Carl Cahill, Richard Stanley Killed In Airplane Crash

An airplane crash Christmas Eve took the lives of Carl J. Cahill, 50, and his son-in-law, Richard Stanley, 27, of Dalhart.

The plane crashed and burst into flames on U.S. 290 just west of the city limits. The Piper Cherokee plane piloted by Mr. Cahill was following U.S. 290 west to east. It was reported that Mr. Cahill was apparently attempting to land on the highway, supposedly following engine trouble. The plane hit an overhanging street light on the south side of the highway, and then according to witnesses, angled down and struck a power pole, bursting into flames. The accident occurred at about 6:30 p. m. December 24, 1971.

Services for Mr. Cahill were held December 29, at the First United Methodist Church with the Rev. John M. Weston, officiating. Burial was in Sonora Cemetery, directed by Ratliff-Kerbow Funeral Home.

Mr. Cahill was born February 1, 1921 at Lamar, Colorado, and was married to the former Wanda Rape here in 1942. He was owner of Carl J. Cahill, Inc., which he established here in 1947. The most effective single force in building a good community is a good newspaper.

"Grassroots Opinion"

BASTROP, LA., ENTERPRISE: "Although prayer is the order of the day in Congress; although we pay to have chaplains conduct religious services for our soldiers; although both an invocation and a benediction are in order at any public gathering, official or unofficial; although we publicly honor God as our Creator and even remind ourselves on our money 'In God We Trust'; the Supreme Court denies the right of prayer to children in school. This deplorable inconsistency is captured in this anonymous school prayer: 'Now I sit me down in school where praying is against the rule. For this great nation, under God, finds public mention of Him odd.'"

BELLEVIEW, KANS., TELESCOPE: "Maybe it would be a good thing to have a woman on the Supreme Court. It seems to us that several decisions made in the past would have been better, if they had just changed their minds."

JACKSON, MISS., NEWS: "Capital punishment is when the government taxes you to get capital so that it can go into business in competition with you, and then taxes the profits on your business in order to pay its losses."

SAN MARINO, CALIF., TRIBUNE: "The main cause of inflation over the years has been increased government spending. It may have sounded 'businesslike' to make each piece of mail pay its way, but the government seems to have forgotten that all of its mail, including the military as well as the frank privilege of the politicians is carried without charge. Does it really want each piece to pay its own way, or is it trying to soak the rest of us for all the free-loading federal mail? The post office used to collect millions of dollars from magazines such as Look, but one after another they are dropping out of business. The government wanted to collect twice as much from Look. Instead it is going to get nothing. A lot of newspapers will be forced out of business unless government relents on its unprecedented postal hike."

AULT, COLO., PROGRESS: "Did you know that the politicians are better than you? That is the impression I get from a bill on the agenda now. Newspapers in many cases have a graduated rate for advertising, the more you buy the lower the price. The politicians are considering a bill to give themselves the lowest going price regardless of their total inches. It is unfair to you and a paper which has such a scale. We do not have it. Our ads go out to everyone at the same price, regardless of size. So other than the fact that politicians are attempting to control one more phase of your life, it does not bother us."

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Comeuppance for Creditors

Mrs. Olson was home alone when two husky men came to her door.

"We're from the appliance store," they announced, "and we are going to repossess your stove."

Despite her protests, they barged into the house, seized the stove, and carried it away—leaving soot stains all over the rug.

Understandably upset, Mrs. Olson determined to sue the store for damages. In court, the proprietor told the judge:

"Maybe my boys did get a little careless. I am willing to pay for cleaning her rug. But aside from that, she suffered no harm. After all, she was behind in her payments."

However, the judge held him liable not only for the rug but also for "punitive damages"—that is, extra damages imposed to teach him a lesson.

The law is taking an increasingly stern view of "rough stuff" by creditors in the repossession of merchandise. To discourage such tactics, most courts will award punitive damages to the debtor, over and above any actual harm done.

This is especially true when the repossession resorts to personal violence. Thus, a court awarded punitive damages to a housewife after her sewing machine was repossessed at the point of a pistol.

In another case, a furniture dealer told a widow she could have extra time to pay for her purchases because she had to have an operation. But while she was in the hospital, he broke into her house and decamped with the furniture. Here, too, a court found ample grounds for awarding punitive damages.

Nevertheless, the law does not frown on the basic idea of repossession. By giving the creditor a simple and speedy remedy against the delinquent debtor, it can keep down the cost of credit for other consumers.

Repeatedly, courts have found nothing improper when a repossession towed away a car parked in front of a debtor's house or even in his driveway. As one court pointed out, the seller is merely taking back — "without force, threats, or even stealth"—what is rightfully his.

He Sees No Reason To Doubt Survival Of Both Man And Alligator In '72

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitter-weed ranch on Dry Devil's River has discovered a new year is at hand, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:
It's that time of year again to look back over the past twelve months and ahead to the next twelve.

Personally, I'm about as good at telling what's going to happen as what did, like a state legislature waiting for the courts to tell it what the laws it just passed meant, and my prediction for 1972 is that most predictions will be about as reliable as the one made in 1910, by the man who said that when automobiles replaced horses and buggies most flies will be eliminated.

I have utmost confidence in the survival of man as long as he remembers the fundamental lesson of life I just keep dodging and don't look back.

Yours faithfully,

Double Ring Rites Unite Miss Brown, Terry Hann

Miss Melissa Muriel Brown became the bride of Terry Michael Hann in a double ring ceremony held December 30, at St. John's Episcopal Church. The Rev. Ray Nations, rector of the church, officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Hillman Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Bert F. Hann, Jr. of San Angelo.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of white silk organza. The bodice fashioned a sheer yoke pattern with a duchess neckline of English net applied with alencon lace. Long, sheer, full lace sleeves were designed with a lace cuff. The A-line skirt swept to the back accented with the alencon lace appliques forming the full flowing chapel length train. A Camelot headpiece held her floor length alencon lace mantilla.

The bride's flowers were a nosegay of white carnations and a detachable center corsage of white roses.

Mrs. J. D. Cook, organist, furnished traditional wedding music.

The maid of honor was Miss Regina Trainer and Miss Beth Davis was bridesmaid. Both carried nosegays of pink carnations.

Serving his brother as best man was Gary Hann of San Angelo, and Eddie Sutton was the groomsman.

Green News

Reporter Bobbie Fawcett has been in San Antonio in the hospital recovering from surgery. She should be home now and we are glad she is feeling good.

—GN—
The next Ladies Auxiliary luncheon is scheduled for Wednesday, January 19 at 12 noon. Hostesses will be Jodie Finklea, Libbye Lowe and Ernestine Hext.

—GN—
The golf clubhouse may be rented according to the following rules:

Only adults can rent the house and this rent should be paid in advance to Lonnie Taylor who is in charge of the club.

Anyone using the building and/or premises shall be responsible for leaving them in clean condition. The person to whom the building is rented shall be regarded as the responsible party regarding any damage or non-compliance with these rules. Youth groups shall be properly chaperoned at all times while using the premises.

Public youth functions shall be chaperoned by a minimum of three adults, one of whom shall be a man. Charges on the building are set by the board of directors.

—GN—
With weather permitting there will be a mixed tournament Sunday, January 9, at 1 p.m. Players must sign up by 12:30.

—GN—
The course resembled summer time with school kids and out-of-town visitors playing. Warty Alley and his family were out several days. The professional ladies' golfer, Miss Lee Spencer, was also here.

—GN—
As we enjoy playing we are reminded of the many hours Carl Cahill spent working on our golf course. Without his help, we would not have our beautiful course.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

Each New Year presents us an opportunity and a challenge—an opportunity to start off fresh, and a challenge to meet new goals. So, let's take advantage of this occasion to learn from the past and build for the future. Let's make an effort to improve ourselves and strive to do our very best in 1972.

—We do not count a man's years until he has nothing else to count.

—Buying gifts of garments for a female is not wise; the shade we pick is never right, and neither is the size.

—You must have long-range goals to keep from being frustrated by short-range failures.

—Give a man credit for anything today—and he'll buy it.

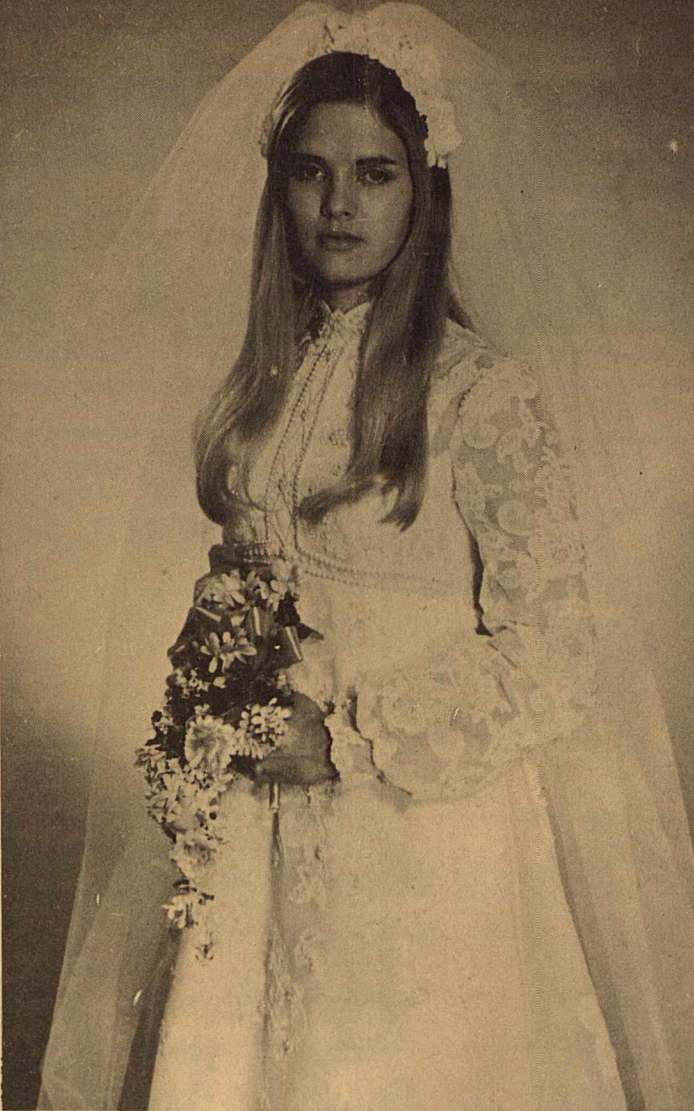

—Remember the good old days when a juvenile delinquent was a boy who played the saxophone too loud?

—When you look down in the mouth people will know there's something up.

—Today is the tomorrow that I worried about yesterday and it didn't happen.

—When a husband bothers to open the door and help his wife into the car, he probably has just acquired one or the other.

A LIFT FOR THE WEEK
Experience helps us to grow, accomplishment helps us to mature.

Deborah Wardlaw Marries Hal Chase, Jr. In Austin

In a ceremony at the Memorial Methodist Church in Austin, Miss Deborah La Jeanne Wardlaw and Hal Chase, Jr. were united in marriage December 4.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. La Jeanne Wardlaw of Austin and Louis J. Wardlaw II of Laredo, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson of San Antonio. The Rev. Milton Dare officiated at the ceremony.

The bride a graduate of Sonora High School, chose a Designer gown of white English net with appliques of embroidered white Alencon lace pattern. Styled with a Duchess neckline and a full billowy sleeve, the Empress bodice had inserts of pearl embroidered satin. The skirt applied in the lace was worn instep length and swept into a full rounded court train. Scallop of the lace edged the entire hem of the gown and train.

The bride's veil of French white silk illusion was draped over the back of the gown beyond the train's length.

Mrs. Charles Castle of Austin was organist and Mrs. Dennie Hays of Seguin was soloist.

Serving as maid of honor was Miss Karen Klatt of Austin, and the matron of honor was Mrs. Diane Wardlaw of College Station. Bridesmaids were Misses Janet Klatt of Austin, Cara Polk of Mason, Betsy Tocquigny of Carrizo Springs and Melinda Raine of Uvalde. Miss Beth Ann Wilson of San Antonio was the flower girl.

The brother of the bride, Louis J. Wardlaw III of College Station served as best man. Groomsman were Dan Clark of San Antonio, Charles Hanson, Al Dupuy and Dr. B.J. Smith, all of Austin, and Greg Chase of Corpus Christi. Mark Dean Wilson of San Antonio, was the ring bearer.

That's what makes saucers exciting—no telling where you'll land! No steering... no brakes... no telling which way you'll turn or how fast you'll go.

Swirling may be exciting on a snow-laden hill. It's something else again on the rugged slopes of life. So many parents who want the very best for their youngsters are living with the gnawing fear of how a child's future may unfold.

The Church offers sound answers to our fear. Religious training provides steering in a human life. Moral principles become the necessary brakes. And for the continuing uphill climb which beckons and challenges youthful souls, faith unlocks the resources of spiritual power.

Social Security News

Just what is an annual report? According to J.M. Talbot, social security manager, this is a report which many of the beneficiaries must complete and send to the social security office. The report is designed to inform of a beneficiary's earned income for the most recent year and also advise what he expects to earn in the current year. In addition, there are questions on specific earnings for each month. Talbot said that this report must be completed and mailed to the social security office no later than April 15. For more information, contact the Social Security Office at 3000 West Harris Avenue in San Angelo, or see the representative when he is in the area.

MORE THAN THREE HUNDRED YOUNG PEOPLE attended the "Peppermint Ball" held annually by local youngsters. This year the dance was held at the 4-H Center and hosted by 71 SHS students. George Chambers and His Country Gentlemen furnished music for the dance which was attended by local as well as young people throughout the West Texas area. Several women created decorations for the ball which was held December 29.

Texas Hwy. Dept. Mails Renewal Forms

If you own one or more of the more than seven-and-a-half million motor vehicles in Texas, some important mail has been coming your way. The first of 7.5 million renewal applications from the Motor Vehicle Division of the Texas Highway Department were dispatched from the Post Office's facilities in Dallas on Friday, December 31. Owners of motor vehicles should be receiving the renewal applications—for obtaining 1972 Texas license plates—early in January. The actual motor vehicle registration "season" at county tax offices does not begin until February 1. However, vehicle owners may go ahead and order their license plates by mail immediately. All that is required is to send

ACCENT ON HEALTH

It's that time of the year again when people all over the country sit down to write their New Year's resolutions. Or if we don't do that, we at least think about ways to improve the quality of our lives and attempt to accomplish certain goals. Texas health officials urge you to place "good health resolutions" at the top of your list this year.

Here's some resolutions for you and your family, courtesy of the Texas State Department of Health:

Promise to give your body at least as good care as you give your car. Periodic examinations are the best way yet devised to detect bodily disorders while they can still be treated successfully.

Dental troubles won't kill you, but sometimes they can make you wish you were dead. So check in once yearly with your dentist, too.

If you are putting on weight, resolve to start passing up the candied yams, boiled potatoes and the cream-filled tidbits which almost invariably spell extra pounds and perhaps an early grave. Too much weight contributes to high blood pressure, and may be associated with hardening of the arteries and various forms of heart disease.

A good, physician-prescribed exercise regimen will keep your body in shape, tone up your

Variable Rate Loan Reduced By Federal Land Bank

A. E. Prugel, manager of the Federal Land Bank Association here, announced that The Federal Land Bank of Houston reduced the interest billing rate on variable rate loans to 7%. "This reduction was effective January 1, on all variable rate loans and affects more than 177 million dollars in loan volume to more than 5,000 Texas farmers and ranchers", Prugel stated. The variable rate loan plan which was introduced by the Houston Bank in July, 1969, lets the interest rate "float" over the variations in the money market. The Federal Land Bank of Houston makes long term real estate loans throughout Texas. The local association makes and services loans in three counties. Officers and directors of the association are Frank Bond, James T. Williams, Jr. and Otil Deal of Eldorado, Pleas L. Childress, Jr. and Charles E. Davidson, III of Ozona.
