

"MY TURN"

By Carol Ellis

WE ARE ALL anxiously awaiting the coming of the "kinder, gentler nation" which has been promised to us by our new president-elect George Bush.

It wasn't a landslide or even a mandate, but it was a substantial win for the Republican ticket. Grassroots Americans went to the voting booths and said "We don't want liberal left-wing folks residing in our White House."

The big question posed at the beauty shop has been "What sort of First Lady is Barbara Bush going to be?" It has been a long time since we have had a solid, down-to-earth, motherly-type First Lady along the lines of Mamie Eisenhower or Bess Truman.

So, good-bye to the anorexic model ladies with the painted-on smiles and the designer duds. Welcome to Big Mamma Bush! She'll do a lot for the self-image of many of us who are bustling around with several extra pounds on our bustle.

With that said, I don't care to hear anymore about politics for quite a long time. We begin now to look forward to the coming holiday season. Shop till you drop! A woman's place is in the mall! Etc., etc.

Last year, about this time, I thought I had to buy a particular board game for a family friend, and so I ventured into one of those big city gigantic-size toy stores. What an experience! Stacks of games reached from floor to ceiling and I can't see up that high with these bifocals. A tiny automated TV game show host who seemed to be a cross between Bert Convey and Alex Trebeck, began trying to sell me on an electronic game set costing hundreds of dollars.

In the next aisle, a robot was tooling up and down, making beeping noises and bumping into the shoppers. Further into the store, two stuffed bears were actually conversing with each other. Out loud! Honest!

Remember how delighted we used to be with a doll that closed her eyes and said "Mama" or a toy truck that didn't do anything except roll along the floor when you pushed it?

Today would probably be an excellent time to invest in some stock with a company which produces batteries such as Duracell, Eveready or Energizer. Their sales around Christmas time must be phenomenal. And if you simply must venture into a toy store, be sure to take a friend along for protection from all those electronic things.

A lot of people are choosing to avoid those nerve-wracking Christmas shopping trips by ordering gifts from the many colorful catalogues which you've been getting in the mail almost every day lately. The variety is endless.

Shopping by catalogue is a bit more expensive by the time you pay the shipping charges. Also there is some risk involved since a particularly popular item could be sold out and back-ordered or never delivered at all. Orders placed after Thanksgiving are pretty chancy, so catalogue shopping requires a great deal of planning ahead.

Of course, a super alternative to all of the above would be to shop at home first before trying the malls or the catalogues. Chances are, one of the local stores will have just the item you've been looking for.

School To Dismiss For Holidays

Classes for Bovina Schools will be dismissed on Wednesday, November 23, 2:30 p.m. for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Classes will resume on Monday morning, November 28.

Let Us Give THANKS

Pheasant season in Parmer County will be held December 10-

Tonya Chisum picked up the scoring with a pair of baskets in the second quarter, and five points in the third quarter, but the Fillies never could challenge the visitors.

Miss Chisum led Bovina's attack with 11 points. Miss Griggs and Jennifer Beauchamp each scored ten points.

Colts Open Basketball Season

The eighth grade team faced a tough House, N.M. team and fell in their opener, 32-24. "We had 'way too many fouls to win the game. You can't win many games when you have 36 fouls," said Coach Kim Rundell.

Scoring for the Colts were Nancy Vargas, 6; Cindy Quintana 5; Monica Rodriguez 5; Christina Salazar 4; Jo Linda Hodnett 3; and Lorena Saenz 1. Other team members are Debbie Rodriguez, Teresa Stone, Christina Noriega and Stephanie Rackley.

The brothers have had a number one show for seven years. They are graduates of Bovina High School, South Plains College and West Texas State University, and are sons of Leslie and Rose McCain of Bovina.

LEADERS GIVEN

Grid Contest Enters Its Final Weekend

With one week remaining in the Bovina Blade's football contest, several contestants still are in the running for the $100 grand prize.

Jerry Bentley continues to lead with a score of 119, followed by Kenneth Sherbon at 116. Next come Rhonda Bentley and Dean Stanberry with scores of 114; Ola Lee Jones with 110; Hattie Burnett and Carmen Porras, 110.

Scores of all the leading contestants may be found elsewhere in this issue.

Contestants are reminded with this being the Thanksgiving weekend, that if they are going out of town for Thanksgiving, they might need to get their entries turned in before they leave town so as not to miss the contest.

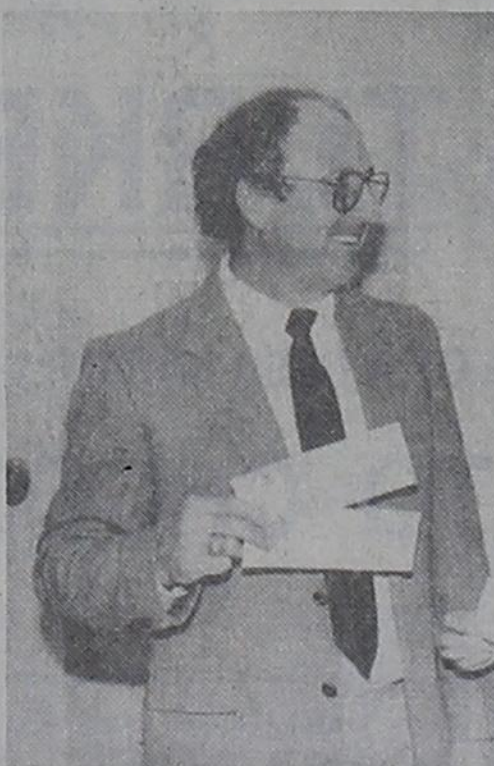

In the weekly contest for last weekend, Jackie Morgan of Friona was first place winner. He was the only contestant to correctly pick 12 of the 14 contest games. Morgan mis-fired only on the Sudan-Follett and UCLA-Southern Cal games to claim the $10.00 weekly prize.

Jim Scott and Dean Stanberry tied for second and third place in the weekly event, both having scores of 11 and tying on the tie-breaker score.

Stanberry missed Abernathy-W.T. High, Sudan-Follett and UCLA-Southern Cal.

Scott's misses were Silverton-New Home, Abernathy-W.T. High and Sudan-Follett.

Eight contestants correctly picked 10 games, missing by just one having a chance at one of the weekly prizes. They were Hattie Burnett, Richard Grisham, Ola Lee Jones, Dianne Morgan, Carmen Porras, Elizabeth Porras,

JACKIE MORGAN

Kenneth Sherbon and Robert Tapia.

Thirteen contestants correctly picked nine games. They were Kim Bales, Jerry Bentley, Bill Boling, Mario Gomez, Jr., Darren Hromas, Matthew Hromas, Irma Hernandez, Matt Howell, Cheryl Howell, Frances Johnson, Penny Johnson, Al Kerby Jr., Michelle Stanberry.

Scoring eights were Rhonda Bentley, William Gromowsky, Daniel Hernandez, Johnny Martinez, Randy Richards, A.M. Wilson and Mary Jane Wilson.

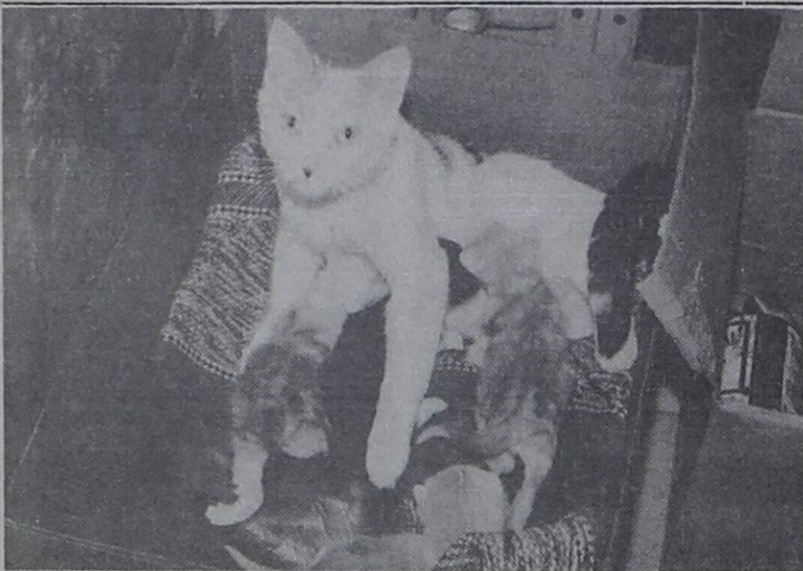

The contest has been co-sponsored with the Blade by 14 sports-minded area businesses and industries.

CHRISTMAS TREE...Shown is a Christmas tree that was on display at the Methodist Women's bazaar held Saturday at the bank. Ladies pictured are Juanita Hastings and Thelma Barron. Ornaments were made by Mrs. Hastings and Ells Jo Stormes.

WOMEN'S BAZAAR...A table full of goodies was offered at the annual Methodist Women's Bazaar, which featured baked goods and gifts for the holidays.

POPULAR CAT... If you are a customer of Charles Oil Company, you are acquainted with "Miserell." She has been with them for the past two years and has recently given birth to four kittens. She was first named Elizabeth, but one of the employees' small children could not pronounce the name and began calling her "Miserell" and the name stuck.

They hope to raise enough money by selling aluminum cans

Area Gets Snowfall Saturday

The Bovina area received its first snowfall of the season last Saturday, when a cold front brought two inches of white stuff, which fell with a north wind.

The high temperature on Saturday never reached above 32 degrees, which was the lowest maximum temperature for the season, and the mercury dropped to another seasonal low that night, 17 degrees.

At Friona's weather station, the official moisture content from the snow was .17 inches.

Farmers said the light snow, particularly due to the wind and drifting, brought very little relief from the dry conditions which have prevailed for most of the fall.

About all the snow accomplished was to halt the cotton stripping which was about ready to get into high gear, after the first hard freeze of the season was recorded on Wednesday, November 16. Cotton farmers indicated that the snow would not materially hurt the cotton, however, and that if it stayed clear, stripping could resume shortly.

The area's maize harvest also has pushed forward thanks to the freeze, and is virtually complete. Some of the dryland maize was said to have made the best yields the crop has recorded in a number of years, thanks to the good rains of last summer.

Scooter's Scoops

By Scooter Russell

We are a small town and everyone is affected when someone dies. We have lost eight of our people in the last two months so it has been a sad time for many residents.

Funeral services were held during the week for Dee Terry, Willie Gipson, and Alma Englant. We want to express our sympathies to their families and friends...School will be dismissed on Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. for the Thanksgiving holidays and will resume classes on the following Monday. If you are traveling on the highways, please be careful because not all the turkeys will be on the Thanksgiving table...Have a good time, and drive carefully.

Von Bowen was taken by Bovina ambulance to the Friona hospital this past week after he fell at his home. His wife, Opal, said he was walking on their patio and fell. He suffered a slight concussion and bruises and was hospitalized 24 hours for observation. He is home now and getting along better.

Barbarette Sikes entered the Friona hospital on Thursday last week. I talked with her on Monday and she said she had stepped on a nail and her foot was badly infected. She is taking antibiotics intravenously, so she didn't know when she would be released.

Congratulations to Floyd and Ann Lee Englant on the birth of their 28th grandchild, Sherri Marie, born November 17. Her parents are Tony Bob and Angela Englant. The couple has another child, Taffanie, who is three years old.

Selma McKay suffered a fractured hip when she fell last week. She was taken to the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock on Wednesday of last week and underwent surgery on Thursday. She is still a patient there.

Her daughter-in-law, Veda McKay, was telling me that their daughter, Wanda Headlee of Lubbock, entered the hospital on Friday and had surgery and was released on Saturday.

On Friday of last week, Lawton Greene was taken by Bovina ambulance to the Clovis High Plains Hospital. I talked with his wife on Monday and she said he was released Sunday and is on medication. The Greens have recently moved to Bovina and are staying with their son, Charles and his wife. They moved here from Oklahoma City.

Joe and Nettie Lee Wilson and her daughter, Nancy and Keith Knight, went to Oklahoma City on Friday and Nettie Lee and Nancy attended a stockholders' meeting for the R & A Supply Company. Nettie Lee said it was so nice and was held at the Fifth Season Inn. They returned home Sunday.

Frank and Hattie Turner have recently returned home from Tucson, Arizona. They flew to Arizona and visited with their daughter and her husband, Wannette and Donald Ray Barron. The Barrons moved there six weeks ago and Hattie said they have bought a beautiful new home. Donald is an engineer on a water lifting project to pull water for the Indian reservation. Hattie said they enjoyed riding around and seeing the sights and one day viewed a brass statue and the reading said that it was where Tom Mix's "Spirit had left this world" and was dated 1930.

(For the younger generation, Tom Mix was one of the early cowboy stars in the movies and on the radio.)

Jack and Patricia Turner flew to Corpus Christi for a few days' vacation and Patricia had some school work she had to accomplish while they were there. They enjoyed a good trip and friends and family kept their children.

Bobby and Irma Jo Englant had a good time with their daughter and family visiting from Ulysses, Kansas. Carissa and Don Caillouet and children, Donnie and Ja'Que came last Friday and stayed until Monday. Irma Jo said they were on their way to Albuquerque to spend Thanksgiving with Don's sister.

SMILE:

Little Bobby was bragging about how fast his father's car could go. "It goes 125 miles an hour, and dad has it in writing from the highway patrol!" he exclaimed proudly.

Englants Have Girl

Tony and Angela Englant are the parents of a baby girl, Sherri Marie, born November 17 at 1:21 p.m. in the Lubbock General Hospital. The infant weighed five pounds, fifteen ounces and measured 19 3/4 inches long.

Grandparents are Jim and Kay Byrd of Friona and Floyd and Ann Lee Englant of Bovina.

Great-grandparents are Bessie Webb of Bovina and Frank Barrique of Mt. Vernon, Arkansas.

The Englants have another daughter, Taffanie, who is three years old.

The First Thanksgiving

Let's keep the spirit of this time aglow in our hearts and homes as we show thanks and give thanks for all lifes' blessings. Have a joyous holiday.
