Eagles Upset Broncos For District 9A Title

The 1973 football season came to an end for the Sonora Broncos Friday as the Eldorado Eagles won the last district game 24-22. The Eagles will represent District 9-A in the play-offs.

The pattern seemed established for the game right from the beginning. Sonora received the opening kickoff, ran three plays and fumbled. The Eagles took over on the Sonora 25 but had to settle for a 26 yard field goal which gave them a 3-0 lead just 2 minutes 37 seconds into the first quarter.

Following the kick off the Broncos again had trouble holding the ball and the Eagles recovered another fumble but three plays later Johnny Gonzales intercepted an Eagle pass on the Eagle 43 yard line. The Broncos needed only 7 plays to cover the distance. David Wallace scored the TD from 10 yards out and Henry Mata kicked the PAT giving the Broncos a 7-3 lead with 3:42 left in the first quarter.

Early in the second quarter the Eagles drove 39 yards in 8 plays for their first TD and with the extra point had a 10-7 lead. The Broncos came right back with a 59 yard scoring drive using only 5 plays. Good gainers by Wallace and Mata set up the 5 yard scoring effort by Wallace. The extra point attempt failed but Sonora had a 13-10 lead.

Mata rounded out the first half scoring with a 35 yard field goal and Sonora led 16-10.

During most of the third quarter neither the Eagles nor the Broncos could keep their drives going. The Broncos covered an Eagle fumble but later gave up possession of the ball as an Eagle intercepted a Browne pass.

This interception set up a 75 yard scoring drive using 17 plays. With the extra point the Eagles had a 17-16 lead.

On their next possession the Broncos gave up the ball on downs on their own 38 yard line as a fourth down pass attempt failed. The Eagles needed only 7 plays to score and with the PAT led 24-16 with 8:04 left in the game.

With 1:13 left in the game Paul Browne passed to split end Larry Cade for a TD bringing the Broncos within two points of the Eagles. The two point attempt failed with the final score 24-22.

Japanese Textile Firm To Build $15 Million Cotton Mill In Texas

Development in 1971 when the 62nd Legislature created the special panel.

Among the topics assigned for study was the feasibility of textile manufacturing in Texas. The Committee not only said textile manufacturing was feasible but also encouraged any steps which would take greater advantage of the state's vast production of raw fibers.

Snelson was lauded by Briscoe for his work in winning over the new industry. Snelson attended the recent announcement ceremonies in the Governor's office at which Briscoe welcomed officials of the Japanese firm to Texas.

Japanese Textile Firm To Build $15 Million Cotton Mill In Texas

A favorable recommendation made by a committee which included Midland Senator Pete Snelson, has resulted in the announcement that a major Japanese textile firm will build a plant in Texas.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe made public recently the word that Daiwa Company Ltd. of Osaka, Japan, would begin soon the first phase of construction on a $15 million cotton spinning mill somewhere on the state's cotton rich South Plains.

Ultimately, Briscoe reported, the plant would be the most modern textile operation in the United States and Asia after an expansion to add weaving and finishing facilities. Snelson was named to the interim Committee To Study Natural Fibers and Textile temperatures running in the high 70's Saturday and Sunday but local locker plants owners report that more than average number of deer was brought in for storage.

The Broncos were defeated by a slight margin of 24 to 22 last Friday evening in a very close game against the Eldorado Eagles. It was evident throughout the game that both teams were prepared both mentally and physically and did a very fine job. The coaches are extremely proud of the manner in which the boys played and of their attitudes throughout the season.

Popular Annie Gets Styled At Juanita's Salon

If a girl travels a lot, she must pay more than average attention to her appearance. That's why Resusci-Anne, a literal sweetheart, sat contentedly still last week while a beautician at Juanita Gandar's Beauty Salon put the silken wave back into her shoulder-length blonde hair.

But contrary to the rule, there was little gossip between the hair stylist and Annie. As a matter of fact, there was none. Little Annie fixed a good, hard stare at the wall and remained mute.

It was expected. Resusci-Anne is always mute. She's deaf, too. Her only real asset, besides the blonde hair, is her ability to breathe.

Annie is the manquin who makes her headquarters at the American Heart Association at 11 East Concho Street in San Angelo. Mostly, though, she travels in a suitcase and is the life-size model for instruction in the lifesaving techniques of mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and closed chest heart massage.

Annie's slim figure (the plastic) has been admired from Carrizo Springs to Stamford and from Colorado City to Brady. She's on call anytime and in the past year has appeared before many groups, traveling hundreds of miles. She's quite in demand, too. She's accepted invitations from medical groups, hospitals for staff instruction and several schools and colleges.

During demonstrations, she often sighs--modestly. So, with such popularity, who could blame a girl for having her hair fixed in the latest?

Green News

By Monica DuRussel
Well, our Acapulcoites are back safe and sound, and quite victorious I might add. There was a Ladies Tournament as well as a Men's Tournament. Jo Neville and her partner won first place and Edwina Braden and her partner won third. Ken Braden was the big winner who with an eagle and some birds. His team of four men and playing low ball came in third; but Ken won a prize for being closest to the hole and also a prize for the most outstanding shot in the tournament. He had an eagle on a four par hole. . . . Golly! I wish I'd seen that.

Those lucky twelve attending from Sonora were Trouba and Gary Derrick, Gail and Tommy Dann, Sammie Espy, Poochie Olson, Jo and J. W. Neville, Edwina and Ken Braden, and Batts and Wilma Friend.

Of course, those of us who were not on the "Tour", stayed home to keep the home fires burning; and that wasn't really so bad as we did have beautiful spring like weather last week.

Our monthly luncheon was hosted last Wednesday by Carole Thorp, Bobbie Fawcett, and Nancy Allison. A scrumptious turkey dinner with all the trimmings was served to nineteen hungry diners. Our guests were Phil Bond, Char Collins and Ida Mae Powell of San Angelo, and Rosanne Albritton, who is a new golf member. Members of the auxiliary attending were Elaine Donaldson, Kay Cotten, Cathy Preston, Bobby Fawcett, Carole Thorp, Wanda Neville, Velma Hunt, Lucille McMillan, Ann Herrmann, Pauline Thompson, Betty Jo Cooper, Peggy Sharp, Marie Aldwell, and Monica DuRussel. Score of the month was won by Chicken McMillan. Our game for the day was Blind Partners on the first nine holes. We are also still playing on our Ringer Play.

Sonora Art Club Meets Monday

The Sonora Art Club met November 19. Members attending were Mmes. Estes Adams, Ida Bloodworth, J. D. Cook, Phillip Cooper, Wes Granger, Clifford Green, Carl Hard, Clyde Hill, Robert Mooney, Louis Powers, Roger Spencer, Sam Stewart, Travis Williamson, Calvin Van Hoozer, and Floyd Pierce. Guest was Mrs. Tommie Williamson from Decatur. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Roger Spencer and Mrs. Sam Stewart. * * * * * If you live by high principles, you won't have to tell anyone.

ECHOES OF HISTORY

From all over the world people come to visit her at Plymouth Harbor. They speak in many tongues, but their tone of amazement is always the same. How did the Pilgrims do it? How did over 100 men, women and children exist in those cramped quarters and that 67-day voyage across the vast and treacherous Atlantic?

A replica of Mayflower I, this small craft required a feat of seamanship even in these modern times, when she sailed across the seas to Plymouth. But she is also sturdy and her decks echo with history.

How did the Pilgrims do it? They had an overwhelming goal, great courage and most important of all, tremendous faith. They lived to offer thanksgiving—but as human and frail and frightened as any of us.

A strong faith can be found in your church today. Consider it, won't you?

Scout Pack 19 Holds Meeting

by Rev. Ray Nations
Cub Scout Pack 19 held an organizational meeting in St. John's Episcopal Church Parish Hall November 15. There was exceptionally good turnout for this meeting and Mr. Jack F. Moore, Boy Scout executive of San Angelo presented the cub scout program to parents and boys.

As a result of that meeting the scout pack has formed four dens and should be back in full swing soon. Most of the credit for the new enthusiasm must be given to the mothers who have volunteered as den mothers. The dens, den mothers and meeting places and time are listed in order that those boys who did not make the meeting can know who to contact and where to come to fit into the cub scout program.

Den 1--den mother, Mrs. Lois Dean; Mrs. Marion Chapman, assistant, meeting; 2:30 p. m. Thursday in the Parish Hall.

Den 2--Mrs. Barbara Jennings, den mother; Mrs. Sue Butterfield, assistant, meeting at 2:30 p. m. Thursday at the Jennings home.

Den 3--Mrs. Carolyn Sorenson, den mother; Mrs. Gene West, assistant. Meeting at 6 p. m. Tuesday in the parish hall.

Den 4--Mrs. Olivia Hernandez, den mother; Mrs. Becky Garrett, assistant. Meeting at 4:30 p. m. Wednesday in the parish hall.

St. John's Episcopal Church is now the sponsor of the cub scout pack and Mr. John Bell is the institutional representative. If anyone would like to have additional information regarding cub scout activities in Sonora, please contact the Rev. Ray Nations, Rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, who is the cub pack master.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor's Note: The following is a letter received at the office of the mayor, Mr. Norm Rousselot, from a Woodstown, New Jersey man, after making an emergency stop in Sonora.

Dear Sir:
On August 18, while we were travelling, our little girl, Debra, became rather ill with an ear infection. It was late on a Saturday afternoon when we stopped at the Hudspeth Memorial Hospital. The nurses, aides, and office people were most helpful. They called in your good doctor, and he, in turn, got the pharmacy re-opened to fill prescriptions.

We couldn't have gotten kinder, better treatment if we had been native-bom Sonorans. All that special treatment could have been expensive, too, but it wasn't. Many thanks to the fine people of your town. You can be very proud.

If there is a local paper that would publicly thank them by publishing this letter, I would appreciate that too.

Sincerely,
B. W. Munford

CONSUMER CORNER

by Paul W. Thurston
Consumers who stayed at home this year knew what was happening to their dollar. But those who vacationed overseas had their own woes. The dollar spent overseas just didn't go as far as it used to, and that old kindly gesture of foreign merchants giving 10 percent off for American cash has vanished from the face of the earth.

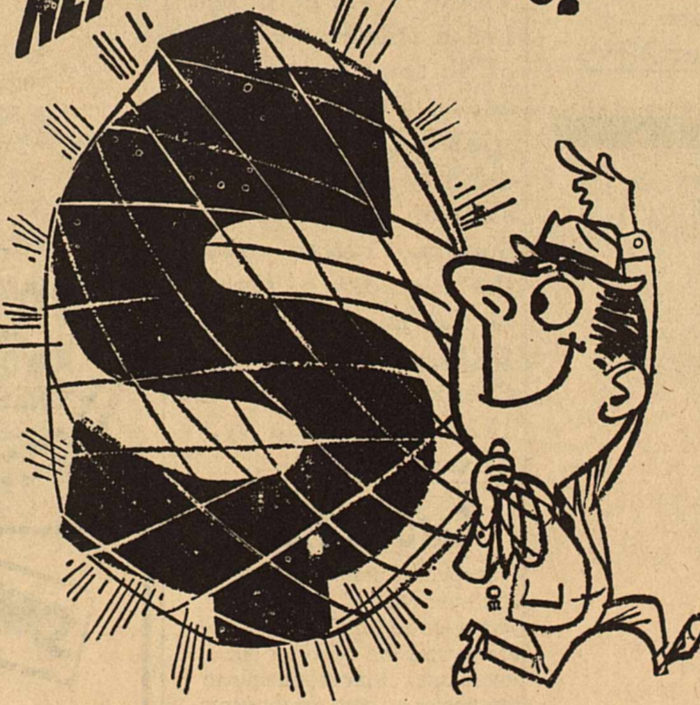

But Americans in the tourist industry here have a real reason for joy. With the change in the value of the dollar in the international market, foreign visitors are now looking to the United States as a bargain trip. America is in the habit of sending some 2.5 million of its citizens off to see the world annually. Now travel authorities report that Japan currently is sending 2.5 million of her citizens on foreign vacations-an astounding fact considering that she has only half the population of the United States.

More important to the U.S. economy is that Japan is now the top source of visitors to our shores, leading every other country in the world. And they are spending freely as they tour throughout the U.S. A vast amount of "made in USA" merchandise is finding its way into Japanese luggage to be borne happily back to Japan. All this tourism does its part in strengthening the dollar, our trading position and the economy in general here at home.

Japanese businessmen, too, are keeping a keen eye out for many American electronic components which will be sent back to Japan and incorporated into various products to be marketed there and abroad. Every market for American-made materials and services is a good market, and our Tokyo guests are providing just that.

Campaign Shows Increased Results

Increases in immunization of youngsters against childhood diseases ranging up to 32 percent for one disease have been recorded in Texas as a result of a month-long campaign in October, it was reported today by Howard D. McMahan of Dallas, regional director for the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

"But, although the campaign is over, we still must encourage parents of young children in our five-state area to see that their children are immunized against such diseases as rubella, measles, polio, diphtheria, tetanus and pertussis (whooping cough)," McMahan warned. "There is somewhat of a problem because parents don't worry too much about these diseases as a result of the vaccines that have all but eliminated them from the list of common childhood problems, McMahan continued.

Congratulating Texas, McMahan said, Preliminary reports indicate total doses administered during October hit 331, 151, an increase over last October of 32 percent in the five states of Texas, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and New Mexico. Conducted through state and local health departments, immunizations in Texas totaled 23, 800 for rubella (up 20 percent); 22, 200 for measles (up 27 percent); and 94, 470 for polio (up 32 percent).

Figures for the campaign in the five-state region were up 32 percent, with a total of 331, 151 doses administered.

The Consumer Alert

by John L. Hill
Attorney General

Usually, when a new scheme for taking advantage of people who have managed to put away a few hard-earned dollars comes on the horizon, it is short-lived. Some of these schemes are referred to commonly as "con" games, because the originators or practitioners are "confidence men" who have the type of personality or spiel to gain the average person's trust, and convince that person that he stands a chance to "get rich quick."

But the consumer's confidence threshold drops to zero as soon as he or she begins to suspect that not only is there no pot of gold at the end of the "con man's" rainbow, but the savings invested in a fraudulent investment program are endangered.

As soon as the dream dust evaporates, the deluded consumers begin to complain, and about the time that they do, the purveyors of dreams begin to disappear, along with the money they have taken.

The Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division staff often has observed that just about the time a rash of complaints springs up about one deceptive practice, the operators have begun to pack up to ply their game in another state. Or, they may turn up later as the objects of another type of complaint.

That is the reason, as we have stated previously, that we are working for coordination of consumer protection efforts between Texas and other states and Texas and the federal government—to put dishonest operators out of business entirely. Obviously, Texas consumers who had been lured into deceptive commodities futures options schemes had reached their saturation point by the end of August.

They have complained of losing large sums of money from purported purchases of "options" on commodities such as silver, grain and other items important to international trade. The hitch was that the self-styled dealers did not have any claim to or control of the option they were offering.

When this problem came to the specific attention of our office, the Attorney General's staff immediately started working on this problem with the State Securities Board. On September 13, we issued a joint declaration that commodities futures options are securities, and therefore must be licensed and regulated by the State.

I appointed a special investigatory task force headed by Joe K. Longley, chief of my Consumer Protection Division, and Bill Flannery, as assistant attorney general who has specialized in securities cases. Their work and efforts by other state, local and federal enforcement groups led Dallas District Judge Dee Brown Walker to convene a court of inquiry on the commodities options business, now in progress.

In the meantime, two other Dallas trial courts have upheld our declaration that commodities futures options are securities subject to regulation, but an Austin court has decided to the contrary.

Our efforts are aimed at protecting Texans from commodities options offers which are misleading; some of which may be deceptive to a criminal degree.

There are legitimate futures contracts in the commodities field being offered through members of the Chicago Board of Trade and members of stock exchanges who engage in a highly sophisticated level of accounting in international trade.

These regulated brokers would be quick to caution you against banking all your assets on the hope of "getting rich quick" in a speculative market. Beware of anyone who tries to sell you on "a sure thing."
