Alternatives To Feeding Cottonseed Meal

Livestock feeding is in full swing in Sutton County, and producers are faced with paying a high price for a major protein supplement, cottonseed meal.

What are the alternatives? County Extension Agent D. C. Langford suggests that cattlemen consider whole cottonseed as a substitute along with guar meal, castor meal, alfalfa hay, dehydrated alfalfa pellets and commercial dry supplements.

However, the price of whole cottonseed may increase due to pressure from the high-priced cottonseed meal which is now more than $150 a ton, cautions Langford.

In determining whether to feed whole cottonseed or the 41 percent cottonseed meal, consider the cost of each as well as handling and hauling costs. Feed the whole cottonseed if 100 pounds of it can be fed cheaper than a mixture of 35 pounds of cotton seed meal and 65 pounds of milo.

In feeding whole cottonseed or any of the other alternative protein supplements, the main concern is to prove the minimal amount of protein for livestock, points out Langford.

He recommends feeding no more than five pounds of whole cottonseed per cow per day since it contains 22% fat which is laxative to cattle. The five pounds is usually more than enough to meet the protein needs of the beef cow.

Since other protein supplements are also high-priced, Langford suggests combining these supplements with a high quality forage to minimize the amount of supplement needed. Forages can be tested for protein content so that the cattlemen can determine the amount of supplement to feed along with the forage to meet the daily protein requirements of his stock.

Forage samples may be sent to the Forage Testing Laboratory at Texas A&M for a protein analysis. Information for submitting such samples as well as additional information on supplemental feeding of beef cattle is available at the county Extension office, adds Langford.

Wool Pmt. Applications Should Be Filed Now

January is "clean-up" month for processing applications for wool payments by producers who sold shorn wool, unshorn lambs, or mohair during 1972 marketing year.

Payment will be made in April on applications filed on or before January 31.

Producers filing for incentive payments on their 1972 marketings should be certain their sales documents are complete. These documents are filed with the payment applications and are not returned to the producer.

To be complete, sales documents must include name and address of the seller, date of sale, net weight of wool, gross and net proceeds, number of head and liveweight of unshorn lambs sold, and name, address, and signature of the buyer or the marketing agency. Incomplete sales documents may result in the applicant having to obtain further documentation before the incentive payment can be made.

It is important for all producers to get their applications in this month since the information is needed to help determine both the average prices received by growers for shorn wool and mohair sold in 1972 and the payment rates.

The incentive payment price for wool marketings is 72¢ a pound. The percentage to be paid to producers who apply will be that required to raise national average price received by all producers up to 72-cent incentive price. Optional payment is 75¢ on marketings of unshorn lambs.

An earlier announcement by U.S. Department of Agriculture stated that the wool incentive program will continue unchanged for 1973.

MOHAIR PAYMENTS POSSIBLE Producers who marketed mohair in 1972 may apply for price payments at the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) county office during January, said local ASCS officials, even though mohair prices are currently above the support level of 80.2 cents a pound.

"It's possible that the average price received by all growers who sold mohair last year might be higher than 80.2¢ a pound. If so, no payments will be made. But it's also possible that the average price was lower, and in that case payments will be made," he said.

Former Resident Retires As Minister

Mr. Wendell Carr of Gulfport, Mississippi was honored by members of the First Christian Church at Gulfport upon his retirement as minister of the church December 29, 1972. Mr. Carr and his wife, the former Marie Silkwood, lived here for a period of four years in the early 1930's.

The Carrs have been married 45 years and are parents of four children. They have 13 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

In his 48 years in the ministry, Mr. Carr has served ten pastorates, and has been at First Christian for the past 13 years. He served as Chaplain in the U.S. Army and Reserve for 17 years. He served ten years as director of camps and conferences in eight major offices on the state level in Mississippi's Christian churches.

A graduate of Texas Christian University, Mr. Carr has served churches in this area, including Eldorado and Kerrville. His first church to pastor was in Cisco in 1924.

The Carrs have visited here several times as Mrs. Carr's sister, Mrs. Charlie West, is a local resident.

Information received from growers when they file applications for payment will be useful in determining the average price received for 1972 mohair sales.

Along with the short application form, producers file sales documents with complete information on each sale. The ASC committee chairman advised producers that they can save themselves time by making sure the documentation is complete before filing their application at the ASCS county office.

Both mohair and wool payment applications on 1972 marketings of these commodities are due in ASCS county offices on or before January 31.

Adult Literature Course To Begin Mon., Feb. 12

The adult literature course to be offered by Smith Neal, High School English teacher, will begin at 7 p.m., Monday, February 12 in room 22 of the High School building. Neal said the classes will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. each Monday, and there will be no tests.

He said the course will be flexible. Works by mostly American and British authors will be studied.

"If one selection suggests something else to a member of the class, we may drift off into that which was suggested. I want to have some fun with the course. I like to read a little and have a lot of class discussion of what was read," Neal asserted.

There is still room for several in the class, and anyone interested should call Neal after 4 p.m. at 387-2826.

GRASSROOTS OPINIONS

LAKE PARK, IOWA, NEWS: "If you think you have troubles pity the poor editor--if he attends a meeting he's being nosy, if he doesn't he isn't interested. If he writes an in-depth story, it's too long, if he condenses one, it's incomplete. If he takes sides on an issue he is prejudiced, if he doesn't he is a coward. If he asks for advice, he's incompetent, if he doesn't he is a know-it-all. If he makes a mistake he hears about it for weeks, if he doesn't he never hears about it. If he expresses an opinion, he wants to run the show, if he doesn't he lacks guts. If he misspells your name, you never forget it. If he doesn't you didn't read that story."

GREENSBURG, KANS., KIOWA COUNTY SIGNAL: "If the American people thought that tearing down North Vietnam was expensive, wait until they start paying to rebuild the country."

MATTON, ILL., JOURNAL GAZETTE: "American astronauts are studying Russian and Soviet cosmonauts are studying English. It is all in preparation for the first joint space flight, made possible by one of the agreements President Nixon brought home from Moscow. The cosmonauts are due in Houston within a year to begin training for the joint flight in 1975. That is three years of space peace to look forward to, at least."

BOGALUSA, LA., NEWS: "Checking account customers of the Hemstead Bank in Sisseton, N.Y., are enjoying--if that is the right word--the benefits of a cashless and checkless society. Thirty-five retailers in Sisseton are cooperating in a scheme which lets customers use a special plastic card to make purchases. When the card is inserted into a machine the retailer gets an automatic credit to his account at the bank and the buyer's account is given an automatic debit. This is progress, we suppose, even if it makes going broke easier than ever. To many people the cashless society is the one they're in most of the time."

NEWTON FALL, OHIO, HERALD: "Despite the fact that popular indignation has made pollution preeminent among the nation's crises, far too many individuals still cling to the simplistic notion that 'I don't cause pollution--they do. Conversely, too few are prepared to make the individual sacrifices in comfort and convenience that will have to be made... The question we should all be asking is not 'Who will pay the costs?' but rather, 'What is my fair share?'"

IDAHO FALLS, IDAHO, EASTERN IDAHO FARMER: "We chafe every time we hear of a new tax reform proposal. After the 'reform' is an accomplished fact, inevitably we pay more taxes."

FOWLER, IND., BENTON REVIEW: "I'm always impressed by the politician who leaves his $80 a day hotel suite to climb into a $9,000 limousine which takes him to a $20,000 jet which delivers him to the city where he has to deliver a speech on economy in government." LAVONIA, GA., FRANKLIN COUNTY CITIZEN: "One of these days this nation will find it has too many persons on social security benefits, too many on unemployment compensation, too many on retirement plans, too many on welfare rolls, too many on medicare and Medicaid benefits, and America will find itself in the midst of the greatest turmoil it has ever encountered. That day of turmoil is almost here. I don't know the answers to the nation's ills, but I do know that the achiever, the person who digs the straightest ditch, the person who honorably and honestly applies himself, will find that his place in society is assured as a sound and healthy one. The inspiration to do one's best is the simplest way to a better way of life in America."

OKABENA, MINN., PRESS: "Politics has invaded our living rooms as... candidates have carried on some sprightly debate. It would be interesting to see if each candidate could make good all of his promises made while campaigning. Do you suppose they recall all of their guarantees? No doubt they have the very best of intentions, but their performance depends entirely upon those with whom they work."

WHEN ITS RAINING AND SLICK ROADS prevail, reduce your speed to avoid skidding. If you do begin to skid remember 1) don't accelerate 2) don't apply the brakes 3) do steer in the direction you want the car to go. Knowing how to control a skid could save your hide.

from HISTORY'S SCRAPBOOK DATES AND EVENTS FROM YESTERYEARS

JANUARY 24, 1963 Dan Blocker, former Sonora High School speech teacher and a really "big" man, will be the recipient of the Texas Press Association's 1963 "Texan-of-the-Year" award.

Mrs. Grant Newell has returned to Cincinnati, Ohio after a two-weeks visit here with her husband's mother, Mrs. L. C. Newell.

Roger Langford exhibited the Grand Champion Fat Lamb in the 16th Annual Sutton County 4-H Livestock Show. Ray Glasscock exhibited the Grand Champion Commercial Ewe Lamb and pen of three commercial ewe lambs.

Mrs. Karen Peterson entertained the Thursday Bridge Club in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Louie Trainer.

From La Diabla: The Kansas City Star once did an Armour's Ham ad with small effects. It worked, too. The dogs ate the papers. If the Devil ever hits the post office smelling like leg of lamb, mark it up to Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers, affectionately... and otherwise... called the Shepherders.

JANUARY 23, 1953 L. W. Elliott was elected president of the Del Rio Wool and Mohair Company for the 17th consecutive year at a meeting of the stockholders.

From Son-of-a-gun: We hear the latest teenage saying in Washington is "Well, cut my bangs and call me 'Mamie!'" Times really change. When we were young (back in the roaring twenties) about the shapeliest thing you could say to one of your fellows when you wished to josh him a bit was "Banana Oil!" We just about wore that one out until Dad told us we were going to needsome banana oil in a certain place if we didn't cut it out. That ended the fad.

Bill Decker, second-year student at San Angelo College, was here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Decker last week. Decker is a civil engineering student.

Mrs. J. F. Howell was hostess to the Idle Hour and Just Us Bridge Clubs at a party Tuesday afternoon at her home.

JANUARY 29, 1943 Herbert Andrews, Seaman 2-C writes from Kingsville: "We're supposed to get in a bunch of WAVES pretty soon. I don't know just when. They are to take our places in the mess cooking, offices, and other jobs. I don't know how that's going to work, but it will be something to look at."

H. V. Stokes, chairman of the Lions Club civic improvement committee, was the principal speaker at the luncheon Tuesday. Although there is little in the way of civic improvement that can be done during the war, Stokes said, there is one thing that can be accomplished. The club is trying to promote the building of a permanent airport here.

Pfc. Sam Odom and Sgt. Ralph Miller of Camp Bowie spent the weekend here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ban Odom.

The City of Sonora was incorporated in 1918, and the present commissioner-city manager government was set up in 1931.

More eggs, more milk, more pork and more beef are being asked from the producers of Sutton County in 1943, said Joseph Vander Stucken, chairman of the local USDA War Board.

Sutton County History Sutton County, which was a part of Crockett County until 1889, was organized in that year, and the first court met December 1, 1890 in the G. W. Morris house in the City of Sonora, which was founded by R. W. Callahan, Tom Berrong and J. Q. Adams.

The first officers of Sutton County were L. J. Dunagan, judge; J. W. Taylor, T. B. Berrong, E. W. Wall and O. H. Word, commissioners; J. T. McConnell, sheriff, and W. S. Strader, county clerk, who died and was replaced by W. B. Silliman; W. R. Rudicell, tax assessor; L. N. Halbert, county attorney; John McNicol, surveyor; Drs. J. T. Wood and C. R. Mathis, health officers and J. E. Fulcher, sheep inspector.

The courthouse contract was awarded to Z. D. Grafford in 1889 for $27,706 and Oscar Ruffine of San Angelo was the architect. The county jail was built by the Paula Manufacturing Company.

Local legend has it that court was held in the upstairs room of the Morris Saloon, until the courthouse was completed. When there was a case to be tried, poker tables were cleared, the meeting called to order, and the law proceeded with the business in hand. Whether prisoners were also kept in the saloon is a matter of conjecture.

A Bishop Looks at Life

CAN YOU ACCEPT DEFEAT?

By Everett H. Jones, Retired Bishop of the Episcopal Church

Frequently in life we see a person who seems to be successful in everything he attempts to do. He seems adequate for every emergency. Then comes an unexpected defeat: a crushing sorrow, a crippling illness, serious financial loss. He is reduced to a state of despair and hopelessness. Powerful in success he is powerless in defeat.

No person is ready for life until he is able to accept defeat. This is true because in every life there are inevitable experiences of defeat. These are the crises that makes or breaks us. Christ would not be the perfect example that he is unless he had demonstrated to us how to turn defeat into victory.

What is true for the individual is also true for the nation. Just as we admire the person who can rise above defeat so we admire the country that refuses to say defeated. Two good examples are Germany and Japan. In the years since World War II they have again become strong nations thru courage and hard work.

At the beginning of this year a sobering interview was given to the press by the famous British historian, Arnold J. Toynbee, best known for his 12-volume "A Study of History." He had words for us in America that we need to hear, however unpleasant they are.

"The United States has lost its honor and been defeated in Vietnam although it refuses to admit it," said the world-famous historian. "This has affected the image of the United States to the rest of the world enormously. It can't be undone."

"But if America would recognize that she has been defeated, and acknowledge her defeat--Every country in the world has been defeated, except Israel at present. It has never been the last chapter--And it wouldn't be the last chapter for the United States."

He Thinks He Has The Solution To Air Pollution Across The Nation

Editor's note: The Devils River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Dry Devils River tries his hand at solving the air pollution problem this week, more or less.

Dear editor: Having visited several big cities recently on the theory a man ought to get off his own place at least once in a lifetime, I now know what the newspapers are talking about when they report the high levels of air pollution in those places, caused, it has been determined, about 90 percent by automobile running bumper to bumper through the places.

By late afternoon the air is so polluted from car exhaust you couldn't, if the situation existed in Sonora, see the court house from The Devil's River News.

Officials are now racking their brains trying to find a solution to the problem. The Governor of Massachusetts has even turned down a billion dollars in Federal highway funds and is trying to ban the building of more expressways and parking lots, on the theory I guess, that new highways, once they are built, are, like new weapons of war, bound to be used sooner or later.

One city is even proposing rationing gasoline as the only way to cut down on so much automobile use, not recognizing I guess that this actually would increase the use of cars as people drove to neighboring cities to stock up on un-rationed gas. Probably the net result would be merely the increase in the sale of barrels.

I've always contended that cities ought to be built out in the country where there's plenty of fresh air, but I haven't been able to get anybody to listen.

The only solution I can think of is a massive educational program to convince people to stay where they are. Show them that a hamburger in Sonora, tastes as good as a hamburger in San Antonio, that blindfolded you can't tell whether you're eating fried chicken in Boston or Los Angeles, that once you've mastered it there's no longer any adventure in going through another highway interchange, and that if your tube isn't blown you can go to sleep before the same television programs they go to sleep in New York.

I think this is the solution, but I don't think it'll work. Yours faithfully, J. A.

GRANDFATHER'S EYES

That's what Grandma always says — that I have Grandfather's eyes. It's certainly a mixed-up world, isn't it? People having other people's eyes.

But they never say Grandfather has my eyes. I asked Dad about it.

Although he didn't answer directly, he did say that we all have to have faith and character worth passing on to our children. That's why we go to church.

Later it occurred to me: Someday, somebody will have my eyes . . . my faith.

Guess Who?

You may have some difficulty guessing this week's 'guess who'. It is evident from his style of dress that he isn't a native West Texan. But then this picture was made on graduation night for him. Into Junior High School, we think. He is married to a local woman that you see real often. Last weeks 'guess who' were the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Neill... Nancy and Elizabeth.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Lending Your Tools

Friendly Freddie had no qualms about lending an electric drill to his next door neighbor. But trouble followed fast. While the neighbor was using the drill, he suffered a bad shock. And he put the blame squarely on Freddie. Suing later for damages, the neighbor said Freddie had no business lending him a tool that was dangerous. But Freddie convinced the court that he had been totally unaware of any defect in the drill.

Accordingly, the court held him not liable. The judge said that, inasmuch as Freddie was lending the drill "for free," he should not bear a heavy responsibility for its safety.

Most courts are reluctant to impose liability on the person who is generous enough to lend his tools or equipment. Still, if he actually knows of some hazard, VISITING Mr. and Mrs. Alan Saunders were in Dallas over the weekend attending the mid-winter Roundup for the V. F. W. Saunders is Junior Vice Commander of the local district 22.

he is usually obliged at least to give the borrower fair warning. This is particularly true when the borrower is not likely to notice the danger himself. In another accident case, a home owner incurred legal liability by letting a 13-year-old boy use his power saw. Pointing out that the boy had no previous experience with power tools, the court said he was all too likely to get hurt. On the other hand, the danger may be so obvious that a warning would be superfluous. This was the ruling in a case involving a welding device that had an unguarded electric fan. The borrower, cut by the fan, filed suit for damages, claiming the lender should have warned him that the blades were exposed. But the court dismissed his action, saying that the blades—in plain sight—were their own best warning to be careful. As one judge put it, there is no duty to warn the user that a knife will cut, that a match will burn, or that a hammer will mash a thumb. "No one needs notice," said the judge, "of what he already knows."

Susan Stewart On Honor List

Susan C. Stewart, a student at Texas Tech of Lubbock, was one of 497 students in the College of Home Economics qualifying for the dean's honor list for the 1972 fall semester, according to Dean Donald S. Longworth.

To qualify for the honor list, a student must be enrolled in 12 hours of courses, excluding pass-fail courses, and have at least a 3.0 grade average. Texas Tech uses a 4.0 grading system.

Miss Stewart is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stewart.

SANDWICH ZINGERS

Fruits and vegetables—besides traditional lettuce and tomatoes—are excellent additions to sandwiches.

Mrs. Jean Holland, area Extension agent, pointed out that sandwiches take on new tastes and extra nutrition with new additions.

For example, add chopped bits of spinach, carrots and celery to egg salad sandwiches for extra "zing". These vegetables add sparkle and crunch to the normally soft and bland chopped egg.

Tuna salad sandwiches, on the other hand, come alive with chopped green pepper and celery, plus a squeeze of lemon.

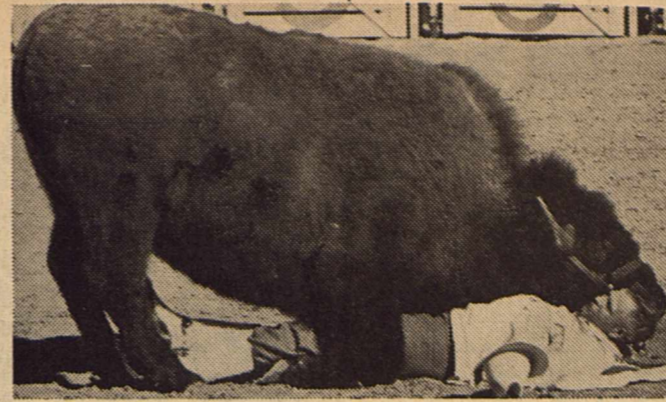

Often overlooked, cabbage also combines well with meat. Shredded fresh cabbage perks up a plain hamburger or baked ham.

As sauerkraut, cabbage has won great acclaim as one of the most important ingredients in a Reuben.

Although fruits aren't usually considered sandwich material, they add that "something extra" to spark flavor.

One combination is cold turkey and cheese, teamed with avocado and mayonnaise as a binder.

For a peaches 'n cream delight, try a sandwich filled with chopped canned peaches and creamed cheese.

Rodeo Excitement Jan. 26 thru Feb. 4

Indoor rodeo is 55 years old and the World's Original Indoor Rodeo will be presented in 20 performances Jan. 26 through Feb. 4 in Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum in Fort Worth as part of the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show.

Also, on hand during the Stock Show will be over 11,000 head of fine livestock, the fun and excitement of the Carnival Midway and the sights of the commercial exhibits.

Beef Carcass Data Available

Beef cattle producers in this county now have an opportunity to participate in a new service that will enable them to obtain important value determining characteristics of the carcasses their cattle produce, announces County Extension Agent D. C. Langford.

area, yield grade, hot carcass weight, and percent of kidney, pelvic and heart fat.

VIEWPOINT

by T. DRISKELL
My last trip to Ruidoso, I saw something I could not believe, possibly a minor miracle. As inconceivable as it seems I saw a New Mexico license plate. Lest I be considered a modern Munchausen, I must hurry to state that the New Mexico plate was well concealed by all those Texas and Oklahoma plates, and further he was on his way out of town.

I could not but reflect on the situation and further on the background which made a simple New Mexico license plate shock me. It all goes back to a lesson we Americans simply cannot seem to learn. Based on our Christian-Hebrew heritage, we tacitly assume that morality can be legislated, then we "ostrich" (head in the sand) as a parade of factual data to the contrary goes by.

You would like to argue? Look first at the facts—prohibition elevated the Mafia from a local marginal operation to a wealthy national crime syndicate. I know it is hard to think of Carrie Nations as the patron saint of the Cosa Nostra, but the facts are there. Look at our local area. Can you remember liquor stores on the Ozona and Eldorado highways? Ozona and Eldorado were dry, so their citizens drove for a drink, and killed some abstainers on the way home. In a dry Lubbock you could get better liquor delivery than you can here. The point? I guess I got derailed.

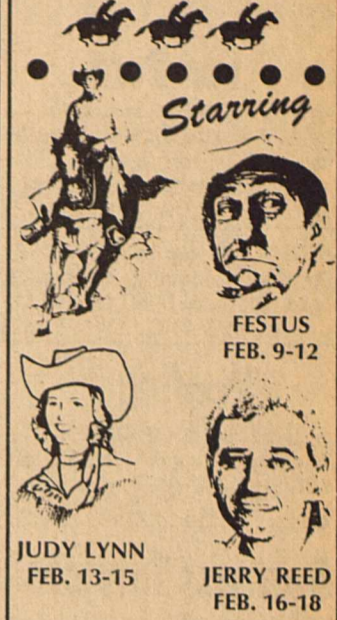

We ban race course betting in Texas! Does that ban work? You can bet your shirt that it does. It (the ban) funnels millions of Texas dollars, and the potential taxes therefrom, into Louisiana, New Mexico, other states, and into illicit gambling channels. Is that money lost to our state? No, it is not lost, because both you and I dig a little deeper into the proverbial tax pocket to make it up and keep our schools, other state programs, and the additionally required police functions operating. We all in essence make a daily sacrifice to the vain attempt to legislate morality. Could we better recognize that morality is a function of upbringing and education? —Possibly?

Can we change the pattern? Remembering when the bootleggers in Oklahoma and Kansas lopped 10% off the top for contributions to the so-called temperance forces one wonders.

The lobby potential against reality, you can be assured, will be formidable.
