MY FRIEND JACKIE.....

For the second time in just a few years, Ye Editor has lost a very close, personal friend.

First it was Dr. Lee Spring. Then this past week, Jackie Morgan. Each time, we were honored to serve our friend as pallbearer.

Although it's always tough to lose a close friend, this one was made harder by the fact that Jackie was a few years younger than Ye Ed, and had always been in top shape, health-wise.

Those who attended Jackie's services had to be moved by the number of people who came to pay tribute. It was mind-boggling how someone could have touched so many lives, in a relatively short time. The number of young people at his funeral was a testimony to the fact that Jackie loved young people. They were his life.

He always had a story about someone, even after they were grown and perhaps moved away. I can recall him saying things like "I had so-and-so in seventh grade football. You should have seen him then." He liked to keep up with what the kids were doing, after they had graduated, or moved on.

We first knew Jackie from his junior high coaching. Then later, our oldest two children both had driver's education under him when he moved up to high school. He was always a regular visitor to our office on Fridays, to turn in his football contest entry, and check on his standings.

That was our first realization of how well he kept track of things, and about his zeal to do the best in whatever it was he was doing. Jackie won a lot of checks on our contests down through the years, and he and his wife Dianne had each won the grand prize once.

The contest has always been a family affair with the Morgans, as it is with many others. With son Charlie, they never missed a week, and we'll always recall the time that they placed first, second and third on a weekly contest. We got a picture of the three of them with their prizes. To our knowledge, that never happened before or since.

Jackie kept a notebook with every team's schedule, and their scores as the season progressed. The Friona coaches (and anyone else who wanted to enter) had their own version of the contest, and our friend also had a stellar record in that one.

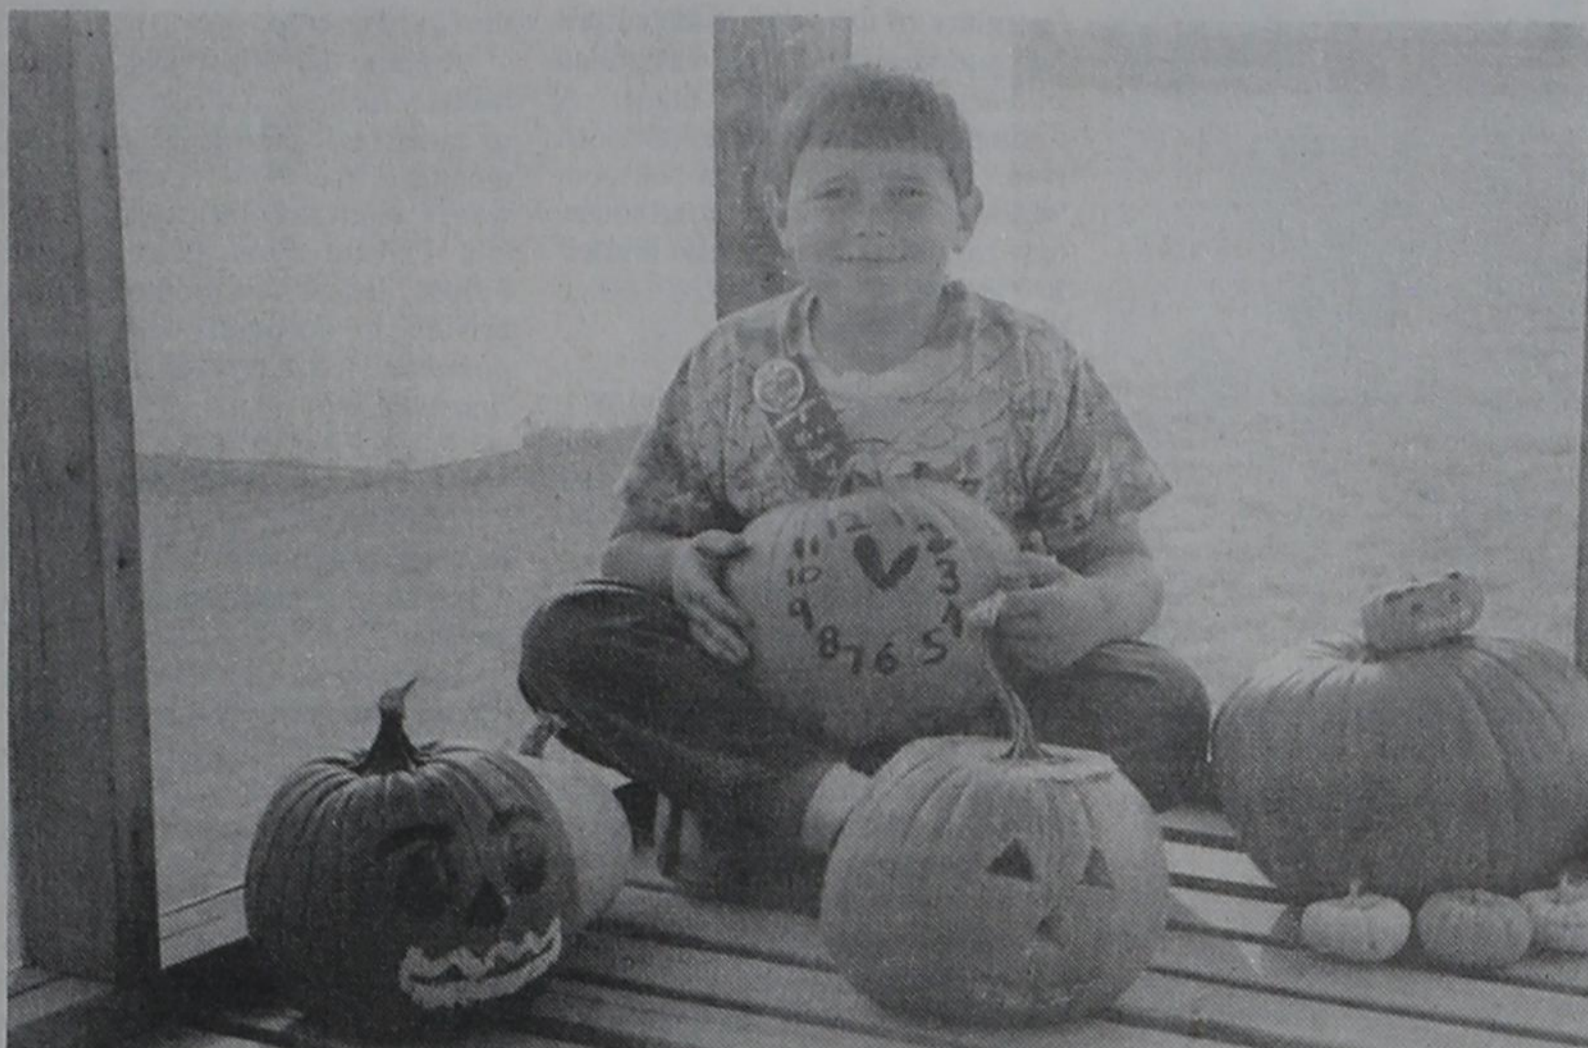

Everyone who was close to Jackie is aware of how the man loved to eat. Jackie and I had become travelling companions to out-of-town games for the past ten years or so. For both of us, the anticipation of the week's game was made even more exciting in planning where we would have our "pre-game meal." Except that over the years, we had developed our favorite places in each town, so that the site was usually no secret.

Mexican food was his favorite. Friona Superintendent Hal Ratcliff likes to tell about the time he and Jackie were at Tullia's El Camino Restaurant, which has a "dinner for two" on the menu. When the waitress came to take their orders, Jackie spoke up and ordered the dinner for two. The waitress started off, and Jackie stopped her, saying "Aren't you going to take my friend's order?"

We've often called Jackie the number one fan of the Dallas Cowboys. He, Dianne and Charlie (or just the two guys) had a tradition of going to Dallas' Thanksgiving Day games. He could tell you about the time Dallas staged its fantastic rally to beat the Redskins on a come-from-behind, as well as the famous "Clint Longley" game, when the unknown backup Cowboy QB came in for an injured Roger Staubach, and paced the win (that one also against Washington, if memory serves).

No one suffered more when the Cowboys lost, or felt better when they won.

The fact that Jackie enjoyed life

Day Care Is Now Enrolling Students

The "Kid Korral," the new day care center in Bovina, operated by Tracy Smith, is now taking applications for enrollment. Mrs. Smith has the provisional licensing to take care of twelve children, primarily between the ages of three and five years old with some space for infants and toddlers.

The "Kid Korral" is located at 804 Boyce, the former Woman's Study Club building and the phone number is 238-9920. If you wish to fill out an application to have your child enrolled in the day care, you may call Tracy at this number or her home number, 238-9929. Call soon, since enrollment is limited to twelve children.

The day care center will have flexible, daytime hours.

Also, Tracy will be at the Kid Korral at 804 Boyce on Halloween night handing out candy to the kids. This will give parents an opportunity to come and see the facility and if they wish, to fill out an application for enrollment at this time.

Tracy has done a lot of work painting and fixing-up the building and getting it "kid-ready." This day care facility should be an asset to the Bovina community.

Tracy and her husband Keith have one daughter, Elisa, who is five years old and in kindergarten. Tracy was previously employed in Clovis as a pharmacy technician at Family Pharmacy.

Ellice Martinez Wins Weekly Grid Contest

Ellice Martinez was the weekly winner in this eighth week of the Bovina Blade Football Contest.

Eight persons correctly picked 10 out of 14 contest games. The tie-breakers were what determined the winners this week.

Ellice won by the tie-breaker. She predicted Dallas to win over Arizona 24-21, missing the actual score by only four points. The games she missed were Shallowater - Littlefield; Utah - Colorado State; Pittsburgh - New York Giants; and Denver - San Diego.

Darren Hromas came in second place by missing the tie-breaker by eight points, predicting Dallas to win over Arizona 25-16.

There was a three-way tie for third place. Doug Johnson, Andy Stormes, and Susan Kerby all missed the actual Dallas - Arizona score by 11 points.

Others who correctly picked 10 out of 14 games were Matt Hromas, Kay Roach, and Gilda Garner.

Twelve people correctly picked nine games out of a possible 14; ten people picked eight correct games; and 18 picked seven games.

Jerry Roach moved up to the lead this week with an overall score of 77. Jeanne Kerby and Susan Kerby are one point behind him with 76 points each.

Contestants are vying for the grand prize of $100 to be awarded at the close of the event.

Complete standings, as well as another weekly contest, may be found elsewhere in this issue of the Blade.

CONTEST WINNER...Ellice Martinez was the winner of this week's football contest. She is shown here accepting her $10 check from Johnny Martinez, (her husband!) of Charles Oil and Gas Company, a sponsor in the Blade's Football Contest.

Everyone is invited to the bake sale and your support toward this project is appreciated.

"The coffee pot will be on by 9 a.m. Folks are urged to come as early as they wish, and stay as late as you want to. Lunch will be catered at noon," said Lois Billingsley, one of the coordinators.

"Please let us know if you will be here for lunch so we can let the catering service know how many to prepare for. The cost will be approximately $7 per plate," Mrs. Billingsley added.

You may call her at 825-3411, or Harold and Avis Carpenter at 825-2176.

"We'd like to hear from all former residents, even if they can't attend, so we can keep our address list current," the spokesman concluded. "We hope to see everyone on Friday, November 25."

Early Voting Underway; Local Dates Announced

Early voting for the November 8 general election began at the County Clerk's office in Farwell, and will continue through November 4.

Voters in Bovina and Friona will have two special days to cast their votes early at a local booth.

The clerk's office will have a representative at the Bovina City Hall on Tuesday, October 25 and Tuesday, November 1.

The special booth will be in Friona at the Credit Union on Thursday, October 27 and Thursday, November 3.

Voters are urged to cast their ballots at these special times. No excuse is needed for casting your vote early. It just guarantees that you will have voted, in case you're not able to do so on election day.

Those voting early may want to drop by the newspaper office and get a voter's guide. They will be in the papers the week of November 29, so if you need one before then, just drop by.

Bovina Junior Varsity Trips Morton Tribe With 22-8 Score

The JV put together another good game Thursday night in defeating the Morton Indians 22-8. The game started out as a defensive struggle with neither team scoring in the first quarter. Morton was pretty much stopping every play we ran and intercepted two of our passes. With about two minutes to go in the first half, we finally got a drive going, but time was winding down. We called time out and in the huddle on the sidelines Tony Beauchamp offered a good idea, the "hitch and pitch." We had not used that play in a month, but it worked perfectly with Luke Steelman catching a short pass and pitching the ball to Albert Larrea who ran untouched for a 40-yard touchdown. Morton came out for the second half blazing and scored on their first possession to take an 8-7 lead. But these JV Mustangs decided that their final home game would be a victory.

We scored 15 unanswered points to take the game to 22-8. Santiago Serna made his rushing debut with 10 yards on four carries. "This is a smart group of boys and I used many of their suggestions this game. Their ideas accounted for two of our three touchdowns," said coach Bruce Beets.

Reflections

...from the files of The Bovina Blade

35 Yrs. Ago--Nov. 4, 1959
A grain truck driver miraculously escaped serious injury last Tuesday night when his vehicle ran off a rural road and overturned in a milo field.

What would have been the "burglary of the year" if the culprit had gotten away with it was pulled in Farwell Wednesday night. A daring (and drunk) Latin American from Amarillo bashed a restroom window in the county courthouse, crawled through, and helped himself to a looting of every official's office on the first floor.

30 Yrs. Ago--Oct. 28, 1964
A new winner came to the front in last week's Bovina Businesses Cotton Bowl Football Contest. Darrel Read took the $5 first prize.

Mrs. Jeanne Kerby will join the Blade as a newswriter at the end of this week.

An election night party has been slated by Young Democrats of Parmer and Bailey County Electric Co-op in Muleshoe and will begin when the polls close at 7.

25 Yrs. Ago--Oct. 29, 1969
Rev. Charles McCause is the new pastor of Pentecostal Holiness Church in Bovina. He and his family moved here Saturday from Guymon, Oklahoma.

Nearly four inches of rain have drenched the Bovina area within the past week, completely paralyzing farming operations. It came at the peak of harvest season, one of the most important times of the year, agriculture-wise.

Burglary of the office of Justice of the Peace Wilbur Charles is under investigation by county and city law enforcement officers.

20 Yrs. Ago--Oct. 30, 1974
Nearly four inches of rain, accompanied by hail, fog and chilly temperatures, have drenched the Bovina area within the last week, completely paralyzing farming operations. It came at the peak of the corn harvest and practically before farmers could harvest any of the '74 milo crop.

Among the 150 New Mexico Military Institute students promoted in cadet rank during the first two months of the 1974-75 school year were Cadet Corporal Bryan Fillpot and Private First Class Bruce Fillpot. Bryan was promoted from private to corporal with Bruce promoted from private to private first class.

15 Yrs. Ago--Nov. 5, 1984
The first taste of winter hit the Bovina area when a cold front triggered first thundershowers and a snowfall.

The City of Bovina announced recently the hiring of a new Deputy Marshal, Paul Hughes, 22, who began working this week.

Margarita Espinoza's mother, Mrs. Blasa Reyes, 62, was killed in a two car accident near Kermit.

Darlene Caldwell won first place in the eighth week of the Bovina Businesses Football Contest.

JPs Attend Course

Justices of the Peace from Parmer County are attending a seminar hosted by the Texas Justice Court Training Center at Amarillo's Holiday Inn Civic Center.

Attending are Frances Euler of Friona, Vi Hutto of Bovina and Louise Hancock of Farwell.

The event is an educational endeavor of the Justices of the Peace and Constables Assn. of Texas, Inc.

10 Yrs. Ago--Nov. 7, 1984
Burglaries committed at the Bovina Supermarket amounted to $1,200 in damages as burglars looked for valuables.

Dorothy Harris was the first place winner in the football contest. Residents were casting votes for the presidential election at the Legion Hall this week.

Concerned citizens met this week to discuss ways to prevent further problems with break-ins.

5 Yrs. Ago--Nov. 1, 1989
Sometime Friday night following the football game, the school was broken into.

A candy machine was damaged, a microscope was taken, and $5 cash was taken.

Manuel Porras and Tonia Chisom were crowned Football King and Queen at halftime at the football game.

Combined Team Loses

The seventh and eighth grade Colts combined teams to take on the Happy Cowboys last Thursday night.

The Colts and the Cowboys played a defensive duel. They scored the only touchdown of the game on a 40-yard pass. The final score was 8-0.

"We played sound defensive football all night with the exception of the long pass for a touchdown. Offensively, we just made too many mistakes to move the ball effectively," said coach Chad Russell.

The Colts finish the season Thursday night. The eighth grade will take on Vega at Vega. The seventh grade will take on Sudan here.

Happy Homemaker

By JUNE FLOYD

Since I've been visiting in the home of my son-in-law and daughter, John and Geneva Osborn, in Tipton, Oklahoma, I've enjoyed browsing through a very unique cookbook.

It is entitled "Heavenly Recipes" and was compiled by the Dimmitt Chapter of Lubbock Christian College Associates.

Many of the recipes were contributed by former Friona or Parmer County residents, so I'm borrowing some of them for Happy Homemaker.

This week a native Friona, Murna Welch Miller, is being featured. She and her husband, Jack Miller, a Dimmitt native, lived in Dimmitt many years and raised their family there.

MR. and MRS. MICHAEL PATRICK GALLEGOS ...Larry and Judy Hodnett announce the marriage of their daughter, Jo Linda Brook, to Michael Patrick Gallegos, Saturday, October 8. The couple was married in Las Vegas, Nevada at the Tropicana Island Wedding Chapel. Jo Linda wore a tea length dress of ivory silk lace, trimmed on the bodice with pearls. The v-shaped back was accented with a bow and train. She carried a white rose and baby's breath bridal bouquet. Her jewelry was new pearl earrings and necklace and a diamond bracelet that she borrowed from her grandmother. The groom wore a black tuxedo and ivory shirt. The couple will be residing in Lubbock.

Scooter's Scoops

By Scooter Russell

Cool weather arrived on Monday morning and the temperatures were in the low forties and the highs in the low sixties. Feels like Old Man Winter is right around the corner.

The time will change this weekend and most folks are ready for an extra hour's sleep.... Halloween is this weekend and pint-sized ghosts and goblins will begin their trick-or-treating expeditions.

Halloween can be a fun time, but please remind your little ones to look both directions while walking down the street and have them to walk close to the curbs, never in the middle of the street. If possible, have them start their trick-or-treating early in the evenings and give each one a little flashlight of their own...accompany your children on their haunting journeys or get an older brother or sister to go with them. Only take them to friends' or relatives' homes. Make it a lot of fun for you and the youngsters.

Maudie Primrose celebrated her 95th birthday with a party held at the Oklahoma Lane Methodist Church on Sunday, October 23. About 80 people attended the celebration. Guests brought a dish to go with lasagna and Sheree Montgomery brought the birthday cake.

Maudie's only child is Lowell Primrose and she has two grandsons, four great-grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren.

Maudie has lived in this area since 1926 and still lives alone. I enjoyed visiting with her on the telephone and hope to do a feature about her story for our Christmas paper.

Dick and Pernie Free have had company. Their daughter and her husband, Donald and Cherry Ann Mead, also their daughter, Thilisa Heaslet, and her two sons, Bret and Brady, came on Tuesday and stayed until Saturday.

One day, they drove to Dumas and spent the night with Mary Sue Key and her husband, Ronnie. Pernie said they helped raise Mary Sue and she was very special to them. They had a good visit.

Galen and Judy Hromas drove to Texas A&M, College Station, this past weekend and visited with son, Darren, who is a student there. Judy said Darren is majoring in computer science. They had a good time with him.

Freda Lloyd has recently moved from Bovina to the Cottage Village in Lubbock. If you would like to drop her a card or a letter, her address is 111 Frankford, Lubbock, Texas, 79416.

Allene Russell fell at Prairie Acres where she is a resident and broke her hip. She underwent surgery and had to have pins put in a hip. Her son-in-law, Earl Whitten, said she is doing reasonably well. She is in the hospital at St. Anthony's in Amarillo.

Robert Calaway has been released from the Deaf Smith County Hospital in Hereford and is back out at the Hereford Home Health Care Center. His condition was a little improved Monday morning.

Glen Ritchie came home from the hospital where he underwent lung surgery at St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock. All reports were good.

Margaret Charles was hospitalized for a while at St. Mary's Hospital, but is back at her home in Bovina. She was suffering from heart problems.

Sophia Cherry enjoyed having three of her children visiting in recent weeks. Her son and his wife, Leon and Hoette McDaniel, came from Livermore, California. Her daughter, Grace and Gayle Whitehead, came from Roswell, New Mexico and another daughter, Helen and Cliff Wagner, came from Clovis.

Congratulations to Merrel and Katina DeGreen, who are parents of twin girls, Taylor Renae and Hailey Marie, born October 19.

Katina graduated from Bovina High School in 1990 and her mom is Stormy Keeler of Dalhart and her great-grandmother is Faye Hartwell of Bovina.

We understand Katina had to be in bed the last eleven weeks before the infants were born so it's been a tough deal, but the babies weighed six pounds, two ounces and five pounds, fifteen ounces. We're happy for them!
