Sponsored by 10 Bovina businesses, The Blade's first annual football contest begins in this issue. To enter and win the contest is the easiest way we know to pick up some "walking around" money in amounts of $5, $3, or $1.

And even more important is the grand prize... an expense-paid trip to Cotton Bowl come January 1, 1961. To win the grand prize, you have to pick the most winners throughout the 11 weeks the contest will run. So don't fail to enter a single week. We dare say the grand prize winner will be some lucky individual who enters every week.

It's similar to playing basketball—the more times you shoot the more points you make—and in this football contest the more weeks you enter, the more winners you select correctly.

Remember, to be eligible, your entry must be in Blade office by 5 p. m. Friday. We'll be looking for yours.

Needless to say, cantaloupe situation is in full swing here. And to make that even better, the price is going up (at least, that's the report at the time this is written.) However, everyone who is interested is aware that things (like price changes) happen fast in that business.

Up to now, though, it looks like a successful year for cantaloupe growers. The quality of this year's crop, we understand, is better than last year's and possibly the best in the area's three-year history. Still too early to tell about the yield, but if we know Parmer County farmland and Parmer County farmers, the yield will take care of itself.

Speaking of yields from farms, this year's milo crop could, and some people expect it, be even greater than last year's tremendous bumper crop. The outcome of this year's crop, to some extent, is still to be decided but it certainly does look promising. Rain early and freeze late are probably the combinations which would write this year's crop down in the history books. But even without that combination there is, as usual, going to be more milo cut here than you can shake that stick they're always talking about at.

After we jumped on Jack Patterson in last week's column, his neighbors, even Democratic neighbors, had a tendency to take up for him. Said we shouldn't have called him a Yankee just because he lives north of town. And they're right. We shouldn't. And didn't. Jack said that himself.

Also, one of Jack's neighbors warned us not to mark him (Jack) off the Democratic-voting list. "He's from Georgia," this neighbor said, "and there's never been any Republicans who came from Georgia."

We hope the neighbor is right.

With football season right here on us, we're wondering what's happened to our Texas Tech fan friends. We haven't heard Leon Grissom, for instance, give his views on his favorite team's prospects.

Since Tech's chances are so much better than Texas A&M's this year, maybe he's sorry for us. Yeah, and maybe he doesn't, too.

Bovina's housing shortage is as acute as ever, seems to us. Rent houses, especially, are hard to find. We know of two families now who would move here if they could find a place to rent.

But, as far as we know, there are none available.

We realize this is a busy time of the year and available living places are filled because of various reasons. Still, we hate to see someone want to move here and not be able to because of a lack of houses.

The same situation, though, has existed off and on for years. Wonder if enough is being done to remedy it?

Superior Electric Co. in Bovina has added a new feature to its business.

Radio and TV repair are now being offered, announces Jack Kesler, owner of the firm.

Emmett Powell, who has several years experience in radio and TV repair, has joined the firm as technician. Powell comes to Bovina from Hereford, where he was in the same line of business.

In addition to repair service, the business is offering sales of Hoffman and Admiral televisions and General Electric radios.

The new technician is married and has three children at home. The family hopes to move here when housing is available.

CURTIS GRIFFIN--

Boy Breaks Leg In Scooter Wreck

Curtis Griffin, 11, suffered a broken right leg Thursday in an automobile-motor scooter accident.

The mishap occurred at intersection of Third and Main Streets. Young Griffin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Griffin, was riding his scooter north on Third (toward Highway 60) when he struck the rear bumper of Mrs. A. M. Wilson's car. Mrs. Wilson was driving east across the intersection.

Griffin was rushed to Parmer County Community Hospital in Friona. He was later transferred to a Lubbock hospital for special treatment.

Both bones in his right leg were broken between the knee and ankle. He is reportedly recovering now at home.

There was no damage to the car and little to the scooter. Griffin escaped further serious injury when the scooter slammed to the pavement after the collision.

The accident was investigated by Texas Department of Public Safety.

THERE FRIDAY NIGHT--

Mustangs To S'Lake

With prospects for a winning season brighter than they have been in years, Bovina's Mustangs open 1960 football season against Springlake's Wolverines at Springlake Friday at 8 p. m.

This will be Mustangs' first game under new coaches, Halie Gee and Malcolm Kennedy.

Bovina will be the underdog in the fray with the Class A Wolverines, but Head Coach Gee promises, "We won't shy away from the game and we'll make a big effort."

The team will be handicapped by injuries. As many as eight members of the squad have been out with injuries or sickness at one time recently, the coach reports. However, there's a possibility some of those boys will be ready to see action by Friday night.

This season the Mustangs are longer than usual on experience and are considered to have ample speed and weight for a better-than-usual season.

In regard to Friday night's opponent, Coach Gee says, "They'll be bigger than we are and will have more experience. And even without those advantages, they would be favored because they are a Class A school--have a larger squad--more boys to pick from."

The Wolverines also have a new coach this season. He's the same one who coached Happy's successful aggregation last year. "We can figure they'll be well coached," Gee says, "but our knowledge of their team is limited."

The Wolverines lost only four players from last year's team via the graduation route. Probable starters for the Mustangs:

165, letterman;
Center: Jerry Wright, 155, letterman, or Gary Stevenson, 147, squadman;
Inside guard: Delbert Hall, 152, letterman;
Outside guard: Dickie Clayton, 165, letterman, or Joe Jones, 140, letterman;
Right tackle: John Sikes, 175, letterman;
Right end: Bill Strawn, 165, letterman;

FOR THURSDAY AT 6:30--

Organize Q'Back Club; Set Supper

Bovina's first Quarterback Club was organized and got off to a running start Thursday night.

Primary purpose of the organization will be to support Bovina School's athletic program. One of the major aims of the group at present is to film some of this year's Bovina Mustang football games.

Norvell Strawn was named president of the club at the initial meeting Thursday night. H. N. Turner was elected secretary-treasurer.

A pancake supper is scheduled for tomorrow (Thursday) night in school cafeteria. It will begin at 6:30 and last until 8:30, according to Strawn.

Charges for the supper, which will also feature bacon and coffee, will be 75 cents and 50 cents. The public is invited to attend.

Following the supper, second meeting of the club will be conducted. Committees which have been working since last week will report on their findings.

Total May Reach 500

A total of 454 students answered the opening bell at Bovina Schools this week. This figure was lower than was hoped, but is expected to rise near the 500 mark by the end of this week or the first of next.

Principal James McLeroy announces 96 students registered in high school first of the week. Miss Grace Paul, grade school principal, announced a total of 358.

Of the grade school total, 54 were first graders.

McLeroy says he expects to have 110 in high school in the next few days. This was the total school officials had anticipated.

Rev. John Ferguson spoke to high school and junior high students in an opening day assembly Monday. New teachers were also introduced.

Early this week, the school faculty was still without a band director. However, McLeroy said he expects Neil Person of Tahoka to accept the position and band classes to begin soon.

"Band will definitely be a part of our school program this year," the high school principal says.

Broom Sale Friday

Bovina Lions Club's annual broom sale is set Friday, President Pat Kunselman announces.

Lions are requested to report downtown at 7:30 Friday morning.

The truck bringing the supplies to be sold will be located in front of post office as it has in years past.

Gene Ezell and Warren Embree will captain two teams which will compete against each other in a sales contest. Penalty for losing team has not yet been decided.

The broom sale is Lions Club's biggest fund raising event each year and has proved to be highly successful here. Lions Club members who do not work on the broom sale will automatically be fined $5 each, Kunselman says.

Firemen Have Supper Monday

Members of Bovina Volunteer Fire Department and their wives attended a supper for the local organization at a Muleshoe cafe Monday evening.

Variety Store Sold

Variety store here has changed hands.

Scooter's Five and Ten was purchased recently by Mr. and Mrs. Odell Henderson of Amarillo.

The transaction was effective Monday, according to a joint announcement by buyer and seller.

Henderson has been associated with Ponca Wholesale for past eight years. He worked with that company in Amarillo, San Angelo, and Phoenix, Ariz.

Scooter Queen had owned the business since March of 1959 when he purchased it from Mr. and Mrs. Bill Moore.

Henderson is a native of this area. He was raised in southern Bailey County and was graduated from high school at Bula. His wife's parents live at Morton.

"In coming to Bovina, we feel like we've returned home" the Hendersons say. They plan to move here from Amarillo as quickly as they find living quarters.

Name of the business will be changed to Henderson's Variety.

In announcing sale of the business, Queen says he's appreciative of the patronage he's enjoyed while operating the store and encourages his customers to continue trading with the new owners. "I feel the Hendersons will give the community a fine variety store," Queen says.

The business is located on Main Street, next door east of post office.

WEATHER BY WILLIE

You may be lucky if you get under a shower this week. It's hard to get along with the wheat farmers and cantaloupe men at the same time.

Contest Starts

Who wouldn't like to have an expense-paid trip for two, with tickets, to 1961 Cotton Bowl game in Dallas? Ten Bovina businesses are giving readers of this newspaper an opportunity to win such a trip as well as numerous cash awards which begins in this issue. The contest is on a page ad on page seven of this week's Blade. In addition to the grand prize, three weekly cash prizes will be awarded. Turn to page and get your entry prepared now.

Boy Scout Troop May Be Organized

Edwards and Kunselman request that boys interested in scouting, their parents, and Lions club members attend the session.

Bill Lane has agreed to be Scoutmaster if a troop is organized.

"By meeting at 6:30 Thursday, we'll have time to attend the scout meeting and the Quarterback Club pancake supper also," Kunselman says.

Jerry Edwards of Clovis, who is with Boy Scouts of America, met with Bovina Lions at their regular meeting Thursday.

Edwards asked the club to again sponsor a Boy Scout troop here. The club agreed and an organizational meeting was scheduled by Lion Boss Pat Kunselman for 6:30 p. m. Thursday.

The meeting will be at Legion Hall.

INSPECT AREA FARMING--Bovina area farming was honored by a visit from foreign agriculturalists one day last week. The tour was sponsored by DeKalb seed. J. T. Hammonds, DeKalb dealer here, is at left. Next to Hammonds is B. S. "Matt" Dhillion from Chandigarh, India. Dhillion is interested in technical aspects of grain sorghum production so that he may relay information he learns to people in his country. According to Hammonds, Dhillion believes people in his country need knowledge more than they do charity so they may produce their own crops and thus relieve food shortages there. This would be better for individuals' self-respect, in center is Norman Husa, plant inspector for DeKalb and guide for the tour. Next to Husa is Charles Regan, Tamworth, New South Wales, Australia. Regan is associated with a seed company there. At right is Ales Bourne, Almidale, New South Wales, Australia. Bourne is a seed producer in his country. The two Australians were interested in varieties and methods of production here, Hammonds says, because growing season and conditions in Australia are similar to those on Texas' Plains. The visitors saw DeKalb's hybrid sudan seed production program on farm of Ben Rejino here and were high in their praise for his farming methods. "They were more impressed by this farm than any they had seen since being in the States," Hammonds says. Other farms visited were those of Buck Ellison, Euel Earl, C. R. Elliott, and DeKalb test plots on J. D. Kirkpatrick's farm.

Miss Verna Marie Estes, organist, furnished traditional wedding music and also accompanied Mrs. Davis Edens as she sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Emerald greenery and potted palms formed the background for the ceremony with baskets of pink asters and gladioli enhancing the candelabra.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a floor length gown of taffeta covered with tulle and re-embroidered lace. The bodice was fashioned with a sabrina neckline of lace and sleeves which came to a point over the wrist. The bouffant skirt was tiered in the back and fell into a sweep train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a tiara of sequins and seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white roses atop a white Bible. bows and a scalloped brim. She carried a bouquet of pink and rose rubrums.

trimmed half hat and a corsage of pink asters.

The groom's mother wore a beige linen sheath, matching accessories, and a corsage of pink asters.

Immediately following the ceremony Mrs. H. J. Charles hosted a reception in the church parlor. The bride's table carried out her chosen colors of pink and white with a pink wedding cake and pink lemonade, served from a crystal appointment. Centering the table was the bride's bouquet. Marilyn Brandon registered guests and Brenda Jones poured.

Hub Farmer Hand-Feeds 82 Calves

IT'S FEEDING TIME at the Albert Cannon farm near the Hub community. Cannon recently received 82 Holstein heifer calves and he has had the task of feeding each of them twice a day by bottle.

As if there weren't enough things to do on the farm at this time of year, one farmer of the Hub community has taken on another sizeable chore--that of playing mother to 82 baby calves.

Albert Cannon, who farms two miles south of the Hub corner in eastern Farmer County, last week received 82 Holstein heifer calves from a breeding farm in Dorchester, Wisconsin. When they arrived, the calves were from 7 to 11 weeks old and Cannon started each of them off on the bottle.

Yep, that's right, twice each day Cannon and a hired hand have been feeding the 82 head of livestock by hand--and with a bottle. They feed four at a time and it takes about an hour morning and night.

What's the reason for all this? Cannon is getting ready to go into the dairy business at his 480-acre farm and this is just the first stage of a long-range plan. Two years from now these heifers should be calving and coming fresh for the first time. That's when Cannon plans to start producing milk for sale.

All of the calves are of artificial breeding and come from some of the best stock in the Midwest, Cannon says. Their mothers all give on the average of 10 gallons of milk per day.

The bottle-feeding process will last for only a few weeks. After the calves become 12 weeks of age, they will be weaned from the bottle and placed on a mixed feed ration. Sixteen of the calves have already been taken off the bottle. They will be fed this ration until they reach 250 pounds and then will be turned out to pasture.

All 82 of the calves arrived at the Cannon farm in fine shape. They were transported here by truck.

"They were a little tired and shaky when they arrived," Cannon says, "but they're all looking good now."

"The biggest problem right now is flies," Cannon explains, adding that three weeks from now would have been a better time to have started on his program. Cannon has to spray the calves and pens several times a day.

SOME OF THE CALVES have already been weaned from the bottles and placed on mixed ration. Here, Cannon is shown with a few of the 12-week-olds, which will no longer have to be fed by hand.

The dairy business will be nothing new to the Hub farmer, who ran a herd of cows on his farm until 1950. Since that time, he has devoted his time to his irrigated farm, raising cotton and grain sorghums.

In choosing this method of getting back into the dairy business, Cannon explains, "I wasn't ready to get started just now, but hope to be two years from now." He plans to build a new barn and have everything ready to go by that time.

Cannon expresses the belief that dairying can be profitable, "especially right now, with feed prices so low," he says.

Once he gets started, Cannon will probably sell the milk produced by his herd to an Amarillo dairy firm.

Right now, Cannon's chief concern is getting the calves off to a good start. And, that's certainly no easy chore, since his irrigation wells are running long hours and he has to sandwich his calf-feeding in with his irrigating chores.

The dairy business is just like irrigation in that it is confining and demanding, Cannon points out. "But, one thing about irrigating is that you sometimes get through," he adds.

That's something you can't say when you've got a dairy herd. The business is even more confining when you're feeding a young herd twice a day by bottle.

Electric co-ops mean

Nearly 400,000 Texas Families are partners in a noble undertaking that celebrates its silver anniversary this year.

They are the member-owners of the electric cooperatives that serve the rural areas of the Lone Star State. They borrowed money at interest to build their own electric systems. They created a multi-billion dollar market for electric appliances with main street merchants. They brought the blessings of electricity to areas that might still be dark had it not been for the cooperative effort. They accomplished these wonderful things while repaying principal and interest on their loans...often ahead of schedule.

The electric cooperatives of Texas can point with pride to an efficient, dependable, electric service providing Partnership Power For Progress.

The cotton bollworm is beginning to show up over the county so you had better keep a close check on your cotton from now until it matures. With cotton late like it is this year the bollworm can do damage in most fields right up to frost. Forget the cotton fleahopper because squares they will knock off will not make cotton anyway. The lygus bug can also damage small bolls so be on the look out for this pest. If the cotton leafworm shows up better control him because they can do damage in a hurry. When the leafworms begin to rag the leaves better bring them under control with the recommended insecticide. Begin treatment for the cotton bollworm when 4 or 5 small worms and eggs are found per 100 terminals.

The addition of phosphate to wheat on sands, loams, and sandy loams is likely to pay good returns on the money invested. If you have not had a soil analysis run on your 1961 wheat land and want to guess at the amount of phosphate that might be needed it looks like 40 to 60 P205 is a good guess. This has proven to increase yields in most demonstrations from 6 bu. to 12 bu. per acre. Remember phosphate should be placed in bands at seeding time or prior to seeding wheat. Phosphate can be placed in the drill furrow with wheat seed but nitrogen or potassium cannot, so be sure you don't try putting nitrogen fertilizer with or too near the seed.

To date phosphate has not been profitable when applied to wheat on clays or clay loam soils. Research conducted at the Southwestern Great Plains Field Station at Bushland and work conducted at Hereford and Tulla has shown little or no benefit from the use of phosphate when applied to the clay type soils, for wheat production. It would be a good idea if each of you would do a little checking on your own each year to see just when phosphate may be needed on your farm. If we continue to take big crop yields off year after year the addition of plant food elements other than nitrogen is sure to be needed. The important thing is to know when this time has arrived so these elements can be added. Generally speaking the South one third of Parmer County and a few sandy spots over the county can use phosphate to an advantage on wheat according to research work and demonstrations conducted to date.

Rotation of crops must be planned ahead and now is the time to decide just where you will put your 1961 cotton crop. 1960 wheat land would be ideal. Grain sorghum stubble with a little nitrogen added and turned under while green this fall would also provide a good place. At any rate you had better give consideration to Rotating your cotton from cotton land that has been in cotton the past year or so.

It does not hold true in all instances but generally speaking the 1960 cotton crop following cotton had disease worse than cotton on land that was not in cotton in 1959. Now is the time to plan where the 1961 crop will be seeded on your farm.

HELPING OUT WITH THE FEEDING is Cannon's small son, Glenn, who was at first a little hesitant about getting into the pen with the calves. But, once they got a hold of the bottle nipples everything was all right.

Since this is my last column in Parmer County I would like to say it has been a pleasant experience working and living in Parmer County. I would like to express my thanks to each Home Demonstration Club member, 4-H member and their parents for their cooperation through the years that I have been in Parmer County.

Appetites may lag a bit on these hot summer days . . . It's easy to overlook the need for balanced nutritious meals and simply "fill the family" with an assortment of this and that.

To solve this situation, try some of the hearty, nutritious salads suggested in a NEW bulletin just released by Extension Foods and Nutrition Specialists of Texas A&M College.

Many tested recipes and special tips for making delicious salads for different kinds of meals and snacks are given in the new bulletin, "SALADS" . . . Also included are recipes for special salad dressings. Many of you will be especially interested in the low-calorie dressings for fruit and vegetable salads.

Copies of the new bulletin are available from my office.

At the retail meat counter--beef bargains include arm and chuck roasts and steaks, some boneless roasts, ground beef and round steak. Fryers are still the biggest bargain in most meat departments. Lamb will be displayed more prominently in some areas. . . and remember--turkeys are still a good buy.

Best values on fresh fruit items include bananas, lemons, Thompson seedless grapes, cantaloupes, watermelons, peaches and avocados. Early winesap apples are showing up on some fruit counters in some parts of the state.

Truck farmers in some areas of the state are harvesting early fall vegetables . . . Eggplant and mustard greens are outstanding items and they will increase in supply for the next couple of weeks. Squash, dry onions, cabbage, red potatoes and green peppers offer variety and economy for your food budget.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Water, in the form of irrigation, played a big role in last year's bumper crops on the Texas High Plains, topping all past records in grain sorghum production. And we produced a cotton crop of 1.8 million bales, second only to the 2 million bales ginned in 1958. Irrigation was applied to 1-1/2 million acres of cotton, 2 million acres of grain sorghum, 686,000 acres of wheat, and 89,000 acres of corn.

More figures on what irrigation has done, or helped to do: High Plains farm cash income rose from $215 million in 1943 to $719 million in 1958. This increase in income closely parallels growth in irrigation. Here are figures for the South Plains:

YEAR	NUMBER OF WELLS
1911	1
1934	300
1945	4,300
1958	34,000

In the entire high Plains farmers have 47,275 wells on 19,667 farms, irrigating 4,778,000 acres. They have 6,404 miles of underground irrigation pipe to conserve water. Some 7,814 farms are using underground pipe to irrigate 1,738,283 acres. Underground pipe cuts water use by about one-third by eliminating seepage and evaporation losses from open ditches.

And we have about 130 recharge wells on the Plains to drain lake water to recharge the underground water. Silt has been the biggest problem in this method of recharge. Also, water is pumped from some 2,500 lakes directly onto crops. This is good irrigation water and cost is low. Only disadvantage is the water loss from evaporation.

Geologists say the water sands known as Ogallala formation are 20 to 200 feet thick and lie 100 to 300 feet below the surface. They estimate the plains people have used 20% to 25% of their underground water. How long will it last? A lot depends on conserving the remaining supply.

We know that in 1948 only 26% of our wells pumped under 700 gallons per minute. Today, 61% pump under 700 gallons per minute. In 1948, only 17% of the wells had a lift of over 125 feet--today, it's 76%. Taken from Progressive Farmer, April 1960.

The HAPPY HOMEMAKER

BY JUNE FLOYD

With the opening of school many homemakers are busy sewing. Whether you have a son who is entering the first grade or a daughter that will be a senior in college, making school clothing can be a rewarding experience.

There are so many types of fabric to choose from that it is oftentimes very difficult to decide which one to buy. For smaller children there is no better choice than cotton. Besides being beautiful, it is durable, washable and most practical.

If you are sewing silk or any other slippery material and have difficulty keeping it on the machine, just pin a turkish towel over the table end of the machine. Then the material will not slip off while you are stitching it.

After reading endless hints on how to keep sewing supplies neatly stored, pins, needles, rick rack, braid, buttons, zippers and various other articles at the Floyd home are generally jumbled up.

Somehow or other we have never mastered the art of keeping such things in order. There must be a fool proof system, but the one we use just doesn't work.

If you, like most other home sewers, are guilty of lifting ideas for dresses, blouses, shirts, aprons, etc. from magazines and newspapers, here is an idea that sounds very good.

Take an ordinary looseleaf notebook and fill it with plastic sheet protectors centered with black paper. As you collect ideas, slip the pictures into the sheet for further reference.

Soil Test Now

Efficient farming methods are prerequisites to maximum profits, and failure to determine the soil's need for fertilizer is not efficiency. Dr. W. F. Bennett, extension soil chemist, says that the best place to determine the amount of fertilizer a field needs is in the laboratory.

"A farmer gets more return on the money spent for testing and then applying recommended treatment to his soil than he does on any other money spent for crop production," Dr. Bennett points out.

Improper nutrient balance, coupled with a lack of weed, insect and disease control, greatly reduces the potential effectiveness of fertilizer.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU
BY RAYMOND EULER

Nell Davis, office secretary, says she would appreciate it if you would file for gas tax exemptions soon, so that there will not be carry-overs between now and January, in which case some of the invoices would have expired. Also, if you do not plan to file, she would appreciate your returning the post card you receive, so that dealers will cease flogging out and sending invoices for her to file needlessly. Thank you.

Think this one over: An employee gives you trouble and wants more pay than you think you are able to pay him. You don't agree, so he quits and picksets your business. . . . Another man asks for the job, so you hire him and he proves to be as good as the quitter and easier to get along with. You give him a raise. . . . Six years later, the federal government tells you to fire the worker you like, move him out of the house you furnish him and move the quitter back into the house and onto the job.

The above is precisely what happened at Kohler Company in Wisconsin. Unless we, the people, stand up for what is right, it will be happening on the farms of Parmer County in a few years. Please don't dismiss the idea with a placid "Impossible." Twenty years ago, would you have believed you would someday pay a percentage of your income for a retirement plan that guarantees you nothing? (Social Security).
