Bronco Track Team To Laredo Border Olympics

The Broncos plan to leave today (Thursday) for Laredo and the Border Olympics. Sonora will be the only Class A school in the field of 32 schools. Most are AAAA and AAA schools with Baytown Sterling, the defending champ. There will be four divisions in the huge meet—a university division, college division, junior college division and high school division. Coach Bill Harle said, "the boys are in for a real tough test, but could make the finals in some events."

Six Candidates In School Board April 7 Election

Interest has accelerated in the April 7 School Trustee election with the filing Monday of Sammie J. Stewart, Border patrolman, and Tuesday filing of Mrs. Charles F. (Maxine) Browne, both for Place Four. Six persons have now filed for the two places in the April 7 election.

Persons filing for Place Three have been W. L. (Bill) Morris, incumbent, and James T. Hunt. Stewart and Mrs. Browne join Walter L. (Bud) Whitehead and Pete Gomez seeking Place Four spot on the board. They will be vying for the place now held by L. P. Bloodworth, who announced previously he will not be a candidate.

Filing deadline is less than a week away—March 7. Persons wishing to file may do so at the office of the superintendent of schools.

Cecil Craven Rites In Junction

Mr. Cecil H. Craven, 68, died February 24, 1973, in a Kimble County Hospital in Junction. He was a brother-in-law of Mrs. A. C. Hudson. Services were held at 2 p. m. Monday in First Presbyterian Church with burial in Junction Cemetery.

A retired grocer, he had lived in Kimble County 48 years. He was born October 6, 1904 in Collinsville. He was married to Ruby Lee Callan July 28, 1929 in Kerrville.

Survivors include his wife, a son, Kenneth Craven of Houston; his mother, Mrs. Daisy Craven and a brother, Lee Craven both of Junction.

Mrs. James Gully Named Suttton Co. Heart Chairman

Mrs. James Gully has volunteered to be Heart Sunday Chairman for the American Heart Association in Suttton County. With an established organization within the county, public education and community service are available to schools, individuals, clubs and organizations. Anyone interested in helping with the organization in this county, should contact Mrs. Gully.

Mrs. Gully is the wife of James Gully, who is with G & L Tool Company here.

THE BEAUTIFUL SPRING WEATHER WE HAVE ENJOYED the past few days has brought the sprinters out in full force. Track boys left today for the Border Olympics in Laredo, where they will participate in the meet there Friday and Saturday. The Bronco team placed third in the Fort Stockton Comanche Relays last week, and several boys had outstanding performances. Coaches J. T. Hill and Bill Harle think the track team may be heading for a good year this season.

Broncos Capture Third In Comanche Relays

The Bronco track team opened the 1973 track season in fine fashion Saturday at Fort Stockton Comanche Relays with a third place finish. Several boys had outstanding performances for so early in the year, and appear to be heading for a good year this season.

John Weston soared 21'-11" in the long jump for second place. John led the field until the final jump of the preliminaries, when a record breaking 22'-10" effort was posted.

Wade Richardson vaulted 12'-6" for fourth place and a good effort for this early. Juan Perez ran a 55.5 — 440 dash, but did not qualify to the finals. However, this time was two full seconds better than Juan had ever run and he finished strong. No doubt his time will come on down.

Wesley Richardson won first place in the 220 yard dash with a fine 23.0 clocking. He also anchored the third place sprint relay bringing the relay for fifth to third in a good stretch drive. Wesley ran a 52.8, 440 on the non-placing mile relay, and for his combined efforts has been selected as "Red Hoss" of the week for his outstanding performances.

Bruce Kerbow tallied 23-1/3 points to lead all point getters. Bruce won the 330 yard intermediate hurdles in a respectable 41.1; was second in the 120 yard high hurdles with 15.4, placed fourth in the high jump at 5'-8" and ran the second leg of the third place sprint relay.

Jack Sykes was timed in 44.3 and won his heat in the 330 yard intermediate hurdles but just barely missed the finals. Jack is a fine competitor and if hard work pays off, will have his time down in good shape by district, according to his coaches.

RESULTS:

Norman Rousselot Named Wagon Boss For West Texas Boys Ranch Roundup

Norman Rousselot has been named Wagon Boss in Suttton County for the 1973 West Texas Boys Ranch Annual Roundup, according to Bill Shaw, 1973 Roundup Chairman. He will attend a Wagon Boss and Roundup Kickoff meeting in San Angelo March 10, to receive information and prospects for this years Roundup effort.

Shaw and Ranch officials said that they "... are extremely happy to obtain the volunteer services of Rousselot to be Wagon Boss in Suttton County. We need all the help we can get to make this years Roundup a success for those 72 boys at West Texas Boys Ranch and are counting on the citizens of Suttton County to help him in his efforts in behalf of those boys."

All contributions, whether in livestock or cash, are tax deductible. Livestockmen

4-H'ers To Meet Thurs. At Center

A meeting is planned tonight (Thursday) at 7 p. m. at the 4-H Center for all boys and girls interested in livestock, wool, mohair, range and grass judging, announced County Agent D. C. Langford. Purpose of the meeting is to set up spring training programs and get ready for district meets.

First County 4-H Food Show Termed Successful

Fifty-two young girls raided their mothers' kitchens and prepared culinary entries for the Saturday 4-H Food Show held at the 4-H Center with Mrs. Jean F. Holland, Suttton County Extension agent, supervising the event.

The four senior girls winning first in the various categories will be eligible for District 7 competition at San Saba, March 17. They will be competing against winners from like shows in the other 19 counties comprising District 7 of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University. San Saba winners will be eligible for state competition at A&M University in June.

Judging the entries were Julia Garcia of San Angelo, Delia Martin of San Angelo, Cloyce Williams of Eldorado, Jane Baker and Carol Love.

In the senior division in the Main Dish category Marsha Finklea won a blue ribbon with her King Ranch Chicken dish. She will be eligible for district competition. Mary Sue Galindo was also awarded a blue ribbon with her Zucchini, Spanish style.

Lesia Joy was awarded a blue ribbon in the dessert division with her Red Velvet Cake. Her entry won the overall high score and she was presented a medal.

Other senior girls placing in this division included Natalie Redman, red ribbon, Golden Gate Pie and Tammie Dietz, white ribbon, German chocolate cake.

In the Vegetable and Fruits division, Leticia Longoria won a blue ribbon with green beans and a cheese sauce.

Martha Elliott was awarded a blue ribbon in the Snacks division with her entry of Cheese Balls.

Winning first in the Vegetables and Fruits division in the Junior Girls entries was Nora Galindo with her pineapple-banana salad.

Other top winners included:

Where Are The T-Bone Steaks?

A number of jocular remarks have been made recently to Freeman Miears about the price of beef. Several persons have warned him that it isn't safe to have beef around. Unfortunately, Freeman now agrees since a party or parties gained entry into the Branding Iron Smoke House early Sunday morning and walked out with a side of beef.

Nelson Stubblefield passed by the locker about 6 a. m. Sunday and noticed half a beef outside on the ground. He notified Vivian Miears and she and her brother, Royce investigated and found the lock broken and half a beef missing from the cooler.

Presumably the thieves were alarmed by a passing motorist and left hurriedly, dropping half of the beef in their departure. No clue was found except a lantern, evidently belonging to the robbers.

Miears is offering a reward for information leading to the capture of the poachers. In the meantime beef prices are not plummeting, but bigger and better locks are being installed at the Branding Iron.

Desserts—Valerie Tedford, Date Tarts.

Snacks and Beverages—Melva Vallejo, Everyday Cup Cakes.

Main Dish—Lucy Morris, 7-Can Casserole.

Girls winning red ribbons were Patsy Duran, Susan Galindo, Anbell Sanchez, Keilla Phillips and Maria Castaneda.

Shelly Behrens was awarded a blue ribbon in the Snacks and Beverages Division. Red ribbon winners were Maray West, Alissa Adkins and Toni Wright. Julie Stewart won a white ribbon.

In the Main Dish category, blue ribbon winners were Linnell Vannett, Debbie Green, Linda Smith, Doris Hearn, Mary Gomez, Jill Phillips, Mizzi Phillips and Paula Friess.

Lori Olson, Linda Hamilton, Tammy Van Hoozer and Ree Dine Hill were awarded red ribbons.

Ribbons and rosettes were provided by the Lion's Club and appreciation was expressed to them for providing the awards.

Texas Public School Week, Mar. 5-9

Youth is the period of building up habits and hopes and faiths... Not an hour but is trembling with destinies; not a moment once passed, of which the appointed work can never be done again, or the neglected blow struck on the cold iron. -Ruskin

Youth is a time for growth and imagination; creativity and something new to be learned every day. Isn't it nice there are schools?

Yes, schools are good. But schools are there because—first, there were parents who cared; parents who worked alongside educators 119 years ago in Texas to build Texas schools and work to see them thrive.

Now, schools will remain because, as a parent, you feel a responsibility to know the kind of education your child receives; because, as a parent, you take time to keep our schools in check; because, as a parent, you care enough to visit your child in his classroom, March 5-9, Public Schools Week in Texas.

Your interest—whether or not you have children—is needed to continue and improve education for those who will lead tomorrow.

Texas Public Schools are your concern. You pay tax dollars to support them. See that you're getting your money's worth and help to keep the lamp of learning burning.

Plan to visit your public school during Texas Public Schools Week, March 5-9.

IS NOW THE TIME TO BUY LAND?
Acquiring that farm might seem more practical with financing through the Federal Land Bank. Land is easier to pay off when costs are amortized over extra years with a long-term Land Bank Loan. Your total cost of borrowing, too, can be less. Ask us for help: We know land values; we will inspect the property. We will then try to make a loan that meets your exact needs.

VIEWPOINT

by T. DRISKELL

We are in serious energy trouble. Our fossil fuels (petroleum) and natural gas are critically short. Here we sit, facing fuel rationing with an Alaskan oil strike, and reserves that are mind shaking. The Alaskan oil is not available because we are perennially deterred from building a pipeline across the tundra.

In 1950, I sat on a cliff in Kimble County with binoculars observing our national bird, the bald eagle. That eagle was watching the birth of a lamb. While the ewe was still in shock associated with the birth, that eagle sailed down and killed the helpless lamb. I was left with the question: "Who needs eagles?"

In 1969, a University of Colorado ecologist told a seminar that emphatically, eagles do not kill domestic animals. At that point it became apparent to me that the ground residue indicated the ecology movement to be a horse borne organization. Looking at the stand on coyotes, pumas, bobcats and wolves no great differences are detected. It just does not make sense to fail to eliminate them from areas where food raising is the major enterprise.

If we had adequate electricity, the energy crisis would no longer be critical. Looking backward, however, one finds that we have been systematically deterred from building the nuclear power facilities which could provide the generation capabilities we need. It is a pretty grim picture of propaganda program, dedicated specifically toward a point not in harmony with our national interest.

There is a bright side, however and the next time you pray, please express your gratitude (and mine) that there were no remaining dinosaurs when the ecologists came to power. If dinosaurs had remained you and I might be starving to provide fodder and meat for those overgrown lizards. Yes, we have a lot to be thankful for. We can burn our furniture (if fireplaces are not banned) and walk or bicycle, but at least we can eat, if some finance company will set up a monthly payment plan on steaks.

Facetious? It is, but somewhat pathetic too. How many hundreds of thousands of animal species have passed into extinction? No one can be sure. An animal species (man included) passes into extinction when it can no longer adapt to the conditions confronting it. Our urban sprawl is a part of the conditions confronting wildlife. The balance of nature with 200,000,000 people is a situation identical to perpetual motion—it cannot be achieved.

The only approach to the balance of nature is to dispose of the bulk of our population, so why do we perpetuate an absurdity. To overdraw the situation, a wolf's or a puma's survival in suburban New York would be about as likely as a pedestrian crossing a Los Angeles freeway in rush hours. The animal simply cannot survive in hostile environmental conditions to which it cannot adapt. It's a law of nature, which seems impervious to repeal.

We must all be interested in maintaining our environment, but simultaneously we must recognize that two-hundred years of transgressions cannot be neutralized in ten years. Our corrective efforts must be against the background of our population which must be adequately fed, kept busy (employed) and provided the required recreation. We simply cannot escape the fact that if our ecological efforts create undue social or economic disruptions, a reactive upheaval will result with the probability of complete environmental destruction. Temperance, so abhorred to both distillers and environmentalists seems the only way to go.

If we can achieve legislative reality in this area (dubious at best) we are left only with the radical environmentalists. I often wonder how Ecologist CHIH; Sierra Club Tamales and Friends of Animals Tacos can be introduced into the national diet. There simply must be some way these groups can realistically benefit our society. I agree that those real benefits are somewhat obscure.

Clarity will probably come when food prices get higher—one of life's certainties.

The Devil's River Philosopher Sez....

He Starts Out To Explain Devaluation Of The Dollar But Then Wanders Off

Editor's note: The Dry Devils Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Dry Devils River tries to tackle the monetary problem this week but it may have eluded him.

Dear editor:

I had planned to explain the devaluation of the dollar this week as it relates to the world monetary situation but gave it up on the grounds that the more you explain money the less you come away informed about it, although I'll admit I can't understand what all the current to-do is about.

Why all the headlines and excitement about President Nixon's reducing the value of the dollar by 10 percent? The stores I trade at were way ahead of the President. They reduced it 10 percent five years ago, then 10 percent more, to where today a 10-cent tractor bolt now costs 30 cents, 50 cents worth of round steak costs $1.25, and the price of a 3-minute visit to a doctor's office has quadrupled.

Actually, I don't know what the value of money is based on. It used to be based on gold, but now I think it's based on whatever theory the economist you happen to be talking to thinks it is.

Speaking of gold, even inflation has hit that and a report I read yesterday said its price has gone up again. In fact, it looks like if gold keeps going up it's going to be as high as meat.

But I don't want to single out just meat. Everything is in on this, and I understand some housewives always try to do their grocery shopping the first thing in the morning because they figure most items will go up by mid-afternoon.

This of course doesn't apply to getting sick. If you're figuring on a long stay in a hospital, one time is as good as another. It's going to break you anyway.

Remember though the other side to all this is that nobody wants to go back to working for 50 cents an hour, and some of us don't even want to go back to working.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

A PARTY HONORING PEDRO MARTINEZ was given at Hudspeth Nursing Home Friday by his daughter, Mrs. Santana (Lupe) Noriega, both shown here, last Friday. The occasion for the party was his dismissal from the Nursing Home.

Guests were his family, the hospital staff and patients. Martinez had been a patient at the Nursing Home following surgery which was performed after he suffered a fall in mid-December.

Coffee Break

By Shirley Hill

Plagued by mosquitoes, house flies and certain other major pests? According to two researchers from India, garlic may provide a deadly diet for these common pests with none of the hazards of DDT. These researchers have isolated, identified and even duplicated ingredients in garlic oil which are responsible for killing the larvae of certain pests.

So this summer if you are unable to cope with the insects, hang up some garlic cloves. Not only will it keep the mosquitoes away, along with vampires (according to legend) but will do wonders for warding off company.

A Bishop Looks at Life

THE WORLD IN TUNE

By Everett H. Jones,
Retired Bishop of the Episcopal Church

A seventeenth century mystical writer Henry Vaughan said that the practice of prayer brought "the world in tune". In these discordant times there is nothing more appealing that could be said in prayer's behalf. If I were asked to defend Vaughan's statement, this is what I would say:

The mood of prayer leads to a more profound understanding of the universe. One begins to look beneath the surface; hidden harmonies are disclosed; an over-all purpose is discerned; moral laws are seen to be powerfully at work. We come to a new realization of how God could look at His creation and call it good. (See Genesis 1:31)

Moreover, prayer brings a new lubricant to relieve the inevitable frictions that develop in human relationships. There is a new capacity for objective detachment, for self-examination, for compassion and forgiveness.

Best of all, the practice of prayer helps an individual put his inner life in order. (This is why so many people have a prayer time early in the day.) This "tuning up" involves awareness that God is, that He cares, that He has a plan for each person as well as for the whole of creation.

An anonymous poet has put it this way:

"Thou shalt know Him when He comes not by any din of drums—
Nor the vantage of airs, nor by anything He wears.
Neither by His crown—
nor his gown.
For His presence known shall be
by the holy harmony
That his coming makes in thee"

Due For It

Boarder: "Hey, I found a nickel in my hash!"
Landlady: "Yes, I put it there. You've been complaining about the lack of change in your meals."

Heading Higher

When an aviator encounters a storm, he directs his plane through the clouds and goes higher. In that clear, rare atmosphere he is free from fear and difficulty.

Similarly, when we find ourselves surrounded by clouds of doubt, we need to direct our lives into a higher level where we may free ourselves of weaknesses and seek the will of God.

How can we attain these heights? Through the Church! It offers continuous opportunities for new growth, new life, new understanding. We need not wait for a more convenient time. We can enter into the life of the Church NOW.

Sears Sentell Assumes Position In Kansas City

John Sears Sentell, ranchman, Quarter Horse breeder and order buyer, has assumed a new position with a land and cattle management firm which maintains headquarters in Kansas City, Missouri.

Sentell and his wife, Frieda, have leased their ranch here to John Fields. He will join Oppenheimer Industries, Inc. as assistant manager in the breeding cattle division.

While ranching in this country, he has been running goats, sheep and cattle, and has been raising Quarter Horses which have been sold primarily for ranch horses, cutting horses and calf roping horses. In South Dakota, he ran mostly Rambouillet-Suffolk cross sheep.

Born at Snyder, he has attended several schools throughout the country, and he graduated from Texas A&M University in 1950 with an agriculture economics degree.

In his new position, Sentell will assist in the supervision and management of a large area covering about 40 ranches in 18 states, with five division points, including one at Amarillo. Several inspectors will be stationed at each division to assure proper management of around 120,000 head of breeding cattle and about 80,000 head of feeder cattle in feedlots managed by the ranch management and sales division of the company.

Sentell said the company is flexible in its managerial services. "The company finds a client who wants to make an investment of this type and they will buy the breeding cattle and find a ranch to put them on," he explained. The cattle are visually inspected every 60 days by the company and a report made.

NEW SEWING GADGETS
New sewing "gadgets" on the market reflect a current sewing boom.

A few of these include the hem clip, automatic tailor tacker, tape stitching guide and automatic buttonhole cutter.

Like giant, flat bobby pins, hem clips slip over the edge of a folded hem. In this position, they hold fabric edges together while the hem is being evened.

Hem clips also serve as measuring guides since they're marked in quarter-inch segments.

A baster--or automatic tailor tacker--consists of a thread-filled bobbin attached to a clear dispensing case. To use, thread needle in the dispensing case and stitch until bobbin empties.

A son, Lewis Jarvis, was born February 22, 1973, in Torreon, Coahuila, Mexico, to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Baker. The baby weighed 7 pounds. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Williams of Torreon, Mexico are the maternal grandparents. Mrs. Dorothy Baker is the paternal grandmother. Paternal great-grandparents are Mrs. Tate Jarvis of Junction and Mr. and Mrs. Joe F. Logan. Maternal great-grandmothers are Mrs. H. H. Williams of Tuscon, Arizona, and Mrs. Alice Ellis Lee of Menard.

Accent on Health

If you're the gambling type, consider this. . . . On second thought, you don't have to be a gambler to mull it over.

Accept this as a fact: If you are an American, chances are greater than 50 percent that you will die of circulatory disease -- a disease of the heart or blood vessels.

There are statistics to back this up. Diseases of the heart and blood vessels kill more Americans and more Texans each year than accidents and other diseases combined, say health officials.

Heading the 10 leading killers in Texas in 1970 and 1971 was heart disease, almost doubling the second biggest killer -- cancer. Cerebrovascular disease was third and arteriosclerosis ninth, according to the State Health Department's Bureau of Vital Statistics.

The cardiovascular disease (diseases of the heart and circulation) afflict more than 27 million children and adults and kill more than one million American families.

Some diseases primarily affect the blood vessels, others only the heart itself. Among the major diseases are those which cause the blood vessels to corrode and deteriorate, with resultant damage to the heart, brain, kidneys or other parts of the body.

The major ailments which injure the cardiovascular system are atherosclerosis, hypertension, and rheumatic heart disease. They may produce congestive heart failure, heart attack and stroke. Also of major concern are congenital defects of the heart and great vessels which are discovered primarily in infants and children.

Great advances are being made in the treatment of those with cardiovascular problems, yet the deaths continue.

Circulatory diseases, with autopsy studies showing increased disease of the coronary arteries in young men, is holding down the life expectancy of men in the United States. Autopsy studies in all age groups of the adult male have shown that fatty deposits are more frequent and severe now than 25 years ago.

Although heart attacks are less common in men under 30 years of age, they become more of hazard as a man grows older--reaching the peak for those between 50 and 60. The artery - clogging process begins early in life, but it isn't until it suddenly blocks the supply of blood to an area of the heart muscle that a heart attack occurs. Such an occlusion can occur at any time in a diseased artery.

Statistics show that men have more heart attacks than women in the same age group -- up to 13 times more in the 30 to 45 year age group -- but only twice as many in the age span between 45 and 62. After 65 the rate is about the same between Caucasian men and women.

The heart disease picture is a grim one, but there are a number of practical things which can be done to thwart heart attacks, prevent heart disease and prevent strokes. Primarily, these preventive measures are related to physical activity, proper diet and proper living habits.

Unfortunately for those in the dangerous years, some of the arterial damage from build-up and hardened fatty deposits can't be reversed. But, through exercise, diet and the change in life style -- such as quitting smoking--your chances of having a heart attack can be improved a bit.
