

"MY TURN"

By Carol Ellis

ARE WE TRASHY people or what? According to a national magazine report, Americans throw away almost one ton of garbage per person each year.

A check with local city officials, however, shows that we average only 1,463 pounds of garbage per year for each family dwelling, estimating that an average of four people live in each house. So we can brag about not being quite as trashy as the rest of America.

The American consumer carts home an awfully lot of goods and foods, each in their own individual box, package, can, sack, plastic bubble or what have you. Each of these packages contributes to that ton of garbage that you throw away.

Large cities such as New York have enormous problems when it comes to getting rid of their 17,912 tons of garbage EACH DAY. Remember that barge containing 3,000 tons of garbage which went on a world wide tour last year? The barge started out last March from Long Island heading for North Carolina with the idea that this cargo was to be used for methane fuel.

But the Carolinians decided they didn't need it. Neither, it seems, did four other states along the coast, Mexico, Belize or the Bahamas. After four months and 6,000 miles, the barge ended up back in Brooklyn as 400 tons of ash.

Tokyo, on the other hand, with a larger population than New York City, disposes of 12,500 tons of garbage daily. Why this big difference? It would appear that Japan, while surpassing America in the ability to create products, has also surpassed us in the ability to dispose of them.

America dumps 90 per cent of its garbage into landfills. Well, at least our record is better than that of Great Britain. The Anti-Pollution League estimates that Britain disposes of 300 million gallons of sewage daily, mostly untreated, into its coastal waters.

The Japanese, however, put at most, 20 per cent of their unprocessed household wastes into landfills which are lined with impermeable liners, leachate collectors and waste-water treatment to prevent pollutants from escaping back into the groundwater.

In the U.S., 25 per cent of our used paper products are recycled. In Japan, 50 per cent of the used paper is recycled. In the U.S., seven per cent of our glass products are recycled. In Japan, 95 per cent of their soft drink and beer bottles are reused an average of 20 times.

A national non-profit research group based in N.Y. City estimates that after recycling, only half as much waste material per person is generated in Japan as in the good old trashy USA.

If you feel rather helpless to accomplish anything positive after being confronted with trash in tonnage of five figures, remember the old saying, "Man shapes his environment, then his environment shapes him." Each of us can do our own small part.

Start by buying your soft drinks only in returnable glass bottles...no cans, plastic bottles or throw-aways. Then you can do the whole world a big favor by refusing to purchase anything which comes in an aerosol can. How about making a compost bin to fertilize your flower beds, fruit trees and gardens? A compost heap need not be made only of dead leaves and grass clippings. Just about anything can go into making compost, such as orange peels, egg shells, coffee grounds, and the dirt from your vacuum cleaner bag.

"Don't mess with Texas" may seem like a rather harsh way of getting the anti-litter message across, but it must be effective, because our highways look cleaner than they have in many past years. All it takes is for each person to show a little pride in our planet.

Cobb Speaks At Banquet

Bruce Cobb of Lubbock will be the speaker at the FFA Invitational Banquet on Thursday, April 21 at 7:30 p.m. at the high school cafeteria.

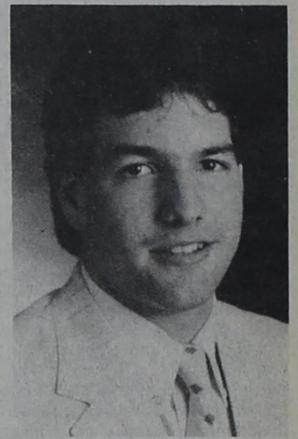

Cobb, 21, is one of thirteen Ambassadors for Agriculture representing the Texas Tech University College of Agricultural Sciences.

The Ambassadors for Agriculture are a select group of students enrolled in Texas Tech majoring in one of the seven departments within the College of Agricultural Sciences.

Through motivational speeches, the Ambassadors strive to inform people about the important role of agriculture in our American way of life and challenge them to capitalize on an opportunity to maximize their potential. All Ambassadors have had previous public speaking experience as state or national leaders of the Future Farmers of America or 4-H organizations.

At Texas Tech, Cobb is a junior agricultural communications student in the Department of Agricultural Education and Mechanization. He is a recruiter for the College of Agriculture, a member of Ag Communicators of Tomorrow, and Collegiate FFA.

As a member of the Future Farmers of America, Cobb served as the 1986-87 State President of the Texas Association. During his term, he traveled approximately 60,000 miles throughout Texas representing over 53,000 FFA members. He is a member of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo Scholarship, The Texas Farm Bureau Scholarship, the Lone Star Farmer Degree, and the American Farmer Degree.

Soil Stewardship Week Is Slated

Emphasizing everyone's role in protecting soil and water resources for future generations, the Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District is encouraging local churches, organizations and individuals to join the nationwide observance of Soil and Water Stewardship Week, April 24-May 1.

The local district, which works throughout the year on soil and water conservation measures, is providing literature and speakers that highlight man's responsibility to be active stewards of our nation's soil and water resources.

McFarland C. Osborn, chairman of the Parmer County S.W.C.D., said that while farmers and ranchers know that good conservation practices help increase yields and improve their profit potential, they also know the importance of passing on well-cared-for natural resources for future food producers. "We could give our children all the money in the world, but it would do them little good unless we also give our children a productive soil on which to live," said Osborn.

Since 1955, the National Association of Conservation Districts has sponsored Soil and Water Stewardship Week, in cooperation with nearly 3,000 local conservation districts nationwide, as one way to emphasize the importance of good stewardship of basic soil and water resources.

Materials especially designed to convey the 1988 theme, "Stewardship Is Our Future," are being distributed by the Parmer County S.W.C.D. of 1306 W. 9th, Friona, Texas 79035, (806) 247-2220.

Baseball Meeting

The Bovina Baseball League will have an organizational meeting on Thursday, April 21 at 8 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the Methodist Church.

All interested parents and non-parents are urged to attend this very important meeting, so that Bovina can continue to have a strong baseball program.

If you cannot attend, but would like to help, call Garry Beauchamp at 238-1308.

Pet Clinic April 30

Junior Boys Are Second At District

The junior high district track meet was held April 22 and 23 in Sudan. The Colts had a very successful meet, finishing in second place in the team standings. The meet was a big challenge to the Colts due to illness and academic ineligibilities. The team still managed to finish the meet with an impressive 146 points.

The 400-meter relay team finished first with a time of 49.16. This was a very good time considering the wind conditions. Members of the winning relay team are Andy Stormes, Hugo Renteria, Izzy Marrufo and Corey Kirkpatrick.

Jose Silva was second and Angel Porras third in the 800-meter dash with times of 2:32.8 and 2:35.3.

In the 110-meter hurdles, Juan Reyna finished second with a time of 18.27 seconds.

Hugo Renteria placed third in the 100-meter dash with a time of 12.4 and Andy Stormes was fourth with a time of 12.8. Kory Mitchell also competed in the 100-meter dash.

In the 300-meter hurdles, Corey Kirkpatrick remained undefeated for the year by finishing first with a time of 43.1, above his season's best mark of 42.37. Juan Reyna finished the race in third place with a time of 49.5. Also competing in the 300-meter hurdles was Shane Branson.

Izzy Marrufo placed second in the 200-meter dash with a personal best time of 25.48. Kory Mitchell came in sixth with a time of 27.4. Rusty Venable was also competing in the 200-meter dash (28.5).

In the 1600-meter run, Angel Porras remained in sixth place until the final lap. At that point, he put on an impressive kick and finished the race in second place with a time of 5:54.9.

The 1600-meter relay (Marrufo, Renteria, Stormes, Kirkpatrick) didn't run as well as they have in the past few weeks, but still ran a very hard race and finished second in a time of 4:07.62. This time is well above their season's best of 3:53.88.

In the field events, the Colts were able to score 35 points. Kirkpatrick won the shot put with a toss of 43-7 for a new junior high record at Bovina. Also entered in the event were Andy Stormes (29-10) and Chris Wilson (22-6). Kirkpatrick also placed second in the high jump with a leap of 5-8, also a new junior high record. Izzy Marrufo was sixth with a jump of 5-0.

In the long jump, Izzy Marrufo placed third with a jump of 17-3½. Hugo Renteria was fifth with a jump of 16-9½. Also competing in the long jump was Andy Stormes.

Juan Reyna placed second in the discus with a toss of 103, a new Bovina junior high record. Rusty Venable was seventh with a throw of 85-7. Also competing was Chris Wilson (65-10).

The Colts have had an outstanding year, compiling a 5-2-1 football record, a 13-1 basketball record, and a super track season that saw them win the Lazbuddie meet and place second in the district meet. In addition to this, eleven school records were broken. This is a very special group of young men and the parents and community should be very proud of them and of what they have done for Bovina this year.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Scooter,

Thank you for your recent coverage of the Egg-stronaut Contest. It is important to the students at school to be recognized for their participation in various events, and it makes them proud to have it publicized.

The pictures in the paper looked great; however, there was a mix-up with some of the names. The second place winners from Mrs. Garrison's room were Ezequiel Lara, Melinda Ramon, Carlos Garza, Ellie Bermea, Ricardo Rodriguez, and Leticia Hernandez.

Also, I feel it is important that the general public know this event was initiated and sponsored by the Gifted/Talented program of Bovina Schools. This program desires to enhance the education of all Bovina students, whether G/T identified or not. The G/T classes have sponsored enrichment activities this year for students in several elementary grades and have recorded 357 participants in the various activities.

Our elementary teachers have been very willing to take the extra time and effort that participation by their classes in these activities involves.

A very special thanks should go to Karen Taylor, Kathy Graves, Carolyn Widner, Phyllis Steelman, Norma Villarreal, Joy Trimble, Tina Sides, Ralene Wilk, Sue Nuttall, Betty-Glee Dyer, Shirley Garrison, Ladana Moore, Bobby Martin and Anna Heflin.

Sincerely,
Brenda Wilson
