Bazaar scheduled

The More the Merrier will be sponsoring its fifth annual bazaar Saturday December 8 from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Sonora.

Shoppers will again be offered a wide variety of homemade foods and craft items by creative artists from Sonora and surrounding areas. These artists will display and sell a wide array of handmade quality products designed to make your Christmas shopping easier and to add a more personal touch to your holiday gift giving.

Decorated Christmas cookies and Giant Gingerbread cookies will be an added feature this year.

Among the many items offered in the past for sale were quilted wall hangings, dolls, cross stitch, personalized gifts for the kitchen, bed and bath, woodcrafted items, handbuilt western scenes, ceramics and many more items.

Be sure to mark December 8 on the calendar and attend the annual bazaar in the First Baptist Church.

Society to visit

The annual Christmas party of the San Angelo Genealogical and Historical Society will be at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, December 4 in the fellowship hall of the former Western Hills Church of Christ 1902 N. Childress.

Mrs. Billye Scattergood, former editor of the Quarterly 'Stalkin' Kin', will present: "Never Shake An Ancestor's Tree".

Bring ancestor charts and forms for show and tell and your family's favorite Christmas food for refreshments. Visitors are always welcome.

DECA to sell fruit

The Distributive Education Clubs of America organization at Sonora High School is now having its annual Christmas fruit sale.

DECA students are selling oranges, apples, grapefruit and mixed fruit baskets.

If you are interested, please contact any DECA student or call 387-5212.

The fruit will be on sale through December 5 and will be delivered December 13, 14, and 15.

Representative due

State Comptroller Bob Bullock will have a representative from his San Angelo office in Sonora on December 4, 1984 to assist local taxpayers and answer questions about state taxes.

Bullock said Tax Representative Steve Mercer will meet with local taxpayers in the County Clerk's Office at the Courthouse from 10:00 to 11:00 a.m.

"If Sonora area merchants, or anyone else for that matter, have any questions about state taxes or need help in preparing state tax forms, Mr. Mercer will be there to assist them," Bullock said.

"We're trying to cut the red tape in this office, and we believe these face to face sessions with taxpayers help do just that," Bullock added.

The San Angelo office, headed by Mike Ulan, serves San Angelo and surrounding counties.

Clowns are coming

Many of you have been seeing our clowns around town spreading joy, peace, and happiness everywhere they go. Not very many individuals can resist a clown. There's just something special about a clown.

Our clowns have an extra special charm—they are "Clowns for Jesus"—seeking to use their talents to spread the gospel of Jesus Christ and bring smiles and laughter to children of all ages.

Sunday December 2, the Sunshine Gang will be at the First Assembly of God Church, located at 203 East Pecan, at 9:15 a.m. The clowns will be singing, performing skits, and magic acts.

During these Super Sunday Activities all children will receive a special be-good treat. Everyone is cordially invited to attend these special services.

Toy drive slated

Sonora High School's vocational occupational classes are kicking off their third annual drive in the community this week asking for donations of toys, clothes, food, money, or any other usable or repairable item to help make the holidays brighter for those who may not be able to provide extras for their families this year.

According to Reggie Williams, director of the program, the drive had its most successful year last year when more than 350 donors responded with all kinds of gifts, and more than $1,500 in cash was collected. The gifts were all distributed to needy families and the cash was used to buy additional food for baskets.

Thanks to the generosity of the citizens of Sutton County, this program provides a great deal for those who might not otherwise have much to look forward to during the holiday season.

Donors may contact the high school office, 387-3055, or Mr. Williams at home in the evenings at 387-2108. Items may be delivered to the vocational building at the corner of Second and Prospect, or will be called for. All donations are tax deductible.

AT ANNUAL GAME DINNER

Hunter of the Year honored

BY CAROL JONES

Horace B. Reagan of Big Spring was honored Tuesday night as Hunter of the Year at the annual Sutton County Game Dinner in the 4-H Center. Reagan has been hunting on the Jim Cusenbary ranch for the past 32 years.

Edward Brooks, 91, was also recognized at the beginning of the dinner. He has been hunting on the Brockman Ranch for over 45 years.

Bill Stewart also received an award of appreciation of dedication in helping to make the game dinner such a great success. Stewart has been "Head Hancho" for many years of the game dinner. This award was presented by Susie and Ken Rosford.

Approximately 600 guests were served Tuesday night. The menu consisted of dove, quail, bear, boar, venison, buffalo, Barbados, wild turkey, cabrito, mountain oysters, "son-of-a-gun" stew, coleslaw, beans, and peach cobbler along with tea.

L.P. Bloodworth was the emcee for the evening assisted by Charly McTee of KKYX Radio Station in San Antonio. Others aiding in the give-away included Quade Sutton, Bob Brockman, Al Elliott, Raina Newbury who drew numbers, just to name a few. Jim Cusenbary and Edith James assisted in registering guns to the winners.

Some of the prizes given away Tuesday night included 21 firearms, a television set, binoculars, numerous sizes of ice chests, knives, pens, lanterns, gallons of liquor, a gun rack, and many more items. Entertainment was furnished by a band consisting of four local men.

Toward the end of the drawing, Poacher of the Year award was presented to Tony Renfro on behalf of help in obtaining many of the exotic animals served at the dinner.

Gus Eustace was also presented an award by the Game Dinner Association in appreciation of the time he has devoted to the dinner. Since the inception of the dinner 16 years ago, Eustace has provided and cooked the wild boar.

Proceeds from the game dinner go back into the dinner in the form of prizes, food, etc. The Game Dinner Association recently purchases several tables for the 4-H Center. The association is currently trying to upgrade the quality and quantity of prizes given away each year.

Community Development bids denied

BY CAROL JONES

After much discussion, the Sonora City Council agreed Tuesday morning, November 20 to refuse all bids submitted on the Community Development project and re-advertise for bids to be submitted at the December meeting.

Two bids were opened at 9 a.m. by the council including a bid for $102,474 from Abilene Plumbing with an alternate bid of $83,929 including some deductions. The other bid came from H.B.H. Construction Co., Inc. of Odessa for $116,549 with an alternate bid of $108,839 with deductions.

The third bid coming in was from Manning Brothers Construction, represented by Lanny Hooper. Hooper arrived at the city council meeting a few minutes after the meeting and began to submit the third bid. After being told by Gary McKay, engineering consultant from Barber, Brannon, and Taylor, that his bid had not arrived in time to be considered, Hooper stated that he had been under the impression that he could call in the bid by 9 a.m. Tuesday morning and still be considered. He added that he had tried to contact two city personnel but they were not available. He concluded that he had arrived at the meeting at 9:06 a.m. and requested that the council consider re-advertising for the bids.

Council members decided since Hooper's bid was typed and since he had not had time to write in a lower bid (he was not present for the reading of the other bids), that he should be considered.

Under the law, once the bids have all been read, another bid may not be considered so the council will re-advertise and open all bids Tuesday morning December 18 at 9 a.m.

In other action, the council unanimously voted to take on the commodity distribution system for cheese and butter in Sutton County. Sutton County Commissioners had previously decided against the county government handling the distribution.

The program will involve one day per month of traveling to San Angelo after the commodities, travel time and mileage being reimbursed to the city by the federal government. It was pointed out that the city would not be responsible for the screening but would only act as a pass-through agent for the program.

Margaret Cascadden, city alderwoman, stated that the Parent Teacher Association of Sonora and the Petroettes would be interested in volunteering to help distribute the goods. The paperwork should be simple but files must be kept for three years.

Jim Dover, city manager, stated that the city's agreement to handle the program could be terminated at any time with 30 days written notice to the government.

The council voted Tuesday to grant permission to Adam Fay to park a mobile home on Lots 5 and 6 of Block Y. The grant is good for only one year at a time and Fay must reappear before the council each year.

A resolution of approval for the formation of an Underground Water Conservation District was unanimously passed by the council. This resolution shows support from the city officials in the formation of the district.

A request for a water and sewer connection for Loma Alto residents was tabled until another meeting due to the fact that Mike Villanueva was not present to discuss the matter with the council.

Following all regular business, Dennis Fisher appeared before members to inquire about the progress of moving a "Dead End" sign positioned in the corner of the lot that he lives on.

In a previous meeting Fisher had requested that the sign be placed further into the dead end block located at the corner of Chesnut and Prospect Streets. Council members had informed Fisher at that time that the sign must be positioned at that location according to law.

Tuesday morning council members reinstated that fact to Fisher and City Attorney David Wallace drew a map on the board to further illustrate the situation. He stated that a negligence case amounting to millions of dollars could be filed against the city should someone be injured or killed going off into the draw if the sign was not correctly positioned. If the city does not reform to the law, they become liable in the case of injury or death.

The state law requires that warning signs must be

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

The Sonora Junior High Student Council would graciously like to thank the following businesses for donating prizes for the bingo booth at the Halloween Carnival:
ABC Waterworks, C. J. Carol's Merle Norman, Food Center, Foodway, Modera Way, Sonic Drive-in, Photo Ranch, Western Auto, Sonora Auto Parts, P.M. Office Supplies, Commercial Printing, Hill's Jewelry, Ritz Movie Theatre, Spain's Inc., Mis Handiwork (and Hers), I-10 Exxon Service Station, Colonial Food Store, N.L. Tools, Westerman Drug, Sonora Floral, Gibson's Sonora Wool and Mohair, Teaff Oil Company, Dairy Queen, Circle S. Automotive, The Bright Spot, Della's Hair Studio, The Hurry-Up, Devil's River News, Tedford Jewelry, Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber, Gosney's, Agnes' Fiddlers, Perry's Image, and Oilfield Answering Service.

Dear Editor:

Several years ago one of our boys was discovered to have a hearing deficit and was fitted with his first hearing aid. At age 14 he was finally able to hear sounds. He especially loved listening to music.

One Sunday, shortly after receiving his hearing aids, he asked if he could sing a special song during worship services. Our Chaplain agreed even though he knew the boy had never sung in public before.

This young boy sang to thank God for his gift of hearing. Sung in a halting voice full of gratitude, the lyrics of "Open mine eyes that I may see, Open mine ears that I may hear," fell on a hushed and misty eyed audience.

That boy is now attending college, a proud and upright young man.

Your donations make more than food, shelter, and clothing possible for the 56 boys entrusted to our care. They also provide the means for the miracle of hearing music for the first time; they provide boys with learning disabilities the heretofore denied opportunity to learn to read; they provide a loving and caring staff to nurture and guide these young men.

Thank you, and May God Bless You for Your Kindness.

Merry Christmas to you and yours,

Robert Nickel, President

The Loneliness of Christmas

I look around and plainly see,
That Christmas wasn't meant for me

For other boys are home with their Mother and father and folks who care.

Best, I envy not, for I realize
I'm a different boy in those folks' eyes.

It's not supposed to mean so much
That I miss the kiss and loving touch.

Of a family close and very dear,
At this special lonely time of year.

All year long I'm able to hide
Beneath a front of youthful pride.

That the other boys might not know,
Of the ache inside that mustn't show.

But it's so hard when the weather chills,
And snow blows in from faraway hills,

To hide the tears welled in my eyes,
And my leaden heart with me lies,

Anxious for a family smile,
Accepting really all the while,

The loneliness again this year,
And I brush away a Christmas tear.

Dave Gottshall

Help take the loneliness out of Christmas for the boys of West Texas Boys Ranch by sending your contribution in an enclosed envelope.

Editors Note: The following proclamation is being published in conjunction with the article about adoption week and the Edna Gladney Home that appeared in the November 21 issue of the Devil's River News.

WHEREAS, America's greatest strength resides in its families;

WHEREAS, America has at least five million families formed by adoption or touched by adoption; and,

WHEREAS, these families include children who were adopted as infants, children who were adopted at older ages, children who were adopted across the lines of culture and race, children who were adopted notwithstanding the fact that they were physically or mentally challenged by handicaps, children who were members of sibling groups; and

WHEREAS, through adoption all these children came to know the benefits of the permanence that is central to a sound home life provided by a loving family; and

WHEREAS, society has benefited from loving care and attention provided by these children in adoptive families in that adopted children develop into some of our most productive responsible citizens as adults; and,

WHEREAS, we should especially recognize these parents, these children, and the fine adoption agencies which brought these children into new and loving homes;

THEREFORE, let it be known that I Matt Davenport, do proclaim November 18-24 1984 to be "Adoption Week" in Sonora and urge all citizens to take note of the fine programs that are dedicated to

Basketball Season under way

by CHARLIE ADAMS

The Sonora Broncos opened their season with four wins over the Junction Eagles. The varsity boys won 80-61, the varsity girls won 55-33, the JV boys won 46-23, and the JV girls won 61-28. The next night the Bronco girls continued their winning ways as they bested Wall 46-36. The JV girls also took Wall 41-28. The boys had a much tougher night against the Greenwood Rangers as they were ice-cold from the floor and fell 25-54. The JV boys also fell to Greenwood by a score of 35-51.

The varsity girls have been paced by senior post player, Debbie Bible. She has scored 15 & 18 points respectively in the two contests.

Forward senior Lea Whitehead has put in 14 & 6 points. Junior guard Gina Heffernan added 6 & 10 points. The rest of the scoring shows senior Della Heffernan with 4, sophomore Michelle McCleary 2, senior Debbie Shannon 6, junior Sidonna Ridgeway 1, senior Becca Powers 2, junior Carrie Sorenson 2, sophomore Kate Mathews 9, sophomore Bonnie Jackson 2, and freshman Julie Jackson 4. The team is off to a good start and looks very promising for the rest of the season.

Coach Clyde Dukes should have a very solid team by district play and figures to be right in the middle of the district race.

The JV girls seem to be strong this year and are presently being led by the two sophomore post players, Kathy Richter and Traci Cascadden.

For the two games Richter has 32 points and Cascadden has 24. Gay Ann Dobbs has scored 29, Alicia Sanchez 4, Michelle Adams 6, Lori Sotelo 2, Carla Crites 2, Delma Chavez 2, and Cindy Doran 1. Gigi Speers, Sandi Blankenship, Lancey Lowe and Rachel Merck makeup the rest of the team. The girls under the direction of coach Nancy Womack are off to a great start and show the promise of developing into a really strong team.

The varsity boys really started off with a hot hand Monday night against Junction but on Tuesday against Greenwood someone put a lid on the basket. The team is playing good defense but needs to be more consistent on the offensive end of the floor. A break-down of the offensive scoring shows Scott Miller with 25 points, Esau Ramirez 15, John David Martinez 6, Wayne Hill 4, Mickey Sharp 2, Ismael Duenes 8, Mike McBride 19, Gilbert Martinez 13, Glen Love 5, and David Noriega 8.

The JV boys under coach Stan Anderson showed that they will be a team to reckon with this year. They are playing good defense and overall excellent team play. Scoring totals for two games are:

Thomas Dehoyos 25, David Ramirez 13, Manuel Ramirez 8, Manuel Duran 6, Billy Collins 10, Joe San Miquel 2, Peter Perez 2, Shannon Turner 3, Santiago Faz 10, and Alex Duenes 2. Todd Phillips, Pat Badillo, Robert Harris, Eddie Ramirez, Mike Hooper, Duwayne Castro, George Arredondo and Primo Gonzales makeup the rest of the team.

This week the varsity boys and girls will host the Bronco Tournament, Thur-Fri-Sat.

Teams entered include Eldorado, Mason, Junction, Menard, Ballinger, Wall, Del Rio, Ft. Stockton and the Bronco JV's. Games start at 3 p.m. so come and see some good basketball.

Editors Note: This article is taken from the Pastor's Column of the First Baptist Church of Stamford, Texas written by pastor Bruce Lampert.

Well, the hunting season has finally arrived. There are several indicators if you just notice them. One of them is the calendar--it's that time of the year again. Another is the weather--the days are pleasant, but the mornings are crisp and cool. Some of the men of our church will turn up missing from time to time, and gun racks with a rifle or shotgun in them will start appearing in the backs of pickup trucks. You also notice that some people develop dreamy, far-away looks in their eyes when they see a flock of ducks or geese pass overhead.

Why do people hunt? There are a number of reasons, none of which has anything to do with the stereotyped brute who slaughters everything that moves.

One reason might be called compulsion. There seems to be something built into men that makes them want to be a provider. Most of our diet these days isn't made up of wild game. It's not particularly inexpensive when you add up all the combined costs. But if mankind really is a hunter by nature, that attitude seems to creep out more in the hunting season. We're still close enough to our frontier roots to identify quite well with the need of providing food for the table.

Another reason people hunt could be called companionship. There is a level of comradeship in a hunting camp that is seldom found anywhere else. Men, who wouldn't be caught dead in the kitchen at home, prepare their camp dishes with the gusto of a master chef. They also eat things they wouldn't touch at home. The night before a hunt, old stories are told and retold. It really doesn't make any difference whether or not the prey is taken if a man can get a story from it--that story will grow, be embellished, and gain importance as the years pass. In fact, there are times when a good story means more than a trophy. There is a rare kind of companionship on a hunt.

The challenge is a part of it, too. A human being pits himself against a creature of the wild in the creature's own habitat. There's a real challenge to outwitting another on his own turf.

The creation is involved, also. Here a person can learn, know, and come to appreciate God's creation. An outdoorsman has the unique opportunity to study and become acquainted with the other past-times don't provide. Many conservation projects have come about through the efforts of hunters, and many more have been financed, by license fees. There is hardly anything as peaceful as the sunrise out in the field, when there is a stillness so quiet that you can hear a leaf fall. The world wakes up in a truly marvelous way.

None of these things mentioned has much to do with firing a gun, and absolutely nothing to do with a desire to kill. Hunting does teach some self-preservation skills that could conceivably become important one day, and it does give the hunter some measure of self-confidence.

Hunting is neither advocated or prohibited in the Bible. There are a number of references in scripture to hunting and hunters. In Genesis 10:9 it says that Nimrod was a mighty hunter before the Lord. Esau, Jacob's brother, was a hunter and an outdoorsman. And in one of Jeremiah's prophecies he mentions that when Israel returned to the land of promise, God would send hunters to pursue those who had been unfaithful to Him (Jeremiah 16:16). When they come, they will be some of the people of God who have met Him early in the morning in the midst of His creation.

Christmas is near, the weather as well as the calendar tells us so. In the spirit of the festive season, the First Baptist Church will present the Hanging of the Green. A special service of decorating the sanctuary of the church for the season.

It will be done in a ceremony of narration and song. The Church Choir and others will participate to make this a musical and merry occasion.

The public is cordially invited to come and worship. The evergreen has long been associated with everlasting life so the symbolic use of it at the advent season is meaningful to remind us of the great gift of God to the world through Jesus Christ, the gift of eternal life.

WHY SPEND SO MUCH TO KEEP WARM?

Get a gas furnace. Gas furnaces save money. In fact, if you're heating your home with a non-gas system and you switch to high-efficiency gas heat, you'll cut your operating costs in half.

Sound too good to be true? Believe it. Because high-efficiency gas furnaces operate for half the cost of non-gas systems. And compared to older gas models, that are 60% efficient, new high-efficiency furnaces are 83 to 96 percent efficient. And most come with a twenty-year warranty. So you can save on heating costs for years to come.

Don't spend too much to keep warm. Get a gas furnace.

Rates to increase

West Texas Utilities Co.'s new rates will go into effect late this month or in early December, but most customers will hardly notice the difference.

The Public Utility Commission of Texas issued a final order Friday approving a settlement agreement reached earlier by WTU, the PUC staff and several intervening cities.

The compromise agreement includes a $12.4 million annual increase in base rates and a $13.3 million decrease in fuel expense charges. The net effect is an apparent revenue cut, but it does not mean customers bills will automatically go down nor that WTU will lose money.

In fact, for residential customers the annual effect will be an increase of about 4.36 percent. Their bills and those of commercial customers, will decrease slightly in the winter (November through April) and increase in the summer peak usage month. This means a modest profit for the utility.

As for the fuel cost recovery, fuel expenses, by law, are simply passed through to customers. The fuel cost factor, or rate, is set for a year at a time, but eventually is adjusted so that the company does not gain or lose money.

Under the new rates, a residential customer using 600 kilowatt-hours per month and who does not have electric heating will pay $47.42 in the winter and $52.91 in the summer. Currently that customer pays $47.50 and $48.63, respectively.

WTU initially sought a $30.8 million annual revenue increase in the case filed this past June. The main reason cited for the increase was the Company's construction program which includes the new Oklahoma Power Station, a coal-fired plant being built near Vernon. The plan is slated for completion in December 1986.

Healing and restoration service slated Dec. 11

Reverend Edward J. McDonough, Roman Catholic priest and member of the Redemptorists will be visiting Sonora Tuesday December 11.

Fr. McDonough will conduct a healing and restoration service at Saint Ann's Catholic Church December 11 at 7:30 p.m.

He conducts his healing services as a para-liturgical prayer service. He heads the congregation in sharing their faith and prayers for each other for spiritual, physical and emotional healings.

Fr. McDonough has expressed his desire that everyone be invited to this service. In his words, "all denominations are invited and welcome".

Fr. McDonough studied at the Redemptorist seminaries in Pennsylvania, Maryland and New York as well as the Catholic University in Washington D.C. and Boston College. He holds a Master's Degree in Counseling and Guidance from Boston College. He also conducts retreats, seminars, teaching seminars, and healing services throughout the U.S. and other parts of the world.

Fr. McDonough is also a member of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publications. He composed the words and music for the theme song of the healing and restoration ministry, "Gentle Shepherd".

Rainfall reported

The October rainfall total for Sonora was 4.25 inches according to figures provided by Glen Fisher at Sonora Wool and Mohair. Total rainfall for 1984 through October now stands at 12.36 inches. Despite welcome showers during the month this total is still far short of the annual average.

September rainfall measured 2.89 inches, or 7.14 inches for the past two months. The total recorded from January 1 to August 31 was 5.22 inches.

The drought that has plagued West Texas this year is far from over, but the recent rains have brightened the outlook for sheep, goats and deer. Fisher stated that recent growth of forbs and weeds has been excellent. This is preferred food for sheep, goats and deer, providing an excellent source of protein.

This should be good news for deer hunters. While the numbers of deer have been reduced by drought and a poor fawn crop for the past two years, the surviving animals are in good physical conditions. The fresh supply of weeds, coupled with a good acorn crop, should help maintain the physical condition.

The situation for cattle has improved very little, said Fisher. The rains produced some new growth of grass, but that will cease with the first killing frost. Supplemental feeding will continue to be necessary. Additional rains during the winter will be of little value for grazing until spring.

Monthly rainfall figures provided by Fisher are: January, 2.09; February, 0.0; March, 0.57; April, 0.0; May, 0.35; June, 1.23; July, 0.78; August, 0.20; September, 2.89 and October, 4.25.

Hospital buys land

St. John's Hospital completed the purchase of 29.061 acres of land Tuesday, November 13 according to Mel Camp, hospital administrator.

The land extends north of St. John's along the present east and west boundaries to the Houston-Harte Expressway, Camp said. "We will have the same amount of frontage as on Pulliam," he added.

The land was purchased from Gordon McGill of Austin for an undisclosed price. McGill is an heir of the J. Willis Johnson estate.

Camp expressed his pleasure in acquiring the additional acreage. "This will take care of our land needs for the next 20 years." He added, "It was part of our 2000 Plan to acquire this land, and we are pleased with this accomplishment."

He said that development will occur as demand dictates, and plans into the year 2000 may result in "an entire complex here."

Thursdays is named for the Teutonic god Thor.

Camp reunion set

The first annual Girl Scout Camp Jo Jan Van camper reunion will be held December 15 from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the San Angelo Police Association's Building on Red Bluff Road, 2.5 miles west off Knickerbocker Road. The party is for everyone who has ever attended Camp Jo Jan Van or is interested in going.

Reunion campers are invited to wear something worn to camp previously and to bring pictures to share.

Prizes will be given for the funniest story about a camp experience, for camp attendance the longest period ago, for camp attendance the most years, and for bringing the most friends who have never been to Jo Jan Van before. Stories are to be mailed by December 1 to insure time for judging.

Hospitality arrangements may be made for overnight accommodations in San Angelo afterwards. To RSVP, contact Becky Blair, El Camino Girl Scout Council, Inc., 128 South Magdalen or call (915) 655-8961 by December 1. Information is also available through local Girl Scout representatives.

Open house held

Dr. and Mrs. Alvis Johnson Jr. celebrated the first anniversary of their return to Sonora with an open house at their home on Bond Road, Sunday, November 18.

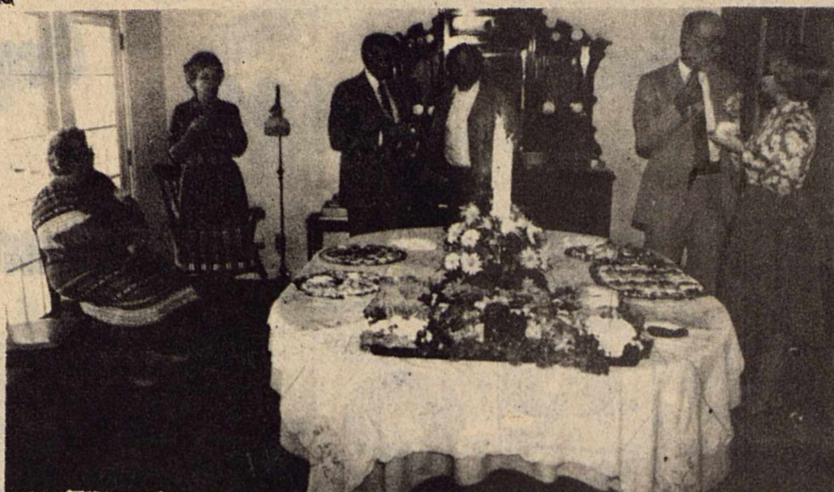

Dr. Johnson, who was born and raised in Sonora, left in 1935 to attend college. After obtaining his medical education, Dr. Johnson practiced Pediatric Cardiology for 34 years. He was on the staff at Children's Medical Center in Dallas until his retirement in 1983. In 1947, while an intern at Cleveland City Hospital, Cleveland Ohio, he met his future wife, Patricia. The Johnsons have five children all residing in the Dallas area.

Dr. Johnson is the son of the late Judge Alvis Johnson and Mrs. Thelma Johnson. He is now engaged in ranching in Sutton County.

Mrs. Herbert Fields and Mrs. Johnny Fields were co-hostesses for the occasion. Mrs. Kaye Ellis Neel of Menard catered the delicious refreshments. Tables laden with canapes, miniature quiches, vegetables and dip, nuts and pastries were kept constantly replenished. Coffee and punch were served.

The serving tables were decorated in colors of peach, burgundy and blue. The Johnson's stately and spacious home provided ample room for the many guests who were present to share with Dr. and Mrs. Johnson their first anniversary in Sonora.

Guests sample refreshments at Dr. & Mrs. Alvis Johnson's house.

PECAN 'N' HONEY COOKIES

A sweet treat youngsters will love, pecan oatmeal cookies. Parents like them, too, because they're nutritious as well as good tasting.

Cookies generally are considered "extra" foods not credited with providing important nutrients to the diet. While these cookies are special sweet treats, they do contain some very nutritious ingredients. The oats are an excellent source of fiber and contribute protein, iron and B vitamins. Recipes calling for oats, such as 3-Minute Brand, will work equally well with quick or old-fashioned oats. Regular flavor Harvest Instant Oatmeal can be substituted, too, using one packet for each one-third cup oats called for in the recipe.

PECAN 'N' HONEY COOKIES

- 1 cup packed brown sugar
- 1 cup butter or margarine, softened
- 2 eggs
- 1/3 cup honey
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 2 teaspoons baking soda
- 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 3 cups 3-Minute Brand Oats or Harvest Brand Oats
- 2/3 cup chopped pecans
- pecan halves (optional)

In mixer bowl, beat sugar and butter until light. Add eggs, honey, and vanilla. Beat until light and fluffy. Stir together flour, soda, cinnamon, and salt. Stir into beaten mixture, blending well. Stir in oats and chopped pecans. Chill until firm. Form dough into balls. Place on ungreased baking sheet and flatten slightly. Place a pecan half on each cookie, if desired. Bake at 350°F for eight to ten minutes. Cool slightly before removing from pan. Makes about five dozen cookies.
