Second Screwworm Case Confirmed In County

Sutton County's second screwworm case of the year has been confirmed on the Estes Adams ranch 35 miles east of Sonora on the north Llano River. The screwworms were found in a shearing cut on an angora goat.

This is the second confirmed screwworm case that has been reported on the north Llano River in the Roosevelt area during the past week with the other case being in Kimble County.

County Agent, D. C. Langford reminds local ranchers they should continue to check livestock closely and promptly report all worm cases to the Screwworm Eradication Program, P. O. Box 963, Mission, Texas 78572. Containers for reporting screwworms may be picked up at the Sonora Wool and Mohair Company, local feed stores or at the county agent office.

The period between now and frost is the critical time for a screwworm outbreak so all ranchers are being urged to treat all possible sources of infection and to postpone until frost all marking and branding operations possible.

Sonora Tour For Range Management

During the September 13 range field day of the Texas A&M University (TAMU) Agricultural Research Station, guests will hear of such subjects as cactus, remote sensing photography and space satellites. The subjects have to do with managing range forages and controlling brush--the "green death" is what one observer calls it.

Sponsors of the September 13 program are the staff of the station, the TAMU Range Science Department and the Texas Section, Society of Range Management.

At 10 a. m. begins a tour of the station for the observation and discussion of research there and on a statewide basis. Among the subjects to be discussed are poisonous plants; management of watersheds; chemical and mechanical control of brush; grazing systems; mulch reseeding of disturbed land; growth habits and control and use of cactus.

After a Dutch-treat lunch catered by Sutton County 4-H Club, the guests will convene in the station auditorium to discuss, in connection with West Texas agricultural problems, the roles of the TAMU Agricultural Research and Extension Centers at San Angelo and at Uvalde. Here also the guests will hear talks on range grasses and on the use of remote sensing photography and space satellites in range science.

Food Stamp Program To Open October 1

The new statewide food stamp program began operation August 21, in Sutton County.

This was announced recently by Mr. Archie Morris, Acting Supervisor, of the State Department of Public Welfare.

"The statewide food stamp program will replace the commodity foods program currently operating in this county," explains Mr. Morris. "The statewide program was made possible when the 1972 Texas Legislature appropriated $7.7 million for a state-administered, state-financed statewide food stamp program."

The State Department of Public Welfare will administer the new program and the United States Department of Agriculture will provide the food stamps and bonus stamps.

Eligible households pay a determined amount for food stamps and are then given bonus stamps based on size of household and their total net income. Bonus stamps make up the difference between what a household can pay for food and what is necessary for a nutritious diet.

Also, bonus stamps mean many dollars worth of new business for the community. Bonus stamps represent money that low-income households would not otherwise have to spend at local grocery stores.

A recent study of three rural food stamp communities showed that food stamps represented from five to ten percent of the total retail food sales.

Households are certified eligible for food stamps at the local stamp office in the Sonora courthouse, in the County Judge's office. Certified households will then receive Authorization to Purchase (ATP) cards in the mail which will tell them how many stamps they are eligible for and how much money, if any, they must pay for them.

The ATP card and the necessary cash are redeemable for food stamps at the local issuance office.

Participating grocers accept food stamps for the purchase of most food and food products. Food Stamps cannot be used to buy alcoholic beverage, tobacco and most imported items.

Participation in the food stamp program is voluntary and does not prevent the household from receiving any other benefits for which the members might be eligible.

Food stamps increase the food purchasing power of low-income households. And food stamps are also good for the community's economy. Studies show that food stamps generate new economy and create new jobs.

Certification for eligibility should begin immediately. For further information about the food stamp program, contact the food stamp office in the County Judge's office in the courthouse in Sonora.

STOPPING IN FOR a bite to eat last Wednesday at the Gulf Restaurant was none other than the famous comedian, Jack Benny. Benny was on his way to San Angelo where he presented his comedy-music show at the San Angelo Coliseum. It's not very often Sonorans have the honor of seeing and visiting with a celebrity and the appearance of Benny caused quite a stir at the local restaurant.

Demands Will Grow

To meet energy demand, electric generating capacity in the United States is expected to double in the decade from 1970 to 1980. To find some of the reasons for this growth, we only have to look as far as our own homes and the offices where we work. During the last decade, residential use of electricity has increased by 129 percent, and today it accounts for 33 percent of all electricity sold. Industrial consumers use another 40 percent, even though they make up only one half of the total customers served by electric utilities.

Although much of this increased consumption resulted from industrial growth and thousands of new home units, major new consumers of electricity are to be found among the installations and devices required to protect or clean up the environment. Another major factor accounting for increased use of electric power has been man's ability to make electricity work for him. The last decade has seen a fantastic growth in the use of appliances and power equipment which has added to our standard of living. These include such items as electric dishwashers, second and third TV sets, electric garage door openers, intercom systems, washers and dryers, heated swimming pools, electric can openers and power lawn mowers. While these have made life easier and more convenient, they have also used more power. While these have made life easier and more convenient, they have added to the efficiency of business and industry, and therefore increased productivity which, in turn, has meant new goods and better services for consumers.

Because electricity is the very lifeblood of our high-technology civilization, it is inevitable that demands for it will continue to grow. There is no blinking the fact that this increased demand can only be met by a corresponding increase in the power plants and transmission facilities necessary to produce the electric power we require and carry it to the point where it is needed to do the work of man.

We Must Be Firm

Life in these United States often seems better when we look beyond our borders to other lands. In one strife-torn South American country, for instance, all it took was one saucy motorist sticking her tongue out at an army chief for near-tragedy to strike. According to witnesses, the women stuck out her tongue as she drove by the general's car in her red compact. He was infuriated and ordered his driver to pursue her vehicle as he shot at it. Says a resident who saw the incident, "I heard a shot, I ran outside. I saw the general. He was putting a gun to the women's head and he was telling her to apologize." This appalling event would be unthinkable in the U. S., where freedom of speech and press are but two of many sacred Constitutional rights, guaranteed to all. We must be firm in our determination that it always remain so.

Viewpoint

by T. DRISKELL

Looking at recent events, we might assume that Watergate could turn out to be a blessing instead of the debacle it appears. A great potential aid is already evident in the agricultural bill which recently passed through Congress. Looking at the realism of the bill against the realism of usual Congressional performance in that area, it might be assumed Congress was out to lunch (or Watergate?). There is no doubt that the middlemen in agricultural enterprise were caught with their "lobby" down, way down. Maybe the taxpayers get an unanticipated break.

What is new about the new bill? Nothing, it was I have heard, proposed to Secretary of Agriculture Wallace (the Roosevelt era) and was revived and formally proposed by Brannon (the Truman era.). The bill or proposal never got to the floor in Congress. After a second go, it was apparent that the only way it could get through Congress would be to ride through in a spectator's pocket. Did Watergate or the recess rush contribute to its passage or is it a genuine awakening?

What is so wonderful about the bill? Nothing, if common sense is not wonderful. Simply, the new bill means that the government is no longer going to take the taxes you pay and compete with you on the wholesale market for the purchase of your food, thus forcing you to spend more of your (remaining after taxes) funds to eat. Second, the government will no longer have vast surpluses which they must dump abroad or store here. The tendency was to dump to avoid the $20,000 a minute storage bill. Sicken- ing, but I have seen American butter sold in Italy for 15¢ a pound while the taxpayers here in the U. S. were paying 92¢ a pound, and they had already bought the butter being sold in Italy. When Mrs. Taxpayer picked up that butter she paid 92¢ plus 72¢ tax money and got 15¢ back in Italy - at best it cost her $1.49. How stupid could we have been? It should all be over under the new bill. It will be expensive, but the taxpayer will have to pay only one subsidy-not two.

Under the new bill we can have full agricultural production, lower prices in our supermarkets and plenty of commodities for sale on the world markets. The farmer can take all he can raise to market and sell it at the market price. The government then writes the farmer or rancher a check for the difference between the market price and the support level. It is childishly simple. Why did we not get to it before? Ask your Congressman!

Our commodity prices will probably fluctuate around the support level so do not expect food to be given away. The world needs food too badly for the bottom to fall out. One complexity is those labor contracts with cost of living clauses. Is it a two-way street? What happens if the cost of living goes down? We have, as Americans made three contributions to the civilization of man. First, is an industrious laziness. Second, anything we are given to eat; we put it between two pieces of bread. Third, we dig in the earth, and raise food with an efficiency unparalleled in man's history. In these, specifically the third, lies a possibility of our overcoming forty years of economic foolishness. Give us full agricultural production, and the almost perennial crop disasters abroad and our dollar can get well. We must, however, keep some tar, feather beds, and a rail or two on hand, as salesmen (or diplomats) training devices. These long term loans on which neither the interest nor principal is ever paid are for the birds. Our needs are cash or a barter for raw materials. After a couple of specialized training sessions, even the slowest salesman (or Diplomat) should get the clue.

The agricultural bill gives us a chance in one area. Only two big hurdles remain. First, our production costs may hamstring us. Those costs must be brought down, over the smoking residue of labor unions who believe a 5% annual wage increase is a God given right, if necessary. Industry must be carefully monitored on government contracts to be certain that the taxpayers get their money's worth and none of the "business". We have talked and talked about competition for years and in the international arena, we are approaching the "put up" or "shut up" point.

The next hurdle is a mental one-intellectual club-footedness, or the inability to count, and worse yet, the inability to recognize the trait. Example? The balance of trade figures are cited-nothing could be more useless or meaningless. A true index would be a total balance sheet-income versus outgo. The ethic of Americans in Franklin's time was: "Do not spend (or give away) more than you make." It is apparent most of us from the national to the personal level have completely shed that ethic somewhere along the line.

Look around-World War II has been over for 28 years. What are 300,000 plus American troops and more dependents doing in Europe? The European nations have played musical chairs in the attack on our dollar. There are still many debts, some outstanding since World War I, yet those nations had sufficient dollars to gain a lever on control of the dollar's value. Paying debts or interest where we are concerned is obviously out of style, and our survival depends on returning it to fashion.

Looking at Southeast Asia in the future the loan potential is terrific, but the repayment possibilities are a joke. Our bankers, are strictly out of style, checks on them happily reveal that on a personal basis, they want both their interest and principal repaid on schedule. Yet, when we move them to a national level a malady besets them. That disease is the one we need an immunization against.

A Neighbor's Solution Is Rejected Regarding The Plight Of Country

Editor's note: The Devil's Rivers Philosopher on his bitter-weed ranch on dry Devil's River reviews the situation in the nation today but doesn't give up.

Dear editor:
I don't know. I'm puzzled. I mean, you pick up a newspaper and before you look at it the first thing that pops into your mind is, who're they investigating this time? Who've they got the goods on now? You know, illegal political contributions, kickbacks, bribery, wiretapping, get-rich-quick in office, influence peddling, favoritism, the Russian grain deal... you name it and some grand jury somewhere is investigating it, not just in Washington but all around the country.

Why any prosecuting attorney who isn't investigating a politician for receiving or a corporation for giving illegal donations is now considered sleeping on the job. It's not just in Washington, where Special Prosecutor Archibald Cox says it'll take him the rest of his life to finish with Watergate, but throughout the land, in both parties, among governors, mayors, state representatives, party finance chairmen, etc. In some areas any politician who doesn't come out of office richer than he went in is considered incompetent.

It's everywhere. Coaches are being investigated for illegal recruiting, athletes are being checked to see if they've been fed pep pills. Why cheating has been found in the kids' soap box derby, and I wouldn't be surprised to see a scandal turn up somewhere in the country in the P. T. A. I got to talking about this with a neighbor and he said he had the solution. "What's that?" I asked. "Everybody ought to resign," he said. "Everybody?" "Yep. Everybody. Fruit basket turn over."

The greatest gambler of all is he who trusts everything to luck and chance.

"Now wait a minute," I said. "You have everybody resign and the country'll be in the worst mess you've ever seen." "It already is."

I don't agree, although some sometimes it looks like we're working on it. I agree with another neighbor who said anybody who doesn't vote in the next election ought to be horsewhipped. Yours faithfully, J. A.

Teen Scene

By Carol Weston
The Broncos scrimmaged McCamey last Friday evening in preparation for the coming season. Even though Sonora came out behind 5 to 0 score-wise, the scrimmage served its purpose in that it enabled both teams to discover where their strengths and weaknesses lie and on what areas they need to concentrate their practice in the following weeks.

The team as a whole made a number of mistakes, but this was to be expected at such an early point in the year. Only two defensive team members are playing the same positions that they did last season, so most of them are pretty inexperienced and unsure of what is going on at times. However, with time and experience the defense should be doing a really fine job. Offensively, the Broncos played fairly well, they were trying to concentrate more on experimenting with a number of new things rather than scoring, before the regular season begins.

Coach J. T. Hill feels that all of the boys profited a great deal from the experience they received against McCamey Friday, and that they will soon be able to come back and play very well, granted a little more time and experience.

SHS
The Junior Varsity also gained some experience against McCamey, the game ending in McCamey's favor; and the team will soon be fully prepared as they get into the fall season.

SHS
This Friday evening the Broncos will scrimmage in Iraan. The Junior Varsity game will begin at 6:00, followed by the Varsity. The fine turnout last weekend was very much appreciated by both the boys and the coaches of each team, and they hope that everyone will continue to show such avid support and confidence as they scrimmage in Iraan this Friday.

SHS
Class meetings were held early last week for the purpose of selecting class officers. In the past, four officers and a boy and girl representative to the student council have been elected from each class. However, this year the elections were done a little differently; only three officers were elected and all three will serve to represent their class on the Student Council.

Senior class officers for the 1973-74 school year are: President - David Wallace, Vice-President - Larry Cade, and Secretary-Treasurer - Cora Pope.

President of the Junior class is Lindsey Hicks, Vice-President - Juan Perez, and Secretary-Treasurer - Maggie Galbreath.

Sophomore class officers are President - LeRoy Chavarria, Vice-President - Frank Gallegos and Secretary-Treasurer - Martha Elliott.

The Freshman class chose Renee Rousselot to serve as President, Brenda Boyd as Vice-President, and Toni Mathews as Secretary-Treasurer.

BAND NEWS

Students have been going to school almost two weeks now. This limits band to one-a-day rehearsal. Nevertheless, after each meeting every member seems to have progressed.

We had our regular Monday night rehearsal and practiced marching and playing on the field. The rehearsal went well and everybody seemed to get some parts down in their mind.

Green News

By Monica DuRussel
HOT! HOT! HOT!
Golf games have been few and far between this week because of this horrible heat wave, but if we are to believe in weather profits and signs and predictions, cooler weather is just around the corner.....

Let's hope so, because this week-end is our annual Club Championship Tournament. Everyone get out and qualify any time this week up to six o'clock Saturday evening. Medalist qualify Saturday only.

There will be a Fried Chicken Supper after the tournament Sunday night..... Elections for new officers will take place after supper, so everyone try to be there.

Oh yes, ladies, please if you can, bring a salad for the supper.

YES, WE'RE STILL OPEN.....

And we wish to thank the many friends and patrons of the Commercial Restaurant for the 27 years of continued success.

It is deeply gratifying to us to learn of the great esteem Santos was held in by so many. He always strove to give his best to his community through his civic efforts and his business conduct. The Commercial Restaurant will continue, by remaining in the family, to uphold the standards set by him.

We sincerely wish to thank you for helping us in many, many ways.

Mrs. Jose Santos Lopez
Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Orren and family
Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Lopez
Jose Eliel Lopez

Twenty-seven years of success is due to hard work and pride.

Pride in my father's business and in Sonora brought us back. We will continue to work hard to retain the confidence that you have in the Commercial Restaurant. We look forward to becoming a part of the community.

Not Far From Main Street

Just for a minute, think about the local places you have loved... the old swimming hole, the town park, the walk by the river, the view from the hill—your church! Life would be so much less without them; yet we tend to take them for granted.

What a beautiful world God has created for us! How much He must love us to have given us shaded valleys and sparkling waters! He planned for us the constant variety of the changing seasons. For our enjoyment, He made trees and grasses, flowers and fruits. Before such miraculous inventiveness, science stands baffled and incredulous.

It is obvious that behind all creation there is a power greater than we, a power constantly concerned with man's development. In the church of your choice you will find the opportunity to give thanks for the gifts of creation. Here, too, you will learn to understand better the complexities of our world. You will find a faith that will sustain you throughout life.

Mosquito - Borne Encephalitis

The season for mosquito-borne encephalitis is here again. In those parts of Texas where rains are occurring, efforts to prevent mosquito breeding should receive high priority at this time.

As a precaution, suggested methods of control are listed below:

- 1) Destruction of larvae and elimination of mosquito breeding places.
- 2) Killing mosquitoes by residual spraying of human habitations.
- 3) Screening of sleeping and living quarters, or where not available, the use of mosquito nets.

- 4) Avoid exposure to mosquitoes during hours of biting, or use repellents.
- 5) Removal of water and old cans, etc.
- 6) Cutting weeds on vacant lots.
- 7) Care of garbage and trash cans.

WHAT'S A BIRTHDAY PARTY without the traditional cake and ice cream? Both of these young 94 year old ladies seemed to enjoy both when a party in the honor of Mrs. Lilly (Grandma) Merriman was held Saturday in observance of her birthday. Hosting the event was Mr. and Mrs. Tom Drennan, Grandma's son and daughter-in-law, with whom she lives. According to Mrs. Lottie Turney, who celebrated her birthday August 22, she and Grandma have been girl friends since the early 1900's at which time she states "Lilly was the 'belle of the ball', had more boy friends than she knew what to do with." Mrs. Turney had several members of her family on hand earlier in the week to help her celebrate the event of her birth. Born in 1880 in the old Fort McKavert, she claims the title of being Sonora's longest living citizen.

Labor Day September 3, 1973

Labor Day is a unique holiday, observed as a national holiday only in the United States. The day was established by national law as a salute to the working person, and to Americans the holiday heralds a change in life style as it usually marks the end of vacation season, the start of another school year, and a seasonal change. These words from The Living Bible refer to work.

"What does one really get from hard work? I have thought about this in connection with all the various kinds of work God has given to mankind. Everything is appropriate in its own time. But though God has planted eternity in the hearts of men, even so, man cannot see the whole scope of God's work from beginning to end. So I conclude that, first, there is nothing better for a man than to be happy and to enjoy himself as long as he can; and second, that he should eat and drink and enjoy the fruits of his labors, for these are gifts from God."

The man who works hard sleeps well whether he eats little or much, but the rich must worry and suffer insomnia.

A lazy man is brother to the saboteur. . . . Remember to observe the Sabbath as a holy day. Six days a week are for your daily duties and your regular work, but the seventh day is a day of Sabbath rest before the Lord your God."
