Trade Days gets Sonorans out to browse and buy

Seventeen different vendors set up shop this past Saturday at the "first ever" Sonora Trade Days held in the parking lot of the old Ritz Theater.

The weather cooperated during the late morning with lots of sunshine though the early morning started with a cool drizzle.

Items offered for sale ranged from hand made crafts to helium balloons to genuine garage sale "junk". Many of the sellers were local crafts people though some came from outside the area.

Various food booths helped to fill the air with the smells of hamburgers, burritos, pizza and sausage on a stick. Perhaps one of the most welcome foods in the warm afternoon was the delicious homemade ice cream. Iced tea and lemonade sales were brisk also.

A "carnival like" atmosphere was in evidence as people wandered the grounds looking for something they couldn't resist. Most found a least one such article and some found armloads.

Nancy Bloodworth had a vast array of authentic turquoise jewelry which was set up inside the theater for the day. Most of the items were one of a kind and absolutely beautiful.

The day really offered a pleasant slow paced way to spend a Saturday, though the organizers of the event probably won't agree.

The Trade Days was sponsored by the Brothers of Hiram A'Bif which is a group of area Masons who banded together to assist in putting a new roof on the Masonic Lodge.

Seventeen SHS students advance to state meets

Advancing on to state UIL Literary are Cynthia Kepler, calculator application and number sense; Kelly Russell, prose interpretation; Chris Driskell, journalism newswriting, editorial writing and ready writing; and Shon Jones, spelling.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

Dear Editor,
We went to Kerrville last Saturday, May 2, 1987 for 4-H District Show. Our method demonstration talk was on Emergency First Aid. Many counties entered which made competition much tougher at a District level.

We won the Blue Ribbon for Club Work, 1st Place Blue Ribbon for District, and the overall Sweepstake Award, "a high honor" for our demonstration.

The reason we please hope you print our letter is because we want to "Publicly Thank" Lenora Pool, and Mona Simpler. Mrs. Pool is co-ordinator of the EMS and Mona Simpler is Assistant Co-ordinator of the EMS and owner of the SEE Center. Both are also EMT's.

They had lunch with us one day and looked over our demonstration and taught us the proper way to do "first aid". After it was completed Mrs. Simpler let us give our demonstration to the SEE Center. Then Mrs. Pool let us give it to the ECA class she was teaching at night.

We feel they were a great part of our winning by letting us practice and get ready for District and it paid off.

Sonora is so lucky to have these two women. They took lots of time away from their busy lives to help the 4-H Juniors. When people help others by going out of their way that is what makes us a stronger and closer town.

Sometimes busy adults forget that kids need help like everyone else. Again Thanks Lenora and Mona.

Also thanks to the Lions Club for listening to us.

Sincerely,
Brandy Edwards & Julie Jones
7th grade 4-H'ers

To the Editor,

I am sincerely puzzled about the critical letter concerning school district expenditures and the academic standing of students in the Sonora ISD as it appeared in this column last week. I found myself appalled at its inaccuracies, and amazed that the writer had failed to check on her facts. If her accusations were true, Mrs. Rousselot, as a concerned taxpayer, would have every right to be irate. However, in spite of her closing statement that she meant no offense, I am offended. As the school board president for the second time around, I would like, in defense of our dedicated teachers, and outstanding student body, to set the facts straight.

The innuendos that our academic program is suffering because of efforts to maintain and improve the physical facilities are completely without foundation in fact. The facts are these:

This very week we have 17 high school students competing at state level in the one-act play and academic and speech events. We had more first-place winners at regional competition recently than many schools our size had entries at that level. That hardly speaks of mediocre teachers or students.

In March, an accreditation auditing team form the Texas Education agency went through the entire system and were highly complimentary of our academic curriculum and of the competence of our teaching staff. They had nothing but good to say about our various programs and their effectiveness as demonstrated by our consistently high test scores and student performance. One member of the team who had visited hundred of school districts throughout the state said that Sonora was the best 3-A school system he had ever seen. This certainly does not indicate neglect of academics.

Our school's bilingual program was audited last fall. Fifty-five areas were combed for compliance with state regulations and for effectiveness, and minor corrections were suggested in only three of those 55 areas. Again, obviously no short cuts here!

Our program for gifted and talented students has been in place for four years. This program which now covers grades 4 through 8 is funded entirely from local sources. The state has mandated that gifted and talented students in all grades be serviced by the 1990-91 school year. Our plan will have the program in place and functioning a full two years ahead of time, by the 1988-89 school year. And mind you, many of our teachers have volunteered to attend workshops during their summer months so that they will have the necessary training to take part in the program. Does that sound like a lack of interest in academics?

To address some of the most glaring inaccuracies in Mrs. Rousselot's letter with plain facts:
--The school tax rate in Sutton County is 87 cents per $100 of valuation. It is 99 cents in Schleicher County.

--The middle school children do indeed use their library on a regular basis.

--There are library books available for the student in each of the elementary classrooms. A central library is planned now that the high school has moved--there was no room before.

--Course enrollment does not warrant two home economics teachers. (The department was built for the students, NOT for two teachers.)

--Without exception, our coaching staff are talented classroom teachers and carry a full academic teaching load. Their extra-curricular coaching duties are just that--extra.

--Textbooks are furnished by the state free. There is no shortage. Any papers sent home are supplemental to the regular textbooks.

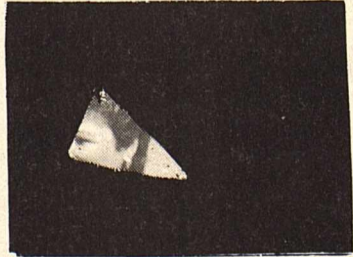

I could go on and on regaling you with our students' academic accomplishments throughout the years, but most of you are perfectly aware of Sonora's outstanding record. This school board will stand proudly on that record.

The needs at the all-weather track have been a sore point with the Board for several years. The track is now twelve years old and badly in need of resurfacing as a safety measure for the runners. This is a major expenditure, true, but the problem will not go away by itself. The longer we put off any corrective action, the bigger the problem will be and the more it will cost the individual taxpayer when something finally is done. No decision has been arrived at now because of the cloudy financial picture in school finance state-wide. But the problem remains and a decision must be reached eventually.

Traditionally, Sonora has abided by the sound, conservative fiscal policies which have stood us so well in the past. Thanks to foresight, we are in a position to weather the leaner years ahead of us. The last payment on the new high school will be made in January of 1991--less than four years away. I fail to see where ignoring the condition of the physical plant and facilities will do anything to better a teaching staff and student body who are already top-notch, and who certainly have never been stunted financially in the field of academics.

Doris Rousselot should be commended. She represents the first objective public statement indicating the light exists and is visible. It is a light that will shine clearly on most of us in the past November era. Arrival of tax bills should give a clear message, "THE BOOM IS OVER!" Our local boards have been advised, but they do not believe or cannot comprehend it.

The track and parking lot expenditures are merely a continuation of an ongoing comedy, or an exercise in absurdity.

We have a continuous "high dollar" overage in our school system--an administrative staff which seems to be a "holy cow" herd. We reduce school nurses, librarians, special education aides, and other involved in the daily educational process and yet the herd seems to persist. The remainder of the herd has one

HELP!!

A big thank you to these individual members of the Chamber: Mrs. E.D. (Ruth) Shurley, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Shurley, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph VanderStucken, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wade. We do appreciate each one of you. Have a good week!!

outstanding ability. That ability is testing, yes, testing the community's economic elasticity limits. How does the track and a paved parking lot affect education? Could they be deferred in the light of the economic slump that has beset the community?

Some of us advocate putting members of the business community on the various boards because they are sensitive to daily variations in cash flow. I have voted thus; to no avail. Would it have made any difference? Who knows? We must face it; our local boards, with one exception, since 1982 have shown little or no understanding of the economic status nor trends of the community.

When the November tax bills come, we must realize, we did it with our little vote, or considering the last election turn out, the lack thereof.

The merchant who sits idly by and lets the other merchants do all the advertising to bring people to town is very much like the mistletoe on the tree. He simply waits till the others put forth their efforts and draws the air elements of trade and then he feasts off it. He lets the other fellow go down into the moist earth and get the life-giving soil of trade and then he feasts off it. But did you notice that that kind of merchant never does a great deal? He stands around waiting for people to come into hear him talk hard times. Merchants, ask the people to come to see you if you want them and folks it is almost universally true that you will get better merchandise and most reasonable prices from the merchant who tells you of his wares. His business is such that he can afford to pay his advertising bill and then sell for less.--Boerne Star

Social Security News

People who delay applying for social security retirement or survivor benefits for some time after they become eligible may miss out on some checks, Franklin H. Upp, Social Security manager in San Angelo, said recently.

This is because the number of months for which back payments can be made is limited.

In general, people who apply for retirement or survivor benefits after they reach 65 can get back benefits for up to 6 months before the month they apply, but not before the month of their 65th birthday.

People who apply for reduced benefits before 65 generally cannot get benefits for any month before the month they apply.

People who apply for benefits because they are disabled--workers, adult children, widows, and widowers-- can get benefits for up to 12 months before the month they apply if they are eligible in all other ways.

People can save time when they do apply for benefits if they have the necessary documents ready, Upp said. This includes the person's Social Security card or report of the number, birth or baptismal certificate, W-2 forms or self-employment tax returns for the past 2 years, and marriage and death certificates, if appropriate.

More information about applying for benefits can be obtained at the San Angelo Social Security Office located at 2214 Sherwood Way. The telephone number is 949-4608. The people there can suggest other documents if those listed are not available.

ACS volunteer phone banks receive record breaking response

More than 100,000 Texas women—a national record—called special American Cancer Society (ACS) hot lines in recent weeks to participate in the Society's Texas Breast Screening Project. Texas participation was more than three times greater than the previous best response to a similar program in California.

"We're overwhelmed—and ecstatic—at the response," said George N. Peters, M.D., a surgeon at Baylor University Medical Center in Dallas and volunteer chairman of the project. "Although Texas was not the first state to launch this type of screening project, we've certainly done it on a much larger and more comprehensive scale," he said.

During the project, more than 5,000 volunteers staffed phone banks in 32 Texas cities to determine the callers' eligibility for this project. Eligible callers, those women 35 or older who had no breast cancer symptoms, received a coupon entitling them to a $50 mammogram from local participating facilities. That is about half the regular cost of a mammogram, which is a low dose X-ray of the breast.

"Previously, the most calls received were, during Los Angeles' project last spring which prompted 30,000 calls. We received more than 30,000 calls in Dallas alone," Peter said.

Initial planning for the Texas Breast Screening Project began two years ago, when ACS volunteers sought the cooperation of hospitals and screening facilities throughout the state to offer screening mammograms for a cost of no more than $50 for a limited time in the spring of 1987. More than 300 facilities agreed to participate in the project.

Pap test, as part of their routine health plan.

Breast cancer is a leading cancer killer among women in the U.S. The ACS recently announced that one out of ten women will be diagnosed with the disease sometime during her lifetime. In Texas, the ACS estimates that 6,000 women will be diagnosed with the disease this year while 1,900 will die from it.

Since the cause of breast cancer remains unknown, early detection offers the best defense. Chances of cure are excellent when the disease is detected and treated early, while a tumor is still small.

"Our goal has been to make screening mammography the Pap test of the eighties," Peter said. "We want all women to be aware of the importance of this early detection technique. It may save your life, and your breast," he said.

The Pap test is a simple procedure designed to detect early uterine cancer. According to the ACS, there has been a 200 percent increase since the sixties in women who have had Pap tests, contributing to a 70 percent decline in the death rate from uterine cancer in the last several decades.

By offering the mammograms at a reduced cost, coupled with an extensive awareness campaign for all methods of early breast cancer detection, the Texas Breast Screening Project was designed to convince women to include mammography, along with the

The ACS recommends a screening baseline mammogram for women between the age of 35 and 40 and then every year or two years between the ages 40 and 50. After age 50, women are encouraged to have a mammogram every year. Women with a personal or family history of breast cancer should contact their physicians about how often they should be examined and have mammogram before age 40. The Society also recommends monthly breast self-examination for women 20 and older and an annual physical breast exam by a trained health professional.

"We hope all the women who received our coupons will follow-through and schedule an exam," Peter said.

"We have already diagnosed as a result of this program—cancers too small for even the most skilled examiner to feel. While the odds are most women will learn they do not have cancer, we think most women will agree that their health is not something to gamble with," he said.

Final results on the actual number of women screened, cancers found, etc. will be available in September 1987, when participating facilities are to report their findings. For more information call Lou Faulks, 387-3269.

News from the Nursing Home

"Happy Birthday" to Thelma Phillips on April 24th, 1987. She was treated to an outing of 4 hours, and dinner, on Thursday, 23rd by her daughter, Louise Glasscock of Austin, son and daughter-in-law, Harold and Jo Ella Briscoe, of Midland and her sister, Bertha Guthals, of San Angelo. Yummy applesauce birthday cake and coffee, was served in the lobby.

We have been in something of a dither—the Inspectors were here. All's well that ends well, or so it's said, and all is well.

Rose Fincher was our Bible Study leader Tuesday a.m. she read her favorite Psalms: 8-God's beautiful creations. 63-He fills our thirst. 103-Praise the Lord. 139-His eternal presence. In unison, we sang a pretty little verse—"The joy of the Lord is my strength, and cheers me. He gives me living water, and I thirst no more."

Ruby Brotherton said she didn't believe she would be able to play Bingo Wednesday a.m. She proceeded to make 4 Bingos and was asked to please leave the room (but she didn't!) Hinojosa and Ray each made 2 Bingos. Bruton, Cox, Drennan, and Hamilton each made 1. Lilia, Wanda and Marilee were our helpers.

Wednesday afternoon Charlotte Gilmore came to lead the Sing-Along, which is sponsored by the Hudspeth Hospital Auxiliary, but it was canceled because one of our residents is very ill.

Alice Hardy got up early Thursday a.m. April 30th, 1987, and played "Happy Birthday" to herself on the piano—none else knew how! She received flowers, and cookies, from members of her church (St. John's Episcopal), and the Women's Group from 1st Baptist Church. The group also remembered Melvin Hearn, Thelma Phillips, and Mary Bruton on their April birthdays. "Many Happy Returns", Alice.

Mary Hoffman, Gertrude Webb, Ethelda Holland, and Phyllis Jones gave shampoos, sets and manicures again Friday a.m. Here's to many stars in their crowns, bless them.

Our movie of the week was "The Cat From Outer Space". About movies, in 1987 "Citizen Cain", directed by Orson Welles, was named best movie of all times.

All of our exercises during the week were amusing, and one thing for sure, Lilia got a work-out. The volley ball was batted, kicked, and thrown, residents jumped and dodged as if afraid of it and Lilia chased back and forth. During target practice very few of us missed hitting her. After the weather cleared, we were encouraged to get out in the fresh air and sunshine—Lilia went along.

We were sentimental on the subject of Mother's day. It was proclaimed a national celebration by President Woodrow Wilson in 1914. Anna M. Jarvis, a spinster, gave birth to the idea, and suggested a flower, the carnation, be worn on the holiday. Remember Mother on her day, Sunday May 10th, 1987.

We joined the Rev. Kent Kepler at the First United Methodist Church, over the radio, Sunday morning. These services are always welcome and beneficial.

Lydia and Pedro Galindo, from St. Ann's Catholic Church, brought Holy Communion to their members Sunday afternoon. Martha Wallace, from the Assembly of God Church, read John 14 "Jesus Comforts His Disciples", for Bible Study, here at the Nursing Home Sunday afternoon. As a special treat, Pat Hocutt, and daughter Sherry, sang religious songs, and Rhonda Gulley sang a solo. All were equally lovely.

Sorry we missed the Hudspeth Auxiliary 34th Anniversary tea Sunday afternoon. They thoughtfully shared cookies and punch with us, and Dr. Charles Pajestka, Scott and Charlotte Gilmore, Ruth Shurley, and Lura Sawyer brought big clusters of balloons for us to enjoy.

Out of town guests were: Bill and Charla Ray-Eldorado, Ruby Thiers-San Antonio, Robert Hearn-San Antonio, Violet Jarrett-Del Rio, Arturo M. Gandar-San Angelo.

Local guests were: Gwyn Dean, Ruth Lee Eaton, Jannette and Little Albert Borrego, Edwina and Joey Gandar, Carmen Ramirez, Petra Gonzalez, Gretta Smith, Angie and Ilene Stewart, Martha Keng, Kim Nixon, Monica DuRussell, Hazel McClelland, Delma Northcott, Brooke and Crystal, Frances Reyna, Martha Wallace, Lori Ann and Amalia Galindo, Lydia and Pedro Galindo, Dorothy Baker, Pauline Thompson, Marcia Rioux, Adele Carpenter, and Lura Sawyer. Bueno Bye—until next week—with "Love To Mothers."

Enter through the narrow gate

First Baptist Church
James B. Stephen

"Take it easy" is a familiar parting in this part of the world. But is that good advice? I doubt that the easy way out is the best because it means so often the undiscipline. "Approach life though the gate of discipline," says the Master. "For the way that leads to emptiness is wide and easy, and a lot of folks are taking that approach. But the gate into the full life is hard, and the road is bumpy, and only a few take this route." (Matthew 7:13-14, Cotton Patch Version) The truth of this statement is evident in every area of life, whether it be art or athletics, mechanics or music, science or storekeeping. To enter into or achieve life in any area the narrow gate is the only way. What is that narrow gate? It is strict discipline which compels us to confine ourselves to that thing in which we wish to excel. One can spread himself too thin and in so doing destroy his effectiveness and power.

A river in its banks can turn wheels and create energy but spread out too much it becomes a swamp fit to raise polliwogs and snakes. Dynamite has great power only if it is confined. Lay dynamite on or around something you want moved and all you will get is noise. Gasoline works the same way. Confined in the narrow cylinder walls it has power to turn the wheels, out side it is only a fire.

Jesus warned people about being so "broadminded" or "well-rounded" that their lives were a mistake because they dabbled in everything and excelled at nothing. They follow every whim. They changed jobs often, transfer from college to college and move from one place to another. In fact they travel the wide broad road to frustration and emptiness. They never seem to be able to wear the bridle of discipline long enough to channel their energy upon any one thing. Unhappiness is the lot of all who travel this road and for some even insanity.

Not everyone chooses this road a few hit the narrow road. The road is no rougher, or harder, or more unpleasant than the other. It is just not as wide. It does have its moments though, the flowers of accomplishment that bloom along the way and the fact that the farther one went, the less tired he became and the less frequent his periods of depression. Not really a bad road only narrow. And if the road's roughness is reflected in the face of those traveling it then the narrow road is much smoother.

Jesus was not promoting the arts, or athletics or science but calling his followers to enter into life. He was saying His way to narrow and it calls on men to stop running all over the world and dissipating their energies in all kinds of schemes, cure-alls, club, societies, brotherhoods, orders, and organizations and to get into one channel that of the kingdom of God and His fellowship. His way asked men to stop roaming the wastelands of their self-will and submit themselves joyfully to the group discipline of God's kingdom. It made room for supreme loyalty to no-other save Jesus Christ.

Narrow? Yes. Difficult? To be sure. But even though only a few hit upon it, it is still the gate which opens out upon the vast expanse of life.

Market Report

by Glen Fisher
Sonora Wool and Mohair

There is little change in the wool market since last week. Prices remain high with competition strong for the Texas finewools. The Australian sales will resume this week and many people anxiously await their sale to see if the past strong demand will continue. Currency rates have changed very little, but the dollar is slightly stronger now than it was before the Easter recess. This should make U.S. wool prices a little lower if everything else is equal.

Short wool in Texas is also selling very well. At Ozona last week, the short wools over 2" in length were very strong with the shorter ones also selling well. Top price was $1.47. Del Rio Wool and Mohair will have their sealed bid sale of short wool today.

Mohair continues very sluggish for adult grades, with the finer grades still in strong demand. Possibly 25% of Texas spring adult is left to sell and the current outlook is not too bright. The South African mohair sale on Tuesday will probably give some direction to the market. We will report on that sale next week. Most all of the kid and young goat hair has been sold.

Mother/Daughter Pageant - Aug. 14-16

Applications are now being accepted for the 1987 Texas Mother/Daughter Pageant state finals to be held August 14, 15, 16, 1987 at the El Tropicano Hotel on the River Walk in San Antonio. This will be the first time a statewide competition has been held in Texas for the Mother/Daughter Pageant, now in its fourth year.

A new concept in competitions, the Mother/Daughter Pageant emphasizes traditional family values in modern mother/daughter relationships. Each mother and daughter compete as a team in all phases of competition providing them the opportunities to share some very unique experiences. Personal interviews comprises 50% of the judges while the Swimsuit and Formal Gown competitions count for 25% apiece.

The state winners will represent Texas at the National finals to be held in Florida this November. Daughters must be at least 16 years of age by November 1, 1987. They may be single, married, separated, divorced, or widowed. Daughters must also be the natural or legally adopted child of the mother. Mothers may be of any age, married, separated, divorced, or widowed. Both contestants must be U.S. citizens and at least one member of the team must reside in Texas.

For applications and further information contact Thomas Daniel Productions, Ltd., 8480 Fredricksburg Road, Suite 288, San Antonio, Texas 78229.

Historical Society holds monthly meeting

The Sutton County Historical Society met Sunday May 3rd at 4:30 p.m. with 25 members present. They voted to name July 1, 1987 as Mabel and Joseph VanderStucken Appreciation Day. There will be an open house at the old Santa Fe depot planned for that day.

They authorized Kent Kepler to begin making plans for a design contest for a centennial belt buckle for a money making project for the society.

The society then officially gave the museum complex a name. The complex includes the Miers home, the old jail and the depot. They named it the Sutton County Heritage Park.

Their next meeting is set for August 2, 4:30 at the First National Bank Annex at which time new officers will be elected and installed. And last minute preparation will be made for Sutton County Days.

Teleservice saves time and money

People living in the San Angelo area can save themselves time and money if they take advantage of Social Security teleservice, Franklin H. Upp, Social Security manager in San Angelo, said recently.

By using teleservice, people can conduct most all of their Social Security business by telephone. The teleservice number can be found in the telephone directory under "Social Security Administration."

Teleservice can be used to: Start an application for Social Security benefits or Supplemental Security Income payments. The applications can be started by telephone and completed by mail.

Apply for Medicare. Report a name or address change.

Report a change in marital status.

Report that a person has stopped or started work or to report other events that may affect receipt of checks.

Report a lost or stolen check or delayed payment.

Report a lost or missing Social Security or Medicare card.

Get help in completing Medicare claims forms.

Request a copy of a person's Social Security earnings record.

Get help in requesting a review of the decision made on a Social Security claim.

Get the answer to any Social Security question.

Unless a person's business is urgent, it is best to wait until after the middle of the month to call. This is because the first part of the month is the busiest time in the San Angelo Social Security Office.

Ruben a 4th grader in Mrs. Russell's class will have a chance like Joe's when he tries out in the 100 meter run.

Patty, a small 1st grader in Mrs. Schwiening's class, will try to win Preliminary/District, highest advancement in her age group, when she tries to win in the 100 meter run.

The children got real excited about participating when the Devil River News wrote out the invitation about a month ago.

Middle School students participate in Math-A-Thon

Students of Sonora Middle School participated in a Math-A-Thon for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital during the month of March.

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital is the largest childhood cancer research hospital in the world and its purpose is to provide both medical treatment for desperately ill children and research that will permanently wipe out childhood cancer and other catastrophic diseases.

The Math-A-Thon challenged the students to work 200 math problems at home. The problems were designed to be fun, intriguing and a positive learning experience.

Each student found sponsors who pledged an amount for each problem the student worked correctly.

The students raised a total of $3030.56. Bonner Walsh was the top money raiser collecting $146.06.

National Pet Week

"Pets and People-a loving combination"

America's 125 million pets and their owners know that life together is better. To celebrate the unique companionship between people and their pets, veterinarians across the country are sponsoring National Pet Week, May 3-9. This coincides with Be Kind to Animals Week.

Pets enrich our lives, whether you have a houseful of children who learn about responsibility by caring for their pet; or live alone and like someone waiting for you when you return home.

Riding a horse, petting a cat, walking a dog, or talking to a bird all add an extra dimension to life. In addition to companionship, recent research has shown pets to be valuable in therapy for physically, emotionally and mentally impaired individuals. One example of pet therapy is animals visiting the nursing home regularly. The elderly people love to pet a friendly dog or a very appealing kid goat. In fact, the animals brighten their day and the visits are looked forward to greatly.

Other benefits of keeping pets are the animal's show of unconditional love and concern. Many pets listen patiently to their owner's problems, expressing no judgment of criticism.

For some folks, elderly and young alike, the dog provides the stimulus to get out and exercise for health and well-being. In some cases, dogs can provide "hearing ears" for deaf people. They alert the hearing impaired to doorbells, phones, and alarms, even leading them to the sound. Of course, everyone is familiar with seeing-eye dogs and their contributions to mankind.

Along with the joys of pet ownership come responsibilities. Your pet depends on you to provide food, shelter, exercise, vaccinations and health care.

This year's slogan for National Pet Week is "Pets and People-a loving combination."

RETIREMENT: PREPARING FOR A SAFE ONE

It's inarguably the most stressful time in a person's life. It's not adolescence. It's not looking for that first job. It's not even getting married.

Retirement. It affects nearly everyone and can be traumatic for those who are unprepared. Abrupt changes of any kind can cause tension. But by preparing for retirement, older people can enjoy a smooth transition rather than suffer from the sudden change in lifestyle. If you are about five years from retiring, the National Safety Council suggests that the planning start now.

What a person does with his or her time obviously will change. So will the physical environment if the person decides to move into a new home. Even if staying where they are, elderly people need to make some changes for safety's sake as they age. At this stage, health is more important than ever, so it's necessary to compensate for the effects of aging. While retirement is still several years away, now is the time to make some necessary adjustments:

Install handrails on both sides of all stairways.

Tack down carpet edges and throw rugs, or anchor them with double sided tape.

Install sturdy metal grab bars in tubs and showers. Non-skid mats or abrasive strips are also recommended for tub and shower floors.

Rearrange furniture to open paths through rooms and eliminate tripping hazards.

Extend electrical service to your garage and install lights and outlets.

Install a light-duty hoist in the garage to help lift heavy loads out of car trunks.

Age may slow you down, but it doesn't have to stop a person altogether. Healthy habits are more important as you age, and that means a sensible diet and exercise. If overweight, it's wise to shed those pounds now, rather than put it off until retirement is "official." Older people should contact a physician before starting any exercise routine or a change in eating habits—moderation and common sense are the keys to a healthy lifestyle.

Choosing a physical activity that is enjoyable is essential. It's much easier to continue with something if it's a pleasure rather than a chore. Fitness and endurance come from exercises that use a variety of the major muscle groups and can be maintained continuously for about 30 minutes. Aerobic exercise includes walking, running, bicycling, rowing, and swimming. After a doctor's examination, the older person is advised to start exercising gradually. As fitness level improves, he or she may be able to get involved in a wider range of physical activities.

By thinking about retirement in advance, a person can be ready to enjoy the change right from the start. A safe home and healthy lifestyle can only make retirement more rewarding. And who doesn't deserve that!

Only 2% of the nation's elderly reside in nursing homes, but they deserve our love just as much as the 98% who can manage by themselves. May 10-16 is National Nursing Home Week. Come visit someone you Love! Call 387-2521 for more information.

Federal Land Bank lowers interest rates

The Federal Land Bank Association of Sonora will offer long-term loans to purchase rural real estate beginning May 1, which will feature a 10-year fixed rate. Jack B. Smith, Jr., president of the association which is part of the state's largest agricultural lending system, said the interest rates on these loans will be 8 7/8 percent for farm loans and 9 1/8 for farm related business loans and rural home loans.

Smith said the program, the first of its kind offered by the Land Bank, should encourage new purchases of agricultural real estate, thereby helping to strengthen land values in Texas.

The FLBA official also announced a reduction in the association's variable interest rates for existing borrowers. The new rates, to take effect June 1, 1987, will be 10.25 percent interest on farm and ranch loans and 10.50 percent on rural residence and farm-related business loans.

The new program will fix the rate for 10 years and be matched by a 10-year security purchase by the bank at the same time the loan is made. The rate will convert to the bank's variable rate at the end of the 10 years.

Purchasers must qualify under the Land Bank's usual credit standards and use the money for new land purchases only.

Smith said he hopes other lenders would follow the Land Bank's lead and develop programs of their own to provide credit at reasonable rates and terms for the purchase of Texas rural land.

The Federal Land Bank and 44 Federal Land Bank Associations located throughout Texas have $2.38 billion in loans outstanding on 37,000 loans to approximately 100,000 Texas farmers and ranchers.

Those interested in taking advantage of the new program should contact their local Federal Land Bank Association.

Seniors receive Carr Academic Scholarships

Gay Ann Dobbs, Kristin Keel, Misti Kramer and Shaumarie Scoggins, seniors at Sonora, have been rewarded Carr Academic Scholarships at Angelo State University for 1987-88.

Gay Ann Dobbs, the daughter of Wayland and Patsy Dobbs; Kristin Keel, the daughter of William and Cynthia Keel; Misti Kramer, daughter of Richard and Lynette Barnes; Shaumarie Scoggins, the daughter of Larry and Carol Scoggins; are the Sonora seniors to be awarded the scholarships.

Dobbs, who currently ranks first in her graduating class, is president of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and vice-president of the student council. Dobbs was also active as secretary of the National Honor Society, co-captain of the basketball team, and received the Outstanding sophomore award, the English II award and the computer math award.

Keel, who is a top ranking student in her graduating class, is a member of the National Honor Society. Keel was also active in the band, was a twirler, a member of the state band and the sweepstakes band, cast member of "Grease", and "Charlie Brown", and a member of the drama and Spanish clubs.

Kramer, who is a top ranking student in her graduating class, is a member of the National Honor Society. Kramer was also active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, was a cheerleader, captain of the pep-squad, a member of the Spanish club, and selected to Who's Who Among American High School Students.

Scoggins, who is also a top ranking student in her graduating class, is president of the National Honor Society, and a member of the student council. Scoggins was also active in choir, qualified for state in girl's choir and mixed ensembles, a member of the state marching band and the sweepstakes band, and president of the senior class.

These four seniors are among more than 300 distinguished high school students who have been awarded Carr Academic Scholarships for 1987-88. The recently concluded selection process will result in a total of approximately 1,000 scholarship awards for next year.

The extensive scholarship program is made possible through funds provided by the Robert G and Nona K. Carr Scholarship Foundation. Carr Academic Scholarships are awarded annually to approximately 1,000 undergraduate and graduate students who enroll at Angelo State. The scholarships may be renewed annually until graduation for qualified students who maintain exemplary academic and personal records.

Now in the seventh year, the Carr Academic Scholarship Program has provided over $7 million in academic scholarships since the 1981-82 academic year. Awards are based on the students' outstanding academic records and personal achievements.

Several National Merit Scholars, a large number of National Merit finalists, semifinalists and commended students, and several hundred valedictorians and salutatorians are among the distinguished students who will be attending ASU on Carr Academic Scholarships during 1987-88.

The distinctive scholarship program, created by the late Mr. Carr in 1978, will provide approximately $1.5 million in academic scholarships during the 1987-88 school year to assist worthy and deserving students to pursue their education at Angelo State University.

Mr. Carr bequeathed to the Board of Regents, Texas State University System, for the use of Angelo State, all his interest in oil, gas and minerals with the provision that these properties be held in trust for the establishment of the Carr Academic Scholarship Program.
