WHITTLIN'

BY DOLPH MOTEN

If you don't get a cold out of this week's snow, you didn't get out in it enough.

Finally, Texas' senior Senator, Lyndon B. Johnson, has started running for Democratic presidential nomination earnestly. We're glad he is. Glad, too, that he's moved outside of Texas to do his speech-making. We think it'll be of more value to his cause, to campaign in other parts of the country.

If he can't carry Texas, he doesn't have much chance, anyway.

We don't hold much stock in the belief, which everyone has heard many times: "A Texan doesn't have a chance for the Presidency." Reason for this belief in the first place is that Texas will vote for the Democratic candidate whoever he is. Therefore, the nominee needs to come from a state which might cast its electoral votes either way.

No longer is Texas a cinch to vote Democratic. Take the past two presidential elections, for instance. That might even lead the casual observer to think that we're a pack of Republicans.

Still, surely this state would vote for its most popular politician for President -- just as most other states would; whatever ticket he was running on. Certainly, we feel that Johnson is qualified to be Top Man in US government. Probably, he has more political savvy than any of the other hopefuls. Should he be elected President, that would be to his -- and to the country's -- advantage.

Still, we don't understand why he denied being a candidate as long as he did. But, of course, he's the candidate -- while we're just filling up space writing about his actions. And do you know -- or have you realized -- that if Johnson is elected, E. T. Benson will no longer be Secretary of Agriculture?

That's a pleasant thought. It's our understanding that some Republican leaders have asked ETB to resign because: 1. He's sick and 2. He has turned several Republican farmers in the Mid-West against the party.

He won't do it, though. Wants to stay in office as long as possible and continue to carry out his farmer-breaking policies. You have to admire him for his stickability... oh, shucks, you don't have to admire him for anything if you don't want to.

Governor Price Daniel, who has as his platform, according to critics, being for motherhood and against sin, has been doing what we consider a good job with highway safety in the state.

One of Daniel's big goals is to cut down on traffic deaths. And he's shown progress in this endeavor since he's been in office.

Last year, for instance, 95 was the predicted number of traffic deaths during Christmas - New Year's. A Daniel-sponsored program cut the actual total to 63.

This year, the predicted traffic death figure is 111. Daniel, with the same program, hopes to keep the number below that estimated figure.

Possibly he will, too. We think people are becoming constantly more traffic accident conscious. Fewer people lost their lives in traffic deaths at Christmas than in any year since 1945. That's a good record. We hope it will continue through this holiday season.

Next week's issue of the Blade is scheduled to be out a couple of days early. We'll make it, too, if everything holds together and Our Gal Friday doesn't become too sentimental over the approaching holiday. (See closing paragraphs on Wandering With Waneen on an inside page.)

Last week, L. M. Grissom brought us a page from U. S. News and World Report. The page was adorned with an article titled, "If Government Gets Out

Snow!

Winter brought its most icy-fingered blast to the heart of Parmer County Monday.

Snow, totaling four inches, fell Monday and Monday night. Traffic was slowed, but not stopped, by the snow. Highway department, working with maintainers, kept snow off streets and highways so that travel was possible, but dangerous. Because of snow on rural roads, school was not held Tuesday.

Brightest outlook from the snow standpoint was by wheat farmers. It was ideal for the young crop from a moisture standpoint. Many farmers who were watering wheat stopped while others who were scheduled to begin watering soon postponed starting of irrigation motors.

SNOW MOVER -- This highway department maintainer was aiding in moving snow from streets and highways Tuesday morning. It's shown here going south on Third Street.

Santa's A'Coming

Visit Set Saturday At 3:30

Santa Claus is coming to Bovina.

The jolly old gentleman will be here Saturday at 3:30 p. m.

He'll arrive in town atop a float and will distribute bags of candy and visit with youngsters.

Santa's visit is being arranged by Bovina Lions.

In addition to Santa, Bovina Mustang band will play -- downtown -- during his visit.

Members of the committee are Tommy Bonds, Bud Crump and Warren Morton.

Case Firm Schedules Festivities

Tom and John Hartwell, co-owners of the firm, say the open house celebration will include a drawing at 5 p. m. Door prizes for men and women will be given.

In addition to the new equipment display, an entertainment program is planned including a movie. Free coffee and donuts will be served.

AT J. D. KIRKPATRICK'S -

Butane Blast Starts Damaging Home Fire

A butane explosion in the bathroom set off a roaring blaze that heavily damaged the J. D. Kirkpatrick home east of Bovina Friday at noon.

Kirkpatrick and his wife both suffered minor burns. Neither required hospitalization.

Butane was being used to clear obstructions from the water lines into the bathroom when a bathroom heater set off the explosion. Kirkpatrick and his pre-school age son Randy had gone into the room to check on the water line operation.

When butane started spurting from the pipe, young Kirkpatrick ran from the room just as the explosion created a fiery barricade where the bathroom door had been.

Kirkpatrick had to go through the flames to escape the inferno. He was burned about the face.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick was burned when she went through the flames thinking Randy might still be trapped in the burning room.

The fire was extinguished soon after volunteer firemen from Bovina arrived. Fire Chief Otho Hammonds said if the firemen

Brewer Tries One Case

While District court hummed along busily, things were pretty slack in Judge Loyde Brewer's Court the past week. He heard one case Monday morning.

Samuel C. Folkes was charged with driving while intoxicated. He was arrested between Farwell and Lariat Saturday night by the Highway Patrol.

The 54-year-old man was headed toward his home south of Lariat, where he is a farm laborer. He was driving alone at the time.

Folkes pled guilty and was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail by Judge Brewer.

Burnam In Korea

KOREA -- Army M/Sgt. Carl A. Burnam, 36, son of Mrs. Fanny Burnam of Bovina recently arrived in Korea and is now a member of the Korean Military Advisory Group.

Sgt. Burnam, a movement specialist, was last stationed at Fort Ord, Calif.

Burnam entered the Army in September 1942.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dodson had as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Gayland Williams, Mrs. Vessie Lee Hicks, Miss Cindy Williams, and Antoine Kubi-chuke of Lubbock, and Mrs. C. E. Strawn of Littlefield.

R. T. Harbour To Hospital

R. T. Harbour, who received a knee injury while working with cattle recently, will enter Veterans Administration Hospital in Amarillo this week for an operation on the knee.

Harbour is expected to be in the hospital for 30 days. Prior to departing for the hospital, he asked The Blade to tell his friends, "Merry Christmas" and that he would see them next month.

Mustangs Take Second At Hart

The Bovina Mustangs brought back a second-place trophy from the Hart tournament last week. The Fillies dropped a one-point decision to Nazareth in the consolation finals.

Roger Ezell and Bill Strawn of the Mustangs were named to the All-Tournament team. Brenda Jones was the lone Fillie picked for the honor.

The Ponies barely squeezed past Adrian in the first round with a 45-44 win. They had an easier time in the first round and beat Spade Saturday before losing to Nazareth.

This week, basketball activity began with a tilt in Williford Gym with Friona's teams. Friday night the boys "A" and "B" teams meet Farwell, also a home game.

Look Santa ... We Were Good

Maybe Bovinans were trying to impress Santa Claus during November or maybe it's something in the water. Henry Minter would like you to think it's good law enforcement.

Whatever it is, it worked wonders ... only one person paid a fine in November.

And that infraction wasn't really dangerous one -- only a farmer pulling two cotton trailers behind one vehicle.

Usually Justice of the Peace W. J. Parker reports about a dozen fines paid in his court per month. Sometimes the total is higher.

But already Minter's prediction that November was the calm before the storm appears to be coming true. One fine has already been paid in December.

The lone November fine was paid by Aubry Lee Rhodes for drawing more than one trailer behind a vehicle. He paid a $16.50 fine on Nov. 23.

James Delbert Barlow failed to grant right of way at an intersection and paid a $16.50 fine on Dec. 4.

Relax you evil spirits; Bovinans are human and will go astray again, probably just as frequently as in the past.

Stallions Nab Win

Bovina's free-jance basketballers, who recently acquired the name Stallions, evened their season at 2-2 Thursday night with a 62-50 win over Friona.

Erith Hawkins pumped in 19 points to lead Stallion scorers. Other players scoring double figures for the Bovinans were Jerry Strawn, 15 and Neil Smith 14.

Bobby Calloway, six points, Leon Richards, two, and Bill Johnston, 5, rounded out the scoring.

The next game will be Wednesday night with Springlake in Williford Gym at 7:30.

Farwell Drops Battling Ponies

The Bovina Mustangs spotted Farwell to a big lead, then battled to within five points of a tie before dropping a 37-46 decision last Tuesday night.

Farwell jumped to a 6-0 lead early in the game, but the Ponies came battling back and trailed 8-6 at the quarter.

The Steers doubled the Mustangs in the second period, piling up a 24-12 lead at half-time.

Each team scored 9 points in the third period, but Bovina netted 16 in the final quarter while Farwell could manage only 13.

The Mustangs reared up for a desperate rally in the closing minutes and fought to within five points of Farwell. With less than a minute to go, the score was 42-37 but the Steers forged a nine-point lead by the game's finish.

Benjy Dial led scorers with 15 points. Bill Strawn was the game's second high scorer with 12. Tommy Williams chipped in 11 for Farwell and Jon Lin Riddle tallied nine for Bovina.

Stallions Win From Clovis

Bovina's Stallions, outsiders' basketball team, took a Monday night, 56-48 victory from M&M Sporting Goods of Clovis.

The team plays Springlake here at 8 p. m. tonight (Wednesday). There will be no admission charge and everyone is invited to attend, Jerry Rogers, team spokesman, says.

The Southwest has as much interest in college basketball as any other area of the country but it has been quite a while since a team from this area gained much national recognition.

No team from the Southwest Conference was named among the top 20 chosen as this cage season began. It is doubtful any team from this area will make the rankings this season.

The reason for the Southwest lagging in basket standing is difficult to understand. In Texas, it may be partly caused by too much emphasis on football in high schools.

Texas-grown footballers have a much better chance of making a professional team than do cagers from Texas.

SMU is a good bet to pick up the SWC crown this year. Only the tragic death of Bobby James last winter, mars Coach Doc Hayes' outlook.

The Ponies have THE little man, Max Williams, and Steve Strange and Wilbur Marsh back to build their team around.

Across the way, the Arkansas Razorbacks are in the next best position with their fine sophomore crop a little more experienced than last year. Ronnie Garner, Clyde Rhoden and Pat Foster, the best soph in the conference last year, should go well with veteran Tommy Rankin.

The Aggies may challenge these two but any real threat by the other four teams will be a surprise.

The defending champion golf team of Coach Jay McClure will begin serious practice for defense of its crown shortly after the first of January.

Only one tested veteran from last year's champions is back this year. Gone are Don Kaplan, John Farquhar and John Paul Cain. Cris Blocker and a crop of enthusiastic juniors and sophomores will try to keep the championship at Tech.

The golfers have been playing at Meadowbrook Country Club, where their home matches are staged. After the Christmas vacation, regular practice will get under way. McClure is high on his new group and with the experienced Blocker, might be able to fashion another winner this season.

The Cotton Bowl game January 1, should be the game of the year. Syracuse was rated first in the final national poll and the Texas Longhorns earned the fourth spot.

The Steers have compiled an impressive record of coming from behind to win games. In the last two years, they have won eight such games.

The most recent and perhaps most memorable was the 20-17 win they took from the Texas Aggies on Thanksgiving Day. It isn't surprising to the Longhorns to be trailing their opponents during the game. The surprising thing to them is to find themselves trailing when the final gun sounds.

The athletic director at Yale disclosed that coaches at that school get what amounts to lifetime appointments.

It's hard to see how a school can afford to operate under such a program. Most coaches have about as much security as a tight rope artist but this has generally been accepted as part of the job.

The old method of "produce or go" is still the best. Let men like Bud Wilkinson and Darrell Royal build security on successes.

Johnnie was visiting his uncle's farm, and among the animals was a young colt. The boy gazed at him long and earnestly.

"What do you think of him?" the uncle inquired.

"Why, he's all right I guess," Johnnie answered.

"But, where's his rockers?"

Isolation might be all right if the rest of the world declines to believe that you mean it.

Of Interest To THE WOMEN Christmas Cantata Presented Sunday

Late Sunday afternoon many were present at Bovina Methodist Church to hear "Chimes of the Holy Night," a cantata by Fred B. Holton. This seasonal presentation was presented by Bovina Methodist Choir under the direction of Mrs. Bedford Caldwell.

Pianist for the group was Mrs. John Wilson, who played "He Shall Feed His Flock" as a prelude to the performance. Singers of the choir entered from the rear of the sanctuary singing the processional, "Joy To The World."

Rev. Davis Edens, pastor of the church, gave the welcome, read the Christmas story from St. Luke 2: 1-20, and led prayer. For their opening number, the full choir sang "Christmas Bells Are Ringing".

Mrs. Jimmie Charles, mezzo-soprano, sang solo part of "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains" with the choir.

"But, Thou, Bethlehem" was sung by women's two-part chorus with Gene Rea singing tenor obligato.

A soprano and alto quartet composed of Janice Leake, Harriette Charles, Verna Marie Estes, and Marilyn Brandon offered "Earth's Weary Waiting Done" with full choir.

"In The Watches of the Night" was rendered by Mrs. Jimmie Charles followed by "Good Tidings", a tenor and bass duet by Mark Charles and Warren Morton.

"Glory to God in the Highest" and "On Earth Peace" were then sung by the full choir. Mark Charles sang bass solo, "Let Us Go Even Unto Bethlehem" with the men's chorus.

Miss Harriette Charles offered "Jesus, Our Lord" as a soprano solo with the women's chorus. Full choir sang "Break Forth Into Joy" followed by "The Star in the Eastern Sky" with Mrs. Davis Edens as soprano soloist.

Final song of this impressive cantata was given by full chorus singing, "The Lord Is Born Today."

Members of the choir include Mrs. Davis Edens, Mrs. E. H. Ware, Mrs. Jimmie Charles, Mrs. George Turner, Mrs. Gene Rea, Mrs. Billie Sudderth, Mrs.

Hilton Terry, Mrs. Don Vance, Miss Janice Leake, and Miss Harriette Charles in the soprano section.

Singing of carols took place after eating. Mrs. Margaret Caldwell and Mrs. Moten provided piano music for the occasion.

Mrs. Billie Sudderth presented a check to the guild from WSCS for their assistance in serving lunch at District conference. Members discussed a memorial for the late Pat Terry.

Wandering with Waneen by Waneen Ragsdale

Let It Snow, Let It Snow, Let It Snow -- those were my sentiments as of Monday afternoon when those beautiful fluffy flakes began to drift lazily over Bovina. Just wish to be able to pop some corn, brew a pot of hot tea, curl up with a good book and really enjoy this spell of weather.

Dear Willie was right again -- he predicted moisture before the next issue of the Blade was out. Wonder how he does it? Thought to myself Monday morning -- it's going to have to hurry if it does according to Willie's prediction... Sure enough...

Had a delightful evening Friday visiting with Betty Hawkins. That gal has more creative energy than most normal human beings -- you know, she might not be human. Just kinda took it for granted.

Anyway, we drank jillions of cups of coffee (couldn't sleep a wink) talked 60 miles a minute, played every musical instrument in the house, ate some of those fancy French candies she makes, and rounded out our evening by flocking her Christmas tree in the garage. We were both curious to see how it would turn out. The results were perfectly beautiful. She had ordered this flocking kit -- and naturally with any new venture -- was eager to see how it worked. We had more fun than people. Guess it is doubtful that we are human.

Betty called this afternoon and asked us to invite everyone to drive out to their place and view their outside scene. You can see the lights from town and shouldn't have any trouble finding the way. We're anxious to see it since it has been completed. Her snowman was leaning against the house Friday night and looked real comical -- like he had already had too much Christmas "cheer."

Margaret Charles dropped by the office Monday afternoon and asked us to bring our girls to her house to peek inside her den picture window to see Santa Claus. Every child in Bovina would enjoy doing the same, and Mrs. Charles will welcome the "peekers," she said.

Mrs. Warren Morton reported to us that WSCS bazaar made a profit of $160 and they certainly appreciated the fine response received.

We know several persons who are anxiously awaiting the arrival of Bill Burnam to Bovina. It was reported by his mother he will leave California after midnight of the 17th. By that measure, those wedding bells can ring soon thereafter. Uncle Sam was the reason for the delay. Wouldn't you say that was inconsiderate?

Words cannot express the heartfelt sympathy everyone feels for the J. D. Kirkpatricks because of fire damage to their home. It is ironic that we talked to Mrs. Kirkpatrick just before noon Friday and made an appointment to photograph their children singing carols at piano for our Christmas edition. Two hours later Otho Hammonds took us there to photograph the fire damage. Their piano and Christmas tree were on the front lawn looking very unphoto-

Christmas Play Follows Luncheon

Ladies of Bovina WSCS met Wednesday at 11:30 for monthly luncheon and business meeting at church parlor. Following noon meal a program and business session was conducted by Mrs. Warren Morton, president.

A Christmas play, written by Mrs. John Dixon, was acted by Jeanette Morton, Paula Vance, Patsy Edens, Frances Willard, and Arlene McCallum.

A group from Fellowship Circle sang Christmas Carols.

Those present were Mmes. Earl Ware, George Turner, Wilbur Charles, L. M. Grissom and Lola, Pat Kunselman, H. L. Ivy, John Dixon, Jimmie Charles, Billie Sudderth, I. W. Quikkel, Vernon Willard, Dean McCallum, Warren Morton, Leon Ware, David Haebler, Don Vance, Mark Charles, Irma Nabors, Jimmie Ware, Frank Hastings, and Davis Edens.

her house to peek inside her den picture window to see Santa Claus. Every child in Bovina would enjoy doing the same, and Mrs. Charles will welcome the "peekers," she said.

Mrs. Warren Morton reported to us that WSCS bazaar made a profit of $160 and they certainly appreciated the fine response received.

We know several persons who are anxiously awaiting the arrival of Bill Burnam to Bovina. It was reported by his mother he will leave California after midnight of the 17th. By that measure, those wedding bells can ring soon thereafter. Uncle Sam was the reason for the delay. Wouldn't you say that was inconsiderate?

Words cannot express the heartfelt sympathy everyone feels for the J. D. Kirkpatricks because of fire damage to their home. It is ironic that we talked to Mrs. Kirkpatrick just before noon Friday and made an appointment to photograph their children singing carols at piano for our Christmas edition. Two hours later Otho Hammonds took us there to photograph the fire damage. Their piano and Christmas tree were on the front lawn looking very unphoto-ship class will take part in dramatizing the nativity scene. Christmas carols will be sung throughout the program.

Also taking parts on program were Mrs. Vernon Willard, and Mrs. David Haebler, who brought the worship.

Mrs. Leon Ware presided over the short business session. Hostess for the meeting was Mrs. Richard Baxter.

City May Buy Street Cleaner

City Commissioners have decided to negotiate for a street sweeper the city tried out last week.

Negotiations will be made with a representative of Plains Machinery Co. in Amarillo.

The decision to buy the machine was made at a Wednesday commission meeting.

Jim Tierney, representative of West Texas Construction Co. has been notified to meet with the commissioners on the topic of paving repair.

The commissioners also asked for a break-down of the way the $30,000 paving bond was spent.

In earlier called meetings, 9th Street was opened from Ave. B to Ave. K. Also the city dads made arrangements to burn weeds in the city's bar ditches so the county commissioner can grade them.

City property, including the water tank, wells etc. are in for a new coat of paint. The commissioners voted to have the painting done.

The city office has been asked by the commission to keep a log on activities of the service man.

The City Hall will be closed Dec. 25, 26, 27 for the Christmas Holidays.

Sudderth Sent to Fort Hood

FORT HOOD -- Army second Lt. Glenden R. Sudderth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billie Sudderth, of Bovina recently was assigned to the Second Armored Division's 67th Armor at Fort Hood, Tex.

Lieutenant Sudderth has completed the 10-week officers basic course at The Armor School, Fort Knox, Ky. This school is designed for newly-commissioned officers. The course instructed Sudderth in tank gunnery, combat tactics, field engineering, communications, automotive maintenance, map reading and military leadership.

Lieutenant Sudderth was a platoon leader in the armor's Company A. He entered the army in September 1959 after graduating from West Texas State College in June.

Sudderth is a '54 graduate of Bovina High School.

Modern Wives Are Pretty Good Feeders

Housewives over 60 years of age cook less nutritious meals than their married daughters do.

The Agriculture Department said a study shows that homes where the cook is 60 years or older are more likely to have diets low in eight essential nutrients--protein, iron, niacin, thiamine, riboflavin, calcium, vitamin C and vitamin A.

The study shows that people increase their consumption of meat, poultry, and fish gradually until they reach 60, when the consumption of these foods declines. Grain foods, however, hold at a fairly constant level.

The older folks get much less riboflavin than younger people mainly because they use less milk. But, the Department said, adults need more riboflavin than children. The older people, by dropping their use of milk, also get less calcium, but the calcium loss is not considered so serious for them.

Shortages of vitamin C and vitamin A among the older people is caused by low use of fruit and vegetables.

Grandma also uses less of the prepared products such as flour mixes, potato chips, canned vegetables, frozen vegetables and frozen fruit juices. On the other hand, the older folks make greater use of dried fruits and vegetables.

had arrived two minutes later the house might have burned to the ground.

"Heat inside the house was so intense that the windows would have been blown out in less than two minutes," Hammonds said. "If this had happened, the fire would have had plenty of oxygen and would have destroyed the house in a matter of minutes."

Damage to the house was estimated in the thousands. The loss was partly covered by insurance.

Considerable difficulty was encountered before the alarm was finally turned in.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick tried to call the firemen from a phone in the burning house but had no success. She left the phone off the hook.

Mrs. Sid Thomas, who was taking a church census in the area, saw the situation and went to a neighbor's home to call the firemen. But the neighbor's phone is on the same line as the one in the Kirkpatrick home, which was off the hook so phones in the area were dead. Mrs. Thomas drove to Bovina and turned in the alarm. Hammonds said less than 100 gallons of water was used by the firemen. He said some quick-thinking individual had started an irrigation pump near the house and plenty of water would have been available if needed.

Heat and smoke damaged furnishings in the house. Venetian blinds appeared to be in good condition but the intense heat had destroyed the durability of the material and a slight pressure made them crumple.

Other evidences of the great heat were a copper-plastic engraving on the wall some distance from the bathroom. The picture was melted and crumpled almost beyond recognition.

The house had automatic fire extinguishers in the attic which weren't set off.

Some furniture was carried from the house and escaped damage. The family's clothing was damaged by smoke but much of it will be salvageable. The spectacular explosion-fire climaxed a busy week for Bovina firemen. Last Friday night, they were called to a blaze at Western Warehouse Co. that damaged eight bales of cotton. Last Sunday afternoon, they battled a fire that destroyed a barn on D. C. Looney's farm. They were also called to a haystack fire and a city trash fire in the seven-day period.

Indictments Read, Cases Heard Friday

Friday was a busy day at the Farmer County courthouse. The fall term of the Farmer County grand jury was called back to investigate a number of cases, and they returned six indictments.

Also, District Judge E. A. Bills was on the bench in district court to hear non-jury criminal cases, and his trip to Farwell was not wasted.

Bill Rollings, 37-year-old man from Dallas, was indicted on a charge of fraud by the grand jury. He is alleged to have swindled J. D. Kirkland of Kirkland Pump Company in Farwell in a business transaction.

The dispute occurred about a year ago. Rollings is out on a $2000 bond and the date of his trial has not been set definitely, although it is likely that it will come up in March.

Juan B. Chavez, 30, Amarillo, was indicted on two counts of burglary. He is the man who several months ago broke into the courthouse at night and made off with a sizeable cache. He was indicted for burglarizing the offices of Mabel Reynolds, treasurer; and Sheriff Chas. Lovelace.

He pled guilty before Judge Bills and was assessed a term of eight years in the penitentiary on each count. He can serve both terms concurrently, however.

Billy D. Carter, the 29-year-old Canyon man who ran into trouble when he tried to steal a car in Bovina two weeks ago, was indicted for that offense. The jury recommended that he be given a probated sentence. He is out on $1500 bond and his trial has not been put on the docket.

An indictment was returned against Charles Strickland, the 19-year-old Alabama Negro who shot a companion twice two weeks ago in Bovina. He was formally charged with assault with intent to murder.

However, the grand jury did not choose the words "with malice" in their indictment, and as a consequence the maximum penalty in this case was three years. He drew the maximum assessment when he pled guilty before Judge Bills in district court.

Leroy Blaylock, 25, Friona, was indicted for theft of tools from Pruitt Elevator at Black. This case was opened last week when the man was arrested Wednesday in Friona in connection with the disappearance of tools from the northeast Farmer County business.

He admitted this act and others, according to Sheriff Lovelace. The grand jury, in making the indictment, requested that a deferred sentence be given in the event he should be found guilty. He is not eligible for probation, having once before been convicted of a felony.

Blaylock's bond was set at $1500 and he was in jail Monday, although it was expected that he would soon post the bond and be out until his trial. The trial date is not set.

Thus, the grand jury investigated and returned indictments in two felony cases which came to a head only last week. This timeliness is unusual inasmuch as the grand jury is in session only infrequently.

Sheriff Lovelace left the county Tuesday to take Strickland, Chavez, and Herbert Hopkins to Huntsville. The latter pled guilty Friday before Judge Bills in connection with the burglary epidemic in Farwell this summer.

In that series of crimes, eight Farwell businesses were burglarized. Hopkins was indicted for two of the burglaries (Midget Cafe and Buck's Superette) in the September session of the fall grand jury, but until this week he had not pled guilty. He changed his mind this week, and was sentenced to two years on the two counts.

Vegetable Harvest Still In Progress

Vegetable harvesting, processing and shipping is still in progress in Farmer County, but Kenneth Neill of Friona Growers and Shippers says harvesting will be over in about two weeks.

The company manager reports a poor year for vegetable crops. He says both price and yields are below average.

"Carrots have been below average in both price and yield.

"I imagine six tons per acre, he says of the average carrot yield. About 300 acres of carrots were raised in the Friona area this year.

"It's about $25 on the ton," Neill says about the present market price. He sees no prospect for a more favorable market.

Neill says there was not much lettuce grown and that it was a very poor year for that crop.

Potatoes is the largest crop handled by the company with about 600 acres grown in the area.

"It would be somewhat below average," he says of the yield and price of potatoes.

Neill reports that cabbage was the only crop to have had a good year, but there was less than 100 acres raised, he says.

KENNETH NEILL, manager of Friona Growers and Shippers, examines a sack of carrots processed and packaged by the corporation. He reports that it has been a poor year for carrots, both in yield and prices, as well as a bad year for all vegetables. Neill thinks the harvest will continue for two more weeks.

Income Tax Time

It's that time of year again and many Farmer County area farmers are about to dive headlong into filing their income tax return.

For the benefit of the bewildered, Farmers Income Tax Guides are now available for the asking. Joe Jones, Farmer county agent, says anyone who would like one of the guides may pick it up in his office or write and he will send them one.

"They are good and they give examples and discuss in detail any income tax problems farmers have."

He says farmers need one to understand the fundamentals of income tax procedure that applies to them.

In Russia they have a TV in every hotel room -- only it watches you.

WORKERS PROCESS CARROTS at the Friona Growers and Shippers in preparation for packaging and shipping the vegetables. Kenneth Neill, manager, feels the vegetable harvest will continue for about two weeks before dropping off. About 30 workers were on the job, processing the carrots, Saturday afternoon.

Income Remains Stable for Many

"For farmers, who didn't receive excess hail and didn't lose wheat and cotton, gross income is running about the same as last year," reports Bill Nichols, agriculturalist for the Friona State Bank.

He says farmers made enough yield on milo to offset the low price of the crop, but many farmers were hailed out on cotton and wheat.

"Most farmers don't expect anything better, so they have to make a good crop at lower production costs.

"This was a good year for production and a poor one for prices."

Although many farmers have lost, Nichols indicated that the average gross income remains about the same as last year.

"The Place Where Most People Trade" Friona, Texas Wednesday, December 16, 1959

As Christmas gets closer and closer we feel more and more like a ten year old girl friend of ours. She wants a fur coat for Christmas (who doesn't) and when her parents tried to reason with her, she said, with tears in her eyes, "I just wish I still believed in Santa Claus then I'd get one."

New trucks--new trucks--2 ton with bed and hoist as low priced as any comparable truck but higher in value.

Be careful you might wind up like the fellow who went to the races, made a "mental bet" and lost his mind.

Find out exactly what service and overhead your tractor needs to put it in tip-top condition for another year of hard, productive work. Get our winter service inspection. Then make special savings on needed service and overhaul. Take advantage of our winter overhaul prices.

Burton O. Hillis says, "Our neighborhood has o.k.'d that young mother who just moved in. "She calls her kids," someone said, "as if she were counting her blessings."

You must hurry if you plan to deposit your Christmas card money to the Farmer County Community Hospital fund and get your Christmas greetings in the Friona Star. Friday, December 18 is the deadline to save wear and tear on yourself and help your hospital at the same time. Enter the Christmas Card Project now.

You are an old-timer if you can remember when: Girls worried over how to stop--you cranked your car and your telephone--the only self-service customers in a grocery store were small kids stealing from the cookie tin --the biggest Sunday thrill was lining up in a cow pasture outside town for a ride in an airplane--and men had equal rights.

Kathy Horton, our five year old granddaughter, was very excited about being a flower girl in the wedding of her Aunt Doris--that is, until she found out she couldn't go on the honeymoon. She said she'd already been to the church.

"Some people are funny," mused Uncle Zeke. "I know a man who hadn't kissed his wife for 10 years, then shot a fellow who did."

Tommy Hartwell, who is three and lives with his grandmother, Mabelle, came home from Sunday School one morning very excited. "Today," he said, "our teacher had a hustle." "Oh!" his grandmother answered. "Yes," he said, "and we took it to pieces!" That was o.k. What the Sunday school teacher had was a puzzle.

See and try the new McCormick 3 disk reversible plow. It will plow 12 to 14 inches deep in any soil and reverse hydraulically. Fast hitch for easier use. Call for a demonstration on a Farmall and a reversible disk plow.

We know what three people want for Christmas. Young Tip Nunn, son of the Bill Nunn's, wants a "coffee pot." Tip says he really needs one. Little Debbie Houlette, daughter of the Jerry Houlettes, wants a bottle. Just a plain baby bottle for her very own. Our youngest grandson, two year old Jay Jordan, wants a tractor, "a big one to plow the field."

We know some lucky folks who expect to spend the Christmas holidays in sunny California -- Mrs. Dorothy Hough, Sally and Larry; Mr. and Mrs. George W. Jones and Kathy; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. "Barney" Barnett and Mr. and Mrs. Kenyth Cass and Jerry will all be leaving Friona soon after school is out.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Williams are doing some extensive remodeling at their house in the east part of town. They have added two rooms, a double garage, bath and breezeway and will soon put brick on the outside.

Our daddy needs some help to find several calves that have strayed from the pasture northwest of town. Some are whitefaces and others are black with whitefaces. They weigh about 350 pounds each and are branded circle B slash on right shoulder.

Anyone knowing the whereabouts of some stray yearlings will be doing us a favor by calling 2571.

Have Soil Tested For Best Results

Farmers who plan to have soil tested for the next season should send off their test now so they will have it in time to plant in the spring, according to Joe Jones, Farmer county agent.
'If a farmer is going to fertilize, soil testing tells him what type fertilizer and how much to use.
'Soil testing is only a guide to go by in a fertilizing program.
Since farmers need to cut production costs, a fertilizing program based on what soil needs can be a good way to cut expenses.
'If you feel you don't know what to do, soil testing will serve as a guide,' he says to farmers who are not sure about fertilizing.
The agricultural agent has available in his office, cartons, questionnaires, and everything needed to send in a soil test.

The material will be given to anyone who goes by the office.
'I think it could be recommended that a farmer do some sampling on his farm every year, but it may not be necessary every year.'
Jones says farmers who want to send their samples to the Agricultural Extension Service, Soil Testing Station, College Station, Texas. Cost is $1 and a sample is about a pint.
Additional information may be obtained in the county agent's office.

Time To Water Wheat, Says Agricultural Agent

Now is the time to start watering winter wheat, says Joe Jones, Farmer county agricultural agent.
'Most of our wheat is off to a good start, but it is dry. Freezes and wind have taken out the surface moisture. It is time every wheat grower water, if they haven't already started.'
Even though the plants are not growing much, there is a great need to keep the roots of the wheat healthy.
Jones points out that although watering is important, overwatering can be serious as failure to water. The danger of overwatering is especially present in sandy areas.
'If farmers go ahead and water now, they will be ready to top dress in February and follow that with another watering.
'I think too many times we don't water in winter, but if we would roots will be in better shape and we will wind up with better crops next year.'
When watering, about three to four inches is enough water to prevent overwatering. Jones emphasized the need for winter irrigation of wheat and other small grains and also the need for top and side dressing as the crops are coming up.

to promote a program which will bring a higher net income to farmers. The obvious and natural aim of labor unions is to promote programs with the intent of securing our products (food and fiber) at the lowest possible cost. Since our primary interests are in conflict, it seems highly undesirable for any farmer or rancher to affiliate with a labor organization.
SUBSIDIES: We are basically opposed to subsidies and believe that a healthy agriculture could exist in an economy free of subsidies. We would favor a removal of all subsidies, including those hidden in permissive and compulsory legislation... Until steps are taken to eliminate ALL SUBSIDIES, we will continue to support programs provided in our current policies.
FARM PROGRAM, NATIONAL RECOMMENDATIONS: We vigorously oppose any attempt to adopt production payments as a substitute for price supports or as a means of bringing income into agriculture, regardless of whether such payments are financed by direct appropriations from the treasury or by a tax on the marketing of farm commodities.
ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS, NATIONAL: It is our desire to move in the direction of eliminating government regulations of the right to produce agricultural commodities. In some cases, however, allot-

Grain Sorghum Yield Reported at Halfway

The average yield of fifty-five varieties of grain sorghum was 4,563 pounds per acre in one of the 1959 grain sorghum tests at the High Plains Research Foundation, Dr. T. C. Longnecker, director, announced today.
The hybrids and varieties were planted June 18 and had a total of 12 inches of water in three irrigations of 4 inches each on August 5, August 24 and September 8.
The top twelve in this test were close in their yields. Each hybrid or variety was planted in 100-foot plots in four different locations throughout the test area. The two center rows of each four row plot were harvested to determine the grain yield. The average yield of the four plots for each variety is the basis of the yield report.
The yields of the top 12 were: Redlan Kaffir, 5,706 lbs.;

Texas 601, 5,485 lbs.; Pfister 665S, 5,314 lbs.; Pfister 625S, 5,256 lbs.; Steckley's R103, 5,248 lbs.; DeKalb E56A, 5,248 lbs.; DeKalb C44A, 5,207 lbs.; Plainsman, 5,101 lbs.; Texas 608, 5,052 lbs.; DeKalb C44A, 5,207 lbs.; Plainsman, 5,101 lbs.; Texas 608, 5,052 lbs.; DeKalb F63, 5,052 lbs.; Pfister 605S, 5,044 lbs. and R. S. 610, 5,036 lbs.
Other grain sorghum tests will be reported as soon as all statistical analyses are completed, Dr. Longnecker said.

ments will have to be maintained for a transitional period. Where this is the case, care must be exercised to protect the rights of individual producers. Since the purpose of allotments is to reduce the acreage devoted to specific crops, an allotment should be looked upon as a ceiling on acreage rather than a requirement to plant. No producer should be forced to plant an allotment to maintain history. We oppose minimum farm allotments.

Candy thermometers are the best guides for testing a candy mixture, according to Extension foods and nutrition specialists.

Before you begin make sure your thermometer is accurate. You can check it quickly by placing it in boiling water. To get a correct reading make sure the thermometer does not touch any part of the pan, and that the bulb is completely covered with the candy mixture. Read the temperature at eye-level -- not from above or below.

You can use the cold water test as a cross-check. Drop a small portion of the candy mixture into a bowl of cold water and note the kind of ball formed. Fondants, when done, should form a small soft ball which flattens out when held on the tip of the thumb. A firm ball -- the test for caramels -- will hold its shape when lifted on the finger. For divinity and popcorn balls the syrup should form a hard ball which can be manipulated with the fingers. The soft crack stage for butterscotch or taffy means that threads are hard but not brittle. Hard crack threads will snap when tapped against the side of the bowl. Use a fresh bowl of cold water each time you make a test.

For best results with candy making, read your recipe carefully before you begin, have all supplies ready and follow the directions given.

Toys are more than just playthings -- they teach, too. Mrs. Eloise Johnson, extension family life specialist, says they contribute to a child's development and should be selected to fit that development at any stage.

For example, push-and-pull toys, wheel toys, balls, sports and gym equipment are typical playthings which aid PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT. Blocks, construction toys, drawing and painting equipment and hobby kits are aids to CREATIVE play. Dolls, housekeeping equipment, train systems and dress-up costumes are typical of the kind of equipment which stimulates IMITATIVE and DRAMATIC play.

How much you spend is not important. It is important to consider the child's play interests and his stage of development.

Hunting seasons are in full swing and reports indicate good hunter success in most areas of Texas. There are many who enjoy hunting but do not enjoy eating game meats -- and there is usually good reason. Improperly cooked duck, or deer meat, for example, is less palatable than good grade leather.

Properly prepared game, however, can be even more delicious than domestic meats. Mimeographed leaflets on cooking game meat are available from the specialist in wildlife conservation.

Following are some tips in handling a deer that has just been killed. These practices will improve the quality of the meat (and thus provide you a good argument for hunting again next year).

1. If the deer does not bleed thoroughly as a result of the bullet wound, bleed the deer immediately after the kill (Be sure he is dead before you try this! Avoid his antlers and hooves). Place the deer on the ground with its head downhill, insert a knife blade just in front of the breast bone and sever the large blood vessels of the neck. This type of cut will not ruin the head if it is to be mounted.

2. Dress the deer as soon as possible to insure rapid loss of body heat. Avoid cutting the internal organs. Care should be taken to prevent hair from coming into contact with the meat. Trim away meat that has become blood-shot by the bullet.

3. Rapid cooling is the next important step. This is accomplished by hanging the carcass in a shady, cool spot. Wipe the body cavity dry with a clean cloth and spread the body cavity with a stick for better cooling. Black pepper, if available, sprinkled on the raw edges will help keep flies off the meat. Leave the carcass hanging overnight, if possible.

4. Even though you may want to exhibit your deer, it is best to transport the animal in the trunk of the car. If draped over the front fender of the car, engine heat will start meat spoilage.

5. Before cutting-up the carcass, be sure it has been aged properly. One week or longer at 40 degrees F is considered proper. This "ripening period" should be allowed even if the deer meat is to be frozen.

6. Butchering a deer is very similar to butchering a beef. If the hunter is unfamiliar with the butchering process, it is best to let a butcher do the job.

A sweater and skirt can become a related costume if you use your creative skill. Collars, skillfully applied bands or appliques are not only decorative on a sweater but they can also tie together two unrelated garments to give an ensemble look.

Another way to get a coordinated ensemble in your wardrobe is to plan a sweater addition to harmonize with the next dress you make. It's very easy to line a classic cardigan sweater with the dress fabric, and it can be very smart and expensive looking.

To do this, buy enough extra fabric to line your cardigan sweater. Using the sweater as a pattern, line the front and back in the contrasting material. Sleeves do not need to be lined.

The right kind and amount of trimming adds interest and individuality to a costume. Too much can be distracting and confusing, according to Reba Merle Boyles, extension clothing specialist of Texas A&M College.

The secret of effectiveness in trimming lies in discriminating use. Self-covered buttons and belts, or those that blend with the garment, can be used without danger of a spotty or overdecorated effect. Self trim of this type becomes part of the design of the garment and gives more leeway in choosing other accessories.

If you plan for contrasting trim, study your figure carefully to determine where to place the emphasis. In other words, "accentuate the positive." Make certain the trim is appropriate to the garment and the occasion for which it will be worn.

Shop for ideas that are different. Study garments displayed in exclusive dress shops and adapt ideas to your own purse and personality.

A final word. . . . When in doubt, leave that extra trim off. . . . It's better to use too little than too much.

Also received this recipe for Louisiana Cream Pralines that were good and thought you might like to try it for Christmas.

LOUISIANA CREAM PRALINES

1 pound light brown sugar
few grains salt
3/4 cup evaporated milk
1 tablespoon butter
2 cups (1/2 pound) pecan halves
Cover a large baking sheet with aluminum foil, or butter baking sheet lightly. Mix sugar, salt, evaporated milk and butter in medium size sauce pan. Stir over low heat until sugar is dissolved. Add pecans and cook over medium heat to soft ball stage (234 degrees F.), stirring constantly.

Remove from heat and let cool 5 minutes. Stir rapidly until mixture begins to thicken and coat pecans lightly.

Drop rapidly from a teaspoon onto baking sheet to form patties. (If candy becomes too stiff at the last to handle easily, stir in a few drops of hot water.) Let pralines stand until cool and set. Makes about 44 small pralines.

Note: To make large pralines, drop from a tablespoon. Recipe makes about 20 large pralines.

TO MAKE ORANGE CREAM PRALINES: Add 1 teaspoon grated orange rind to sugar mixture before cooking, then proceed as above.

TO MAKE COFFEE CREAM PRALINES: Add 1 1/2 teaspoons instant coffee to sugar mixture before cooking, then proceed as above.

TO MAKE GINGER CREAM PRALINES: Add 2 to 3 tablespoons finely cut crystallized ginger root or 3/4 to 1 teaspoon ginger during last few minutes of cooking to soft ball stage, then proceed as above.

Evaporated milk is ideal for candy-making, for it assures a creamy flavor and superbly smooth texture. If you would like additional evaporated milk candy recipes, we shall be happy to send them at your request.

PRUNE AND SPICE BREAD

3 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 tablespoon sugar
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon allspice
1/8 teaspoon cloves
2 tablespoons soft shortening
1/2 cup sweetened, drained, cooked prunes
3/4 cup warm water
1 package active dry yeast
1 egg, room temperature

Blend the first seven ingredients in a bowl. Pour the warm water into another bowl, sprinkle yeast on top. Let stand a few minutes, then stir to dissolve. Blend in the egg.

Add about 2/3 of the flour mixture and the prunes to the yeast mixture. Beat about 2 minutes, until smooth. Beating replaces kneading in this recipe.

Pour in all the rest of the ingredients and beat again with a spoon until smooth, 1 to 1 1/2 minutes. Scrape batter down from sides of bowl. Cover and let rise in warm place until double in bulk, about 45 minutes.

Grease 9x5x3 inch pan. Beat raised batter hard 50 strokes. Pour into the pan, spread into corners of pan with a spoon. Rap pan on table to settle batter.

Let rise in warm place until doubled, about 30 minutes. Bake in 375 degree oven 40 to 50 minutes or until well browned on sides and top. Remove from pan and cool on rack.
