Sonora men charged with murder in Uvalde beating

By Griffin B. Cole
DRN Editor

UVALDE - A comment about a girl friend led to the death of a Sonora man and the arrest of two others from Sonora July 26 in Uvalde.

Leonardo Avila, 24, died following a fight at the Montana Bar on West Main Street. Gregory Herrera, 26, and Jose Antonio Ramirez, 38, have been charged with murder and are being held in the Uvalde County Jail with bond set at $175,000 and $100,000 respectively.

Sgt. Eddie Obregon of the Uvalde Police Department said the fight allegedly started when Avila commented to Herrera about his girl friend.

The fight then spilled out into the street where Avila apparently took a punch and hit his head on the sidewalk when he fell to the ground.

Obregon said Herrera and Ramirez allegedly continued to kick and punch Avila when he was down.

Avila was transported to Uvalde General Memorial Hospital then transferred Sunday to St. Luke's Hospital in San Antonio where he died at 6 p.m. Monday.

With the death of Avila, Obregon said the charges against Herrera and Ramirez were upgraded from aggravated assault to murder.

Obregon said the Uvalde County grand jury is scheduled to convene on Sept. 10.

Suspect still hospitalized

Sutton County Sheriff Bill Webster said Augustine Macias was still in serious condition at a San Angelo hospital as of Monday afternoon.

Macias, 50, is the prime suspect in the stabbing death of 38-year-old Colorado Salvador July 27 at the Fort Terrett ranch east of Sonora.

Webster said questioning of Macias will have to wait until after Macias is moved from the intensive care unit.

No date has yet been given as to when or if the grand jury will convene for the case.

County considers tax increase

By Griffin B. Cole
DRN Editor

Sutton County Commissioners voted unanimously Monday to consider a tax increase of 71/2 cents for 1991.

The vote came during a special budget session Monday morning at the courthouse annex.

County Judge Carla Fields made it clear the commissioners were not voting on the tax increase, only to consider the increase.

According to figures provided by Fields, the tax rate would jump from 30.19 cents per $100 property to 37.63 cents.

This means the taxes on an average $50,000 home would go from $150.95 to $188.15 in 1991. That works out to be about a 25 percent increase.

Fields said the county tax jump seems large due to the current tax rate being low.

"City and school tax rates are much larger," said Fields.

The city tax rate is 53.84 cents and school taxes are 87 cents. Both have been at that level since 1987.

Commissioners spent the first two hours of the budget session going over the individual departments. The group failed to come up with any areas where major cuts could be made.

"Anything we take out of (the budget) now could affect programs the public expects," said Commissioner Bill Keel.

Fields said all the money in the budget is out on the table.

"We're not playing with any hidden money," said Fields. "Everything we are doing, we are doing because the tax payers have asked us to."

Another budget meeting for the commissioners has been scheduled for Aug. 20. The budget meeting will be followed by a tax hearing on Aug. 23 which the public is invited to attend.

All commissioners were in agreement that they need to hear from the public about what should be done.

When asked his opinion by Fields, Albert Ward said, "If you can justify the budget, don't worry about the rollback."

Ward is on the tax appraisal board.

County Auditor Charlie Graves said the budget problem is due in part to a lack of planning while creating the budget.

"What Charlie is saying," said Fields, "is a 7 cent increase and get tough (with the departments.)"

"This is going to be a significant tax increase, but I don't see this as a cure-all," said Graves.

Fields said cooperation is needed from the different departments in not overspending their budgets.

Tax at issue

1990 tax rate was:
30.19 cents/$100 of property or $150.95 on an average home of $50,000.

1991 proposed tax rate is:
37.63 cents/$100 of property or $188.15 on average home of $50,000.

TRAIL BLOCKED - Rain last weekend once again created road hazards in Sutton County. Caverns Road, pictured here on Sunday afternoon, was one of just many roads with high water following rains early Saturday morning. Sutton County was drenched with more than 10 inches of rain in July and is already near 11/2 inches in August.

July rains the most in 14 years

When over four inches of rain July 16 stopped an almost two month drought, perhaps nobody may have guessed what it was leading to.

In the final two weeks of July, Sonora received 10.29 inches of precipitation as measured at Sonora Wool and Mohair. That amount was the most precipitation in one month since Sept. 1976 when Sonora had 11.56 inches of rain dumped on it.

According to statistics supplied by Sonora Wool and Mohair, the most precipitation ever in July was 13.17 inches in 1938. Records have been kept since 1937.

The 10 inches of rain is well over the monthly average of 2.03 inches for the month of July.

Sonora is already past the average amount of precipitation for a year. Through the first seven months of the year, 20.65 inches of rain had fallen while the yearly average is 20.3 inches.

Until the month of June, Sonora had received more than the average for each month. No precipitation fell during June. The first time that had occurred since Nov. 1988.

The record amount of precipitation for one year is 37.8 inches in 1957.

Thus far in August Sonora has received 1.40 inches of rain and

Campaign season begins

As the November state-wide elections get closer the campaigning is heating up.

On July 26, Clayton Williams, Republican candidate for governor, visited Junction. Recently, two candidates for state-wide positions made campaign sweeps through Sonora.

Unlike Williams, the positions these candidates are seeking have not grabbed the public's eye.

Texas Court of Criminal Appeals Judge Oliver S. Kitzman has decided to forego his position as a district judge in favor of running for the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals.

In a recent campaign visit to Sonora, Kitzman said one of the main problems facing him is people are not aware of the Court of Criminal Appeals even exists or what it's function is.

The Court of Criminal Appeals is the highest criminal appellate court in the state. It holds a position in criminal matters equal to the Texas Supreme Court in civil matters.

Texas is one of just two states which has such a set up.

Kitzman is challenging 66-year-old Democratic incumbent Sam

OLIVER KITZMAN

Houston Clinton who has served two terms.

"It is important for me to remove the leadership that concerns me so much," said Kitzman.

One of the top priorities for Kitzman is to define the separation of powers which he said, has been eroded.

Webster completes term as sheriff association president

AUSTIN - Sutton County Sheriff Bill Webster recently completed his term as president of the Sheriff's Association of Texas. Webster handed over the reigns to McLennan County Sheriff Jack Harwell during the 112th annual conference in Austin.

Webster has been applauded for his accomplishments which included collecting contributions from members for a permanent site to house a memorial and training center, provided training in 17 different schools which covered 439 officers including sheriffs and other peace officers in four different fields and provided training at the annual conference held in Austin.

In addition, Webster provided a grant from the Criminal Justice Department of the governor's office to provide a full time staff attorney, provided legislative liaison service, published selected legislation affecting the duties and responsibilities of the sheriff and worked closely with state and federal authorities and other associations affecting peace officers.

It's all in the budget

At a time when raising taxes is about as popular as the Iraqi invasion, the Sutton County commission has taken the first step toward a higher tax.

Actually it is quite simple why the county is looking at a tax rate hike. They just plain don't have the money to cover all their expenses.

It's exactly like when you or I overspend our finances. Except I propose we have it much worse than the county.

All the county has to do is raise taxes and wallah, there is the money. Of course, the public may be upset, but they'll eventually get over it.

But for a family it is a lot different. If they overspend their budget what are they going to do, cut their kids allowance?

Then again, this might not be a bad idea. Parents could give their children an allowance but take out a tax as well. It would teach the children early on that they could not count on getting an entire paycheck.

All they do is play all day anyway, they need some reality.

Back to the point I was making, when a family goes over the budget some major losses can occur. These equal cuts in programs the county would make.

The first thing anybody who goes over the budget has to do is decide what is important enough to keep and what can go.

The decisions for a family, I believe, are much tougher. The county was able to do very little cutting because they could just raise the tax high enough to cover.

Wiping out the kids allowance most likely will not cover the problem, so programs, or what are called frivolous items, will have to go.

For instance, cable television. But then a problem arises. Is cable television really a frivolous item?

What other item is the perfect babysitter at a lower cost?

How about getting rid of the second car? Then how will Mom get the kids to school while Dad is hard at work?

And it goes on and on. The good and bad side of everything is discussed.

Just like the county, a family usually has lots of people they can call on to give them an opinion on the situation at hand. If the family members don't listen to their friends and relatives they may lose them forever.

All the county has to do is listen to their voters and do what they ask.

A light bulb is a light bulb. Right? Wrong. While architects and interior decorators may understand the effects of light on interior spaces, most of us don't realize the design impact of lighting in our homes.

"There are three types of lighting—task, ambient and decorative," said Kathleen Foote, manager of residential lighting with GTE's Sylvania lighting business. "Effective home lighting incorporates all three."

Task lighting is used for a specific job, such as cooking or paying bills. Ambient (general) lighting provides overall illumination of the space. Decorative (accent) lighting highlights paintings and works of art.

To help meet your every need and mood, here are helpful room-by-room decorative lighting ideas.

Dressing, grooming and applying makeup require balanced, bright light. Light from sides and above to achieve the best effect.

Kitzman said it is the system of checks and balances for the three main areas of government (judicial, executive and legislative) which keep the government clean. "Problem is, there is nobody to stop the judges," said Kitzman.

It is this activism by judges which has upset the balance of the system, Kitzman said.

"The function of sensible government is to balance the rights of the community and individual," said Kitzman. "Too often judges forget the rights of the community."

Kitzman said when more rights are given to one group, the rights of another group are effectively being taken away.

"Unless judges take it seriously lines will continue to become blurred," said Kitzman.

He said almost all judges currently running for office are looking at the problem of the destabilized system.

Kitzman said he recognized the need for moderate thinking in all things and the need to make changes cautiously and carefully.

State Land Commissioner Wes Gilbreath of Houston is looking to become the State Land Commissioner from an incumbent he said, "has just been an incompetent manager."

Like Kitzman, Gilbreath has found many people are not familiar with the Land Commissioner's job. Gilbreath said the main chores are being chairman of the School Land Board and Texas Veterans Land Board.

Gilbreath contends the Veterans Land Program has become a mess with the incumbent in charge. The Veterans Program was set up in 1946 at no cost to tax payers, said Gilbreath, yet the cost of management has gone from 4.7 percent in 1982 to 10.10 percent this year.

Gilbreath said in that same span of time personnel for the department has increased from 300 to 600.

He would like to see the land be re-appraised, put it at fair-market value and once again give veterans an opportunity at the land.

"It's unfair to make (the land) more expensive to veterans," said Gilbreath.

In education, Gilbreath said the dishing out of money to school districts needs to be more fair.

Though he is still studying all aspects, Gilbreath said it may be more fair to have the school districts make a pool of their tax money and dispense it.

"This would not include all schools," Gilbreath stated. "I want the right to say this deserves more study."

Gilbreath is banking on his business background to give him an advantage. He has 35 years experience as a businessman and said that the government has become a big business adventure.

The battle ain't over

Six days into the battle and things are looking relatively bleak. The propoganda flows in an endless stream, always saying just the right thing to take my mind off the objective. The enemy, the unseen antagonist seems always lurking in the shadows to catch me off guard. At times, it is hard to resist the alluring, intoxicating rewards. When I yielded in the past, it was as if I were flirting with forces more formidable than myself. Today, it was with great difficulty I turned away, before it was too late. Every attempt made previously has met with failures. Odds are, the objective will be lost once again.

In many ways quitting the tobacco habit has presented me with challenges I have never known before. I am battling not only a physical addiction but a psychological addiction, as well. Each addiction has a face of its own with very different characteristics, different strengths and weaknesses, different rewards offered.

Many who have run the gauntlet, understand and offer support, they realize the dilemma. Others who've tried unsuccessfully to quit, count you out before you really get started. Still others laugh at you as you rub your hands together or rapidly glance from side to side as if you are looking for some way to release the nervous energy. They are the non-smokers who have no idea of the nature of your suffering.

Regardless of their intentions, none can help. It is a contest between you and yourself. The only way to win is to achieve your objective, therefore your commitment must be stronger than the power of your shortcomings. You are on your own, no one can assist you in such an undertaking.

Every cell in your body cries for its ration of nicotine. Your eyes blur and you become jittery as a result of the withdrawal process. Tolerance levels decrease to a point where the smallest discrepancy begins a chain reaction within that ends in explosion. One cigarette will end the symptoms, immediately.

The act of smoking is a ceremony that involves many rituals, and are repeated each time a cigarette is smoked. One might tamp the butt on the table to pack the tobacco or roll the cigarette between the fingers to loosen it. We may roll the ash off in the ashtray or thump it. When the pack is empty we may fold it, wad or roll it up before discarding it. The list of rituals is endless but each smoker has a complete set and they account for a good deal of time and effort. It is something to do with our hands. One cigarette is of little consequence.

Throat and lung cancer never enters our mind, not until we are diagnosed as having them. We all know the potential health risks as a result of our nicotine ingestion. How many were like me and figured either, "Everyone's gotta die from something," or "I don't have the same genetic imperfections as those guys with cancer."

Well, at least I didn't wait until my health had to suffer before I decided to quit. Actually, with the recent increase in taxes on such products, the savings by quitting the habit is substantial. (Something like $70 per week for my wife and I.) I have faltered a couple of times, nothing I feel guilty about because I remain committed to the objective. If I can successfully overcome this challenge, it will weigh heavily in my approach toward other confrontations. Yet, it will cost us almost $300 per month if we fail.

I must say however, I enjoyed the habit for the most part. In a way I feel as though I'm forced to quit due to a bureaucracy that seeks to control, and am somewhat indignant at the thought of being a pawn to the whims of a fickle society. Nevertheless, ending the tobacco habit seems to be the best thing to do at this time and I do look forward to being able to smell again. There's something to be said for having command of the faculties the good Lord has given us. Since I started smoking, my nose has been something I used to help others do their business.

the month averages 2.06.

The 30-day outlook from the National Weather Service in San Angelo shows precipitation levels should be near the normal while temperatures have about a 60 percent chance of being below the norm.

Rain to the north of Sonora has created some problems as the draws and Dry Devil's River have been running strong for a good portion of the past month. Many county roads have been closed at times due to high water.

The sugar beet industry owes its beginnings to Napoleon Bonaparte. Cut off from sugar producing countries, he ordered his scientists to develop a substitute for cane sugar. They developed the methods for producing beet sugar.

Scholarship "By the Numbers" pays off for Judy York

Judy York of Sonora helped Wayland Baptist University's Division of Mathematics and Sciences post a clean sweep in 1989-90, as every member of the graduating class was accepted into medical or graduate school or found employment within their major field.

Ms. York graduated in May of 1988 with a bachelor of science degree in composite science, and has been accepted into the doctoral program at Texas Tech University.

Under the direction of Dr. J. Hoyt Bowers, who has been division chairman for nine years, Wayland's program has gained widespread acclaim for its teaching effectiveness. Historically, 100 percent of Wayland's pre-med graduates have been accepted into schools of medicine, and many have gone on to pioneer research in their chosen specialty.

The 1990 graduating class is no exception.

"We have graduates that have been accepted into and will attend the University of Texas Medical School in San Antonio, Texas A&M Medical School in Bryan, Baylor School of Radiological Medicine in Houston, Texas College of Osteopathic Medicine in Ft. Worth, and Texas College of Chiropractic Medicine in Ft. Worth," said Bowers.

"We have also had a student accepted into the Texas A&M School of Veterinary Medicine and two into the Texas Tech School of Allied Health Sciences, one specializing in physical therapy and the other entering the baccalaureate program in medical technology. Another graduate has accepted a research position in the Don and Sybil Harrington Cancer Research Center in Amarillo."

Every student with a major in the Division of Mathematics and Sciences who earned teacher certification and sought teaching positions are currently under contract with school districts for the 1990-91 year, and Bowers reports that more could have been placed.

"We did not have any applicants who were unsuccessful in securing at least one acceptance into medical or graduate school or in securing employment for the coming year," said Bowers. "More than anything else, this reflects the quality of students at Wayland. We also believe that we have programs in our division that allow students to be successful in their chosen areas of interest if they will 'do it by the numbers.'"

"Doing it by the numbers" means following the stringent guidelines set forth by the university's most experienced group of faculty. The science faculty includes Bowers, who has been at Wayland since 1963; Dr. Harold Reese, who arrived in 1966; Dr. Gerald Thompson, who joined WBU in 1967; and Dr. Harold Temple, a faculty member since 1976.

In mathematics, students are taught by Dr. Philip Almes, a 1984 appointee; Dr. Robert Sartain, who arrived a year later; and Ms. Mary Nell Brumfield, who is beginning her second year in Plainview.

Although no university can boast of a perfect placement rate every year, Wayland's Division of Mathematics and Sciences has come very close. Since the pre-med program was introduced more than three decades ago, virtually every graduate has been accepted into at least one medical school. There is a continuing demand for those students earning teacher certification and degrees in mathematics.

"Doing it by the numbers" means a strong commitment from both students and faculty, but the numbers indicate that it is well worth the effort.

Maria Ysaguirre Davila Dickson

Maria Ysaguirre Davila Dickson, 72, died August 2, 1990 in Portland, Oregon. Memorial services were held in Portland on Sunday, August 5. Funeral services will be held in Sonora on Thursday, August 9 at 4 p. m. at Kerbow Funeral Home Chapel. Burial will be in Sonora Cemetery under the direction of Kerbow Funeral Home.

Maria was born December 12, 1917 in Nacimiento, Coahuila Mexico. She married Tom Dickson on June 15, 1932. She came to the United States in 1939.

Maria is survived by 7 children, Sorella Noel of Arlington; Rosa DeHoyos of Sonora; Julia Byrd and Rosetta Perkins both of Ft. Worth; Francis Davis of Portland, Oregon; Thomas Dickson Jr. of Vancouver, Wa. and John Henry Dickson of Aloha, Oregon; one brother and four sisters; 29 grandchildren and 30 great-grandchildren.

Gosney named to committee

AUSTIN - Bill Gosney, mayor of Sonora, has been selected by Governor Bill Clements to a regional committee on federal block grants.

Gosney was named to the Concho Valley regional committee which reviews applications for the block grants.

"These review committees are vital because they allow an element of local control to the federal budget process," Clements said.

Recommendations from the regional committees ultimately will be forwarded to the State Community Development Review Committee. That panel, in turn, submits the funding recommendations to the Texas Department of Commerce.

Gosney will serve thru Jan. 1, 1991.

ON THE JOB FRONT

New Plant Closing Law

Free from the Department of Labor: A booklet that explains a new law that may affect you or someone you know who works or runs a business.

The booklet is about the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act (WARN). The Act requires covered employers to give notice at least 60 days in advance of plant closings and mass layoffs.

Basically, employers with 100 or more workers are covered. The law applies to closings that affect at least 50 employees as well as mass layoffs lasting more than six months. The goal of this law is to give workers time to find new jobs or retraining opportunities.

Notice must be given to either workers or their union; the State Dislocated Worker Unit; and the local government unit where the business is located. If the company is being sold, the seller is to provide notice of any closings or layoffs that occur up to and including the time of the sale. The buyer is to provide notice thereafter.

A free booklet from the Department of Labor explains the new law in its entirety. It's available by writing: U.S. Department of Labor, Employment and Training Administration, P.O. Box 90460, Washington, D.C. 20090-0460.

RIDICULOUS BUT TRUE!

At a time when it's already losing millions of dollars, a government agency may have to change the way it works—and lose much more.

The agency is the Federal Housing Authority. It's been suggested it lower its standards and encourage people to buy homes they can't afford, explain the experts at the National People's Action coalition.

This could lead to run-down and abandoned homes, lowered property values and yet another government agency bailed out by the taxpayer. Anyone can write Congress on this at the U.S. Senate, Washington, D.C. 20510 and the House of Representatives, Washington, D.C. 20515.

Library news

The Sutton County Library had a very busy summer with the Summer Reading Program. Between 60-90 children attended every Wednesday morning for movies and crafts. It was estimated that 188 children were signed up to participate.

On Wednesday, August 1st the library gave a small party for those readers. 72 Certificates were awarded to those present as well as those reaching goals. 64 children received a coupon for a banana split. Anyone not present should pick up their certificates by August 31.

New books in the library include: Cardinal Virtues, Andrew Greeley; Inconvenient Woman, Dominick Dunne; Black Candle, Catherine Cookson; Candle in the Wind, George Fernau; Hammerheads, Dale Brown; Coyote Waits, Ton Hillerman; Treasures, Johanna Kingsley; Circle of Pearls, Rosalind Laker; Twins, Roxanne Pulitzer; Second Child, John Saul; Scarlet Thread, Evelyn Anthony; Dance with the Devil, Kirk Douglas; Sullivan's Sting, Lawrence Sanders; Message from Nam, Danielle Steel; Mother Earth Father Sky, Sue Harrison; Three Blind Mice, Ed McBain; 1st Hubby, Roy Bount Jr.; Burden of Proof, Scott Turow; Misplaced Lives, Barbara Victor; Dragon, Clive Cussler; Outlaws of Mesquite, Louis Lamour; Into the Darkness, Barbara Michaels; Family Pictures, Sue Miller; 5th Profession, David Morrell; Golden Orange, Joseph Wambaugh; American Love Story, Rona Jaffe; Gift of Asher Lev, Chaim Potok.

A royal invitation - Matthew 11, 25-30

During the summer months each year we get quite a few Invitations through the mail, and before we open them we usually wonder WHO they are from and WHAT the Big Occasion is. If we were to receive an Invitation with the return address of the White House - or at Buckingham Palace, it would cause a lot of excitement around our house, wouldn't it? Yet in the Bible reading above, a far more important Invitation comes to you and me. It is truly a ROYAL INVITATION, for it comes from Him who calls the Almighty and Eternal Creator of heaven and earth "My Father". This Invitation is from the "King of kings and Lord of lords" (Revelation 19,16), the Son of God Himself!

And WHAT is the Big Occasion? To those who are sick and tired of trying to make themselves 'right' with God through their own efforts - staggering under the weight of the requirements of God's Law and the guilt of falling short, Jesus' Invitation reads like this: "Come to Me... and I will give you rest." His promise is that the time of hard work, which only results in a weary and hopeless effort, will come to an end. And in its place there will be "Rest", as the heavy burden is removed. In other words, "The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world" (John 1:29), will remove Sin's burden, its guilt, and its punishment. This "Rest" is available to ALL who believe that Jesus Christ satisfied God's demand for perfection with His life, was nailed to a Cross by sinful mankind, rose from the grave on the 3rd day as the Victor over sin and death, and that He did all this for UN-deserving human beings. On the Cross, God's only-begotten Son exchanged His holiness for man's sinfulness - so that by faith in Him we are accepted by the Almighty and Eternal God. And in His glorious victory all mankind can now have complete forgiveness in His name.

Christ's ROYAL INVITATION is the offer to live in a state of grace and mercy, with continual forgiveness. It is a spiritual "Rest" that cannot be described - only experienced, as we accept His Invitation. The LORD God says: "Remember to keep the Sabbath Day (Rest Day) holy" (Exodus 20:8) In our world today the Sabbath isn't held nearly as sacred as it once was. With our busy schedules of running after the treasures and pleasures of this world, we may not get much physical rest. Yet in the midst of all this, God still comes with the quiet power of His Word to offer us a "Rest" that transcends anything we could ever imagine. He offers us "Rest" in the forgiving and loving arms of Jesus, our Savior and Lord. And those who know this "Rest" join together to celebrate it each Lord's Day - praise and thanksgiving.

Jesus says that those who come to Him must be willing to take His "yoke" upon themselves. It is not a burdensome "yoke" of rules and regulations, but an Invitation to walk with Him and be yoked to Him - in bringing His Invitation to those who have not responded to His offer. May you and I together, as Christians, renew our acceptance of Christ's ROYAL INVITATION today; acknowledging by faith that He is our Lord and Savior, pull together with Him in bringing the Gospel to those around us, that we may finally greet one another in that eternal place of "Rest" which He's prepared for us.

Indians planted stringbeans along with the corn crops. Corn, wheat and cotton deplete the land of its natural nitrogen. Bean plants replace this loss naturally. Only lately have non-Indian farmers learned to do this.

Skin and Haircare Advice from a Beauty Expert
Skin Care Do's and Don'ts

Do you love the skin you're in? Here are some suggestions for a prettier complexion from beauty expert Hollie Alper, consultant to the Neutrogena Skincare Institute:

- Before going to sleep always cleanse the face thoroughly with mild soap and water and remove every trace of makeup.
- For beautiful, glowing skin, drink six to eight glasses of water every day.
- Always use hypo-allergenic and non-comedogenic (won't clog pores) moisturizers on the skin.
- Give dry skin a weekly treat with a home-made mask of honey and egg yolk. The honey will help form a film on the skin and the egg helps retain moisture in the skin.

Alper HINT: A product you might want to try is Neutrogena Night Cream, a feather-light formulation that provides maximum moisturization without resorting to heavy ingredients that feel oily, filmy or tacky on the skin. It keeps on working for eight hours, doubling your skin's moisture. Like all Neutrogena products, it's hypoallergenic and maintains a high standard of purity. It's fragrance-free and dermatologist-tested to be non-comedogenic.

Now AmWest can give you something few banks can...

A good night's sleep.

Now AmWest has "DreamSaver"—a savings program designed to bring peace of mind to all those who worry about saving money.

Here's how it works: You tell AmWest how much you want to save every month, (as little as $25 if you like) and they'll deduct it automatically from a free checking account (that's right, free checking) and put it into a CD account. Keep your money there for a full 12 months and it will earn a high-interest CD rate. Take it out early, and you'll get a penalty — three months interest or $50.

So "DreamSaver" not only helps you save money on a regular monthly basis — it helps you keep your hands off it too. And with a little money in savings — a good night's sleep will come a whole lot easier.

Put Your Money on Texas.

Substantial penalty for early withdrawal. Interest paid quarterly. Rates subject to change without notice.

Queen candidates for 1990 Centennial Celebration

Amy Rashae Reston

Sponsored by Food Center

Amy Rashae Reston, a 16-year old senior at Sonora High School, is the daughter of Reggie and Janie Reston.

In addition to being a member of the Lady Broncos basketball team, Amy is also a member of various clubs including GAA, FCA and the Spanish Club. She was also voted Halloween Queen in 1989 and was a Lions Club Queen candidate.

Amy enjoys dancing, talking on the phone and being with friends. She plans to attend Angelo State University and major in accounting. Her goal is to become a CPA.

"First of all, I feel it would be a great honor to be chosen queen," said Amy, "especially since this is Sonora's Centennial year. Also I think I could be a positive role model for the younger girls."

Kelley Webster

Sponsored by Sutton County Steakhouse

Journalism, reading, skiing and being with friends are among the hobbies and interests of Kelley Webster, a contestant for Miss Sutton County.

Kelley, daughter of Bill and Judy Webster, is a 17-year old senior at Sonora High School.

Kelley is a member of FCA, Spanish Club, track and basketball teams and participates in UIL journalism events. She plans to attend Texas Tech University and major in criminal justice.

"The possibility of representing my home county in it's Centennial year would indeed be an honor," said Kelley. "I appreciate being invited to participate in Miss Sutton County and look forward to the activities involved. The next few weeks will give me an opportunity to join in the festivities with other contestants, all of which have been life-time friends."

"Regardless of who becomes Miss Sutton County this year, each of us will reap the benefits of participating in something important to our community," added Kelley. "A special thank to my sponsor, Sutton County Steakhouse."

April Spiller

Sponsored by First National Bank

April Spiller, 17-year old daughter of Don and Anita Spiller, plans to graduate from high school in the top 10% of her class and then attend Texas A&M University.

April, a Sonora High School senior, lists her hobbies and interests as ballet, swimming, reading, sewing, social dancing and being with friends. She is a member of UYF, 4-H Club, FCA, GAA, NHS and First Baptist Church. She is involved in tennis, drama and cheerleading and was selected first runner-up for the Lions Club Queen and is 4-H Sweetheart.

"I would like to represent Sutton County as Sutton County Days Queen because I think it would provide me with a unique opportunity to promote Sutton County," said April. "Our county has many industries and beautiful land sites that I am proud of. As a young person who has grown up in a small town I am aware of the benefits I have received from this community and I feel that by being queen I could give something in return."

Allison Schwiening

Sponsored by Sears of Sonora

Allison Schwiening, 17-year daughter of Curt and Betty Schwiening plans to pursue a career in the medical field. She will attend Angelo State University after her graduation from Sonora High School.

Allison, a senior at SHS, is a member of the NHS, FCA, Student Council, Spanish Club, Varsity tennis team and competes in UIL journalism events. She attended the State UIL journalism meet as an alternate and received the 1990 journalism award. She held various offices in school organizations and was chosen class favorite.

"I believe Miss Sutton County should exemplify the ideals and traditions that are strong in our county," said Allison. "As a life-long resident of Sonora, it would be a great honor and wonderful experience to represent Sonora and Sutton County as the new Sutton County Days Queen."

Tana Churchill

Sponsored by Ladies Golf Auxiliary

Tana Churchill, 17-year old senior at Sonora High School, is the daughter of Nelwyn and Todd Churchill.

Tana is actively involved in varsity cheerleading, varsity basketball, FCA, NHS, GAA, Student Council, Spanish Club, Peppermint Club and 4-H. She was homecoming duchess for two years, class secretary for two years, Spanish Club secretary/treasurer, Lions Club Queen contestant and received honorable mention for all-district basketball. Tana enjoys all sports, shopping and fun with friends and family.

After graduating, Tana plans to attend Texas A&M University and major in business education.

"I am so proud of Sutton County and what it means to me," said Tana. "To show my pride, I would like to represent our county as the Sutton County Days Queen. We have so much to offer people today, memories of yesterday, and a bright future. This year, celebrating our county's 100th birthday, would be especially exciting to receive this honor and become a part of our county's history."

Laura Barlemann

Sponsored by Downtown Lions Club

Sutton County Days Queen candidate Laura Barlemann, 16-year old senior at Sonora High School, is the daughter of Ray and Louise Barlemann.

Laura is very active in 4-H having received awards and recognition on the state, district and national levels. She also enjoys working with younger children. Laura enjoys dancing, talking on the phone and being with friends.

The reigning Lions Club Queen, Laura is a member of the 4-H Club, FCA, ACTS, Spanish Club, Student Council and GAA.

Laura plans to attend Texas Tech University.

"I would be very proud and honored to represent Sutton County, especially since this is the year of our centennial celebration," said Laura.

Laura Chalk

Sponsored by Sutton County National Bank

Laura Chalk, 16-year old junior at Sonora High School, is the daughter of Joyce and Luther Chalk.

Laura's extracurricular activities include basketball, tennis, FCA, FFA, GAA, Spanish Club and UYF. She was chosen freshmen and sophomore class favorites, FFA Sweetheart, JV cheerleader, freshmen and sophomore class president, freshmen homecoming duchess and FFA treasurer.

Julie Jones, 16-year old junior at Sonora High School, lists piano, water skiing, snow skiing, riding horses, sewing and cooking among some of her favorite hobbies.

The daughter of Cleve and Lolabeth Jones, Julie is a member of the flag corp, tennis team, FCA, 4-H Club and UYF.

Julie received fourth place at state competition with her clothing record book, has been a 4-H Gold Star winner and received the Presidential Award for Academic Fitness.

She plans to attend Angelo State University and major in Elementary Education.

"I would consider it an honor to be selected to represent Sutton County," said Julie. "I would enjoy the opportunity to work with the public during county affairs and getting to know more people. I would also work at being a good role model for younger girls."

When You're Short On Time
By Mary Slaney

If you're short on time, try on-the-spot revitalization breaks. Here are a few that work for me:

- Close your eyes and picture yourself in a relaxed setting.
- Do simple relaxation exercises: close your eyes and slowly turn your head left, then right several times; move your head in slow circles clockwise, then counterclockwise;

A brisk walk around the block can boost your energy level.

- relax your head forward, then back.
- Bring circulation back to your legs with easy leg exercises: point, then flex feet; point toes and make circles with ankles; standing, raise up on toes, hold, then relax.

- Call a friend and share a good laugh.

Wearing the right pantyhose can help, too. I wear Leggs Sheer Energy pantyhose because they make my legs feel good all day.

Listed among Laura's hobbies and interests are making new friends and corresponding with them, dancing, swimming, being with my friends, people and enjoying life. Laura plans to attend college - maybe Texas Tech University - after her graduation from high school.

"Being that this year we are celebrating our Centennial, I would be most honored and privileged to represent this community as Miss Sutton County," said Laura. "I feel our community is a great place to live and attend school. By attending various functions as Miss Sutton County it would give me an opportunity to meet and enjoy all the people of Sonora."

After graduation, Kim plans to attend college and receive a degree in dental hygiene.

"I would like to represent Sutton County because there are a lot of neat things in Sonora and Sutton County," said Kim. "I would like people to know that these things are here. It would be the biggest honor to represent Sutton County for the Centennial Celebration."

Taking The Guesswork Out Of Battery Freshness

The lights go out. You grab your flashlight, but will the batteries work? How much longer will the kids' battery-operated toys run? These everyday problems could soon be history.

Now, there's a way to test those batteries stored in the kitchen drawers or before you take your camera to that all important event. It's called the COPPER TOP™ Tester, which Duracell is including in all packages of its most popular size alkaline batteries. This patented device tells you how much power is left in batteries and if they need to be replaced.

Here's how it works. Just place the appropriate-size battery in the Tester compartment which is part of the package. When the Tester is squeezed to the top and bottom of the battery, a liquid crystal light bar on the front provides the power reading. The "Good" level indicates ample remaining battery power. The "Replace" level indicates the need to replace batteries.

This convenient device means you can always have working batteries when you need them: in clocks, smoke alarms, flashlights, cameras, radios and your youngster's favorite toys. The Tester can be used repeatedly and is included at no cost to the consumer.

1990 PROPERTY TAX RATES IN SUTTON COUNTY

This notice concerns 1990 property tax rates for all taxing units in SUTTON COUNTY. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers can start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

CWDT season finale this weekend

For those who long for a taste of the real old-time days of the pioneers, The Covered Wagon Dinner Theater is the place to go on the week-end of August 10, 11 and 12th. (Friday, Saturday and Sunday)

The final performance of this out-door, old west, historical, variety show will feature cowboy poets, covered wagon trail riders, stories of the pioneers, songs of the cowboy, chuck wagon breakfast and cowboy church.

Friday, August 10: Cowboy poets Ray Fitzgerald of Van Horn, Clay Lindley of Spur, Jim Fish of Sonora, Donna Stepp of the 1986 "Texas Wagon Train" and Ann Cates of Albuquerque, N.M. will share their art and our history.

Saturday, August 11: Donna Stepp as storyteller, recalling events of the 1986 Wagon Train and tales of the earlier pioneers and Don Edwards, America's Premier Purveyor of Cowboy Ballads, as entertainer.

Sunday August 12: Biscuits O'Bryan heads up a team of camp cooks to serve up the best cowboy breakfast on the Edwards Plateau. The Ross Family conducts cowboy church and Don Edwards provides a campfire concert.

Call now to make reservations for this "Season Finale". Enjoy an entire week-end in this 100 year old town which boasts of some of the best restaurants and motels in Texas, the center of the mohair garment industry in the state, the most beautiful caverns in the world AND the Covered Wagon Dinner Theater.

Friday and Saturday shows begin at 6:30 p. m. with dinner. Cost is $12 for adults and $6 for kids (6-12). Sunday begins with a 6:30 a. m. breakfast, continues with an 8:00 a. m. worship service led by Ronnie Ross of Sonora and his gospel singing family, and concludes with Don Edward's performance at 9:30 a. m. Cost for this cowboy morning is $6. Tickets will be available at the gate, but reservations are requested so the cooks will be prepared.

Call 387-2381 for reservations or more information.

Campers are encouraged to stay overnight at the Caverns following the Saturday evening show and to be the first in line for breakfast.

Ninety-six attend orientation at Sul Ross

Matthew Hodges was one of the 96 prospective college students attending freshman orientation sessions at Sul Ross State University July 18-20 to prepare for the fall semester.

The students were accompanied by about 50 parents and family members.

Orientation sessions were designed to acquaint students with the university and to give them a preview of college life and an opportunity to meet other incoming freshmen.

Parents learned about university programs and financial obligations and met university personnel.

A Student Resource Fair was held in the University Center Thursday with booths representing various campus programs and services. Students and parents were able to ask questions about housing, financial aid and other areas of interest.

A barbecue dinner was held on the campus mall Thursday night followed by a dance at the Range Animal Science Center Parking Lot. Students met with their major advisors Friday and registered for fall classes.

The next orientation of new students will be held Aug. 27.

OPEN HOUSE - The Texas Department of Health celebrated moving into a new building with an open house Friday. Pictured in front of the new structure are Dorothy Jimenez, Sonora clerk; Maggie Galvan, Ozona clerk; Marie Carrasco, registered nurse in Sonora; Karen Hoffman, registered nurse in Ozona and Tommy Key, assistant regional director for administration in El Paso.

Health Department holds open house

An open house was held Friday by the Texas Department of Health to show off their new surroundings located between Sutton County National Bank and Perry's.

The Texas Department of Health is staffed by Maria Carrasco, registered nurse, and Dorothy Jimenez. Mary Lee Lenertz, a nurse practitioner from San Angelo, visits bi-monthly under the direction of Dr. Charles Pajestka who is the medical consultant for the clinic.

Staff members said there is the misunderstanding that the office serves only low income people, but the immunization program has been of great benefit to the community.

In addition to the immunization clinics, other program available are services for all women of childbearing age, yearly pap smears for women of all ages, blood pressure clinics for senior citizens, diabetic teaching and cancer detection clinics.

The Special Supplemental Food Program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC) helps those in Sonora who are living at or below 185 percent of the poverty level.

The WIC Program in Texas serves more than 320,000 women, infants and children each month.

Food cards are issued every month and enables these participants to get authorized types and brands of iron-fortified baby formula, fresh milk, cereal, eggs, fruit juice and peanut butter.

This program does more than just pass out food cards, education is an essential element. WIC participants attend a nutrition class each time they receive food cards.

Another new program available to the community is Primary Health.

This program helps those without insurance so they can seek health care before their problem becomes serious enough to be hospitalized.

Susan Worthan, project coordinator from San Angelo, is available every Thursday.

The herbs sage and mint are related.

Let the Good Times Roll

Angora goat sale averages $555 per head

The sale average at the annual Performance Tested Billy Sale was stable, in spite of a depressed mohair and goat market. Sixty-eight head averaged $555.62, for a total of $37,850, at the auction held at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station here.

Dr. Frank Craddock, sheep and goat specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and coordinator for the sale, said, "It was a good sale. We were extremely pleased with the average, especially in light of the current market."

Jody Jones of Uvalde consigned the high-indexing goat, which later was purchased by Sterling C. Evans of Castroville for $1,400.

The high-selling billy at the sale was consigned by C. E. Renfro of San Angelo and was purchased for $3,000 by Robert Stewart of Clifton.

Renfro also consigned the second high-selling billy, which was purchased for $1,600 by Joe David Ross of Sonora.

Margaret Galbreath of Sonora purchased a billy consigned by Joe David Ross for $1,500.

Kaci and Kayla Kohls of Garden City consigned a billy which was purchased by Sandra Cox of Barnstall, Okla. for $1,400.

Ruth Espy of Sonora purchased for $1,400 a billy consigned by Dick Karnes of Sonora.

Volume buyers were Ray Miles of Roswell, N. M., who purchased seven head for $2,600 and Haby and Haby of Uvalde, which purchased seven head for $2,950.

Other volume buyers were Hal Whitten of Eldorado, five head for $1,475; Margaret Galbreath, five head for $3,875; Joe David Ross, five head, $2,625; and J. H. O'Harrow of Eldorado, four head for $2,050.

The Active Consumer

On The Way:
Better Quality Water

How refreshing: Consumers wanting to improve the quality of the water in their homes know they're buying tested and validated water treatment equipment when they see the symbol pictured below.

Products successfully passing WQA Gold Seal Equipment Validation testing can carry this seal.

It is affixed to all equipment which passes voluntary performance testing by the Water Quality Association (WQA) and is authorized to carry the gold seal. The Water Quality Association is the international trade association representing companies producing and selling water quality improvement products for the home and industry. The group supports a voluntary Code of Ethics to encourage members to adhere to the highest business standards. The Code joins the Voluntary Industry Product Promotion Guidelines as benchmark programs designed to increase professionalism within the industry, its personnel and its promotion practices.

Consumers can look for the Gold Seal or the WQA logo when they shop for equipment or write for information to Water Quality Association, P.O. Box 606, Lisle, IL 60532.

FACTS & FIGURES

Smoking is responsible for one of every six deaths in the United States. It's the most important modifiable cause of death. Each year, over 390,000 Americans die as a result of smoking. More than 130,000 of these deaths are due to smoking-related cancers.

Each year, smoking is also responsible for over 115,000 deaths from coronary heart disease and 27,500 deaths from cerebrovascular disease.

Smoking during pregnancy is responsible for about 18 percent of all cases of low birthweight, shortened gestation, respiratory distress syndrome and sudden infant death syndrome.

Nicotine, an ingredient in cigarettes, is addictive, a recent Surgeon General Report declares. That's why it's so hard to quit, even though there's medical evidence that quitting may be the most important thing you can do for your health.

Most smokers who quit successfully—about 95 percent of them—do so on their own without the help of a formal cessation program. Many are kicking the smoking habit with the help of a prescription medication in gum form that releases small amounts of nicotine into the mouth. This produces nicotine blood levels sufficient to reduce withdrawal symptoms. If you're ready to quit, see your doctor.

SOUND IDEAS

Planning a picnic in the park or a day at the beach? You'll have plenty of places to pick. The United States is blessed with about 75 million acres of parkland including half a million acres of seashore and nearly 150,000 acres of lake shore.

While there, you can enjoy your favorite music thanks to new water-resistant stereo speakers that can add sweet sound to active, outdoor lifestyles. While not designed to be submerged in or come into continuous contact with water, the speakers, made by Sony, can be hooked up to Sony Walkman® personal portable stereos or Discman® portable CD players to create a mini stereo system. The SRS-77G speakers are battery-operated, measure only (WHD) 4 1/4-inches x 7 7/8-inches x 5 5/8-inches yet they deliver rich, wide-range sound.

Tips For Camera Owners

FilmShield Saves Travelers' Memories

By Irwin H. Diamond

You have been back at the grind for four days. The memories of your two weeks in paradise are fading along with your tan. Tonight will be different, though, as you will relive the warmth of that dream vacation.

To your horror, you find that the film has been overexposed, or has it? All too often, airport x-ray exposure fools photographers into thinking the overexposure was their fault.

Unfortunately, this scenario occurs all too frequently to amateur shutterbugs and tourists. Fortunately, measures can be taken to prevent this kind of photographic nightmare from becoming a reality.

A convenient lead pouch called FilmShield, a Sima product, has been used worldwide by professional photographers for over 5 years and has successfully protected film from damaging x-rays.

Color photos exposed to these machines often become bleached, while black and white shots can be marred by streaks. High-speed film is especially susceptible to these damaging x-rays, resulting in pictures with a fogged look. Overall, the more often film is exposed to these machines, the higher the odds for developing mishaps.

Federal Aviation Association regulations permit hand inspection of all film in the United States.

To ensure that film is properly protected, I recommend its enclosure in the Sima FilmShield Pouch. Another pitfall that can befall your photos is the sun's warming rays. Regrettably, heat can and does play havoc in terms of overexposing film.

Don't leave cameras, lenses or film in the sun. At best, your pictures will have a washed out look. At worst, you won't get any photos at all.

As precautions against such sensitive gear calamities, I suggest that vacationers pack cameras, radio, Walkmen, etc., in a Sima SportsPouch, a floatable, shock-resistant bag that is both waterproof and sand-proof.

With the FilmShield carrying a suggested retail price of $10.95 and SportsPouch selling for $19.95, these are wise investments to preserve vacation memories and equipment.

Sima invites vacationers to call its toll-free number, 800-345-SIMA, for further details on these and other travel tips aimed at maintaining their photographs and equipment.

Mr. Diamond is President of SIMA Products Corporation, a leading manufacturer of photographic and video accessories.
