BRONCOS RUN OVER BRADY, 28-7

Center Caleb Barker makes a run in Friday night's game against Brady.

Submitted by Charles Carroll

During practice sessions last week or while watching the films of their recent loss to Eldorado, the Bronco coaching staff decided to spread their wealth at one position around, to make two positions better. It worked.

Blessed with three quarterbacks who are good enough to start and win for the Broncos, Bellard decided to move Jason Morley to fullback for this game. Morley, the Broncos' former starting quarterback who has showcased his running skills in every game to this point in the season, responded with a game-high 90 yards rushing, leading the Broncos past the Brady Bulldogs 28-7.

The game featured contrasting styles on offense, with Brady moving the ball well on short passes into the flat which seemed to give Bronco linebackers and cornerbacks fits all night long, and the Broncos grinding the ball down the field on most drives, not always scoring but winning the also important battles of field position and time of possession. With Morley and Gilbert Vara (returning from a serious ankle injury against Wall in the Broncos' opening game win) in the backfield, the Bronco offensive line seemed energized and opened gaping holes in a Brady defense which tired under the weight of the Bronco offensive machine in the second half.

The Bronco win over Brady wasn't flashy, but it was consistent on offense and defense. The Bronco offense scored in every quarter and used up prodigious amounts of time when in possession of the football, and the Bronco defense, while harassed by quick slant patterns over the middle and in the flat all night long, suffered only one costly breakdown and made up for it with some tremendous defensive stands through the course of the game.

Brady's first offensive series of the night was uneventful; the Bulldogs were unable to move the ball on option plays against the gang-tackling pursuit of the Bronco defense, led by Levi Pool, Josh Burnham, Justin House, and Gabriel Perez, all of whom played tremendous games on defense through the evening. After Brady punted to Sonora, the Bronco offense, primed for its first drive, stalled. A quick pitch attempt on 1st & 10 from the Sonora 26 yard line was fumbled during the exchange, and a Brady player pounced on it to give Brady excellent field position at the Bronco 29 yard line.

The Bronco defense was ready for this test. Setting the tone for the rest of the ball game, Broncos Trini Banda, Perez, Cody Gann, Pool, and Shane Deel made the going tough for the Brady offense, until they faced a 4th & short at the Bronco 9 yard line. Shane Deel and Trini Banda stopped the option drive attempt cold, and the momentum switched completely back to the Broncos.

The Bronco offense was forced to punt from its own 17 yard line after starting from the 10, but luck was with the Broncos this night; Massey's punt, driven down the field to the 40 yard line, struck a Brady player as it fell and was alertly recovered by the Bronco special teams, giving the Broncos a 1st & 10 at their own 45. This time the Bronco offense took advantage of its luck and good field position, turning and handing the ball to Vara and Morley to set up a Burnham pass attempt into the end zone. The Brady defense, drawn to the line of scrimmage to stop the Sonora running attack, was caught flat footed by the pass to the end zone, but the pass fell incomplete. The play had its effect, however; the shaken Brady defense pulled players off the line of scrimmage and on the next play, a 2nd & 10 from the Brady 41, Morley burst through the line untouched and scored on a long run up the middle. With 3:21 to play in the 1st quarter, the Broncos led 7-0.

Brady's next drive, although it garnered them some breathing space in their own end of the field and some 1st downs, was able to put no points on the scoreboard. Tough defensive play by Levi Pool, who recorded a sack on a 3rd & 13 to kill the Brady drive, and Deel, Caleb Barker, Perez, and Banda, limited the Bulldogs attack and consistently forced the Brady offense into 3rd & long situations.

A poor punt by the Bulldogs gave the Broncos excellent field position at the Brady 31 yard line to start this series, and the Broncos took advantage of the Bulldogs' generosity. Gilbert Vara gained 13 yards on a sweep right play to the Brady 18 as the first quarter ended, then Burnham kept the ball on a quarterback bootleg keeper to the Brady 5 yard line for a 1st & goal. On 1st and goal from the 5 yard line the Bronco offensive line opened a sizable gap in the Brady goal line defense and Vara crossed the goal line unmolested. With 11:49 to go until halftime, the Broncos led 14-0.

Brady's offense attempted to get on track when they took over possession after Banda's kickoff, but once again fine defensive play in the Bronco defensive backfield prevented them from scoring. The Broncos were able to stop the Bulldogs on Davis Hale's interception of a Morrison pass on 3rd & 6. The Bronco offense was unable to move the ball against Brady, and the punt

Dear Editor,

Dear Editor,

Three cheers for our local police department for enforcing the state seat belt and child restraint laws. According to the Texas Department of Public Safety, lap and shoulder belts reduce the risk of fatal injury by 40-50 percent and in 1992 seat belts saved 5,226 lives and prevented about 136,000 moderate to critical injuries.

When used correctly, child passenger safety seats are; 71% effective in preventing fatalities, 67% effective in reducing the need for hospitalization and 50% effective in preventing minor injuries.

The average medical costs for a person hospitalized as result of a traffic crash totals more than $10,000. It has been estimated that Federal, State, and local governments bear between one-third to one-half of these costs due to the injured being underinsured or covered only by government supported programs such as Medicare or workman's compensation.

Thank you to our police force for not only saving taxpayers money, but for protecting Sonora's most precious commodity, our children. Sonora remember to Buckle Up!!!

Sincerely,
Amber L. Martin

SCHOOLS TO SERVE BREAKFAST

Sonora schools are promoting the school breakfast program. Breakfast is served on all campuses.

There is some rather convincing research data that says one of the best things we could do to ensure better academic achievement is to see that all students eat a good breakfast each morning.

If a student qualifies for a free lunch, he or she also qualifies for a free breakfast.

If a student qualifies for a reduced price lunch, he or she also qualifies for a reduced price breakfast. The cost of a reduced price breakfast is 30 cents.

If a student pays full price for his or her breakfast, the cost is 60 cents. Adults pay only $1.00.

Beginning next Monday, October 3, each time a student eats breakfast at school, he or she will be given a ticket to put his name on. The ticket will be placed into a container. At the end of the week, a ticket will be drawn; and some lucky student will get a nice prize. There will be a prize for each of the four schools.

We believe that if students will eat breakfast at school for a week, they just might get into the habit of eating breakfast every morning.

Some students do not want breakfast before they leave home, but by the time they get to school, they are awake enough to want something to eat; and everyone should eat a good breakfast. Since the time between dinner and breakfast is from six to twelve hours, breakfast is the most important meal of the day.

Philosophy

by Gary C. Smith

I like teachers. Teachers are a special breed. Without much recognition, they do their duty. Day in and day out they do what they are called to do. Rarely are they honored. When I found this writing by John W. Schlatter, I felt that I needed to share it with you.

In a very small way, this is to say thank you to all of the wonderful teachers that have taught us and to those who are now teaching our children. God bless you, each and every one.

I Am A Teacher

I am a Teacher.

I was born the first moment that a question leaped from the mouth of a child.

I have been many people in many places.
I am Socrates exciting the youth of Athens to discover new ideas through the use of questions.
I am Anne Sullivan tapping out the secrets of the universe into the outstretched hand of Helen Keller.

I am Aesop and Hans Christian Andersen revealing truth through countless stories.
I am Marva Collins fighting for every child's right to an education.

I am Mary McCloud Bethune building a great college for my people, using orange crates for desks.
And I am Bel Kaufman struggling to go Up The Down Staircase.

The names of those who have practiced my profession ring like a hall of fame for humanity ... Booker T Washington, Buddha, Confucius, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Leo Buscaglia, Moses and Jesus.
I am also those whose names and faces have long been forgotten but whose lessons and character will always be remembered in the accomplishments of their students.

I have wept for joy at the weddings of former students, laughed with glee at the birth of their children and stood with head bowed in grief and confusion by graves dug too soon for bodies far too young.

Throughout the course of a day I have been called upon to be an actor, friend, nurse and doctor, coach, finder of lost articles, money lender, taxi driver, psychologist, substitute parent, salesman, politician and a keeper of the faith.

Despite the maps, charts, formulas, verbs, stories and books, I have really had nothing to teach, for my students really have only themselves to learn, and I know it takes the whole world to tell you who you are.

I am a paradox. I speak loudest when I listen the most. My greatest gifts are in what I am willing to appreciatively receive from my students.

Material wealth is not one of my goals, but I am a full-time treasure seeker in my quest for new opportunities for my students to use their talents and in my constant search for those talents that sometimes lie buried in self-defeat.

I am the most fortunate of all who labor.
A doctor is allowed to usher life into the world in one magic moment. I am allowed to see that life is reborn each day with new questions, ideas and friendships.

An architect knows that if he builds with care, his structure may stand for centuries. A teacher knows that if he builds with love and truth, what he builds will last forever.

I am a warrior, daily doing battle against peer pressure negativity, fear, conformity, prejudice, ignorance and apathy. But I have great allies: Intelligence, Curiosity, Parental Support, Individuality, Creativity, Faith, Love and Laughter all rush to my banner with indomitable support.

And who do I have to thank for this wonderful life I am so fortunate to experience, but you the public, the parents. For you have done me the great honor to entrust to me your greatest contribution to eternity, your children.

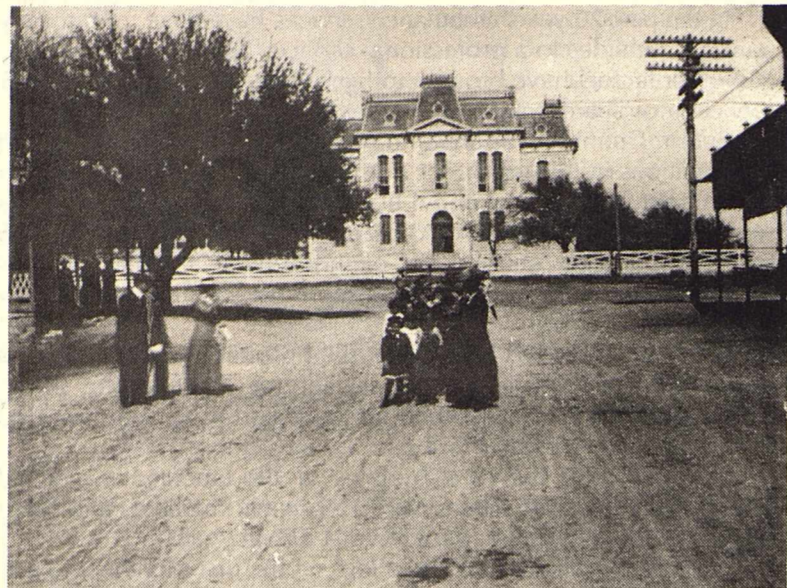

And so I have a past that is rich in memories. I have a present that is challenging, adventurous and fun because I am allowed to spend my days with the future.

I am a teacher ... and I thank God for it every day.

John W. Schlatter

Until the next time,
May God Bless

Ask The Historical Society

This picture shows the courthouse with the wooden fence around it. The roof still has ornamental iron work and air vents.

by Jo-Ann E. Palmer, Researcher, Sutton County Historical Society reprinted at the request of readers

When reading this story we ask you to keep in mind the following: It begins in the year 1869, the Civil War is still fresh in the memory of men. The southern ranchers, many of whom had fled their beloved South because of the conniving "carpet baggers", were not happy that the government had sent black soldiers to be garrisoned in their area. The only thing they hated worse than the raiding Indians were Yankees, especially black soldiers in Yankee uniforms. Feelings were running high something was bound to happen. The area was a boiling cauldron of hate and mistrust. Ranchers were divided into several factions over water rights and fencing. Indians were still making raids in the area. There were many former "Sons of the Confederacy" in the area and an active Klan.

Humpy Jackson was born in Georgia and came to the Menard area from Arkansas before the Civil War. He was a product of his time, a true son of the South, a southern gentleman, who believed in upholding the honor of his name and his family. He was an excellent hunter and marksman and knew the surrounding area like the back of his hand. Humpy had a large family and many friends in the area. One of his children was a pretty teenage daughter named Narcissus.

Lanky Jim was an extremely progressive, for that time, mulatto soldier stationed at Fort McKavett. His duties included working at the government sawmill near Humpy's place. Lanky Jim saw the young Narcissus passing by the sawmill on her way to and from school. He became extremely enamored of her. He wrote her a love letter telling her of his feelings and found a way to press it into her hand one day as she passed by. Little did he know the dire consequences this act would perpetrate.

Narcissus was only about 14 and didn't know what to do about the letter from Lanky Jim. She decided to show the letter to her father, Humpy. The innocent young girl had no idea the letter would cause years of trouble for her family and their friends.

Humpy took the letter his young daughter gave him and read it. Needless to say when he found out who it was from he became very angry. He brooded over the "insult" all night and became angrier as the hours passed. The next day he took his gun down and headed for the sawmill. Some say he hid in a stand of pecan trees and waited for his quarry to appear, one account says he simply walked up and shot the first Negro that ambled into his sight.

Anyway, Humpy drew an accurate bead, fired and took off into hiding. The only thing was he didn't shoot Lanky Jim, he killed a Private Boston Henry instead. The word of the shooting was carried to Fort McKavett. On June 9, 1869, Lieutenant John L. Bullis was detailed to apprehend John Jackson, who the military listed as "a horse thief and murderer."

Bullis, mounted up and headed out after Humpy with six men. But Humpy knew the country well and had dodged Indians there for years. He could not be found. Bullis rode for four days and sixty miles and returned empty handed as did a party from Fort Concho under Lt. George E. Albee that had covered over four hundred miles.

The chase continued for months. Humpy led the soldiers on a merry chase. He managed to return home from time to time and raised a good corn crop on the side. He even dug a cellar at his house and connected it by a tunnel with the river bank to aid his escapes from the persistent army. If they came upon the house suddenly he just popped into the cellar, went through the tunnel and came out along the river safe and sound.

FLU SHOTS FROM MEDICARE

submitted by Texas Department of Health, Sonora Office

Flu season is near, and shots are especially important for people 65 or over and those who come in contact with them, because the elderly are vulnerable to complications like pneumonia.

In a new program, you can get an influenza shot without paying the usual Medicare coinsurance or deductible amount. Medicare pays for these, plus the vaccine and the person who gives the shot.

A new booklet from the Health Care Financing Administration, Medicare Pays for Flu Shots, includes details on this and other Medicare benefits. For a free copy, write to: Consumer Information Center, Dept. 29, Pueblo, C.O. 81009.

BOOSTER CLUB MEETS

submitted by Vicky Barker

The financial statement was reviewed by the Bronco Booster Club. It was reported that the cost of the first order of "Red Rally Rags" have been covered by donations. Reorder on "Red Rally Rags" are in and are on sale.

Boosters agreed to have a float in the Homecoming Parade. Any Booster interested in riding on it should be at the parade gathering at 2:30 before the parade starts at 3:30.

Coach Hanson introduced the varsity and junior varsity defensive tackles and explained their roles on the team.

Coach Evans introduced the varsity and junior varsity defensive ends. He explained how their roles have changed since last year because of the new type defense Broncos are now using.

Coach Dempsey reviewed the 7th grade Colts game. He was very pleased with their play and it showed since it was their first victory.

Coach Hanson reported on 8th grade Colts. The game against Brady was their first loss. The team played flat and Brady was stiff competition. They are working on being more aggressive and better at blocking. The Colts had a good practice Monday, sporting good attitudes.

Coach Cox explained the Junior Varsity's tough loss. They possibly had their best offensive game of the season. Bad luck caught up with them. Turn overs could not be overcome. They will recover and be winners again.

Coach Bellard reviewed the game film. It showed some plays that made the Broncos look bad. Hopefully those problems will be corrected during practice this week. Bellard felt the blocking was the best Broncos have done. They had four interceptions. The defense really looked good at times.

The Broncos and Colts are preparing this week for a Mason team that has good athletes and a good quarterback. The Broncos again will have a good test.

Coach Bellard reported on Bronco injuries. Sean Atkins broke his collar bone. Marcus Montez will have knee surgery Wednesday.

Hope to see lots of "Red Rally Rags" waving Broncos on to victory Friday night.

JACKSON ELECTED TO FNB BOARD

submitted

Jo Bess Jackson, a Dallas attorney, but a native Sonoran, has been elected to the Board of Directors of First National Bank of Sonora and First Sonora Bancshares, Inc., according to John Childers, FNB-Sonora President.

"With her election to the Board, Ms. Jackson represents the third generation of the pioneer Vander Stucken family to be continuously actively involved with this bank since it was founded in 1900," said Childers.

Joseph Vander Stucken, her father, is retiring after serving the bank as a bank director for 65 years. He was appointed Director Emeritus on August 9, 1994. Ms. Jackson's grandfather, E.F. Vander Stucken, was a founder and original director when the bank was initially opened May 3, 1900. Her great uncle, D.J. Wyatt, served as director from January 9, 1912, to his death February 30, 1929.

With total assets of $39,847,446 on June 30, the Sonora bank will open its San Angelo branch by mid-1995 at the intersection of Sherwood Way and Southland Blvd.

Daughter of Joseph and Mabel Vander Stucken, Ms. Jackson was class valedictorian of her 1961 Sonora High School class. She was awarded a B.A. degree with highest honors from Southeastern State University in 1965. In 1975 she earned a masters of music degree with highest honors from Southern Methodist University.

From 1975 to 1982, she was a symphony orchestra musician, on the music faculty of Texas Christian University and then of Indiana/Purdue University where she was manager and co-founder of the Windrose Ensemble.

She entered Southern Methodist University School of Law where she graduated cum laude in 1985 with a law degree. At SMU she was a member of the Order of the Coif, Southwestern Law Journal, outstanding advocate and team winner of the SMU Moot Court Competition, member of Phillip C. Jessup Moot Court Team and received several scholarships and awards for academic excellence.

Following her graduation, she was associated with two Dallas law firms before opening her own law firm in January, 1990. Her practice is limited to general civil litigation, including personal injury, consumer, business, insurance, and employment law.

In Dallas, she has provided volunteer services for Legal Services of North Texas. She was recognized by that organization with its Pro Bono Award in 1987 and Distinguished Pro Bono Award in 1988. She is a member of the State Bar of Texas, Dallas and American Bar Associations, and Texas Trial Lawyers Association. Presently she is on the Board of Directors of The Family Place and Women's Business Network.

Ms. Jackson has two children. Joseph, a technical sergeant in USAF, is the lead trombonist with the Washington, D.C. Airman of Note, the premier jazz ensemble of the Air Force. Joseph and his wife Linda have two children, James and Josette. Ms. Jackson's daughter, Elizabeth, is majoring in Elementary Education at Collin County Community College in Plano and teaches ballet in Richardson.

ECA COURSE SET

In the past 20 years ambulance services have gone from merely transport vehicles to a professional service. Laws, medical views, and other factors have brought to light the need for a trained EMS service in rural areas, as well as cities.

Sutton County is fortunate to have one of the more advanced organizations in this region for a small community, having its own department, and all personnel licensed. This particular system is set up on 12 hour shifts with 3 man crews. This enables the EMS to have constant service. A paging system in the Sheriff's Department enables quicker response from pagers carried by crew members.

After originally working out of the hospital, then moving to a temporary location at 1-10 west service road in the N. L. McCullough building furnished by Joe David Ross, the new EMS offices were completed at 211 East 3rd in October 1984.

Also in 1984 the new by-laws of the emergency medical service were adopted. There were 16 original members and since that time the organization has grown at a steady rate.

The EMS holds business meetings on the first Monday of each month, and training meetings on the third Monday. These meetings enable personnel to be aware of the day to day operating situations and keeps skills sharpened. Many members of the organization are certified skills instructors, lecturers, CPR instructors and skills examiners.

Everyone has spent long hours studying and many more hours practicing their skills. Nearly all started out with the Emergency Care Attendant course and most have gone on to earn their Emergency Medical Technician license. The organization members are dedicated to helping others and working on the ambulance gives them that satisfaction.

There is always a need for more people to maintain a high level of service. Sutton County Emergency Medical Service will be sponsoring an Emergency Care Attendant Course beginning October 5, 1994 and ending December 5, 1994. The classes will be on Mondays and Wednesdays from 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m., with one Tuesday class and one Saturday class, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Emergency Care Attendant classes include 57 hours of both classroom and skills instruction in cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), choking, bleeding and shock, bandaging and splinting, childbirth, injury and illness care for adults, children, infants and various other emergency subjects.

After successfully completing the course, the student will be registered with the Texas Department of Health as an Emergency Care Attendant (ECA).

If you are interested in taking this class, please contact the Sutton County Emergency Service at 211 East 3rd, or call 387-5132. Preregistration is required. Act now if you are interested in more knowledge for handling emergencies or ambulance work.

After much discussion, the Commissioner's passed the waiver of subdivision rules for Crites Subdivision. This waiver of rules being subject to annexation by the City of Sonora.

Titan Insurance Company National Casualty Insurance Company was awarded the bid for fire, casualty, and liability. The policy is underwritten by Doyle Morgan Insurance. The premium is $2000 less than the previous policy's premium. The annual cost of this policy is $56,414.00.

The petition for the consideration of reinstatement of Carole Thorp as Senior Center Director was given to the Court. No action was taken regarding this matter.

COLTS DEFEATED BY BULLDOGS

The Sonora Colts 8th grade football team came up against a good Brady team and came up on the short end, 20-0. They played well at times, but had problems controlling an excellent defensive line and also in containing their quarterbacks. Defensive big plays were made by Zach Kerbow, interception and a big hit; Anthony Renfro, fumble recovery; Tanner Fields, fumble recovery; Lupe Ramon, best defensive hit of the game.

The biggest yard gainer on offense was a 33 yard run by Blaine Wilkinson. The top special team performer was Richard Espinosa.

NATIONAL 4-H WEEK KICKS OFF ON NICKELODEON

submitted by Sutton County Texas Agricultural Extension Service - Preston Faris, CEA-AG, Kelly, Lewis, CEA-HE

The annual National 4-H Week will get a big start this year, thanks to a nationally televised event on Nickelodeon. The cable channel is sponsoring "The BIG HELP" campaign in an effort to expose its young viewing audience to the fun and rewarding experiences of helping people and their communities.

On October 2, day one of National 4-H Week, Nickelodeon will air a live "Help-a-thon" from 12 noon to 8:00 p.m. eastern standard time. The event, which is structured as a block party, will feature booths displaying aspects of the programs of the participating organizations. In the 4-H booth, local members will use skills gained from 4-H involvement. 4-H'ers will showcase the 4-H Science and Technology curriculum "SERIES." Throughout the day, young people attending the event will make toys to donate to children. 4-H members who raise guide dogs for the blind will demonstrate how the puppies are trained. All these 4-H young people will demonstrate how youth can make very valuable contributions to the lives of others.

4-H is one of six organizations in a coalition involved with "The BIG HELP" campaign. The other groups are Second Harvest, Just Say No, Points of Light, Earth Force, and Youth Service America. Nickelodeon began airing public service announcements for these groups on September 8, and will run each organization's PSA at least once daily until October 2.

4-H members have always been involved with service projects and community help campaigns around the country. This campaign and the following National 4-H week will provide yet another opportunity for 4-H youth to serve their community.

The 4-H youth development program began in the early 1900's, strengthening rural education for young people. It has grown in both strength and numbers since that time, and now serves over 5.3 million urban, suburban, and rural youth across the country.

Volunteer local leaders are the backbone of 4-H. They partner with county Extension staff to provide direct leadership and educational support to youth in local neighborhoods and communities. The land-grant universities house the state 4-H headquarters.

Youth in Sutton County who are interested in learning about 4-H programs and activities should contact the Sutton County Extension Office at 387-3101 or 387-3604.

by Bryce Williams

September 22, the Colts played an excellent game against the Brady Bulldogs. Joseph Hopkins gained 85 yards on 5 rushes. Edgar Gonzales with 58 yards on 14 rushes really boosted the Colts. With Joseph's 75 yard run that set up a Colt touchdown, the Colts were on a roll. Later in the game, quarterback Graham Bloodworth, connected with the tight end, Alan Nicholas, for a 15 yard touchdown. The defense held the Bulldogs to a low score of only 6 points with the final score being Colts 12, Bulldogs 6.

JV FIGHTS HARD, COMES UP SHORT

Kris Wood makes a 99 yard run against Eldorado.

The Bronco Junior Varsity football team has suffered two losses in the past two weeks against Eldorado and Brady. Despite their losses, they played really tough games.

Kris Wood intercepted the ball, against the Eldorado Eagles, on the 1 yard line and ran for a 99 yards two point conversion in the rain. Fans are still talking about the play. The Broncos fell to the Eagles by four.

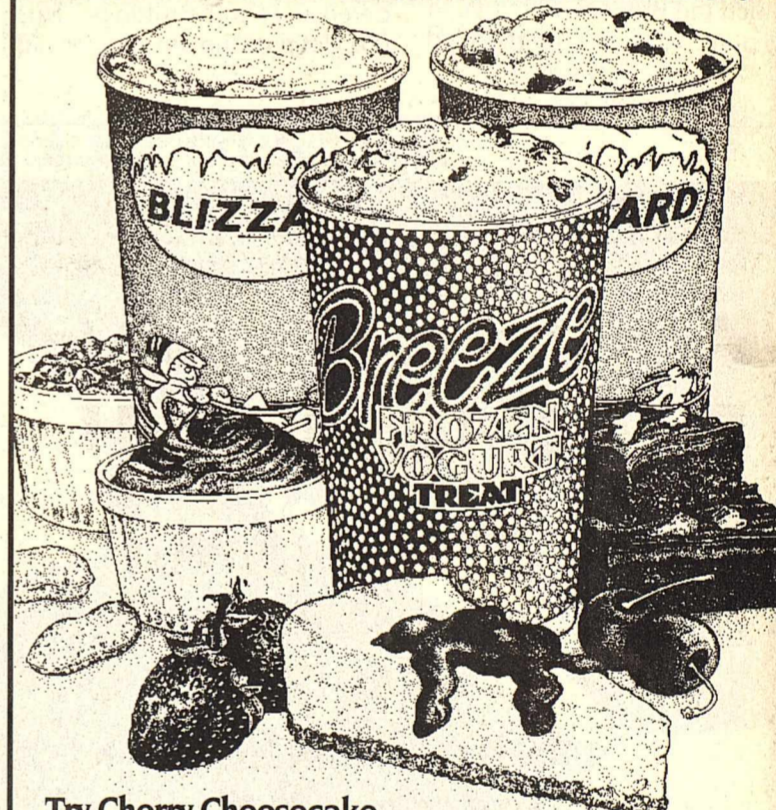

Thursday, September 20, the Broncos were set back by the Brady Bulldogs 23-20. Steven Gandar ran for a touchdown and Chad Gibson for a 2 point conversion. Kris Wood intercepted for a 54 yard run into the end zone.

The Broncos meet the Mason Punchers Thursday night for Homecoming.

BRONCOS BEAT BRADY

 attempt by Massey was blocked by a swarming Brady special teams effort.

Brady took possession again at the Sonora 23, and on 2nd & 12 Morrison lofted a pass to his tall tight end in the end zone to give Brady its initial and only score with 6:53 left in the second quarter. The PAT was good, and the Broncos led 14-7.

The Brady offense attempted to move the ball against the Sonora defense during the remainder of the second quarter, but an interception by Gabriel Perez and fine defensive play from Shane Deel, Josh Burnham, Raymond Hubble, and Cody Renfro kept the Bulldogs frustrated and unable to score. The first half ended with the Broncos ahead 14-7.

As an obviously unusual sidelight for this column, but one necessitated by what was witnessed at Bronco Stadium Friday night, I must express some appreciation to the Bronco and Brady Bulldog Bands. They were both truly excellent, and more enjoyable halftime entertainment hasn't been seen at Bronco Stadium in a good while. Good show, bands!

The third quarter was dominated by both sides of the Bronco line, and although Sonora was able to move the ball consistently against the Brady Bulldogs on offense and on special teams, the Broncos were not able, until late in the third quarter, to get into the end zone. The third quarter was highlighted by excellent special teams play which helped the Broncos maintain their edge in field position. Justin House returned the opening kickoff to the Bronco 40 yard line, but the return was negated by a penalty, after which the Broncos were forced to punt. Massey's punt sailed to the Brady 37 yard line, and the bulldogs were unable to escape their end of the field for the remainder of the 3rd quarter.

The Bronco defense remained tough. The interior line, mainly Pool, Banda, Deel, and Cody Gann were tough against the run, and put pressure on Brady's Morrison frequently enough to disrupt the Brady air attack. The Bronco linebackers, led by Josh Burnham and Morley, pursued the ball well and played hard in pass coverage. Bronco defensive backs Barker, House, Perez, and Hale played active Brady receivers close all night without a single interference call, and batted away several Brady passes which could have been caught for big yardage.

The Bronco offense, unable to move the ball consistently in the 3rd quarter, went to the big play for its score. Again setting up plays very well, the Bronco coaching staff called a series of runs and pass combinations that loosened up the Brady defense. Vara punched holes through the Brady line, and Jesse Capuchina made a diving catch for 13 yards at the 50 yard line. With the Bulldog defense unsure of itself and who to key on (Vara, Morley, or tight end Capuchina), the Bulldogs forgot about Justin House, and it cost them. House took an inside counter play, swept outside, and sprinted 50 yards for the Bronco score in the 3rd quarter. The Broncos led 21-7 with 2:49 left in the 3rd quarter.

The defense, led by Gann, Pool, and Deel, was able to force the Bulldogs to punt on their next possession, and as the 4th quarter began the Broncos executed a series of plays that again confused the defense of the Bulldogs. This first drive of the 4th quarter did not result in a score, but it succeeded in taking a prodigious amount of time off the clock and forcing an already-tired Brady defense to stay on the field. When Brady's offense did take the field with only 4:47 left in the game, they were forced into passing the ball down the field instead of using the short passes that had worked all night, and the result was an interception by Caleb Barker at the Brady 35 yard line and returned to the Brady 5. This 4th down interception was thrown by Brady because they were unable to generate any ground attack against the Broncos. Joel Salazar made an excellent play from his right corner position, stopping the Bulldogs on 3rd & 1, and setting up Barker for his interception.

The Bronco offense went in to drive the final nail into Brady's coffin, and Gilbert Vara did the honors from 5 yards out with 3:22 left in the game. The offensive line opened another gaping hole for Vara on this goal line play, and Vara made the score 28-7 in favor of Sonora, which would be the final score.

Other Broncos playing well during the 4th quarter were Casey Fitzgerald at linebacker, continuing his rehabilitation from shoulder injury, and Andy Mirike, who tipped away a high pass in the end zone with :22 seconds remaining in the game.

The Broncos' next game is Friday night in Sonora against the Mason Punchers. The game is Sonora's Homecoming, and it promises to be a challenge as the always-tough Punchers come to town with a 2-2 record and look to spoil the Bronco Homecoming. Come out and support the Broncos as they work to improve their record to 4-1 as they move into district play. Great game, Broncos! We'll see you at Bronco stadium Friday night at 8:00.

JUSTICE
PHIL HARDBERGER

This is a story about duty...

A story about service. A story about fairness. A story about people. It's story about Justice Phil Hardberger, Air Force pilot, Peace Corps founder, legal scholar, and mountain climber. Justice Phil has lived three lives in one. He was a farmer's son who grew up wanting to serve his country. As Captain Hardberger he flew B-47's in the Strategic Air Command. Under President Kennedy he helped set up the Peace Corps.

Under President Johnson he worked to establish the Head Start program. He is an avid flyer who once set Trans-Atlantic records for flying solo, single-engined airplanes from Texas to Paris and San Antonio to Madrid. Endorsed by all Texas law enforcement groups, Judge Hardberger is a tireless legal scholar who wrote the book, Texas Courtroom Evidence, used by almost all Texas judges. It takes people who want to move mountains to make a difference. It's for that very reason that Justice Hardberger was overwhelmingly voted "Best Qualified" of all the judges running for the 4th Court of Appeals. Please keep Phil Hardberger in mind when you cast your own important vote on November 8th.

As Chairman of two Statewide committees on Protection of Private Property Rights in the State Legislature - I am convinced that our battle is huge - but - that if we work together we can re-win and retain our cherished private property rights."

Myrtle Bridges

We moved from Bartlett to Sonora in July 1941. I was not teaching at that time as it was during the depression and married women were not being hired. I had taught five years in South Texas before marriage.

In 1942 when World War II began, many teachers were drafted, so teachers were scarce. I did substitute some and finished out two different school years in the Elliott School for teachers who moved or had leaves of absences. The first term was in seventh grade and high school history and Spanish. The second was for second grade. Mr. Wells, the superintendent, and some of the trustees came and asked me to take a first grade class in the old elementary building until they could get another permanent teacher. They never did get another teacher! Mr. Wells was a big help in getting me started as I had never taught first grade before. When I decided to continue teaching, I went back to college for two summers to take refresher courses.

My first year teaching first grade was a real experience! I had 16 pupils, all boys except for four or five girls. Among those first graders were the Moore twins, Jack and John, Jerry Potmesil, Jerry Baldwin, Dan Carter Cauthorn, Vivian Miears, Anna Rose Glasscock, and Virgie Franks. An entrance was closed in to make our room. People coming to the school came to our door first, so there were many interruptions!

Those first few years were spent in the old rock building with Mr. Lowe as principal. When the new building was built, I moved into it and taught in the same room until the school grew so much when Elliott School was combined! Then I was moved into one of the additional buildings. I retired in 1974 after having taught in Sonora 26 years, not counting the two half years I finished at Elliott.

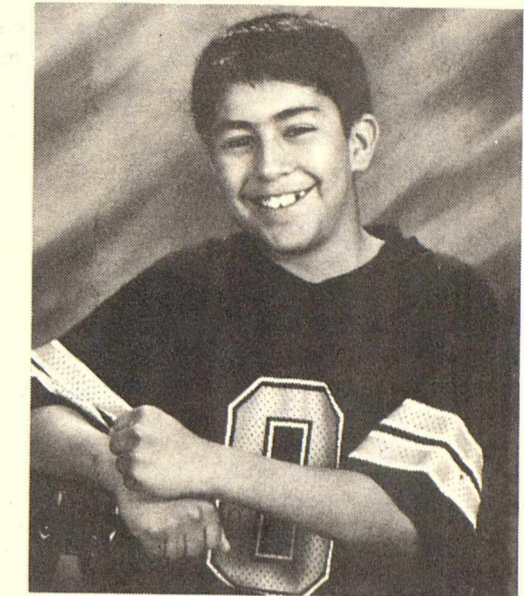

I truly have some fond memories of the years I taught and the friends I made along the way. I was a member of the First Methodist Church in Sonora for more than forty-five years and taught Sunday school in almost every department from preschool to adult. Because I lived in Sonora 47 1/2 years, I consider that my real home. I've been in Waco almost 7 years, but I keep in touch with friends and by taking the local paper.

Kenley Lane Black--Sophomore Duchess

Kenley is the fifteen-year-old daughter of Barry and Janice Black. She was selected as class favorite and Fall Festival Queen Candidate for last year. She is a member of the J.V. Tennis team, and the Girls Athletic Association. Kenley enjoys swimming, water skiing, talking on the phone and being with her friends and her family. "Homecoming is reliving the good times you and your friends had in school. Remembering all the people and how our town turns into one big family when we need each other. We are very lucky to live in a little town like Sonora."
