LION'S CLUB AUCTION

Hopefully to be the best yet

by Lewis Allen

Baseball has had iron men like Lou Gehrig, Nolan Ryan, and Cal Ripken, Jr. In the annals of auctioneering, the name of Lem Jones has stood tall and endured long.

It will be the end of an era next Tuesday night at the annual Sonora Downtown Lions Club Auction. Lem will not be doing the Lions Club Auction any more, after some 45 years of assisting this community fund-raiser in his unique way.

Lem, from Harper, is best known for auctioning goats. There could scarcely be half-a-dozen men alive who have sold more goats than Lem has over his long career in the Hill Country.

The auction begins with supper for the public beginning at 6:00 p.m. at the 4-H Center. The bidding will begin at 7:00 p.m.

The auction is the Downtown Lions Club's primary fundraiser of the year. It enables the club to support such community organizations as Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Little League baseball, the high school band, Hudspeth Memorial Nursing Home, Sutton County Days, Sonora I.S.D. faculty, staff and administration and many other worthy causes locally.

Countless individuals have been assisted through the Lion's Sightfirst program, Leader Dog program, Crippled Childrens' Camp and optometry clinic in Ciudad Acuna.

A diverse array of items for this year's auction have been donated by local and area business persons and caring individuals. The ever-popular "Mystery Package" will again be auctioned off. As always, there will be a good meal and good fellowship in the service of a good cause.

But mainly this auction promises to be memorable as Lem Jones' last for the Downtown Lions Club of Sonora. That alone would be reason enough to come out to the 4-H Barn and enjoy the evening. They won't be building anymore like Lem.

BRONCOS STYMIE WALL, 10-9

Ozona Next as Sonora Attempts to go 2-0

The Sonora Broncos survived a severe test from the Wall Hawks on Friday night at Bronco Stadium. The always-tough Hawks, led by All-West Texas running back Daniel Herrera, posed a serious threat to the Broncos' hopes to begin the season with a win, but the Broncos were equal to the task thanks to an overachieving defense and a running game that dominated the line of scrimmage for long clock-eating drives during important periods of the game. These drives were very important not because the Broncos scored many points, but in keeping Herrera, who just looked like he could break a long run at every opportunity, off the field.

The Broncos were led by strong individual offensive performances in many areas; Caleb Barker had a fine night at quarterback, Justin House and Mike House both ran the ball effectively, and Davis Hale and Raymond Rainer were effective all night in their receiving assignments. The offensive line was most impressive in run blocking, and did a good job in protecting Barker in passing situations.

The defense for the Broncos was also tough, and was led by sterling performances from Levi Pool and Josh Burnham from their linebacker positions, down linemen Kris Wood, Ben Taylor and Alex Gonzales, cornerbacks Caleb Barker and Justin House, and safeties Louis Massey and Andy Mirike, all of whom made the going tough for Wall's Herrera for most of the evening.

Wall's first offensive series was a good example of what would happen to the Wall offense for most of the night. Two excellent stops on Herrera on 1st and 2nd down by Pool and Burnham brought up a 3rd

HOMECOMING COMMITTEE ANNOUNCES HONOREES

Celeste Prugel

Coach John Kenner

Sonora is gearing up for homecoming activities to be held September 22 and 23, 1995. Anyone who has ever attended Sonora Public Schools, his/her spouse, parents, and anyone else that is just interested, is encouraged to attend all the planned activities.

One of the highlights of the weekend is the program honoring former teachers. This year the committee selected Celeste Prugel and Coach John Kenner.

Celeste taught 3rd grade and then home economics from 1960 to 1982. She has lived in Sonora since 1942 and is a very active, dedicated member of our community. The Kenners taught in Sonora in the early 1950's. He taught history and was the basketball coach and assistant football coach. Helen taught at the L.W. Elliott School. They now reside in Powell, near Waco.

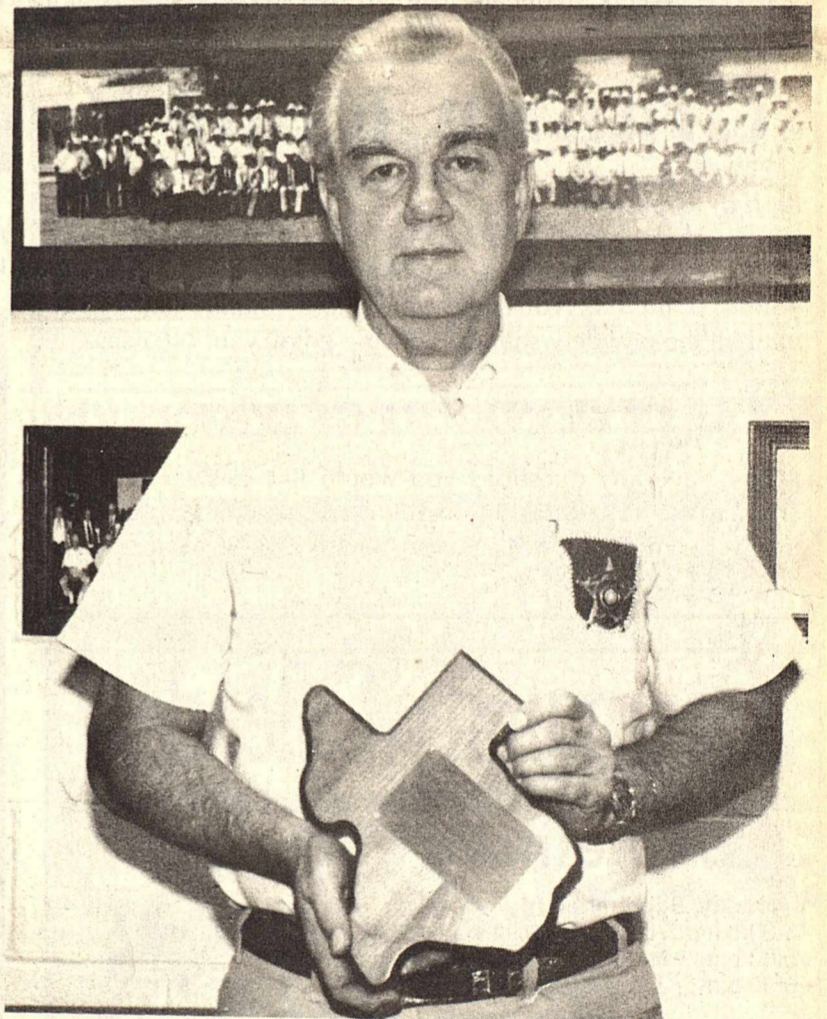

The homecoming parade kicks off the celebration for the weekend, Friday at 3:30 p.m. It will begin in front of the Elementary School and end downtown at the Methodist Church parking lot. Following the parade there will be a pep rally on the Courthouse lawn to set the mood for the big game at Bronco Stadium. The Sonora Mighty Bronco Band will perform at 7:30 p.m. At 8:00, the Broncos go head to head with the Eldorado Eagles. During halftime, the 1995 Homecoming Queen will be crowned. At 10:00, an after game party will be held at the Sutton County Steak House.

Activities on Saturday will be held at the 4-H Barn. Registration begins at 10:30 a.m. A membership charge of $10 per person covers the lunch and barbecue on Saturday as well as the after game party expenses and the postcards and letters ex-students receive each year.

King Ranch chicken will be served at noon and the program honoring Celeste Prugel and Coach John Kenner will follow. Also during this time, the classes of 30, 35, 40, 45, 50, 55, 60, 65, 70, 75, 80, 85, 90 will be recognized. Marty McLain will host the program.

Visiting and free time will follow at 2:00 p.m. At approximately 3:00, a tour of the rock school building and the old high school will be conducted by Smith Neal. At 6:00, local exes are preparing and serving barbecue with beans, salads, and desserts. The weekend will conclude with a dance from 9:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. T. Hooker Band will perform at the Slab next to the 4-H Barn. Admission is $5 per person. The dance is hosted by the Class of 1985. They extend an invitation to the public and encourage everyone to come and enjoy the music and dancing, as well as visiting with current and former Sonora residents.

WEBSTER RECEIVES TELLEPSEN AWARD

Sheriff Bill Webster

Howard Tellepsen, son of Tom Tellepsen, presented the Tom Tellepsen Award to Sheriff W.W. "Bill" Webster at the 117th Annual Conference in Waco. Mr. Tellepsen presented Sheriff Webster with a check for $1,500 and a bronze plaque. The award is given in honor of the late Tom Tellepsen, who was a native of Norway, but became a staunch and patriotic American. While he was living, he supported law enforcement in every way possible. The Tellepsen Foundation makes the award possible in honor of Mr. Tom Tellepsen.

Sheriff Webster served on the Board of Directors for the Sheriff's Association of Texas, for seven years, serving as president, 1989-1990. His goal, while he was president, was to have more training for all sheriffs and their personnel.

Webster, began his law enforcement career at the Odessa Police Department in 1963 and served until 1967. He joined the department of Public Safety as a Highway Patrolman stationed in Sutton County in 1970. He was promoted to DPS Narcotics and transferred to Midland. He served as a narcotic agent until March, 1974, at which time he and his family returned to Sonora. Sheriff Webster was appointed the first Chief of Police and organized a four-man department.

He was elected Sheriff of Sutton County in 1976 and is currently serving his fifth term. At the time he assumed office in January 1977, the department consisted on one field deputy. The department has grown to four deputies, five jailers, and four dispatchers. The present jail was built in 1980, and is a 28-bed facility.

Sheriff Webster attended Midland College and Sul Ross State University. He has attained Advanced Certification and an Instructor's Certificate.

He and his wife, Judy, have four daughters, Lisa Neal, Lori Nunn, Lesli Prine, and Kelley Webster. They are the proud grandparents of seven.

Q. You ran an article stating that the Baptist Church was next to the Masonic Lodge? I remember the old church stood where the present one stands, and did not look like the picture you showed. Are you sure you are correct?

A. The old church you are speaking of was built in 1933. It was replaced when the present church was dedicated on February 13, 1972. The church you remember was not the first one used by the Baptist Church.

Devil's River News, August 11, 1933 ran an article on the razing of the older church. It stated that the ancient building which had housed the Sonora Baptist Church for over a quarter of a century and before that served as community center, dance hall, school, church and courtroom, was being torn down. It further stated that the old church had fond memories for many people who remembered the Christmas trees, dances, and community parties that were held in it. Many a time it would be used for dancing until the wee hours of the morning, then refilled with benches for the preaching services a few hours later.

The first building did stand on the hill over Water Street. It was built in 1889 and was the first school in Sonora. The Masonic Lodge was moved from Wentworth and placed next to it. This building was to be used as overflow classrooms downstairs and Dee Ora Lodge upstairs. The Masonic Lodge was built in Wentworth in 1890 and moved to Sonora in 1891 (the current lodge building was erected in 1938/39). The lodge was used as overflow classrooms until the Rock School was built in 1904. The school then sold their interest in the buildings to E.F. VanderStucken who sold the Masonic Lodge to the Masons and the old wooden school to the Baptist Church.

The Baptist Church bought a lot just north of the Sonora Motor Company from W.E. Glasscock for $2800 and moved the old school/church onto that lot in about 1925. In 1933, a hollow tile and brick building was erected, the building you remember. The current building was erected in 1972.

If you look closely at the picture accompanying this article, you will see the Baptist Church on the hill above Water Street next to the old Masonic Lodge building. In the center of the picture you see the side of the Sonora Motor Company. The empty lot across the street from it is the site of the present church.

Kelly's Column

submitted by Kelly Lewis, CEA-F&CS, Sutton County; Nutrition: Bielamowicz, Summer 1995

The fact that absence of certain essential nutrients creates a predisposition to illness has been known for a long time. However, less understood has been the components of diet which are important in preventing chronic disease such as cancer.

The National Cancer Institute is studying if certain "designer" foods high in ingredients naturally high in cancer preventing substances can actually affect the relationship between cancer and diet. Diets high in fat appear to be connected to cancers of breast, pancreas and colon/rectum.

Heavy alcohol consumption has been linked to higher incidence of cancers of the upper digestive tract and liver. These studies have also shown that fiber, vitamins A, C, and E as well as many other substances also seem to have cancer-preventing properties.

Over the past decade more than 40 foods, mainly vegetables, grains, and fruits containing biologically active phytochemicals - have been identified as having cancer preventive properties. Phytochemicals can interfere with and potentially block the biochemical pathways that lead to malignancy in animals. Phytochemicals can interfere with and potentially block the biochemical pathways that lead to malignancy in animals. Phytochemicals can affect metabolic pathways associated with development of cancer by affecting the initiation and tumor-promotion phases.

The six foods at the top of this pyramid are at the center of the National Cancer Institute's Experimental Foods Program. On the top level of this triangle are garlic, cabbage, licorice, soybeans, ginger, carrots, celery and parsnips. On the middle levels of the triangle are onions, tea, turmeric, citrus such as orange, lemon, grapefruit, whole wheat, flax, brown rice, tomatoes, eggplant, peppers and the cruciferous vegetables (broccoli, cauliflower, and brussels sprouts). On the base level of the triangle are oats, mints, oregano, cucumber, rosemary, sage, potato, thyme, chives, cantaloupe, basil tarragon, barley and berries.

Dietary supplements such as garlic pills do not offer the same benefits as the food counterparts.

So what can you do as a consumer to utilize the results of this research? Start following the U.S. Department of Agriculture Food Guide Pyramid and the American Cancer Association recommendations to increase servings to at least "5 A Day" of vegetables and fruits. Then you will be sure to eat many of the top 40 foods, which have been shown to display those cancer-prevention properties.

In the next few years, consumers will see more and more designer foods that contain even more of these phytochemicals.

RAINFALL ENHANCEMENT WORKSHOP SCHEDULED

Interested in the use and benefits of rainfall enhancement technology? A weather modification seminar will be conducted at the Crockett County Civic Center in Ozona. The workshop will be Tuesday, September 19 at 7:00 p.m.

The program includes an historical overview of cloud-seeding in Texas. Also to be discussed will be legal aspects of the use of weather modification and consideration for conducting an operational cloud seeding program. There will also be a question and answer session.

The speaker, George W. Bomar is a Senior Specialist for Texas Natural Resource Conservation Commission in Austin. Mr. Bomar oversees the weather modification program in Texas. He is the Project Director of the Texas Experiment in Augmenting Rainfall Through Cloud-Seeding Project (TEXARC), which is now underway in Big Spring.

submitted

The Annual Shrine Circus is scheduled to appear at the Sutton County Rodeo Arena in Sonora on Tuesday, September 19th.

The George Carden Circus International has been bringing entertainment to children of all ages in every corner of the U.S.A. for years and now it is coming to Sonora. Children of all ages are invited to come and join the fun at the Big Shrine Circus, to see why it is North America's most loved family attraction!

There is something for everyone in this year's Shrine Circus. The ring will abound with marvelous feats of manipulation, balance and dexterity. Amazing and rare animals will perform and amuse. And, best of all, it comes wrapped up by the crazy antics of the circus clowns.

This is the kind of enchantment that will keep children dreaming circus dreams long after the last performer has left the ring.

"See you at the Circus!"

and 8, but Herrera was able to break through the Bronco defense only to be stopped by a saving tackle by safety Andy Mirike. The Hawks were able to move the ball sporadically, but thanks to several solid, timely defensive stands by the Bronco defense, the Hawks were unable to mount scoring drives until late in each half.

An excellent punt by Wall left the Broncos beginning their initial drive of the 1995 season at their own 2 yard line. The Broncos calmly went about their business, however, starting a 85-yard, 17-play drive that consumed 9 minutes of the 1st quarter. The drive started simply enough, with Sonora running their bread-and-butter running plays to get out of trouble deep in their own end of the field. Justin House carried the ball on off-tackle left and option left plays followed by successful off-tackle right and sweep right plays, following the blocking of Raymond Hubble, John Jones, and Davis Hale to good gains against a stout Wall defense. The most serious threat to the drive came on 3rd and 10 from the Bronco 35, when the Broncos were flagged for illegal procedure to bring up 3rd and 15; Wall, however, couldn't stand their own good luck, and was flagged for pass interference on the 3rd down play, giving the Broncos a 1st down at the Sonora 44. From there Justin House again led the way, picking up 21 yards on three carries to the Wall 36. Here the Broncos faces 3rd and 4, and Barker completed a pass to Raymond Rainer in the left flat at the Wall 20, giving the Broncos a 1st down and keeping the drive alive. Mike House took the next play, a dive option to the fullback, for ten yards to the Wall 10. At the 10, though, Bronco hopes were disappointed as the ball squirted free on 1st and goal, to be recovered by the Hawks as time in the 1st quarter expired.

Wall's second offensive series was as frustrating as its first, with Broncos Rainer, Mirike, and Barker playing big parts in keeping their offense from establishing a rhythm and getting into the game. Rainer broke up a pass attempt on 1st and 10 from the Wall 5, a Wall dive attempt was stopped for no gain by Curt Dempsey and Gonzales on 2nd down, but on 3rd down, again, Herrera broke through the line for 25 yards. Tackles by Jeff Floyd and a pass defended by Barker and Mirike again brought up 3rd and long, but this time Rainer made the tackle on Herrera before he could reach the 1st down marker.

The Wall punt let Sonora begin its second drive of the year at its own 26 yard line. The first two plays of this drive went nowhere, but on 3rd and 10 from the 26 Louis Massey took an end-around and sprinted to the 1st down, dragging tacklers with him in a great individual effort. The Bronco offense caught his spark, and on 1st and ten from the Wall 48 Mike House burst through the middle for 15 yards, Justin House swept right for 6, but 3rd and 4 from the Wall 24 the Broncos were whistled for illegal procedure, putting the ball at the Wall 34 and bringing up 3rd and 14; Barker, though, dropped back and fired a bullet to Davis Hale at the Wall 18 yard line, giving the Bronco drive new life. The Bronco running backs, especially Justin House and Adrian Mata, continued to pound the Wall defense down to the Wall 4, where, on a 2nd and goal play, quarterback Barker took the ball on an option left and got the ball into the end zone himself to give the Broncos the lead. Wood's PAT was good, and with 3:06 until halftime the Broncos led 7-0.

Wall wasn't quite ready for halftime; the Hawks mounted a furious drive of their own, and except for saving tackles by Barker on a reverse and Andy Mirike on a burst up the middle by Herrera, would have tied the score before halftime. The Bronco defense, however, stiffened at its 20 yard line and would only let the Hawks penetrate to the 15. Josh Burnham and Louis Massey also had good defensive series in forcing the Hawks to kick a field goal instead of scoring the touchdown. The Broncos led at halftime, 7-3.

The third quarter was largely a case of ineffective drives and 3-and-out punting situations for both teams. The Broncos, led by Barker, Justin House, and Adrian Mata, were able to rack up offensive yards, but did not seriously threaten to score until late in the quarter - Wall never did. The Hawk offense seemed to have a very difficult time penetrating the Bronco defense after halftime. As the third quarter wound to a close the Broncos punted to Wall, and on the return an obvious clip was called on Wall bringing the ball back to the Wall 9; on Wall's first play, though, the Bronco defense penetrated and disrupted the backfield exchange, causing Herrera to fumble and the ball was recovered at the Wall 8 yard line by Kris Wood. The Broncos were unable to move the ball against a desperate Wall defense, and Kris Wood entered the game on 4th and goal from the 6 to kick a field goal, making the score 10-3 Broncos as the 4th quarter began.

The fourth quarter was an exciting see-saw battle between two clubs that badly wanted to win season openers. The Broncos started the quarter on defense at the Wall 41, and played well behind the leadership of Pool, Burnham, and Louis Massey. Pool and Massey both recorded quarterback sacks during this series, but the Hawks were able to move to the Sonora 21 despite their efforts. The Hawks, however, found themselves in a 4th and 15 situation at the Sonora 21, and the screen pass was sniffed out and defended very well as Wood and Burnham made the tackle on Herrera.

Sonora was unable to move the ball as they took over on downs, and was forced to punt to the Wall 34. The Hawks once again started to turn around and hand the ball to Herrera, their workhorse for the evening, who carried the ball to the Wall 49 through the best efforts of the Bronco defense, led this series by good play from Justin House, Davis Hale, and Alex Gonzales. On 4th and 6 from their own 49, the Hawks again went to the air, but this time Justin House intercepted the ball and returned it to the Wall 36.

Adrian Mata took over for House at tailback after the House interception, and had runs of 1, 4, and 2 yards before House reentered the game on 4th and 3 from the Wall 29. The Broncos, however, were unable to convert the 4th down, and the Hawks used their stop of the Broncos as a rallying cry as they began a last-ditch drive from their own 27. Tailback Herrera ripped off chunks of yardage as the clock ticked toward the end of the game, building momentum against a Bronco defense that had held him in check most of the night. Andy Mirike and Kris Wood both made saving tackles against Herrera on this drive, but the Wall back was not to be denied, and with :41 seconds on the clock he burst into the end zone and made the game a one-point affair.

The Hawks elected to go for the win on the point after try, electing to go for a 2-point conversion. The conversion try was stopped short of the goal line with fine tackles by Massey, Justin House, and the entire left side of the Bronco defensive line. Davis Hale recovered the onside kick and the Broncos ran out the clock having earned a tough 10-9 victory over an excellent Wall Hawk team.

The Broncos' next game is at 8:00pm in Ozona against the Ozona Lions, who are 0-1 this season after having lost to Reagan County in their opener. Travel to Ozona to support the Broncos as they continue their road to the state playoffs this year.

The Broncos displayed a great deal of character in not folding after Herrera's score, and this veteran ball club is primed to have a great year, but your support is important - we'll see you at the game!

The place to be was Fredericksburg. Saturday was a very special day, Labor Day week-end. Fredericksburg celebrated the 50th anniversary of the end of World War II in Japan. Those who remember V-J Day know that it meant that Americans at last would be coming home, prisoners of war would be released, and the world could begin the process of establishing peace after a bloody war. The sacrifice of Americans and allied countries was immense in the loss of lives, suffering, and misery that war always brings. It is fitting that 50 years later we stop and celebrate the peace that was won, and remember those who gave their lives to end the war. In Fredericksburg to celebrate the anniversary of V-J Day were Annabel and Oliver Wuest. Oliver, a Fredericksburg veteran, served three and a half years in the Navy and was on the Battleship Mississippi when the Japanese surrendered. The Mississippi was moored next to the Battleship Missouri in Tokyo Bay. The Missouri, you will remember, was the ship where General Douglas MacArthur accepted the surrender of the Japanese. Did you know that Sonora's own Oliver Wuest, who was then gunner first class, had a ring-side seat for the ceremony? It was a moment in history that we should never forget. Admiral Nimitz, the commander of the Pacific Fleet, was also from Fredericksburg. His home town community has honored him with the Nimitz Museum, and many tourists go to Fredericksburg to honor this Texas hero.

The celebration in Fredericksburg featured appearances and speeches by President George Bush and Governor George Bush. Barbara and Laura Bush were both there. The author of Texas, James Michner, who is 90+, was the Grand Marshal of the parade. Michner wrote one of the first books about the war in the Pacific. His book became the musical South Pacific. Actors Cliff Robertson and Eddie Albert attended. Both served in the war in the Pacific and have acted in famous war movies. Also attending the ceremonies, were grandsons of Admiral Nimitz and Admiral Halsey.

Fredericksburg had the event organized, and precision and planning were evident in the activities. Everything was celebrated on Main Street. People were encouraged to park at the fair grounds and ride a bus (Gillespie County School Busses) to Main Street and back. The speeches given by the celebrities were broadcast to everyone up and down the street. The estimates of the crowds indicated that between 30,000 and 40,000 people were in town for the celebration. The surrender was at 10:25 a.m., and President Bush timed his speech to end at that exact time. Following the speech the church bells rang and the parade began with the fly-over.

Governor Bush spoke to the crowd with an opening greeting that said, "Friends, veterans, honored guests, Mr. President and Mother." President Bush ended his speech by commenting on the controversy over President Truman's decision to use the Atomic Bomb to end the war in Japan. President Bush said that he felt that he had a right, and was qualified to express an opinion since he had served in the war in the Pacific, had been shot down by Japanese, and had served in the same Oval Office as President Truman. He stated that he totally agreed with President Truman and that he felt that the right decision was made.

The Nimitz Museum is a wonderful memorial to the men who fought in the Pacific, and behind the museum is the peace garden. A new addition was dedicated by President Bush and will be open soon. It is the George Bush Gallery, detailing the president's war activities. A replica of the plane that he was flying when he was shot down will be on display. Fredericksburg had a wonderful celebration, and I wish that we could have all been there. If you are looking for a week-end outing, you can take your family to Fredericksburg for a wonderful history lesson. It is close; you can go and come in one day. It is something for the whole family. Also in attendance on Saturday were Gary, Cathy and Clayton Smith and Wayne, Jeanie and Aaron Warren.

Bridge last week was at Lura Sawyer's with shrimp and rice casserole, fruit salad, tossed green salad, and hot rolls on the menu. Dessert was chocolate chiffon pie. High was Allie Aske and second high Nell Wallace. Bingo was won by Leona Bishop.

Sonora Woman's Club met Thursday at the Depot for the first meeting of the year. Sharon Holman, treasurer of the Library Building Fund Committee, explained the plans for the interior of

by Martha Valliant McLain

the new library. Joe Lane, general supervisor for the building, took the group on a walking tour of the new building. Hostesses Camille Ross, Sue Prather, Sharon Holman, Ebbie Sutton, and Cathy Smith served chicken breasts in cream sauce, steamed squash, sliced tomatoes, hot rolls, and a blueberry dessert. Door prizes were given to lucky members whose names were drawn. A bake sale is planned for the Thursday before Homecoming. If you have out of town company coming, you can buy casseroles or baked goods to help feed your friends and family. Locations will probably be at the post office and Food Center. Shannon Johnson, a home health care nurse, was a guest for the meeting.

Lewis Allen, president of the Sonora Lion's Club is contacting members of the community in preparation for the Lion's Club annual auction. The auction is a 50+ year tradition and for 40 years Lem Jones from Harper has been the auctioneer. This will be his last year. He has asked to retire after this year. The fund raiser will be September 19th at the Langford Memorial building beginning with a barbecue supper at 6 p.m. The auction will begin at 7. Merchants from Sonora are appreciated for their donations to the project. One of the most unusual items donated was a free wedding donated one year by Clay Hall. A mystery package has been bought yearly by someone and then donated back to the Lion's Club for the next auction. The package has never been opened. One item that will be missed this year will be the white beans from Michigan, always donated by Harvey Du Russell. Harvey was one of the Lion's Club's hardest workers, and he is missed by all.

Area auctioneer Lem Jones does a wonderful job as the auctioneer, and if you want to come hear an old fashioned auctioneer, this may be your chance. Lem has probably sold more goats than any man alive. If you have items to donate, and haven't been contacted, call Lewis Allen. If not, come to the auction and bid on many of the unique items being sold.

The Lion's Club is a busy organization. They recently had a hamburger supper for school teachers, staff, and school board members. Jim Stephen, Monte Jones, Paul Chevalier, Tim Talley, and Joe Lane did good work as the "chefs" for this teacher appreciation party. The Lions are considering making this an annual event. It is wonderful for our hard-working school staff to know that they are appreciated. No group has a harder job or more important job.

Word has it that the Wuest football tradition is being carried on by grandsons. One grandson, Scott, a high school sophomore is on the Varsity team at Lake Travis High School in Austin, and another grandson, Dustin, is a junior at Fredericksburg High and will be playing on the JV team. It will be difficult for grandparents Annabelle and Oliver to make every game, but I'll bet they do it. Following the Wuest tradition of service to education, is granddaughter, Marshay Wuest, a senior at A&M. Next year, she will be entering the teaching profession with a specialty in early childhood.

How do you keep deer from demolishing your plants? I have heard many theories, but this week I heard from Michelle Kreig that Irish Spring soap will protect your flowers and shrubs. She grates the soap with her cheese grater and then sprinkles it around her plants. Carolyn Brown says that a bug zapper hung in a tree will make deer leave. The noise is unexpected and frightens the deer. Are you looking for a solution for mud martins? They always seem to build their nests in the wrong places, like over your car or over the front door. Wilma Jones puts jalapeno peppers in their nests and on the ledges where they roost. It has been effective.

Party of the week was the birthday celebration for Ronnie Cox. I don't want to tell Ronnie's age, but I think that he is about a half century old. Alice had dinner and birthday festivities for him. A performer from Party Mania in San Angelo came to tease Ron, but he met them at the door. He told them that they had the wrong house and Ron Cox lived next door. Jane Alexander couldn't quite understand why Party Mania was coming to her door. She brought the guy back to the party and the birthday spoof was saved.

The next big event for Sonora will be homecoming and the annual Ex-student Association meeting on Friday and Saturday, September 22 and 23. The activity has grown and this year around 300 people are expected to attend. Activities will include the Homecoming Parade, Pep Rally, the football game against Eldorado, an after game party at the Sutton County Steak House, all on Friday. Saturdays events will begin at 10:30 a.m. with registration and visiting, followed by a luncheon honoring the classes of '30, '35, '40, '45, '50, '55, '60, '65, '70, '75, '80, '85, and '90, and recognition of the committee's honored teachers, Celeste Prugel and John Kenner. Following the luncheon will be a tour of the old rock building, Sonora's first school and the old high school building. Smith Neal will be the tour guide and will give a history of the two buildings. Saturday evening will be a barbecue dinner at the Langford building hosted by the Sonora ex-students. If you can bring a salad to the dinner call Randee Fawcett or if you can bring a dessert, call Patsy Johnson. If you want a job or have any questions, call Vivian Miears at 387-5406. Saturday night a dance will be held at the slab next to the Langford Building with the class of '85 as hosts. Letters from ex-students are coming in, and the committee is expecting a crowd. Among those thought to be coming are Katherine and Betsy Ross, Bill Drennan, Class of '47, Jack Henderson, Class of '50, Jack "Rusty" Drennan, Class of '52, Jerry Potmosil, Class of '60 (coming from Oregon), Teddy Wheelis, Class of '65. From the class of 1927, Sarah Taylor McKee plans to attend. With all of the out of town visitors, we hope that local ex-students will attend. We have a grand time. Everyone who has ever attended the Sonora Public Schools is invited, as are their spouses. If parents of exes are interested in attending, they are also welcome. Plan to attend for fun, food, and a renewal of old friendships.
