

DON LARDIE

Music is for everyone

This series of concerts is being presented by the blind concert pianist-composer, Don Lardie. The concert under the above theme to be held in Sonora, Saturday, Dec. 7, at 7 p.m. at the Sonora High School Auditorium has already been enjoyed by audiences in Goldthwaite and Kerrville.

This concert will feature original compositions in the classical vein written by Mr. Lardie since he lost his sight in an accident five years ago. A unique feature of this series is that they will all be "open concerts", and no admission charge will be required. "The reason for this," Lardie says, "is that many persons who are on fixed incomes or have limited financial resources are seldom able to avail themselves of musical experiences." He further said that "those who attend and who desire to contribute toward the expenses of such concerts will be able to make a donation while in attendance."

One aspect of Mr. Lardie's concerts that have been well received is that he gives a running commentary throughout the presentation to acquaint the listeners with the origin and inspiration of these compositions. Up to this point, Lardie has composed ten major piano sonatas, assorted geographic or national pieces, nocturnes, waltzes and prelude. Critics have described his music as being typical of early baroque as well as reminiscent of the romantic composers such as Brahms, Schumann and Rachmaninoff.

"A real source of joy to me," Lardie said, "is having three hymns accepted and published, which I composed, in a book of completely original religious songs or hymns that is being distributed world wide, translated into scores of languages, and used in some 50,000 congregations throughout the world."

Mr. Lardie has taught and performed in Texas, Michigan, New York, and in Scandinavia. He is presently teaching in Sonora, where he also resides. "Many persons do not realize why they prefer one type of music over another, and we will explore the reasons for this as well as encourage musical awareness in the concert presentation in Sonora," Lardie said.

1985 Hunting Season Deer Days as Knight Predicted

LARRY DAY

RONNIE HENDERSON

As predicted by Rodney Knight "the deer and turkey season look to be an excellent one."

Both Larry Day of Fort Worth and Ronnie Henderson of Rock Springs will agree. They'd probably go on to say the place to have been this past week was Bill Finklea's Black Ranch. The Finklea Ranch which hasn't been hunted much in the past few years is yielding a fair share of trophies.

Day bagged this beautiful 15 point buck which has a 21 inch spread.

Henderson has reason to smile. The buck he killed has only a 15 inch spread but the horns are 18 inches tall and have 21 points. The most unusual rack can be seen at Frontier Taxidermy, next door to the Branding Iron Smokehouse.

Course the best thing in the world in the old days was to chew on a tough piece of steak, or kinder gnaw on and around a bone. But nowadays on account of having to buy so much tooth paste why it don't leave enough to get the steak to whiten and toughen the teeth. A good old rump steak would give your teeth more exercise and build up a foundation than a steel tooth brush would.

But these lettuce sandwiches just don't offer much resistance to the old molars and they don't get much exercise of them. Malted Milk over a soda fountain just might as well be inhaled as far as the teeth is concerned. This Caviar assisted by cocktails is another national dish that don't offer much physical resistance to the eye teeth. In fact as far as the old tusks are concerned there is really no reason for owning them.

A wolf has the best looking teeth in the world. They are always white. Even the announcer won't tell you that there is film forms over them. But on the other hand look what the old Coyote misses. He never did hear about Madam Queen, he don't know the King fish from a Setter Pup. He has nothing to console his lonely hours only chewing on some competitor.

If you think there is not unemployment just look at these E flat golf courses and the amount of people out of work.

It's wonderful exercise. You stand on your feet for hours watching somebody else putt. It's just the old-fashioned pool hall moved outdoors but with no chairs around the wall.

The Very Latest
(by Mary Marshall)

After several seasons of the most extravagant sort of flowered designs and sprawling modernistic figures there is something especially pleasing about the small dot designs that are used for some of the smartest of the new summer silks. Rather small dots, not too closely placed, on a dark background are especially attractive in combinations of white or ecru on navy blue or black.

Says Will Rogers
Beverly Hills-Well all I know is just what I read in the papers, and what I hear over the Radio during the various tooth paste hours. I tell you its a lucky thing for us that peoples teeth are in such bad shape or we never would get any amusement at all. In the old days when we did nothing with our teeth till we died off, why we had no amusement at all. We couldnt turn a dial and get our favorites Amos and Andy. Tooth paste has been responsible for more good laughs than Barnums Circus has, and you can use the wrong kind too. According to the announcers there is various kinds that cause decay, while their kind brings on added growth, so you got to be mighty careful.

You can add some wine, fruit or the new appointment book which contains cheese recipes, hints and anecdotes, "Glorious Cheese. The 1986 Appointment Book for Cooks."

Songs Texas Sings

The Sesquicentennial Edition of the Texas Centennial Song Book has been released by the Sesquicentennial Committee of Marfa/Presidio County, Inc. to be used again for a birthday celebration of Texas. The volume was first compiled in 1936 by the "Public School Division of the Texas Department for Publicity for Centennial Celebrations", and published by the Turner Company of Dallas for use in schools. Becky Stevens of the Marfa Print Shop has reprinted the original book, adding Sesquicentennial message, and a new cover.

"Songs Texas Sings", is a collection that Texas has a right to claim as her own folk songs. Among them are, "Texas, our Texas," the official State song as originally written by W.J. Marsh, and the all-time hit, "The Eyes of Texas", eight lines of doggerel first written to poke fun at the President of the University of Texas, along with others about Texas. The battle song of San Jacinto, "Will You Come to the Bower", is printed with words and music of an old Irish air.

The cowboy songs best represent Texas and the Southwest. Such songs vocalized the life of the ranch and cattle trail. The night-herding songs were romantic, minor in tone, telling stories of disaster and death, slow croons like "Little Joe, the Wrangler". Day-herding songs, like "The Old Chisholm Trail", with its thousand stanzas and rattling chorus of staccato yells, expressed the rapid lope of a mettlesome horse while driving a herd.

Along with the cowboy ballads are Mexican folks songs, all handed down from the early Texans. Hymns, spirituals, songs of the Nation, and of the South best loved by Texans enrich the collection. These songs will bring delight to everyone, especially boys and girls, even as they were so widely enjoyed fifty years ago.

For copies of the Texas Centennial Song Book, contact Manuel G. Rubio, P.O. Box 654, Marfa, Texas, 79843, phone number (915) 729-4001. The price is $3.00 per copy, including tax, postage and handling. Rates for quantities over 25 can be obtained from Mr. Rubio, Postmaster of Marfa. Checks should be made to the 150 Committee of Marfa/Presidio County.

"Songs Texas Sings" is the contribution of this Texas Independence Community for the state-wide celebration of the 150th birthday of Texas, with our good wishes for happiness in singing the songs of our Texas heritage.

Social Security changes must be reported

People who receive supplemental security income (SSI) are responsible for reporting any event that could affect their right to payments or the payment amount, Franklin H. Upp, Social Security manager in San Angelo, said recently.

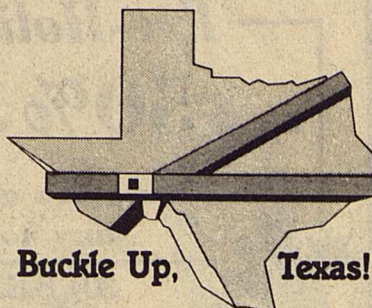

65 or older or blind or disabled who have little income and who do not own much in the way of property. It is important that any changes in a person's situation be reported promptly, Upp said. This way, the payment rate can be adjusted quickly so the person is not inconvenienced. People getting SSI can make their report in person, by mail, or by telephone. But, no matter how they report, they should include the person's Social Security number under which payment is made, the change being reported, the date it happened, and if the report is in writing, the person's signature and address.

Someone should report for the person getting SSI payments if:
 --A drug addict or alcoholic stops treatment.
 --A person becomes unable to manage his or her own funds.
 --A person dies.
 More information about these reports can be obtained at the San Angelo Social Security Office located at 2214 Sherwood Way. The telephone number is 949-4608. The people there will be glad to answer any questions.

Time to Buckle Up

What is the new safety belt law? It's an idea whose time has come. Public officials and citizens in Texas have discovered that we can't afford not to buckle up. We can't afford the loss of life and we can't afford the economic burdens of unnecessary deaths and injuries and lost productivity.

Few people will argue with the effectiveness of safety belts in saving lives.

But what about personal freedom? Is it anybody else's business if I don't buckle up?

Economically, yes. It is our fellow taxpayer's business and our employer's business.

In the deadly seconds of a crash, a driver's choice not to buckle up becomes a problem for this passengers and those traveling in vehicles around him. The unbelted driver has little chance of taking constructive action to lessen the effects of a crash situation.

And with the State Board of Insurance's decision to grant a reduction in automobile insurance rates based on an assumed 65 percent belt usage rate, buckling up becomes everybody's economic business. It's everybody's economic business because the rate reduction will not be maintained if the projected belt usage does not occur.

When our legislators passed the belt law in Texas and when the State Board of Insurance granted the rate reduction, they were signaling that public officials will Fines begin December 1, 1985 share the responsibility for yet another step toward stopping unnecessary loss of life and the high financial burdens of traffic accidents.

The law is on the books. Fines begin December 1. Fines and the insurance reduction are extra economic incentives to buckle up.

With lives and money hanging in the balance, the few seconds required to buckle up seems like a good investment with a significant return.

Everyone getting SSI payments should report the following:
 --Any move or change of address, even if checks are deposited directly into an account at a bank or other financial organization.

--If there is any change in the household; whether anyone moves into or out of the home; whether there are any changes in the amounts of money people contribute to expenses.

--If a person enters or leaves an institution.

--If a person leaves the United States.

--If a person marries or marriage ends.

--Any change in income or any person in the household.

--Any change in resource, what the person owns, including real estate, car, or other personal property, additions to savings accounts, or other investment.

--If a student stops or starts attending school regularly.

--Blind or disabled people should report any improvement in conditions, taking any job, and any change in earnings.

Varsity boys 2-0
 Varsity girls 1-1

Basketball begins with a bang

Basketball season officially opened last week for the Bronco boys and girls.

On Tuesday the J.V. and varsity girls faced the Central J.V. and varsity teams.

The J.V. team lost by a 18-23 score. The Broncos were behind going into the third quarter but managed to tie the leady Bobcats at 11 a piece beginning the final quarter. But Central out scored Sonora 14-7 in the final period.

Tracy Teaff was the Broncos leading scorer with 6 points. Kay Williams scored 5 points. Michelle Adams, Alma Quiroz and Michelle Villanueva each contributed a field goal and Delma Chavez made a free throw.

The varsity Girls played a much closer game but still lost by a mere 2 points, 47-49.

The Broncos seemed to have control on the game until the third quarter. Leading 27-17 at the half the Broncos appeared to have the game at hand. Central out scored Sonora 18-6 in the 3rd period to go on top 33-35 at the start of the final quarter.

Although the Broncos kept pace with the Bobcats, they could never make up the 2 points lost in the 3rd quarter.

Michelle McCleery lead all scorers with 14 points. The rest of the scoring looks like this: Carrie Sorenson 9; Gayann Dobbs 8; Gina Heffernan 5; Kate Mathews, Anna Balch and Kathy Richter each 3; and Sidonna Ridgeway 2 points.

The Broncos shot a respectable 36% from the field and 48% from the free throw line. The team managed 32 rebounds 24 of which were defensive.

The varsity boys had better luck against Central's J.V. team.

The boys got off to a quick start and never lit up. They came away with a 64-51 win.

At the end of the first quarter the score was Sonora 22, Central 2. The Bobcats did come back somewhat in the 2nd period to make the halftime score 30-21, still in favor of Sonora. Central out scored the Broncos 13-10 in the third period to make the score 40-34 at the beginning of the last quarter.

Homemaker Update
by Gail Rucker

Christmas decorating ideas, packaging food for gift giving and other holiday features will be shown at a Christmas program Tuesday, December 3 at the 4-H Center. This program is sponsored by W.T.U. home economist Darolyn Moore and County Extension home economist Gail Rucker. The program will begin at 7:00 p.m. and will include tasting and tips in holiday preparation. A colorful cookbook of holiday foods will be presented to each person who attends. This program is open to everyone who wants to get some fresh ideas for making this Christmas special.

When you give food as a gift, be sure to include storage information on how to keep the food safe to eat. Some food given as gifts come from commercial establishments, which will have directions for storage on the label. But we sometimes forget to do the same on highly-prized homemade food gifts.

The most perishable foods are those which have a high protein and high moisture content. Meat, cheese and fish fit into this category. Cured meat, like sausage of ham, has less moisture so it isn't as vulnerable to spoilage, but it shouldn't be left at room temperature indefinitely.

Food in which the surface area is exposed to air also is vulnerable. The presence of air supports the growth of bacteria, increasing the possibility for contamination.

Any food with all three characteristics-high protein, high moisture and open surface-is very perishable and needs to be kept under refrigeration.

The items that are least perishable are those with a high sugar or salt content, and those packaged so that all the air is excluded such as jars of canned food or vacuum packed meats.

Cookies, candy and fruitcake are high in sugar and keep very well. Other cakes, like pound cake, have a shorter storage life.

A good way to give a gift of food is to give a card offering the food at a later time. That eliminates the possibility of having the food at room temperature during a gift exchange.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socio-economic level, race, color, sex, religion, handicap or national origin.

Junior High to sponsor book fair

The Sonora Jr. High Library will conduct a Book Fair the week of December 2-6. Display cases stocked with paperback books will be set up in the Jr. High Library. Books on elementary, middle, and junior high school reading levels will be available for purchase by students. All students in grades K-8 will receive a book list which will give book titles and prices. The selection of books will range in price from under $1.00 to $6.00 with many priced under $1.50.

Students will be visiting the book fair during regular hours as a part of their normally scheduled reading/library period. Parents are invited to visit the book fair between the hours of 2:30-4:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday, or at their convenience. Book fair hours will be 8:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.

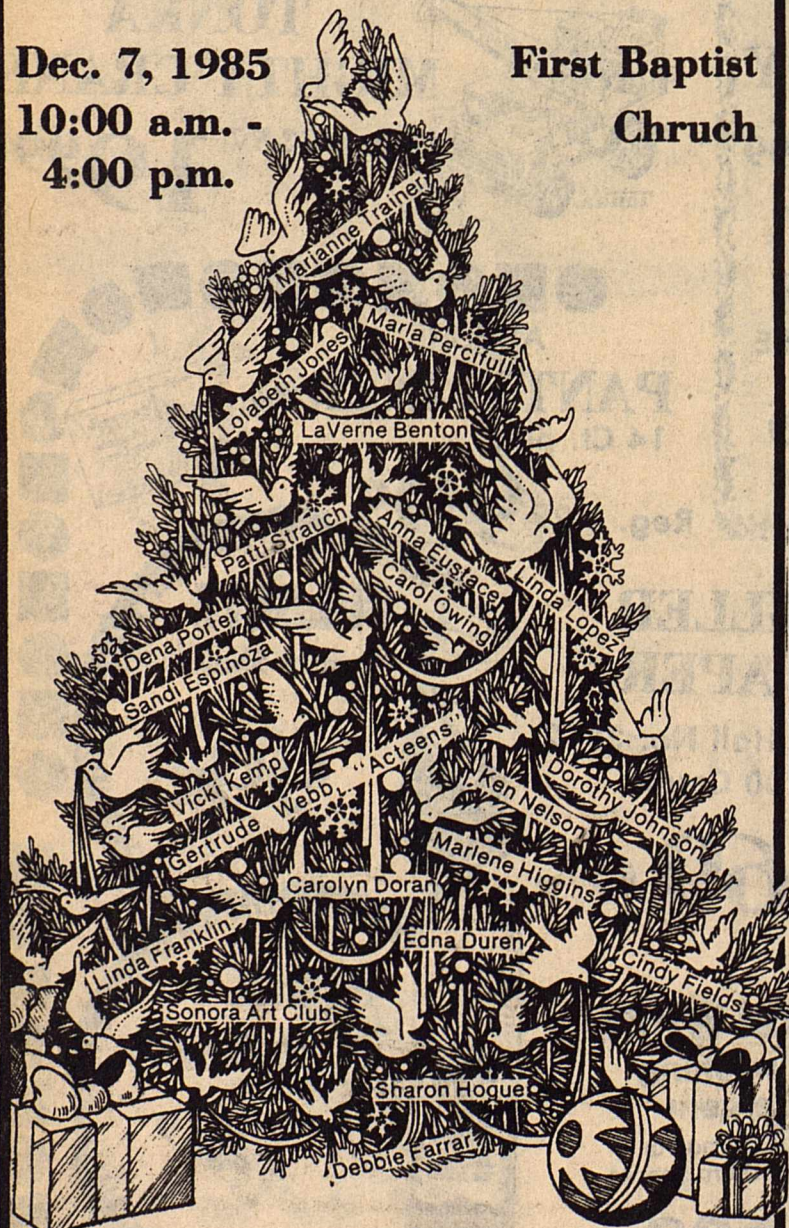

Educators agree that children who are exposed to books at an early age do better in school than those who are not. It is important for children to be able to choose and possess their own books. Since the book fair provides this opportunity for children, it is a worthwhile program deserving your support.

The November Birthday Party at the Nursing Home honored Ora Riddle, Etta Turner, John McClelland, Tommy Thorp and Antonia Hinojosa.

After a chorus of Happy Birthday, Annabelle Wuest played some lively toe-tapping music as the residents were served refreshments. Gandy's Dairy provided ice cream and Hershel's Foodway the birthday cake. The Hospital Auxiliary, who host the monthly party, made the punch.

The honorees each wore either corsage or boutonniere given by Flowers by Irene.

"God does not die on the day when we cease to believe in a personal deity, but we die on the day when our lives cease to be illumined by the steady radiance, renewed daily, of a wonder, the source of which is beyond all reason."

The Presbyterians of Sonora will gather this morning at 10:00 to be "lost in wonder, love and praise," and to be found by God.

They invite you to join them, and be part of a reverent, but lively community of faith.

Brightened Corners

by Pastor Louis Halford
1st Assembly of God

"Then shall the king say unto them on his right hand, come, ye blessed of my father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: For I was an hungred, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me. Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? Or thirsty, and gave thee drink? When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee? And the king shall answer and say unto them, least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." (Matthew 25:34-40.)

Everytime we turn on CBN it seems that famined countries are being brought forth. The malnutrition and the hunger we see on our television sets are heartbreaking. Not only Christians, but people from all walks of life seem to respond and Thank God for it.

As the Pastor of a church, we help feed hungry children in Calcutta, India. We will continue to support missionaries, but I've prayed, "God, How can I help these that live next door?"

There is a song that says, "Brighten the corner-where you are." There are those in our community that we can minister to in many different ways. There are people in our town that are home-sick, lonely, afraid, hungry, broke, unemployed, and ill clothed.

People need to be loved and touched. There are those that are on fixed incomes that can not have the little extras. Next time you bake something, consider in sharing it with one of these.

There are those children that come from broken homes, that have no father. Men, let us be an example and give these kids a male figure to look up to. Of course this applies to females also.

Visit the sick and those that are in the nursing home. You may not get you picture in the paper, but these people are forgotten so many times.

The sick need to be comforted. Just a quick visit and a prayer will sustain many that are ill.

Go back and read what Jesus said. When you minister to someone in this way it is as if you are doing it for Jesus.(which we are of course.)

Yes, I will continue to help feed hungry children in Calcutta, but I want to also brighten a corner in someones life right where I'm at.

If we did not have a dad life would be misrble, because on person could not earn a nuff money to buy you all that. In fact you probably would live in apartment.

Free Arbor Day Kits available

To help Texas teachers and organizations conduct Arbor Day programs the Texas Forest Service is again offering free program kits.

Each kit includes a loblolly pine seed packet with planting instructions, program aids for a local Arbor Day observance, suggested classroom activities for teachers, and a copy of Governor White's proclamation.

Arbor Day is to be observed on Friday, January 17, 1986 in Texas. It was first celebrated in Texas in 1889. Since 1949 it has been observed annually in Texas on the third Friday in January, although dates vary in other states. The purpose of the event is to promote a greater appreciation of the beauty and value of trees and forests.

The official state observance for 1986--Texas' Sesquicentennial or 150th birthday year--will be held simultaneously in two places. A large Heritage live oak tree will be planted at the San Jacinto Battleground State Historical Park near Houston. Here, a re-enactment of Santa Anna's surrender to General Sam Houston will be telecast (courtesy of KTRK-TV, Channel 13, Houston) live to a big screen TV in the ballroom of the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Austin, site of the official state ceremonies.

The public is invited to attend either of the state events, and many other public events will honor Arbor Day in other Texas locales.

Program chairpersons and teachers should address requests for Arbor Day kits to the Texas Forest Service, College Station, Texas 77843. Distribution, on a first-come, first service basis, will begin mid-November.

Tim's Beer Barn to open

Have you driven out Hwy 277 N. and seen the sign "Farmer Dan's Bar-B-Q and Burger/Tim's Liquor-Opening December 9th? Add to this the construction of a metal building between Farmer Dan's and Country Chicken and Fish. Are you confused?

Wonder no more. (Tim's Liquors is moving into the building which once housed Farmer Dan's famous burgers and Tim's Beer Barn will occupy the metal building.

Tom Clifton, president of Sonora Discount Liquors, Inc., says the move is being made to facilitate expanded services.

Tim's Liquors will remain the same operationally, as it is now. It will still be open 10 a.m. til 9 p.m., six days a week and they'll still deliver within the city limits. The new facility will have a drive-up window and pretty much the same inventory as can be found at Tim's

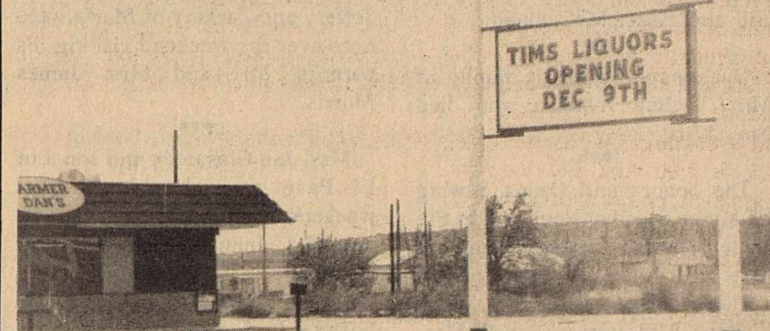

Liquors now. "We don't carry the grocery items that we do now," say Clifton. "but we'll have a limited supply of picnic items."

The Beer Barn will feature "drive through service" and will house both party and picnic needs. And as the name implies, alcoholic beverages will include only beers, no liquors.

Hours for the Beer Barn will be 10 a.m. to 12 midnight Monday-Thursday; 8:00 a.m. to 12 midnight on Friday and Saturday and 12 noon-9 p.m. on Sunday.

Clifton, who's very excited about the new facilities, says there will be a "Happy Hour" from 4 to 6 p.m. Monday-Friday at the Beer Barn where you can purchase a six-pack of your favorite "brew" at reduced rates.

"And please" say Clifton "bear with us while we are making this move. It may get hectic around here."
