Sonora left silent as KHOS is off the air unlawfully confined?

Pohl claims guilty plea entered without his okay

Phillip Pohl, the former Sonora High School teacher who pleaded guilty to aggravated sexual assault in 1985, now claims that he is "unlawfully confined and restrained of his liberty" in a Texas Department of Corrections facility in Rusk.

He is scheduled to appear before 112th District Judge Brock Jones Friday during which time it is expected Pohl will claim he did not knowingly or willingly enter a guilty plea.

"Plea bargaining was for the maximum punishment provided by law," said 112th District Attorney J.W. Johnson.

Pohl, 46, was indicted by a Sutton County Grand Jury April 12, 1985, on charges of rape of a child, incest, indecency with a child and aggravated sexual abuse.

The former freshman physical science teacher's arrest resulted from an investigation into the suicide of his wife, Nancy Pohl, a fifth grade teacher in Sonora. Scores of volunteers including Sutton and Crockett County Sheriffs Office personnel, Texas Rangers, Department of Public Safety officers, Texas Parks and Wildlife game wardens, Sonora teachers and members of the Sonora Volunteer Fire Department searched for Mrs. Pohl after she was reported missing Feb. 20.

Her body was found in Crockett County March 9, on a bluff near Live Oak draw, approximately two miles west of Interstate 10. It was determined that Mrs. Pohl, 41, died of a self-inflicted gunshot wound to the chest.

A month later, after hearing testimony that for nearly 10 years Pohl sexually abused his two daughters Debbie and Marsha through "force, fear and intimidation," the grand jury returned the indictments. Pohl was arrested and held on $200,000 bond.

Represented by Bob B. Spence, of Brady, Pohl waited until the tenth juror was selected before deciding to plead guilty to a single charge of aggravated sexual assault. He was sentenced to life in prison by Judge Jones.

In his application for a writ of habeas corpus Pohl contends that he was "...grossly misinformed about his parole eligibility by his attorney."

With his current status, Pohl is eligible for parole in 2006.

The former educator maintains he was unaware that an aggravated crime would require that he be imprisoned for a minimum of 20 years.

The sexual assaults were considered aggravated because the father of three allegedly used fear of bodily harm and a deadly weapon to force his daughters into sexual submission.

Martinez selected as 'Fireman of the Year'

First Assistant Fire Chief Harold Martinez has been selected as Sonora Volunteer Fire Department's "Fireman of the Year" for 1989.

Martinez, 43, has been a member of the 28-member fire department since 1978.

"It's a great honor to be picked by 27 men when there are so many capable firefighters," he said.

As Sonora's number one fireman, Martinez' name will be forwarded to the Hill Country Association where he will compete with winners of other area fire departments. From there winners will compete on a state and then national level.

Martinez will also attend the State Firefighters Convention in El Paso in June.

This is the third year the Sonora Volunteer Fire Department has honored one of its members who has exemplified the dedication required to be an outstanding firefighter. Members take into consideration attendance, drills, overall performance and ability to work as a member of the 28-man team.

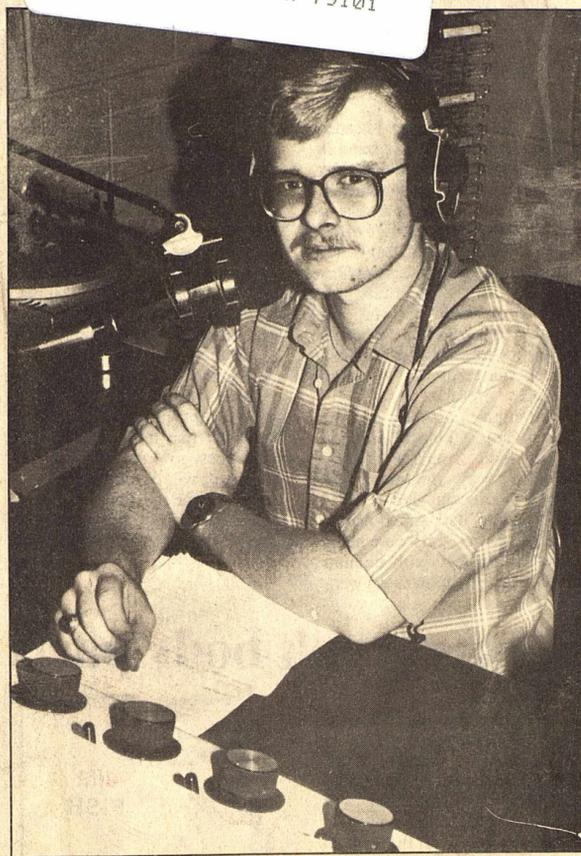

Martinez, a Sonora native, has attended firefighting schools at Texas A&M, rescue schools, and training schools in San Angelo where he received instruction in butane, pit and structure fires.

He has also completed Emergency Care Attendant training.

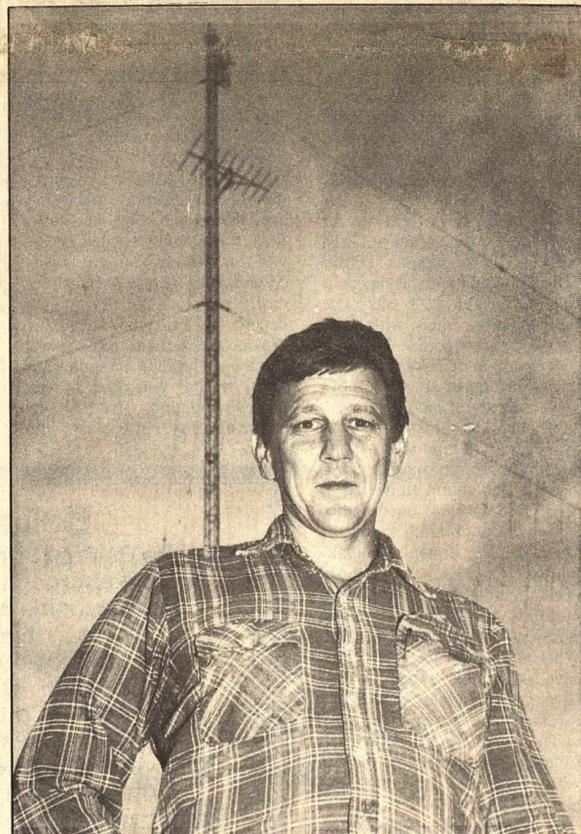

A 20-year employee of the Texas Highway Department, Martinez is married to the former Benita Dominguez of Sonora.

Sonora listeners turned their radio dials to no avail after 6 p.m. last Wednesday. No amount of fine tuning could bring in what wasn't there.

Owners of clock radios fared no better Thursday morning.

KHOS, Sonora's local AM and FM radio transmitter, was off the air.

"I'd rather you spoke with Mr. (Walton) Foster," said KHOS general manager Gene Turney, when asked for a comment on the station's demise.

Watson Foster, a San Angelo native, is the owner of Foster Communications, the company holding broadcasting permits for KHOS.

Foster, like Turney, said economic difficulties were behind the decision to close Sonora's only radio station.

"We're reassessing our posture," Foster said in a telephone interview Monday afternoon. "We're hoping to get it back on the air before too long."

He said his company has put money into KHOS for several years.

"The economy is such...we can't keep losing money," Foster said. "We've been on the air since 1976, and it's been a long hard battle."

Foster Communications owns KIXY in San Angelo, and has translator stations in Big Lake and Junction.

"We want to be there (in Sonora)," Foster said, "But we need support."

"It's one of those things they had to do," said KHOS program director Jeremy Gibson, adding "Nobody wanted to."

Turney, a 23 year veteran in radio communications, had been with KHOS since August, 1989. He was formerly acquainted with ABC radio, KLBJ in Austin, and KGKL in San Angelo.

Gibson had been a radio announcer at KHOS since 1987. He was one of the station's three

Centennial Salute is theater group's theme this season

Planning is well underway for the Covered Wagon Theater's 1990 season as evidenced by an organizational meeting last Saturday.

More than a dozen members of the Covered Wagon Theater troupe participated in an annual planning retreat to discuss policies and plans, share ideas and resolve a myriad of issues.

Attending the planning session were Neal Ulmer, Scott and Charlotte Gilmore, Jodie Presley, Ruth Spalding, John Spalding, Jim Fish, John and Mollie Zimmerman, Kay Renfro, Joann Paimer, Lou Faulks and Preston Love.

The group is dedicated to making its fourth year - a special Centennial Salute - spectacular, entertaining and memorable.

"The show provides a family-oriented evening walk through the pages of our history," said the group's founding director Charlotte Gilmore.

Opening night is scheduled for June 15. The Open Wagon Theater's season will run through Aug. 11, with a total of 18 shows.

A special closing event will be held Aug. 12 with a Cowboy Breakfast, Cowboy Church, and a show by Don Edwards.

Between the opening and closing of this special season will be performances with local storytellers, including Jim Stephen, Joe Lane, Marti McLain, L.P. Bloodworth, "Biscuits O'Bryan" and Cynthia Ward.

Out-of-town performers will include Julie Carpenter, Elmer Kelton, O.C. Fisser, Jim Henderson and the San Angelo Jazz Band.

Integrity eliminates Corps' rotten apples

When I headed south down Highway 277 before dawn Friday, my stomach was full of butterflies.

No, that's not exactly true. I felt like it was full of something a little more substantial, like bats - big ones - and they were looking for a way out.

I had been called by the United States Customs Service to testify at a judicial hearing. The hearing stemmed from a formal complaint lodged against a Customs agent who had been harassing people at the port of entry in Del Rio.

Among the travellers that had been senselessly victimized by the errant agent were two reporters from the Del Rio News-Herald, Dennis Smith and myself. I'll spare you the details that led to the complaint we lodged with Customs Port Director Ralph Sinclair early last June, but let me just say the harassment was more than just verbal.

The mental midget who got his jollies by abusing his authority wasn't satisfied until he had me spread-eagled in public, and nearly doubled over with pain after being grabbed where it hurts.

The complaint reflected our indignation, and the incident made the front page. Copies of the article made it as far as Washington, but Dennis and I remained unconvinced that anything would become of our protest.

Even when a regional director for Customs appeared on the scene to take depositions a few weeks later, we were pretty skeptical. We were told that an internal investigation was in progress, and that our complaint was taken seriously. We were also advised that we had no access to information compiled during the investigation: we would never learn if it had been determined our complaint was meritorious, what the agent's punishment would be, or if other complaints had been lodged against him.

And if that didn't seem a bit appalling, we were also told that Customs would never divulge the agent's identity!

Our skepticism, unlike butterflies, was pretty heavy.

But eight months later I headed south to take the witness stand in what appeared to be nothing short of a federal tribunal. The nameless agent, surrounded by his attorneys, paced outside the director's office while I sat inside with Dennis. We had been told the hearing wouldn't be lengthy, and that our testimonies would be brief. We had also been told that we would be subject to cross-examination, and that our credibility would be attacked.

The minutes crept by and the bats in my stomach stopped beating their wings. I relaxed, thought happy thoughts, and became almost composed.

Meanwhile, dark-suited people came and went. Deals were being made; offers met with counter offers. After 90 minutes we were told that our testimonies wouldn't be required; the anonymous agent, apparently wanting to avoid confrontation, agreed to a plea bargain.

What I didn't realize as I was sitting there, was that at that same time a Customs agent in El Paso was being arrested for possessing a kilo of cocaine. He faces up to 40 years in prison and a $2 million fine.

Customs officials said the arrest was the first under a new Integrity Enhancement Program.

"Nothing is more important to the Customs mission than the integrity of our employees," Customs Commissioner Carol Hallett was quoted as saying.

I, for one, believe her. The Del Rio agent's behavior is an embarrassment not only to Customs, but to all Americans. Yet, he's small fish compared to the El Paso agent, who I hope spends 40 years behind bars.

Despite a few rotten apples, though, Customs, Immigration and the Border Patrol are made up of decent, dedicated men and women whose mission is to serve and protect. It's unfortunate that the bad apples get the most publicity, because those federal agencies deserve a lot of praise.

It's funny how an unpleasant experience can have such a positive effect. The Customs' quest for integrity just reinforces my belief that the United States has the best government there ever was, is, or will be.

And I hope the nameless agent in Del Rio realizes that too...

Your attitude will give you strength to endure any vocational hardship, humiliation or set-back; or it will insure your downfall. Cultivate one that best suits your goals and aspirations. If you are not in a situation of your liking, a good attitude will most certainly get you there.

Don't expect a "pat-on-the-back" for every accomplishment, even if you deserve one, it is your job. Really look inside yourself for your very best qualities. Bring them out and work with them, and expect others will do the same. Seek to broaden your understanding of the organization's functions and work to master them. Bosses aren't body parts

by Jim Fish

There are few organizations without those who complain they cannot develop a positive attitude due to the statements and actions of others. Usually, they will equate the boss or some supervisor to various parts of the human body. To hear them tell it, they thanklessly work harder and more than all others. They are convinced they should be in a position to dictate policy or delegate responsibility. The company in which they were formerly employed had better ways of doing things. They invariably cling to their negative attitude as though it was an inalienable right.

Know the type? Most leaders will prefer subordinates with cheerful and cooperative dispositions. People have been fired for displaying poor working attitudes. I was once retained when others with more seniority and expertise lost their jobs as a result of a "lay-off", simply because I was more cooperative and cheerful.

In another situation, I was employed by a man whose motto was, "You either work or fight, there ain't no quittin' til the day is done." He was quite unconcerned with my state of mind, so long as I got the job done. To make matters worse, he would occasionally trigger my anger with his mischief because he believed it made me work harder. When things got intense I could have fought, but I didn't. I could have quit, but it wasn't an option. I worked - and learned to enjoy it.

The person who benefits most from a positive attitude is the one who possesses, cultivates and maintains it.

As separate and unique entities, we are ultimately responsible for our every action and utterance. When actions are deemed inappropriate or wrong it is because our perspective of the situation is incorrect, and our attitude becomes poor. We should therefore give the boss or supervisor the benefit of the doubt, for our own sake.

If you equate the employer to a part of your anatomy that rarely sees the light of day, it is not a fact. It is a reality created by you and for which you are solely responsible. You could just as easily conclude he or she is a decent person who strives to provide the customer with the best service or product possible, and with whom you are having difficulty relating. This too, may not be a reality, but is one with which to insure a productive employer/employee relationship at a later date.

Excellence, quality added and awesome service should be the objective of all persons, and in most cases it is. Any express or implied contract should be fulfilled by all parties. The failure to do so by one party is not grounds for another party to retaliate. If the boss is a jerk, seek other employment or deal with it in a constructive manner. It is always possible to rise above such behavior and perform in a professional manner. Above all else, cling to a positive attitude.

Never be afraid to talk to your leadership. Communication strengthens all relationships and

Dear Editor,

On behalf of the West Texas Rehabilitation Center, I want to say a special "thank you" to the people of Sonora for their support of the Junior Firefighters for Rehab Program.

Belle Steen

When the Belle of Sonora's name was called,

As she approached the pearly gates

No one inside was ever in doubt,

As to this lady's fate.

The Lord looked in the big book,

To check her record clear

There was not one black mark upon,

All that was written there.

God was very pleased and impressed

As he looked upon her page.

Many names of friends were listed there,

No matter what their age.

She had been our lovely lady,

For eighty years or more

There were a few names listed there for those

Who had known her before.

We are gathered here to say "Good Bye",

To this lady in our midst -

No one can ever guess right now,

How much she will be missed.

To walk our streets with a cookie plate,

Had been much fun for her

The joy she passed out with them,

We lay her now to rest,

In the land she loved so dear

Pray to the Lord to make her life,

As good as she left it here.

We are going to miss you Steen,

No matter what they say.

But I know you friends will greet you again,

Upon our judgment day.

screenings useful
No substitutes for professional eye care

by M. J. Lindner, M. D.

Mrs. Maria Torres is an older Texan who has just learned that an eye screening program (glaucoma or visual screening) is going to be conducted at her senior center in the near future.

But what can such a screening do for her?

Eye screening - a service sponsored by a health organization or individual - usually tests to see if the pressure inside the eye is normal or higher than average. It takes just a few minutes and doesn't hurt in any way.

Why would Maria want to know if the pressure inside her eye is higher than normal? Because there is a serious eye disease, glaucoma, in which high eye pressure can cause damage to the eye, sometimes resulting in total blindness.

Most of the time, a person cannot tell whether his or her eye pressure is elevated. Only special testing can reveal this and determine if the pressure is causing damage to the eyes.

If a screening shows that your vision isn't as good as the average person of your age, it may mean that you have an eye disease such as cataracts. Besides cataracts, there are many other eye diseases that can cause poor vision. Many can be treated.

It is important to know that simply having a cataract doesn't mean that immediate surgery is needed. Cataracts should be removed only when they impair your sight enough to keep you from performing daily activities, not just because they are there.

Once a problem is found in a screening, the next step should be to have a complete eye examination by an ophthalmologist (eye doctor).

An eye screening does not tell you if you have an eye disease, and it should never take the place of your regular eye examination by an ophthalmologist. It is simply a guide to let you know that something may not be right with your eyes.

The only way to know if something is really wrong and will benefit from treatment is to have regular eye examinations by a specialist.

One question that Maria and other seniors should keep in mind when they take part in a screening is, who is sponsoring the screening? The elderly person has to decide whether he or she wants to:

(a) Go to a screening offered by a doctor, who sometimes gives out gifts and other incentives to get people to attend a screening (then, if something is wrong, he told that this particular doctor will be glad to fix it for them, with no option offered to see another doctor), or

(b) Go to a screening offered by local, state or physician's specialty health organizations, who give you a chance to pick your own ophthalmologist if something is found to be wrong. Then, if something is confirmed to be wrong, have the problem treated as necessary.

In the end, only the consumer can decide which option to take. Because eyes are such precious possessions, this decision should be carefully considered.

Remember: a screening is only a guide, not a complete eye examination. It should never take the place of a complete eye examination.

Dr. Lindner is President of the Texas Ophthalmological Association.

New information emerging on elders' abuse of alcohol

Problems of alcohol abuse among people 65 and older are receiving increased attention. Recent studies have added considerably to our knowledge of the nature and causes of alcoholism among senior citizens.
 Two of the conclusions scientists have reached include:
 *Alcohol problems do not necessarily decrease with age. This conclusion is offered with the caveat that different types of studies may yield different types of results.
 For example, a cross-sectional study, which is conducted at a specific point in time, may reveal that a 70-year-old drinks less than a 50-year-old for reasons unrelated to age.
 That is, the 70-year-old's attitudes about drinking may have been caused by having grown up during Prohibition, whereas the 50-year-old experienced no such peer disapproval of drinking while he was growing up.

 Studies that track the same individuals at different times in their lives, however, tend to show stable drinking patterns over time.
 In fact, evidence now exists that some people actually drink more as they age, possibly due to age-related stress such as loss of employment, widowhood or bereavement.
 *Identification of older alcoholics is often difficult. This is partly because of the difficulty in applying the same definitions of "a drinking problem" to the old and young.
 Classic symptoms of alcoholism include musculoskeletal pain, insomnia, reduced sex drive, depression and memory impairment.
 These drinking-related symptoms are often misidentified as normal conditions of aging.

State spends $653,559 for major welfare programs in Sutton County

The state spent a total of $653,559 last year for major welfare programs in Sutton County, according to Ray L. Dunavant, Regional Administrator for the Texas Department of Human Services.
 "Medical assistance had the biggest impact, with $348,215 spent for aged and disabled residents of the county and $95,358 for families and children in the county," Dunavant said.
 Food stamps worth $182,197 were issued for the fiscal year which ended August 31, while Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) totaled $27,789. Food stamps are funded entirely by the federal government, while the department determines eligibility of applicants and issued the food coupons.
 The state and federal governments share in the cost of AFDC to families where needy children are deprived of support because of the absence or disability of one or both parents.
 In addition to services and assistance to low-income residents of the county, the department extended protective services to 18 abused and neglected children and their parents or caretakers. These services, furnished without regard to family income, were designed to reduce or eliminate danger to children.

Tedford named Chairman for Mosbacher campaign

John Tedford has been named as Sutton County Chairman for Rob Mosbacher's bid for Lieutenant Governor in 1990, it was announced last week by campaign officials. Also, Mrs. Alma Bird, Mrs. Patty Bruce, Ms. Marie Hedden, Mrs. Clair Johnson, Ms. Lisa Mercurio and Ms. Billijo Porter have agreed to serve as Regional Co-Chairmen, campaign officials said.
 "We are delighted with the depth and breadth of support of the county and regional leadership for Rob Mosbacher," campaign manager Herb Butrum said. "The experience and leadership that each county and regional chairman brings to the campaign is vital to our success in 1990."
 The county chairman's responsibilities include recruitment of volunteers, campaign headquarters management, special event planning and other duties essential to the operation of the campaign within the county.
 Mosbacher is a Houston businessman. He is Chairman of the Board of the Texas Department of Human Services. He and his wife, Catherine, have three children, Peter, Jane and Meredith.

Sonora Caverns to open in July

Scenic attraction to be developed; open tentatively set for July

February 11, 1960 - An agreement has been reached between Stanley Mayfield and Jim Papadakis of Ardmore, OK., for the development of Sonora Cavern located on the Mayfield ranch as a scenic attraction designed to draw nationwide attention from cave enthusiasts and tourists. The contract is now in the hands of attorneys and will be completed and executed by Mayfield and Papadakis Saturday.

Plans call for work underground to begin immediately in order to have the cave in condition for the first guided tour by July of this year.

"Most Beautiful"

Papadakis first became interested in the cave as an amateur spelunker. He had made about 12 trips into the cave before starting his project, "I am," he said, "pretty familiar with the cave and its possibilities. I consider it the most beautiful I have ever seen and I have been in over 150 caves, both the developed and 'wild' ones."

He describes the cavern as larger than Longhorn and says it has formations not found in any other known cave.

Developer Geologist

The developer was educated at Carlton College, Northfield, Minnesota, where he took his Bachelor of Arts degree in geology. He also holds a master's degree in geology from Michigan Tech, Houghton, Mich. Papadakis spent two years in the Army after receiving his masters degree and since that time has been employed with Shell Oil Company.

It was while he was working with Shell in Houston that Papadakis made his first trip into the cave in the summer of 1950. His hobby has been spelunking until November 1959 when the Sonora Cavern project was conceived.

Work will be slow

Papadakis's partner, Jack Burch, an Oklahoma ranchman, is also a spelunker. Burch plans to move to Sonora next week after leasing out his ranch and selling his cattle in order to devote his time to the cavern project.

Physical development of the cave will include stairways, probably treated wood, at the entrance and metal or concrete stairways inside the cavern itself. Tunneling will be slow and tedious process since all blasting will be done in small doses in order to preserve formations within the cave. Airhammers will be used as much as possible.

All walkable

The entire path through the cavern will be walkable and no stooping will be necessary. The exact route is not completely planned at the present time but every precaution will be taken to preserve the spectacular formations in the cavern. Development will be done in stages and is expected to take several years.

Ultimate plan calls for two tours, a short and long, to be available.

C of C working

The Sonora Chamber of Commerce has been working actively with Papadakis on the project. The Chamber will be host Monday night to a showing of colored slides from the cavern. The showing will be held at the basement of the First Methodist Church.

Open in July

Papadakis and Burch are putting up small houses near the mouth of the cave. This will serve as living quarters and office for the first year. A large building of native stone with souvenir counters, restrooms, ticket sales office, and lunch counter will probably be constructed the second year.

"We will make every effort to open for the first one-hour tour during July," Papadakis said. He added that they expect a large number of spelunkers the first year and will launch an intensive advertising campaign as soon as possible.

School building contract to be let Feb. 13

February 7, 1930 - Contract for Sonora's new $100,000 high school building will be let next Thursday, according to M. O. Britt, superintendent. It is thought that work will be rushed to completion and the building to be ready for occupancy by fall. It will be two stories and basement with every modern convenience and up-to-date equipment.

Excavation work has been finished at a cost of about $7,000, and foundation work can be started at any time. The present building will be used principally for grammar school.

The school board has purchased additional ground that will be used exclusively for parking space. No cars will be permitted to enter the school grounds.

It is thought that bidding will be keen, as about thirty contractors are expected to quote costs.

Jaycees begin ambulance trust fund

February 13, 1980 - The Sonora Jaycees have initiated a drive to raise funds for the purchase of a new ambulance for Sutton County. The Jaycees made the announcement during Monday's Commissioners Court meeting.

emergency vehicle has become painfully obvious recently. The county government does not, at this time, have funds available and this is an excellent opportunity for the citizens of Sutton County to band together and provide this needed service, Swift went on to say.

The Jaycees voted last Thursday to begin the drive with a $200 donation. The funds will be kept in the Sutton County Trust Fund at the First National Bank. The estimated cost for the new ambulance ranges between $30,000 and $37,000 depending on the type purchased.

"We felt that something needed to be done now to begin gathering funds for the purchase of a new ambulance," said Jaycee President Steve Swift. "While the county has allocated funds for substantial repairs to the present ambulance, the need for an additional Prices have been received on two different vehicles which would be useable. One is built on a dual rear wheel van frame and would cost about $30,000. The other is built on a one ton truck frame with dual rear wheels and four wheel drive at a cost of about $37,000.

All donations are tax deductible. Checks should be made payable to the Sutton County Community Trust Funds and earmarked for purchase of new ambulance.

County records 879 poll tax payment

February 9, 1940 - Poll tax receipts to the number of 879 were issued by the Sutton County Tax Collector's office during the tax-paying season just ended, according to a report from the office. Tax collections of all kinds netted the sum of $91,235.93, which represent 96.2 per cent of all the taxes levied in the county, making an extremely good collection for the county.

The office also advises that 1940 car license plates will go on sale March 1. Colors of the new passenger tags will be purple and white, the license division of the state having adopted that combination of colors in honor of T. C. U., because of their splendid athletic record during 1938.

500 votes in Sutton County

February 7, 1920 - Poll tax receipts to the number of 466 were issued by the Tax Collector of Sutton County, prior to February 1st. They included 16 exemptions of which five were women and in the county 146 women have availed themselves of the right to vote. The ex-service men are not included in this number who with the others will make the voting strength of the county over 500. The increase in the desire of women for the voting privilege is very marked as only 45 took out certificates last year, an increase of 100.

Precinct 1 has 357 voters of which 113 are women. Precinct 2 has 31 voters of which 11 are women. Precinct 3 has 24 voters of which 7 are women. Precinct 4 has 33 voters of which 6 are women. Precinct 5 has 21 voters of which 4 are women.

This shows the women to have nearly a third of the voting strength of the county and when in the future they ask for civic improvement, such as the improvement of the courthouse grounds, path to the school house, etc., the politician will scratch the matter off for further consideration.

One county office contested

February 12, 1970 - The deadline has passed for candidates to file in the May 2 primaries, and only one contested race developed for county offices up for election this year.

The office of justice of the peace, a office which has been held by Alfred Cooper for the past twenty years, is being sought by five candidates, Bob Teaff, Buddy Brown, Mat Adams, John Eaton and C. M. Martinez. Cooper announced he would not be a candidate for the office this year, due to poor health.

The salary for justice of the peace amounts to $330 per month and contrary to beliefs of some county residents, the office holder does not receive a portion of the fines collected through his office.

"All fines are turned in to the county, with a majority going into the road and bridge fund," said County Judge J. W. Elliott. Elliott also added that there are no county officials that receive fees collected within his or her office.

Johnson again in race for county judge

February 7, 1930 - Alvis Johnson, present county judge of Sutton County, has authorized The News to make his official announcement for that post. Judge Johnson stated that his previous official conduct in that capacity stood to guide the voters in the July primary. His announcement is made subject to the action of the Democratic party. Judge Johnson has served this county as judge for several years, and feels that he is capable of serving the people in an economical and progressive manner. Although a servant of the people, he stated that he was for anything that would benefit the majority of the people and would strive to work to that end.

He asks the consideration of every voter in the county and promises, if elected, that he will treat all alike and show no partiality.

Hunter preparing for drive on big game in Northwest

February 7, 1920 - Sol Kelly, Sutton county ranchman, who has a reputation as a hunter in the country to the south is preparing for a drive on big game in Idaho this summer. Mr. Kelly is in San Angelo the first of the week, accompanied by Mrs. Kelly. He came in on Thursday in order to receive two registered Redbone foxhounds which were purchased at Covington, Tenn. for $175.

The animals are four year olds. Mr. Kelly already has seven dogs of this breed on his ranch 13 miles below Sonora. With them, he not only hunts bobcats and bears for sport, but easily keep his pastures free of wolves and other beasts of prey.

Several years ago, Mr. Kelly killed four mountain lions in the Glass Mountains of Brewster county. In June 1917, he and his wife went to Idaho on a trip to purchase bucks and while there Mr. Kelly slew, eight big bears. Mrs. Kelly was with her husband when he brought down one of the big brown animals.

"We are going back to Idaho in May to spend the summer and this time, I hope to get a grizzly or two," said Mr. Kelly Saturday. "I will take six of my hounds along. Incidentally, I will probably buy a carload of about 200 bucks." Mr. and Mrs. Kelly will return in September.

Love Is in the Air

OK, let's face it. If there's one week out of the year to pamper a loved one, this is it. Flowers, cards, hearts of candy, you name it. And to make the week even more special, there's plenty to cuddle up with on home satellite.

The Family Channel movie presents "Dance and Romance" week beginning with the musical Meet Me at the Fair (Feb. 12), followed by Let's Dance with Fred Astaire (Feb. 13). Valentine's Day brings you Love Me Tender starring Elvis Presley in his feature film debut, and the spirit continues as Danny Kaye and Bing Crosby co-star in Five Pennies (Feb. 17).

This year, play Cupid and surprise your love with a homemade treat or two. John and Rhonda Davidson show you how to prepare a heart-shaped meatloaf on Holiday Gourmet (The Nashville Network, Feb. 12 or 13) and include a dessert recipe for chocolate raspberry coconut squares. "Bless Your Little Pea-Pickin' Hearts" was his trademark; now join Dinah Shore, Della Reese and others in a salute to one of country music's great legends: Tennessee Ernie Ford: 50 Golden Years, also on TNN (Feb. 17).

Valentine's night on Stardust, enjoy the poignant drama Places in the Heart with Sally Field and John Malkovich, followed by The Godbye Girl starring Marsha Mason and Richard Dreyfuss. Or watch Ryan O'Neal and Ali McGraw in the classic Love Story on The Movie Channel.

The Disney Channel offers three appropriate holiday specials for children: Disney's DTV Doggone Valentine, From Disney With Love and A Special Valentine With the Family Circus (Feb. 14), and even Wednesday's (February 14) episode of Ozzie and Harriet features a Valentine theme. For the thirty-something crowd, Disney presents the premiere of Ready Steady Go! Beatles Live, a 1964 concert featuring classic hits including "Love Me Do," "Please, Please Me" and others (Feb. 13, 16).

Romance takes to the high seas in the premiere special, Love Boat: A Valentine Voyage (KMGH, February 12). And anyone who loves dogs will enjoy one of America's oldest traditions, The 113th Annual Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show (Feb. 12, 13 on MSG). Gaze at over 2,600 dogs of different breeds competing for top honors.

Watch one of the finest tales of brotherly love as Dustin Hoffman and Tom Cruise star in the Academy Award-winning film, Rain Man (Cinemax, February 12; HBO, February 14), or laugh as brotherly love takes on new meaning in the hilarious comedy Twins with Danny DeVito and Arnold Schwarzenegger (Stardust, February 13).

Nick at Nite features a Valentine's episode of Saturday Night Live where Richard Pryor jokes about women who leave him (Nickelodeon, Feb. 14).

After the holiday, the weekend comes alive with sports. NCAA basketball action heats up as we draw nearer to tournament time. Potential number-one team Kansas takes on Nebraska (Feb. 17) and Stanford visits UCLA (Feb. 18) on MSG.

Angora goat performance test set

The Annual Goat Performance Test conducted by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station here starts February 24 - 27 with deliver of the animals to the station.

The animals will be shorn March 5 and 6 with the test starting March 7. The purpose of the test is to identify superior animals based on a variety of fleece and body traits which are combined into an index.

The 112 day test runs through spring and summer, ending with a field day and possible sale July 25. The last weighing of the animals will be June 27 followed by the final shearing June 28.

Dr. Maurice Shelton, TAES research at San Angelo and a key coordinator of the test, said the test is limited to the male Angora kids born in the spring of 1989.

"It is not required that the animals be registered, but sale or use prospects would be improved with registered animals," said Shelton.

Cost of the test is $135 per head. The amount will be used to cover feed costs, shearing and laboratory work on the fleece. Any unused funds will be refunded at the end of the test.

For further information contact: Maurice Shelton, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, 7887 N. Highway 87, San Angelo, Texas, 76901, (915) 653-4576 or Don Spiller, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Box 918, Sonora, Texas 76950, (915) 387-3168.

A grand toast to Texas

On March 2, Texans worldwide offer a toast to Texas independence. In honor of battles at the Alamo, at San Jacinto, at Goliad, and numerous nameless battles of will and integrity, we propose a toast to the land and the people who have forged the Lone Star State. Long may her banner wave!

At 2 p.m. Central Standard Time, let each native, naturalized, and honorary Texan raise a glass to commemorate the signing of the Texas Declaration of Independence at Washington-on-the-Brazos on March 2, 154 years ago. Utopia Spring Water Inc. has offered to provide genuine Hill Country water for the event. Texans can call 1-800-594-2027 to request a coupon redeemable at any 7-11, Taylor Food Mart, E-Z Mart, or Stop-N-Go convenience store for a free 16-ounce bottle of Utopia springwater. If you live outside the state, you can receive your springwater through the mail. Just send your name, address, and $1 for shipping and handling for each bottle requested to Box 429, Utopia 78884, or call 1-800-594-2027 with MasterCard or VISA orders.

Remember at 2 p.m. on March 2, lift your glass high and proclaim: To Texas...

Joyous and Sparkling,
Evergreen when it rains, enduring in drought,
Timeless, endless in boundaries, exciting,
Home to the adventurous of yesterday and today,
With shrines from the past
And space and spirit for the future.
To Texas,
Everlasting in the hearts of your people!

You are invited to join the toasting party at Bits and Pieces of Sonora, 303 S. Crockett. Toastmaster will be Colonel Jim Stephen of the Texas Army of the Republic, West Texas Border Scouts.

Local poet Jim Fish will be on hand to propose a toast to Sonora's 100 years. The Utopia Spring Water Company doesn't know that a water toast is so appropriate on Sonora's 100th birthday.

Representative payee's use of funds

Representative payees are appointed to handle the funds of Social Security beneficiaries who are unable to handle their own funds. To carry out this responsibility, the representative payee must keep informed of the person's current and future needs.

The representative payee's first responsibility is to make certain that the person's day-to-day needs for food, clothing, shelter, and personal expenses are met. Beneficiaries who can handle small amounts of spending money should have this made available to them. Social Security benefits may then be used for any special needs, such as school expenses, rehabilitation or medical expenses, insurance premiums, or payments on a house in which the person has an interest.

Any money that remains after basic and special needs are met must be saved or invested; money should not be kept at home where it can be lost or stolen, and should not be mixed with the representative payee's own funds. Preferred investments are United Savings bonds. These should be registered in the name of the beneficiary and with his or her Social Security number. The representative payee is listed in his or her capacity.

Surplus funds should be kept in an interest-bearing account that shows the beneficiary as owner.

Additional information about benefits and the role of the representative payee may be obtained from any Social Security Office.

AmWest Savings Association launches new name and look AmWest Savings Association, formerly Olney Savings & Loan Association, launched its new name and graphics at a press conference today in Bryan.

According to Don A. Adam, Chairman of the Board and CEO of AmWest Savings Association, the name change resulted from months of research and planning.

"We discovered that the future plans for our company require a name that projects a broader awareness of our trade area and depicts the opportunities available in the future," Adam said. "Olney Savings & Loan Association was a fine name when Olney was the central location. However, we now have offices throughout West and Central Texas and a major presence in several West Texas markets."

Adam stressed that despite the name change and the new logo, the day-to-day operations, staff and policies of the financial institution would remain the same.

"AmWest Savings has had a very profitable first year, with $100 million in capital and continues to prosper on a regular basis," Adam said. "Our future growth as AmWest will continue thanks to our customers, our facilities and the talent of our people."

Adam also introduced the Board of Directors which includes Dr. Perry L. Adkisson, Truman

Allen, Dr. Donald R. Fraser, Finance at Texas A & M University and is involved in various professional and honorary associations.

Kuttler is Vice President of The Adam Corporation/Group and is a member of The American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Landry, a Certified Public Accountant, is President of AmWest Savings Association, has numerous professional affiliations, has published various financial papers and holds a faculty appointment to the School of Banking of the South at Louisiana State University.

President of the Texas A & M University, Dr. Mobley has received numerous awards and honors including the Fullbright-Hays Scholar for the Republic of China.

Following the introduction of the Board of Directors, the new Keith Hyde Kuttler, Matthew A. Landry Jr. and Dr. William Hodges Mobley.

Dr. Adkisson is Chancellor of the Texas A & M University System and has received numerous awards and honors including the Alexander von Humboldt Award for outstanding contributions to American Agriculture.

A native of Livingston, Allen is a retired Senior Vice President/Trust Officer of First National Bank of Bryan.

Dr. Fraser is the Aston/RepublicBank professor of logo and graphics for AmWest were presented.

The new logo for AmWest Savings incorporates an All-American flavor with red and blue set on a clean white background and an American flag within the name.

"Mr. Adam asked that an American theme be used in creating the name and the image of AmWest," said Matt Landry Jr., President of AmWest Savings. "While the end result reflects the traditional feeling of Mr. Adam and our customers, it also indicates a sense of movement forward with the flowing flag."

Commissioner James L. Pledger of the Texas Savings and Loan Department officially approved the AmWest Savings Association name at a formal hearing on December 7, 1989.

With 80 locations throughout West and Central Texas, AmWest Savings Association is a $4-billion institution based in Bryan with over 1,000 employees statewide and is a member of The Adam Corporation/Group.

MAKE $25,000 SITTING AT HOME!

DON'T LET THIS OPPORTUNITY PASS YOU BY.

Can you picture yourself making at least $5000 dollars a week, every week? If you can, I urge you to read this article, it could be worth thousands of dollars to you!

My name is Mark Preston. I am 32 years old and a self made millionaire. A few years ago I discovered a money making method that changed my life forever. This is not just another "get rich quick scheme" This is a unique new system that is in demand everywhere, yet few people even know it exists.

Anyone can do it. Trust me. If you want to make money, this system is for you. When I first started this money making program, I was flat broke and at least $10,000 dollars in debt. My family thought I was crazy and said I should be out looking for a "real job" That did not stop me. I was determined to make it with this fantastic money making plan I had discovered.

I started at home on the kitchen table with no capital. Within a year I was taking in over $20,000 A WEEK... MORE THAN A MILLION DOLLARS A YEAR. You heard me right, OVER A MILLION DOLLARS A YEAR! I went from driving an old beat up Pick-Up to a Brand New Lincoln Continental. I paid for it in cash. I bought a new home in a prestigious neighborhood, a waterfront summer cottage, and a Townhouse in Florida. I do not mean to brag, but these are my results using this amazing money making system. Do not envy me, join me!

THE SECRET REVEALED

I knew then I had discovered a revolutionary new money making program that would continue to make me thousands of dollars a day. It seemed so easy. I asked myself why everybody wasn't rich? Then it dawned on me that not everyone knew about this secret method of making money. You do not need special training or even a college education for this money making system to work for you.

Once you have learned how to use it, your money worries will be over for life. You will have financial security and peace of mind. This money making system is perfectly legal and amazingly simple. It has nothing to do with real estate, the stock market, or gambling of any kind. It does not matter what your financial situation is now. You can start this money making program at home in your spare time with less than $15.00. In a few short weeks you will see the cash start to roll in. Once you put this money making system to work for you, the sky's the limit! You will have cash to spend on whatever you want, whenever you want it. Think of it! Enough cash to finally put an end to economic nightmares forever!

HERE'S PROOF

I am sure you are somewhat skeptical at this point. That just shows you have good business sense. Read what a few people had to say about my money making program.

Dear Mark,

I ordered your program 3 months ago and started using it the day I got it. To say the least I was shocked at the results. Last month I deposited over $11,000 in my bank account. Thank you so much.

N.C., Stuart, Florida

Dear Mark,

When I first saw your article I had my doubts. I said to myself I might as well try it, at least I'll be $25.00 ahead with your guarantee. Well, your material changed my life from being flat broke in July to practically a millionaire in December! If I can do it, anyone can.

J.S., San Diego, CA

Dear Mark,

Before I ordered your money making method, I was slaving away cutting lawns for $4.00 an hour. At 19 years old my future looked bleak. Last week I made over $14,000 in less than 20 hours of work. I am the envy of all my friends. Thanks for a new life!

J.B., Loudonville, NY

IT'S UP TO YOU

Your life can change now by taking simple action. Order my money making program today and see for yourself. All you have to do is follow the step-by-step procedures I provide you with. You either raise $15,000 using my money making system, or I will send you a certified check for $25.00. That's right, $25.00 just for giving my money making program an honest try.
