BRONCOS FALL TO GREENWOOD

The Sonora Broncos' road to the 1994 Texas 3A playoffs hit a bump Friday night in Greenwood, where the Rangers manhandled the Broncos for much of the first half and coasted to a 34-21 victory over the Broncos, who showed some signs of life in the second half, but were too far behind by that time to catch up with the powerful Rangers.

Louis Massey is pursued by a Greenwood Ranger as he makes a good run for the Broncos in Friday night's game against Greenwood.

Greenwood's wishbone offense pounded the ball at the Bronco defense all night long, and eventually found some gaps in which to run, and the speed of the Ranger backs allowed them to exploit these cracks in the Bronco defense for big gains and touchdowns during the first half. The Broncos managed to stay with the Rangers during the first quarter, but during the second quarter the dam broke and the Broncos fell behind so that even their patented come from behind strategy, which they've used in most games this season, could not help them in the fourth quarter.

The game began promisingly enough. Sonora received the Greenwood kickoff, and from 1st & 10 at their own 30, the Broncos drove for two first downs behind strong runs by Gilbert Vara and Jason Morley. The Broncos were, however, forced to punt from their own 42, and Massey's punt trapped the Rangers at their own 14. The Rangers took only one play to score their initial points of the night, as Indavong Phonasa took the ball from his left halfback position and hit a crease in the Bronco defense off-tackle left, breaking the run for an 86-yard touchdown scamper and putting the Broncos behind 7-0 with 8:38 remaining in the 1st quarter. Few Bronco fans realized that the Broncos would not reclaim the lead or even a tie for the rest of the game.

Sonora received the Greenwood kick at the Sonora 20 yard line and began its most successful drive of the first half with its next possession. Gilbert Vara ran tough outside for gains of 3 & 4 yards on 1st & 2nd downs, but on 3rd & 3 from the Sonora 27, Jason Morley broke through the Greenwood line for a fine run on an inside counter trap to the Greenwood 19 yard line. The drive appeared to stall at the 19 when, on 3rd & 15, Josh Burnham dropped back and hit Louis Massey at the Ranger 3 yard line to give the Broncos a 1st & goal opportunity, and a chance to even the score. On 1st & goal, Vara slipped over left tackle and into the end zone; the PAT was no good, and the Broncos, still trailing 7-6, had gained some confidence back.

Greenwood seemed to use the Sonora score more to its advantage than did the Broncos. The Rangers had not been scored upon in district play until Vara's touchdown, and the Sonora score energized their defense and motivated their offense for the remainder of the first half. The result was not a pleasant spectacle for Bronco fans. Greenwood scored on its next three possessions of the 1st half, while allowing the Broncos only 2 first downs and no points.

There were a few bright spots for the Broncos, however. Louis Massey continued his fine work as punter for the Broncos, frequently trapping the Rangers deep in their own territory when starting drives. He also added an exciting kickoff return to the Sonora 43 yard line from his own 10.

Greenwood's drives were characterized by an ability to move the ball on the ground and a great deal of offensive consistency. On Greenwood's next possession after the Sonora score, the Broncos, led by linebackers Levi Pool and Jason Morley, attempted to fill gaps and stop Ranger backs, but Greenwood seemed to have all the answers for the schemes in the Bronco defense, and that, combined with some defensive lapses, led to too many Ranger scores. Greenwood's drive started from its own 20, and after two hard series in which the Bronco defense pushed the Rangers to 3rd & 8 and 3rd & 9, the Rangers were able to convert and keep the ball moving down the field. The Bronco defense had played well after its first play lapse, but on 1st & 10 from the Greenwood 48, the Rangers ran an option right, handed the ball to the fullback, and the fullback broke through the Bronco line and outran the Sonora secondary for a 52-yard score. The big play had struck again, and the Broncos were behind 14-6 with 1:55 remaining in the 1st quarter.

Sonora's next drive was a short one. Morley was stopped for a short gain on 1st & 10, an incomplete pass followed, and Morley was stopped again on a draw play on 3rd down. Massey's punt to Greenwood was fielded and returned to the Greenwood 31, where the runner was tackled by Casey Fitzgerald and Davis Hale.

Greenwood embarked on its most impressive drive of the night after the Sonora punt. The drive, which took 5:33 off the clock as the 2nd quarter began, was impressive in its inevitability; the Rangers just marched down the field methodically grabbing chunks of yardage from a scrambling Bronco defense. Despite the best defensive efforts of Trini Banda, Josh Burnham, Raymond Hubble, Shane Deel, Caleb Barker, Pool, and Morley, all of whom played well during the drive, the Ranger wishbone moved smoothly down the field and garnered 5 first downs and a touchdown with 6:27 remaining in the half. The Broncos held tough even at the goal line, forcing Greenwood to a 3rd & goal situation at the Sonora one yard line, but the Rangers punched the ball in and made the score 21-6.

Sonora's next drive began at the Sonora 15, and the Broncos, behind tough running by Vara, Justin House, and Morley, earned two first downs before having a pass intercepted at the Greenwood 30 yard line with 3:44 left in the 1st half.

Greenwood took quick advantage of this turnover. The Rangers harassed an already-tired Bronco defense down the field in rapid fashion; Bronco defenders, particularly Pool, Casey Fitzgerald, Cody Gann, and Gabriel Perez, played hard during the Ranger drive, but with :28 left in the 2nd quarter the Rangers ran an option right play into the Bronco end zone, making the score 27-6 as the first half drew to a close.

TEN YEARS WITH THE JONESES

by Carole Thorp

Long, Long ago in 1984
We'd moved to Austin, but returned once more
To visit our family up on Thorp's Hill
Where we met Monte Jones, I remember it still

He was wearing a collar so I knew he was a priest
But then my eyes fell down upon his feet
I knew he'd be different, because, well shoot
He was the first priest I'd met to wear cowboy boots!

He had big plans for St. John's family
I knew he would need lots of prayer from me!
He planned on singing and passing the peace
For old St. John's this would be a new lease.

Two years later we returned to our home
Within a few weeks we knew his resolve did not roam
While attending the service I could scarce look askance
Was that truly the sound of Gregorian chants?!

And over at the organ Virginia played for us
The sweet hymns of Jesus and many a chorus
They've baptized us, buried us, taught us and praised us
Sometimes I think they've pretty much raised us!

In good times and bad times, happy and sad
Monte and Virginia have been the best friends we've had
So now, ten years later, in 1994
May God Bless You Both and please give us ten more!

Fifteen students, three instructors and many family members and friends traveled to Abilene Saturday, October 22, 1994 for Okemdo Karate Club team members' very first tournament.

This trip would not have been possible without the help from some of Sonora's finest businesses. Children who would otherwise been unable to attend had the opportunity to do so. And we were able to provide some of the needed equipment for the children to compete.

Our deepest appreciation and gratitude goes to Bronco Sports, Louis Dreyfus Natural Gas, Creek Swabbing and Roustabouts, Haliburton, Location Builders, and Food Center. You helped our grassroots organization accomplish and important goal and boosted our confidence with your support. Better than that, you helped us to fulfill a wish of 15 hardworking and dedicated children. Thank you for helping keep kids off the streets.

WWII Veteran, L.P. Bloodworth, Jr.

On July 1, 1942, L.P. Bloodworth enlisted in the United States Army Air Force at Fort Bliss, Texas and after swearing in was assigned a delayed reporting status.

L.P. reported for duty at Ft. Bliss, Texas on February 2, 1943 after working for Robert E. McKee at Bastrop, Texas on the Army base located there from July 1, 1942 to February 2, 1943. He also stayed with his Aunt and Uncle, Willie B. and Della Whitehead. After being called to active duty, he was assigned to Santa Ana Army Air Base, California for classification and preflight training. He was then assigned to navigator training and was sent to Las Vegas Army Air Base, Nevada for aerial Gunnery Training.

In April 1943 L.P. Bloodworth was sent to Mather Field, Sacramento, California for Navigation School. Sometime around September of 1943, they decided to move the entire school to Ellington Field, Houston, Texas. L.P. was cadet colonel in charge of seeing that the 1000 plus cadets were delivered to Houston, Texas. The entire school, all equipment, supplies, desks, etc., were put on a troop train and headed for Texas. It took a week to make the trip as they were routed on land grant railroads and crossed Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas, and Louisiana to Texas.

On December 4, 1943, L.P. Bloodworth graduated from Navigation School with the Scholastic award for his class #43-17. He was assigned to Instructors School at Selman Field, Monroe, Louisiana, under protest. He did not want to be an instructor but was told that all scholastic winners, as were the top 5% of each class, were sent to teach. L.P. only had one way out, not completing Instructors Training. After one month of not passing a single exam, L.P. was released and returned to Houston.

On January of 1944 L.P. was assigned to Roswell Army Air Base for Bombardier Training. In June of 1944 he was assigned to Columbia Air Base, South Carolina to be put on a crew and train in B-25's.

L.P. Bloodworth, Jr. received orders to go overseas in October of 1944 and wound up in the Assam Valley of India assigned to the 490th Med. Bomb Squadron that was having such great success in destroying bridges in Burma and disrupting Japanese supplies and transportation.

In November of 1944, L.P. and his squadron were moved to Warazup, Burma and they accelerated their fight against the Japanese. They completely destroyed their transportation system in Burma and the enemy was forced to retreat as no supplies could reach their troops. For this job his Squadron became quite famous among the Far East military and was given the name of The Burma Bridge Busters and that name has stuck until this day in the war records. They received a Unit Presidential Citation for this job well done.

In April 1945 after the Japanese fell in Burma, his group was sent to Northern China to assist the Chinese and were also very successful in that country.

After 55 combat missions, L.P. received his orders to return to the States. Most of his bombing was done at low level, job well done.

TRICK OR TREAT

GIVE ME SOMETHING GOOD TO EAT!

submitted

Parents can scare up an array of nutritious treats worth 'goblin' this Halloween, says a nutritionist at the USDA's Children's Nutrition Research Center.

Dr. Corinne Montandon, an assistant professor of pediatrics at Baylor College of Medicine, offers the following ideas:

- Small boxes or packets of nuts or raisins or dried fruit/granola mix
- Single-serve sized cartons of 100 percent juice
- String cheese or other small low-fat cheese packages
- Packages of low-fat crackers with either peanut butter or cheese filling
- Sticks of sugarless gum
- Small containers of puddings that require no refrigeration
- Single-serve boxes of dry cereal
- Packaged fruit rolls
- Single-serve packets of low-fat popcorn that can be microwaved later
- Commercially baked and individually wrapped muffins

Coins, stickers, trading cards, movie coupons, coloring booklets, neon shoelaces, crayons, pencils, or plastic snakes and spiders also make great substitutions for sweets, she added.

Before the festivities begin, Montandon encourages parents to establish some "goodie guidelines."

When children return from trick-or-treating, parents should sort through the bags of Halloween handouts.

"Separate treats into perishable and non-perishable portions. Carefully examine each item and discard anything that is not properly wrapped or sealed," she said.

"Let children know that they may not eat all the candy in one night. Place treats in a special bowl and divvy it out throughout the week."

Montandon reminds parents there is no such thing as "bad" foods only bad eating habits.

"Halloween candy as well as other sweets can be a part of children's diets if eaten in moderation," she said.

300 feet and they experienced many casualties and lost planes. During his time with his Squadron, 490th Bomb Squadron, 341 Group, 12th Air Force, they lost 16 aircraft to enemy fire, which is the equivalent to the planes in one squadron.

L.P. Bloodworth, Jr. held the rank of 1st Lt. and was assistant Squadron Intelligence officer. His decorations include the Distinguished Flying Cross, The Air Medal, Presidential Unit Citation, and several commendations for individual achievements. He also held all of the Battle Ribbons assigned to forces in this particular Theatre.

On October 31, 1945, L.P. Bloodworth, Jr. was discharged at Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas and immediately left for McPherson, Kansas to see his young son for the very first time.

Door prizes valued at over $25,000 including guns, electronics and fishing/hunting equipment will be given away during the evening. Tickets are $1.00 each and can be purchased in advance at the Sonora Chamber office. You do not need to be present to win!

To top the evening off, a hunter's ball will begin at 9:00 p.m. with the T. Hooker Band providing the music. Admission to the dance will be $5.00 per person.

JUVENILE JUSTICE HANDBOOK RELEASED

submitted

The 1994 Municipal Advisory Committee under Texas Attorney General Dan Morales, has recently issued Juvenile Justice Handbook for Cities: How the System Works and Resources for Texas Cities to Combat Juvenile Crime. The handbook will help local officials wade through and understand the complicated juvenile justice system, which is experiencing enormous growing pains as the juvenile crime rate explodes.

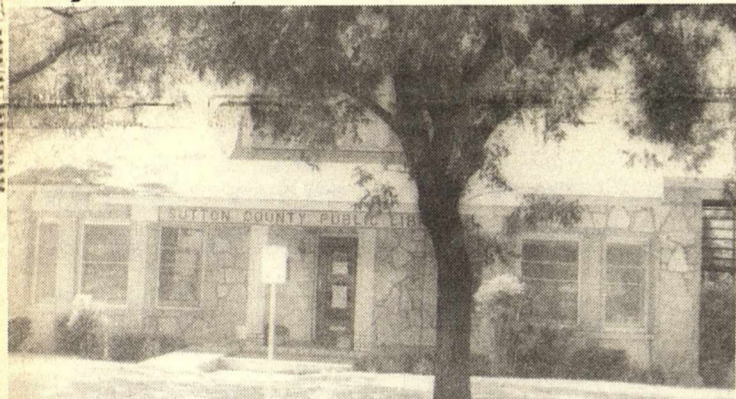

"As front-line warriors in the fight against juvenile crime, local governments need to be aware of what resources they can tap in order to put a lid on crimes by youth," Morales said. "Unfortunately, the tangled web of the system leaves some communities in the dark and unable to take advantage of all the programs at their disposal."

"Although overall crime rates in Texas are on the decline, there is one group that is becoming more adept at creating victims: our youth," Morales said. "Throwing rocks at windows and stealing candy are no longer the worst crimes committed by our youth. Today, teenagers are engaging in the most heinous of crimes, including capital murder."

"Undoubtedly, the Legislature will upgrade an outmoded and outdated juvenile justice system when it convenes in January. But in the meantime, local officials need to know all they can about how to address juvenile crime. With this report, we have taken steps to do that."

COMMISSIONERS READ LETTER

The Sutton County Commissioner's Court met in regular session Monday, October 24, 1994. A letter was read on the behalf of the Committee on Aging to request the County to assume control of the Senior Center. The letter was signed by eleven committee members.

The commissioners agreed to advertise for a general contractor for the construction of the new Sutton County Public Library. Bids will be opened Thursday, November 30, 1994 and will be accepted in December. The ground breaking for the new building is scheduled for December 12, 1994. The commissioners also agreed to relet bids for the sale of the current building that houses the library.

Others items the court approved were to advertise for bids for a new vehicle for the Sheriff's office and name a currently unnamed street in Sinaloa to Martinez Street.

Thomas Hunt and Casey Thorp are pictured as they lead the Sonora High School Marching Band into competition at Brady Stadium last Saturday. The band received a division 2 rating.

ROWLAND TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

submitted

Melett Rowland, Main Street Manager, will attend the 12th Annual Downtown Revitalization conference. "A Livable Downtown" is the theme of the conference and is sponsored by the Texas Historical Commission and the Texas Downtown Association.

Scheduled for November 2-4, 1994 at the historic Hotel Galvez in Galveston, the conference will showcase the unique experience of living in commercial districts. Galveston, with over 200 residential units at 100% occupancy, is the ideal laboratory for exploring the myriad of elements that make a downtown livable.

The conference theme appears throughout the conference sessions entitled "Living Together: Compatible Zoning for Neighborhoods and Downtowns", "Navigating Downtown: Way finding and Information Systems", and "Downtown: A Learning Center of the 90s". Other highlights include a mobile workshop tour of Postoffice Street, a residential/commercial neighborhood in progress, and a special workshop on Community Initiated Planning.

Special guest Lyda Ann Quinn Thomas, chair of the Harris and Eliza Kempner Fund, will tell the Galveston revitalization story at a keynote address November 3. That evening the "Toot Your Own Horn" awards banquet will honor the best downtown programs, projects and people of the year.

Participants will have the opportunity to capture the flavor of Galveston with and opening "Island Odyssey" progressive diner/tour November 2. The famous Galveston trolley will transport revelers to the Seaport Museum, the tall ship Elissa, dinner on the Strand at Nash's and dessert at the Galveston County Historical Museum.

Conference topics are targeted for downtown managers, downtown associations, chambers of commerce, building/business owners, city officials and city staff.

The Texas Downtown Association (TDA) is a non-profit organization designed to encourage the development, redevelopment and improvement of downtown areas throughout the state. Open to downtown organizations, neighborhood groups, governmental entities and individuals, the association provides a forum for members to exchange information about common experiences, needs, problems, and solutions.

"We are all so very proud of our students and our schools", noted Mayor Lopez in presenting the awards. "Every student that participated should be proud of themselves. Recycling is a part of being a good citizen, and these boys and girls can serve as a good example for us all."

A total of 5289 cans were collected by intermediate school students during Steel Can Recycling Month, the Mayor also noted. He went on to voice the hope that the students will continue to recycle, and help others to get into the recycling habit.

COLTS TIE GRAPE CREEK EAGLES

submitted by 8th grade coaching staff

The 8th grade Colts football team played a tough game for four quarters that ended in a tie, 6-6. The colts scored first in the opening drive of the second half. Tanner Fields went in for the touchdown on a quarterback bootleg. The excellent running of Anthony Renfro, Lupe Ramon and Zach Kerbow, behind good offensive line blocking, enabled the Colts to get in scoring position.

In the fourth quarter, the Eagles scored on a 1 yard run with one minute to go in the game. With the score tied and less than a minute to go the Colts moved the ball into Eagle territory before running out of time. The next to last play for the Colts was a pass to Breg Hughes from Tanner Fields.

Defensive big plays were made by Demetrio Castro - interception and Breg Hughes - interception.

Valliant Effort

by Marti McLain

Slow progress, but progress is the report from Joe Lane. He is in a regular room now and has a tilt bed that gives him some comfort in breathing. Anita finally has a room at the hospital and is staying with him almost around the clock.

Bobbie Thompson is now in re-hab and having good days and bad. It seems that she is still having problems eating. Her dread is that she will have to be fed by tubes again.

Kerbows, Jack and Gloria, have been to Pampa visiting Kay.

Great news from Linda Love! She has been released by her doctor. All treatment is finished. Next check-up will be in Dec.

The Masquerade Ball Sat. night was a wonderful success for the Tarantellas Club. Hosts were the Love's, Bishop's, Cahill's, Burnham's, Honey Hicks, and Edwina Friess. Decorations included bouquets of helium filled balloons in pots on the tables and masks were everywhere. Most people costumed, and lottery tickets were given as prizes. Chicken McMillan was the first lottery winner with a $40 win. Costumes were varied and imaginative. Most were unable to identify the Gibbs, Nolan and Ruth; they were dressed as Anthony and Cleopatra with black wigs and togas. Honey Hicks really glittered in her "has-been" country Western singer outfit Talk about "fringe benefits"; she really had them. Mattie Nix won a prize for glamour in her wonderful Southern Belle garb. Linda Johnson made you want to stand up and cheer in her Statue of Liberty outfit. It must have been frightening for some to see "the banker" dressed as Count Dracula. First, he takes your money, and now he wants your blood. Right, Mike? Rita Hale and Ben Poole were an unexpected duo as a "working girl" and her "promoter". Lenora was a witch complete with Halloween socks. Hiding behind Blues Brother's costumes with awesome dark glasses were Claire and Allen. Pirates Cleve T. and Lola Beth were a swashbuckling pair. Cheerleader Leona Bishop was awash in Texas Tech gear. Did you hear the band member ask? What is Texas Tech? Is that a high school or a college? If certain people heard him, his band will not be invited back. Jimmy Cahill, as a hunter, left a trail of twigs and leaves on the dance floor as he swung Ruthie around in her authentic poodle skirt. Richard (Kelly) Simmons(Cahill) was an enthusiastic aerobics instructor, offering to work the flab off of anyone who needed it. Compared to Kelly, who doesn't need it? All reports indicate that this was one of the best-ever parties. Sonora does know how to play.

Vicki Shannon's "boys", Charlie, Matt, and Savell had three days of fishing on Lake Amistad. The guys caught fish, and Vicki caught up on projects at home.

Martha Miers and Marie Alwell are back from a cruise that included Northern Europe, Scandinavian countries, and stops in Russia. I'll bet they are already planning their next jaunt.

The fall festival DOWNTOWN was a great success with much credit going to Melett Rowland and the cooperation of both the school and the downtowners. Everyone loved getting back to Main Street, as we did it in the "good old days". Did the seniors really sell 500+ hamburgers? It's hard to believe.

Sonora is sending agricultural ambassadors around the world. Deckie Spiller is in Mexico working in agriculture and becoming fluent in Spanish. He is having quite an adventure. Another of our guys, Steve Love, is leaving next Tues. for his adventure. He will begin his 18 hour trip to Australia where he will be working at a sheep station.

He'll have a visa good for six months, but it will allow him to renew it for up to four years. He is already learning the language. When he asked about a place to stay, he was told that at first he could stay with the other "studs". Here, that would mean a lot of horse manure. Who knows what it means over there? What good representatives we are sending to foreign countries.

Carol Love had bridge club at the ranch Mon. night. Guests were Alice Cox and Celeste Prugel. She had great food and Halloween prizes that said "Boo".

We miss Thomas Adkins at the grocery store, but all indications are that he likes his new job. He is an area manager for Shot's stores. He is still in Sonora often, so we haven't lost him completely.

In the "you might like to read", category, the new autobiography of Barbara Bush is really terrific. I guess that many VIP's are really just ordinary people. The book makes George and Barbara very interesting and very real. One story that she tells took place the very first Sunday after she, George, and the children had moved to Washington D. C. She was determined to start off right in a new place, so on Sunday morning, she rose early, got all of the children dressed and ready for their first day in church. Everyone got in the car, and they headed to church. Unfortunately, they had only visited D. C. and did not know their way around. They drove and drove and drove, all dressed and ready, but they could not find the church. It sounds like a problem any American family might have in a new town. This is a book that is worth your time. It gives you many smiles and good warm feelings.

The new authorized biography of Prince Charles is to be out this week. I will probably read it, but I plan not to like it. Previewers say that he tells all about his affairs with Camilla Parker-Bowles. I wonder if anyone knows how Camilla's husband is taking all of this. Someone said that he is such a patriot that he might possibly be quoted as saying, "I regret that I have but one "wife" to give for my country."

SENIOR CENTER CRAFT CLASSES

Olie Longoria, with the assistance of Teresa Zurita, from the Craft Cottage are conducting a craft class at the Senior Center. The classes are held every Thursday after lunch. "We really enjoy doing this and look forward to the next project. It's a lot of fun," they said.

Ladies participating in the craft class are Eulojia Flores, Maria Domequez, Elosia Gamez, Rosario Ibarra, Ellen de Pugh, Maria Allen, Dottie Arnold, Angelita Trevino, Lupe Mendez, Pauline Ringgold, Mary Lou Gilly, Rosa Galindo, Aurora Cardenas, and Kathaleen Moore.

A Halloween party will take place Monday, October 31, 1994 from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. The Busy Bee Day Care children will perform the program. Kelly Lewis will make her bewitching punch. Everyone is invited to attend.

A new Christmas craft class starts November 1, 1994. JoAnn Pope will show how to paint and decorate ornaments for Christmas trees.

The Committee on Aging will sponsor a Mexican Dinner Sunday, November 6, 1994 from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the Senior Center. A $5.00 donation per plate will be received to benefit the Senior Center. To go plates will also be available.

Juanita Mesa said she would like to see more people come in to see what is new at the Senior Center. She will also accept any suggestions on new ideas. Go by 106 Wilson 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday or call 387-5657 or 387-3941.

The Rangers opened the second half on offense, and after a personal foul penalty against the Broncos moved the ball to the Sonora 47, the Rangers got back to running the option; solid tackles by Deel, Morley, Barker and Pool put the Rangers in a 4th & 1 situation. The game could have hinged on this play; had Sonora been able to stop Greenwood here, the Broncos could have shifted momentum, but that was not to be. Greenwood broke through for a first down, and the following series of downs went to fourth down again, this time 4th & 7 at the Bronco 32. The Broncos rushed hard, but Greenwood's quarterback was able to complete the pass for a touchdown, making the score 34-6 with only 3:56 gone in the 3rd quarter.

Sonora's first drive of the second half started well. Vara and Morley ran hard and well, but a loss on a counter play to House and an incomplete pass left the Broncos in 4th & 11 at the Sonora 47, and Massey was again forced to punt. Greenwood, starting at its own 8 yard line, appeared to be losing intensity a bit, but on 1st & 5 the Greenwood halfback broke through the Bronco line and rambled to the Sonora 36, where only a saving tackle by Andy Mirike saved another Greenwood touchdown. The following series, the Broncos held the Rangers after pushing them to 4th & 2; Morley made a solid tackle on the Ranger 4th down play to stop the Ranger drive. Stopping the Rangers gave the Broncos momentum, and their next drive was what Bronco fans had been waiting for all night.

Starting from the Sonora 28, the Broncos drove the field on the Rangers on a drive that extended through the third period and into the fourth. Sonora, led by quarterback Caleb Barker, optioned down the field led by strong running by quarterback Barker, Morley, Justin House, and Gilbert Vara. The Broncos were also helped by penalties. On 4th & 6 at the Ranger 21, Greenwood was called for pass interference, and the Broncos were able to convert on a 4th & goal play from the 8 when Barker connected with wide out Davis Hale for the touchdown. With 8:21 remaining in the 4th quarter, the Broncos had cut the lead to 34-14.

The Bronco defense again stopped the Rangers on their next possession. Led by Cody Gann, Jason Morley, Cody Dupree, Levi Pool, and Shane Deel, the Broncos forced the Rangers into their first punt of the evening with 7:00 to go in the 4th quarter.

The Broncos started what looked to be another promising drive at their own 37, but after driving to the Greenwood 17 the Broncos fumbled, and the fumble was recovered by Greenwood. The Rangers were unable to score on their next possession, but the time they were able to run from the clock left the Broncos with not nearly enough time to pull out a win. Sonora got the ball back with 1:28 remaining in the game. The Broncos were able to score again on this possession, as Justin House caught a pass behind the Ranger secondary and ran it in for the final score of the night. The score at the end of the ball game read Greenwood 34, Sonora 21.

The Broncos' next game is in Sonora Friday night at 7:30 against an always-tough Reagan County Owls team. The Broncos, now saddled with their first district loss, need to get back to winning this week against Reagan County. Come out to Bronco Stadium and cheer the Broncos on to victory in their last home game of the season.

KIDS INC. - OKEMDO KARATE COMPETE IN ABILENE

by Marla Duplantis

Kids, Inc. - Okemdo Karate held a parent meeting Monday, October 17, 1994. The parents of the students were invited to attend to discuss recent changes and upcoming events for Okemdo Karate Club and Kids, Inc.

A fund raising bake sale at Food Center is scheduled for Friday, October 28, 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. and Saturday, October 29 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The club will hold a fund raising car wash in the Pizza Hut parking lot Saturday, October 29 from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. If you can bake or help out with the car wash, please Marla at 387-5566. All money raised will be used to buy much needed equipment. Also, a talent contest to benefit Kids, Inc. will be held December 19, 1994.

The departure of one of the original instructors was explained and replacement instructors were identified. Robert Sherrod, Sr. will remain SIFU, Robert Sherrod, Jr. will now be addressed as SIBOK, and Kevin Duplantis was named Instructor. The team medic will remain as is, Marla Duplantis.

The club traveled to Abilene Saturday, October 22, 1994. Fifteen students, three instructors and numerous relatives formed a seven vehicle caravan to Abilene. This was the very first tournament for the club. There were two categories in competition; Kata (forms) and Kumite (fighting). Sifu Robert Sherrod, Sr. was elected lead judge of competition. Assistant Instructor, Kevin Duplantis, received first place for fighting in the 18-35 year old, light weight category. Kevin also took fourth place in the men's Kata forms. Assistant Instructor, Robert Sherrod, Jr. received first place for fighting in the 17-18 year old category. Daniel Ramirez received third place in his division in the fighting category. Felecia Rivera received second place in the girls 12 & 13 year olds. Felecia also took fourth in the girls Kata forms.

The tournament was a true learning experience. Competing allowed us to measure our needs and identify our assets. We can now set progressive goals and understand what we must do to reach them. We will be holding several fund raisers soon to provide our team with the appropriate amount of protective gear, tournament style uniforms, and other equipment.

Sonora would have been proud. Out of all the teams present, ours was the most well behaved group. What a sight to see fifteen children of various ages meditate together, chanting "I am somebody", over and over. These children showed great courage and determination. Subscribing to the A-team theory, they know that alone they can do - anything, but together they can do EVERYTHING!

This is just our first accomplishment of many goals we have set, in the attempt to keep kids off the streets.

JUNIOR EWE LAMB SHOW RESULTS

submitted

The Sutton County Junior Ewe Lamb Show was held Saturday, October 15, 1994. The Champion pair of ewe lambs were exhibited by Jason Jacoby, son of Mr. & Mrs. Scott Jacoby and the Reserve Champion pair was exhibited David Fisher, son of Mr. & Mrs. Glen Fisher. According to county extension agent Preston Faris "this contest is probably the most practical and certainly the most educational of all of the competitive livestock events which are a part of the show." The lambs are fed from mid June until the show. Staple length of the fleece is measured on the sheep. The pair is then shorn and the fleeces are weighed and the sheep are weighed. The fleeces are placed in pairs and the sheep are judged and placed in pairs. The final placing is based on the objective measurements and the subjective placing with a weighted formula. Other winners in the show were 3rd, Jason Morley; 4th, Justin Morley; 5th, Angela Mayfield; 6th, Tom Jacoby; 7th, Sarah Ball; 8th, Walker Wallace; 9th, John Jones; 10th, Shawna Faris; and 11th, Brandon Faris. The show was judged by Ross Stultz from Angelo State University.

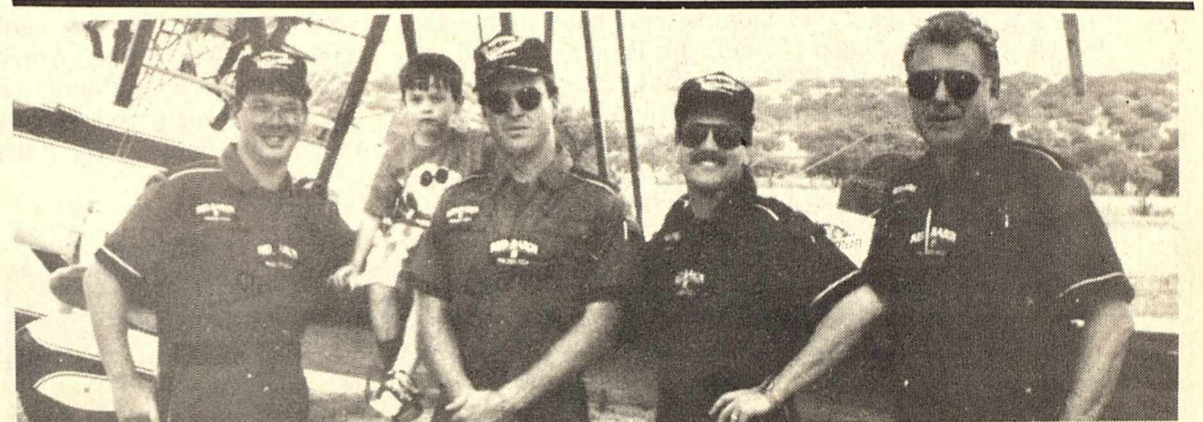

SONORANS SHOW SUPPORT FOR PROPERTY RIGHTS

submitted

The local chapter of the Independent Cattlemen's Association held a special meeting Wednesday, October 19, 1994 at the Sutton County Steak House to discuss private property rights. Guest speaker was Charles Carter, Legislative Director of the Texas Independent Cattlemen's Association. Members and guests present were, Susan Brown, Administrative Director of Texas Independent Cattlemen's Association, local chairman, Johnston and Gina Holekamp, Ruth Espy, Martha and George Wallace, Florence Rieck, Virginia Epps, Mike Keller, Bill Whitehead, Arett Wiremann, Rosie Jones, Troy and Estelle Williams and Linda Johnson.

Mr. Carter stated that Texas has a rich heritage in its land and that almost every Texan realizes how important it is to protect the land's resources, and as important, the right of the individual to own and manage property. He further stated that Texas land is 97% privately owned, and the only state that the Federal Government does not own 40% or more of the land. Our freedom on our land is taken, in large part or small part, when government agencies and bureaucrats announce through regulations how we must restrict use of our land.

Therefore he stated that this election year Property rights was becoming a major issue and that everyone was getting on the band wagon. He encouraged everyone to vote for the candidates who will protect our property rights. Each of the candidates listed below have made their stand loud and clear on the side of landowners. Endorsements for the November 8 election by "Farmers and Ranchers for Property Rights" include the following: Kay Bailey Hutchinson, U.S. Senate; George W. Bush, Governor; Bob Bullock, Lt. Governor; John Sharp, Comptroller; Marta Greytok, Land Commissioner; Rick Perry, Agriculture Commissioner; Raul Gonzales, Texas Supreme Court, Place 1; Nathan Hecht, Texas Supreme Court, Place 2; Pricilla Owen, Texas Supreme Court, Place 3.
