at 4 p. m. Sunday.

She was born February 16, 1888 in Atascosa County and was married to Luther L. Thorp in Sonora in 1911. Mr. Thorp died in 1925. She was a member of the Methodist Church and charter-life member of the Sonora Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Howard Kirby; a brother, Wirt Stephenson of Fort Worth and three grandchildren. They are Ray Lancaster of Arlington; Judy Lancaster of Colorado Springs, Colorado, and Mrs. John C. Stokes.

Burial was in Sonora Cemetery with Ratliff-Kerbow Funeral Home directing the services. Pallbearers were Louie Trainer, Lea Allison, John McClelland, Sanford Trainer, J. W. Elliott and Wesley Sawyer.

Wage Increase Effective July 1

Millions of wage and salary earners will receive a small increase in take-home pay effective July 1. Your employer will reduce the amount of income tax withheld from your pay July 1. The 1969 Tax Reform Act dropped the tax surcharge which has been 5% from January 1, 1970 through June 30, 1970, and each of your exemptions will increase from $600 to $650 effective July 1. You won't feel like you've quit paying income tax, but every little bit helps.

Schools To Purchase Temporary Classrooms

Meetings of the Board of Trustees for Sonora schools were held Monday and Tuesday nights for the purpose of discussing purchase of four temporary buildings for use as classrooms. Purchase of the buildings was made necessary in compliance with the pretrial order agreement entered into June 16 between parties of the suit against the Sonora Independent School District.

The steel buildings, 24 feet by 32 feet each, will be placed on the school grounds near the old homemaker cottage. The existing playground will not be used, according to superintendent of schools, Ken McAllister. Students from L. W. Elliott school will be moved to Central Elementary school.

McAllister said all teaching positions have been filled with the exception of a girls' basketball coach.

Parties to the suit against the Sonora Independent School District agreed to the settlement of three of the points made in the original suit June 16 in a pretrial conference before Chief U. S. District Judge Joe E. Estes.

Pete Tijerina appeared as counsel for Plaintiffs; W. A. Griffis, Jr., and J. W. Elliott appeared as counsel for Defendants; and Joseph Rich and John Conroy appeared on behalf of the United States of America. The pretrial order is as follows:

--The Motion of the United States for leave to intervene in this action is hereby granted.

--Defendants and Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' Intervenor agree that

(a) As of the commencement of the 1970-1971 scholastic year, the attendance zone lines presently in effect will be abolished, and all elementary school children will attend the Central Elementary School. If, however, at the commencement of the 1970-71 school year the facilities at the Central Elementary School are not adequate to accommodate all the elementary school children, the L. W. Elliott School will temporarily be utilized to accommodate those grades unable to attend the Central Elementary School. It is understood that all classes, programs, activities and facilities will be operated on an integrated basis. The Title 1 Kindergarten will also remain at the L. W. Elliott School until there is sufficient room at Central to accommodate them.

(b) Defendants will seek technical and financial assistance as may be necessary from the Office of Education of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare and from the Texas Education Agency to develop a comprehensive plan for the operation of the Sonora Independent School District including programs and procedures designed to provide all students in the school system with sufficient English language skills to ensure their effective participation in the district's educational program.

(c) Defendants will actively seek to recruit for their professional staff personnel of Mexican descent. Details of this recruiting program shall be developed, and entered as a part of the final order in this case.

--The United States will inquire into and provide information concerning the availability of funds to implement the provisions of educational plans for the Sonora Independent School District.

--If agreed upon between the Defendants and the Department of Health, Education and Welfare and the Texas Education Agency, a final plan will be submitted to the Court on August 1, 1970. If agreement is not reached, alternative plans will be submitted to the Court on August 1, 1970, for its consideration.

Upon approval of a plan by the Court, a final decree with appropriate findings of facts and conclusions of law shall be entered.

Research Station Sets Angora Goat Field Day

Goats do have a place in the proper management of range resources in the Edwards Plateau area. Leo B. Merrill will describe this position at the Angora Goat Field Day, Wednesday, July 8, scheduled by Texas A&M's Agricultural Research Station near here. Merrill is associate professor in charge of the station.

His talk will touch on one of many subjects related to Angora goat production which will be discussed at the field day.

Leslie Pepper, president of the Texas Angora Goat Raisers Association from Sabinal, will be master of ceremonies for the program which will begin at 9 a. m. There will be a noon barbecue catered by the Sutton County 4-H Club, and the field day activities will conclude by 3 p. m. The Field Day is co-sponsored by Texas A&M University and the Texas Angora Goat Raisers Association. This is the fourth annual field day to be held at the station.

In connection with the field day, there will be an Angora goat judging contest for 4-H and FFA members which will begin at 9 a. m. Winners will be recognized at the start of the afternoon program.

Walter Pfluger, secretary of the Mohair Council of America, will give a report on council actions and activities. Other topics to be discussed include: variations in diameter, length and grease content of mohair due to location on the animal's body, new drenches for control of internal parasites in sheep and goats, Angora goats as 4-H or FFA projects, defect and quality classifications in mohair

CADE PLACES IN SAN ANGELO

Larry Cade won first place in the ribbon roping with a 11.4, and third in the tiedown in the San Angelo 4-H rodeo held in the fairgrounds.

Fredericksburg Sets 4th Festival

A three-day celebration is planned for Fredericksburg's 4th of July Festival to be held July 3, 4 and 5 under sponsorship of the Gillespie County Fair Association at the fair grounds.

Horse racing will be each afternoon's feature attraction with seven purse races slated daily. Several match races loom for the meet.

An added attraction to the celebration this year are Youth

Rodeo events to be held between races each day. Well known performers from the Texas Hill Country area will compete for special trophies to be awarded.

First call for the horses is at 1:30 p. m. daily and the first race runs at 2 p. m. each afternoon, according to Fair president, Wallace Otmens.

Reserved seat tickets for the grandstands are available each day and may be bought in advance or on the day of the races at the fair office.

MUSEUM OPEN

Mrs. Sim Glasscock will open the Miers Home Museum Thursday from 8-5 p. m., and at that time all who are interested in coming by may do so.

marketing, performance and feeding test results, selection practices for Angora goats, and outlook for mohair.

Among the speakers on the program are Gil Engdahl, Texas A&M wool and mohair technician, College Station; Maurice Shelton, A&M sheep and Angora goat geneticist at McGregor;

James W. Bassett, Texas A&M animal science professor, College Station; Joe Stewart, research associate for the Sonora station; Stuart Speck of Rocksprings and Fred Campbell of Sonora Wool & Mohair. The research station is located 28 miles south of Sonora on State Highway 55.

DPS Director Cautions Holiday Drivers

Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, today cautioned motorists that traffic accidents during the Independence Day period from 6 p. m. Thursday, July 2, to midnight Sunday, July 5 may claim as many as 46 lives in Texas.

"I am urging all Texans to adopt the 'Drive Friendly' theme during this holiday and to avoid unsafe practices which contribute to accidents," he added.

The DPS director listed the chief factors contributing to traffic crashes as speed too fast for conditions, driving while drinking, and driving on the wrong side of the road, often as the result of fatigue.

Speir said all available Highway Patrolmen will be on duty during the holiday period, augmented by uniformed officers from other DPS services. Also, the DPS will conduct its "operation motorcade" program of tabulating and announcing traffic accidents three times daily in effort to bring about increased awareness of the added danger of holiday travel.

Many others have been trained as safety men and news media, business and trade groups are also participating in the traffic safety program and the DPS director lauded their contributions.

"We especially appreciate the close cooperation of newspapers, the broadcast industry, and the outdoor advertising companies in helping focus public attention on safe driving," Speir added.

HON. O. C. FISHER, U. S. Representative, and Alvis Johnson discuss some of the "nuggets of history" displayed in the Miers Home Museum. In the background, Bryan Hunt looks over some of the dresses that were displayed at the dedication ceremonies for the museum. Fisher, who dedicated the marker, remarked that he was always glad to read of a museum opening as he felt it proper to preserve the history of pioneers, and "it is an evidence of respect for those who preceded us". Also on display at the museum for the June 28 ceremony, was a barbed wire collection belonging to Tom Davis, and an outstanding gun collection, the property of Bill Stewart. Mrs. Ben Cusenbary, president of the historical society, welcomed the more than 125 persons who attended the ceremonies. The supper and dedication were moved to the fellowship hall of the Methodist Church, as late afternoon thunderstorms brought rain which prevented holding the rites outdoors as previously planned. Mrs. Cusenbary said she learned a long time ago not to complain of rain in West Texas. The program was emceed by J. W. Elliott, county judge, and the invocation was given by the Rev. John Weston. Mr. Mike Puckett, Church of Christ minister, gave the benediction.

Another Fourth Of July

It has often been said that U. S. citizens have lived in a condition of freedom for so long they have forgotten the evils of oppression. We take for granted the individual worth of a person, equal rights under the law, acceptance of government as a protector and referee for all citizens and the presumption of innocence until proven guilty.

With the approach of another Fourth of July, the words of Dr. John A. Howard, president of Rockford College, as he views these matters, should have a special meaning:

"Having grown up with these concepts as the conditions of our living, we cannot comprehend, we cannot register upon how revolutionary they were when first proclaimed, nor do we realize how they contrast with what exists in the police state nations, nor how they differ from contemporary democracies that carry still the deep-rooted psychological mind-set of their monarchical heritage.

The existence of a House of Lords and a House of Commons maintains the message that the common man, even risen to the highest position, remains a commoner. By contrast, in our country, with our inheritance of assumptions, the phrase 'second-class citizen' very rightly stirs indignation.

We should think about these things on this Fourth of July, 1970.

A Sensible Solution—More Or Less For The Troubles Of The Big Cities

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitter-weed ranch on Dry Devil's River takes another look at the problems of big cities this week. Dear editor:

According to an article I read in a newspaper last night which I'd pulled off the side of my tractor earlier in the day after it was blown there by a warm summer breeze—I've always said if you leave a tractor standing in one spot long enough it'll pay off, how many newspapers have you seen a moving tractor catch? —the mayors of most of the big cities of the nation met in a convention the other day and nearly every one of them reported the same thing: they're out of money.

"The cities are simply out of cash," they said, "and if we don't get help we face bankruptcy."

The answer, they said, was for Washington to spend less on the military, big highways and farm subsidies and give the difference to the cities.

Since Washington knows all cities want military protection, that every one of them wants more highways leading into them, and that farm subsidies are being cut anyway, the answer may not lie with Washington. The mayors, in fact, are behind the times. They do not see the trend of civilization.

I'll explain. When the first glimmering upsurge of civilization in this country began, a man in trouble had to look mostly to his neighbor, then to the court house, then to the state capital, and finally to Washington.

What everybody needs is a world capital where we can all look when we're out of money. They mayors ought to realize that when their citizens turn to them and they turn to Washington, Washington's got to have some place to turn also.

I don't know where to put this world capital, probably on some island as we sure don't want it around here. Not in Sonora. How would you feel if all the big city mayors threw up their hands and said the job of mayor was too big for them and Washington has got to help, and Washington in turn threw up its hands and said it was too big for it and it guessed it would have to look to Sonora?

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Our Newsletter

By O. C. Fisher

Among a dozen civil rights bills enacted during the '60's was one, dictated largely by the late Martin Luther King, which outlawed virtually any form of literacy or mental tests for voting in a half dozen Southern States, leaving laws in that respect undisturbed in other States, some of which have literacy tests.

That measure, which observers have likened to laws imposed on the South during Reconstruction days, even allowed the U. S. Attorney General—at his behest—to move in and take over the election machinery, decide for himself who could or could not vote, count the ballots, and decide the winner—even in local elections. He would not have that authority in other States, however.

While watered down some, an enactment last week extends the law which would otherwise expire in August. In the Senate an amendment was added which lowers the voting age to 18, despite the fact that President Nixon and the most eminent constitutional lawyers in the Nation warned such a provision was clearly contrary to the Constitution—which grants to each State legislature the right to determine the qualifications of voters.

If approved by the President, this amendment will have a very serious effect on the sale of local and municipal bonds. A prominent bond attorney states it this way:

"It is our opinion that bonds cannot be issued nor taxes levied on the basis of the results of an election in which the vote of persons under 21 years of age has influenced the outcome of the election, until such time as attacks on the constitutionality of the Act of Congress have been resolved in favor of such Act by the U. S. Supreme Court."

At the present time about $6-billion of State, municipal, school and other bonds are voted and sold annually. This is to provide funds for streets, school buildings, water and sewer improvements, and a variety of anti-pollution and other municipal projects. If the view of experts is correct, the enactment reducing the voting age, if approved by the President, will probably freeze the saleability of such bonds for many months to come.

Many of us feel that the voter can be lowered only by an amendment of the Constitution, since the Constitution makes it quite clear that the Congress has no authority to do so by enactment of a statute. Constitutional authorities insist it will be a matter of whether the Supreme Court chooses to follow the intention of the Constitution.

Rural Area Development Program Financing Available To Some

The Farmers Home Administration has recently requested the Rural Electric Cooperatives of the nation to assist in informing residents of America's rural areas of the new rural house building and rural development programs that are now available for financing to qualified people in the low to moderate income brackets.

In many areas, because of the heavy load of applications, the local Rural Electric Cooperatives will even be requested to help facilitate some of the clerical work involved in processing applications.

Because modern homes are usually larger electric power consumers, the additional effort required by the Cooperatives should be more than offset by increased electric power sales.

Recently several seminars were held throughout Texas by the Farmers Home Administration to groups of Rural Electric Cooperatives managers and directors at which the entire program was outlined in detail and the need for assistance from the Cooperatives was emphasized due to the lack of adequate office personnel by Farmers Home Administration to process applications.

It was pointed out in the meetings that although only 30% of America's population lives in rural areas, 50% of all sub-standard housing in the United States is located in rural areas.

A rural area is legally defined as open country and towns of 5,500 population or less. This then would qualify the entire area served by Southwest Texas Electric Cooperative and eligible residents of all the towns, farms and ranches in the area would be qualified to apply for a Farmers Home Administration loan.

One billion, four hundred eight million dollars ($1,480,000,000) have already been appropriated for this program in 1971, or which seventy-five million ($75,000,000) has been designated for Texas.

This is strictly a loan program and each applicant's ability to repay the loan must be satisfied according to the FHA formula prior to approval, but a favorable interest rate and payment schedule makes this program very attractive to the low to moderate income group.

For example, under the program's Section 502, eligible insured loans are made to approved applicants at 6 1/2% interest. Farmers Home Administration makes the loan and sells it to cooperating private banks at 7-3/4% interest. Limits under this program usually do not exceed $15,000 with up to thirty-three (33) years to repay the loan. Borrowers under this section are usually in the $4,000 to $8,000 income group as formulated by FHA.

Other programs are also available to fit the needs of rural communities, and examples were shown with pictures showing the results from loans made to do repairs on old houses for people who were unable to repay loans required to build new homes, on up to multiple housing developments for rural migratory workers. The program is far ranging and very flexible.

There are 140 county offices for Farmers Home Administration in Texas, several of which are multiple county offices. In San Angelo, the FHA supervisor is Carson Bivin, 7 West Twohig building, phone 655-5518, and it is suggested that interested persons inquire directly of their county FHA supervisor for information and loan applications.

Manager Elton McGinnis of Southwest Texas Electric Cooperative, Inc., in Eldorado, phone 853-2544, will also be glad to assist any one in this field.

Cooper-Rains Wedding Vows Read at Presbyterian Church

In a ceremony held on the 70th wedding anniversary of the bride's late grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Cooper, Miss Betty Jack Cooper became the bride of Grady Donald Rains at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Presbyterian, June 27, at 8:30 p.m. Dr. Thomas Brewster, lifetime friend of the bride, from San Angelo, assisted by the Rev. Homer Akers, performed the double ring rites. Parents of the couple are Mrs. Pat Cooper and the late Mr. Cooper, and Mr. and Mrs. Grady Rains of Orange.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Patrick Donald Cooper of Bryan, chose a formal gown of ivory satin faced organza fashioned in a column silhouette. Re-embroidered Alencon lace formed the high neckline, defined the high-rise waist line and banded and cuffed the long shirt sleeves. Back fullness formed the chapel train. Her mantilla spaced with lace appliques, fell to chapel length.

The bride's attendants were Mrs. Jerry Don Balch, matron of honor; Miss Karen Price, maid of honor and bridesmaids Mrs. Patrick Donald Cooper; Mrs. Wayne King of Austin; Mrs. Larry De Hority of Houston; Mrs. Larry Clore of College Park, Maryland and Mrs. Mickey Powers. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Dawn Deena King of Austin.

The attendants wore shadow print voile gowns in shades of lilac, blue and green. The empress bodices with squared neck lines and elbow sleeves ending in a deep ruffle, topped softly gathered skirts. Lilac satin ribbon sashed the high rise waist lines.

The bride's bouquet was a cascade design consisting of orchids and lily of the valley. The attendants flowers were purple leis.

Best man was the father of the bridegroom and groomsmen were Larry De Hority of Houston; Wayne King of Austin; Cleve T. Jones II, of Fort Worth, Kenneth Jemigan of Dallas; Walter Kuehner, III of Austin and Marshall McMillan of Dallas. Ushers were Mickey Powers and Eddie Sawyer.

Nephew of the bride, Patrick Donald Cooper, was ring bearer and flower girls were Tarra De Hority of Houston; Terri Bryant of Oklahoma City, Rebecca Powers and Nancy Anita Balch. The girls dresses were of orchid organza. Bill Bryant and Rick Powers served as aisle cloth rollers, and candlelighters were Debby Page of Eldorado and Bill Beams of Dallas.

Traditional wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Wilson Page and Mrs. James Page, both of Eldorado, and Warren Hemphill.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the garden of the bride's home. Serving the cake were Mrs. George Beams of Dallas, Mrs. Thomas Brewster of San Angelo, Mrs. G. E. McNeely of Oklahoma City, and Mrs. Leon Thompson of Albuquerque, New Mexico. Punch was served by Mrs. Stella Keene, Mrs. Bryan Hunt, Mrs. Mack Cauthorn and Mrs. L. E. Johnson, Jr.

Guests were registered by Mrs. John Pass of Dallas, Mrs. Jim Nayfa and Mrs. John Costas of Fort Worth and Mrs. Danny Goforth of Austin.

The bride is a graduate of Texas Christian University of Fort Worth, where she was a ballet theatre major. The bridegroom is a graduate of Southwest Texas State University at San Marcos. He served three years in United States Marine Corps.

Following a wedding trip to Mexico, the couple will be at home in San Marcos.

REHEARSAL DINNER

The rehearsal dinner was given Friday night in the garden of Mrs. Cleve Jones, Jr. Hosts other than Mrs. Jones were Mr. and Mrs. Grady Rains, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sawyer and Mrs. Edgar Shurley. About fifty people attended the dinner.

MRS. GRADY DONALD RAINS

PRE-NUPTIAL PARTIES HONOR BRIDE-ELECT

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. McNeely, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Bryant of Oklahoma City and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Howard of San Angelo were hosts to a patio supper at the Pat Cooper home for all of the relatives of both families, Thursday, June 25.

Coffee Mrs. Thomas Brewster of San Angelo, Mrs. Don Cooper of Bryan, Mrs. Cleve Jones and Mrs. Pat Cooper had an informal coffee in the Cooper home June 26 for friends and relatives to meet Mrs. Grady Rains, mother of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Wayne King and Mrs. Larry De-Hority, sisters of the bridegroom.

Covering the serving table was a brown and white check cloth with brown rick-rack and white cording used as a rope looped around with brown applied designs of pistols and brands inside the loop. The centerpiece was a wooden candle holder with a yellow candle and yellow daisies around the base.

Sandwiches, cookies, nuts, strawberries, pineapple and cantaloupe were served to 60 guests.

BRIDESMAIDS LUNCHEON
Mrs. Duke Wilson, Mrs. Bill Fields, Mrs. Jerry Don Balch and Mrs. James Bunyard gave the bridesmaids luncheon in the Wilson home June 27.

A silver epergne with pink and orchid asters and pink candles decorated the table. A figurine was presented to the bride-elect. About thirty guests were present.

OUT-OF-TOWN GUESTS
Mrs. Pat Cooper entertained out of town guests who attended the Cooper-Rains wedding at a Sunday morning coffee.

Coffee and sweet rolls were served to Mr. and Mrs. Leon

Swails-Wartenbach Vows Read

Mrs. Bernice Kathryn Swails became the bride of Wallace Wartenbach in ceremonies held in the parsonage of the First Baptist Church June 20, at 7 p.m. The Rev. Clifton Hancock pastor of the church, officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Granger, sister and brother-in-law of the bride, served the couple as best man and matron of honor.

The bride wore a street length blue dressmaker suit, accented with a white orchid corsage and white accessories.

Following the ceremony, a dinner was held at the Commercial Cafe.

The couple will make their home at 103 Kisselburg Road. Wartenbach is an employee of Foodway grocery store.

Green News

by Jo & Monica
Hello out there, and here's the news (golf that is) that wouldn't be the news without the news; and all that there stuff.

Have you been noticing Michael and John Bell playing their game? They are getting ready for the Father-Son tournament to be played July 18-19. Michael swings a mean club and after the strain of the game, he always fortifies himself with an 'orange coke.'

Speaking of tournaments, we are having a mixed foursome July 4. Supper will be served afterwards. Come on out and let's have a ball.

There were a number of out of town golfers this past weekend from Dallas and Albuquerque. One of the gentlemen who plays on a pro course in Dallas thought our little course was pretty nice.

Robert Brown, Chris Berger and Mike Wuest are 21 years old! HAPPY BIRTHDAY! They are now full-fledged members of the Club. Have fun, men. Becky Tittle, Trouba Teaff

Mrs. Jim Williams of Eldorado; Mrs. Doug Offutt and Mrs. Clay Milstead of Austin; Mrs. Ebba Finley of San Angelo; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Friend of Ft. Davis; Mr. and Mrs. Don Cooper and Jim of Bryan;

Mrs. Mickey Powers, Rebecca and Rick and Mrs. Cleve Jones, Eddie Sawyer, and Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Jones, grandparents of the bride.

Also attending the coffee were Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Jones III and Cleve IV of Fort Worth, Mrs. Preston Neely and Joe Preston of Port Arthur.

and Billie Ann Stewart are seen on the course quite a bit these days. Mighty glad to see you, girls.

Some friends of mine who play on the Fredericksburg course play a game called Monkey. Four players to a team take one club each (no more). One has a five iron, another has a nine iron and the fourth takes along his putter, but you play in rotation, and your team may end up putting with a driver. Could be very interesting.

Say, those brown spots around the greens that everyone has been talking about? Well, we've got a fungus, but Francis and Patch are taking care of that, and we'll soon be beautiful and green again.

The greens, tee boxes and fair ways, really tho', are beautiful, even the roughs are kinda nice if you happen to end up there, and I should know, 'cause I'm always there!

Greeting, Laura Ann. I'll bet it won't be too long before your mother and daddy, Ann and Wayne Herrmann have you out on the course hitting balls.

The Spirit of '70

People sometimes make cynical remarks about flag-waving. But it sure beats flag-burning.

Our belief in this nation is something far deeper than mere patriotism. It is the expression of honor and respect for the institutions and blessings we possess as Americans.

One of those institutions is a church independent of state control. One of those blessings is the right to worship according to the dictates of conscience.

Of course, there are some earnest, well-meaning people who don't give a nickel for the Church — or to it either. Even their right not to worship is equally guaranteed by our Constitution!

That kind of freedom is hard to come by. It was hard to come by in 1776. And, in our opinion, it is best understood and most firmly preserved by those who thank God for it.

PECOS RODEO JULY 1-4
The 41st annual West of the Pecos rodeo will get underway July 1 and will run through July 4, with performances each night at 8:30.

The nightly performances feature calf roping, bronc riding, bull riding, team tying, girls' barrel races and a wild horse race.

As a special added attraction matinee shows of steer (jerk-down) roping Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 2 p.m. Walton Poague of Rankin will serve as judge of the steer roping.

Buck Jackson is president of the Pecos Rodeo and Fair Association.

Homemakers Nutrition Recipes

Mrs. A. E. Prugel, Home-making teacher in Sonora High School, is submitting a series of nutrition notes and recipes with the intention of helping people use donated foods which they secure at the Sutton County Commodity Distribution center. Mrs. Prugel adds that they should also be helpful to homemakers who feel they are spending too much money on food.

Mrs. Prugel received her degree in Homemaking Education from Texas Women's University, and has done one year's graduate work at Iowa State College, Ames, Iowa, in Nutrition and Dietetics. She worked as a hospital dietitian for a short time before she married.

Milk is a food which nearly all families use. Everyone needs from 2 to 4 glasses a day. Young children need the nutrients they get from milk to help build strong bones and teeth, but senior citizens who don't get their calcium have brittle bones which break easily and mend slowly. You can hardly get enough calcium without using milk in some form.

Through careful management the shopper's "milk money" can be stretched to include several more servings a week. A United States Department bulletin makes these suggestions:

1. Buy fresh milk in the largest containers you can use without waste; usually milk in 1-gallon containers costs less per quart than single quarts.
2. Use canned, evaporated milk in cooking.
3. Use nonfat dry milk in cooking or as a beverage.
4. If your family objects to the difference in taste in reconstituted nonfat milk, mix equal amounts of reconstituted dry milk and fresh whole milk. Serve cold.

To use powdered milk in place of whole milk in a recipe, use 1/2 cup dry nonfat milk and 1 cup water to equal 1 cup milk in your recipe. Milk for drinking is much better if it is made the day before and placed in the refrigerator and served ice cold. For better mixing, always use warm water, a rotary beater and beat until completely smooth.

After you have prepared your milk mixture, try it in one of these ways:
STRAWBERRY MILK-ADE
Mix package of pre-sweetened strawberry Kool-Aid with 3 quarts of non-fat prepared milk. Ice cubes can be added

VERSATILE COTTAGE CHEESE
Cottage cheese is one of those foods that's good in everything from salads to deserts. It's a palate pleaser at breakfast, dinner or supper. The cheese is low in calories, yet a four-ounce serving supplies about the same amount of protein as a medium serving of fish, poultry, lean meat, three eggs or three slices of cheddar cheese. Cottage cheese is especially delicious with peaches, bananas, grapes, apples, plums and pears.

A Bishop Looks at Life A New Dream

By Everett H. Jones, Retired Bishop of the Episcopal Church

It is time to take another look at the American Dream. And what better time for such a new look than the Fourth of July just six years before the 200th anniversary of our nation!

We can remember with gratitude that dreams have helped to create and sustain our national life. Great dreams brought the first settlers to these shores; great dreams inspired the authors of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution. Poets such as Walt Whitman put the dream into words: "O America, because you build for mankind I build for you."

In the course of time the dream began to center more in quantity than in quality. The greatness of America was measured, both by ourselves and by others, in terms of our gross national product and our per capita income. We boasted of our automobiles, television sets, refrigerators, pianos, electric hair curlers, and electronic computers.

Now we have suddenly come to realize that we have created some of the worst ghettos, the most uninhabitable cities, and the most devastating pollution in the whole world!

We still need the American dream: we can't live without it. Much of it is still valid, waiting to be put into full application. But we do need desperately to bring life into balance in our land; we do need to put first things first.

Norman Cousins, editor of the Saturday Review, puts it this way: "What is required are not only new methods and programs for preventing and controlling pollution, but new ideas and values directed to a future made safe for man. In such a future, the good life would be measured more in terms of an improvement in human relationships than in any increase in the gross national product. Satisfactions would be reckoned more in terms of the full creative and moral development of the individual than in the pleasures made possible by generating vast quantities of electric power. There would be genuine joy in being able to draw a deep breath of clean air, scoop up a handful of rich loam, or put one's mouth to a cool brook."

One week was spent in the mountains near Sun Flower with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Crawford. The other week in Phoenix with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Crawford. Mrs. Crawford reports the mountains were very nice and cool but the last day they were in Phoenix the temperature reached 116.

Coffee Break by Shirley Hill

We come again to the day set aside to celebrate our independence. And what does that mean? Independence.

Not simply that we revolted, waged war against imponderable odds and licked the king's mercenaries. Not only so we could do what we wanted and when and where.

But in case we need reminding--to enjoy the right to enter, as free people under God. Freedom from fear, hate and deprivation.

Freedom to work, to save, to have the endowments of health, prosperity and the pursuit of happiness. Freedom to be frugal, if you please, as we forged a fledgling federation into a lofty nation.

McKee-Chadwick Wedding Held

Miss Debrah Elaine McKee, daughter of Mrs. J. Hover McKee of Galisteo, New Mexico and Phillip McKee of Santa Fe, New Mexico, and Billy Sam Chadwick were married in St. Bede's Episcopal Church June 12.

Chadwick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Chadwick. The Rev. John A. Kinsolving, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. Arrangements of white peonies were in the altar vases.

The bride was given in marriage by her maternal grandfather, David Hover. Her gown was a street-length dress of organza over taffeta, and the lace bodice and Juliet sleeves were covered with seed pearls. Her veil was attached to a flat Dior bow, and she carried white daisies.

Attendants were Miss Marsha Katz, maid of honor, who was attired in a gold jersey street length dress, and Dick Swales of Moab, Utah, was best man. Brian and Russell McKee, brothers of the bride, and David Schwettmann of Las Cruces, New Mexico, seated guests.

Following the ceremony, the reception was held at the ranch home of the bride's mother. A buffet supper was served to guests. The patio and home were decorated with floral arrangements from the garden of a neighbor, Warren Sands of Galisteo.

The bride was a senior princess in the 1969 Rodeo de Santa Fe and was graduated in May from Santa Fe High School with honors.

The couple will make their home in Gallup, New Mexico, where the bridegroom is associated with Kerr-McGee.

Notice To TV Viewers

Here of late we have been having a phenomenon which is known as co-channel interference. This had let up for the last few days, however, on Sunday, June 28 and Monday, June 29, we have come up with this again. This is caused by a skip reception from some other station which for example may be located in Dallas, Rio Grande Valley or even somewhere in Oklahoma or the North.

Co-channel interference may best be defined as that interference shown on a TV receiver when more than one station on the same channel frequency is being received at the antenna. The result is a venetian blind effect which completely wipes out the basic station's picture we are trying to receive and leaves us with an unviewable presentation on the screen. When only a little bit of co-channel is present, it will be observed as fine lines on the screen and sometimes the audio is interrupted.

All of this is caused by weather conditions, not here, but at the point where the channel that is interfering originates.

We hope that this will explain the trouble and that there is nothing man can do to prevent this from happening.
