Lions Set Annual Auction

September 28 the community will be asked to contribute to the Sonora Downtown Lions Club at the 34th annual Lions Auction Sale.

Thirty-fourth Annual Auction Sale! What a loyal group of supporters the Club must have. Around $5,000 is raised each year, or some $150,000 during the past 33 years.

The Downtown Lions Club spends the major portion of the auction funds on youth activities. The club sponsors the Boy Scouts with $1,000, the Girl Scouts receive $600, and the two Scout buildings are maintained. Approximately $1,000 was used last year by the Club to sponsor the Sonora Wool, Mohair and Plant judging contest.

The Sonora Little League received $450, while the annual speech meet barbecue and National Honor Society awards account for some $200. The local swimming pool received $300 last year and Boys Ranch was given $50.

Under community activities, primarily for adults, the Sonora Volunteer Fire Department was given $100, and the Sonora Welfare Council $81. Projects designed to publicize the community, such as the Miss Wool Float, vacation and hunting ads accounted for $200. Materials for a speakers platform at the 4-H community center were $520, and $250 was used to improve the meeting room at the Methodist Church. The annual hunting party barbecue and prizes cost $113.

The Lions Club took in some $7,500 in dues from its members. Over $4,000 of this was paid to the various women's organizations who provide "the best meals of any Lions Club in Texas", said a Lions spokesman. Approximately $2,000 is used for district, state and international dues. Some $700 is used for secretarial expense, stamps and related operational expenses.

The Club recently purchased a nice community "Readerboard" or bulletin board, to be erected in a prominent place downtown. This major club project is expected to be in operation by the September 28 Auction Sale.

"The splendid club support by Sonora businessmen and ranchmen—and citizens in general—during the past 33 years is believed unexcelled in the nation. It is the desire and intent of the club to continue to merit community support through the wise use of its funds for worthwhile projects", said Lions president Leo B. Merrill.

The barbecue will be served at 6 p. m. Tuesday, and the auction will follow immediately. Col. Lem Jones of Glendale, Arizona, will call the sale. Ranchmen who can do-housewives, donate articles to the auction. One item that has created interest each year is the "Mystery Package" which was first donated in 1945 by Berry Duff and had only the words "Old Faithful" written on the outside. The contents remain a mystery as it has been donated each year by the purchaser back to the Lions to sell the next year. Last year's price of $140 was paid by R. A. Halbert for the package which has brought $2,490.50 since it was first donated.

Jimmy Harris Resigns As City Manager

Jimmy Hugh Harris, who has been city manager for the past four years, submitted his resignation to the city council, effective on or before November 1. Harris said he would leave the job as soon as a replacement is available.

He is returning to Stockmen's Feed Company as manager of the firm. He was employed by the feed company for ten years prior to accepting the city manager position. Harris said the company is in the process of re-organizing and in accepting the management he said he believes the work will prove to be both "a challenge and a chore".

In leaving the city he says he has enjoyed his work and will continue to be interested in the progress of the City of Sonora. He added that he will be available to anyone replacing him in an advisory capacity as long as he was needed.

In accepting the resignation,

Jimmy H. Harris

Mayor Norman Rousselot said, "the council is sorry to lose Harris, and we certainly wish him luck in his new venture. He is very capable and has done an excellent job. We are now in the process of trying to locate someone to replace him".

Broncos Down Eagles

The Sonora Broncos won their second game of the season with a 14-7 victory over the Junction Eagles Friday night in Bronco Stadium.

The first quarter was uneventful with each team owning the ball for two series of downs and neither being able to move the ball consistently.

The second quarter got underway with Sonora on the Junction 44-yard line. First score of the game came from a pitchout from Sonora quarterback Mark Rousselot to halfback Steve Street around right end. Henry Mata, the Bronco place kicker, made it 7-0 just two and one half minutes into the quarter. This drive was kept alive by key first down run by fullback Milton Noel.

The Bronco lead was short lived with a 56-yard pass from Junction quarterback Dicky Oliver to his right end Jimmy Modgling. PAT was good and the score was tied 7-7.

Junction kicked to the Sonora 20-yard line and after one first down held the Broncos to a fourth and long yardage. After the punt junction had the ball with a first and ten on the Sonora 45. For the second time Modgling was on the receiving end of an Oliver pass and was hauled down on the 5-yard line. On the very next play, Sonora covered a fumbled pitchout and ran out the clock to end the half with the score remaining 7-7.

SECOND HALF

After the halftime activities Junction kicked to Sonora and after two first downs the Eagles recovered a Bronco fumble but were not able to move the ball.

Sonora got a break when Junction fumbled a punt and the Broncos recovered. The hard running of Fields, Noel and Street carried the ball to the Junction 6-yard line, but the drive stalled with a 15-yard penalty against Sonora. A Mata field goal attempt fell short and Junction had the ball on their own 20.

CASE DISMISSED

Screwworm Case Confirmed Here

Sutton County, along with Bexar, Irion and Gillespie counties reported their first screwworm case for the year. Additional cases continued to show up in the hill country and trans-Pecos region according to the Agricultural Extension Service.

The case was confirmed on the Ben R. Mittel ranch, 10 miles N-NW of town.

With warm moist weather at hand in many areas, screwworm cases should continue to increase through the fall months. Also, hot periods which are sandwiched in between cooler days this fall can increase fly activity and result in cases in the "over-wintering" sections of the south-western states, Mission Screwworm Program officials remind.

They urge livestock producers to continue reporting all suspected cases so that prompt sterile fly treatment can be started if and when cases are confirmed.

Historical Society Plans 'Quilt' Picnic Sunday Afternoon

The Historical Society is sponsoring a picnic Sunday at the Miers Home Museum at 6 p. m. Anyone who is interested in the history of Sutton County is invited to attend the picnic, said Mrs. Ben Cusenbary.

Mrs. James Hunt and Mrs. Norman Rousselot are in charge of the picnic and they request that the relishes, etc., be brought in jars.

Persons attending the picnic should bring a quilt to spread on the ground, or chairs if preferred.

Mrs. Cusenbary said the Museum will be opened at 5 p. m. and 1971-72 membership tickets will be on sale at $5 for a couple and $1 for children.

Lifetime Resident W. F. Berger, 46 Dies Suddenly

Mr. William Fred ("Willfred") Berger, 46, died apparently of a heart attack at his ranch home about 1:30 a. m., September 18, 1971.

John Weston, officiated at the services, and the Rev. Homer Akers, pastor of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Presbyterian, conducted the Masonic graveside services.

Mr. Berger, a lifetime resident of Sutton County was born here July 30, 1925, and attended the public schools. He attended Texas A&M University and was a veteran of World War II. He was a Methodist and member of Lions Club, Masonic Lodge, Scottish Rite of San Antonio and Suez Shrine of San Angelo.

Facts And Opinions

Ecologist Dr. Donald A. Spencer noted that pesticide-treated agricultural lands now are producing more wildlife than ever, on a national basis. He said, "Pesticides are but one of the tools by which we manipulate our environment. Open fields in timbered areas create an optimum wildlife habitat pattern. The building of farm ponds, some 50,000 a year, provides an improved distribution of water sources for many wild species. The planting and maintenance of windbreaks and shelterbelts to protect soils and crops from win erosion have provided both nesting sites and winter cover for wildlife."

In a column published in his company's magazine, Mr. Ernest G. Swigert, Honorary Chairman of the Board of the Hyster Company, quoted Abraham Lincoln's counsel in 1863 against socialism in its entirety: "You cannot bring about prosperity by discouraging thrift. You cannot help the wage earner by pulling down the wage payer. You cannot further the brotherhood of man by encouraging class hatred. You cannot help the poor by discouraging the rich. You cannot establish sound security on borrowed money. You cannot keep out of trouble by spending more than you earn. You cannot build character and courage by taking away man's initiative and independence. You cannot help men permanently by doing for them what they could and should do for themselves."

Christmas is coming early to the American Red Cross in 1971, for the sixth consecutive year, as the local organization's chapters have begun their annual "Shop Early Vietnam 1971" program to provide gift bags for all U.S. servicemen and servicewomen stationed in South Vietnam at Christmas-time.

"Very rarely does a shoplifter say he took something because he was destitute," reports the publication "Pacific Business". "The person almost always has more than enough money to pay for what he stole. The conclusion must be that the person steals because he is overcome by the temptation to get something for nothing, but indirectly he steals from the buying public. The merchant can no more ignore the cost of loss due to theft in setting prices than he can the cost of rent, utilities and labor. The problem will exist until the buying public becomes sufficiently aroused to make it an issue."

The Appliance Service News states, "When you next get mad at your auto insurance company for raising its rates, etc. you might remember... that in the last 10 years, insurance companies have paid out $2 trillion more in claims than they have taken in premiums."

By dividing the total expenditures for food by the total population, we find that last year American consumers spent an average of $511 per person for all food, states "Floodlight", a publication of Iowa Public Service Company.

A Bishop Looks at Life THE COMMON GOOD

By Everett H. Jones, Retired Bishop of the Episcopal Church.

This summer I have re-read "Miracle at Philadelphia" by Catherine Drinker Bowen. It is the exciting story of the Constitutional Convention from May to September 1787. I finished the book with the feeling that it ought to be required reading all over America as we draw near to our 200th anniversary in 1976.

It made me profoundly grateful for the wisdom and foresight of the fifty-five men who attended that historic meeting. We know well many of the names—Washington, Madison, Franklin, Hamilton, Monroe—but we need to see them anew in all their human, almost superhuman, reality.

Furthermore, the record makes crystal clear that the Constitution was born only because there were men big enough to put the common good ahead of all other considerations. Washington wrote in a letter to Lafayette after the meeting: "It appears to me, then, little short of a miracle that the delegates from so many different States (which States you know are very different from each other) in their manners, circumstances, and prejudices, should unite in forming a system of national government so little liable to well founded objections."

Mrs. Bowen, who is gifted both as historian and biographer gives her own summary of how the "miracle happened": "In the Constitutional Convention the spirit of compromise reigned in grace and glory. As Washington presided, it sat on his shoulder like the dove. Men rise to speak and one sees them struggle with the bias of birth-right, locality, statehood. . . . One sees them change their minds, fight against pride, and when the moment comes, admit their error."

With this memory in my mind and with awareness of recent critical decisions in our nation, I felt like praying: "Do it again, Lord; do it again!"

For again America faces the challenge to put the common good ahead of all other considerations. In the summer of 17-87 the question was: "Can thirteen colonies come together in a really united nation?" In the summer of 1971 the question is: "Can the nation growing out of that union survive as a world power and a world leader?"

Our thanks to each one of the many friends whose loving expressions of sympathy helped us so much during our recent sorrow. Special thanks to Dr. Browne and the nurses at the hospital.

The Devil's River Philosopher Sez. . .
He Wants Cities Built On Mountain Tops To Cut Air Pollution In Half

Editor's note: The Dry Devil's Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Dry Devil's River scatters his thoughts around in an unusually random fashion this week. Must be the end of summer.

Dear editor:
The dire plight of the cities, according to the newspapers I've been getting hold of lately, is so great with over-crowding and air pollution that some experts are saying most of them ought to be torn down and built over.
If they do, they'll probably make the same mistake again. I've been saying for years that every city I've seen was built in the wrong place. Invariably it was built where there're too many people. They ought to build them out in the country. Even so, if they re-locate any, they shouldn't be located on flat ground. Every city ought to be built on a mountain, with their business district on top. This way you'd cut air pollution a full fifty percent. Drive your car up to work every morning, but cut the motor off and coast back home pollution-free in the afternoon.
While I'm on these easy solutions to thorny problems, why hasn't somebody thought of having all labor contracts expire at the same time? No use shutting the railroads down one month, the automobile industry the next, the steel industry the next, the airlines the next, etc.
Why not designate one month, say August, it's too hot to work then anyway, as National Strike Month every year and shut the whole country down.
The rest might do us all good. Speaking of strikes, the recent telephone strike didn't do me any good. Right in the midst of it people could still get me on the phone.
Since I'm not sticking to one subject this week anyway, I notice a lot of people are wrought up because only one man is running for President of South Vietnam. Judging from what I've read about the place, they may be lucky that even one man wants the job, especially after we pull out.
Yours faithfully,
J. A.

THE LAND is one of man's most valuable assets—we think it is prime collateral. In the past 54 years the Federal Land Bank of Houston has made almost 200,000 loans on Texas farms and ranches.

In other words, we specialize in making farm and ranch real estate loans—long term loans with prepayment privileges.

by Shirley Hill

The last will and testament of Herman Obserwise offered for probate in 1934 comes from records on file in the County of Austin. According to our source of information some of the natives in that part of the country still talk in the broken language of this will.

"I am writing of my will mineself and des lawyr should have to much money he ask to many answers about the family.

"first think i want i dont want my brother oscar to get a dam thing i got, he is a munser and he done me out of forty dollars.
"I want it that hilda, my sister, she gets the north sixtie akers of where I am homing it now. I bet she dont get that loafer of a husband of hers to brate twentie akers next plowing the gonoph work. she cant have it if she lest oscar live on it, i want i should have it back when she does.

"tell moma that the six hundred dollars she has been looking for ten years is berried from the backhouse behind about ten feet down. better let little frederick do the digging and count it when he comes up.

"pastor Lunknitz can have the three hundred dollars if he kisses the book he wont preach no more dumbhead talks about politiks, he should a roof put on the meeting house with, and the elders should the bills look at.

"moma should the rest get but i want it so that adolph should tell her what not she should do so some slick irishes sell her vakum cleaners, they noise like hell and a broom dont cost so much.

"I want it that mine brother adolph be my executor and i want it that the judge should please make adolph plenty bond put up and watch him like hell. adolph is a good business man but only a dumkoff would trust him with abusted pennig.

"I want dam sure that schliemel oscar dont get nothing. tell adolph he can have a hundred dollars if he can prove oscar got nothing. that dam sure fix oscar." --FWZ---

• Have a heating problem? Remodeling? Planning to add a new bedroom or bath? The answer to your problem may be electric heat.

Electric heating equipment is less expensive to buy and install than other heating systems. With electric heating there are no dripping pipes, ugly radiators, bulky furnaces or space-consuming fuel tanks. With the elimination of these space-stealing items, you get more room to live in.

There are a variety of electric systems available to help you renovate your home. Choose from baseboard units, wall units, ceiling panels, wall panels, electric fireplaces or an electric furnace.

If you already have central heating or air conditioning in your home, you may be able to use the existing duct work for either an electric heat pump or an electric furnace. People with hot water heating systems can replace their bulky old fuel-fired boilers with a small electric boiler that hangs on the wall (shown at left). These electric boilers can be connected to existing pipes from the old heating system and take up no more room than a small suitcase.

Before you remodel or change your heating system, get the facts on clean electric heating.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Doctor in Doubt

"I did my best."

So said a doctor not long ago when a disgruntled patient sued him for malpractice. It seems that the patient had been suffering for eight years from a surgical wound that would not heal. Now, demanding damages, he told the court:

"I realize that the doctor did his best. The trouble is, his best was not good enough. After all these years, he must have realized his own limitations. What he should have done was to send me to a specialist."

The court agreed, and the doctor was held liable. The court said that when a doctor has (or ought to have) serious doubts about his ability to handle a case, he has the legal duty to send the patient to someone who is better qualified.

A similar duty rests on other practitioners of the healing arts. Take this case:

A drugless healer, treating a man who had severe abdominal pains, gave him a vigorous massage and a strong laxative. Result: the man died from a ruptured appendix. In due course, his widow sued the healer for malpractice.

At the trial, he insisted that he had used the best treatment according to his own school of thought. Nevertheless, the court ordered him to pay damages. With plain signs of possible appendicitis, said the court, he should have turned the case over to a regular doctor.

Of course, the mere fact that a treatment is unsuccessful does not mean the doctor was at fault. In another case a boy's broken leg, set by the family doctor, healed with some permanent stiffness. The family, claiming damages, blamed the doctor for not calling in a specialist.

But the doctor explained: "This was not an unusual case. I have often handled similar fractures, and there was no special reason for me to expect trouble with this one."

The court decided this was a legitimate defense, and dismissed the case. Noting that medicine is not an exact science, the judge said no one would dare to be a doctor if he had to guarantee perfect results every time.

Home Sewing Swings Upward

The old saying is that "clothes make the woman", but retail fabric sales are zooming and the saying might be changed to "women are making the clothes".

This is the word from Becky Dunlap, Extension clothing specialist at Texas A&M University. Almost one of every three garments worn by women and children are being made at home; and the market for fabrics is expected to increase about seven to ten percent annually for the next several years.

Take into account the fact that home sewn garments cost 50-60 percent less than ready-to-wear clothes, and it is easy to see why home-sewing is becoming more popular.

The average family income of home sewers is $9,500 a year. More than one-fourth have incomes of $10-15,000 annually.

Recent figures say that 14 percent of all sewers are less than 30 years old; and 16 percent are under 20 years old. Pattern companies estimate that some 45 million home seamstresses make about 500 million garments a year, according to Miss Dunlap.

Consumers spend more than $400 million each year on sewing machines, an average of $200 per machine.

This increased popularity is attributed to several factors, with one of the most important being that many women use sewing as an outlet for self-expression and creativity. Dissatisfaction with the quality of ready-to-wear garments in retail stores is another factor. Increased leisure time and the desire to save money also contributed to the renewed interest. A national magazine estimates that 85 percent of American teenage girls sew some of their own clothes.

8th Grade Colts Downed 12-8

by M. STREET — L. ROGERS
Sonora gave up two touchdowns to Ozona last Thursday when the 8th graders fumbled twice. The line tightened and held out both extra point attempts.

In the second quarter a nice pass from Hector Perez to Frank Gallegos resulted in a TD. John Mitchell carried the pass from Perez over the goal and gave the Colts eight points. The entire second half of the game was scoreless and the Colts were unable to catch the Lions.

Tonight the junior high ball clubs will host the Big Lake Owls.

7th GRADERS DEFEAT OZONA
The 7th grade Colts defeated Ozona 6-0. In the second quarter Craig Parker caught a pass and ran for a touchdown, but the extra point failed.

The last half went scoreless but the Colts moved down to the 9-yard line. They threw a pass but it was intercepted by Parker and ended their drive with about 45 seconds left to play. The Colts ran the time out.

CHEERING THE JUNIOR HIGH COLTS on to victory in their games are these six girls—Renee Rousselot, head cheerleader Marsha Finklea, Terri Means, Ruthie Perez, Joyce Noreiga and Brenda Boyd. Both the 7th and 8th grade teams meet Big Lake in play tonight (Thursday).

Bronco "B" Team Tames Ozona Lions Thursday

The Bronco "B" team got it all together last Thursday and tamed the Ozona Lions 22-6.

Juan Perez and Randy Hill caught two passes from Paul

Browne for 12 points.

Aided by the fine efforts of the line, Alan Harris and Gabe Espinosa alternated carrying the ball on a strong, rapid march to the goal. The Lions held the first three attempts to cross into pay dirt, but Larry Cade on a quarterback keeper moved the ball over into pay dirt.

The game ended 22-6 with the Lions making several, but unsuccessful additional scoring threats.

This week the junior varsity will travel to Big Lake for one of the schedule's tougher games.

EMPLOYER SEMINAR SET IN SAN ANGELO

A new meeting place has been announced for the employer seminar explaining 1972 changes in the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act. Employers should be at the Wood Fellowship Hall, First Presbyterian Church, corner of College and Irving Streets, at 9 a. m. September 28.

TEEN SCENE

By Carol Weston

James Buchanan, teacher of Speech, Drama and Freshmen English, was recently nominated, along with several others, for the Outstanding Speech Teachers Award. Everyone at Sonora High School is very proud of what he has accomplished in his first year in Sonora, and wish to express their pleasure in his nomination.

The 7th and 8th grades played the Lions last Thursday in Ozona. Our 7th grade won by a score of 6-0, while their 8th grade slipped by ours by scoring 12 points to our 8. The Junior Varsity played here Thursday and were also victorious, the game ending in a score of 22 to 6.

The 7th and 8th grades will play Big Lake here this Thursday beginning at 5, while the Junior Varsity will travel to Big Lake and play at 6:30.

A short pep rally was held Thursday evening at 'Hurry Up' following the Junior Varsity game. After a number of yells led by the cheerleaders, the students refreshed themselves with soft drinks.

Jerry Don Balch gave a short talk at Friday afternoons pep rally and the Homemaking Department presented the women teachers with Bronco scarves.

The Bronco Band presented a very fine half-time show Friday night, consisting of a combination of pinwheels and step-two drills executed to various marches.

Each week two members are chosen by the officers to be recognized for outstanding performance the preceding Friday. Last week Matt Davenport and Junior Dominguez were recognized. This week Debbie and Becky Hard, who are new students at Sonora High School, were chosen Band Members of the Week.

For the past 11 years, the Broncos have succeeded in topping the Junction Eagles and last Friday evening was no exception. The game ended with a score of 14 to 7 in favor of the Broncos. Touchdowns for Sonora were made by Milton Noel and Steve Street, with Henry Mata kicking the extra points.

The Bronco defense, led by Gene Trainer, Tryon Fields, Milton Noel, Rick Street, Mike Dillard, Wayne Hill, Frank Taylor and Ladd Turner, stood out very well against the Eagles.

The offense also did well, though the Eagles caused them to look ragged in a few places. Statistically, they did a very good job. Sonora made 14 first downs to their 4; two penetrations to one; 259 yards rushing to 63 and intercepted two passes, while allowing the Eagles to intercept only one.

Other players who stood out in Friday's game included Mark Rousselot, Willie Faye and Gene Thompson.

Coach Scoggins felt that every boy played very hard, but that they are still making a few mistakes that must be corrected before too long. Overall the team played very well, as they were once again able to put down the Junction Eagles.

The varsity will be playing in Big Lake this Friday, the game beginning at 8 p. m. Everyone come out and watch the Broncos stun the Owls.

Mr. Buchanan, along with eight students who will be participating in speech activities throughout the year, attended a Debate Workshop at Odessa College last Saturday. Debaters David Wallace, Bruce Kerbow, Carol Weston and Mark Wilkinson attended talks by two debate authorities concerning the basic fundamentals of debate and analysis of this year's topic. Rick Hill, Molly Sawyer, Matt Davenport and Rick Street spent the day in the library finding selections for this year's prose and poetry categories.
