In order to implement prior orders of the Public Utility Commission of Texas in Docket No. 3957, notice is hereby given of Southwestern Bell's proposal to implement a new schedule of intrastate long distance rates, effective April 1, 1983, unless otherwise determined by the

It is expected that the proposed rate schedule will not increase the company's net intrastate revenues, but rather, the increased rates will offset increased settlements paid to certain other telephone companies.

A complete copy of the new rate schedule is on file with the Public Utility Commission at Austin, Texas, and is available for inspection in each of the company's public business offices

Notice to Customers of Other Telephone Companies

Changes in intrastate long distance rates would also affect customers of other telephone companies because such companies provide intrastate long distance service in accordance with rates specified in Southwestern Bell's tariffs.

Aviso Público

Southwestern Bell, con el objeto de cumplir con el decreto previo del Public Utility Commission (Comisión de Servicios Públicos) del Estado de Texas, Acta No. 3957, por la presente hace saber su intención de establecer un nuevo arancel de tarifas para servicio intraestatal de larga distancia, con vigencia a partir del 10 de abril de 1983, a menos que la Comisión haga otra determinación.

Se espera que el nuevo arancel de tarifas que Southwestern Bell se propone establecer no aumentará sus ingresos netos intraestatales, sino que servirá para compensar el aumento de los ajustes que se les paga a algunas otras compañías de teléfono.

Una copia completa del nuevo arancel de tarifas se ha archivado en las oficinas del Public Utility Commission (Comisión de Servicios Públicos) en Austin, Texas, y esta disponible para inspección pública en todas nuestras oficinas en el Estado de Texas.

OPEC Disarray Causes Price Cut

Producing Exporting Countries, or OPEC, have called an emergency meeting to try to firm up the price of oil by sticking to firm production figures. If an agreement is not reached, some observers say the price of oil could be reduced by as much as four dollars a barrel. As a rule, when the price drops one dollar a barrel, it reduces the price of gasoline by 21/2 cents a gallon. A price decrease of four dollars a barrel would save

Legislature Names Committee Jobs

Members of the Texas House of Representatives received their new committee assignments for the 68th Legislature and Speaker Gibson D. (Gib) Lewis told them the new "should expedite the flow of legislation, foster greater cooperation and encourage more direct member involvement in the legislative process.

"And, if that proves the case," he told the House, 'then the real winners at the end of this session with be the people of Texas."

Under changes to its rules adopted by members last week, the number of standing committees for this session is increased from 31 in 1981 to 33.

The most graphic change was made in the Appropriations Committee which increased in membership from 21 to 29 members and is made up of the Chairmen for Budget and Oversight of the 28 substantive committees of the House.

The increased number proves a real boon to San Antonio which now has three members on the budget writing panel as opposed to two in 1981.

It also gives Bexar County the largest number of members on the committee ahead of Houston Minorities also gain greater representation in the important chairmanship posts.

By virtue of having six Chairmen for Budget and Oversight on other committees, the Mexican American delegation automatically gets the same number of seats on the Appropriations Committee. They held four on the same committee. Committee chairmanships went to three

Mexican American House members -- compared to two in 1981 -- and vice chairmanships increased from two to four. In addition, Rep. Hugo Berlanga has been named the first Hispanic Speaker Pro Tem in history for the 68th Legislature.

The House Black Caucua also gains a seat on Appropriations where it held on in the last session.

The new committee assignments, as Lewis also promised, better reflect the interests of the members and the constituency they represent.

Agriculture and Livestock, for example, is made up entirely of rural House members.

The same is true with the County Affairs Committee -- which will deal with legislation effecting county units of government -- where the membership is weighted 11 rural to four urban members.

On the other hand, the Urban Affairs Committee -with jurisdiction over matters effecting cities and municipalities -- is made up exclusively of urban mem-

However, on committees that will be handling legislation of statewide importance and concern, the rural-urban membership is as nearly evenly divided as it can be with the usually nine-member panels.

For example, the Business and Commerce Committee has five rural members and four urban Higher members, Education at five-to-four-Transportation, Financial Institutions, Enforcement and Judicial Affairs, to name a few.

Speaker Lewis said this reflects "the allout effort to balance committees with people who have an interest and some experience in the particular jurisdiction of

"In that way, I feel we are better assured of active participation and input from those committee members that will follow through the entire process right up to the voting on the House floor."

Only six members are being carried over in the same chairmanships they held in the 1981 session.

Ten others will be chairing new committees while the remaining 17 committees will be under new

"Again," Lewis noted, "we have attempted to achieve a balance of the old and the new.

"We have given some of our previous chairmen new assignments where they can utilize their experience to the best advantage.

"But I am particularly proud of the crop of new chairman, many promoted to the post after valuable experience and service as vice chairs, Charimen of Budget and Oversight of leading members of the same, or other, commit-tees," he said.

Flexibility and adaptability to fulfill local needs and situations are the outstanding features of the community education programs offered by the American Lung Association of Texas.

Programs are planned for people of all ages with chronic breathing problems and disabilities. Activities include: The Family Asthma Program; Better Living, Better Breathing Clubs; and Freedom From Smoking a self-help guide to independent smoking cessation. For those unable to stop smoking without peer support, new materials have been produced to provide information for use in group sessions.

The Family Asthma Program is a seven-week course for children 7-12 years of age. Exercise and avoidance of factors which trigger asthmatic episodes are features of the classes. The program is structured as an adjunct to medical treatment. A series of classes for pre-school children will be offered in the near future.

To date, 22 Better Living, Better Breathing Clubs are meeting in Texas towns and cities. These clubs help adults with lung disease and their families achieve a better understanding of their breathing problems and to increase levels of self-confidence. Each meeting offers advice from a physician or other health professional regarding a specific aspect of managing breathing problems. During the social period fast friendships are often formed on the basis of sharing mutual experiences and common problems. Asthma classes, breathing clubs and smoking cessation classes are available to most Texas towns, according Dr. K. Jow Robertson, President, American Lung Association of Texas. The literature and expertise necessary to organization of the clubs are furnished by ALAT. Volunteer program coordinators and instructors come prestigious location. from the local sector requesting the program.
