

Sutton County Days slated this weekend

GOOD CROWDS EXPECTED FRIDAY, SATURDAY

BY TERRY B. NEILL
Editor

If you like good food, good friends and good entertainment, this weekend's Sutton County Days will be a good activity to take in.

Beginning Friday, residents of Sutton County and visitors from all over West Texas will have the opportunity to see a parade, rodeo, auction and pet show.

Or they can dance under the stars to two top notch country bands, visit with other oldtimers, meet a new Sutton County Days queen or watch a talented group of square dancers perform.

The activities are many and varied. And values will be easy to find, as many Sonora merchants do their part for the celebration by lowering prices and welcoming visitors for Sutton County Days.

(Details on specials for the celebration can be found in the special Sutton County Days supplement inside this issue of the Devil's River News.)

Sutton County Days is sponsored jointly by the Chamber of Commerce and Sutton County Days Association and is an annual event.

"We would like to thank all of those volunteers who have worked so hard to plan and conduct this year's celebration. They have done another fine job," Hal Spain, president of the chamber of commerce, said.

The schedule of events is as follows:

PARADE

A parade will kickoff Sutton County Days at 5 p.m. Friday. Many floats and riding entries are expected and Tom Loeffler, Congressman from the 21st District, and Gerald Geistweidt, a candidate for the Texas House of Representatives, will be included.

Loeffler calls San Antonio home, while Geistweidt is from Mason. (A map of the tentative parade route is included in the Sutton County Days supplement.)

BARBECUE

A barbecue will commence at 6 p.m. on the courthouse lawn Friday, with plates selling for $4. Libb Wallace, Les Robertson, and Lewis Olenick, and Gil Trainer are in charge of the meal, with Gene West and Sonora Volunteer Firemen ser-

RODEO

The Devil's River Rodeo Company is furnishing stock for the Sutton County Days Rodeo, which will be held Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m. at the rodeo grounds.

Books will open August 18 from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. Phone number is 387-3655.

Contestants will be vieing for $2,500 added monies and trophy buckles in each event.

Entry fees in bareback bronc riding, saddle bronc riding and calf roping will be $50, while barrel racing is $35 and bull riding $65.

Jim Garrett is in charge of the rodeo.

DANCES

Two dances are also on tap, with Sonora native Bill Green and his band entertaining from 8 p.m. until midnight Friday, and Darrell McCall scheduled on Saturday from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. Both dances will be on the slab between the rodeo arena and 4-H center.

Good crowds are expected for both dances. Green and McCall are both well known county musicians, and have had over 40 recordings between them.

FUN RUN

A new event, the Sutton County Days Fun Run will kickoff activities Saturday, beginning at 8 a.m. in front of the courthouse.

Runners of all ages will jog to Interstate 10 and back, a distance of one mile. All of those who finish the race will be rewarded for their efforts, race organizers say.

Entries should be on hand 30 minutes prior to the race in order to register. Several age divisions will be held.

OPENING CEREMONY

The official opening ceremony will be held at 9 a.m. Saturday on the courthouse lawn. Mary Jean Hamilton is in charge, with the Rev. David Griffin and Sonora Mayor Bill Gosney officiating.

Members of the local Boy Scouts Troop will be on hand to assist with flag raising activities.

PET SHOW

The annual pet show will start at 9:15 a.m. on the courthouse lawn. Locals are invited to bring pets of all shapes and sizes to the show, which is popular feature of Sutton County

LITTLE MR.-MISS CONTEST

Roberta James is heading up the Little Mr. and Miss Contest, planned for Saturday at 9:30 a.m. on the courthouse lawn. Boys and girls ages three, four, and five can be entered.

OLDTIMERS REGISTRATION

Registration for the Oldtimers Reunion will also commence at 9:30 a.m. on the courthouse lawn, followed by a special program for oldtimers at 10 a.m.

CONCERTS AND DANCING

Several bands will be playing Saturday at the courthouse, including the Sonora Bronco Band, which will play at noon. At 1 p.m. Shelly Chaney's dance class will perform.

AUCTION

L.P. Bloodworth, an outstanding auctioneer, will gain the spotlight at 1:30 p.m. Saturday when an auction is held on the courthouse lawn. Local non-profit clubs and organizations have donated items to the auction, and proceeds will go back to the respective clubs.

Clubs and their donations include: Halliburton Ladies Club--candy, cakes, pecan pie and bread; Kappa Gamma--pecan pie, German chocolate cake, macrame wall hanging, plant and other baked goods; Los Amigos Club--ceramic hanging pot plants, brass pot, Mexican flowered dress; and Sutton County 4-H Clubs--set of six placemats, one candle, refrigerator magnets, cookies and a pie.

Others include Independent Cattlemen's Association--one-day Fallow buck hunt on Bill Whitehead Ranch, lighted make-up mirror from Merle Norman, $50 worth of t-bone steaks from Branding Iron, and a k.c. steak dinner for two at Sutton County Steakhouse; OLAS, Inc.-- Mexican embroidered dresses (one white, one blue), two Mexican table runners and one set of dish towels; Sonora Arts and Crafts--three oil paintings and ceramics; Sonora Volunteer Fire Department Ladies Auxiliary--one package of tortilla, pocsie sauce, a baby blanket, a painting and a mini-barbecue pit.

Sonora Little League will be auctioning off a one-day deer lease, donated by Bob and Rande Caruthers.

MAGAZINE LIKES HOSSES' CHANGES

Bronco workouts attract 74

Another football publication thinks the 1982 Sonora Broncos will contend for the District 6-AAA championship but being saddled with the "team to beat" tag does not bother Coach Jerry Hopkins.

Top-O-Texas grid magazine believes tradition and returning lettermen could spell "numero uno" for the Red Hosses this fall.

"Being picked first doesn't bother me, but it should be a real competitive district," Coach Hopkins pointed out.

Sonora coaches have welcomed 74 candidates for junior varsity and varsity positions, and Hopkins is pleased with the efforts of his squad. "We're working hard and progressing on schedule. Our kids usually turn out and work hard," Hopkins added.

Currently the Broncos are working out at 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. daily, in preparation for their opening tilt with a good Wall team on September 3.

Hopkins' charges will line up in a 5-2 on defense and run a wing-t on offense this fall, and will rely on a strong defensive effort for their title run.

"We should be strong, particularly on defense, where we return several lettermen," Hopkins said.

Sonora will not face any other schools in scrimmages before September, but will instead scrimmage on an intra-squad basis, Hopkins reports. The veteran Bronco mentor looks for Crane and Colorado City to be his squad's major roadblocks enroute to the title. "Everyone is picking Colorado City as our major rival, and they will have a good team, but Crane could be the team we'll have to beat. They have 20 starters back and should be tough," Hopkins reported.

Top-O-Texas had the following comments on the newest edition of the Broncos:

"The Sonora Broncos finished district runner-up last season, something they are not used to doing, not finishing on top.

"They are picked to win the district this fall, but not without a hard battle from such teams as Colorado City, Crane and Ballinger.

"Coach Jerry Hopkins has loaded his gun with 12 letterman, five offensive and six defensive returning starters. Three of which were all district selections."

"Sonora will use the wing T offense again this fall. Hopkins has won twelve district titles here with it, so why get away from a winner."

"Marney Sorenson (6-1, 160) senior letterman who was a starter at safety will operate the Broncos attack. He will be calling on halfback David Buitron (5-7, 155) senior to carry most of the offensive load this fall. David gained close to 1,000 yards last fall on his way to be chosen all-district. Tino Martinez (5-9, 180) junior fullback should furnish the power in the middle."

"Jeff Brittain (6-1, 180) junior tight end and wide receiver Frankie Gonzales (5-9, 155) senior should be some outstanding targets for Sorenson this season. Both were starters on the Broncos 8-2 team.

"Rodney Jones (6-0, 198) junior tackle and Fermin Sanchez (5-8, 175) senior will add starting experience up front this season.

"Sonora will have the best pair of linebackers in central-west Texas area this fall in Martinez and Brittain. Both were all-district selection last fall as sophomores.

NO SOLUTIONS DISCOVERED

Hospital's financial plight reviewed Tuesday

Members of the Hudspeth Memorial Hospital board of directors outlined several options for the financially-troubled institution at a public meeting Tuesday night at the school snack bar.

Over 75 Sutton County residents turned out for the session, called by the hospital's board of directors to inform the public about the facility's money problems and to ask for suggestions from local residents.

Board member Lea Roy Aldwell

chaired the meeting, commenting, "We called this meeting to inform the community about the hospital. Please feel free to ask questions. We have no secrets."

Herbert Fields, also a board member, outlined the hospital's history, noting that rancher Roy Hudspeth brought the dream of a hospital for Sonora to light in the late 1940's, promising $50,000 if the citizens of the community would match his offer.

According to Fields, the community did just that, more than exceeding the Hudspeth donation, and concluded their drive on April 9, 1948 with a total of $75,000.

A non-profit hospital organization was founded and in January of 1950, a $248,000 contract was let for construction of the hospital. A Federal grant of $155,000 was received and the doors swung open for the first time on July 1, 1951 with 13 employees.

Fields reported that 21 directors were named, several of which still remain on the board. "And then of course, in 1970, we built the nursing home at a cost of $170,000," Fields added. The hospital now employs 38 and the nursing home 24 locals.

Hudspeth also left 12,461 acres to the hospital and stipulated that the income from the ranch be used to supplement the health care facility.

Income from the property, however, has not been able to offset inflation, increasing amounts of state and Federal red tape which has increased the hospital's staff, and a declining occupancy rate. The hospital is projected to lose over $220,000 in 1982.

Members of the board told those in attendance they felt several options exist:

--Sell the ranch and buy a little time with those funds, utilizing this money to meet the huge yearly deficits.

--Lease the hospital to a management firm, which specializes in rural hospitals.

--Sell the hospital.

--Create a hospital district, which would have its own taxing powers.

--Give the hospital to Sutton County and let the county run it.

--Increase the hospital's revenue.

--Receive a monthly subsidy from the county.

--Close the doors.

Those on hand for the meeting and county and hospital officials had pros and cons on all of the options.

Several members of the hospital board apparently feel that selling the ranch would be the wrong thing to do because Hudspeth left the ranch with the understanding that it would perpetuate the hospital for as long as the hospital is open.

And the possibility of an oil and gas lease on half of the ranch which is not leased at the present time could help solve the facility's money problems, one board member pointed out.

Management firms have had some success with other small hospitals in

Sherrill services held here

Funeral services for Jean Fay Sherrill, 55, wife of Sutton County Judge Charles Sherrill, were held last Friday at 10 a.m. at the Saint John Episcopal Church. Interment was at Lawn Haven Cemetery in San Angelo under the direction of Kerbow Funeral Home.

Mrs. Sherrill died at 8:30 a.m. last Wednesday at Hudspeth Memorial Hospital in Sonora, following a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Sherrill was married to Charles Sherrill on April 20, 1950 at Seminole and was a teacher in the

Hospital's 'bottom line' reviewed

Hudspeth Memorial Hospital's financial problems have been building for several years, according to statistics presented at a public meeting Tuesday night by hospital administrator Dennis Robertson.

Robertson said that the hospital's primary problem is low occupancy rates. "In 1972 the hospital had 38 percent occupancy or 10 patients per day. In 1977 the facility had 37 percent occupancy or 9.7 patients per day. In 1981 our occupancy rate was 40 percent or eight patients per day."

"For the first six months of 1982, we've had an average of 5.9 patients per day," Robertson revealed.

Patient revenues, due in part to inflation, have shown a steady increase from $209,863 in 1972 to $416,147 in 1977, to $518,217 in 1981. Projected revenues for 1982 are $535,038 and the hospital has collected $267,594 through the first six months of 1982.

Salaries have gone from $159,365 in 1972 to $182,870 in 1975 (61 percent of the gross revenue), to $327,261 in 1981 (63 percent of gross revenues). Projected cost for 1982 is $387,058.

"We could handle twice as many patients with the same staff," Robertson noted.

The hospital's net operating loss has gone from $90,075.04 in 1972 to $100,709 in 1975 to $247,480 in 1981. The projected loss for 1982 is $222,781.

Robertson also unveiled figures for the nursing home. Patient revenues have risen from $122,091 in 1972 to $223,233 in 1981. Projected revenues for 1982 are $300,000.

Salary totals have increased from $73,414 in 1972 to $253,171 in 1981. Projected salary totals for 1982 at the nursing home is $225,500.

The nursing home's total net loss has gone from $18,881 in 1972 to $80,772 in 1981. Projected loss for 1982 is $97,764.

Combined salaries for the nursing home and hospital were $232,814 in 1972, $385,504 in 1978 and $580,432 in 1981. Projected payroll for 1982 is $612,558.

"During our 11 years of operation, the hospital and nursing home have paid $3,837,715.24 in salaries, and this was not tax money," Robertson revealed.

The combined net loss for the two facilities has risen from $109,856 in 1972 to $328,181 in 1981. Projected loss for 1982 is $320,545, Robertson concluded.

Members of the board told those at the meeting that the hospital's accounts receivable has been another big problem. "We've been writing them off as bad debt every three years, but uncollected bills totaled over $100,000 last year. At the present time we have about $175,000 on the books," Al Elliott, board member, reported.

Elliott also revealed that 50 law suits were filed for non-payment last year, but that suits and other collection methods "are not doing any good."

Residents at the meeting took note of the accounts receivable problem, but several also voiced complaints about Sonora people who go elsewhere for medical help.

"What are we going to do if the people in Sonora won't use our doctors?" one woman asked.

Another resident suggested that the hospital take steps to attract people from the surrounding area to the Hudspeth Hospital.

One man at the meeting suggested that the hospital may be over-staffed, and employees over-paid, but board members said that Federal and state guidelines for Medi-Care, etc. mandate the size of the hospital's staff.

"To get nurses we have to pay at least $9 an hour. Nurses are hard to find at that," a board member said.

Most sports fans know the length of a football field (120 yards including end zones) but few know its width...which is 53 and one third yards.

Schools bells will ring

Some parents may be relieved and some children disappointed, but next Monday, August 23 is the first day of school for student in the Sonora Independent School District.

Principals at the four schools do not want students on campus before 8 a.m. each day.

The morning bell will ring at 8:30 a.m. at elementary school (kindergarten through second grade), and 8:15 a.m. for middle school (third, fourth and fifth graders), junior high (sixth, seventh and eighth grades) and high school.

Teachers were back on the job this week and Sonora's once again hosting the Cooperative In-Service Training for Sonora, Eldorado, Ozona and Ricksprings teachers.

"We would like to welcome teachers from Eldorado, Ricksprings, Ozona to Sonora. It is a pleasure for us to be able to host in-service training again," Wendell McAndrew, Sonora superintendent, said Monday.

Over 300 teachers are expected for the training session, which is scheduled for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Friday will be a work day for teachers.

To avoid the rush, school lunch tickets will be on sale in the middle of elementary schools on Thursday, August 19 and Friday, August 20. Monday, August 23, students can purchase lunch tickets in the elementary cafeteria starting at 7:30 a.m.

School buses will run on schedule starting Monday. A list of the bus routes and times that the buses are scheduled to arrive at the various stops are reprinted below:

Fort McKavett Route 7 a.m., Skyes; 7:10, Street; 7:15, Mogfords; 7:30, Eldorado highway; 7:35, Halbert Ranch; 7:40, Coston Ranch; and 7:45, Askew Ranch.

Income eligibility guidelines for free or reduced price meals in the cafeteria have been released, and vary depending on the family's size and net income. A complete schedule is available from the school system.

Auxiliary sets work sessions

The Sonora Volunteer Firman's Ladies Auxiliary held its regular monthly meeting last Tuesday at the local fire department.

Hostess for the meeting was Connie Malick. Other members on hand were Frances West, Linda Odom, Cookie Hefferman, Patti Bougher, Cindy Gonzales, Nora Olinick, Elaine Donaldson, Rhonda Blackman, Jean Humphreys, Melissa Teaff and Benita Martinez.

During the business meeting, auxiliary members planned to work at the upcoming rodeo and during Sutton County Days.

Members also played bunko, with Mrs. Martinez finishing high point, Mrs. Gonzales low and Mrs. Humphreys taking bunko.

Sonora fighter takes win

Larry Kirby of Sonora, former Golden Gloves champion, fought and won his first pro fight on July 27, stopping Enrique Garcia in the second round.

Kirby trains out of Galena Park Boxing Academy and now spars with middle-weight contender Wilford Scypion, the fourth ranked fighter in his weight class, as judged by the World Boxing Association.

Scypion has recently returned after two years in New York, where he trained under Victor Valle and was stable mates with Gerry Cooney.

Scypion is in line for a title shot against middle-weight champion Marvin Hagler during the next six months. Kirby will be sparring with the contender in preparation for the big fight.

Kirby is trained and managed by Kenny Weldon.

The purpose of a filter on your air conditioning or heating air blower is to help catch dust and dirt before it can enter your unit. In time, the filter will accumulate dust and dirt... if it gets clogged, it can't do the cleaning job it's supposed to and uses more electricity. To avoid damage to your unit and to save energy and money, be sure filters are clean. Permanent types can be cleaned according to the manufacturer's instruction. Non-permanent types should be replaced. It is wise to check filters every 30 days.

QUEEN SELECTIONS

The 1982 Sutton County Days Queen will be named at 5 p.m. Saturday. Six nominees have been working hard for the honor, which is bestowed on the girl who sells the most rodeo tickets.

Nominees for the crown include Jennifer Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Spencer, sponsored by Sonora Lions Club; Kathy Doran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Doran, sponsored by Sonora Women's Club; Kathryn Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Parker, sponsored by Independent Cattlemen's Association; Judy Merrill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Merrill, sponsored by American Cancer Society, and Rebecca Powers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Powers, sponsored by Sonora Golf Auxiliary.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

Shelly Chaney, chairman of the arts and crafts exhibits, told chamber officials this week that her aspect of the celebration is progressing nicely, with many local and area artists coming in.

Artists will be utilizing spaces on the lawn to display their work, and food booths and concession stands will also be in evidence.

Members of the Sonora Volunteer Fire Department will be in charge of games, and Bill Stewart is taking care of tours to the museum and old jail.

Jim Cusenbary is chairman of construction and clean-up efforts, and can use volunteers to assist him.

"All in all, the celebration is coming along nicely. We expect a big crowd and hope that everyone will turn out," Spain concluded.

Texas, but board members point out that local control would be dramatically reduced or cut out all together.

Selling the hospital could create the same problems as leasing, board members reported, noting that no local control could be exercised over the facility. "And no one has expressed any interest in buying it," a board member related.

A hospital district, similar to the one at Eldorado, would provide the necessary funds, but would also necessitate another taxing entity and higher taxes. (County officials indicated that a six-cent tax increase would be necessary to cover the projected $220,000 loss.)

If the hospital was given to the county, and the commissioners court has not said it would accept the facility, a tax increase would probably still be necessary to make up the deficit.

An increase in revenue through higher occupancy was the one solution that most people at the meeting agreed upon, but no one had any ideas.

"We sure can't hope for any epidemics or anything like that. Baylor Hospital has done a survey on our hospital and found that 6.7 more patients per day are needed, or an increase of 2,400 patient days per year.

A subsidy from the county is probably illegal, according to an attorney for the Texas Association of Counties, who was present Tuesday night.

He said that the constitution makes it impossible for the county to lend financial assistance to any private institution. The one exception for the hospital would be for indigent/pauper care. The county currently pays the hospital $3,000 monthly for this service.

If the hospital is closed, and ever re-opened, the price would be high. According to hospital sources, the facility now operates under the grandfather clause and if it was closed and re-opened would have to meet new hospital guidelines for width of halls and other building codes.

"We might lose our doctors. They might not want to practice somewhere without a hospital," a board member added.

Those on hand asked several questions but could voice no solutions for the problem.

Perhaps an elderly man voiced a popular opinion of the silent majority at the meeting when he said, "You board members are obviously working hard to find an answer and you know the problems better than we do. You are on the board to make decisions and we should let y'all do it and support you."

Children from families whose income is at or below the level shown on the attached scale are eligible for either free meals or reduced-price meals priced at 40¢ for lunch and 30¢ for breakfast.

To apply for free or reduced-price meals, please fill out this application as soon as possible, sign it, and return it to the school. Please answer all questions on the form. An application which does not contain complete information on household members and income cannot be used by the school. If information is missing, your child will be denied the meal benefits. Call your school if you need help with the form. Applications and income guidelines will be available at the school offices.

COMPLETE APPLICATION: For an application to be complete, you must provide: the total household income, the names of all household members, social security numbers of all household members 21 years or older or state that a household member does not have one, and the signature of an adult household member.

VERIFICATION: The information on the application may be checked by the school or other officials at any time during the school year.

REPORTING CHANGES: If your child is approved for meal benefits, you must tell the school when your household income increases by more than $50 per month ($600 per year) or when your household size decreases.

You may apply for benefits at any time during the school year. If you are not eligible now, but have a decrease in household income, become unemployed, or have an increase in family size, fill out an application at that time.

FOSTER CHILDREN: In certain cases, foster children are eligible for these benefits. If you have foster children living with you and wish to apply for free or reduced-price benefits for them, please tell the school.

NONDISCRIMINATION: Children who get meal benefits are treated the same way as children who pay for meals. In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color, national origin, age, or handicap.

FAIR HEARING: If you do not agree with the school's decision on your application or the result of verification, you may wish to discuss it with the school. You also have a right to a fair hearing. This can be done by calling or writing the following official: W. A. McAndrew, Superintendent

School Administration Office, 807 South Concho, Sonora, Texas 76950 387-2220
(Name, Address, Telephone of Hearing Official)

If you have any questions or need help in filling out the application form, please contact us. You will be notified of the approval or denial of this application.
Sincerely,

Firemen host 'Fun Day'

The Sonora Volunteer Fire Department hosted the second annual "Fun Day" of the Hill Country Firemen's Association, on Saturday, August 7th. Last year the event was held in San Angelo and benefitted the West Texas Rehabilitation Center. This year the proceeds went to the Texas Firemen's Museum at Grand Prairie.

A total of $524 was raised by participants from Brady, Brownwood, Eden, Eldorado, Junction, Mason, Menard, Winters, as well as Sonora. Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Swadley and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Amond from Grand Prairie were on hand to represent the Texas Firemen's Museum.

The $524 was raised by charging in entry fee for each team that entered an event, with part of the entry fee going to the museum. The other money was awarded as prize money to the winners, which everyone unanimously donated back to the fund for the museum.

The winners in the children's events were presented with trophies, which were donated by the Eden Fire Department. They also donated a trophy for "Most Participants", which was won by the Sonora Department, but being the host city, the Sonora Firemen felt they should not accept the award and passed it along to second place Eldorado.

In the men's water polo, Brownwood was first, and Gene West and George Keese of Sonora were second. The women's water polo was won by the Sonora team of Connie Malik and Patti Bougher. Second place went to a Brownwood and Brady duo. Children's water polo, age 12-15, was won by Menard and second place went to Sonora's Chris Anderson and Trey Rushing. Children's water polo, age 1-11 was won by Jason Donaldson of Sonora and Joshua Johnson of Junction and second was taken by Eldorado.

The six man pumper race was won by Sonora and second place went to Brownwood. The six woman pumper race was also won by Sonora, with Eldorado taking second. The six person mixed pumper race was won by Eldorado, with a combination team from Winters, Mason, and Eden taking second. The Sonora team was third.

The pumper race for ages 12-15 totally belonged to the hosts, as two teams of Sonora youngsters took both first and second.

The three man race was won by a combination team from Winters, Eden, and Mason. Second place was captured by a Brownwood and Brady combo. Sonora's team of Carl Teaff, Gene West, and Louis Olenick took third.

Sonora's Melissa Teaff, Donna Keese, and Connie Malik teamed up to place first in the three woman race. Sonora also took second with Rhonda Blackman, Della Heffernan, and Cookie Heffernan forming that team. Third place went to a Mason, Eden, and Winters trio.

The rest of the schedule races, which included three person races for children 12-15 and 1-11 and mixed for men and women, and one person races for men, women, and children, were cancelled due to the "much needed and very welcome rain," a spokesman said. Each department which came contributed to a hamburger supper held indoors at the fire station and concluded the day's events.

Mr. and Mrs. Rip Ward were in Austin this week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ward--Roy has been sick and we sure do hope he is much better.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cusenbary entertained the Tuesday Bridge Club with a luncheon at her home on August 10.

Members present were Mrs. Davie Taylor, Mrs. R.A. Halbert, Mrs. Guila Vicars, Mrs. Dorothy Cusenbary, and Mrs. W.T. Hardy.

Guests were Mrs. Martha Keng, Mrs. Pauline Thompson, and Mrs. Hazel McClelland.

Luncheon guests were Mrs. Hattie B. Epps, Mrs. Rusty Dameron, and Mrs. Frank Bond.

Mrs. McClelland won high score prize.

Mrs. Hardy won second high and Mrs. Vicars won the bingo prize.

Mrs. Alice Jones has returned from the Sawyer's summer home in Maine.

Bill Savell and Savell Shannon flew to Roswell, N.M. Wednesday.

Mr. Lee Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Smith of San Angelo, was visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Louie Trainer this week.

The Right Reverend Frank L. Cerveny, Bishop of Florida, will ordain James Victor Weber as a permanent Deacon in Christ's Holy Catholic Church Saturday, September 25, at 4 p.m. at St. John's Cathedral, Jacksonville, Florida.

Mr. Weber is the husband of the former Mary Sue Blanton. The Webers visit Mrs. Steen in Sonora often. We congratulate you, James and Mary Sue.

Mrs. Charles Shannon and Mrs. Bernice Savell were in San Angelo Monday.

Mrs. Bill Schweining of Roosevelt was in the hospital in San Angelo where she had surgery. Glad you are better now.

Curt Kneese has returned home from the hospital in San Angelo where he has had surgery. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Schneider. Mrs. Schweining is the mother of May Schneider.

Scott Savell is in the Community Hospital in San Angelo, where he is having surgery. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Savell, his parents, are with him. Good luck Scott!

Judge Paul Peurifoy passed away in Dallas August 10. He was Audrey Brodhead's husband, and they had no children. Audrey's son, Gene, and wife from Del Rio, were with Audrey for the funeral.

Iris takes their name from Iris, the Greek goddess of the rainbow.

Harva Cooper and her family attended the Bloys camp meeting week before last. It is 14 miles north of Ft. Davis in the mountains--a mile high in elevation and very cool in the mornings and nights.

Dr. Bloys, a Presbyterian minister, who came West from Lampasas with the Espy family--uncle and cousins of Cleve Jones Sr., Howard and Thomas Espy, for his health, started the camp meeting as a thanksgiving service for their having a good year their first year in the Davis Mts.

The camp meeting has grown and now around 4,000 people attend. There are six eating camps on the one section. Mexican men do the cooking. All of the cottages, campers in vans and tents, and the huge tabernacle besides the tabernacle, Chapel in the Rocks, and Miss Mabel Bloys Room for all ages of children are located on this section of land. It was given by Papaw Jones, as he was affectionately called.

We all picked out places to build our cottages, a committee passed on the site--the land cost nothing. This was the 93rd year of the Bloys Camp Meeting and the largest crowd ever attended.

We were all inspired by the four ministers: George Claudeis--Presbyterian, Glen Edwards--Baptist, Dr. Goodrich--Methodist, and Dr. Gilbert Davis--Christian.

Mr. and Mrs. Travis Gordon and son, John Dale Gordon, have returned from a vacation trip to Ruidoso and Amistad, and from a family reunion.

Mrs. Bobbie Fawcett, Randee Caruthers, Emma Whitehead and Frances Paret have returned from a vacation on the Greek islands and Athens, Greece.

Reggie Chandler and Judy Crowover have returned from a vacation in Ruidoso, New Mexico.

Services held for Schrier

Graveside services for Clarence (Red) Schrier, 79, of Sonora were held at 10 a.m. last Saturday at Sonora Cemetery with Don Jones officiating. The services were held under the direction of Kerbow Funeral Home.

Schrier died at Pecos County Memorial Hospital in Fort Stockton last Wednesday. He was born February 8, 1903 in Hext and was engaged in ranching and farming operations around Eldorado.

He was a long-time resident of Balmorhea, and was a member of the Church of Christ.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Frank Williams of Fort Stockton; two sons, Charles Schrier of Eldorado and Fred Schrier of Houston; three sisters, Alma Love of Sonora, Mabel McKee of McCamey and Jean Kennedy of San Antonio; and six grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his sister, Jessie Reddick.

WITH DEPRESSION

Big Lake woman winning life-long battle

EDITOR'S NOTE--Depression is a serious illness, as this article, borrowed from the Big Lake Wildcat, notes. The story appeared in last week's edition of the Big Lake weekly. It describes, in first person, the Reagan County woman's battle with the problem. The subject of depression was recently discussed in-depth on a major television news show and the remarkable breakthrough doctors have only recently made in treating the disease. (T.B.N.)

On April 13, 1960, two events took place that would affect my life from that point forward. I gave birth to our second child, a healthy baby boy. I also gave birth to a stranger named Depression. The child was a source of joy and pleasure. The stranger was unwanted, and a source of pain, bewilderment and suffering.

I was twenty years old at the time and had never been sick a day in my life, and up to that point I didn't know what depression was. I was happy and well adjusted, so what went wrong? A lot of mothers have post-partum depression, but this was something deeper.

The first depression lasted for three weeks...24 hours a day, 7 days a week. My mind was clouded, no concentration, disorientation, forgetfulness. I was losing weight and sleep. Terror gripped me each time I dozed off to sleep, afraid I would not hear one of the children.

At the end of this first three-week bout, the doctor discovered I had developed Rheumatoid arthritis. He tells me now that there is a question as to which developed first - the depression or the arthritis. He does know there is a link between the two but, at this point, it's still a "missing link". That is what I'm told now--22 years later.

Then all I was told was that I suffering a "Nervous breakdown". Following the first one, I started having 3 or 4 depressing periods a year, each lasting 3 to 4 weeks. I was in and out of hospitals in several states with the proverbial "Nervous break-down."

Treatments included electro-shock treatments, tranquilizers, group therapy, sodium penthalol, and psychiatric techniques of varied persuasions, with the end result always the same--no help for me. The worst part was doctors, family, and friends telling me I was doing this, you can't. "Fight it, and you'll beat it." So for twenty-two years I wanted to, and I fought it--and not once did I beat it.

There is no way to describe the guilt, suffering and shame I felt. My senses were dulled. I couldn't taste anything or feel pain during those periods. There was no color distinction and my hearing and sight was impaired, because I couldn't concentrate long enough to make these distinctions.

My emotions were out of sync, causing inappropriate reactions on my part. I would burst out crying without being aware that I was crying, or discover I had my clothing on backward or shoes on the wrong feet.

By 1970 I was desperate. Guilt was literally "eating me up." On every hand I was being told that I was causing all of this and that I wasn't getting any better because I didn't WANT to. The doctors, hospitals and trips were causing enormous financial problems.

It seemed logical that I would be doing my family, myself, and society a favor if I ended my life. I cleaned the house, sent the children to school and overdosed on a bottle of tranquilizers.

Obviously, things didn't go as I had planned. My husband came home unexpectedly and got me to a doctor. Then, the cycle began again--doctors and others telling me I could control this, my being unable to control it and the guilt, terror and suffering consumed me.

Also I had the added burden of being suicidal. By 1976, I had quit discussing my problem with anyone but my doctor. The "you-can-beat-it-if-you-want-to-bad-enough" advice was destroying me. I had such a feeling of self-loathing and worthlessness that even mirrors were carefully avoided.

All self-confidence was gone. I hated myself for being so weak and since I couldn't handle a depression that "I was bringing upon myself" how could I hope to accomplish anything worthwhile for me or my family.

I lived in terror of one of the children getting sick or hurt during one of the depressions because I was not capable of making a decision. Then a small glimmer of hope appeared in the form of an anti-depressant, Sinequan.

It was a non-habit forming drug. (I was terrified of becoming addicted to anything) and my doctors expressed great confidence in it. After starting on it in 1976, my depressions were lessened to about one per year, still lasting 21 to 31 days.

But, though this was certainly an improvement, my mental outlook did not improve. Still laboring with the idea that somehow I should be able to stop this altogether, I found myself constantly dwelling on the guilt of the last depression or the fear of the next. I continued the medication, but stopped telling my doctor anything about my mental condition.

Then on February 21, 1982, I lapsed into the worst depression I had ever experienced. I lasted until March 20, and I began to think again about suicide. I decided to try the doctor one more time, and this time, I received real help.

"We've come a long way--and we now know these depressions are due to a Chemical Imbalance in the brain and they're NOT YOUR FAULT. Can you imagine what those words meant to me--"not your fault". For 22 years we-doctors, family, friends, and I had searched for that "hidden reason" I was doing this to myself.

For 22 years I had hated myself for being so weak and self-centered, and now a reason--an answer.

He went on to explain to me that there is a chemical deficiency between the nerve endings in my brain that caused my problems and that I had absolutely no control over it. New anti-depressants, in different combinations and dosages were meeting with great success and that we would begin experimenting until we found one that would work for me.

Although I'm still not "home free", I can now believe I'm really a worthy person. The shame is gone--I have a physical illness that I cannot control alone.

I've had three major surgeries in the last five years, one of which was for cancer, and I still have arthritis which has left me partially handicapped, but none of these illnesses compare to the horrors of a depression.

The doctor tells me I will have to deal with depression again. I will have to be patient as we work out my medication. But I do not have to deal with those other demons--shame, embarrassment, self-hatred, and guilt.

My aim now is to share anything I can--my story, my empathy, and my newfound strength. It's exciting to realize that I have something worthwhile to give, because you see--I really am a strong person after all.

EIGHT WARNING SIGNS

To be sure you or someone you care about doesn't fall victim to the personal and professional myths I did, arm yourself with information. The eight warning signs of a primary biological depression are:

1. Changes in appetite--generally diminished, resulting in weight loss, but may be heightened and accompanied by weight gain.
2. Shifts in sleep patterns--general difficulty falling asleep, with frequent and/or early awakening, but slumber needs may be increased.
3. Fatigability or lack of energy.
4. Agitation or increased motor activity.

5. Loss of interest in daily activities and/or decreased sexual drive.
6. Inability to concentrate or make decisions.
7. Feelings of sadness, hopelessness, self-reproach, or guilt.
8. Thoughts of suicide.

If you experience at least five of these symptoms, and they last for two to four weeks, you probably need anti-depressant medication and should seek help immediately.

Jimmy T. Black

EDITOR'S NOTE--We are re-publishing the following article in last week's issue of the Devil's River News, containing several errors. We regret the mistakes. (T.B.N.)

Jimmy Thomas Black was among the graduating class of the University of Texas, College of Pharmacy, in Austin, on August 8.

Along with receiving his degree in pharmacy, Black was named "Outstanding Student for contributions to the college and pharmacy communities," and was presented with $50 from the Tony Lemmon Company.

Moths have eyes that are composed of hundreds of individual seeing units.

Black was also awarded a plaque by the Student America Pharmaceutical Association for graduating L Ph A, the student having made the greatest contribution to the local chapter.

Members of Black's family present for the graduation banquet included Mr. and Mrs. Dick Black of Lake Amistad, Mrs. J.T. Black and Mrs. Jim Black of Del Rio, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Black of Sweeny, Mr. and Mrs. Barry Black and Mr. and Mrs. Gil Trainer of Sonora.

Black is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Black of Lake Amistad, Del Rio.

RECEIVES HONOR
Pete Skains, a 10-year veteran of the Tom Green County Sheriffs Department, has been named "Law Enforcement Officer of the Year" by the Texas Peace Officers Association. Skains, son of Pauline Skains of Sonora, was presented with a handsome plaque denoting the honor at the association's award banquet at Dallas-Fort Worth Regional Airport recently. He is a 1961 graduate of Sonora High School and is married to the former Earlene Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith, former residents of Sonora. They have two children, a daughter, Mrs. Russell Green of Midland, and a son, David Earnest, of the home.

Return home

Carl and Stella Carvahal have returned to the United States, along with their sons, Charley and Albey. They were received by their relatives at Dallas-Fort Worth Airport on Saturday, August 14.

The Carvahal Family has reunited with their oldest son, Ray Carvahal. The Family will be making Sonora their home for a while. "Carvahal is originally from Sonora and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Guajardo, 412 Calle Road.

"We would like to wish the Carvahal Family a happy and enjoyable stay," a family spokesman said.

In China, at one time, there were 3,000 rules or conduct to be learned and obeyed.

"Espy Whitehead (6-2, 175) senior tackle and corner back Albert Chavez (5-8, 140) senior are top defensive performers with starting experience. "Abel Sanchez (5-10, 190) sophomore fullback-linebacker, plus the Garza boys, Daniel and Ruben are some promising newcomers that could put some pressure on some of the older players for starting positions. "You can bet as long as Jerry Hopkins is the coach at Sonora they will always be very competitive and you can count on them being around at playoff time."

Kring heading up group

Jesse Kring of Sonora has been named coordinator for the Bill Hobby campaign in Sutton County.

Hobby is seeking reelection to the post of Lieutenant Governor and is opposed by Republican George Strake.

Hobby's forces this week charged that Strake has out-of-state extremist group ties with the National Conservative Political Action Committee.

A Hobby campaign official said the NCPAC, a Washington-based group, is known for its right-wing ideology and "negative" advertising backed by a multi-million dollar budget.

Adams charges that the group will funnel $5,000 into Strake's campaign. "The influence that this group of extremists could have on any candidate that it helps elect is frightening," Adams said.

Restaurant site for party

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gonzales held a dinner Saturday for Los Compadres Club at the Commercial Restaurant.

They served Swiss steak, green beans, casserole, rice, tossed salad, chili verde sauce, peach cobbler, ice cream and tea.

Members attending were Mr. and Mrs. Pedro Galindo, Jr., Claude Flores, Marciana Hernandez, Ed Carrasco, Lemuel Lopez and Pancho Salazar.

Guests on hand included Mr. and Mrs. Primo Gonzales, Mr. and Mrs. Isael Perez, Christie Gonzales, George Reyes, Velma Gonzales, Enrique Lopez, and Ralph Gonzales.

The first English Prince of Wales later became King Edward II. He was born in Caernarvon, a town on the northwestern coast of Wales.

Guerras gain ASU diplomas

Isabel and Martha Guerra, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Juan Guerra of Sonora, graduated from Angelo State University on August 13.

Both are graduates of Sonora High School.

Isabel Guerra graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in education, while Martha Guerra received a Bachelor of Science degree in teaching.

'Togetherness' would help ranchers

Ranchers must shape their independence into a "togetherness" and become an effective voice if they are to survive these turbulent, economically stressed times.

This is the opinion of Jeanne W. Edwards, managing partner of the Saval Ranching Co. in Nevada and a Boston housewife.

Edwards, who also assists in operating a grain farm in Illinois, was lead-speaker for the second annual International Ranchers Roundup, which continues through Friday in Del Rio. More than 500 industry leaders are taking part from some 25 U.S. states as well as Mexico, Australia, and South Africa.

Addressing the general theme of "Ranching Tomorrow, Today's Too Late," Edwards said independent ranchers must be aware of and use the many tools available to them, including the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

"Today's consuming public has little knowledge of what ranching is about --and that the rancher may be an 'endangered' species. Therefore, ranchers need to beef up their efforts to help shape national policy affecting our industry and our work resource base --our rangelands," Edwards said.

She pointed out that the cow-calf operator, the stocker-feeder segment, feedyards and purebred operators are all in the same boat together and all should speak in a unified voice.

"It is time for us to face realities of population growth and the possibilities of a food supply interruption--and their direct link to our national well-being. It is indeed time to get our act together," Edwards said.

She pointed out that people fall into one of three categories--those who make things happen, those who watch things happen, and those who wonder what happened.

"The success of the Ranchers Roundup will be measured by our ability to awaken and inspire members of the last two groups to become active members of the first group. A way to make this happen is to get involved and participate in such groups as the National Cattlemen's Association and the Society of Range Management," she suggested.

John Ford, a Texan from Hereford now serving as deputy assistant secretary of agriculture with John Block, discussed the "U.S. Position In The World Ranching Community."

"While there are no fast cures for agriculture's current problems, three major efforts to aid all of agriculture are underway by the administration. These include market expansion, especially the export markets; getting the interest rate down, and working toward long-term agricultural policy to help adjust production to the level of consumption," Ford said.

He pointed to the success of ongoing programs in animal health with Mexico, which have been of mutual benefit to both countries, and said "this cooperative effort needs to continue."

In the late 1940's, a cooperative program to eliminate foot-and-mouth disease was launched with Mexico, and the successful screwworm eradication program has followed. "These

Feeder cattle stats show increase

Figures in all categories were up slightly in a seven-state July cattle on feed report just issued.

"The report stated that numbers of cattle on feed July 1 were up four percent, those marketed during the April-June quarter up two percent, numbers placed on feed during April-June up three percent and net placements up five percent," says Dr. Edward Uvacek, Jr., economist in livestock marketing with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

The number of cattle on feed was a little higher than expected because of lower fed cattle marketings and greater numbers of placements into feedlots (during the April-June quarter), he notes.

"The higher placement figure was due to strong increases in June," he explains. "For example, June placements in Kansas, Nebraska, and Texas feedlots were up 15 percent from a year ago."

Feedlot placements so far in 1982 are running nine percent above last year's level, which means more fed cattle in the second half of this year, Uvacek says.

"The USDA estimates fed cattle marketings for July-September will be up five percent from 1981, at 5.7 million head," he announces.

With net placements up 19 percent in the first quarter and five percent in the second, fed cattle marketings are expected to increase during the next few months. Uvacek points out that under such conditions, cattle prices will do well to hold up to current levels.

As for competition from other meats, pork production is forecast to be 11 to 14 percent lower in the last two calendar quarters and poultry supplies should only be up two to three percent.

The hard thing to understand from the July report is why feeder cattle prices haven't improved," he states. "The larger feedlot placements and better profits were expected to erode the substantial price discount being experienced by feeders."

With calf marketings expected to increase soon, price improvement for feeders relative to slaughter cattle doesn't seem too likely, Uvacek says.

A ruby of good color ranks above a diamond in value. The finest rubies (known as Pigeon's Blood) come from Upper Burma.

Some families seem to be able to handle the ups and downs of everyday living with greater ease than other families, says Dorothy Taylor, family life education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. What makes one family stronger or more capable than others? Research studies during the past decade have identified several common threads among many successful families. In strong families, members are united; they are all working toward the same goals. They value their family ties and spend time working and playing together, getting to know each member better.

Pipelines gain okay

Railroad Commission Chairman Jim Nugent has announced that 31 permits to operate new pipelines in Texas were granted by the RRC in July.

Through the first seven months of this year, the Commission has issued 102 permits to operate new lines. For the same period last year, 97 permits were approved.

Twelve of the permits in July were for gathering pipelines, nine were for trunk transmission lines, and three were for gas plants. Seven were for multi-purpose or other lines.

Gathering lines bring oil and gas from production leases, while a trunk transmission line is a larger diameter line into which smaller lines connect. At gas plants, natural gas is stripped of the liquid hydrocarbons usually present in wellhead gas.

Twenty-nine of the newly permitted lines will transport gas, while one will move petroleum products and another will transport crude oil.

Private pipelines accounted for 18 permits last month, while 13 were for gas utilities.

In July, 10 permits were granted for lines in deep South Texas, six in West Central Texas, four in the Refugio area, three in the San Angelo area, two each in Southeast Texas and the Panhandle, and one each in East Central Texas, North Texas, and the Lubbock and Midland areas.

Gathering lines approved:

John May Inc., Brownwood, gas, Brown and Coleman counties; Sun Exploration and Production, Houston, gas, Nueces, Cloer Gathering Corp., Houston, gas, Chambers County; Fremont Energy Corp., Denver, Colo., gas, (three lines, all in Webb County); El Paso Hydrocarbons Co., Odessa, gas, Eastland County; Texas Crude Inc., Houston, crude, Chambers County; T-Gas Pipeline Co., Houston, gas, San Patricio County; Penzoil Producing Co., Corpus Christi, gas Zapata County; Tejas Gas Corp., Corpus Christi, gas, De Witt County; Callacole Pipeline Co. Inc., Rapid City, S.D. gas, Callahan and Coleman counties.

Trunk transmission lines approved:

Campeon Pipeline Corp., Dallas, gas, (two lines, one in Limestone County and the other in Parker County); Compression-Trans Carrier Inc., Odessa, gas, Concho County; Esperanza Transmission Co., Corpus Christi, gas (five lines—one each in Goliad, DeWitt, Nueces, Brooks, and Duval counties); Tejas Gas Corp., corpus Christi, gas, Nueces County.

Gas plant lines approved: The Superior Oil Co., The Woodlands, gas, Lavaca County; Warren

Petroleum Co., Tulsa, Okla., gas, Hemphill, Northern Gas Products Co., Omaha, Neb., gas, Crane and Pecos counties.

Multi-purpose and other lines approved:

The New Energy Co., Midland, gas, (two lines, one in Reagan County and the other in Montague County); Panhandle Ethanol Producer Corp., Pampa, gas Gray County; Sun Exploration and Production, Snyder, gas, Tom Green County; Haskell Gathering Co., San Antonio, gas Shackelford County; Union Texas Pipeline Corp., Houston, gas, Glasscock, Sterling, Upton, Midland, Ector, Callahan, Nolan, Coke, Coleman, Taylor, Runnels, Mitchell, Grayson, Cooke, Gaines, Terry, and Reagan counties; Union Texas Petroleum Corp., Houston, products, Gaines County.

Oil, gas controls causing problems

Railroad Commission Chairman Jim Nugent said Congress will "be truly irresponsible" if it fails to relieve natural gas supplies of "controls and constraints" before they create shortages in future years.

The shortages, Nugent warned, could be caused by another oil crisis, increasing cost of alternate fuels or a rebound in the nation's economy that would return demand for natural gas to higher levels.

Nugent made the comments to members of the House Subcommittee on Fossil and Synthetic Fuels. The Subcommittee is conducting hearings into problems arising under federal natural gas policies, including the Natural Gas Policy Act of 1978.

Nugent told the Subcommittee that federal policy contributes to the deterioration of the Texas gas supply system by giving out-of-state purchasers price advantages and privileged access to gas reserves. The result has been an increase in the percentage of Texas gas shipped out of state and a decrease in the amount available to Texans.

Current inequities will seem slight, when compared with "the jolt the NGPA promises in 1985," Nugent said. In 1985, price controls are to be lifted from large volumes of intrastate gas, making it even more difficult for Texas suppliers to compete for gas reserves.

The result, Nugent thinks could be a crippling of the petrochemical and refining industries of Texas and Louisiana. Because these industries are principal suppliers of many other automobiles, the recovery of the nation's economy could be severely retarded by uncertain gas supplies in Texas.

Nugent cited studies showing the Texas consumer will pay more for natural gas after 1985 under the NGPA than under plans for accelerated decontrol of prices.

Some people once believed that mountains were formed by an enormous underground serpent moving about.

According to Railroad Commission data, since 1974, the amount of Texas gas which stays in Texas for local consumption has gone down by 26 percent.

Most falls for older adults occur between the bed and bath, so "think safety" in these areas, advises Dr. Peggy Owens, a housing and home furnishings specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Safety features that help avoid falls include grab bars and non-skid surfaces in the tub or shower. Also a seat in the shower aids disabled persons.

DRN schedules grid contest

Gridiron fans will have a treat in store this fall as the Devil's River News in Sonora unveils its new Jackpot Football Contest in the September 1 edition of the newspaper.

The new contest will differ from the contest conducted by the News last fall in that each sponsor will have a football game listed in their advertisement on the football page.

To enter the contest, local grid fans must pick up an entry blank from one of the participating merchants, fill it out using the games in each ad, and turn it in at the News office by 5 p.m. each Friday.

Prize money will go to the first, second and third place winners each week, and the jackpot will build each week until someone claims it. Prize money and the jackpot will depend on the number of sponsors who sign up for the contest.

"Merchants really like this form of contest because they have three chances to sell their merchandise. They get an ad on the contest, contestants have to pick up their entry blanks from one of the participating merchants and then if they win, must pick up their money from the location where they obtained their blank.

"If the jackpot, which should build up to around $300, is not won by the end of the football season and remains unclaimed, we will donate it to the Bronco Booster Club," News editor Terry B. Neill said this week.

News staffers will be contacting local merchants about sponsoring the contest beginning this week. Any merchant who is not contacted and wants to be a part of the new contest should call Neill at the Devil's River News.

Jerry Lackey's Country Folk

Little showers scattered across many parts of West Texas last week helped much of the terrain—at least to keep the grass alive—but mostly they helped bring the temperatures down.

Comfort, Texas has been on the outside of summer rains and for the most part was a drought pocket in the middle of the Hill Country. That is, until last week! County officials had enough of it, so they hired a rain dancer to bring rain. On the day of the big event, the dance was rained out!

This columnist traveled the Big Country last week. Home of the Hereford cattle, Albany, Texas, is in top shape for late summer. Tall grass waves in the wind.

I drove through Sweetwater and over to Sterling City and Barnhart to Big Lake. The Reagan County area is also in good shape.

Some upcoming events which you may want to place on the calendar by the icebox: Lamb and wool producers will have the opportunity to vote for the referendum August 16-17; and Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association will sponsor a membership team roping and barrel racing at the Southwest Texas Junior College in Uvalde August 14.

Also, August 28 is the kickoff of the Cattlemen's Round-Up for Crippled Children for 1982. The barbecue supper at the Hoolihan Acres at Mertzton will be followed by a cattle sale in Abilene in September 27 and special sheep and goat sales in Junction and Coleman in October. The annual CRCC Horse Sale will also be a part of the round-up.

In Del Rio the other day, the bankers were discussing the "again devalued peso." Running out of dollars for the second time in six months, the Mexican government freed its weakening peso to float to a sharply devalued level in free trading.

Mexico's last major devaluation, in mid-February, brought the peso from 27 to the dollar to 45. Banking analysts expected the peso, pegged at 49 to the dollar last week, to plunge to around 80 to the dollar.

The devaluation will hurt U.S. businessmen near the border who depend heavily on retail purchases by Mexicans, whose pesos will buy fewer dollar-priced goods.

Following the sharp price last week, increases were realized for bread, tortillas and gasoline. It was expected to push Mexican inflation far above the current 60 percent a year

Benefit planned

The Jack Lawson Benefit softball tournament will be held August 27, 28 and 29 at the Sonora Community softball field. The "guys and dolls" tournament will begin Friday evening and extend through Sunday. Entry fee is $75, and deadline for entries is noon Thursday, August 26.

The tournament is sponsored by Sanchez Construction and Grider Trucking women's softball teams.

First, second, third and fourth place trophies will be awarded as well as individual trophies for members of the first and second place teams. Those chosen all tournament will also receive individual trophies. "Most Valuable Player" trophies will be divided into "Mr. and Ms. Offense" and "Mr. and Ms. Defense" categories.

A "guys and dolls" tournament team consists of five men and five women. Special rules are used. Men must bat with a 28 inch bat and if the pitcher walks a man, the woman batting behind him may also walk. The balls used must be restricted flight, no rocket or polycore softballs. Each team must furnish its own balls. There must be five women on the field at all times. No steel spikes will be allowed. ASA rules will be followed and ASA umpires will preside.

A concession stand will be provided.

Rosters are due along with the entry fee before a team's first game. After the first game, a team's roster is final.

To enter or request additional information call Cindy at 387-5234, (after 5) Kay at 387-5166 or Janice 387-3906. Entry fees may be mailed to 903 E. 2nd. Individuals or businesses wishing to donate trophies, concession stand food or volunteers to assist with the tournament should call one of the numbers above.

Demo officials like Clements

EDITOR'S NOTE--The following article is being reprinted from the San Antonio Light. The Associated Press article details the switch of four Democrats to Governor Bill Clements' camp in the 1982 governor's race.

Four former Democratic state attorneys general said yesterday they have chosen Republican Gov. Bill Clements over Democratic nominee, Attorney General Mark White.

"I admire his political guts," said John Ben Shepard of Odessa, who was attorney general in 1953-57. "I'm speaking as an independent Democrat."

"The attorney general has at his command the entire professional energy of his staff. I don't know what General White has done with the office," said Will Wilson of Austin, who was state attorney general 1957-63 and then received a Republican appointment as assistant U.S. attorney general in 1969.

"I am not aware of any significant projects he has accomplished with the office," Wilson said.

Reserve seat tickets now on sale here

Reserve seat tickets for the 1982 Sonora Bronco football season are now on sale at the administration building, according to school officials.

Persons who had reserve ticket seats last season will have first choice this fall, through August 20, when the tickets will be released to the general public.

Prices for the tickets will be the same as last year, $12.50 for five home games. Tickets may be picked up between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. at the administration office, Monday through Friday.

Wagoner Carr, who was attorney general 1963-67, said he offered Clements his support "in the firm belief he will provide stronger leadership during the next four years in fighting back the forces demanding more and more government spending and higher taxes."

Clements said former Attorney General Gerald Mann of Dallas, was unable to attend but read a statement of endorsement from him.

None of the four had supported him in his first gubernatorial campaign, Clements said.

He also read a letter of endorsement from Margaret Martin of Austin, widow of former Attorney General Crawford Martin. She endorsed Clements in 1978.

Clements was asked about a report he might endorse Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, D-Texas.

"That is absolute nonsense," he said. "I am not going to get into any other race. My plate is full."

He said his staff was working on ways to help border businessmen hurt by the peso devaluation. "I do not anticipate we will be able to take any steps until we see how low the peso will go," he said.

By conservative estimate, more than 30 percent of the adult population is overweight. While we hear about numerous health problems associated with being overweight, few consider the consequences to their feet, says, Dr. Mary Ann Shirer, health education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Some ways that feet show the abuses of obesity include swelling, calluses, corns, heel pain, and ingrown toenails.

Tomatoes can be peeled more easily if they are first placed in boiling water for a minute, then plunged into cold water.

THIS FRIDAY, SATURDAY IN SONORA

Stage set for Sutton County Days

Add a rodeo, two dances, oldtimers reunion, auction, parade and a barbecue together and you have the ingredients for a good time. All are planned for the annual Sutton County Days celebration this Friday and Saturday in Sonora.

The auction has been revised for 1982, and slaves are no longer going to the highest bidder. Instead, local clubs are donating items to be auctioned off and proceeds will be going back to the organizations. The auction, and the overall celebration will be co-sponsored by the Sutton County Days Association and Sonora Chamber of Commerce, with most activities set for the courthouse lawn.

Local clubs and non-profit organizations are being asked to donate items for the auction, with all proceeds coming back to the respective clubs. "People need to remember that funds from the auction will not go to the chamber, but back to their clubs. This should be an excellent fund-raising activity," Edith James, Chamber secretary, said Friday.

The Halliburton Ladies have chipped in candy by Ilene Stuart, two cakes by Shirlene Smith and Karen Goins, a pecan pie by Gerda Schoonover and bread by Alice Barcroft.

Epsilon Sigma Alpha, Kappa Gamma, will be auctioning off a pecan pie, German chocolate cake, macrame wall hanging, a plant and other baked goods.

The Independent Cattle-men's Association will be auctioning off a one-day hunt for a fallow buck on the Bill Whitehead Ranch, a lighted make-up mirror from Merle Norman, $50 worth of t-bone steaks given by Dell Wilson and Ruth Espy, and a K.C. steak dinner for two given by Linda Love.

"Any non-profit organization that wants to include items in the auction should send a list, not to exceed five items, to the Chamber of Commerce," Ms. James reported.

L.P. Bloodworth, an accomplished auctioneer, will be running the sale and everyone is invited. "Bring your money and turn out," the Chamber official concluded.

Progress is well under way for the annual Sutton County Days, which will begin with a parade at 5 p.m. on Friday, August 20. Joan Jones is chairing the parade, which will conclude at the courthouse, where a barbecue is set for the lawn at 6 p.m. Gil Trainer and Libb Wallace are in charge of the barbecue.

At 7:30 p.m. the first performance of the rodeo is slated, according to Jim Garrett, chairman. "The rodeo committee is doing a great job and we would like to thank the people of Sonora for their continued support of the rodeo," Garrett said.

Sutton County country and western dance fans will be entertained at the Friday night dance by Sonora native Bill Green, a consummate musician who finds time to run a business and lead a band while he continues to compose such standards as "Texas Greats" and "Rainy Day Song."

With 15 singles currently under his belt, Green is probably best known for "Texas Fiddles" and "Fool Such As I." Six of his singles have made the national charts. Friday's dance will be held from 8 until midnight at the slab, located between the 4-H Center and rodeo arena.

Saturday night's dance will be held from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. and will feature well known recording star Darrell McCall. McCall has released more than 20 singles, many of which have made their way to the upper portion of regional and national charts.

Those include "Bury the Bottle with Me," "The Marionette," "The First Year," "Wrong Kind of Man," and "Hurry Up." His latest released by RCA is "Long Time of Empties," a song produced by Ronnie Milsap.

Darrell and his Mona and their two children live in Nashville, Tennessee.

Tickets for both dances are $5 and will be available at the gate. The dances are sponsored by the Sutton County Days Association.

Saturday will be a busy day with the opening ceremony scheduled for 9 a.m. Mary Jean Hamilton is in charge, with the Rev. David Griffin and Bill Gosney officiating. Members of the local Boy Scout troop will be on hand to assist with the raising of the flag.

The band will play and a pet show will commence at 9:15 a.m., followed by an oldtimers reunion at 9:30. Harva Cooper is in charge and has invited many oldtimers. An entertaining program is planned including a "sing-a-long."

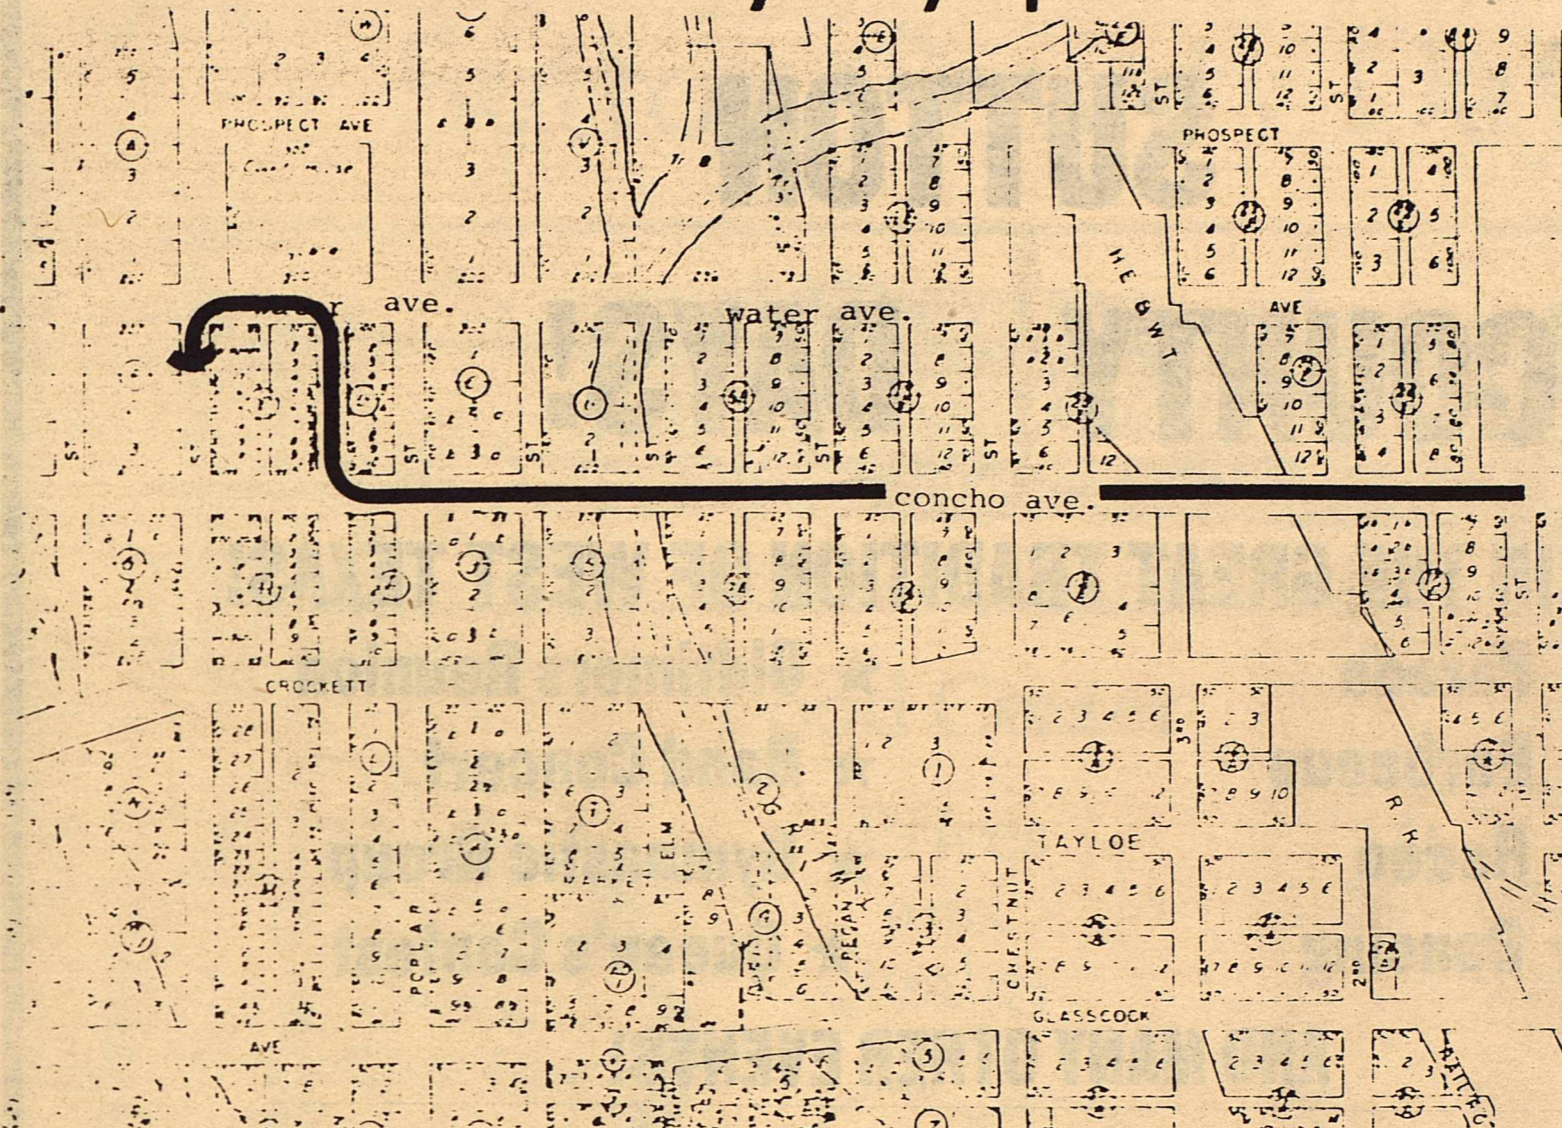

The popular "Little Mister and Miss Contest" will be held at 10 a.m. for boys and girls, ages three, four, and five. The oldtimers will also be introduced at 10.

'Fun Run' scheduled Saturday

The first annual Sutton County Days "Fun Run" will be held Saturday, August 21 beginning at 8:15 a.m. in Sonora.

Runners will jog from the courthouse down Poplar Street to Interstate 10 and back, a distance of one mile. Runners should be at the courthouse early in order to sign up for the race. No entry fee will be charged.

Age divisions will include nine and under; 10-15 year olds; 16-20 year olds; 21-30 year olds; 31-40 year olds; 41-50 years old; and over 50.

An "ageless" division will be held for those who refuse to reveal (or admit) their age. Everyone who finishes the race will be rewarded for their effort.

To grate soft cheeses more easily, pop into the freezer for 15 minutes before grating.

We feature the quality products, fast friendly service, and that little extra personal touch that Sutton County folks expect and deserve.

Come by and browse through our wide selection of wines and liquors, or drive through for an ice-cold six pack of beer or soft drink.

Or call us for fast, free delivery.

Rodeo begins Friday

Good crowds are expected for the eighth annual Sutton County Days Rodeo, slated this Friday and Saturday in Sonora. Both performances are planned for 8 p.m. at the rodeo arena.

Produced by a hometown stock contractor, the Devil's River Rodeo Company, the rodeo will feature six events—bareback bronc riding, saddle bronc riding, barrel racing, bull riding, and a favorite for the youngsters, the calf scramble.

Parents and spectators alike also enjoy the scramble, which features youths trying to collect money from the tails of elusive calves.

Trophy buckles will be awarded, along with $500 added money for the five events.

"The Sutton County Days Association and Sonora Chamber of Commerce appreciate the help and assistance they have received in the past. This enables the organizations to continue sponsoring Sutton County Days for your enjoyment.

"We hope to be able to keep things a little bit different each year for your pleasure. We invite the community to make suggestions and present new ideas to keep Sutton County Days interesting," Jim Garrett, rodeo chairman, said.

Dances will be held nightly following the rodeo. Bill Green will play on Friday night starting at 8 p.m. and concluding at midnight, while Darrell McCall will perform from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. Saturday night.

"We invite everyone out for a good time," Garrett concluded.

Riding high!

ton County Contest to be held on Saturday 21, are now being taken. To be eligible the children must be residents of Sutton County and between the ages of three and five years old. For more information or to enter your child, please call Roberta James at 387-2431 after 5. The deadline for entries will be Monday, August 16.

A square dance is slated for 11:30 a.m. on Main Street, and at noon the Bronco band will perform. At 1:30 the auction will commence. At 3 p.m. another square dance is planned and at 3:30 p.m. a gymnastic group will offer an exhibition.

Six candidates will vie for the Sutton County Days queen title, including Jennifer Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Spencer, sponsored by Sonora Lions Club; Kathy Doran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Doran, sponsored by Sonora Woman's Club; and Cindi Irwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Irwin, sponsored by Roadrunners Motorcycle Club.

Others are Kathryn Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Parker, sponsored by Independent Cattlemen's Association; Judy Merrill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Merrill, sponsored by the American Cancer Society; and Rebecca Powers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Powers, sponsored by Sonora Golf Auxiliary.

Chairwoman of the queen's contest is Mary Jean Hamilton. According to Mrs. Hamilton, the queen contestants will sell tickets to the rodeo, and the one who sells the most tickets will take the queen's crown and a $300 scholarship.

Shelly Chaney, chairwoman of the arts and crafts exhibits, reports she has had many applications sent in for booths and lawn spaces, and urges any person wanting a booth or space to please let her know.

There will be food booths and cold drinks and concession stands, and the Sonora Volunteer Fire Department will be in charge of the games, scheduled during the day Saturday, and Bill Stewart is heading up the old jail and Miers home tour.

Jim Cusenbary, who is in charge of the construction and clean-up crews, needs more volunteer workers. His crews set up the booths, tables, trash cans, etc.

Stars coming for SCD dances

West Texans who enjoy country and western music and dancing the two step and waltz will be in for a treat during Sutton County Days, this Friday and Saturday.

Dances are planned both nights at the slab, located between the 4-H Center and rodeo arena.

Friday's dance will be held from 8 p.m. until midnight with Sonora native Bill Green and his "Texas Greats" performing, while Saturday's dance will be from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. and Darrell McCall will be on stage.

Sam Pendergrast, editor of the magazine, "West Texas," had kind words for Green.

Bill is a (Sonora) native, and the handsome collegiate type with the Merino hairdo is not only a virtual pop symphony himself—ranging from a lambent harmonica on 'Lord, You Gave Me a Mountain' to a Bob Willsy fiddle on 'Faded Love' and a more violinesque rendition of the hauntingly beautiful 'Westphalia Waltz'—but an obviously top-star-bound vocalist-composer and frontman for a band (featuring Austin's Mossbergs and Angelo's Charlie Walton) that can vut a rug from the Neches River to Nashville.

"(In fact, with usual Pendergrast timing, I was the last to realize such numbers as 'Austin on a Saturday Night' had already been cut-on celluloid rugs-by the San Antonio based Green, along with the finale hymn to a Texas morning already in the works.)"

"I suspected Green and the Greats had some scope when they opened with a schottische and a polka and a waltz and 'Cotton-Eyed Joe,' then whipped out a rocky 'Johnny B. Goode' for the kids and me. But they almost literally played the gamut of western classics from a wailing 'Fraulein' and 'Tonight the Bottle Let Me Down' to Willie Nelson's 'Whiskey River' by way of an innovative 'Orange Blossom Special,'" Pendergrast reported.

Darrell McCall, a fast-rising young star, was born near Hillsboro, Ohio, attended high school there and worked as a disc jockey on the local radio station. After a hitch in the Army, he migrated to Nashville where he got a job as a

Artists will have displays

This weekend McCall and Green will be entertaining Sutton County residents and other West Texans as Sutton County Days unfolds.

Entries are coming in at a steady rate for the arts and crafts display planned during Sutton County Days this weekend.

Booths and lawn spaces will be available on the courthouse lawn Friday and Saturday during the annual celebration, with people from all over West Texas and Sonora participating.

Oil paintings, macrame, plaster work, woodworking, leather work, needlework and other art forms will be featured, and many will be for sale.

"As of today we have 16 lawn spaces reserved and 14 booths. More are available, so call and reserve your space now," a spokesman said.

"We are looking forward to a very exciting and successful Sutton County Days and hope to see you there," she concluded.

Displays on tap for SCD

Sutton County Days will be "long" on good food in 1982, with food booths featuring Mexican food, nachos, cokes and salad already planned.

Diana Trainer is in charge of the food booths, assisted by Doris Merri-man.

"Any non-profit organization that wishes to rent a booth and sell food during Sutton County Days should call me at 387-3033 or 387-3422," Mrs. Trainer said.

The booths are free of charge, with the proceeds going to the organization furnishing the food. "Please contact us as soon as possible," Mrs. Trainer reported.

The booths will be located on the courthouse lawn.

Contest set for children

Another feature of Sutton County Days this weekend will be the "little Mister and Miss Contest," on tap for 10 a.m. Saturday on the courthouse lawn.

"This will be one of the real exciting events. The little children love the fun and excitement," Mrs. Roberta James, chairman, said.

Parents wanting to enter children in the contest may do so by calling 387-2431 or 387-3861. Children must be between the ages of three and five.

"A panel of judges will be on hand to pick the winners with prizes going to the first, second and third place finishers," Mrs. James said.

Pet Show planned

Entries are sought for the annual pet show, scheduled for Sutton County Days this weekend.

The pet show will be held beginning at 9:15 on the courthouse lawn. Persons wanting to enter pets should bring them to the courthouse lawn Saturday morning.

Jan Robertson will be in charge of the show for 1982, and reports that a panel of judges will select winners.

"Bring your pets, regardless of size or shape, and enter this fun event. Your pet is sure to take home a prize ribbon.

Anyone wanting information should call me at 387-3475. I hope to see all of those favorite pets at Sutton County Days," Mrs. Robertson said.

IN SUTTON COUNTY DAYS

Chamber prexy urges participation

An Open Letter To The People of Sutton County and West Texas:

Plans for the eighth annual Sutton County Days are in their final stages, and this year's festivities promise to be something you will not want to miss.

In addition to the familiar activities such as the pet show, oldtimers' reunion, queen contest, and the Little Miss and Mister Contest, several new and exciting activities have been planned.

One of these is the auction, scheduled for 1:30 p.m. on Saturday. Several area non-profit organizations will auction off baked goods, arts and crafts items, and some unique items such as a one-day fallow deer hunt, $50 worth of T-bone steaks, a lighted make-up mirror, and a steak dinner.

All proceeds from the auction go back to the non-profit groups entering the sale items; so bring your checkbook and support this new activity.

In addition, several area bands, square dancers, and gymnastic groups will be performing throughout the day.

The "Little Mr. and Miss Contest" has also been expanded to allow separate divisions for three, four, and five-year-old contestants.

This year's rodeo will be as exciting as ever, with the thrills and spills being supplied through the courtesy of the contestants and the Devil's River Rodeo Company.

And, if you like to dance, you won't find any better two-stepping than to Bill Green on Friday night, and Saturday night's dance featuring Darrell McCall.

This is the second year of the chamber's involvement in Sutton County Days, and the partnership with the Sutton County Days Association has all the makings of a lasting relationship that will benefit our community for many years to come.

A special thank you should be extended the chamber board members who served on this as well as Herb Jones and the rest of the Sutton County Days Association members, who are responsible for the continued success of this activity.

Another group of individuals who deserve special recognition are those who serve as division chairmen and helpers.

All these groups and individuals work many hours preparing for Sutton County Days, and their only "thank-you" is the one they will receive from you as a participant. Be sure and don't forget to express your appreciation to these volunteers.

At this point the only thing lacking to make this year's activities a big success is your participation. Please consider this your personal invitation to join in the fun and games, and

I do hope you will make a special effort to attend.

Sincerely yours,
Hal Spain, President
Sonora Chamber Board of Directors

Young residents have fun too.

Auction items will be a varied

L.P. Bloodworth, described by Chamber of Commerce officials as "an excellent auctioneer," will perform his talent at the Sutton County Days Auction this Saturday.

Scheduled for the court-house lawn, the auction is being held in conjunction with Sutton County Days, and will commence at 1:30 p.m.

Several local clubs and/or organizations have donated items to be auctioned off, with proceeds coming back to the respective groups.

The Halliburton Ladies Club will be selling candy, cakes, pecan pies and bread, while Kappa Gamma will sell a pecan pie, German chocolate cake, macrame wall hanging, plant and baked goods.

The Independent Cattle-men's Association will be auctioning off a one day fallow buck hunt on the Bill Whitehead Ranch (bidding will start at $100), a lighted make-up mirror from Merle Norman, $50 worth of t-bone steak from Dee Tyler at the Branding Iron, given by Dell Wilson and Ruth Espy, and a K.C. steak dinner for two at the Steakhouse, given by Linda Love.

Local 4-Hers will be selling a set of six place mats, a while the Los Amigos Club will auction off ceramic hanging pots for plants, a brass pot with white porcelain handle and a Mexican flowered dress.

"Be sure and attend the auction, listen to an entertaining auctioneer and take home a worthwhile prize," a Chamber spokesman said.

AT SUTTON COUNTY DAYS

Oldtimers get reacquainted

Every effort is being made this year to invite Sonora area oldtimers to the Sutton County Days celebration this Friday and Saturday in Sonora.

Harva Cooper, chairman of the oldtimers reunion, has sent letters of invitation to many oldtimers in Sonora and other cities.

"I would like to remind citizens of Sonora and former residents, no age limit, to contact myself at 387-5304 or the Chamber of Commerce at 387-2800 to register," Ms. Cooper said.

Registration will begin at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, and

Ms. Cooper has planned a special program. Each will be issued a name tag, and a place to park their cars and special seats will be available.

"We plan to have as many conveniences available as possible, so that all of those in attendance can reunion," Ms. Cooper said. "Just so there will be no confusion, there will be no charge to register and free doughnuts and coffee will be served to all oldtimers. Last year was a wonderful event and we hope this year will be another memorable one," she concluded.

Peanut butter contains about 25 percent protein.

Some say that the phrase "rule of thumb" comes from a practice that was once common among brewers. The chief brewer used to test the temperature of a batch of brew by dipping in his thumb.
