By DOLPH MOTEN

Tuesday's the day. After it's over, we'll know the wishes of voters across the state and nation and how a majority of them feel about the current political candidates.

Locally, the two races drawing the most interest are for U. S. Representative from this district, the 18th, and for U. S. Senator.

Strong campaigns are being waged by both the Demos and the Repubs in each of these races. They are the ones which will attract the voters to the polls.

The outcome of the races could be decided by how many voters are attracted. A large turnout should assure the Democrats of victory while a light vote could possibly give the winning edge to the Republicans.

That light vote was the way the present senator, Republican John Tower, was elected in the first place and it is hoped that Texas voters, especially the Democratic ones, won't slip up and let that happen for the second time.

Opposing Tower is Waggoner Carr of Lubbock County. He is a man who has successfully moved steadily up the ladder of public service and is deserving to represent his state in the United States Senate. Carr is hoping to vault from his post as the state's attorney general into the senate seat now occupied by Tower. Tower, who earned the image of being ultra-conservative, has attempted, during the present campaign, to picture himself as a middle-of-the-roader. How successful he has been in this effort remains to be seen.

Closer to home and possibly even more important to people in our area is the race for Congressman, Dee Miller, former district attorney from Amarillo, is running against Republican Bob Price of Pampa. Miller was named as the Democratic nominee after Rogers resigned following the Demo primary in May.

Price is making his second attempt to win the seat. He ran against, and lost to, Rogers two years ago.

Miller's campaign, shortened by his late start in the race, has been one of common sense including the fact that a Democratic representative from our district will be in a better position to work advantageously for us than would a Republican, who would be in a left-out minority from the start.

Miller points out that he will be in a position to be heard, either in support of or in opposition to, legislation which affects the 18th Congressional District.

On the other hand, Miller, who has brought his campaign to Parmer County and Bovina, points out that a Republican will be unheard, unwelcome and ineffective.

Miller was impressive when he came here soliciting votes. He understands the needs of an agricultural area and is interested in helping with legislation which would be beneficial. He doesn't want to put farmers out of business; he wants to make their business better. And when the farmers' business is better, usually everybody's is.

Miller is experienced as a public servant, having served in the district attorney's office in Amarillo for more than six years with the latter part of that time as the head man.

He is advertised as having "a young man's vision, a mature man's judgment and an experienced man's competence." He is beyond a shadow of a doubt our choice of the two candidates to represent our district in Washington.

We feel that if the other candidate is elected, people in our part of the district will be 'way short on proper representation.

It comes, we guess, as no surprise to regular readers of ours, if any, that we are in favor of the Democratic candidates in this year's general election. We just think that's the best deal for our area, that's all.

Football fans from here who followed their team to Kress were probably impressed, as we were, by the fine facilities (Continued on Page 2)

General Election 2,500 Voters In Parmer Co.

Between 2500 and 3000 people are qualified to vote in the 1966 general election, according to figures released from the office of Hugh Moseley, county tax assessor-collector.

Of that number, 2224 became eligible to vote by paying their poll taxes before the tax was nullified by a federal court decision. In the county, 279 later registered to vote, bringing this total to 2503. However, an undetermined number of adults may vote who are 21 years of age or over 65 years of age. In the 1964 general election, a presidential election year, 2910 Parmer County voters went to the polls.

Polls will open at 8 a.m. Tuesday and close at 7 p.m. Polling places and the election judges have been announced for the general election:

Black, Precinct 1, Community Center, Mrs. Glen Robertson, judge;

Friona, Precinct 2, junior high auditorium, O. J. Beene, judge;

Bovina, Precinct 3, American Legion Hall, J. E. Sherrill, judge;

Farwell, Precinct 4, court house, Albert Smith, judge;

Lazbuddie, Precinct 5, high school auditorium, J. D. Carpenter, judge;

Oklahoma Lane, Precinct 6, Community Center, Harold Carpenter, judge;

Rhea, Precinct 7, Parish Hall, Melvin Sachs, judge;

Lakeview, Precinct 8, Otho Whitefield home, Otho Whitefield, judge.

The county commissioners will pay the election judges $12.50 for 10 hours and $1.25 per hour for each hour over 10.

Board Holds Special Meet

At a called meeting of trustees of Bovina Independent School District Thursday night, members accepted the resignation of Ben Templeton and approved the employment of Mrs. Gene Douglas to teach science in high school, Oris Spears, superintendent, announces.

Also under discussion was a building program for Bovina Schools.

Arnold Maeker, school architect of Lubbock, was authorized to bring facts and figures up to date on such a building program.

However, Spears said, no definite plans will be considered until these facts and figures are in the hands of Bovina trustees.

LONG BALLOT -- J. E. Sherrill, election judge of Precinct 3, Bovina, looks over a sample ballot that voters will mark Tuesday in the general election. In addition to state and district elections, the ballot contains 16 amendments to the Texas constitution. Polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. in the Legion Hall here.

Sears-Roebuck Foundation --

Medical Survey Completed Soon

The community medical survey for medical assistance conducted by the Bovina Woman's Study Club for the Sears-Roebuck Foundation will be completed by the end of this week, according to Mrs. Jesse Walling, chairman of the community improvement committee.

No Injuries In Accident

No one was injured in a two-car collision Friday afternoon about 2 p.m. at the intersection of Highway 86 and First Street, according to Deputy Sheriff Henry Minter.

The accident occurred when a Chevrolet attempted a turn onto First Street and was hit on the right side by an Oklahoma automobile that was travelling west.

The Chevrolet, driven by Steve Sherrill and containing several boys, was travelling east on Highway 86. The boys were turning onto First Street leading to the FFA feed lots.

The Oklahoma vehicle passengers included a man, his wife and a 14-year old son. Their names were not available.

Estimated damage on the Oklahoma car was about $600, while damage on the Sherrill automobile was estimated at about $500, Minter said.

During the week-long survey, 100 families have been interviewed by volunteer workers and members of the Study Club. They related their family's medical history for the past year, how many times they visited the doctor, were in the hospital, how much money was spent, and many other questions relating to the possible need of a clinic and doctor in Bovina.

The survey has been conducted in hopes of securing a doctor and clinic for Bovina through the Sears-Roebuck Foundation, which works with the American Medical Association in the project.

When the 100 forms are completed in the Bovina survey about the end of the week, they will be sent for processing to the Medical Program, Sears-Roebuck Foundation, Chicago, Ill.

If Bovina qualifies for the program, the Foundation will install a clinic and supply a doctor through the AMA here. Bovina will be required to furnish a building.

About 20 people helped with the survey here, Mrs. Walling said, including representatives from all the churches and civic organizations, who have also helped with the various money-raising projects for a clinic.

Over $4,000 was raised the past year toward the project and these are continuing in Bovina this year, including rummage sales and Christmas Card Project, whereby citizens deposit the money that would ordinarily be spent to send Christmas cards to local friends and customers.

Mrs. Walling says that the Community Improvement Committee plans to construct a new building for the clinic and that efforts will continue to raise money for the project in Bovina.

Payment of 1966 Bovina Independent School District taxes on Oct. 31 were $38,357.01, according to Mrs. Pearl Dodson, school district tax assessor-collector, up $8,808.44 at the same date last year.

On Oct. 31, 1965, taxes paid totaled $29,548.57.

The total tax roll for 1966 in this school district is $204,794.10.

Tax payers have until Jan. 31, 1967 to submit their payments without a penalty, Mrs. Dodson said.

Parmer County voters go to the polls Tuesday in a state-wide general election with the office of U. S. Senator and that of Congressman of the 18th District stealing the spotlight in this area.

Other state offices with Democratic incumbents find opposition from the Republican and Conservative parties, however, but all precinct candidates are unopposed.

Also on the long ballot appear 16 amendments to the Texas Constitution.

Seeking the U. S. Senate post are Republican John Tower, incumbent, and Texas' current attorney general, Waggoner Carr, who is running on the Democratic ticket. Also appearing on the ballot is James Barker Holland of the Constitution Party.

Dee Miller of Amarillo is seeking the Congressional seat of the Democratic Party, vacated by Representative Walter Rogers, who did not seek re-election. Bob Price of Pampa is the Republican candidate.

Other state-wide elections include that of governor.

Governor John Connally is opposed by Republican T. E. Kennerly, Tommie Gillespie of the Constitution Party and Bard A. Logan of the Conservative Party. The latter is the Conservative Party's only candidate appearing on the ballot in the general election.

For Lieutenant Governor is Democratic candidate for re-election, Preston Smith; Kellis Dibrell, Republican; and William A. (Bill) Johnson, Constitution.

Crawford C. Martin is the Democratic nominee running for Attorney General of Texas to replace Waggoner Carr. He is opposed by Robb Stewart, Republican, and John C. Williams, Constitution.

For Commissioner of Agriculture are Democratic incumbent, John C. White, Republican Jack Garrett; and Derek C. Bownds of the Constitution Party.

Democrat Jerry Sadler seeks re-election as Commissioner of General Land Office. Also seeking the office are Albert Fay, Republican, and Joseph L. Tiller, Constitution.

State Treasurer Jesse James, a Democrat, is opposed for re-election to the office by Republican Lawrence Daffan Gilmer and by Constitution Party member Jesse Lee James.

Railroad Commissioner Byron Tunnell has only one opponent, David R. Clark of the Constitution Party.

Parmer County precinct elections include two commissioner posts and three justices of the peace positions.

In Precinct 4, Lazbuddie, Raymond Treider, Jr. is seeking election as commissioner. He was appointed by the Commissioners Court to fill out the term of George Crane, deceased. He was named as the Demo candidate for the office by the County Democratic executive committee.

Precinct 2, Bovina, has the lone name of C. H. Jefferson for commissioner.

In Justice of the Peace Precinct 1, Farwell, J.R. Thornton is asking re-election. Jim Roberts seeks election to Justice of the Peace Precinct 2, Friona, and Wilbur Charles of Precinct 3, Bovina.

A brief description of the 16 amendments to be passed or rejected by the voters follow.

For Bovina Students --

TB Tests Given At School Tuesday

First and seventh grade students in the Bovina Schools, along with all students whose parents gave their permission, will receive tuberculin tests Tuesday, according to Mrs. Katherine Lockhart, school nurse.

Letters were sent to parents concerning the testing program. Those wishing their children to receive the test were required to sign the letter and return it to school.

The state requires that first and seventh grade students receive the skin test, but they do not necessarily have to receive it at school. They are free to visit their physician for the test if so desired.

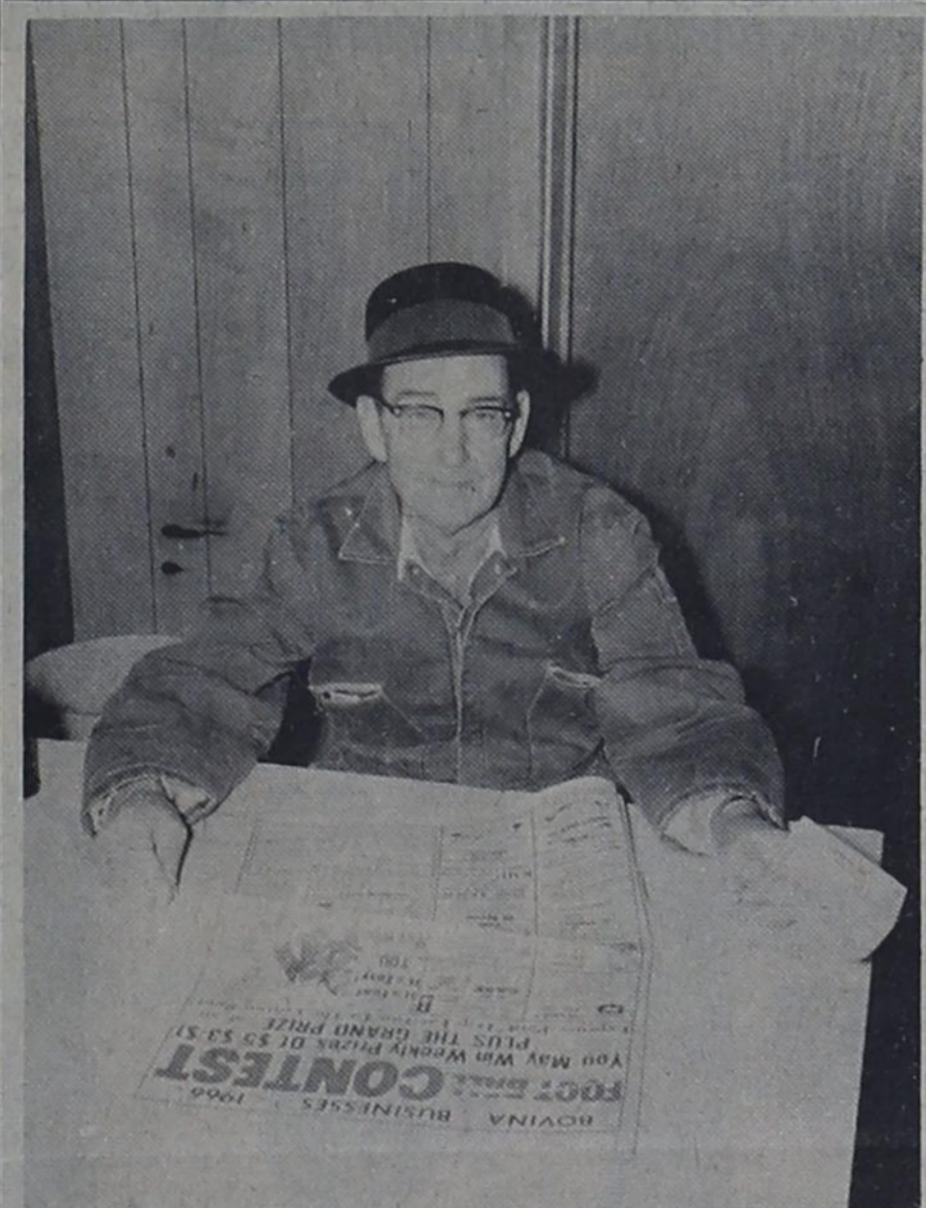

Other students may also have the test, but must have their parents' permission.

Following the testing, results will be read by Mrs. Lockhart. Those showing a positive reaction should have a chest X-ray, she said. However, such a reaction does not mean the child has tuberculosis, but may only have come in contact with someone who does.

Purpose of the program is to find these "contacts", so that tuberculosis can be eradicated in Texas, Mrs. Lockhart stated.

In addition, those who do have tuberculosis should be under treatment of their physician, she pointed out.

Last week a film titled "The Hidden Disease" was shown in high school assembly. Parents were also invited and urged to attend. The film was narrated by a member of the State Health Department.

NOT FRUSTRATED -- Carl Rea is one of the few Cotton Bowl Football Contest participants who guessed correctly on football upsets this week to win the $5 first prize money. He was the only contestant choosing nine of the winners.

Sherrill Leading --

Carl Rea Winner In Weekly Contest

After a week-end filled with college game upsets, Carl Rea came closest to foreseeing outcomes of the most football games to take top prize money in the eighth week of the 13-week Bovina Businesses Cotton Bowl Football Contest.

He named nine winners in high school and college clashes to win $5. John Wilson came in second for $3 and Mrs. Earl Richards was third for $1. Both picked eight winners, along with five others. The two emerged second and third on their tie-breaker scores.

Stephen Sherrill, freshman student in Bovina High School, is still in the lead with 53 points, but his lead was narrowed to one game as Mrs. Jewell Tabor pulled up to 52. Four share the $1-game slot, Truck Lusk, Tom Bonds, Patricia DiCuffa and Wilson DiCuffa. Seven others have 50 games to their credit.

As the contest comes into the home stretch with five more weekly contests to go, interest is expected to increase on the overall contest victory. Each week, however, has seen new entries trying for the $5 prize. Others picking eight winners correctly this week were Shirley Lance, Leroy Lance, Jerry Burnett, Alfred Stanberry, and Kay Stone.

Only 13 contestants picked seven correctly in the week of upsets, John Getz of Farwell, Aerierto Delgado, June Askman of Clovis, Houston Bartlett, Lanny Pullig, Emmett Tabor, Flossie Rhinehart, Hugh Rogers, Bob Robinson, Mack Ragsdale of Friona, Koffee Klub, Ed Hutto and Wilson DiCuffa.

Of the 142 entries this week, one named nine; seven picked eight; 13, seven; 54, six; 36, five; 21, four; nine, three; one, two; and one, one.

WORKING FOR A CLINIC -- Members of Bovina Woman's Study Club and volunteer workers met last week to draw names for the medical survey conducted here during the past week. Left to right are Mrs. Jesse Walling, chairman of Community Improvement Committee; Mrs. Earl Stevenson, president of BWSC; Mrs. Leslie McCain, volunteer; Mrs. Reagan Looney, Study Club member; Mrs. Leon Ware, and in the background, Mrs. Don Murphy, both volunteers.

Why that community can have better facilities than we do, we don't know.

Ours need to be improved. We might as well face it and prepare to do something about it. We're competing in a fast Class A league with slow Class B facilities.

If we couldn't afford better than we have, it would be different.

But we can!

After thinking about it long and hard, we've decided that this column is no place for comments about Southwest Conference football... this is especially true this particular week.

North America's breeding duck population has made a remarkable comeback from the low period of 1965. This increase, plus improved nesting conditions on the vital northern prairie breeding grounds, is expected to produce a larger flight of ducks this fall, according to the Department of the Interior.

A total of 34,827,066 hunters and fishermen in the United States spent a record $138 million on hunting and fishing licenses and permits during the 1965 fiscal year.

Still-hunting means searching out the game instead of ambushing it. It means outwitting instead of outwitting. To do so successfully means traveling ever so slowly across the landscape, either upwind or with a crosswind, while watching for the slightest flick of movement ahead that spells deer. It's a tense business. And it isn't recommended for weak hearts.

Bovina's $25,000 city bond election Thursday was defeated. Final totals for the two propositions -- one for water tax bonds and the other for sewer tax bonds -- was 88-60 and 90-58. Members of Bovina Cemetery Association met with the city commission Monday night in the city hall during a regular meeting of the commission. Purpose of the two groups getting their heads together was to discuss installing a two-inch city water line to the Bovina Cemetery, which is in southeast Bovina.

Bovina Junior Chamber of Commerce considered building a lighted softball park in Bovina at a regular Saturday noon meeting.

Texas agreed with the nation in returning President Eisenhower to his second term of office in the general election Tuesday, but it was a different story in predominantly-agricultural Parmer County.

Here, Adali Stevenson and Estes Kefauver, the Democratic nominees for the nation's two highest offices, took a clear-cut victory. It was not, however, an overwhelming one, and pre-election guesses had predicted the margin would be wider.

Football hero and football queen will be crowned Friday night at Mustang Field.

Candidates for queen are Ellen Berry, Patricia Lloyd, Joan Kay Ezell and Suzie Estes. The hero candidates are Neil Smith, Sonny Brito, Dick Horn and Mike Barraza.

Coach R. E. Everett's Bovina High School girls' basketball team is getting the jump on the boys' squad. The Fillies have already played in four scrimmage games and are practicing regularly.

Burford Stanberry was the big winner in Saturday's Boost Bovina drawing. He walked off with $15.

This community is on brink of having its first chamber of commerce in years.

Groundwork for the new chamber was laid at a Thursday night meeting in American Legion Hall which bubbled with enthusiasm. Some 30 businesses were represented at the meeting called to discuss prospects for a charter here and to make plans on how chamber should be organized if the people were interested.

A political poll, taken jointly by Parmer County's three newspapers, indicates that Vice President Richard M. Nixon will carry the county over his Democratic opponent, Senator John F. Kennedy.

Parmer County Judge Loyde A. Brewer was in Austin last Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 25 and 26, attending a state conference for civil defense directors throughout the state.

Gateway Produce Company, which this year for the first time undertook the growing of 200 acres of mixed vegetables in the Bovina area, has just completed the harvest and marketing of the experimental crop.

Quality and yield on most all of the 13 varieties was good, but it isn't known yet just how successful the venture was. Combines, trucks and elevators throughout the Parmer County area have been operating at full force each day and into the night following the week's interruption caused by hail and rain.

Friday is homecoming for ex-students of Bovina Schools. Queen and football hero will be named at halftime of the ball game. Queen candidates are Penny Lloyd, Dixie Hartzog, Brenda Jones and Judy Roach.

How To Protect Your Home For Winter Weather Ahead

Your home like your automobile needs a check-up to assure that it is ready for the icy cold months that lie ahead.

Here is a series of suggestions from your local retail building material dealer for "winterizing" your home this fall...

- 1) Examine the exterior walls to be sure there are no loose shingles or siding.
2) Check downspouts and gutters for leaves, twigs and other debris that might clog them up.
3) Inspect your wood basement hatchway. If it is rotted or worn, replace it with a steel one.
4) Drain water lines to faucets outside the house. Turn off inside valves when you're through.
5) Check the weather stripping around doors and windows and replace any that are worn out.
6) Replace broken window panes.
7) Check insulation around garage door. Assure yourself that the door bottom insulation fits snug to floor.
8) Examine attic insulation. More fill, blankets or batts may be required.
9) Check mortar lines around house foundation.

Your local lumber dealer can provide you with ideas, materials and tools to prepare your home for winter.

The 1967 County 4-H Council officers were elected last Saturday at a meeting of the County Council in Bovina. Ann Blackstone will be president of the council.

Plans were worked out for the County 4-H Achievement Banquet to be held November 19 in Bovina Schools Cafeteria. This is the big event of the year for 4-H'ers. Much credit for this event is given to the business firms in Parmer County and the two Electric Cooperatives serving this County, the Deaf Smith County Cooperative in Hereford and the Bailey County Electric in Muleshoe.

While on the subject of 4-H, this is to remind all adult 4-H leaders for Home Economic project work of the Adult Leader Symposium to be held in Hereford, November 17, at 10 a.m. The meeting will be in the Community Building ballroom.

This is a four county leader meeting to sort of "kick off" a new phase of leader training and we need every leader's ideas and it is hoped you will get some helpful inspiration too. RACE WITH RISING FOOD COST

The editorial on food cost in last week's State Line Tribune was appreciated and should make homemakers take another look at facts - rather than just complain and grumble.

Here are some facts too, that need to be considered on the subject.

Much emphasis is being placed on ways the homemaker can beat the grocer's cash register. According to a special assistant on consumer affairs, variety and planning are the keys for homemakers who want to buy to make the most of a dollar. Part of this planning includes:

- Shop weekly specials.
-Buy when supplies are plentiful.
-Try lower priced brands and grades.

-Make a list and stick to it. (Leave children at home).

-Substitute day-old bread, powdered milk, cheaper cuts of meat, specials, and meat substitute dishes.

-Figure the cost per ounce, per pound, or per serving.

-There's no limit to how much one can spend and how much one can save. Unfortunately, research shows that those who need most to know how to shop --teen-age brides, poor families, and the uneducated -- know least how to do it.

Programs to meet these needs seem to be studied and based on research-not on advertising commercials.

Know The Truth By Lavern Stewart

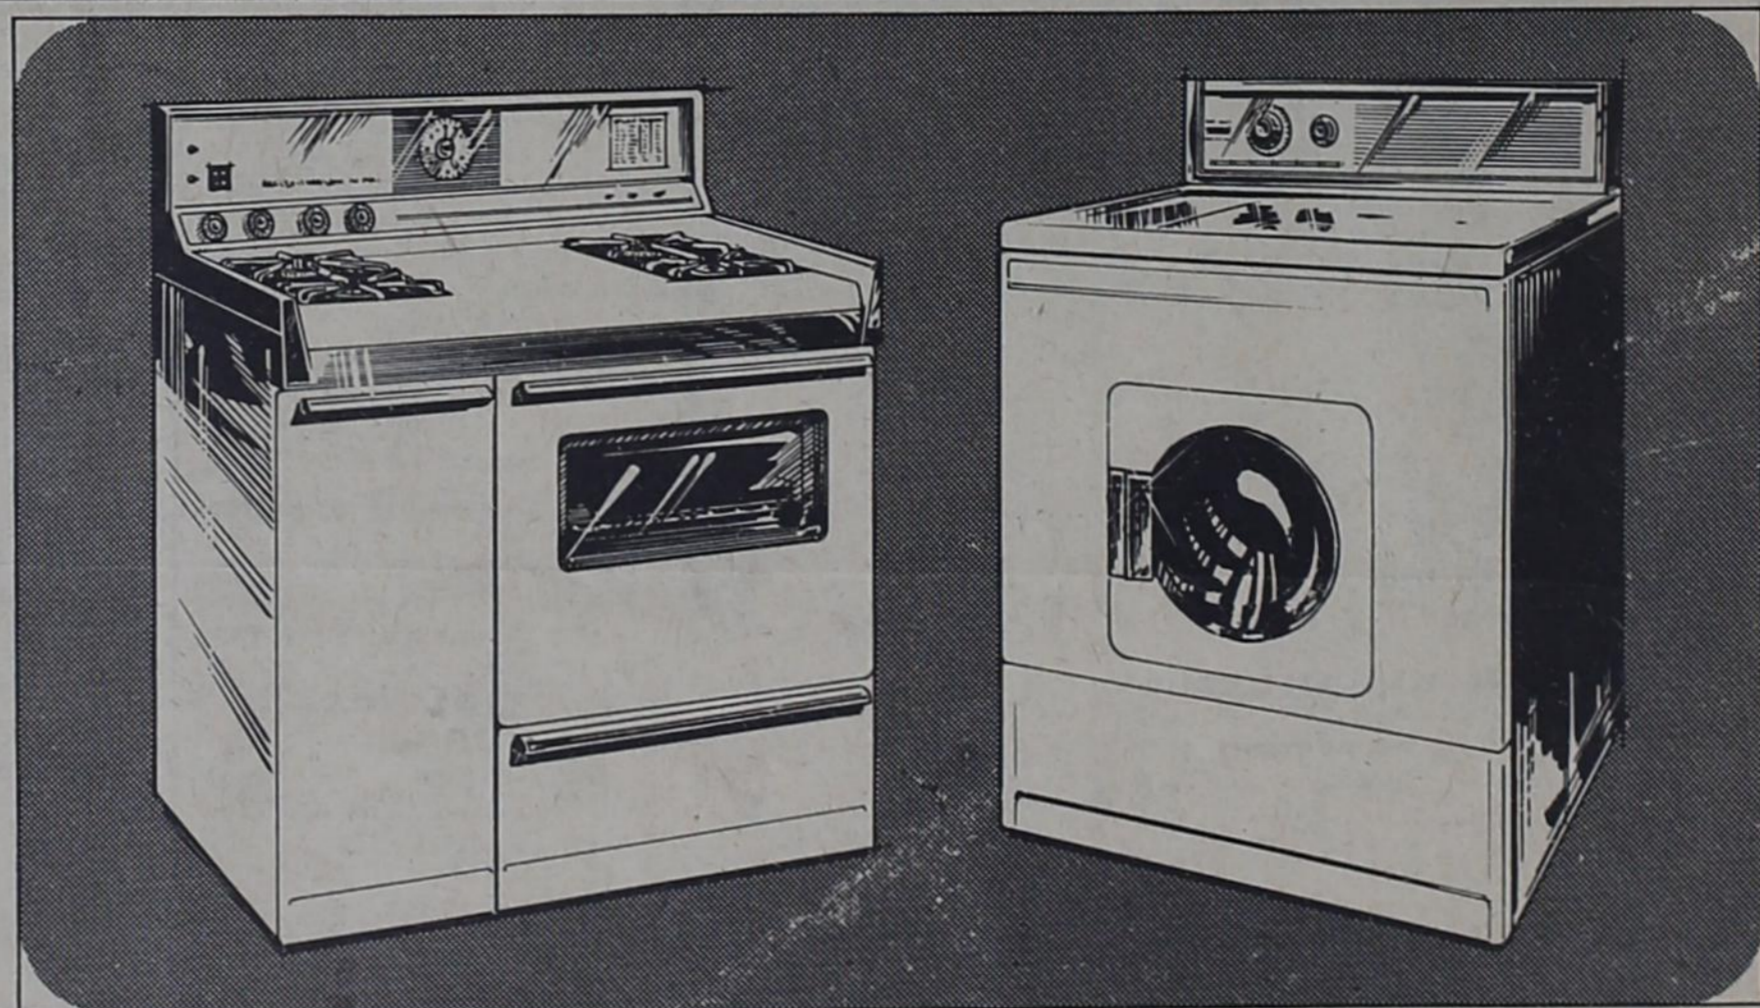

Upon what could all who claim to follow Christ unite? Should unity be sought at the price of truth? Does it matter to God what men believe and practice? When men showed they didn't love the truth of God, they were left to follow their own ways. Notice, Psalms 81:11, 12, "But my people would not hearken to my voice; and Israel would none of me. So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust; and they walked in their own counsels."

There is only one thing upon which real unity can be had; that is the teaching of Christ as delivered by the apostles, John 17:20, 21. In the first century such unity existed, Acts 5:32. Oneness of belief will bring oneness of organization -- the proof, Ephesians 4:1-6.

From a furniture company in Lubbock, Jennings spoke on furniture arrangement and told the ladies they should consult a furniture man before building a new home. With the house plans, advice can be given so space is available in the new home for all the furniture and adjustments can be made before the house is built.

He also discussed picture arrangement, color schemes, interest centers, draperies and other items of interest in home decoration.

About 45 women and girls attended the meeting, including members of homemaking classes in Bovina Schools, their mothers, instructor, Miss Pat Simons, and 20 members of BWSC.

Indian summer has fully lived up to its name in Bovina the past few days and after the windy week before, no one has been complaining.

This is the time of year when the lucky ones go to the mountains to see the "colors", as the natives call it when the Aspens turn. It's also the time of year for which landscape artists wait 12 months.

The trees that nature lovers travel hundreds of miles to see couldn't be any prettier than the one at the home of Mrs. Marvin Puckett on Second Street has been this fall.

Just seeing Mrs. Puckett's tree every morning when arriving at The Blade has started the day right.

You've heard the old West Texas saying -- if you don't like the weather, wait a minute. Halloween night was a perfect example of the truth of that statement. Within a few short hours, Bovina braced itself against a duster, then awoke to the fall's first snow.

There are some of the most interesting people in Bovina, as has been discovered through interviews for feature stories to appear in the Christmas edition -- for instance, the Frank Hastings who have lived here since the early days and remember things many people never heard of -- the J. P. Macons who live with history every day among their many antiques and are constantly reminded of their rich heritage -- and others who will be contacted in the future. We think you will enjoy the stories they have related.

Remember -- When you wore long stockings to school and rolled them into tight little knots around your ankles as soon as mother was out of sight? Sitting on a pine school bench (with splinters) and eating a soggy sandwich at noon from a Cottolene bucket? When a drug store was the only place one could buy Kleenex-- or ice cream -- or aspirin? When there was no television and mothers and dads had time to talk to their children -- and children had time to answer? Running boards -- spring tonics -- arbor meetings -- lily ponds -- fried mush -- farmers delivering eggs and milk from door to door -- and sand lot football? And then, remember the olden days when "Star Dust" and "There Will Never Be Another You" were soft, dreamy tunes?

Carnival Nets Nearly $200

Order of the Rainbow for Girls showed a profit of from $175 to $200 as a result of the Halloween Carnival staged at the fire station Monday night. It was the first time the Rainbow Girls had held such a carnival here and was well attended by boys and girls of Bovina. Proceeds will be used to finance a trip to Grand Assembly next summer.

"Sin is everywhere, present company excepted of course, and evil threatens all mankind, present company excepted of course. . ."

Why Are We Here?

I am debtor both to the Greeks and to the barbarians.
 Romans 1:14

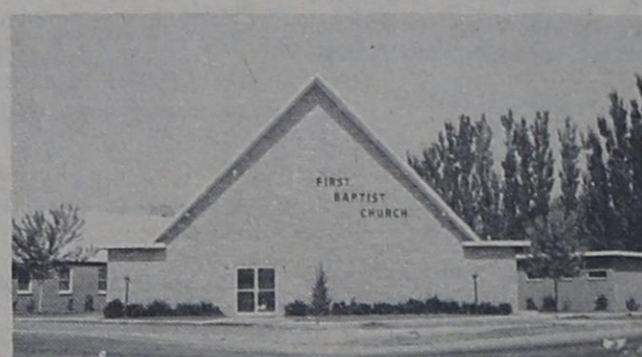

A young man for the first time left home to study for the ministry at a boarding school some 300 miles away. The first day in his strange new surroundings the teacher looked at the class and said solemnly in Latin, "Dic cur hic" - "Tell me why you are here." He was trying to impress on the students that they were there to study, to pray, to prepare themselves for their high calling. They were not there for fun or sports or for their own amusement.

Have we thought about the purpose and meaning of our life? Why are we here? What is life all about? Most people do not have the answers to those questions, and they will not accept the answers that God gives in His Word, the Bible. Hence they are the bewildered playthings of forces beyond their control. Life becomes pointless and stupid because they are completely ignorant of its purpose.

If we know God as He has revealed Himself in His Son, then we know that we are children of God, that we are here to serve Him and our fellowman, and that we are headed for an eternity of bliss with Him in heaven. That's what life is all about. That's why we are here. That's where we are going.

This we shall do if we kneel at the cross, where we find forgiveness, peace, and guidance day after day.

Farm Report --

Grain Harvest Over, Cotton Underway

Grain harvest in the Bovina area is about over, elevator operators say, and is expected to be finished this week.

At the same time, ginners in the area say that farmers are beginning to strip their cotton fields and the rush will be on. Ginning began at the two Bovina gins and at Oklahoma Lane over the week end.

Sugar beet harvest continues at a steady pace, although sugar content is reported to be lower than desired, averaging 13.5, according to Holly Sugar Company employees.

Milo brought to the elevators in Bovina is averaging from 6,000 to 7,000 pounds per acre this year and has low moisture content now, some of it so dry that it will barely test.

Market price on grain has held steady during the harvest, both Sherley Grain Co. and Bovina Wheat Growers reported paying $1.70 per hundred pounds, according to Charles King at Sherley and Jim Russell at the Wheat Growers.

Best yields of milo has been from about 7500 to 8000 pounds per acre, but some has also been low, operators say.

With grain harvest about over, cotton farmers are beginning to strip their fields. Until the week end only a few bales had been ginned. A big rush is expected at all gins as farmers will probably all be stripping at the same time. Cotton production, however, is expected to be below normal in the Bovina-Oklahoma Lane area this year.

Sugar beet harvest remains at a steady pace, with farmers contracted with Holly Sugar Company, digging their contracted amount of beets each day and bringing them to the loading station in Bovina, a spokesman said.

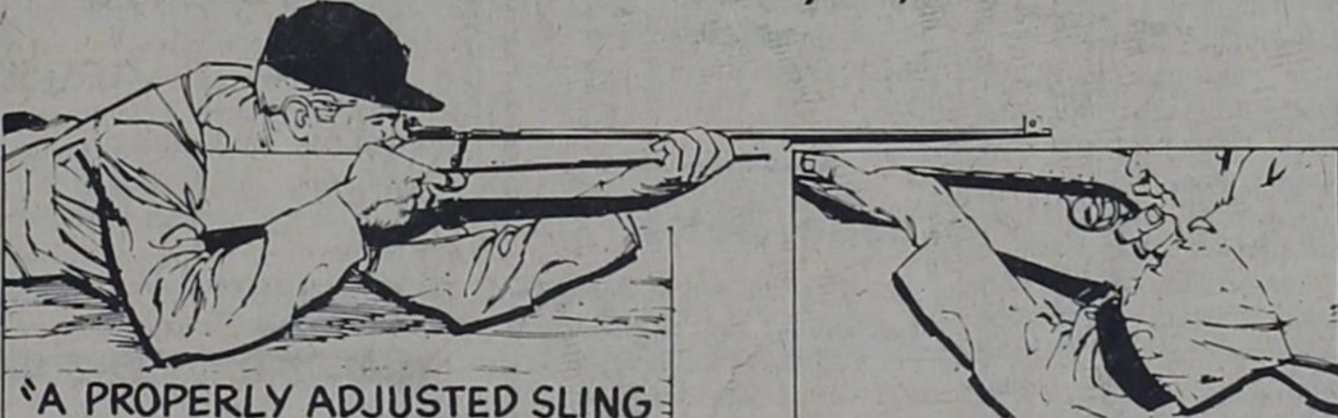

FIVE AND A HALF TONS -- Milton Mead, soil conservationist, determines that Marion Fite produced 11,000 pounds of grain sorghum residue in producing 6,500 pounds of grain.

ROTARY TILLER OPERATION -- After using the first operation, 5,500 pounds, or one-half, the residue was left on the surface, as determined by Milton Mead, soil conservationist.

On Marion Fite Farm --

Conservation Program With Grain Stubble

Marion Fite, Farmer County farmer who farms near Friona, has used two operations to produce good residue on his grain sorghum land, according to Eddy T. Willman of the Soil Conservation Service.

Fite produced an estimated 6500 pounds of grain sorghum per acre on his farm and in addition produced 11,000 pounds of grain sorghum residue per acre, Tillman added.

The problem facing Fite was how to manage the residue so that he receives the most from it while at the same time managing it not to interfere with the grain sorghum crop he plans to plant on the same field next spring.

In trying to solve this program, Tillman said Fite used a rotary tiller across the lower end of the field. This reduced the amount of residue by one-half.

Tillman explained that this accomplishes five things: (1) Maintains soil structure which will maintain the rate at which water enters the soil, an important benefit, Tillman said, because the clay loam and silty clay loam soils tend to cement together retarding water intake and movement, making irrigation easier. (2) Conserves moisture by having the mulch on the surface which will reduce the rate of evaporation. (3) Modifies soil temperature by having the mulch on the surface which will keep the soil warmer in winter and cooler in summer. (4) Affects available plant nutrients by changing the chemical content of the soil and increasing biological activity. (5) Reduces the soil susceptibility to both wind and water erosion.

To be sure that residue has been reduced to the proper amount, Fite followed the rotary tiller with an offset disk on a portion of the field. This additional operation reduced the amount of residue on the surface to 2,250 pounds per acre.

In these two operations, Fite proves that good residue management can be accomplished by using a rotary tiller soon after grain sorghum is harvested, then disking one time between then and about Jan. 1 when seedbed preparation is started.

My Neighbors

"See here now, you two—I'm seriously considering dropping your case."

DESIRED RESIDUE -- After both rotary tilling and disking, 2,250 pounds of residue per acre remained on the surface, as measured by Milton Mead. This provides the right amount to accomplish good conservation practices.

PROGRESSIVE BUSINESS & CIVIC-MINDED PEOPLE OF HEREFORD AND VICINITY

This department has been worked up largely as a reflection of public opinion. No person has written of themselves or their business. All articles have been compiled by a representative of The Bovina Blade as he saw conditions. These people are all leaders in their various lines of endeavor and the cooperation of those citizens in Hereford who helped make this department possible is sincerely appreciated.

Jack Griffin

Hereford has attained a prominent position in the business and industrial life of this section of West Texas because of the foresight of those men who had the ability to envision the possibilities of the community, and the trade area it serves. And a wide awake business executive who justly should be included in this category is Jack Griffin of the Griffin & Brand Sales Agency Incorporated.

Such men have, many times over, proven their worth to the community, both as business men and as active workers in the civic betterment and progress of the city. And Mr. Griffin has earned the good will and respect of his fellow citizens for contributing his bit to the general welfare of the city, and the people as a whole.

It is our duty to include Jack Griffin in that group of conscientious and civic minded men who are doing so much for Hereford, and to express the wish that he will continue for many years to forge ahead with the success which he has enjoyed in the past.

L.C. Thomas

It is fitting in this review of conscientious Hereford business men that we acquaint our readers with the one to be credited with having maintained King's Manor, and King's Manor-Westgate in the enviable position it holds in the business and civic life of this area. That personality is L. C. Thomas, business manager, whose genius for organization, and for converting new ideas into actual deeds, has played a vital part in the distinctive reputation which this rest home now enjoys throughout this entire district.

Mr. Thomas has found time, in addition to his business interests, to give thought and energy to community projects. He is a citizen whose talents have been steadfastly devoted to the best interests of the city. He has been successful in his own business, and in the promotion of the general welfare of the community.

We are glad to pay this brief tribute to him, and to say that this district owes much to the many benefits which L. C. Thomas and King's Manor have rendered to the people.

Hubert and Audrey Stoerner

Good motels and tourist courts are indispensable to the growth and development of a growing city such as Hereford. And the K-Bar Motel, combining the best features of both, has accommodated a great many tourists and business men in a manner which assures them of the continued patronage and good will of the motoring public.

The management of the K-Bar Motel has maintained an ideal of service which is thoroughly exemplified by the manner in which every need of the traveling motorist has been anticipated and prepared for. Nothing is taken for granted; nothing is forgotten, and hospitality and service is always their first and last consideration.

Much of the credit for the splendid reputation of this modern drive-in motel is now due to the executive ability of Hubert and Audrey Stoerner, whose untiring efforts, foresightfulness, and careful attention to detail, have maintained a standard of hospitality and service which would be difficult to surpass. It is a pleasure to publish these few words of praise about the K-Bar Motel, and its friendly and capable operators, Audrey and Hubert Stoerner.

Jack Kirkland

Every progressive and successful business man in Hereford contributes in some manner to the growth and progress of the city. And one who is always willing to do his part in both civic and business activities is Jack Kirkland of Hereford Pipe & Supply, who is well known, and has a great many personal friends and business associates throughout this entire district.

The prominent part that the Hereford Pipe & Supply is playing in the business and commercial life of this section of West Texas, mirrors the progressiveness and ability of such men as he. Moreover, Mr. Kirkland has also at all times been steadfast in his devotion to the city and the surrounding country, and on many occasions has lent his support to the successful promotion of meritorious civic projects.

Hereford and this district are fortunate to have such a man as Jack Kirkland in a position of responsibility and service, and this newspaper feels that it merely reflects public opinion in paying this brief tribute to one of the city's more dependable business men.

Genevia and Larry Summers

Genevia Summers of the Insurance Center, and Larry Summers of the Cubby Chick, and Big Burger Drive Inn, are two of those progressive type of citizens upon whom the community depends a great deal for leadership in business or other matters. They are also civic minded and have, in the past, and no doubt will continue in the future to give more of their time and energy for the welfare of others than themselves.

They are the kind of people who make friends, and friendships once formed by them are never broken by an unfriendly act on their part, and they spare no efforts in order that their services to the surrounding area shall be more dependable. Mr. and Mrs. Summers have never been known to inject themselves into a situation for the mere purpose of gaining publicity. However, they proceed in a calm and unostentatious manner, and accomplish their objectives with a quiet dignity. We do not hesitate to recommend Larry and Genevia Summers to our friends as excellent examples of the more progressive type of business people who have aided in the growth and development of Hereford and the surrounding country.

W.C. Montgomery

Because this is a period of growth and expansion for Hereford, those progressive business men who had the foresight and ability to lay their plans so as to be able to take advantage of those conditions, are entitled to more than ordinary acclaim. We are therefore, glad to pay tribute to W. C. Montgomery of W. C. Montgomery Truck Brokerage, for he has become a well known figure in the business and commercial life of this section of West Texas.

Mr. Montgomery's persistent optimism and steadfast belief in the continued future prosperity of the people of Hereford and vicinity, are characteristics which are deserving of our highest praise.

W. C. Montgomery has also always shown a willingness to do his part in civic advancement, and contributed his bit, in one form or another, to projects promoted for the welfare of the city. We believe that a business executive of this kind is entitled to our sincere praise, both because he has achieved success in his business and private affairs, and because he is willing to contribute to the public good.

Wayne Clark

In editing this review of progressive Hereford business men, it is fitting that we would include some of those who, by their aggressiveness, have definitely established themselves in the business and commercial life of the city. Such a man is Wayne Clark, manager of the Beefmaster Livestock Supply Company, who also deserves an additional word of praise for being more than just successful. He is a consistent and enthusiastic booster of the community, and in his way has done much to advertise the city.

Mr. Clark has pursued the progressive policy of stepping up his business ahead of the times, thus setting a pace for which he has earned the reputation of being a go-getter, who does not sit back and wait for the business to come to him.

We are glad to pay tribute to Wayne Clark, and to point out to our readers that his sincere desire to be of service, coupled with his determined methods, are largely responsible for the standing of the Beefmaster Livestock Supply Company throughout this region.

Lloyd Newton

Recognized as an authority on all custom combining contracting problems, Lloyd Newton has turned his knowledge to the advantage of the people of both Parmer and Deaf Smith Counties. More than that, Mr. Newton is a man who has always been vitally interested in the civic betterment and progress of the city, and has backed up his interest by lending assistance, in one form or another, to the successful promotion of many things which have benefited the community as a whole. Hereford owes much to such men for their part in making the city the business center of this area.

He has always been alert to the many opportunities for service, and more than ready to recognize and accept his share of civic responsibilities.

Because of these things, Lloyd Newton has become accepted as a conscientious business man who is an asset to both the business and commercial life of this region, and we trust he will continue to serve the people in his present capacity for many years.

W.S. Fisher

In compiling this review of dependable Hereford business men, we have endeavored to select those citizens who, by the manner in which they have conducted themselves and their businesses, have earned for them positions of leadership in their various fields of activities. Such a man is W. S. Fisher of Jorde Farms, and Jorde Potato Company, who has a great many friends and business associates throughout this entire region.

Mr. Fisher's main interests have not been solely confined to his own business and private affairs, but have also included his contributions in one form or another, to those projects of a civic nature which come within the scope of his activities.

W. S. Fisher is a man of wide acquaintance, whose exploits in the business and rural life of Hereford and vicinity, merits more than a passing attention, and the writer is privileged to pay this brief tribute to a man who well deserves more credit than is accorded him here.

Mrs. Ora Bea Shultz

Mrs. Ora Bea Shultz of The Pants Cage, has a well earned reputation for progressiveness because she has consistently forged ahead in her business. Never letting up in her efforts to make the service she renders to the people more valuable. This invariable policy has made The Pants Cage outstanding in its field, a fact that is well known to the public throughout the Hereford area.

But Mrs. Shultz has accomplished much more than just making a success of her business and private affairs, and we take this opportunity to pay tribute to her for devoting what time she could spare to the general welfare, not only to the city, but this entire district as well.

It is such women as she, who are both successful in business, and appreciative of their civic obligations that are deserving of recognition. We take pleasure in publicly giving Mrs. Ora Bea Shultz the credit for her accomplishments which her many friends and customers have so long accorded her.

Robert L. Bookout Earl V. Mitchell & Pat Key

In mentioning some of those men who are taking a progressive part in the evolution of the business and rural life of this section of West Texas, we would be censored if we failed to include Robert L. Bookout, Earl V. Mitchell, and Pat Key of Bookout & Mitchell Supply, a firm that is generally recognized as a leader in their line of business.

They are those solid type of citizens whose fairness and friendliness and sincere desire to be of service are accountable for a large measure of their success. And as time goes on, their personal interests have become more closely interwoven with the business and civic affairs of their individual communities. As a result, they have, quite naturally, become accepted as men who can be called upon, and who will cheerfully do their part to further the development of any programs designed to benefit the area as a whole.

Robert Bookout, Earl Mitchell and Pat Key have, by the conduct of the business, and by their attention to civic affairs, earned the friendship and good will of their fellow citizens. They are to be complimented for their activities, and we only express the desire of their many friends and associates in wishing them continued success.

Ernest G. Powell

It isn't the size or volume of a man's business which determines its value to the community in which he lives. But rather by the manner in which it is conducted. Which, to a greater or lesser degree, reflects the personality and character of the individual. The value of Ernest G. Powell's business to the city is a reflection of his progressiveness, and a determination to render the utmost in service, a policy which has caused Powell's Acme Cleaners to be so well thought of, and so widely patronized by the people of Hereford and the surrounding area.

That same dependability and honesty which has made him so successful in his own business has also fitted Mr. Powell to be of assistance on community projects and public drives. Moreover, he does so cheerfully, and with a friendly spirit of cooperation that is always more than welcome.

It is a pleasure to include Ernest Powell in this Hereford review, and to wish him further success in the dry cleaning business.

John McCleskey

To become generally accepted as one of those progressive business men of Hereford, who can always be counted upon to recognize his duty to his community, and one who will readily back up his sense of duty by active participation in, or the support of worth while civic movements in an honor that can be proudly borne.

Such a man is John McCleskey of Hereford Gin, who a great many times in the past has neglected his own private affairs to lend a helping hand to essential civic and public projects.

Mr. McCleskey's friends are always more than glad to have his assistance because of his constant cheerfulness, and the enthusiasm and optimism in which he instills with his business colleagues.

These same estimable attributes have also been applied by John McCleskey in the management of the business, with the outstanding success which is known to us all. It is our pleasure to give him all the credit which is just due, and to include him in this review of successful Hereford business men.

The Personnel of Clover Spraying Service Inc.

Hereford owes much to those progressive citizens who have taken an active part in the growth and progress of the city, and who have helped to make it the business center for this section. In mentioning some of those, it is only fair to include the personnel of the Clover Spraying Service Incorporated, whose outstanding knowledge of the business, have brought them to the forefront in their particular vocations.

They are wholly deserving of our sincere praise, and these few words of commendation is but a just recognition for the many activities they have conducted on behalf of the general welfare of the community.

The honest and successful conduct of their business affairs is not only a reflection of their characters, but has also been a strong factor in maintaining them in positions of leadership in their field of endeavor.

M.H. Richie

We desire in this Hereford review to call the attention of our readers to the well earned position which M. H. Richie has reached in the business life of this section. During the comparatively short time he has been the manager of the Hereford Tile & Brick Company Incorporated, he has made many personal friends as well as having earned the good will of his associates for the straight-forward manner in which he has conducted his business affairs.

Mr. Richie is working hard to deserve the confidence which the people of the community have in him, and he continues to work hard to maintain in every way, that high standard which he has set, not only for himself, but for the operation and management of the Hereford Tile & Brick Company as well.

He has also shown a willingness to assist in every manner at his disposal in the growth and development of Hereford, and is always ready to lend his support to civic projects. M. H. Richie deserves our heartfelt congratulations on the splendid record he has already established, and we sincerely hope for his continued success.

J. Frank Ford Jr.

The city of Hereford has assumed its place of importance in this section of West Texas because of the efforts of far-seeing business men who have helped in developing its industry, or in some manner extended the trade advantages of the locality. One of those who has taken an important part in many progressive movements is J. Frank Ford Jr., of Arrowhead Mills Incorporated.

Mr. Ford has devoted his share of time and energy to the growth and development of Hereford and this district, and it is fitting at this time that we attempt to express in a small way, our appreciations for his unselfish contributions to the general welfare of the community.

He is a man of wide acquaintance, whose many friends admire and respect in him, those virtues which inspire confidence and promote good feeling. His upright business methods are but an outward reflection of his inherent appreciation for fair practices. We congratulate J. Frank Ford Jr., on his splendid record of service, and wish him continued success.

Leslie Betts

It is because of the unflinching optimism and faith which he so consistently displays toward the future of Hereford and vicinity, that we are prompted to call the attention of our readers to the fine service which Leslie Betts, manager of ICX Illinois-California Express Incorporated, performs in the successful management of the business.

Mr. Betts is an aggressive and resourceful personality, whose progressive policies have earned for him a widespread reputation as a business man of more than average ability. And his apparent willingness to devote some of that ability to the promotion of civic activities, further enhances his value to the city.

The safety and efficiency of the operations of ICX Illinois-California Express Incorporated, reflecting as it does the executive ability of this man, has earned for the firm a well-deserved popularity among the people they serve. We are glad to give Leslie Betts the credit he so well deserves for his achievements, and to wish for him a continued successful career as one of Hereford's more progressive business men.

John E. Orsborn

Logically a man who has earned the reputation of being one of the region's more dependable new and used car dealers would in so doing, have earned the friendship and good will of a great many people throughout this entire district. And one who justly deserves that distinction is - modest, efficient, friendly, John E. Orsborn of Orsborn Chevrolet-Olds, who numbers many of our readers as some of his best satisfied customers.

Mr. Orsborn is the type of man who would be an asset to any community, not only because the successful conduct of his business plays a definite part in the general civic scheme, but because the ultimate measure of his value to the city and this district, lies in the fact that he is untruly zealous and remarkably successful in the promotion of civic progress.

It would be difficult to estimate the actual dollars-and-cents value of such a man to his community. We congratulate the people of Hereford for numbering among their more progressive citizens such a man as John Orsborn, and we also express the wish that he will enjoy many more years of success.

Robert E. "Bob" Doughman

It is appropriate that we include in this review of conscientious Hereford business man, Robert E. "Bob" Doughman, of the American Cynamid Farm Supply, who has many friends and business associates throughout this entire district. Furthermore, he is a man who not only has the reputation of being progressive, but also the added one of being a willing supporter of many community affairs.

Aside from his business activities, Mr. Doughman has always shown an interest in the civic betterment and progress of the city, and has backed up his interests by his contributions to many projects which have benefited Hereford and the surrounding trade area. He is a good and loyal citizen, and the full measure of his loyalty is most apparent because of his willingness to aid community activities.

His help along these lines has made of "Bob" Doughman an example of the type of man we all appreciate. We congratulate, and extend to him on behalf of all citizens interested in better business and civic progress, sincere appreciation for his contributions to the general welfare of Hereford and vicinity.

Taylor Holland

Our issue today proposes to call the attention of our readers to some of those progressive and civic minded men who have contributed their share of time and energy to the building up of Hereford and the surrounding territory to the position of prominence which it now enjoys.

One of these men to whom we wish to present to our friends is Taylor Holland of Tower TV, whose success can equally be attributed to his business acumen, and his knowledge of electronics, with special emphasis on radio and television.

He has never spared himself in his aggressive march forward in both business and technical fields, and is a qualified expert in the service and installation of all types of television sets, as well as two-way radio systems. Taylor Holland's record of achievement is one of which he may well be proud. His value to the city and this district is an established fact, and we are happy to give him the credit which is his just due.

B.B. Noyes

It is a well known fact that a man's true character must come through in his work; whether in business or professional activities or in public life. So when a man conducts himself in such a manner as to cause the public to recognize in him, certain qualities over and above the average, he is deserving of a few words of praise. Such a personality is B. B. Noyes of Noyes & Sons, a leader in the business and rural life of this region.

In addition to being one of the district's more dependable concrete well base contractors, Mr. Noyes was never a man to shirk his civic duties. More than that, he enters cheerfully, with enthusiasm and optimism into those civic affairs in which he has time to take a part. And seldom does he fail to find time to do his share.

B. B. Noyes deserves his share of credit for being one of those progressive citizens of Hereford who has contributed so substantially to the onward progress of the city. It is a pleasure to include him in this group.

Jim Cramer and Leroy Price

The men in a community, who work for the best interests of that community, usually are leaders in whatever they attempt. This is especially true of real estate men, because they are generally among the first to be called upon to help with all worthy civic projects. Two such men are Jim Cramer and Leroy Price of Hereford Real Estate, two of the city's better known and more dependable realtors. They stand at all times prepared to assist the city, and are always ready if necessary, to take off their coats and work for its best interests.

It is such men as Mr. Cramer and Mr. Price who have had the vision to realize the possibilities of Hereford and the surrounding territory, and have given of their time and energy to make that vision come true, who have won the respect and good will of their fellow citizens.

We take pleasure in paying this brief tribute to Leroy Price and Jim Cramer for being far-sighted business men who are firmly established in the forefront of the business life of the city.

Ed Wilson Jr.

It is a privilege in this Hereford review of progressive men and firms that have been such a great aid to the growth and development of this section of West Texas to place such a man as Ed Wilson Jr., of Colville & Wilson Incorporated, on an equal plane with all others in this rank. In the past, few men have exceeded him in contributing of their time and energy to the onward progress of Hereford and the surrounding country.

Mr. Wilson is generally recognized as one of the more conscientious business men in this district, and he retains that distinction in the admiration and respect of his wide circle of friends. Also his interest in, and the very valuable assistance he has rendered to the many projects of a civic nature, reflect the principles which he has always so successfully applied to his business affairs.

We congratulate Ed Wilson Jr., on his record, and sincerely hope that his career will be as useful and completely successful in the years ahead as it has been in the past.

Jimmie Allred

In singling out some of the more progressive business men of Hereford, we would be censored should we fail to include Jimmie Allred of the Allred Oil Company Incorporated, and Hereford Butane, for he is a man who has never spared himself in his participation in both the business and commercial activities of the city.

Mr. Allred has always been conscious of his civic responsibilities, and is ever ready and willing to meet in every detail, those opportunities which come to his attention to further civic enterprise. He may well be proud of his achievements along these lines.

Jimmie Allred deserves a great deal of credit for the honest and successful manner in which he has conducted his business affairs. He is a friendly and likeable personality, whose sincere desire to be of service associates in and around Hereford who would, if given the opportunity, join us in wishing many more years of continued success.

A PRAYER FOR YOUTH

Lord God, bless all young people. In a world that can get confused, help me keep a clear head. In a world that has known corruption, help me to keep a clean heart and body. In an age that needs courage, help me to have the strength of my honest conviction. And in an age that needs such conviction, help me to commit myself to my church, my home, my community and my nation. Without You, Lord, I could remain young—but immature. With you, I can grow mature, and still keep the vigor of my youth. Amen. —Anonymous

Annual Grid Battle Pits Bovina, Farwell

It's been a long dry spell. The Bovina Mustangs have lost 11 consecutive football games to their cross-country rival, the Farwell Steers.

They will have an opportunity to break the losing string Friday night as the two Farmer County teams do battle in Steer Stadium.

Kickoff time is 7:30.

The last time the Mustangs downed the Steers was in 1954. Farwell has come out on top each year since. Bovina came closest to winning in 1962 when the score was 14-18. There have been three 0-6 games during the 11-year drought for Bovina and one of those was last year in the opening game of the season for the Mustangs.

This year, for the first time in several, the game between the two neighboring schools will be of the district variety. The Mustangs are competing in District 3-A for the first time after being moved up from Class B at the end of last school year. Farwell has been a member of the Class A loop for several years.

Both teams have had disappointing seasons this year and the Friday night game will, in all probability, determine which one stays out of the 3-A cellar. Farwell's season record is 1-7 while Bovina is 2-6. In district play, the Steers are 0-2 while Bovina is 0-3.

The Steers won their opening game against Friona by a 20-6 count. Since that time they have lost seven straight and are hoping to use Bovina to get back on the winning side of the won-lost ledger.

Farwell lost to Springlake-Earth by a 28-26 count and to Kress, 19-12 in district games. Bovina lost to S-E 37-20 and to Kress, in last week's game, 43-0.

The Mustangs will be handicapped in this week's game by injuries suffered in the Kress game. Daryl Kirkpatrick, a first stringer in the defensive secondary and reserve quarterback, suffered a shoulder separation last week and is out for the remainder of the season.

Also, Linemen Larry Dendy and Ronnie Dyer received less-serious injuries last week and possibly will not be ready to see action against the Steers. Farwell features an outstanding passing attack with their splendid quarterback, Bobby Field, doing the throwing.

Roy Stone, Mustang head coach, says he's afraid his team doesn't have enough speed in the line or in the secondary to control Farwell's passes.

He points out, however, that "We're not as bad as we played against Kress and we expect to make a better showing this week." We've played over our heads in several games this year. We're short on ability and have been playing a rough schedule.

Coach Stone cautions that Farwell has "a pretty good team." Their won-lost record isn't impressive, but they've played a lot of games they could have won, he points out.

For the Mustangs, this will be the next to last tilt of the season. It is the final district game of the year and the final game away from home.

Seagraves, which is assured of the championship in the Class A district south of this one, comes to Bovina for the Mustangs last outing of the 1966 campaign, November 11.

Scores of Bovina-Farwell games for the past 11 years, all in Farwell's favor, have been, 0-6 in '55, 0-13 in '56, 12-38 in '57, 8-39 in '58, 12-36 in '59, 12-44 in '60, 0-6 in '61, 14-18 in '62, 0-46 in '63, 0-21 in '64 and 0-6 last year.

Rivalry between the two communities is expected to draw a good crowd even though there's little at stake in the game except the satisfaction of one winning over the other.

Kress Wins, 43-0 --

Mustangs Get District 3-A Initiation From Kangaroos

Bovina's Mustangs suffered their roughest initiation of the season into District 3-A grid wars Friday night at Kress.

The powerful Kangaroos were anything but congenial hosts for the first district game between the two teams as they rolled out a 43-0 verdict over the Mustangs.

Featuring a powerful running attack that proved to be almost unstoppable and more-than-adequate passing, the Kangaroos never allowed the Mustangs to get in the game. Kress took command almost from the opening whistle and dominated the game throughout.

The Kangaroos got their opening TD with 2:03 remaining in the first period. It climaxed a 76-yard drive which had originated back on the 24. Touchdown No. 2 came less than a minute later and was scored on an 11-yard pass play. The host team got possession on the Bovina 11 after a Mustang aerial went astray and was intercepted deep in Maroon and White territory.

The second quarter was the big one for the Kress team. They racked up 18 points during it and led at the halfway mark by the comforting (for them) count of 30-0.

The final two second period TDs came on pass plays of 24 and 16 yards.

Just to put frosting on their victorious cake, the Kangaroos then added a TD in each of the final quarters.

Until the final score by Kress, about the only thing the Mustangs had to brag about was the fact that they were highly successful at defending against extra points. Kress didn't manage for a conversion until the final six-pointer in the fourth period. Prior to that, they had failed six consecutive times.

Bovina's strongest scoring threat of the long evening came in the fourth period. It was halted on the two-yard line and the ball went over on downs at that point.

Kress rolled up an impressive total yardage of 517, the highest made against the Mustangs this season.

The loss made the Mustangs 0-3 in district play and 2-6 for the season. It was the seventh win in eight games for the big Kangaroos. They are now 2-0 in district and are expected to take the inside track toward the district championship this week when they meet the also-undefeated Sudan Hornets. Kress' season record is now 7-1.

The brightest spot in the game for the Mustangs was at the beginning. They received the opening kickoff and ground out a first down in three plays with yardage to spare. They were then forced to punt before they could earn another first down.

Another highlight for the Mustangs was a 35-yard pass play from Quarterback Randy Jones to End Lane Gober near the end of the third period. That was the big play in Bovina's drive for its near-score.

'B', Junior High --

Kress Grid Teams Win Battles Here

Both "B" and Junior High football teams bit the dust here Thursday night as Kress came to town and won the "B" game, 32-8, and the Junior High tilt, 30-0.

Bovina's "B" squad played a good first half, the score standing at 16-8 when the whistle sounded.

Stuart McMeans made the Mustang's lone touchdown on a 30-yard run on a keeper play and Rodney Murphy scored the extra two points going through the middle.

Although the local boys played a fair offensive game, they were unable to stop the passing and running attacks of Kress at the same time. Coach Roger Ezell said.

Outstanding on defense was Gary Carson, while McMeans and Murphy paced the offensive attack.

Kress ate up the Junior High squad on end run sweeps, gaining their greatest yardage on the same play.

Bovina received the ball and made four first downs before relinquishing the ball to Kress. The Kangaroos were held for three downs then Jackson scored on a 60-yard run around end for the winners' first score.

Coach Truck Lusk said Manuel Quintana played an outstanding game both on offense and defense. Also leading those departments were Raymond Hise, Mike Beauchamp and Greg Bell.

The two teams will play their last games of the season Thursday night when Farwell comes to Bovina for the clashes.

MYF Collects $210 For CROP

Members of the Senior High and Junior High Methodist Youth Fellowship conducted the trick or treat for CROP drive here Saturday night and collected a total of $210.41, according to Durward Bell.

The Christian Rural Overseas Program has been conducted on Halloween by teenagers over the U. S. for several years. Gifts to CROP are put to use under church supervision strictly on the basis of need, Rev. J. B. Fowler said.

Contributions received through this youth effort of concern will be used to help provide for the handling and distribution of government-donated foods of the Food for Peace program as well as to provide other assistance -- high protein foods, emergency supplies, agricultural tools, seeds -- not otherwise available to the overseas programs of the churches. In some cases, the contributions will help the local farm canvass to make commodity shipments.

Last year the local young people collected over $250 for CROP and helped youth throughout the state of Texas to collect over $65,000 for the program. These amounts helped CROP provide 47,891,600 pounds of government-donated food, and other CROP shipments totalling 4,639,560 pounds, which were not otherwise available for the overseas programs of the churches.

Seniors Go To Canyon

Twenty members of the Senior Class in Bovina High School attended Senior Day activities on the campus of West Texas State University in Canyon Saturday.

The group spent the night in Amarillo and returned home Sunday.

Accompanying the seniors were Mrs. Patricia DiCuffa, Mr. and Mrs. Truck Lusk and Henry Spicer.

The seniors will possibly take another trip some time later in the year.

Band Bake Sale Slated

The Bovina High School Band will hold a bake sale Saturday at Wilson's Super Market to raise money for the color sound film used by the band. Joe Wayne Harper, director, said.

Those wishing to help the band or would like to buy a cake are asked to go by the super market that day. Harper also announced the outstanding bandmen for the past three games.

For the Sudan game, outstanding were Judy Sisk, Karen Bell, Doris Corn, Beth Hutto and Raymond Quintana.

Springlake game's outstanding bandmen included Paul Aday, Eugene Bowman, Denise Clements, Rose Marie Denney, Sharon Hemke, Vickie Hawkins, Sheryl Moore, Sandra McCauley and Deborah Spicer.

Outstanding for the Kress game were Sandra Bowman, Doris Corn, Ellen Denney, Sheryl Lane, Suzanne Wilson, Deborah Hawkins, Royce Sisk, David Dixon, Nancy Mitchell and Joe Don Stevens.

Those who have earned the honor for three times this year include Eugene Bowman, Rose Marie Denney, Sheryl Moore, Sandra McCauley, Deborah Spicer, Ellen Denney, Sheryl Lane, David Dixon and Joe Don Stevens.

Vocational Survey Set

A vocational survey conducted in an effort to secure additional vocational training in the Bovina Schools begins today, according to Elementary Principal Tom Templeton, who is supervising the project.

All business institutions and farmers in the school district will be contacted, he said.

The survey is expected to take several weeks to complete since only a few teachers will be contacting the necessary people.

If a need can be shown in this school district, Bovina will be eligible for some type of vocational training under a federal program.

Cooperation is asked from all those visited by the teachers.

Chili Supper

Planned Nov. 11

Bovina Woman's Study Club will sponsor a chili supper in the Bovina Schools cafeteria Friday night, Nov. 11, beginning at 5:30, according to Mrs. H. D. Bradshaw.

Home made chili, soup, pie and coffee will be served and everyone is invited to attend.

Proceeds will be used to remodel the BWSC club house.

FHA Plans Babysitting For Voters

Bovina Chapter of Future Homemakers of America will provide a babysitting service for all children whose mothers wish to vote in the general election Tuesday, according to Sharon Pierson, FHA member.

The service will begin at 3:45 p.m. that day and children will be kept in their own homes.

Anyone wishing to use the service may make advance arrangements by calling Linda Rejino at 225-4153 through Monday. On Tuesday arrangements may be made by calling Bovina High School.

Pruitt Joins WT Fraternity

Gene Pruitt of Bovina was recently listed as a pledge for Lambda Chi Alpha, national social fraternity, at West Texas State University for the fall semester.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Pruitt of Bovina, Pruitt is a sophomore majoring in math.

Reflections From The Blade

TEN YEARS AGO OCT. 31, 1956

Though the general election is a much-discussed topic around Bovina, it is sharing the spotlight with Thursday's $25,000 sewer and water bond election that could possibly have more direct effect on Bovina than the presidential election.

"Two Bovina men, Scooter Queen and Pat Kunselman, who were flying a small aircraft from Colorado Springs, Colo., to Bovina this afternoon have been reported missing." That's approximately what the announcer on an Amarillo radio station reported on the 10 o'clock news Sunday night. --- But by the time the news was on the air, the men were in their own Bovina homes -- safe and sound.

Bovina's long-awaited street lights are being installed. Work began last week and will possibly be completed the latter part of this week.

John Wilson is the new water superintendent for City of Bovina. Announcement of Wilson's appointment was made earlier this week by Mayor J. E. Sherrill, Jr.

Warren Morton, superintendent of Bovina Schools, talked to Bovina Lions Club members at a regular meeting Thursday night in Bovina Restaurant concerning Teacher Retirement, Amendment No. Four.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Owens of Wichita, Kansas are visiting this week in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Leake.

Members of the Bovina Quilting Club met Friday in the home of Mrs. Tom Rhodes for an all-day meeting.

Miss Donna Jean Hobdy, 1956 graduate of Bovina High School, has been selected as a staff member of the Daedalian year-book at TSCW in Denton, greater

An organizational meeting for a chamber of commerce for Bovina will be Thursday at 8 p.m. in American Legion Hall. Virgil Tritsch is Bovina's new city secretary. He was signed at a special meeting of Bovina city commission last week and began his duties Wednesday.

Advertisements in this issue of the Blade announce two special occasions planned by businesses in Bovina. The bank, in observance of its fifth anniversary, will have an open house -- Saturday morning.

Interest in sugar beet possibilities as a cash crop is spreading in Farmer County after a meeting in Friona Thursday night of farmers and two representatives of the Texas-Sugar Beet Growers Assn.

Warm, sunny weather has returned to the Farmer County area following a week of rain and hail and this sudden change has been beneficial to the cotton and other crops.

Three new winners broke into the select money circle in last week's Bovina Businesses Football Contest which appears weekly in The Blade.

Hilton Moore captured $5 first place award as he and Glenn Hromas, second place winner, each picked nine of 10 winners missing only the tie game between TCU and Pittsburg.
