Project Graduation - A great success

Friday night, May 28th, sixty-nine seniors at Sonora High School took a big step into the future when they walked across the stage and received their diplomas. Speeches, scholarships and thanks were given and each senior had their own thoughts about the evening. Graduation ended around 10 p. m. and many of these seniors prepared for the party after Project Graduation that is, which was held in the High School Commons area.

Most of the graduating class of 1993 was in attendance as well as many of the Seniors of 1994. Many individuals and business persons were also there, either by the gifts they had given, or in person manning one of the many booths that were open. Project Graduation wasn't just for the seniors and juniors, it was for the entire community. A chance to give our kids something better to do than drive around and drink.

The staff here at the Devil's River News enjoyed having a tricycle race at Project Graduation. After several disasters with borrowed tricycles and a breakdown of a brand-new trike, our booth got off to a slow start. It seems that the biggest attraction during the night was the casino, but who could blame the kids, they could earn money to be used in the auction later that morning. Our booth was pretty successful, giving away all our prizes but three or so, which were given away later.

Speaking of prizes, the individuals and businesses were very generous in their donations to this worthwhile project. T-shirts, jewelry, TV's, VCR, you name it and it was there. It's good to live in a community that is so generous!

I know that I would have enjoyed something like Project Graduation after my graduation, I enjoyed it 12 years later. And I'm looking forward to helping again next year.

Project Graduation is an alcohol-free night of fun, food and games and I encourage everyone to get involved in future Project Graduation's. It's a chance to be involved for yourself and for the kids. It's a good thing!

Karole Hunt had this to say about Project Graduation, "I had so much fun, giving away prizes, learning to deal blackjack, watching the kids play. There were games everywhere, golf, bingo, balloon darts, volleyball, basketball, tricycle races, and the casino. Prizes were flowing, I didn't see a kid there without a prize. Project Graduation is great. More of the community should get involved. I probably had more fun than the kids did."

Gina Holt said, "Project Graduation was a great success once again. Kids and adults alike enjoyed the game booths, music and great food."

"Knowing graduation is still pretty far in the future for my children, I just hope the community is still in strong support of Project Graduation in 2003, when Kiva graduates."

RECYCLING STATION- Mayor Lemuel Lopez (l) and Mayor Pro-Tem Margaret Cascadden (R) inspect Sonora's upgraded Recycling Center.

City upgrades recycling center

The City of Sonora has completed an upgrading of its recycling center with the addition of new color-coded receptacles and signs. The improvements at the center, located at the intersection of Water and Third Streets, are a part of the city's renewed efforts to encourage recycling.

Currently, the center accepts aluminum cans, tin cans, clear glass, brown glass, and green glass. As markets for additional recyclable materials are developed within the region, the recycling station will be expanded to accept other types of materials.

"The benefits to recycling are numerous," Sonora City Manager John Pape explained.

"Not only is it the environmentally-responsible thing to do, it reduces the amount of waste that needs to be collected and put into the landfill. This can translate into a longer life for the landfill and reduced operating costs."

Pape noted that the amount of garbage has increased by 60 percent since 1960, while during the same time period the number of operating landfills decreased from 20,000 to 6,500. He also noted that new federal regulations could close nearly half the existing of the remaining landfill by 1994, and recycling is an effective way of conserving landfill space and extending the life of the landfill by reducing the amount of municipal solid waste.

Sonora's renewed emphasis on local recycling is being done in conjunction with the state-wide efforts to encourage greater participation in both recycling and using recycled products. The goal is to achieve a 40 percent reduction in the amount of solid waste in Texas by the end of the decade.

Mayor rescinds resignation

Mayor Lemuel Lopez rescinds his resignation two days after he had submitted it to City Manager John Pape.

Lopez stated he had many phone calls asking him to reconsider.

Lopez plans to serve the remainder of term as the Mayor of Sonora.

Primary school chosen as Mentor school

Sonora Primary School was among thirty-three elementary schools that was chosen as a mentor school to lead the new Texas Elementary and Early Childhood Network, part of a statewide effort under way to restructure elementary and early childhood education.

The 33 campuses, selected from more than 150 schools that applied, will assist and support other schools in the network by providing intensive, ongoing professional development and training for elementary and early childhood educators and others involved with the education of young children.

On the basis of extensive applications the schools submitted, they were judged capable of providing leadership, innovation and energy to help other schools in the network close gaps in student achievement. Mentor schools were chosen on the basis of several factors, such as improvement in student achievement reflected in scores on standardized tests, promising practices and the implementation of research-based concepts, and ethnic diversity among students.

The principals and staff of the 33 mentor schools will be honored in June at a reception hosted by the Texas Elementary Principals and Supervisors Association (TEPSA) and Texas Education Agency. Commissioner of Education Lionel R. Meno and Deputy Commissioner Jay Cummings will address the group.

"In the fall, we will visit each of the selected campuses and meet with the principal, teachers and staff, as well as parents and members of the community," said Patricia L. Pickles, senior director for elementary school education. "We recognize the importance of parental involvement in the schools and the need to expand school-community partnerships."

Mentor schools will be assisted by the Texas Education Agency and a regional coordinator at each of the 20 education service centers. Mentor schools principals will attend regular planning sessions and staff development at the Texas Education Agency in Austin or at selected mentor sites.

Recommending the selections was a committee of representatives from higher education, the 20 regional education service centers, the Texas Education Agency, the Department of Health and Human Services, the Texas Commission on Alcohol and Drug Abuse, the Texas Department of Health, and special projects such as Head Start, Sesame Street PEP and others.

Blood Drive set

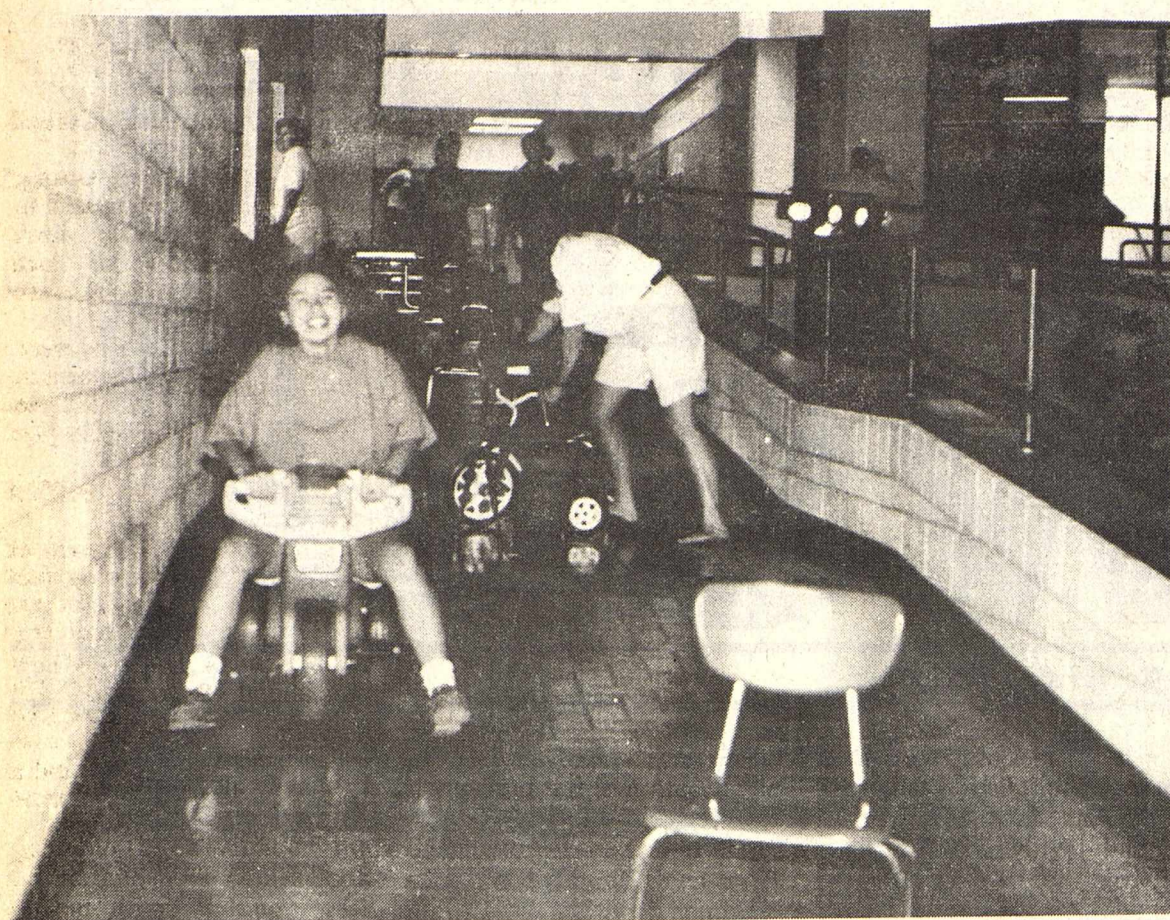

Food Center of Sonora will sponsor a Blood Drive on Thursday, June 3 from 11 a. m. to 6 p. m. at Sutton County National Bank.

Freelance Philosophy

by G.C. "Country" Smith

I was looking through John-Roger and Peter Williams' book, Do It! when I ran across these words. "The biggest lie in choosing is 'I can't.' That is simply not true. We can do anything we want." When I read those words, I thought about my friend, the managing editor of this newspaper, Linda Bowers. When I bought this paper, I said to Linda, "I want this to be a quality newspaper. I want it to be something that the people of Sonora will be proud of. I will not always be here to manage things. I want you to run the Devil's River News. Can you do it?" Linda smiled and calmly answered, "Of course I can." I believe that Linda knew what she was talking about. In my opinion, she is producing a very fine small town newspaper. I am proud of the DRN. I hope you are as well. When you get a chance why don't you find a good word for Linda? She is the young lady with the "OF COURSE I CAN" smile.

Until the next time,

Wedding bells mean wedding bills

For spring or summer weddings, planning has already begun. But it's too late to get control of spending associated with the big day. Start your budget by writing down the expected cost of items already planned. Add any other anticipated expenses and expect unplanned costs to occur. For those just beginning to plan, set a tentative budget for the wedding before talking to wedding consultants and service providers. You need to decide what you can spend, not what other people think you should spend. The tentative budget may need adjusting, but your original estimate will help you stay on target by reminding you to trim expenses wherever you can. In setting a budget, consider whether to include these items:

- Invitations, announcements and postage
- Engagement and wedding rings
- Blood tests
- Marriage certificate
- Fees for the ceremony (music, clergy)
- Rental cost for facility (ceremony, reception and rehearsal)
- Bride and groom's attire
- Attendants' attire
- Transportation to the ceremony
- Flowers (including ceremony, reception, bouquets, corsages)
- Photographs (engagement photos, wedding photos, portraits)
- Video recording
- Wedding cake
- Reception food and drink, decorations and entertainment
- Gifts for attendants, family, wedding guests
- Meals for guests or attendants (rehearsal dinner, seated or buffet reception, out-of-town guests)
- Lodging and transportation for out-of-town guests
- Wedding coordinator
- Honeymoon trip

Decide who will pay for what. Traditionally, the bride's family has shouldered most of the wedding cost. That trend is changing. Many couples today pay for their own weddings or share costs equally between families. Be sure to include everyone who is paying in the budget discussions. One person, for example, may be planning on simple floral greenery, while another anticipates elaborate decorations. Discussing it beforehand eases tensions later. Smaller weddings generally cost less than those with more guests. For example, most bakers charge for the wedding cake by a number of guests. Large weddings will require a larger facility, which will increase rental charges. Larger weddings usually have more attendants, increasing he costs associated with attendants' food, clothing, gifts and transportation. Allowing plenty of time can save money and tempers. Printers are likely to charge extra for "RUSH" orders on invitations or announcements. Low-cost facilities or service providers may be booked up for your wedding date if you wait too late to schedule. Starting early allows you to buy the bride's, groom's, and attendants' attire on lay-away, budgeting your money as you go. Be sure to get all arrangements in writing. While you may view your wedding with romantic illusions, it is business to service providers. Make sure you know your obligation in case of changes or cancellations, get written quotes on costs and keep receipts for any deposits or early payments. After setting up your budget, review it regularly. Look at it weekly at first and daily as the wedding date nears. As expenses mount, see if you can anticipate and prevent unexpected expenses or compensate for them by cutting down somewhere else. Evaluate whether you can pay some costs ahead of time to save finance charges or reduce the lump sum which will need to be paid later. If expenses are getting out of hand, discuss whether some items can be cut from the budget to save money. As your wedding nears you can relax and enjoy it, knowing that you are in control of your finances. Extra expenses will undoubtedly crop up, but you will not be staggered by the overall total you owe as you start your life together.

Happy Birthday
 Love Clayton

Today's woman has a will of her own

Time was when a woman didn't feel she needed to have a will. Her husband or father or some other male member of the family took care of such things. But today things are different. Many women prefer to handle things themselves--investments, insurance, property--and to make their own decisions. When it comes to their possessions, they want to decide who gets the teapoons, the stocks, the real estate or the antiques.

Fate - and a cockroach - brought pair together

The story of Tom and Mercedes Nevill of Eastland as told by Mrs. Nevill:

My friends' accounts of romantic encounters with future mates have always intrigued me since my own was unusual - and far from some enchanted evening!

While working as a secretary in a West Texas town, I usually stopped at a restaurant each morning for a cup of coffee, toast or a doughnut. This particular morning, I turned this doughnut over to find a nasty little cockroach nestled there.

I never ate at that place again, but went a block further to another cafe - where I met the son of the owners.

After a few weeks, he called one night to ask me to attend a dance with him in a neighboring town. I accepted. The couple with him - a man and his wife - almost ended our date. She said to me, "I'm glad you could go -

Tom has called several girls and finally called you."

That really upset my young, prideful nature, so I turned to him and said, "I really don't mind being second or third choice, but seven or eight is too much for me."

Of course, he was very embarrassed and made excuses, saying "I would have called you first, but I never thought you would go out with me."

This soothed my ruffled feathers rather quickly.

From that lowly beginning of the roach and the stormy first date, about a year later we married. We will celebrate our 55th wedding anniversary in August, along with our two sons, two daughters-in-law, five wonderful grandchildren - two others through marriage - and a beautiful year-old great-granddaughter.

Praise the Lord for la cucaracha!

Famous artist, Frank Covino, coming to Sonora June 21-26

Internationally famous artist, author and Master teacher, Frank Covino, will be in Sonora on June 21-26 to hold a painting workshop. Frank teaches the classical academic method of painting used by the old masters of the Renaissance era. He is a very capable instructor for beginners to professionals.

Mr. Covino has an impressive list of credentials and accomplishments that include a Masters Degree in Art Instruction from the Pratt Institute of Art in New York; taught in famous art schools; author of seven books including: The Fine Art of Portraiture, Discover Acrylics With Frank Covino, and Controlled Painting; has his own Art Academy in Southport, Connecticut; and has a series of video tapes on the market. Mr. Covino has done portraits of Dinah Shore, Gloria Swanson, and the late pop artist Marvin Gaye as well as other notables. Art teachers from around the country have taken from him and say that their college course were never as informative. He is acclaimed by some to be the best art instructor in America Today!

The small town of Sonora is fortunate to be able to have Mr. Covino teach for six days. He instructs in color mixing, composition, and values, while teaching portraiture, animal or landscape. Sometimes he lectures, but he usually demonstrates while lecturing. He can do a human eye that is more realistic and sparkling than any painted eye ever seen.

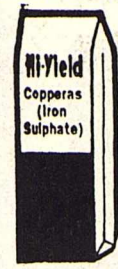

Mr. Covino also spends a great deal of class time instructing students, one-on-one.

One of the students attending the workshop will win an out-of-print book on art by Frank Covino, which he will be happy to autograph.

A slide show, which is very important for first-time students will be held on Sunday, June 20, at 7:30 p. m. at the Cauthorn Memorial Building in Sonora. Classes will be held there during the week.

The public is invited, also anyone interested in art may visit the class quietly. We encourage it.

Ask the Historical Society

by Sutton Co. Historical Society

Would you have any record of the death of Edgar Sharp in Edwards County around 1913?

Rocksprings Cemetery Records indicate that Edgar Sharp was born on September 12, 1891 and died on March 14, 1913.

Devil's River News, March 22, 1913 had the following article: More Trouble in Edwards

About 2 o'clock Thursday, the 13th, at the W. T. Anderson Ranch 20 miles east of Rocksprings, Nicolas Montoya requested Angeleta Valdes to marry him. She refused and he struck her with the stock of his gun. The woman ran about 40 yards but was overtaken and shot through the head.

Officers and men from Rocksprings when notified started on the hunt. Three young men among them Ed Sharp, followed the trail into a thicket six miles from Rocksprings where the poor boy met his death. The Mexican has been hunted for without result all week.

Sheriff T. B. Adams, of Sonora, Marshall Carroll Bates and Nick Hudgins of San Angelo joined the chase Tuesday but returned Wednesday night discouraged. The death of the Sharp boy is very much deplored.

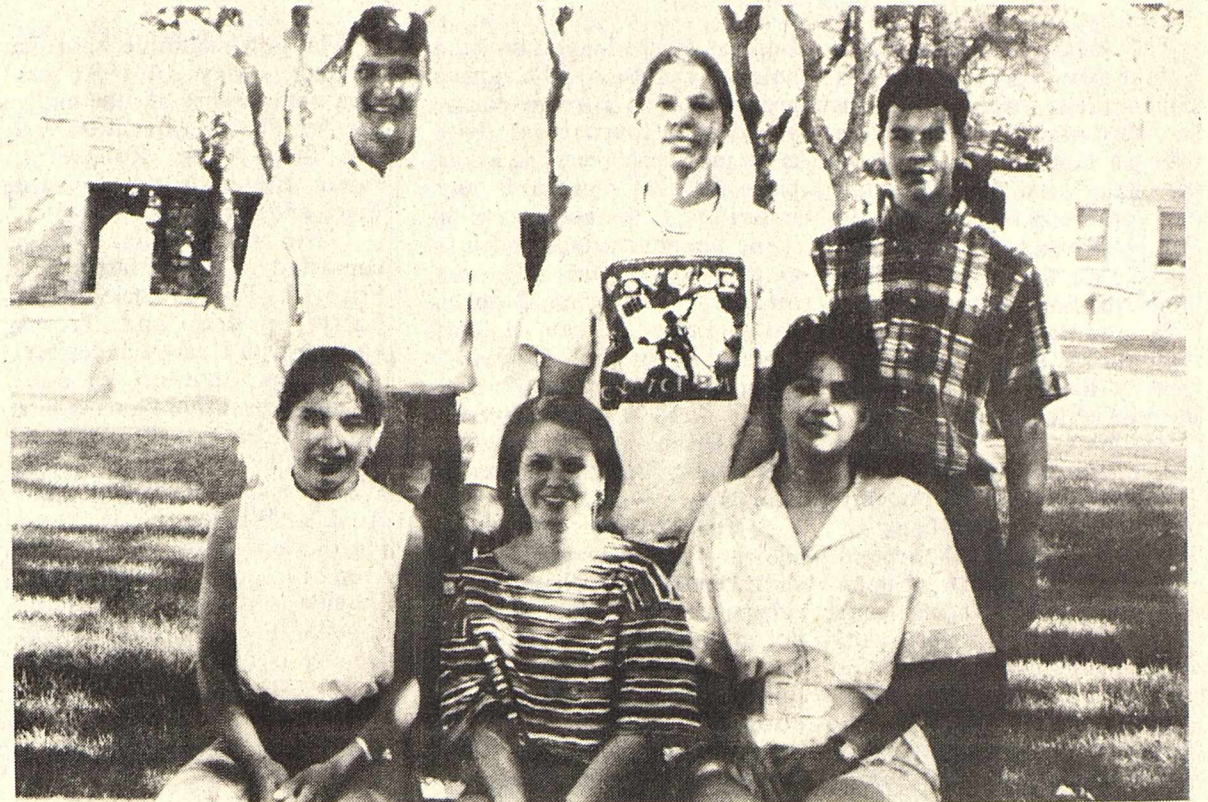

We would also suggest that you try looking for information on this death in the Old Frontier Times. We are pretty sure that Marvin Hunter did a story on this at one time.

We are still looking for pictures of anyone who is buried in the Sonora Cemetery or who has ever lived in Sutton County. We are also still trying to locate about 8 pages of people who are buried in the cemetery with no stones on their graves. If you know where someone is buried who doesn't have a marker please share this information with one of our staff so we may complete our cemetery files.

Someone asked me one day, "What does the Historical Society do with their money?"

The Sutton County Historical Society is a non-profit organization. Our sources of revenue are dues and donations. We own two buildings, the John & Mildred Cauthorn Memorial Building (The Depot) and the Miers Home Museum and are responsible for upkeep and maintenance on the Old Jail Building. The insurance alone on these buildings is more than $1000 a year not to mention utilities, repairs and general upkeep of the grounds. Just like you our general operating expenses keep going up and up every year. What do we do with money paid in dues and donated -- we spend it very, very carefully trying to preserve the history of Sonora for future generations.

If you have any questions concerning Sutton County history send them to "Ask the Historical Society" P. O. Box 885, Sonora, Texas 76950-0885 or call one of our researchers at 387-5144.

Spring CPR classes end

During the months of February, March, and April, Sutton County Emergency Medical Service scheduled several cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) classes for the public. Prior to these classes being scheduled, we had received numerous requests from individuals and businesses needing these classes for themselves or their employees. Approximately 30 letters were sent to local business about the classes.

The classes offered were:
 Course A: Adult one-rescuer CPR & airway obstruction management. Course B: Adult one-rescuer CPR and infant one-rescuer CPR. Adult and infant airway obstruction management.
 Course C: Adult one-rescuer and two-rescuer CPR, child one-rescuer & two-rescuer CPR, infant one-rescuer CPR. Adult, child & infant airway obstruction management. Course D: Infant one-rescuer CPR, airway obstruction management and child safety.

Of the eight classes scheduled, 5 were canceled due to lack of participants. In the 3 remaining classes a total of 25 people were trained in CPR. We would like to commend all of the individuals who participated in these classes. Also, thank you to the instructors who took time off from work and gave up their evenings to come and teach these classes.

Six Good Reasons To Vote For Kay Bailey Hutchison For U.S. Senate

1. Her budget as State Treasurer is down by 8%, yet she still earned more for the taxpayers than ever in the state's history.
2. As a small business owner, she will fight taxes and push for more spending cuts.
3. Her #1 priority is reducing the federal deficit by cutting spending, not by raising taxes.
4. She's for across-the-board cuts in the $300 billion the Federal government spends for overhead and has a plan to save $1 trillion by limiting the growth of spending.
5. Kay is a strong supporter of term limits and reform of Congress.
6. She wants to stop frivolous lawsuits that clog our courts and drive up health care costs.

Primary/Intermediate schools end running program

The Primary and Intermediate School students are getting closer to reaching their goals in their Physical Education classes. In October, the students started walking or jogging 1 mile twice a week in their Physical Education classes. After a few weeks of conditioning, the students who wanted to could do extra miles.

Their main goal was to improve cardiovascular fitness. They also set mileage goals. Intermediate goals were: anyone walking/jogging 50-74 miles received a certificate; 75-99 miles - a certificate and a coke party; 100+ miles - a certificate, coke party and T-shirt. Primary goals were: in Kindergarten, anyone walking/jogging 50-59 miles - a certificate; 60-69 miles - a certificate and a coke party. In 1st and 2nd grades, any student walking/jogging 50-69 miles - a certificate; 70+ miles - a certificate and a coke party.

Earlier in the year we had a contest to find a name for the running club. Byron Williams came up with The Running Red Road Lizards. Mr. Ron Nicholas and two of his Art students, Lonnie Berns and Cindy Ramirez, were responsible for the art work. For Mrs. Friess, Russell Dempsey and Graham Bloodworth made the charts to chart in a bar graph the number of miles run by each student in the 5th grade. Mrs. Barleemann's 5th grade English class proofread this article and made suggestions along with corrections. Mrs. Elliott's 4th grade Math students, Andi Allen, Jonathon Folds, Ryan Hardgrave, Chang Hernandez, Lorena Lopez, Danny Solis, Matthew Torres and Bryce Williams made the chart and each student charted their own. Jana Johnson, of Mrs. Holt's Keyboarding Class, typed this article appearing in this issue of the Devil's River News for the Running Red Road Lizards.

Overall, Coach Dempsey, Coach Martin and Coach Sessom felt like the running program was a success because it taught them to set goals, improve their physical fitness and improve their self esteem. The curriculum was integrated by allowing the students to use their different skills in Math, English, Art, Keyboarding and Physical Education classes.

Coach Dempsey, Coach Martin, Coach Sessom and the students would like to give a special thanks to Mrs. Donna Hill, Intermediate Principal and Mrs. Clay Cade, Primary Principal, for all their help and support. At different times during the year, pizzas were awarded to students with the most miles run and goals reached with their picture appearing in the newspaper. Without their help and support, this program would not be possible. We SALUTE Mrs. Hill and Mr. Cade.

Internal Revenue Service to hold workshop

According to Gary O. Booth, IRS District Director for Dallas District, "If you haven't filed past years' tax returns, the best gift you can give yourself is an appointment at the San Angelo office next Thursday, June 10, 1993. The San Angelo IRS office (33 E. Twohig, Room 101) will be staffed between 9:00 a. m. and 3:00 p. m. to help taxpayers get right with their government."

This is an ongoing effort sponsored by the IRS to help taxpayers who have failed to file past years' returns. Booth commented, "What struck me about those who have come in for help is the sense of tremendous relief they expressed."

Booth says that taxpayers who owe IRS returns owe it to themselves to get back into the system. "For many, it is fear that creates a barrier. We see our job as making it as easy as possible for taxpayers to comply. Many may have paid in withholding or estimated tax payments which are held in credit to their accounts. And if they owe us, we can work out payment arrangements to bring them square with us."

"I want to assure taxpayers that we sincerely want to help. Our experience has shown that most people want to file overdue returns and settle their affairs with the government," Booth continued, "and from our own vantage point, if we can help people back into the system on their own, we will not have to focus on more costly enforcement efforts later."

Llano River only public water in Sutton County

Anyone putting a boat in the Llano River at Camp Allison must remember that this part of the Llano River is the only public water in Sutton County. Therefore all motorboats, regardless of length or horsepower, are required by law to be registered. This includes boats with electrical trolling motors. Also, all boats powered or not, must have one Coast Guard approved Personal Flotation Device in good and serviceable condition, for each person on board.

In Camp Allison, the minimum size and daily bag limits are as follows: Black Bass - 14 inches and Guadalupe Bass - 12 inches, five per day in aggregate; Crappie - 10 inches - 25 per day; Channel Catfish - 9 inches - 25 per day; Flathead Catfish - 18 inches until September 1, 1993, when it becomes 24 inches - 5 per day.

SUTTON COUNTY APPRAISAL DISTRICT Property Tax Protest and Appeal Procedures

The law gives property owners the right to protest actions concerning their property tax appraisals. You may follow these procedures if you have a concern about:

- the value placed on your property;
- exemptions that may apply to you;
- cancellation of agricultural appraisal;
- whether your property is taxable;
- which local governments should be taxing your property; or
- you think the appraisal district has done something else that adversely affected you.

Informal Review: For an informal review of your property value, contact, Rex Ann Friess, Chief Appraiser, at the appraisal district office located at 300 E. Oak St.

Review by the Appraisal Review Board:

If you can't resolve your problem informally with the appraisal district staff, you may have your case heard by the appraisal review board.

The appraisal review board (ARB) is an independent board of citizens that reviews problems with appraisals and other concerns listed above. It has the power to order the appraisal district to make the necessary changes to solve problems. If you file a written request for an ARB hearing (called a notice of protest) before the deadline, the ARB will set your case for a hearing. You'll receive written notification of the time, date, and place of the hearing. The hearing will be informal. You and the appraisal district representative will be asked to present evidence about your case. The ARB will make its decision based on the evidence presented. You can get a copy of a protest form from the appraisal district office at 300 E. Oak St., Sonora, Texas 76950.

Note: You shouldn't try to contact ARB members outside of the hearing. The law requires you to sign an affidavit saying that you haven't done so before the ARB hears your case.

Review by the District Court: After it decides your case, the ARB must send you a copy of its order by certified mail. If you're not satisfied with the decision you have the right to appeal to district court. If you choose to go to court, you must start the process by filing a petition within 45 days of the date you receive the ARB's order.

If the appraisal district has appraised your property at $1,000,000 or more, you must file a notice of appeal with the chief appraiser within 15 days of the date you receive the ARB's order.

More information: You can get more information by contacting the Sutton Co. Appraisal District, 300 E Oak St., Sonora, Texas, 387-2809. You can also get a pamphlet describing how to prepare a protest from the appraisal district or from the State Property Tax Board 4301 Westbank Drive, Building B, Suite 100, Austin, Texas 78746-6565.

Deadline for filing protests with the ARB

(The deadline is postponed to the next business day if it falls on a weekend or holiday.)

Usual Deadline

On or before May 31 (or 30 days after a notice of appraised value was mailed to you, whichever is later.)

Late protests are allowed if you miss the usual deadline for good cause. Good cause is some reason beyond your control, like a medical emergency. The ARB decides whether you have good cause.

Late protests are due the day before the appraisal review board approves records for the year. Contact your appraisal district for more information.

Special Deadlines

For change of use (the appraisal district informed you that you are losing agricultural appraisal because you changed the use of your land), the deadline is before the 30th day after the notice of determination was mailed to you.

For ARB changes (the ARB has informed you of a change that increases your tax liability and the change didn't result from a protest you filed), the deadline is before the 30th day after the notice of the determination was mailed to you.

If you believe the appraisal district or ARB should have sent you a notice and did not, you may file a protest until the day before the taxes become delinquent (usually February 1). The ARB decides whether it will hear your case based on evidence about whether a required notice was mailed to you.
