All Livestock Brands Need To Be Recorded

"All brands and marks on Sutton County livestock must be re-recorded by February 29, 1972", Erma Lee Turner, County Clerk announced today. The new Texas law gives producers a six-month period in which to register brands and marks and for the producer to give the location on the animal. At the end of the six-month period unrecorded brands will be available for use on a "first come" basis.

The law further states that all such brands and marks must be re-recorded every 10 years. Each county clerk records for his given county only, so many producers may need to record brands in additional counties if their operations are extensive. The owner has the right during this six-month period to file the mark and brand now recorded in his name. In the event it cannot be determined from the records who first recorded the brand and mark in the county, then the person who has been using such mark and brand the longest will have the right to have the brand and mark recorded in his name.

It should be noted that it is illegal to brand livestock without first properly recording the brand with the county clerk in the county in which the livestock are held.

When the brand or brands are recorded, the location on the animal on which the brand is to be applied must be designated. If the brand is to be applied to more than one location on the animal, it must be so recorded and each additional location for the brand on the animal shall constitute a separate recording of that brand.

There is no limit to the number of brands and/or marks which may be recorded in a county by a person as long as requirements of this law govern.

Sentence Set After Local Youth Enters Guilty Plea

In District Court proceedings held here August 28 with District Judge Charles Sherrill of Fort Stockton, presiding, judgment was rendered against Joe Wallace who was indicted in April, following Grand Jury action, with intent to murder with malice aforethought.

The indictment and sentencing grew out of an incident involving Wallace when gunshot injuries were sustained by Pamela Hancock, high school senior.

In the judgment against Wallace, who appeared before Judge Sherrill and entered a plea of guilty through his attorney, J.W. Elliott, with jury waived, Judge Sherrill found the defendant guilty as charged in the indictment.

Wallace was confined to the Texas Department of Corrections for a term of 10 years, with the Court decreeing that the sentence be suspended and the defendant placed upon probation for the 10-year period.

The usual terms of probation were decreed with the additional stipulations that the defendant submit himself to the treatment of a psychiatrist until released by same and also make restitution to the Rev. J. C. Hancock in the amount of $4500. The judge also ordered payment of $10 per month probation fees, beginning September 1, 1971.

Representing the State of Texas in the proceedings was Dixson Mahon, District Attorney, of Ozona.

ing the recording and re-recording of livestock brands are met. Minors may have marks or brands separate from that of the father or guardian, which must be recorded or re-recorded as provided by the new law.

It is the obligation of the county clerk to assure that no more than one brand of a kind be recorded on the same location on the animal in each county. Therefore, no two people in a county may record the same brand in the same location. It is also the responsibility of the county clerk to make certain that in recording any brand for a person, that the part of the animal on which the brand is to be placed be designated. Failure to do so is punishable by a fineable offense of not less than $10 or more than $50. (Article 1486 P.C.). The Act is published in full in this issue of the Devil's River News.

Sutton 4-H'ers Schedule Meeting September 8

There will be a meeting of the Sutton County 4-H Club Wednesday, September 8, at 7:30 p. m. at the 4-H Center.

The 4-H sweetheart, 4-H beau, outstanding 4-H father, outstanding 4-H mother and the outstanding contributor to 4-H will be selected by 4-H members.

A special election for the office of secretary in the senior club will be held and all junior 4-H officers will be elected for the school year.

All boys and girls who are prospective 4-H members for the 1971-72 school year are urged to be present at the Wednesday meeting, county agent D. C. Langford said.

4-H members who need help in selecting or finding club lambs or other livestock for 4-H projects or urged to contact County Agent Langford in the near future.

Lions Plan Purchase Of Community Bulletin Board

At a Board of Directors meeting following the Tuesday luncheon of Downtown Lions the group voted to purchase a Community Bulletin Board to be placed in a prominent location. Announcements concerning athletic events, wool show, race meets, and other community activities will be made.

At the luncheon, Lion Homer Hodge, District Governor of Lions District 2A-1 of Winters, made his official visit to the local club. Lion Hodge charged the club with developing six fundamental characteristics which would contribute to greater community service. He said that the club should develop major service activities or projects which the community needs and wants. A major fund raising project should be planned to which the community will contribute and participate in.

Good club meetings, with informative programs and good public relations within and without the club are important, he said. Club participation in District activities is important, and a good membership development and retention program is a must.

Governor Hodge emphasized that a Lions Club, to be effective, must serve the community.

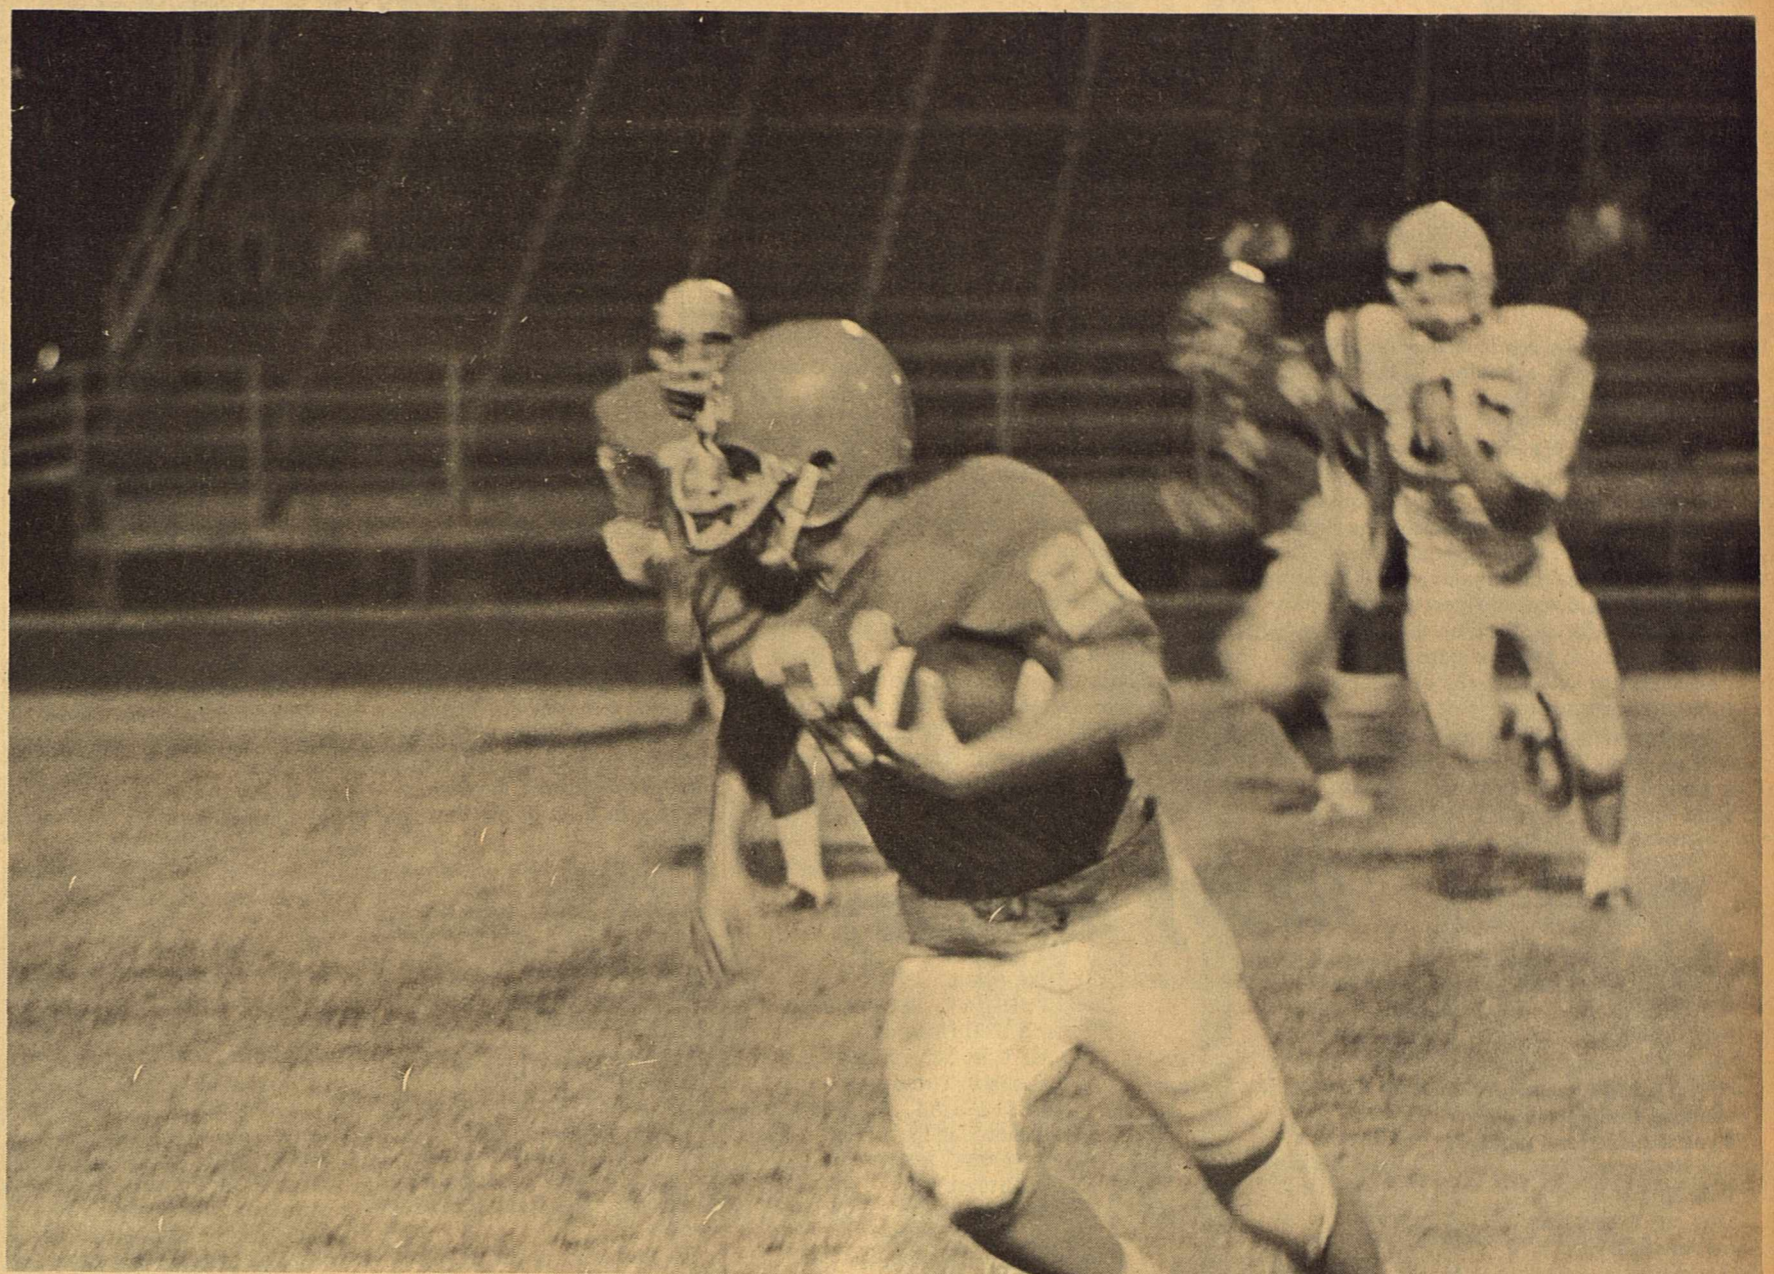

Some 60 Lions attended the noon luncheon.

Nicki Cruz Plans Crusade In Ft. Stockton

Nicki Cruz will make a personal appearance at Fort Stockton in Panther Stadium, September 17, 18 and 19. Those who have read the book "Run Baby Run", which is a story of his life, may be interested in hearing him.

The book is the story of his rise from the slum streets in a desperate search for a better way of life. It is the story of a young man who overcame alcoholism and violent crime to become an inspiration for troubled teenagers all over America.

He was also featured in the book "The Cross and the Switchblade", which was later made into a motion picture.

SONORA BRONCO RICK STREET MOVES THE BALL in scrimmage play against McCamey last Friday night. Seventy-six boys are participating in football play this year on the varsity and 'B' team squads. Head coach Bill Scoggins was well pleased with the Friday night scrimmage. "...our backs ran well and found the hole very well for a first scrimmage, but need to improve in blocking assignments" ... he said. The squads travel to Iraan Friday to engage in scrimmage before actual play begins September 10 when the Broncos meet Coahoma in Bronco Stadium.

Most Businesses Plan To Close Over Labor Day

Offices and business houses in the downtown area will be closed Monday, Labor Day in observance of the holiday, as the Devil's River News office will be open.

All offices at the courthouse and city offices will remain closed for the holiday, as well as the First National Bank, giving employees a 3-day weekend for the final holiday of the summer months.

Classes at the local schools will be dismissed Friday afternoon and will resume Tuesday.

Broncos Show Good Form In Scrimmage

The Sonora Broncos scrimmaged the McCamey Badgers here Friday night. After two weeks of practice and only one intersquad scrimmage the general fan reaction seemed optimistic.

In the controlled scrimmage each team had the ball for 20 plays, alternating offense and defense.

After the first series of plays for each team the superior condition of the Broncos began to show. The offense ate up yardage and the defense gave up little.

Head coach Bill Scoggins was asked to comment on the approaching season and to give his impression of the team strong points.

With a great deal of reflection he listed the following as the prominent definite team assets:

1—The winning tradition that is evident in both players and fans.

2—The leadership that we have from our senior boys—Rick Street, Milton Noel, Gene Trainer, Tim Cole, Mike Dillard, Rick Hill, Gene Thompson and Wayne Hill. 3—The overall ability, attitude and desire of the entire team.

In commenting on improvements needed, Coach Scoggins said, "our offensive line will have to develop quickness 'off the ball' and develop a uniform polish and refinement that will come with experience. Our backs ran well and found the hole very well for a first scrimmage, but need to improve in blocking assignments".

"Defensively our forcing unit—the front seven, were solid but need work in defending the option play. We will have to do a lot of work in our defensive secondary because of inexperience".

Seventy-six players are out for football, comprising the 'B' and varsity squads. Coach Scoggins said the players have received no serious injuries.

Coach Jerry Phillips highly praised the 'B' team and freshmen units and says he sees much improvement in the individual player.

"They have a fine attitude and all they need is experience," Coach Phillips said.

The Broncos will scrimmage Iraan in Iraan Friday night. 'B' team play starts at 6 p. m. with the varsity to follow immediately afterwards.

Booster Club To Meet Tuesday

With Monday falling on a holiday—Labor Day—the Booster Club plans to hold its first meeting Tuesday, September 7, at 8 p. m. in the elementary school cafeteria, said Glen Richardson, Bronco Booster Club president.

Richardson said films of the McCamey and Iraan scrimmages will be shown. He urges all members and those persons interested in joining the organization to be present for the meeting, as an election of officers for the 1971-72 year will be held.

Local Golfers Plan Tourney

The Sonora Golf Club will have the annual Labor Day Club championship tournament September 5 and 6. This will be a 3, 2 and 1 point system tournament with a $6 entry fee. Qualifying scores must be turned in by 7 p. m., September 4. Trophies will be awarded in each flight and a fried chicken supper will be served to club members Monday night.

The tournament is sponsored by the following merchants and businessmen—The First National Bank, Neville's Department Store, Web Elliott Agency, The Devil's River News, and Home Hardware & Furniture Co., Morgan & Hunt Insurance, Ratliff's Store, Westerman Drug, Barrow Jewelry Store, R. S. Teaff Oil Co., Foodway, and Foxworth Galbraith Lumber Co., Thorp's Laun-Dry, Twin Oaks Motel, French's Big Tree Restaurant and West Texas Utilities Company.

Motorists Warned Of New Laws

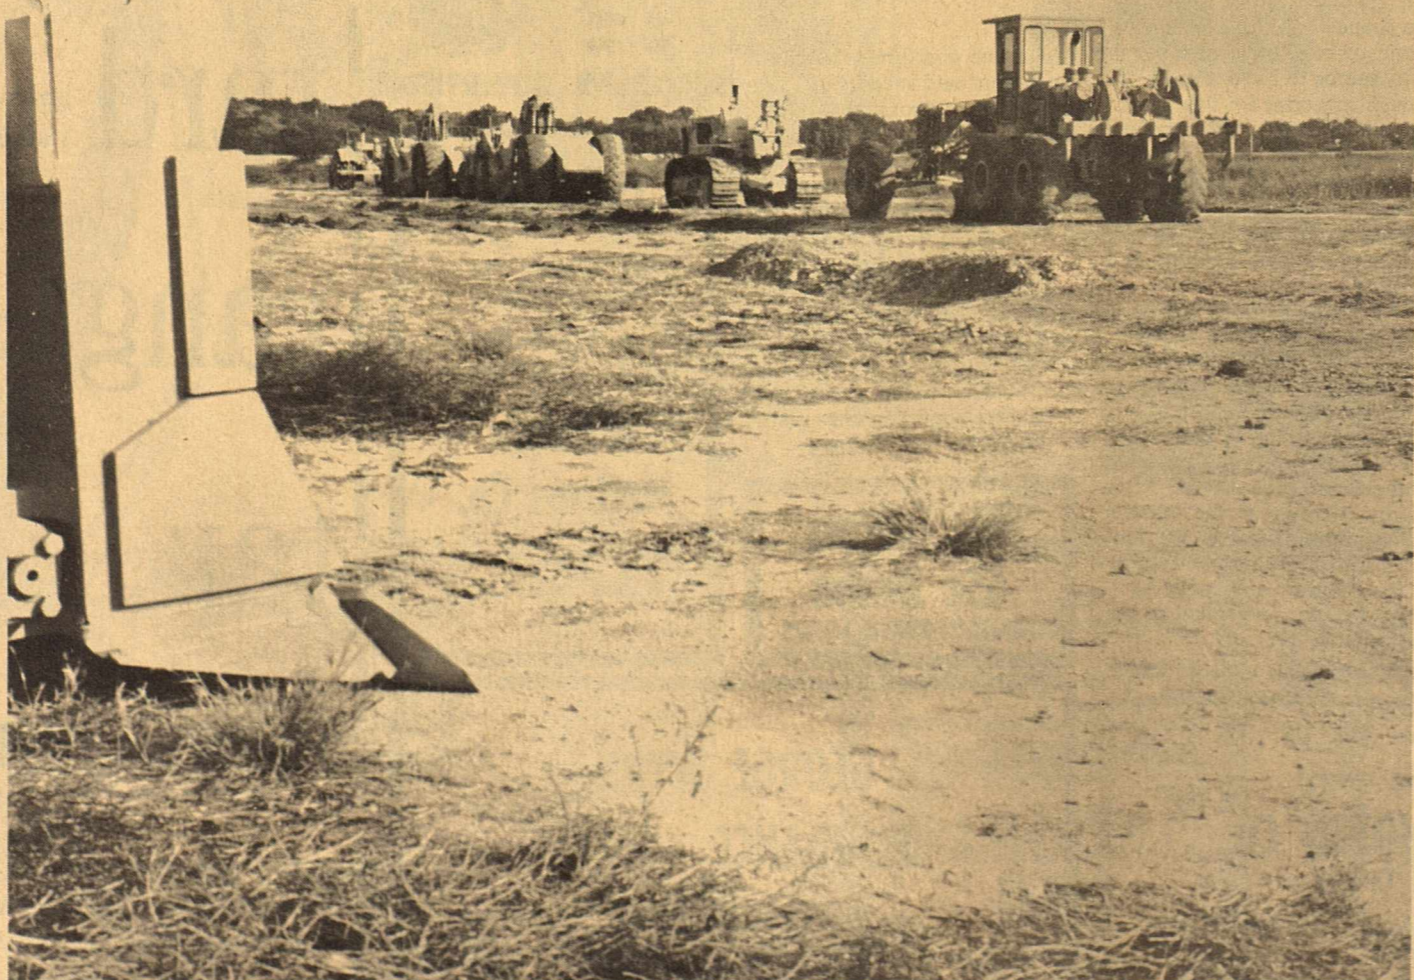

A new State law that went into effect August 30 will no longer permit Texas motorists to stop and then pass a school bus which is loading or unloading children.

Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said the new law, passed by the 62nd Legislature, applies in both cities and rural areas and requires motorists moving both directions on the same roadway with a school bus to stop and remain stopped as long as the flashing lights on the bus are in operation.

Under current law, which applies only in rural areas, drivers must stop for a stopped school bus, but may then proceed around it at a speed of not more than 10 miles per hour if safe to do so.

The new law will not require those vehicles on another roadway of a divided highway to stop, and stops are not required if the bus has stopped in a loading zone of a controlled access highway where pedestrians are not permitted to cross.

Speir noted that provisions of the new law will be strictly enforced to afford maximum protection to the school children of Texas.

WORKMEN ALREADY ARE RAPIDLY CHANGING the looks of the site of Interstate 10 in west Sonora. Work began last week on the $2,556,688.35 contract which calls for 480 work days. The structures and embankments to be constructed cover approximately 1.5 miles, beginning at the veterinary clinic on the west and extending just past the railroad tracks on the east side of town.

TO SAVE YOUR LIFE

Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety estimates that traffic accidents over the long Labor Day weekend will claim 52 lives in the state.

Speir called for motorists to avoid drinking while driving, avoid fatigue, and modify their driving speed in accordance with expected heavy traffic conditions.

In an effort to hold the toll down, the DPS and local law enforcement agencies, in cooperation with the news media of Texas, will conduct "Operation Motorcade" -- a public awareness program designed to focus attention on the traffic problem. Special reports on fatal traffic accidents will be prepared at DPS Headquarters and released three times daily during the holiday period which runs from 6 p. m. Friday, September 3 to midnight Monday, September 6.

All available uniformed officers of the Department of Public Safety will be on the highways during the holiday to enforce state traffic laws, and maximum use will be made of radar and breath testing instruments, Speir said.

The Traffic Safety Committee reported to the Governor on drunk driving tests made last month at Pan American Speedway in San Antonio. The tests were supervised by the Southwest Research Institute's Department of Automotive Research in support of the Governor's Traffic Safety Program. They were an outgrowth of a program initiated by the San Antonio Association of Insurance Agents.

"The demonstration revealed that .10 percent blood-alcohol content, the presumptive limits for intoxication, is entirely too generous," said John Clark, SWRI director. During the tests, professional race car drivers consumed controlled amounts of alcohol and their driving skills were carefully tested. "Three of five drivers were highly intoxicated at the .10 percent level," Clark said. "The fourth driver's proficiency was severely impaired, and the fifth was making five to 15 times more driving errors than when he was sober," Clark said.

"Although all five were professional drivers, they would have been a hazard to themselves and other drivers had they been on the public highway," Clark concluded.

Homer Conley, president of the sponsoring Insurance Association, said "It is time for law-abiding citizens to become aroused over the drunk driver and the habitual traffic violator, and demand that these irresponsible drivers be removed from the road."

The Devil's River Philosopher Sez... He Wants To Add His Own Amendment To The Ten-Cents-Per-Voter Bill

Editor's note: The Dry Devil's Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Dry Devil's River tries his hand at writing legislation this week, more or less.

Dear editor:

In these days of price freezes I couldn't help but get interested in a bill approved by the United States Senate a couple of weeks even before any freeze was announced.

In a bill to control and limit spending by candidates, some of whom spend ten to twenty times as much getting elected as the office pays, the Senate voted a ceiling of "10 cents per voter on the amount a candidate for any Federal office can spend on any kind of advertising".

I don't know that the Senate intended it this way, but it looks to me like they're saying my vote is not worth more than a dime, or if you want to figure it another way, mine is worth say 2 cents and yours could be inflated to 18 cents. Either way, they'd still be within the 10-cent-per-voter limit.

On the whole, I suppose this is a good bill, but it doesn't go far enough.

I'd like to add an amendment. Not only should a candidate not be allowed to spend more than 10 cents a vote to get elected, but once elected should himself not be paid more than 10 cents for his vote. It's not only the cost of electing somebody that's high, it's also the cost of keeping him on your side after he's in.

Under my amendment to the Senate bill, no voter would be allowed to spend more than 10 cents per officeholder to influ-

The Sonora High School Broncos racked up 33 points to the Rocksprings Angoras' 0 in the opening game of the 1961 season here last Friday night. It was the Broncos' game from the first play with the local team scoring in each of the four periods.

The first fall rain moved across the Sonora area early Monday morning, dropping moisture that varied from a light trace to 6 inches. Several heavy losses of goats were reported in the areas of heavy rainfall.

A total of 76 entries from 28 towns and cities in south, central and West Texas made the third annual Sonora Quarter Horse Show and Cutting Horse Contest last weekend a big success.

With the football season opening in Sonora with the Bronte game Sept. 13, the Broncos were reported as fast rounding into shape. With the exception of one or two line positions, the team seems to have almost enough material for this year's ten game schedule. Naturally handicapped by the small number of eligible boys in high school, the Broncos have been making up for the shortage with hard work in blocking and tackling.

With an anticipated better year than ever before, the Sonora public schools opened Wednesday morning at 9 with a short program. Superintendent Noble Prentice was introduced by Bryan Hunt, president of the Board of Trustees. After singing "America" the assembly heard the prayer by the Rev. L. K. Brown. Principal address of the program was made by Jodie Trainer, president of the Lions Club.

MAKE-BELIEVE

This is make-believe . . . tying a bundle to a stick and pretending to set forth on a great journey. His lively little imagination glows. Maybe, right around that bend in the road, he'll run smack into a big brown bear . . .

That's a "scary" idea. So he takes off his hat, puts down his bundle, and plays at home. Yes . . . it's fun to make-believe.

Home, just now, is his place. In it, he feels a wonderful sense of security, basking in his parents' love, knowing by instinct that they are there to help and guide him.

At night when he kneels to say his prayers, his mother tells him the story of Christ. She is preparing him for the day when he will become a more active part of the Church. She knows that, during his life, when he makes real journeys, the Church will be his home, and that it will help protect and guide him when she cannot.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

On Pain of Perjury

Cutting off the tongue is no longer considered, as it once was, a proper punishment for perjury. Nevertheless, the law still considers perjury a serious offense indeed. The obligation to tell the truth under oath is a vital cog in the machinery of justice.

In fact, a person may be guilty of perjury even when he does not tell the truth—if he did not know it was the truth. For example:

A witness in a homicide case swore that the defendant had not been present at the scene of the shooting. Later, the witness admitted that he himself had not been there either. Charged with perjury he acknowledged that he had faked his story.

"But as it turned out," he told the court, "the story happened to be true after all. The defendant really had not been present, just as I said."

Yet the court found him guilty of perjury. Even though he had his facts straight, said the court, he had still lied about his knowledge of those facts.

Nor does a cautious phrase like "I guess" or "I think" protect a witness from the possibility of committing perjury. Thus, a witness who says "I think the defendant was speeding" would be guilty of perjury if he privately thought just the opposite—that the defendant was not speeding.

Of course, there is no perjury if the witness is honestly mistaken. Nor is there perjury if he is not put under oath.

But the offense may be committed in many places outside of the courtroom. The "pain of perjury" has been imposed for assorted kinds of dishonesty—in making a customs declaration, in registering to vote, in seeking a gun permit, in testifying before a Congressional committee.

One luckless bridegroom was charged with perjury for swearing, in his application for a marriage license, that he had never before been married. Actually, he had been married twice under a different name.

In his defense, he argued that his transgression was simply not serious enough to amount to perjury. But the court said that society has a right to take strict measures to safeguard the institution of matrimony.

"One who chooses to give false answers," added the judge, "must pay the penalty."

BRANDING IRON SMOKEHOUSE

Studying and reading are among the most important things your children will ever do. You can make home study an easier job by providing a proper atmosphere for homework.

Make sure your children have a quiet, comfortable place to read and study. They will need a smooth level work surface for books, notebooks and papers. They will need enough light (a minimum of 150 watts) in a good fixture. One way to be sure of obtaining a good study light is to look for the "Better Light Better Sight" tag on the lamp you purchase.

The light should be properly placed to avoid glare or shadows. A good position for a lamp is to the left of the reader, 12 inches from the end of the desk or table. The light should be placed 15 inches to the left side of the center of the reading or writing surface.

Make certain you provide your children with proper study lighting.

Wool, Sheep Income Averages Told

by D. C. Langford, County Agent
Cash receipts for wool and sheep for the past 31 years as recorded by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, reveals that the income from wool averaged 53.1 percent and the income from sheep averaged 46.9 percent for the period.

In 21 of the last 31 years growers income from wool exceeded their income from sheep and lambs.

During the past six years sheep and lamb income has exceeded the income from wool each year but the difference has not been as great as many growers believe.

The past six years average income from sheep and lambs was 56.6 percent and the income from wool was 43.4 percent or a difference of only 13.2 percent.

These figures indicate that wool is still an important factor in determining the overall income from sheep.

Research is available to show that finewool sheep can be selected to produce lambs with desired carcass qualities, size and wool producing ability. For the past two years the top lamb carcasses at the Sutton County 4H Lamb Carcass Show have been produced by Rambouillet lambs. The average leg-loin index or value of the top 10 finewool lamb carcasses exceeded the average leg-loin index or value of the 10 top crossbred lamb carcasses at the 1971 Sutton County Show. All of the top 10 finewool lamb carcasses were produced by lambs from flocks that are being selected for desired wool and lamb producing ability.

Wool and lamb prices will probably continue to fluctuate in the future but production cost will probably continue to rise which would indicate that sheep producers should strive to produce adaptable dual purpose type sheep that will yield top fleeces and produce desirable market lambs.

KIMBLE COUNTY PLANS KOW KICK

Junction is making plans for the second annual Kimble County Kow Kick this Labor Day. The celebration opens with a parade at 9 a.m. Monday. Several contests are being planned and a barbecue dinner will be available at noon.

The afternoon activities include horseshoe pitching, rock shooters and fiddler's contests.

Burrograss Continues To Be Found

by E. B. Keng, SCS Technician
Burrograss has been found by a number of Sutton county ranchmen since information on the plant was published last week.

The greenish-white seed heads which somewhat resemble the whiskers of threeawn or needlegrass, are the "seed" by which burrograss spreads. When the seedheads mature and become dry they break into segments and are easily blown by wind to new areas. The barbed point often lodges in small soil cracks and the seed is already planted when the rains come.

Most new burrograss invasions in the Edwards Plateau soil conservation district are small, and can be quickly dug, sacked and burned. When patches are too large to dig they may be sprayed with commercial grass and weed killers such as dalapon, methanearsonate and others. Retreatment to kill grass roots might be necessary. Small spots may also be effectively killed with vasol or gasoline. Extreme safety precautions should be taken if flammable liquids are used.

If patches of burrograss are too large to dig and burn, every effort should be made to destroy the heavy seed crop now maturing—before it becomes dry and scatters. Experience is lacking on the best method of destroying seed. It seems probable that a pear burner could be used successfully on small patches during the next few days, while the surrounding grass is too green to burn. If the "whiskers" are burned off the burrograss, the seed cannot be spread readily by wind. The pear burner would also destroy many seeds.

It is most important that ranchmen realize why burrograss is invading new areas. The grass cannot invade a good cover of curlymesquite, buffalo, sideoats grama or other high quality grasses. Burrograss primarily spreads to bare ground or heavily grazed rangelands.

Proper range use—taking half and leaving half of the better range plants—and deferred-rotation grazing are the ranchman's best tools to prevent the invasion of burrograss and many other unwanted plants.

Economic Actions Explained by ASCS

Residents of Sutton County may obtain answers to questions on operation and interpretation of the Presidential order of August 15 on prices, rents, wages and salaries for the Sutton County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) office, according to W. B. McMillan, chairman of the County ASCS committee.

County ASCS offices throughout the United States have been chosen as information centers to answer questions from all citizens on President Nixon's Executive Order which is designated to stem inflation and strengthen the national economy.

The Sutton County ASCS office is receiving official answers to questions concerning the President's action, and any person in Sutton County who wants or needs precise information should get in touch with the County office, McMillan said.

The Sutton County ASCS office is located 216 NE Main. In charge of the office is Mrs. Marie Aldwell, program assistant, under the supervision of Clifford W. Elder, County Executive Director.

County ASCS offices are not to handle complaints or appeals. They will serve only to provide official information. Persons with complaints will register them with the most convenient district or sub-district office of the Internal Revenue Service.

Neither will interpretations or guesses be made by ASCS county office people. They will answer only those questions for which they have been supplied answers. If they don't know the answer to a specific question, they will say so. If a member of the public wants the county office to obtain an answer, the question will go by phone or mail to the nearest IRS district office, McMillan said.

Normal function of ASCS county offices is to administer farm action programs of the U. S. Department of Agriculture on the local level.

TEEN SCENE

By Carol Weston

This year's freshmen began their first week of high school with a mixture of both anticipation and dread—in anticipation of finally becoming a part of a larger and more advanced system, and in dread of meeting up with their Seniors.

Consequently, they spent their first few days frantically hunting for classrooms and avoiding upperclassmen, but are gradually beginning to learn to humbly bow down to the wishes of their Seniors.

—SHS—
The sophomores, for the most part, are just relieved at no longer being classified as "dumb freshmen" and the juniors are looking forward to the day when their first term paper will have been completed and turned in to Mr. Neal.

Finally, the seniors have settled down to enjoy a feeling of superiority during their last year of high school before they once again become "dumb freshmen'.

—SHS—
The Broncos made a fine showing last Friday night in the scrimmage against McCamey with their freshmen topping ours by only one touchdown, our 'B' team scoring two touchdowns to their one, and the varsity scoring five touchdowns while McCamey made none.

Head coach Bill Scoggins stated that the varsity players all did very well for so early in the year. However, there were quite a few boys who stood out in Fridays scrimmage.

On the offense Mark Rousselot stood out as quarterback for the Broncos, while Milton Noel, Steve and Rick Street and Tryon Fields excelled as running backs. Coach Scoggins also felt that the line did a fine job of blocking all the way across.

Defensive ends Rick Hill and Mike Dillard also excelled, along with Rick Street on the secondary and line backers Fields and Noel.
