BHS Grads of 1982 Hold 20th Class Reunion In Clovis

BY DIANE HEARD

The Bovina High School class of 1982 held its 20th class reunion Saturday, June 22. Twenty classmates and their families gathered at the home of Diane Heard for a picnic hosted by Mark Teague, class president and Wendy (Sherrill) Curry, class secretary and historian.

Hamburgers and hot dogs with all the trimmings were enjoyed amidst a lot of visiting and catching up. The younger kids enjoyed water games while the teenagers tried to hide their boredom. Fifteen of the twenty classmates in attendance started first grade together back in 1970 with Pearl Hickman and Leola Williams at the then, very new Ridgela Elementary School. The original fifteen and their families were Mark and Melissa Teague and Andrew, Megan, Daniel and Emily of Minneapolis, Minnesota; Greg and Wendy (Sherrill) Curry and Coleman, Mason and Neely of Canyon; Joe and Connie (Shelby) Bowen and Domingue of Friona; Mario and Rebecca (Espinoza) Herrera of Bovina; De and LaToya (Hutto) Delean and Alysa Wilson of Bovina. Also, Tim and Shannon Grissom and Leanna and Alexa of Lubbock; Joe and

County's Cotton Yield For 2001 Led Region

Parmer County's cotton farmers led the region in bales and pounds per acre in the crop year of 2001.

According to final production figures released last week by Plains Cotton Growers of Lubbock, Parmer's final bale count was 153,700. This is also easily an all-time record for the county in terms of bales produced.

The final tally was 13,000 bales more than the final estimate from the final survey of Parmer County gins conducted by the Friona Star/Bovina Blade.

There is usually a difference in the two figures, since the survey contacts strictly the gins located in the county. There is usually an undetermined number of bales which are ginned across the county line.

Parmer County had 73,100 harvested acres from a planted acreage of 74,400. The yield averaged 1,009 pounds of lint per acre, for a count of 153,700 bales.

Nearest to Parmer County's yield was neighboring Castro County, with 938 pounds per acre. Castro outginned Parmer County by 3,300 bales, but only because the county harvested 80,300 acres of 81,700 planted.

The most acres planted by a single county was 309,000 in Dawson County, virtually all dryland. That county harvested 82,000 bales, which was 71,700 short of Parmer's total. Lynn County, south of Lubbock, planted 299,500 acres, but only harvested 110,300, which produced 61,500 bales.

Lubbock County planted 264,000 acres, 190,000 more than Parmer, and our total beat the South Plains county, 153,700 to 146,000.

However, our farmers haven't been aided by the weather so far in 2002, so maybe we'd better brag while we can!

County	Harvested Acres	Yield, Lbs/Acre	Bales
Parmer	73,100	1,009	153,700
Castro	80,300	938	157,000

Kerby, Jamerson Nominated For Wendy's Heisman Award

High school is a vital time for teenagers as they develop self-discipline, set goals, and build confidence to help them achieve success in all walks of life, as students, athletes, role models, and leaders in their communities.

With this in mind, Wendy's Old Fashioned Hamburger Restaurants created a program that honors the nation's top high school seniors who best exemplify a "scholar-citizen-athlete."

Bovina high school's Josh Kerby and Courtney Jamerson have been nominated for their academic aptitude, athletic talent, and tremendous display of commitment in and out of the classroom setting. These two promising young leaders represent the very best Bovina has to offer, as both are recognized for their achievements and outstanding levels of commitment to their teachers, classmates, and communities.

"These students are truly in a league of their own," says Archie Griffin, the only two-time winner of the prestigious Heisman Trophy and program spokesperson. "Each student nominated for the award has gone above and beyond expectations to help those in need, enhance their education, and pursue their dreams."

The program, now entering its ninth year, was created in 1994 through a partnership between Wendy's, the National Association of Secondary Principals and the Downtown Athletic Club, the home of the Heisman Memorial Trophy.

Josh Kerby, the son of Al and Susan Kerby, was nominated based upon the numerous activities in which he participates. He is actively involved in 4-H, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Student Council, and National Honor Society. He is ranked academically in the top ten for the class of 2003, and he participates in football, golf, track, and basketball. Among his recognitions are the A-B Honor Roll, Academic All District, numerous athletic honors, and various community support projects, including food, toy, and blood drives.

Courtney Jamerson, the daughter of Ricky and D'Lynn Jamerson, was nominated for this program based on her accomplishments in Student Council, Honor Society, FFA, and Fellowship of Christian Athletes. She is also actively involved in basketball and golf, and she is ranked in the academic top ten of the Class of 2003. Her awards include A-B Honor Roll, Most Valuable Golf Player, Basketball Fighting Heart Award, and volunteer projects for St. Jude's and the Red Cross.

WELCOME to Bovina's new police officer Brendon Banner. Brendon joins Chief Leon Saddler at the Bovina PD. He and his wife Brandi and 4-month-old Mackenzie have moved to Bovina from Borger. Publishers Are Honored By Congressman Combest

Bill and Carol Ellis, longtime publishers of the Friona Star/Bovina Blade, received a plaque this week from Congressman Larry Combest, containing the wording of a short speech he gave before the U.S. House of Representatives on June 18, 2002.

The text of Combest's remarks were entered into the Congressional Record, with the heading "Bill and Carol Ellis Celebrating 40 Years of News Work in Parmer County." Here is what the congressman said on the floor of the House:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise today to call my colleagues' attention to the remarkable careers that Bill and Carol Ellis have accomplished in the newspaper business in Parmer County. This year marks the 40th year that Mr. and Mrs. Ellis have served news consumers in Parmer County.

"Mr. Ellis' newspaper career began on the West Coast before he moved to Parmer County. He has served as news editor of the Friona Star. He later became managing editor of the publication. He and his wife Carol now own the publication through which they have served Parmer County residents well for 40 years. Bill and Carol Ellis also own the Bovina Blade, another publication that serves Parmer County residents.

"Bill and Carol Ellis, throughout their careers, have kept Parmer County residents informed about important issues affecting them, their communities and beyond.

Although their talents could have taken their careers to larger-circulation publications, Parmer County remained home, which has been to the benefit of the readers of the Bovina Blade and Friona Star.

"I would like to extend to Bill and Carol Ellis my thanks for their dedication to Parmer County residents, and I wish them well in their continued service to the public through providing informative and insightful coverage of Parmer County communities."

"We feel very humble to have been noticed and honored by Congressman Combest. Returning the favor, we would like to say that the 19th Congressional District of Texas has had top-notch representation for its entire history, beginning with the late George Mahon, then Kent Hance from Dimmitt and now Larry Combest, who has served our agricultural-related economy to his utmost abilities," said Bill and Carol Ellis.

COUPLE HONORED....Bill and Carol Ellis, publishers of the Friona Star and Bovina Blade, were honored by Congressman Larry Combest for their longtime tenure as Parmer County publishers (see story).

WE HAVE JUST celebrated the 226th anniversary of our nation's freedom, and also what seems to be the 226th increase in the cost of mailing a letter.

Actually, there haven't been that many rate increases. However, it is an increase of 1,233 per cent since our first class letters were mailed for three cents. Some folks think that the U.S. Postal Service is pricing itself out of business.

That may not be right, but the advent of FAX machines, as well as the internet, Fed-Ex and UPS have pretty well done away with many individuals' and companies' need to use the Postal Service when they want their messages and/or packages to be received in a timely manner.

One thing Ye Editor would like to see accomplished with the newest price hike in postage would be to get all of his mail on the same day it reaches our local post office.

The Friona Star has been in business for 77 years, and for the majority of that time, its post office box number has remain unchanged at #789. Yet, a week doesn't go by that we do not receive one or two items which bore our street address-a day later, mind you, with the stamped message "No Mail Receptacle." Often, such mail contains items which needed to be included in our current week's issue, but were not, because of the one-day delay in delivery.

Here's the irony in this situation:

We get UPS and Fed-Ex deliveries virtually on a daily basis. These delivery folks come to town from Amarillo or Plainview, and their personnel changes every so often. But after their second or third visit, they know every employee in our office, and deliver letters or packages to them along with that for our office.

Yet the post office folks, who have been here 1,233% longer, prefer to stamp letters "no mail receptacle," and make such mail a day late.

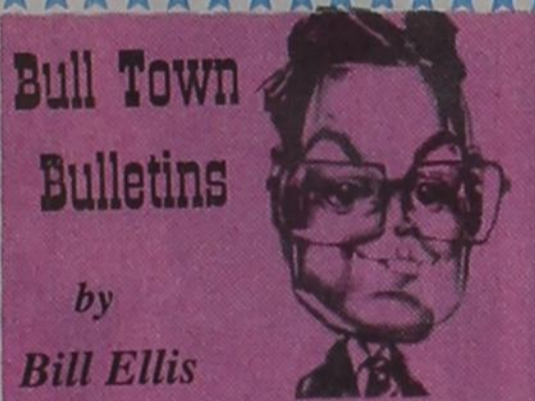

As a young man, Ye Editor worked in Lubbock's main post office building to help fund his college and family expenses. When a person started sorting mail there, they were given typed cards (simulating mail), and learned to sort them according to where they should go to be delivered.

There were many items addressed to downtown businesses, such as the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, Hemphill-Wells, Triple-S Drug, etc. Mail sorters were required to put these cards into their proper BOX SECTIONS, even if there was a street address listed. We had to learn the box sections for such businesses, and Lubbock was just SLIGHTLY larger than our local towns.

By the way, here's a puzzle. In Friona, one can have their mail delivered-either personal or business, to their street address, and there is no charge. However, if you choose to get your mail at a post office box, there is a charge. You have to make a trip down to the post office, and they charge YOU. If they bring it to your home or business, THEY pay for the gasoline. Where is the logic for this set-up?

We can't editorialize for scrapping the Postal Service, since that's how our newspapers are delivered. By the way, if you think the increase in your first class postage was unfair-we have had four or five increases in our second class (newspaper) rates during the time first class still remained at 34 cents.

In mid-June, I mailed a sympathy card, plus a separate mailing of a newspaper to an Amarillo address. Seventeen (17) days later, both pieces of mail came back, stamped "no forwarding order." Why it took the Amarillo postal folks 15 days to hand-stamp these and return them to me, I don't know. However, for 37 cents an ounce, surely some of these problems will be improved upon! I feel better already.

Emogene Gay Submits Life Story For Printing

Every month a resident of Prairie Acres Nursing Home submits a story about his/her life's history to be submitted in the home's newsletter, "The Prairie Times," and for printing in this issue. This month we feature Emogene Short Gay.

By Emogene Short Gay

I am 85 years old and was born October 21, 1916 in Grayson County, Texas. I was the second of seven children born to John William and Ethyl Belle (Harrison) Short. I have three sisters and three brothers, Roscoe Allan (deceased), James Emmett (deceased), Alton Winston lives in Pea Ridge, Arkansas, Alice Short Dobson (deceased), Margart Geneva Short Corley (deceased) and Vista Mae Short lives in Oregon.

As children, we worked in the cotton fields most of our lives and didn't get much formal schooling. We went to carnivals sometimes!

We moved from Sherman County to Olney, Texas while we were all very young. We grew up there and stayed till we married.

I met my husband, Glendon Robert Gay, known as Glen, at one of my friend's house. I knew right away that he was the one for me. We married September 7, 1933.

We have two daughters, Virginia Lee (Gay) Dunsworth was born September 26, 1934 and died February 28, 1992. Peggy Joyce (Gay) London of Friona was born November 28, 1936. We moved to Brownwood, Texas in 1939. Our son, Bobby Wayne Gay, was born November 10, 1940.

My husband was a carpenter for many years. He also broke horses and we had a milk cow. He worked for the city of Brownwood the latter years of his life. His hobbies were fishing and hunting.

I cared for my oldest daughter, due to a heart condition, for the last forty years of her life and also for my husband for the last 20 of those years.

I worked before my husband's heart attack at the Swift Packing Plant and then the Texas Feather Factory, winding feather dusters, for many years.

EMOGENE SHORT GAY

Glen died on December 26, 1994. We had been married for 61 years when he passed away.

I have seven grandchildren, fifteen great-grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren. My grandchildren still brag about my banana-nut bread and chocolate pie. My favorite hobbies were baking, sewing and making quilts.

I moved to Friona in August of 1996. I made my home with my daughter and son-in-law, Peggy and Richard London, until I moved to Prairie Acres in February of 2001. They have taken very good care of me here.

Participants will receive a low-cost screening mammogram. Each woman will receive a breast health risk appraisal and individual instruction by an RN in breast self-examination.

Funding is available through the Texas Department of Health for Texas residents who qualify for assistance. All exams are done by appointment only. Call (806) 356-1905 or 1-800-377-4673 for more information.

AN INNOCENT MAN IN PRISON!

UNJUSTLY IMPRISONED, JOSEPH SHOULD HAVE BEEN EMBITTERED TOWARD THE FATE THAT SEEMED TO ENVELOP HIM! WHO WOULD HAVE BLAMED HIM FOR DENOUNCING PHAROAH'S CRUELTY AND UNJUST SYSTEM OF IMPRISONMENT IN THOSE ANCIENT DUNGEONS? BUT JOSEPH WAS A MAN WHO TRUSTED GOD'S PURPOSE. HE DIDN'T WASTE TIME BEMOANING HIS DESTINY BUT TRIED IMMEDIATELY TO BETTER HIS CONDITION. (GENESIS 40: 22,23) BECAUSE OF HIS FAITH IN GOD AND GOD'S PROMISES HE SOON BECAME THE HEAD OF THE PRISONERS EMERGING AS RULER OF EGYPT ACCOUNTABLE TO PHAROAH ONLY.

J.W. Hromas, 77, Dies In Amarillo

A private memorial service for Joe Wesley Hromas, 77, was held Sunday, June 30 at the Amarillo Hospice Chapel. The service was presided over by his son, Kevin.

Hromas died Saturday, June 29, 2002 after a lengthy battle with cancer. A longtime resident of Levelland, he moved to Amarillo to be near his daughter Sherrilyn and brother Glen in November of 2002.

The second of three sons born to Anna (Pesch) and Joe Hromas, he was born May 18, 1925, outside of Moran in Shackelford County. The family moved to the Oklahoma Lane community later that same year.

After a tour of duty in the Naval Air Corps during the late stages of World War II, he returned to the Bovina area after his discharge. An aunt, Julia Leake, introduced him to Lois Jean Inness, and the couple married on July 21, 1946.

Hromas worked for the Cicero Smith Lumber Yard, serving as assistant manager at Bovina, Littlefield and O'Donnell. He was later transferred to Levelland in 1959, where he built the third house in that city's Country Club Addition.

In 1963, he left the lumber industry-but not far-entering the construction business to carry on the long held Hromas family tradition of highly skilled carpenters.

Many homes and businesses in Levelland, Sundown, Morton, Bovina and other West Texas towns bear testimony to his skill as a craftsman.

He worked for S.K. Rogers Construction from 1972 until retiring in the mid-1990s.

Survivors include three daughters, Marcie Lynn Hromas of Arlington, Sherrilyn Gay Hromas of Amarillo and Lynetta Jo Greene of Abilene, and a son, Kevin Bruce Hromas of Houston.

Also surviving is his younger brother, Glen Hromas of Amarillo and three grandchildren: Marissa, Christopher and Stephen Greene of Abilene; along with numerous cousins, nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by a son Larry in 1970, and an older brother, Eugene of Olney.

Widner served as senior class sponsors and attended the day's activities. Gene and Vi Hutto. Jay and Pat Sherrill, Don and Donna Teague and Esta Lee Lide with her grandson, Justin, came to the picnic to visit all their "other" children.

That evening, the class of 1982 and their "dates" enjoyed a prime rib dinner and dancing at the Colonial Park Country Club, reminiscent of their senior prom. The decorations included pictures, prophecies and paraphernalia from events enjoyed throughout their school years.

Certificates were awarded to several classmates in recognition of certain "accomplishments".

They were: Most children-Mark Teague with four; Mr. Smooth Operator, "most hair lost"-Doyle Garner; the metamorphosis award, "most changed" and longest marriage-Steven Pruitt.

Also, Grandparent award-Mary Rose Paterson; furthest traveled Jeanna (Richards) McLean from the Hawaiian Islands; most worldly and grayest-Joel Williford who traveled in the Navy; and most newlywed-Donna Beth (Lide) Strickland.

The day was a huge success and everyone had a great time. Plans are already being discussed for the 25 year reunion.

Sch. Board Approves Efficiency Contract

The Bovina School Board met in special session at 7 p.m. on Thursday, June 27. The main purpose of the meeting was a budget workshop.

All board members were present except Isabel Carrasco. Superintendent Michael Downes was the only staff member present. Visitor present was Marie Venable.

The board received training on their role in the budget process and a budget workshop was conducted.

A major item on the agenda was the acceptance of a performance contract from Johnson Controls, Inc., an international company that assists organizations with fuel efficiency (heating and air-conditioning) to save money.

In the case of Bovina ISD, Johnson Controls was awarded a 15-year performance contract. The basis of the contract is, if Johnson Controls does not save BISSD $18,000 per year, they are required to pay the difference.

According to school records, in the 2000-2001 year, school utilities were $34,395 for natural gas and $49,019 for electricity. Johnson Controls will manage the district's utilities to effect the required savings.

The board approved a motion to pay Johnson Controls $100,000 down and finance the contract balance of $137,726 over a 10-year period. The Johnson Controls office serving BISSD is located in Lubbock.

In other matters, the board went into executive session at 9:26 p.m. and came out at 10:55 p.m. They then accepted the resignation of Kayla Pipkin and extended a one year probationary contract to Doris Smith.
