Plans Finalized For Local Doctor's Clinic

Plans for a doctor's clinic were finalized Monday night when members of the Lillian M. Hudspeth Hospital Board met with representatives of D & M Company of Del Rio to accept their low bid of $88,870 for completion of the project. The clinic will be erected on hospital owned property located adjacent to the hospital grounds. The high bid for construction was $100,157.

The 3,700 square foot building will have a brick exterior, much like that of the hospital, and will house two separate units. Each unit will consist of a waiting room, nurses station, business office, consultation room, three examining rooms, rest rooms, storage and laboratory. An X-ray room will adjoin the units and will be shared by both offices.

Dr. Charles F. Browne, local physician, has leased one of the units after selling his office property located on Concho Street, to the Sonora Independent School District. The school plans to use the building for administrative and tax offices.

It is hoped by the hospital board that the new clinic will help in attracting another doctor.

The board has announced that they are in the process of getting the building contract signed and state that as soon as this legality is finalized, completion date will be 120 days.

Board members on the building committee are Doyle Morgan, Herbert Fields and Dr. Browne.

Will Your Child Be Hungry In 1985?

[Editor's note: This is the third part of a newsletter for the Independent Cattlemen's Association, written by Mrs. Jean Thompson. Last week's portion ended with the examination theory of how our food production chain works.]

It is somewhat startling to hear the theoretical environmentalists spouting rhetoric as though the environment had just been discovered. Apparently, some of them didn't know it was here until they found it in a book. Let's hope and pray these ardent people "discover" food because there is often a wide chasm between theoretical facts and practical facts. Legislation and bureaucratic decrees based on theories which have not been proved in practice are extremely dangerous to America's food supplies and costly to the consumers.

For example of this, consider the furor raised over the possibility of the coyote becoming extinct. Had he been asked, the most illiterate old sheep herder could have told anybody the possibility of rats becoming extinct in the cities was more probable than the wily coyote disappearing from the open range. And, doubtless, he would have posed some most logical questions about body lice, cockroaches, and malaria-carrying mosquitos being part of the ecology, too. The sensational emotionalism generated around the coyote completely obscured practical considerations and bureaucratic controls were instituted to protect the coyote. Fifty years of predator control work were wiped out. The coyotes are so prolific and destructive that now, three years later, there are 92 separate studies in progress trying to find some way to keep them from overcoming the west. Packs of coyotes are voraciously consuming food needed for hungry children and have cost the consumers hundreds of millions of dollars in red meat. It would, indeed, be interesting to know what the total cost to the consumers has been for this one bureaucratic blunder.

For, of course American consumers have to pay at least twice for each and every bureaucratic control. Once in taxes for government personnel to implement and enforce it and then again in costs added to those of production. When a bureaucratic intervention is based on misinformation or faulty theory, we have to pay a third time for the efforts to rectify the mistake. When famine is stalking the world, bureaucratic mistakes disrupting food production can well cost the consumer a much dearer price in the future...one most Americans have never known...hunger.

Isn't it time for consumers to stand up and demand that all bureaucratic interference and legislation affecting food be proven out in practice on government land and the total cost of each one be made known to the American public before it is imposed on our food production, processing or distribution system? How much longer can we afford these costly bureaucratic blunders jeopardizing the basic essential of life?

The Federal government owns almost 1/3 of all land in the United States. Surely that is sufficient ground on which to prove out any and all theories or ideas which can be generated by busy brains with idle hands. The public will learn much about bureaucratic capability to manage land by studying what has been done in the past thirty years with this government owned land. Let the American people compare what this land has produced in food and dollar value to the economy with what privately owned land has produced, the management of it in terms of conservation and environmental protection before any disruption of the nation's food supply is made with anymore unproved bureaucratic interference.

It is natural for some politicians to be more concerned with pleasing the majority of voters before next election than they are with how that vast majority is going to eat ten years from now. This is the sad part of democracy that led us into this energy disaster. This situation was plainly discernible from facts available ten years ago and if corrective measures had been taken, this catastrophe could have been averted, but what politician is willing to present such unpleasantness to the voters. Now we are paying the price for this shortsightedness. We have had a bitter lesson on what foreign governments will do when we are dependent on them for oil. How will we fare if we become dependent on them for food?

Producer Survival To Be Discussed At Animal Agriculture Conference

Producers who feel that they are backed to the wall by deepening profit losses will want to consider enrolling for the second annual Texas Animal Agriculture Conference April 10 and 11, at Texas A&M University.

"If you are concerned about the price of cattle, the cost of feed and fertilizer, the availability and cost of operating capital or the effects that the world economy may have upon your operation, you may obtain the most current information in these areas at the Animal Agriculture Conference," says Clint Langford, county agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Sessions will be in the J. Earl Rudder Center.

"This conference is literally a survival course," he adds, "because the situation is so serious that the fine points of understanding and latest technical background can determine who may survive."

The 1975 Animal Agriculture Conference will include general sessions each morning, directed to the price outlook for livestock and grain, along with factors that affect our world monetary situation and outlook. Another feature will be a panel of financial experts, who will discuss various outlooks for farm and ranch credit in the months ahead.

Besides the general sessions, separate short courses are planned each day for beef cattle, dairy, horses, swine and pastures and forage. Range and wildlife discussions will be keyed to the beef cattle program.

There are many organizations that represent cattlemen today, Langford says. Six organization viewpoints will be presented by a panel, to be moderated by Dr. L. S. Pope, associate dean of agriculture at A&M.

Teen Scene

By Linda Behrens

Chip Savell did a terrific job this past weekend in Brady while competing in the mile run. Savell set a new school record with a time of 4:48.4. The old record was set in 1961 by Joe Garcia. Chip seems to be the star of the week at SHS.

Cheerleader tryouts for the 1975-76 school year were held Tuesday during 6th period. At the time of this writing the results are not known.

Laura Gibbs walked away from the Iran tennis tournament carrying a racket in one hand and a first place trophy in the other. Laura plays singles and no telling how far she might go, according to tennis coach Pam Bass. Only time can tell about Laura, but then time is not always sure about Laura. Keep up the good work!

Debbie Howard and Sheila Alexander teamed up to go to the semi-finals before losing to a Sanderson team. But watch for that team, they are ready for a win now!

Tuesday was quite a day for the seniors of '75 as graduation invitations were distributed. The time is almost up for this class before each student sets out to achieve his or her personal goal. It seems to remind me of a huge merry-go-round with all students along the ride...but the brakes are slowing down and the games are almost over for the class of '75. It's time for the seniors to step off. But as we step down there is that sick and dizzy feeling to cope with of leaving something you like. Let's not forget the parents who have stood as that merry-go-round was going at full blast...helping whenever possible...and fully realizing their little ones are not as little as they thought, or maybe as little as they think they should be.

Starting the spotlight for this week is RHONDA HOOPER, a junior from Odessa who really enjoys living in Sonora. Her favorite class is sociology, and her hobbies include riding around and being outdoors. After graduation she plans to attend college somewhere but that is too far in the future. Rhonda also finds time to "munch" on food, she enjoys all kinds she adds.

DEBBIE CROWNOVER, a sophomore attending SHS, thinks that Sonora is just ok, that's all. Debbie moved here from Louisiana. Blue is her favorite color and steak is her favorite food. She enjoys all kinds of sports and loves to just goof around. Someday she plans to attend college.

A junior named MELINDA MURFF moved to Sonora last week and already feels right at home. Sourlake is where she moved from. Melinda loves horses and someday hopes to join the professional rodeo circuit. This summer she plans to move to Stephenville and work.

That's all for this week...to be continued.

Green News

A scotch foursome was held Sunday, March 23 with the team of John Cotten, Michael Fernandez, Bill Mayfield, Cul-len Luttrell, and Ann Herrmann, placing first.

In second place was Lonnie Taylor, Harold Martinez, Hillman Brown, Pete Thompson, and Elaine Donaldson. Third place team was composed of Johnnie Howard, Harvey Du Russel, Mike Sipes, Lee Patrick and Monica DuRussel.

There are some big tournaments planned for April...Hope everyone will participate. Those interested should come out and see the additions that are being made on the clubhouse. It won't be long until it's bigger and better.

Triumphant Hour

She stood crying by an empty tomb. The beauties of the morn meant nothing to her, for He, who had given meaning to her life, had died on Calvary. Weeping, she turned, "tell me where thou hast laid him..."

"Mary." By one single word joy was reborn. "Master!" she said, and knew her Lord lived.

Now, the tumultuous triumph of that hour rang across the centuries and swelled within me! The Lord is risen.

Come join the mighty chorus. Attend your church - learn the joyous promise of God's love.

Telephone People Know All They Need To Know About Human Nature

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitter-weet ranch on the Dry Devil's River expresses admiration for the telephone people this week, more or less.

Dear editor:
While I've never been able to get a telephone I could call somebody else on but nobody could call me on -- something I have long desired -- I believe that if the telephone people set their minds to it they might develop such an instrument.

The reason I say this is because of an article I read in the news last week showing how smart the telephone people are. As I understand it, they have succeeded in reducing the rate on long distance calls and getting more money for them all at the same time.

Under a new rate schedule allowed by the Federal Communications Commission, the Bell system has announced that a call can now be dialed from coast to coast for as little as 22 cents.

Obviously that's a bargain. Where else in the world could we get somebody to string a wire from Sonora to New York City and let you talk over it for 22 cents?

Of course there are some restrictions on this. You can talk for 22 cents all right, but for only one minute. Talk longer than 60 seconds and the rate goes up immediately. If cattlemen and car manufacturers were as smart as telephone people they wouldn't be losing money today. How many men are there--we won't count women, everybody knows the answer there--in the United States who can limit a long distance call to one minute? Gary Cooper is the only one I can think of and he's not here anymore.

The way it looks to me, this one minute for 22 cents deal is like selling an ice cream cone to a kid for a penny for the first lick, but charging 24 cents more if he eats the rest of it. I take my hat off to the telephone people. They know something about human nature, not to mention finance.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

CORN — SWEET GOODNESS!

Corn does take up more room than other vegetables, but if you can spare the room you'll have wonderful eating later.

Corn grows tall — 4 to 6 feet — so plant it where it will not shade the rest of the vegetables.

To obtain pollination, corn must be planted 3 to 4 rows deep. The pollen blows from plant to plant. Sow seeds as soon as the ground is warm and there is little chance of frost. Most varieties take almost 3 months to mature.

Sow seeds in rows about 2½ ft. apart, spacing the seeds 3 to 4 inches apart. After plants emerge, thin the rows so that the plants are about 6-8 inches apart.

Plant all rows of same variety as sweet corn sometimes loses its sweetness if pollinated by another variety.

Sweet corn will also lose its sweetness rapidly after picking. An old farmers trick—have the water boiling when you go out to pick the corn. Just taste it now can't you.

Metallic Buildings multiply space quickly!

Think about expanding before you build. Add-on costs are usually high because of all the time necessary to rip out and change the old building construction to accommodate the new. Not so with a Metallic pre-engineered building system. You simply take off the end or side panels and add as far in any direction you need to go. And usually, you can re-use those panels you just took off. Simple. Quick. Ask us. We can help. (512) 775-4000

REDDY'S REFRIGERATOR SAVINGS TIPS

Don't open refrigerator door unnecessarily. Plan your trips to the refrigerator while cooking. Make sure the children maintain a closed-door policy.

Buy the size that fits your needs. An over-large refrigerator or freezer wastes space as well as electricity.

Clean external coils, fins and motor often and keep them free from dust.

Defrost your refrigerator and freezer before ice deposit exceeds ¼ inch. Excess ice causes your refrigerator to work harder.

Cleaning

- Inside of cabinet:
- Should be cleaned twice a month
 - dispose of forgotten foods
 - clean up spillovers
 - eliminate "off" odors that transfer flavors
 - Use warm water and baking soda solution. (1 teaspoon soda to 1 quart water). Rinse in clear water and dry.

REMEMBER, REDDY SUPPLIES THE ENERGY... BUT ONLY YOU CAN USE IT WISELY!

Barbara Earwood Receives Award For "Dad's Boots"

"Dad's Boots", a watercolor painting by Barbara Earwood, received the Painting of the Month award at a recent meeting of the San Angelo Art Club. The original painting, which has been on display at the First National Bank, will be shown at the Central National Bank of San Angelo. The painting depicts a pair of boots worn by Mrs. Earwood's husband during their courting days.

Mrs. Earwood and Mrs. Maxine Browne showed slides and snapshots of their February attendance at the showing of paintings by John Pike at Prichard's Gallery in San Antonio, as the program for the San Angelo meeting. Vernell Leach and George Maxwell, both of San Angelo, assisted with the program.

Slides and snapshots used in the program included the method and progress of the demonstration of a Latin flower market scene with a church in the background. This painting was purchased by Mrs. Earwood and was shown by her to club members.

All of the above mentioned speakers are members of the newly organized San Antonio Watercolor Group. This group will attend a workshop in San Antonio in April where Millard Sheets of California will preside. Both Mrs. Browne and Mrs. Earwood plan to attend.

Post Office Taking Applications For Postal Clerk

Applications are now being accepted, and examinations will be given to establish a register of eligibles from which future clerk and carrier vacancies in the local Post Office will be filled. All interested persons who met the requirements described in this announcement are urged to apply.

No experience is required. All applicants will be required to take a written examination designed to test aptitude for learning and performing the duties of the position. The test will consist of four parts: address checking, memory for addresses, general abilities (word meaning and reading), and number series. The test and completion of the forms will require approximately 3 hours. Competitors will be rated on a scale of 100. They must score at least 70 on the examination as a whole.

Clerks work indoors and have to handle mail sacks weighing as much as 70 pounds. They sort mail and distribute it by using a complicated scheme which must be memorized. Some clerks work at a public counter or window doing such jobs as selling stamps and weighing parcels and are personally responsible for all money and stamps. A clerk may be on his feet all day. He has to stretch, reach and throw mail. Assignments to preferred positions such as window clerks, typist and stenographic positions, etc., are filled by open bid and reassignment of the senior qualified clerk.

Carriers have to collect and deliver mail. Some carriers walk, others drive. They must be out in all kinds of weather. Almost all carriers have to carry mail bags on their shoulders and sometimes have to load and unload sacks of mail weighing as much as 70 pounds.

The duties of newly appointed clerks and carriers are at times interchangeable. As representatives of the postal service, they must maintain pleasant and effective public relations with patrons and others, requiring a general familiarity with postal laws, regulations and procedures commonly used.

Employees must be assigned to work in places exposed to public view and their appearance influences the general public's confidence and attitude toward the service. Employees appointed under this standard are therefore expected to maintain neat and proper personal attire and grooming appropriate to conducting public business, including the wearing of a uniform when required.

All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, religion, color, national origin, sex, political affiliations or any other non-merit factor.

Applicants must be physically able to perform the duties described elsewhere in this announcement. Any physical condition which would cause the applicant to be a hazard to himself or to others will be disqualifying for appointments. A physical examination will be required before appointment.

The general age requirement is 18 years or 16 years for high school graduates, except for those whom age limits are waived. All applicants must be citizens of or owe allegiance to the United States of America or have been accorded permanent resident alien status in the United States.

Starting salary is $5.25 per hour with increases to $6.45. Employees will be paid 10 percent extra for work performed between 6 p.m. and 6 a.m.

Consideration to fill these positions will be made of the highest eligibles on the register who are available. Submit application Form 2479-AB to the postmaster March 24 thru April 2. Applicants will be notified of date, time, and place of examination and will be sent sample questions.

KNOW YOUR TARGET!

As the saying goes, "know your target before shooting" would have paid off if it had been followed by two wolf hunters in Cherokee County. They were hunting wolves at night off a public road when they spotted what they thought were wolf eyes. They fired one time with a .243 rifle and hit their target which happened to be a boy scout who was camped out in the woods with his troop and adult leader. The shot shattered the leg bone of the youngster and bone fragments from the leg wounded two other scouts standing nearby.

Looking Back ... By Sonora Motor Company

SIDE BY SIDE ON Main Street stood the Maud "S" Saloon and the Ranch Saloon, for many years landmarks in Sonora. The reason for the crowd gathered around the Sonora Stage is not known. The Maud "S" was named for a famous race horse.
