Economic development group looks to Sonora's future

staff reporter

The Economic Development Committee held their second meeting, Tuesday, April 29th at the First National Bank Annex. Discussion centered around the sub-committee's probe into industrial development opportunities for the City of Sonora.

The sub-committee met with Mike Trollinger (Industrial Development Board, Brady) and Kim King (Brady National Bank). They discussed development options of available properties in Sonora that would or could be used for industrial sites. Trollinger said small industries would be a good starting point.

Nick Garza, President, Sutton County Extension Program Council, asked Brent Gesch, Sharon Key, Judge Carla Garner and Alvis Johnson to form a sub-committee to further investigate industrial development corporations and gather more information on funding and organization of economic development.

On May 8, Rick Holden, Area Relations Director, for Lone Star Gas met with the committee. Holden informed the committee of the various roles of economic development and the industrial team concept. Holden, who is involved with over 62 communities, stated, "I like to see people excited and involved with their community. Lone Star Gas continues to target individual companies to come to Texas and our focus is primarily on the food and plastic industries, which are of course large gas consumers, said Holden. We will assist the community in industrial development, but the important question is, what are you going to do for yourselves as a community."

Sutton County Days Association meets with Commissioners

By Stephanie Campbell

A large number of Sutton County Days Association members met at Commissioner's Court to discuss issues concerning the arena at Sutton County Park.

At the last meeting the commissioners denied a request from a lady passing through town to board her horses at the arena. The commissioners reasoned that they would be held liable and their insurance coverage excluded animals.

New restrooms being serviceable to the grandstand area were another concern of the association. The county said they were waiting on the 4-H Building Committee to hammer out their plans for the refurbishment of that facility.

The commissioners accepted the $75,764 ambulance bid from San Antonio Ambulance Sales. The lowest bid from McCoy Miller of Houston was $75,560 but was rejected due to distance for service.

Sheriff Bill Webster has researched an inmate telephone system for two years. The system will be installed in the jail. The GTE/ATT package will include seven phones and 35% of gross receipts of calls will go to Sutton County.

Tax Appraiser, Rex Ann Friess reported 92.5% of taxes levied have been collected and that values will be up $23 million over last year.

Sonora ISD requested fill for the Ag Barn area. John Wade moved to haul four or five loads to the new facility. The motion passed even though Mike Villanueva opposed.

The commissioners accepted the bid for the cemetery pickup from I-10 Auto Ranch for $11,954.14.

Broncos finish strong

Submitted

Last week the Broncos played the two best teams in District 4-3A; losing to one and beating the other. On Tuesday, the Broncos traveled to Crane to face the Golden Cranes.

The Broncos lost this game in 5 innings 1 to 15. The score suggests that the Cranes literally ran away with the game. However if you take the first inning away, where the Cranes scored 11 runs with 7 of these being earned, then you have a very close ball game.

The Broncos had sophomore problems in the first inning. They committed 4 errors to give up the 7 unearned runs.

The men in Red also had other problems. They were only able to get 1 hit off of one of the best pitchers in the district. This along with the errors ultimately cost the Broncos the game.

David Mayer was the pitcher of record. He did a very good job. Fernie Emiliano coming off of an injury came on to do some relief work. He pitched very well for 2 innings.

After the first inning, the Broncos settled into their normal role of very good defense. Tanner Fields, Lupe Ramon, and Breg Hughes handled everything that they were able to get to. The only problem was that there were many balls hit where no one could handle them. Crane is possibly the best hitting team in the district and should go far in the playoffs.

Once again the Men in Red had ample opportunity to throw in the towel. But just as many times before, they continued to keep their heads high and never gave up.

On Friday, the welcomed rain brought about another scenario similar to what happened with Greenwood earlier in the year. The Kermit Yellowjackets were to leave about mid-morning to travel here to close out the season. This final district game was scheduled at The Sutton County Baseball Complex at 5:00 p.m. After several phone conversations with the coach from Kermit, it was decided that the game would be played that afternoon unless the field was underwater. The decision was based on the fact that this game could have a bearing on who was to be the district champion.

As the afternoon progressed, the cloud cover began to break. A

"I'm Free"

"Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free I'm following the path God laid for me.

I took His hand when I heard Him call

I turned my back and left it all.

"I could not stay another day To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way, I found that place at the close of day.

"If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things, I, too, will miss.

"Be not burdened with times of sorrow I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much.

"Perhaps my time seemed all too brief; Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me God wanted me now, He set me free."

Ask The Historical Society

By Jo-Ann E. Palmer

Part II

Eliza Ann Robertson Bradford Martin, 84 years old, tells her story to the Eagle Pass News-Guide 5-31-1951.

"I never was in an Indian raid, but they used to steal our stock. One morning three of my sisters and I noticed two of our horses staked near the river and a bunch grazed nearby. We went on to school and sometimelater someone rode by yelling, 'The Indians are coming.' The teacher turned us out and told us to head for home. We went home through the woods and the horses were gone. Mother was so mad at the teacher for turning the children loose to walk home through the woods that she just exploded. Luckily, none of us were bothered, but horses from us as well as from neighbors were taken that day.

"Another thing that stands out in my memory is the hanging of Green Johnson, a Negro that murdered his wife. I never will forget him singing, 'When the Roll is Called Up Yonder,' just before they hung him. That was in May 1877. Everybody came from miles around to see the hanging. It didn't bother me, some of the kids ran off, but I didn't.

"When I was seventeen, I married Al Bradford. We had lived at Rocky Creek for two years before I married, so Al and I started house-keeping there. After our first two children were born we moved to Peg Leg, 12 miles east of Menardville. Al ranched too, like the majority of cowmen who began the push against the Indians. The Government was leasing land at a penny an acre, so we decided to lease on Devil's River, thirty miles from Sonora.

"The young people talk about work. Why, they don't know nothing. We lived on Devil's River in a tent and that was the hardest time of my life. We now had four children, and living in a tent in the wilderness and carrying every drop of water from the river and everything else was work. I was so lonesome in that place that I cried for months. You can't imagine what living in a tent miles away from everybody is like. We finally got our house built-out of cedar palings with a cane roof. We filled the cracks with mud. The house was comfortable as it was never cold there. The first four years none of us wore coats--just light denim jackets to keep from getting wet from the dew of early morning.

Mrs. R.H. Martin

"We moved up to Emerald and stayed two years and then came back to Devil's River. Al got sick and died. We didn't know what it was then, but now we know it was appendicitis. He was buried in Sonora.

"The four children and I stayed on, and two years later I married Robert Henry (Bob) Martin.

"We kept on improving the ranch and Bob decided to buy it. He paid 20 cents an acre and bought 6,000 acres. A good young ewe could be bought then from 50 cents to $1.50. We paid 20 cents an acre for our land in 1951; you would have to pay $37 an acre if you could find it! We finally saw our way clear to building our house and had to send to San Angelo for the lumber. We named our ranch, 'Bugs Schuffle.'

"There were five Martin children, part born at the ranch and part in Sonora where we moved some years later. We sold the ranch to the Karnes family and moved into Sonora. Bob became sheriff and served for several terms (resigned in 1914). When we first went there the court-house served for all public affairs--court was held there, school, church, dances, and any public meetings. After serving Sutton County as sheriff and tax assessor (1904-1914), he became ranch foreman for the large ranch interests of Will and Walter Whitehead until the time of World War I. We moved to Del Rio during this time and established our permanent home at 1200 North Main Street."

"The story goes on to tell about their life in Val Verde County and family events up to 1951. It tells how Mrs. Eliza Ann Robertson Bradford Martin had all nine of her children living to celebrate her 84th birthday with her. They were: Mrs. Minnie Mae (Mary) Hodges, Mrs. Lillie Simmons, Joe Bradford, Mrs. Bessie Kelso, Russell R. Martin, Mrs. Martha Ann Youngblood, Mrs. Fred Turner, Benjamin Martin, and Jesse Martin. Also sharing the event with her were fourteen grandchildren; twenty-three great-grandchildren and three great-great grandchildren.

Mrs. Eliza Ann Robertson Bradford Martin was born June 3, 1867 and lived to be 95 years old. Her husband R. H. Marin died November 11, 1949 in Del Rio and she died in 1962. Her first husband, Al Bradford, was born May 2, 1860 and died March 4, 1893 and is buried in the Sonora Cemetery besides his son, Joe Bradford, who was born in 1889 and died in 1982.

We don't usually use two weeks to tell a story but this one was so well written that we wanted to share it with you. If you have any questions concerning Sutton County history send them to "Ask the Historical Society," P.O.Box 885, Sonora, TX 76950-0885, fax them to 915-387-5691, drop them off at the Devil's River News office on Main Street or give me a call at 915-387-2855 after noons or evenings please. Thank You.

"By George! It works!" user crows.
Little-known 'vitamin' makes love grand

McKinney, TX--Little did Dr. Philip Handler know, back in 1941, that his newly discovered nutrient "Vitamin 15" would one day have men and women all over the country smiling quietly to themselves. Today, N,N-Dimethylglycine (DMG) is no longer classified as a vitamin. But it has changed the lives of thousands of men and their mates. A naturally occurring nutrient sold under the brand name NutriSurge (but more often called simply "The Love Pill"), DMG works by increasing energy, improving metabolism, enhancing oxygen utilization and increasing the flow of blood to key areas of the anatomy. NutriSurge has a cumulative effect: the more you take it, the better it works. Most users take two, but up to six tablets may be taken daily. Satisfaction is guaranteed. See for yourself why thousands swear by NutriSurge. Send $29.95 plus $4.95 postage & handling for a 60-tablet supply to TDM Research, Dept. NSC31, 123 South St, Oyster Bay NY 11771. Or call toll free 1-800-645-9199 and ask for Operator C31. Use the whole supply; then, if you are not completely satisfied, return the box for a full refund.

Bronco baseball

RBI He singled into right field to score Mayer.

In the 7th, the Broncos led by sophomore Lupe Ramon and John Brown shut the men in maroon down. And on the final game of the season, the Broncos make history again, they won their second district game ever!

Fernie Emiliano pitched a textbook game, in keeping the Yellowjackets off balance the whole evening. Emiliano faced 26 batters, walking none, striking out 4, and giving up only 2 runs (both earned) on 4 hits. The Broncos scored 6 runs on 7 hits while only committing 1 error. This game showed that when the sophomore jinx did not mosey around for torment, the Broncos are possibly one of the best teams in the district. However that dark cloud seemed to be around more than not. The Broncos are left wondering - what if?

But this bunch of hum-balls has nothing to hang their heads about. They have won more games than any other team in recent Sonora baseball history. They won the first ever baseball trophy at the Brackettville Tournament. They were in every ball game that they played except for 5 of the 27 games that they played this season.

A goal of 100 stolen bases was established. They surpassed that by 9 with 109 stolen bases. Probably the best thing that happened this year was the Broncos showed that they could have fun and enjoy the game even in the face of some Very Major Adversity.

All in all, this was a very good season for the Broncos. It's one that the younger players can build upon. With a little time and maturity, the Broncos could very well bring a district championship home.

The Broncos, players, and coaching staff would like to thank everyone that helped with the program this year. We would especially like to thank:

Rye Supply for the tin that went on the back of the dugouts;

Location Builders for the new red clay infield and the labor to help spread and prepare the field for the home district opener;

Creek Construction for the work that they did on the batting cage;

the maintenance department of Sonora I.S.D., the employees of the Sutton County Road and Bridge, and Sam Mata--enough cannot be said--for without them, a home game would probably never have been played;

the Bronco Boosters--who helped keep the spirit up and never gave up on a great group of guys. Without people like yourselves, I'm not sure where our extracurricular programs would be.

ONCE AGAIN,
THANK YOU!!!!

Radio/TV Class travels to San Antonio and has a "Starring Role"

By Kristin Keel

On Friday, May 9, the S.H.S. Radio/TV Class traveled to San Antonio for their spring field trip. The students left Sonora at 5 a.m. amid the pouring rain. The purpose of the trip was to tour the CBS affiliate KENS-TV.

The students learned about programming, editing, public relations, and broadcasting. They also had the unique opportunity of being interviewed by reporters for KENS. In the six years that Public Relations Director Jeff Johnsey has given tours, only two of his groups have been interviewed for a story. This Sonora class was the second. The students were interviewed about problems facing teens today.

After touring the station, the students were treated to lunch at the Hard Rock Cafe and then showed their athletic abilities while ice skating at the Crystal Ice Palace. The entire trip was paid for by the profits that the students earned from their football and basketball highlight tape sales.

Additionally, the Radio/TV Class would especially like to thank Luis Vasquez for his extraordinary bus driving abilities.

Super Season: 10 victories, 5 losses!

The J.V. Baseball Team ended its season on Monday, May 5th, against the Golden Cranes.

After nine innings and a great baseball game, the Broncos came up one run short, losing by a score of 9-8.

Carlos Sanchez pitched the entire game showing great stamina. The defense was a little shaky and gave the Cranes five unearned runs.

This season which consisted of two victories against the opponents' varsity could only be described as exceptional.

Players understand that their record could have been even better with just one bounce of the ball or maybe one more hit. Four of the J.V.'s losses were by a total of only five runs.

Season record: 10 victories, 5 losses. Congratulations J.V. Baseball players on a Super Sensational Great Season!

Town & Country announces mediation agreement with Attorney General

Town & Country stores' chairman F.L. "Steve" Stephens announced today that as a result of mediation, the anti-trust allegations by Texas Attorney General Dan Morales against his company have been dropped.

"There was no fine, no admission of guilt, and there was certainly no evidence, as we have stated from the beginning, that our company engaged in gasoline price-fixing in Big Spring," said Stephens today. "The fact that the Attorney General had initially pursued a $1 million penalty against each of the six companies involved, and has now settled for a total of $30,000 from the respondents in order to cover the costs to the states' legal fees, tells me that they finally realized they didn't really have a case. That's not news to us, because we knew all along that they didn't have any evidence to implicate Town & Country Stores. This has simply been a very expensive, aggressive response on our part to defend our good name against a charge which was totally without merit."

Defendants in the case denied all allegations and consented to a final order without trial or adjudication of any issue of fact in the charges. The settlement came as a result of the parties' wish to avoid further litigation. The state will allocate the settlement sum as attorneys' fees and costs.

AGRIBUSINESS

Mohairs Chance?

Submitted by Mohair Council of America

Two Mohair Council of America officials testified last week in San Angelo before the seven-member board of the National Sheep Industry Center which is holding hearings around the nation to determine how and where to spend $20 million authorized by the Congress to benefit the sheep, goat, wool and mohair industries.

Appearing before the panel at the Texas A&M University Research Center were Jack Groff of Kerrville, council vice president, and Jess Lockhart of Utopia, the council's secretary-treasurer. A number of other West Texans involved in various segments of the mohair trade also made statements to the center board members.

According to Pierce Miller of San Angelo, chairman of the center's board, the first priority is to determine "how do we best utilize this money to the benefit of the sheep and goat industry? We are open to your ideas and suggestions. We are looking for innovative methods to improve the industries," he said.

The center can make low interest loans to businesses utilizing raw products from the sheep and goat industry. However, these loans must be repaid, thus insuring revolving funds for future use by various industry infrastructures.

Groff, a retired Extension sheep and goat specialist and Angora goat rancher, pointed out that Texas has the lowest number of mohair-producing goats since 1923. He said the decline in numbers is attributed to low mohair prices and poor demand for mohair products. He called for programs that could "jump start mohair sales" and bring stability to the marketplace.

Lockhart, a long-time mohair producer, said many mohair producers have quit the business because of cash flow problems. Those that remain are interested in maintaining ownership of their fiber beyond the shearing floor.

Several manufacturers of mohair products offered suggestions for boosting fiber prices and demand through value added processes. However, one maker of knit goods commented that his efforts to develop new products had been hindered by the reluctance of fiber mills to make short knitting runs.

Lanny Leinweber of Mountain Home, the council's president, observed that the center is opening up new opportunities for the industry. "We must find new ways to make our product more profitable," he said. "This may be our last chance."

What's Happening At the Depot

Cowboy Church of Sonora is a ministry based on a biblical principle of going out and preaching the Gospel to the lost.

Cowboy Church with Monty Price of Iraan started at the Depot in October of '96. Mid-December Robert and Maida Bryson offered the use of the Sonora Auction Barn. It was a blessing from God. Since the move we have seen salvations and growth added to the church. On May 7th we baptized 13 people in a water trough.

Monty Price is a graduate from Rhema Bible School in Tulsa, OK. For the last 12 years, Monty pastured a church in Iraan. In October, God birthed a new vision in his heart for a Cowboy Ministry to travel across this big state of Texas. Since then he has ministered at rodeos and ropings in a large part of the state. He ministers in Sonora on the 1st and 3rd Wednesday of each month at the Depot at 6:30 p.m. Monty's wife, Susan, and daughter, Leann, minister in music and his son, Jake, operates the sound system.

Scott and Emma travel with Monty to teach the Young Riders, which are children ages 6-13. They teach a Christ-centered message that kids understand and can relate to.

Come join us and see what's happening at the Depot, by the Library. A special thanks to Robert and Maida Bryson for the use of the Auction Barn. We love you. Thanks everyone at CCAW.

Inmates to speak at Sonora Middle School about drug abuse and decision making

Submitted by Ben Solis

Since 1970 the Community Education Program "Operation Kick it" has allowed select groups of inmates to deliver their personal message to audiences all over the state in an effort to present poor decision making, drug and alcohol abuse, and juvenile crime.

The inmates' very presence, accompanied with an armed security officer and prison official, present a graphic image of what wrong decisions can lead to and how those decisions can affect one's entire life. In 1970 through the Governor's office and the Department of Justice "Operation Kick it" for teenagers was established. These inmates come from the Texas Department of Texas out of Huntsville prison.

They will present their program at 10 a.m. on May 20th at the Sonora Middle School Auditorium. All the Community and Law Enforcement is invited.

Counselor's Corner

by Dale Kenneemer

I know someone who believes strongly in God but prefers to not be part of a church. Instead, this person worships God alone and prays in solitude. What do you think about this?

I think that, certainly, a person's private walk with the Lord is essential to one's life of faith. And this has traditionally been done in conjunction with and in the context of a relationship with an organized church body.

However, the person you refer to is not the only one, by far, who wishes to conduct their relationship with God in such a solitary manner. I have worked with a number of clients and have had acquaintances who took this route.

There also have been some monastic sects in the history of Christianity who took this approach. One of these groups, called the Desert Fathers, isolated themselves out in the desert for long periods of time in order to meditate and commune with God.

So, I would say that solitary religious expression is an acceptable means of pursuing a relationship with God, even if being in a corporate community of believers is the norm.

However, I can not help but think about the spiritual and relational enrichment that could be added to such a person's spiritual life if he or she were closely connected with a local church body. I also wonder, as you may too, why someone might choose such an isolated way of religious life. For some, the reason is that they have been very badly hurt by experiences with churches or with people associated with churches. And this has turned them away from church life and in some cases, God as well.

Some of these wounding experiences can come during childhood. If a parent or grandparent, especially a father or grandfather, used religion in an abusive manner or used it as a way to reinforce other forms of abuse. For others, a solitary religious life might just simply flow from the person's naturally introverted or independent approach to life.

No matter what the reason, the most important thing is that the person has a relationship with God. Whether or not to share it with other fellow believers is a matter of individual choice.

James Donovan Smith will preach the revival for New Life Assembly of God Sunday, May 18th beginning at 7:00 p.m.

Rev. Smith founded the Boyd Christian Academy and attends Arlington Heights Assembly in Ft. Worth.

Sonora Housing Auth. accepting apps

The office of the Sonora Housing Authority is accepting applications for the Section 8 Rental Assistance Program. The applications are taken on a first-come, first-served basis.

Housing assistance is in the form of the Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Section 8 Rental Voucher Program. Through the program, eligible families receive assistance in paying rent.

Qualifying families are required to pay 30% of their adjusted-gross income toward rent and utilities, with the Housing Authority paying the remaining amount directly to the landlord. Families whose income does not exceed the maximum annual gross income limits as set annually by HUD are eligible to apply to the program.

A "family" is defined as a single person who is at least 62 years of age, disabled, or handicapped. A "family" is also defined as two or more persons sharing residency whose income and assets are available to meet family needs and who are related by blood, marriage, or operation of law, or who have evidence of a stable family relationship which has existed over a period of time.

Any persons having questions or requiring more information may contact Sue E. Moore, Public Housing Director at the Sonora Housing Authority, 201 E. Main St. or call 387-3977.

EMS and T D H Remind Texans "EMS: Making a Difference... for Life"

Sutton Co. EMS and the Texas Department of Health remind you and your family that emergency response teams serve your community in times for medical and traumatic emergencies and are there to make a difference for life. Texas EMS Week is May 18-24, 1997.

"Sutton Co. EMS is a community-oriented organization. Our mission is to provide the best, most timely prehospital care to injured or ill individuals, while transporting that individual as quickly as possible to the nearest appropriate medical facility," Patrick Campbell, EMS administrator, said. "Public support is vital to our organization."

Dr. Pattie Patterson, Texas Commissioner of Health, said, "Emergency medical services are an integral part of a system of care for victims of sudden and serious illness and injury. In Texas, this system depends on the availability and coordination of many different elements, ranging from an informed public which is able to recognize a medical emergency, to a network of trauma centers that provides highly specialized care to the most seriously ill or injured. Texas benefit daily from the knowledge and skills of 50,000 trained and certified emergency personnel."

Patrick Campbell said, "We hope that people keep themselves safe from injury by wearing seat belts, buckling children into child safety car seats and in the back seat, not drinking while driving, being careful with fire, and practicing other good safety habits. We also want people in Sutton County to know that while we want them to stay healthy and safe, we are here to help them when they're injured or sick."

Do you understand the difference between a...

- Living Trust
- Living Will
- Power of Attorney
- Ordinary Will

A will, a living will, a living trust and a power of attorney are important legal documents. Every adult should probably have one of each and know their benefits. A living trust lets you safely put your assets in your heirs' names before you die. You keep control of your property, but you avoid high estate taxes and time consuming probate.

A living will lets you instruct your relatives and doctors not to use artificial life support to keep you alive if you're terminally ill. Without it, huge hospital expenses could wipe out your savings, leaving nothing for your heirs.

Ordinary Will - Without it, a court - not you - directs who receives your assets when you die. Heirs could wind up sharing your estate with little-known relatives, and the court could assign your minor children a guardian (possibly someone you would not want to raise them).

A power of attorney designates someone to act on your behalf if you become unable to do so, without going through a lengthy court action.

Why do you need all four? Each document works with the others to protect you and those you love against unwanted interference by strangers.

Do I need a lawyer? You are not required to hire a lawyer to draw up these documents. Attorney reviewed documents, like these, save expensive legal fees and are valid in all 50 states. If your affairs are complex, consultation with a qualified attorney is recommended, though you may still wish to use the kit for interim protection.

Do Not Delay - Anything can happen any time. Kit contains everything you need, including easy-to-follow instructions and fill-in-the-blank forms. Your satisfaction is guaranteed. If not delighted, simply return the kit for a full refund. Send $19.95 plus $2.95 s&h to: TDM Research, Dept K1, 123 South St., Oyster Bay NY 11771. NY, TX residents add 8.25% sales tax.
