Broncos come through in second half with 18-14 win

by R.C. Hall

Two Sonora football teams showed up at Bronco Stadium to play the Wall Hawks. Fortunately for the Bronco backers, the team that played the second half brought Sonora from a 8 point deficit to an 18-14 victory over Wall.

"We got tired, we were out of shape. It was not a pretty first half at all," said Sonora head coach Bob Bellard. "We got it together at the half. The kids never gave up," Bellard said. "We did not make any changes or adjustments at the half," said Sonora defensive coordinator, Don Sessom. "What we did was stayed with it and went after it."

The coaches were not the only ones who knew things had to change. "We really had to get ourselves together. If we hadn't, I don't want to think about what might have happened," said senior end Wil Trainer. "The seniors got a chance to lead and I think it helped."

One player who played in both halves was 5'6", 156 pound sophomore Joey Guerra, who led all rushers with 170 yards on 35 carries. "I did not really care about my stats, I just wanted to help the team," said Guerra. And help the team, he did. With 77 first half yards, Guerra and 2 poorly handled Wall pitchouts, which resulted in Wall turnovers, kept the Broncos in the game.

"We just got our rhythm going in the second half."

After Armando Robles kicked off the Broncos season, the Wall offense drove the ball 78 yards on 7 plays. The Wall option offense had the Bronco defense back on its heels. The key play on the drive was a 40 yard scamper by Cory Braden after a pitch from quarterback Chad Box. "We just were missing assignments. They were good but we were not doing well," said Trainer.

Sonora was unable to get much going on its first possession. "We were tight. We got real hyped up and just seemed to expend a lot of energy before we even got started," Bellard said. After Trainer's 25 yard punt, the Hawks took back the ball near mid-field.

Again, Wall was able to move the ball on the Sonora defense. It was on this drive that the first of the Hawk's turnovers struck. With the ball on the 20 and driving, Wall missed a pitch and the Broncos recovered.

The Bronco's took a long 78 yard march to its first score. The 19 play drive took 8 1/2 minutes off the clock. The drive was highlighted by the running of Guerra and the blocking of Shannon Escalera and Shane Keller. Every time I was able to find room to run, it was my line and Jamie and Shane that made it happen. They really blocked for me," said Guerra. The drive also was highlighted by two fourth down conversions. The first one came on a fourth and 4 on the 38, when Sonora's Faris hit Keller. The other key play on the drive came at fourth and 1 at the ten when Guerra sprinted off tackle for 8 yards to the 2. Guerra punched the ball into the end zone with the ball on the 1/2 yard line.

The Hawks struck back quickly with a 7 play, 2 minute, 11 second drive. With the ball on the 22, Box went to his right on an option keeper and ran for 46 yards before Wade Spain, made a touchdown saving tackle. Two plays later with the ball on the 15, an apparent sack and fumble recovery was taken away when an official ruled the play a pass incomplection. The play was further complicated when another official threw a rather late flag and called the Hawks for intentional grounding. Two plays later the Hawks gave the ball to Cory Braden, who sprinted in for 25 yards for Wall's second score. The extra point made the score 14-8 Wall, the score at the half.

that gave up 147 rushing yards in the first half gave up only 27 yards on the ground in the second half. Wall was never able to mount much of a drive in the half. On the offensive side, the Broncos figured out how to handle Wall's preseason "All West-Texas linebacker," Ben Thomas. "You can't shut a guy like that out," Bellard said in a previous interview. "What you have to do is to keep him out of the flow." And that is what the Bronco's did.

Sonora closed the gap on the Hawks with 1:30 left in the third quarter on a 3 and 10, 21 yard, touchdown pass from Faris to Spain. "Shannon (Escalera) and I were split out wide. He ran a 10 yard out and I crossed behind. He ran a great round. Brian threw a perfect pass and the line blocked great," said Spain. The Bronco's two point conversion attempt was short.

Sonora's final score came at 4:33 left in the fourth quarter. The 60 yard drive was highlighted by a 17 yard pass from Faris to Hadley Smith. Also on the drive, Guerra had several outstanding runs, including the final 4 yard dive into the end zone. The point after attempt was not good and the score was Sonora 18-14.

The Hawks tried to mount two more offensive drives, both of which were stopped by outstanding Bronco defensive efforts. The first was stopped by Jamie Espinosa, who smelled out a developing screen, and crushed Box for an 11 yard loss. "It was there. Everyone was doing their jobs. I looked up and there it was," said Espinosa.

The final Wall offensive possession ended at the 1:30 mark in the fourth quarter when Shane Keller grabbed an errant Box pass to ensure the Bronco victory.

In other action around District 6-3A, pre-season favorite, Reagan County, demolished Ozona 37-0. Also, Crane lost to Alpine 21-18; Kermit beat Seminole 12-0; Greenwood topped Coahoma 26-9; Colorado City was also a winner over Hawley 24-0.

The Ballinger Bearcats come to face Sonora at Bronco Stadium, Friday at 8:00 p.m., after a 39-0 rout of Lampasas.

The Bearcats will be led by quarterback Grider Gordan, who was 7-15 in the air for 147 yards. On the ground, look for Kristen Trimble to take the lead for Ballinger. Trimble ran for 142 yards on 17 carries against Lampasas.

The Bearcat defense also had a great game, holding Lampasas to just 43 yards rushing. "Ballinger is always tough on defense. We are going to have to work very hard to get ready for them," Bellard said.

Heart Walk to be held Oct. 3

Cancer Detection

by Jenny Strasburg, San Angelo Standard Times Staff Writer

(reprinted with permission of the San Angelo Standard Times)

The local chapter of the American Cancer Society felt that this article was worth reprinting and received permission to have it reprinted in its entirety.

San Angelo mammographers seem to agree: Women who want breast cancer screening can feel confident about the quality of mammograms this town offers.

But that's not stopping radiologists from making a unanimous move toward accreditation from the American College of Radiology - a designation in increasing demand across the country by women who receive the tests.

A recent check found that San Angelo health organizations offering mammograms are accredited or seeking accreditation, by the ACR, the nationally recognized authority on mammography procedures.

Together with a physical examination, mammograms are the primary method of screening for breast cancer and are commonly recommended for women with a family history of breast cancer or who have reached the age of 35. The X-ray process takes 20 to 30 minutes. Volume in San Angelo ranges from about 60 mammograms per month at Shannon Medical Center to about 250 per month at both Angelo Clinic Association at Concho Valley Regional Hospital, according to radiologists at the facilities. The test costs in the neighborhood of $65 or $70.

Several local mammographers said the pursuit of accreditation has resulted from extensive national coverage of bogus practitioners concerned more with profit than with health.

The chief executive officer of a company that offers nothing but mammograms to its clients in Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico said accreditation is becoming more of a requirement than an option.

Rick Fleetwood's Midland-based Transamerican Diagnostic Services, Inc. performs about 1200 mammograms each month, including between 20 and 40 in San Angelo, where a van visits in cooperation with Planned Parenthood of West Texas, Inc.

Fleetwood said accreditation fills a need and alleviates justified fears of a shoddy mammogram, which he termed "a terrible injustice to women."

"The only thing worse than not having a mammogram," he said, "is having a bad mammogram."

Angelo programs pass the test

Angelo Community Hospital in August received ACR accreditation after several months of writing reports, submitting X-ray films, describing equipment and detailing staff qualifications.

Concho Valley Regional Hospital has had the stamp of approval since 1990. Shannon Medical Center, has begun the process and plans to receive the designation soon, Kirk Peterson, Shannon director of radiology, said recently.

Additionally, Angelo Clinic Association has submitted its application and awaits word, according to Radiology Supervisor Julia Fulgham.

Transamerican Diagnostic Services, Inc., has been accredited for years, Fleetwood said. He added that his mobile units for breast cancer screening were the first of their kind in the country to receive ACR accreditation.

Fulgham said Angelo Clinic Association currently meets ACR standards and that becoming accredited will "just be a matter of documenting" those control measures.

A call for legitimacy

In the mid-1980's, more and more incompetent programs were cropping up in a practice that would become increasingly critical to women's health care.

As a result, the U.S. Food and Drug Administration focused its energy on putting illegitimate programs out of business and quelling a growing panic among patients that good and bad programs were difficult to distinguish.

In 1985, the FDA concentrated on mammography in its annual Nationwide Evaluation of X-ray Trends.

In 1987, certification was born, and the ACR in Reston, VA., took over from there.

About 30 facilities applied for ACR mammography accreditation each month in 1987, said Pam Wilcox, manager of the program.

These days, about 180 applications find their way to the ACR each month. More than 3,400 units currently are going through the application process, which takes four to six months, Wilcox said.

A "unit" is defined as an X-ray machine used for mammography; each machine is accredited separately, she added.

Accreditation lasts three years. "Whenever there's a big media blitz, our (application) numbers go way up," Wilcox said - to as high as 300 per month.

At least two recent national media campaigns have proven to have such an effect - one by "NBC Nightly News" and another by ABC's "Primetime Live," with Diane Sawyer.

Peterson, Shannon's radiology director, said San Angelo's health care community is sincere in its dedication to quality mammography. But he said that probably every radiologist in town has heard stories to the contrary from other towns and other states.

"Somebody's doing something wrong somewhere, or you wouldn't have the TV programs that you've had," he said.

He said Texas has led the way in strict licensing of technicians who perform mammograms.

"We're so regulated anyway ... which is good for people being X-rayed in Texas," Peterson said.

Letter to the Editor

Hi Sonora!

This is Adam Youngblood continuing my analysis of the Academy and surrounding area. Today is 29 Aug '92, another gorgeous day here in the mountains. There have been many changes here since my last letter. School has commenced and along with that goes football.

So far, the school work hasn't been that hard. There has been tons of homework to do, but it's not that bad. We have had a few tests. So far, all were fairly easy. I do believe I am a step higher than most of my classmates, thanks to all my teachers, especially in high school.

I had a little free time last weekend and decided to go hiking. Another Texas boy from Baytown and I hiked up to a place called Stanley Canyon. It is a 2 mile hike up to a reservoir. It was unbelievable. I had never imagined some sights we saw along the way. My friend griped the whole way because we didn't take a camera. I will be going up again with a camera, so if there are any requests, let me know and I'll send you a picture.

For all you football fans, the season is under way. We had our first game today. We played a semi-pro team out of Denver, called the Denver Wildcats. It was scheduled to be a scrimmage, but it turned out to be a real game. We are running the wishbone and I am playing running back. I had a rough start, not being adjusted to the altitude, but now I am starting. As a team, we look great, just ask the W ildcats, who we beat 28-0. I got to play a lot, but only ran the ball twice. I guess they really like the way I block. I should have my chance later. We play the Fort Scott Kansans on the 4th, and Durango on the 14th. That about wraps up the football for now.

The military is still the same. We get up at 5:30 every morning and get ready for the day. It is getting to be a normal routine and the 5-7 hours of sleep seem to be working more effectively now.

Well, that seems to be about everything - school, football, free time and the military. If you have any questions, feel free to write: PSC Box 7657, USAF Academy, CO, 80840. I would like to thank everybody for all the support through this transition in my life. Thanks again.

Keep in touch,
Adam Youngblood

Richeson District Manager, Mike Scott and Joana Wuest

Manager gets award

At a recent meeting of the 43-unit Richeson Restaurant organization, Sonora Dairy Queen manager Joana Wuest received an award honoring her 10 years of service.

Wuest began her Richeson Dairy Queen career in Big Lake in 1981, and when the manager's job at the Sonora Dairy Queen became available, Wuest decided to tackle the job "just for a while." Ten years have passed since that time.

From meetings and seminars she attends, Wuest brings back to her store the expertise of the 90's, incorporating the many changes the foodservice business has seen in recent years. Among the topics covered at the conferences are marketing and advertising, food quality control, customer service and facility upkeep, as well as Dairy Queen's chosen fund-raiser, the Children's Miracle Network Telethon.

Children's Miracle Network Telethon is held annually the Sunday after Memorial Day; funds are generated year round by several sponsors. CMNT is sponsored by the Osmond Foundation.

Wuest and her husband, Randy, live in Sonora and enjoy participating in community affairs.

I would like to thank Sears for sponsoring me in the Sutton County Queens contest. Also, thanks to everyone who supported me in the ticket sales. It was a great experience.

Thank you,

Senior Center News

by Carole Thorp

September brings a measure of optimism to the many facets of our programs here. First, we have all our "real" staff members back with us. We have some fun and exciting activities lined up for the month.

Our fundraising efforts of late have proved to be immensely rewarding.

We actually won a prize!!! A formerly anonymous benefactor bought ten tickets from the Women & Children's Halfway House in San Angelo. It just so happens that one of our tickets was drawn on September 1st and we won the $500.00 Grandprize!!!! Lisa Webster Neal is the program director for the Halfway House and presented the prize to us at the Bronco game last Friday.

We have lined up some wonderful sponsors for our Raisin' Cane tournament. If you know any golfers who enjoy free barbecued chicken, cokes, and beverages made with malts and hops, along with some super cash prizes and merchandise, have them give me a call to sign up for our scramble. All proceeds will benefit the Senior Center! See you there!

The van will go to San Angelo on the 15th this month so that all our folks will have the opportunity to attend the Dies y Seis activities at Liberty Park and here at the Center on the 16th.

(Editor's Note: A correction to last week's story is in order. A big thank you to Rosie's Cafe and to Jim Stephen for serving as cooks for the Senior Bar-b-que should have been added!)

Senior Center Menu

Thursday, Sept. 10 - BBQ Chicken, blackeyed peas, Harvard beets, corn bread, pears w/cheese, peanut butter cookies.

Friday, Sept. 11 - Pork Chops w/gravy, mashed potatoes, buttered carrots, hot rolls, tossed salad w/dressing, peach cobbler.

Crystal submitted the winning entry for the Grandparents Day contest. The Devil's River News will purchase Mrs. Reyna dinner at any local restaurant (up to $25).

"My grandma is patient and nice. I can go to her with problems and she helps me solve them. She works hard every day."

Wall no match for JV

by R.C. Hall

The Sonora High School Junior Varsity Broncos won the first game of the season in a 24-12 romp over the Hawks of Wall.

The first score of the game came following the muffing of the opening kickoff. The Wall receiver was unable to handle the kick and the Broncos recovered the ball. The six points came on a 10 yard pass from Jason Morely to Chris Gutierrez. The point after try failed.

The second score of the half for the Broncos came on a 10 yard run by Gilbert Vara. Vara was also able to punch over the two point conversion.

The Sonora defense was also outstanding, giving up only one of the Hawk's scores. The score came on a 20 yard sprint by the Hawk quarterback. The other Wall T.D.

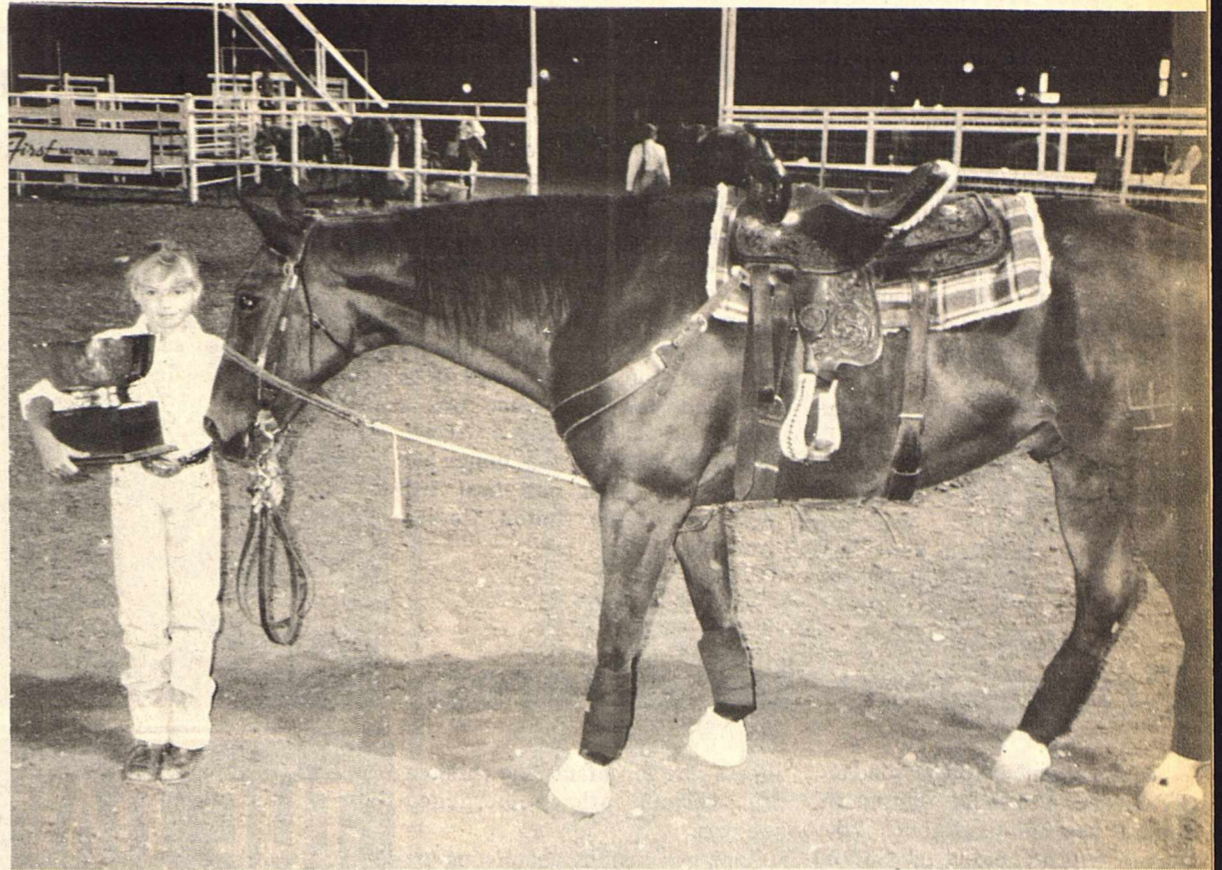

came on a 30 yard return of a Sonora fumble.

The Bronco defense also contributed to the score card when Casey Fitzgerald, Cody Shenkel, and T.J. Harris combined for a safety in the fourth quarter. Other standouts who contributed to the defensive effort were Gabriel Perez and Levi Pool.

In the second half Perez also contributed on the offensive side of the ball with a touchdown run of 3 yards. The two point conversion was successful.

Adrian Mata broke loose on a thirty yard run for an apparent touchdown that was called back because of a penalty. Other outstanding performers on offense were Shane Deel, Mike House and Jesse Capachina.

The next JV game is today is 6:30 in Ballinger.

EMS Crew Delivers Baby

On August 12, 1992, the ambulance crew picked up a young female from a local convenience store at 3:50 a.m. She was 8 1/2 months pregnant - with pains two minutes apart. The patient was transported to Hudspeth Hospital, and sent by ambulance at 4:30 a.m. to San Angelo.

George Keese, EMT, was the driver. Treva McReynolds, EMT, was at the patient's head "administering to the screams." Tate Fincher, EMT, was the "middle man" and Ram Perez, RN was in the "catch position." San Angelo is 65 miles from Sonora - and during the middle of the trip, the pains became constant and "things" started happening. A baby boy was delivered at 5:17 a.m. in full vocal operation to accompany his mother. By the time the group arrived at Angelo Community Hospital, the placenta had been expelled, the ambulance was a wreck... and the crew was a wreck... But all were happy that things had gone well with our first full delivery in the Sutton County Ambulance.

Q. What was happening in the Devil's River News at this time in 1942?

A. For the answer to this question we will go to the Devil's River News of September 4, and September 8, 1942.

We find that Lt. William Marion Elliott received his wings at Moore Field's advanced training school for fighter pilots.

It became even harder to get a bicycle as bike rationing quotas were again cut. It seems there was a very high demand for this type of transportation for adults and only those with essential occupations would be eligible for certificates.

Ranchers are being urged to sell old ewes to help clothe aviators and other fighting forces in cold climates.

The Methodist Church will celebrate their 50th anniversary on September 13th. The first religious service in Sonora was held in the old Morris home across from the Court House by a Methodist Circuit Rider and 50 years ago the first church was built.

Mrs. Beamon Speed was hostess to the Fireman's Wives Bridge Club Wednesday evening. Mrs. Lee Patrick won high club and Mrs. L.E. Holland high guest. Chocolate cake and ice cream was served to Mesdames: Lee Patrick, S.M. Loeffler, L.E. Holland, George D. Chalk, Pat Carroll, A.H. Adkins, Jack Ellingson, Erwin Williman, Mat Adams, George Barrow and Ardena Speed.

Parts of letters home from the following were published: Pvt. I.O. (Stumpy) Odom stationed with the Marines in Toledo, Ohio; T-5 Reggie Trainer from the California desert; Jesse Kring, U.S. Army Air Forces sent a censored letter following a flight; Pvt. Arthur W. Awalt has been promoted to First Lieutenant at Camp Barkley, Texas;

First Lt. Savell Lee Sharp has been promoted to Captain at Portland Air Base, Oregon, where he is with the 75th Bombardment Sq.; Apprentice Seaman V.A. Rouche is at Aviation school in Chicago; Clarence Smith is in San Diego, California, learning to call a floor a deck and walls the bulk head and food chow; Edward "Foots" Kring is in San Diego at the U.S. Naval Training Station; Alan Saunders is at Elgin Field, Fla; Pvt. Robert A. Simmons is at Co. B. 64Bn 4th PI, MRTC, Camp Berkley, Texas and taking short hikes (5 miles); Pvt. R.P. Odom is at Camp Edwards, Mass, and saw Lloyd McGhee in Boston; Nelson Stubblefield is in Kansas City, Missouri going to Radio and Television school; Pvt. T.C. Thiers is at Drew Field, Tampa, Fla.; and R.W. Hill is at Sheppard Field, Texas.

If you have any questions concerning Sutton County history, send them to Ask the Historical Society, P.O. Box 885, Sonora, Texas 76950-0885 or call 387-5144.

911 Emergency Day Set Trees to be given away

Governor Ann Richards will proclaim Friday, September 11, 1992, as 9-1-1 Emergency Number Day in Texas and urges appropriate recognition.

The implementation and use of the 9-1-1 emergency number allows citizens to summon help quickly in emergency situations.

The three-digit number has replaced thousands of seven-digit emergency numbers across our state and nation. The growing use of the 9-1-1 emergency number has simplified the task of reporting emergencies.

Approximately 50 to 60 percent of the American people have access to the 9-1-1 service. The National Emergency Association's goal of "One Nation - One Number" will make requesting emergency services identical anywhere in the nation.

The 9-1-1 emergency telephone system increases public confidence in the accessibility of prompt and efficient emergency services.

The people of Texas should be encouraged to recognize the positive impact 9-1-1 service has had on so many of their lives. We are all grateful for the efforts of everyone involved in establishing and maintaining this vital service.

Second and Third graders are making posters to be displayed at the PSAP (Public Safety Answering Point) to recognize the important role telecommunications play in linking citizens with police, fire or emergency medical services in time of an emergency. Every individual participating will receive a certificate from the Concho Valley Council of Governments.
