MIDLAND COUPLE INJURED IN CRASH EARLY LAST NIGHT

Broken Shoulder Is Received by Mrs. Joe Norman

2 OTHERS HURT Couple Are Taken To Odessa Hospital; Injuries Slight

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Norman of Midland were injured, Mrs. Norman the worse of the two, when the car in which they were riding collided with another about 10 miles west of Midland last night. Mr. Norman escaped with only slight bruises and abrasions while Mrs. Norman suffered a broken collar bone and possible fractured ribs, a physician said.

The occupants of the second car, a Mr. and Mrs. Joe Burns and baby, their residence was not established last night, were taken to an Odessa hospital. Both Mr. and Mrs. Burns received lacerations about the head but neither were seriously hurt. The baby escaped unharmed.

Coincident with the arrival of the pair at the hospital in Odessa, a couple of men, J. C. McDaniel, Arthur Dennis, both from Wewoka, Okla., and working for a drilling contractor near Odessa, were admitted to the hospital. First reports were that the two were in the wreck in which the Normans figured but this was later discounted when it was discovered the pair had crashed into a street marker near the railroad in Odessa.

McDaniel was reported to have a fractured skull and other injuries that were expected to prove fatal. Dennis was reported to have a broken arm and a possible fractured skull.

BILL DUNNING, WEST TEXAS OIL OPERATOR, DIES

Heart Attack Fatal To Discoverer Of McElroy Pool

FORT WORTH, Mar. 6 (AP)—William Harris (Bill) Dunning, Jr., 43, of Fort Worth, who started as an oil field worker and became one of the most prominent operators in the petroleum development of West Texas, died of heart disease this morning in Odessa.

His body was found in a hotel after Frank W. Reeves, manager of the Dunning properties, became alarmed over his employer's absence.

Dunning became interested in the oil business during the Burkburnett boom in 1917 and 1918. He began as a worker on the floor of a derrick and moved up to tool dresser then to driller.

After the boom reached a peak he came to Fort Worth and started in the contracting phase of the industry. He drilled in the McElroy discovery well in Crane county and, in 1924, a short time afterward he sold his holdings to the Gulf Oil corporation for a sum running into millions of dollars.

Soon after his properties began to bring in large revenues, Dunning became interested in aviation. At the time of his death he was chairman of Governor Allred's aviation commission and a member of the state safety committee appointed recently by the governor.

MANY ARE KILLED IN REBEL RIDES UPON LOYALTY

Over 50 Bombs Fall Upon Aranjuez From Planes

MADRID, Mar. 6 (AP)—Many persons were believed dead today in Aranjuez, government-held city, after a night of terror as insurgent planes dropped over 50 bombs.

The attacks started last evening and continued intermittently until after 2 a. m., the most severe of a series on the central Spanish front. Property damage was severe, especially along the vital government railroad.

LARGEST MONTH IN DECADE LOOMS AS TOTALS MOUNT

Almost $15,000 For Buildings Asked In 5 Days

$1500 PER DAY Half Million During Year Appears A Possibility

Building permits for this month Saturday gave indications of being one of the largest months in the history of the city when total permits of $14,725 had been announced for the first five days of the month, approximately $3,000 per day.

With a permit for the new $80,000 school building due to be issued in the near future, the month's permits are expected to come close to the peak month in history of the city.

With the recent sale of 454 residence lots completed here within the last week impetus has been given to the prospective number of building permits to be issued. Many purchasers of the lots have announced intentions of building on the lots in the very near future. Others will not be developed until later but there is small doubt there will be more residence permits issued this year than any to date.

The permits for this month bring the year's total to $92,803, approximately $1,500 per day. The 1937 figure is now only $4,772 less than the total permits issued in 1935, and only slightly less than one-third of the 1936 total. The total for 1936 was $324,962.

The year's permits are as follows:

January	$46,625.00
February	$31,543.00
March	$14,725.00

Should application for permits continue for the rest of the year as it has to date the total figures would be approximately $500,000. However, they are expected to fall off some during the summer months.

NARCOTIC RING CHIEFTAIN GIVEN 52-YEAR SENTENCE

Heaviest Term Ever Meted Out To Violator

DALLAS, Mar. 6 (AP)—Federal Judge Whitfield Davidson today sentenced Louis Ginsberg, convicted leader of the huge southwestern narcotic ring, to 52 years in Leavenworth prison, the longest federal sentence ever given for a narcotic law violation and a $10,000 fine.

Six others, including one woman, were sentenced to various terms.

SEEK PLAYWRIGHT AFTER BIG PARTY

Scotland Yard Baffled By Disappearance Of Frank Vospar

PLYMOUTH, Eng. Mar. 6 (AP)—Frank Vospar, 37, British actor-playwright returning from Hollywood, vanished today from a journey's end champagne party aboard the steamship Paris in circumstances baffling to Scotland Yard.

Peter Wilms, intimate of Vospar, said he was convinced his friend was dead, perhaps drowned accidentally.

Visiting Judge, Lawyers in Court

Judge A. S. Mauzey of Sweetwater was in Midland Saturday, presiding in district court in an exchange of benches with Judge Chas. L. Klaproth of Midland. Other visiting bar members here for the week end were Chas. Nunn of Sweetwater, Judge Chas. Gibbs and John M. Davernport of San Angelo.

Judge Mauzey and Mr. Nunn were shown through the various departments of the court house by Judge J. J. Appoth Saturday morning.

MILLIONAIRE CROP EXPECTED TO GAIN DURING PAST YEAR

Income Tax Returns To Show Many New Rich Men

WASHINGTON, Mar. 6 (AP)—Treasury officials forecast today the biggest crop of millionaires—persons with over $1,000,000 income yearly—in six years would file income tax returns this month.

Forty one millionaires were among the 4,500,000 persons filing last year. If the list increases ten it will be the largest number since 1931. Officials estimate about 66,000,000 in income tax returns will be made this year.

CASH FOR BRAZOS RIVER PROJECT IS TO BE DEMANDED

Sheppard, Hopkins To Make Appeal To FDR

WASHINGTON, Mar. 6 (AP)—John Norris, general manager of the Brazos river flood control district, said today that Senator Morris Sheppard and Harry Hopkins, WPA administrator, planned to ask President Roosevelt next week for about $2,696,000 to supplement the original allotment of $3,100,000.

M'CRAW TO PLEAD CASE IN CAPITAL

Will Attempt to Place Residence of Green In Texas

AUSTIN, Mar. 6 (AP)—Attorney-General McCraw went to Washington today to present arguments why the supreme court should decide for inheritance tax purposes the domicile of the late E. H. R. Green.

McCraw said that the question before the court was whether Green, whose estate might yield upwards of $10,000,000 in taxes, was a citizen of Texas, New York, Massachusetts or Florida.

STANDARD LEASES THOMAS PROPERTY

Modern Station Will Be Erected To Handle Its Products

Leasing a 100 x 100 foot site at the corner of Wall and Colorado streets to the Standard Oil Company of Texas for a service station handling Standard products, Dr. John B. Thomas will move his home from the location in a few days, it was announced Saturday.

The entire tract is 100 x 140, but the forty foot lot at the back was reserved. The Standard leased the location for a ten year period, with

New $90,000 Postoffice Opens Monday

No Special Program Is Planned For Opening

The new $90,000 Midland postoffice will be opened for business Monday, March 8, Postmaster Allen Tolbert announced Saturday.

Because of lack of time between time of acceptance of the building by the Treasury Department and moving into the new site no particular program was planned for opening day. No program will be presented Tolbert said, business being taken up in the new building where it was left off Saturday in the old office.

A ceremony attended by many persons was held at the cornerstone laying of the new postoffice. Congressman R. E. Thomason of this district, generally credited with being responsible for Midland gaining the new office, was the guest of honor at a program that boasted other well known state and county officials in attendance.

There will be approximately 1,350 boxes in the new office, almost 100 more than in the old office. Many persons who have been forced to get their mail through general delivery because of the shortage of boxes in the old office have already rented boxes in the new one. All the boxes are to be opened with keys, thereby doing away with the combination lock system in effect at the old site.

WILL ELECT NEW SOLON MARCH 10

Vacancy Left by Death Of James Buchanan Will Be Filled

AUSTIN, Mar. 6 (AP)—Governor Allred today called a special election for April 10 to choose a successor to James P. Buchanan, tenth congressional district, who died in Washington last week. The district democratic executive committee has decided not to hold a primary and the candidate receiving the most votes will be the winner. Eight candidates have announced.

Mrs. Roosevelt Says She Carries Gun And That 'She Can Use It'

NEW ORLEANS, Mar. 6 (AP)—Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt, here today, said that she carries a pistol when automobiling alone, and that she "can use it." She said that fear of bodily harm "never enters my mind."

Development of The Residence Sections Of City Is Forecast

Plans for greater development of residence property in western Midland were announced by C. H. McCall, of the Imperial Auction Company, Saturday. The contract with the Midland Investment Company was continued to September 15, with announcement that the sale will be completed in August.

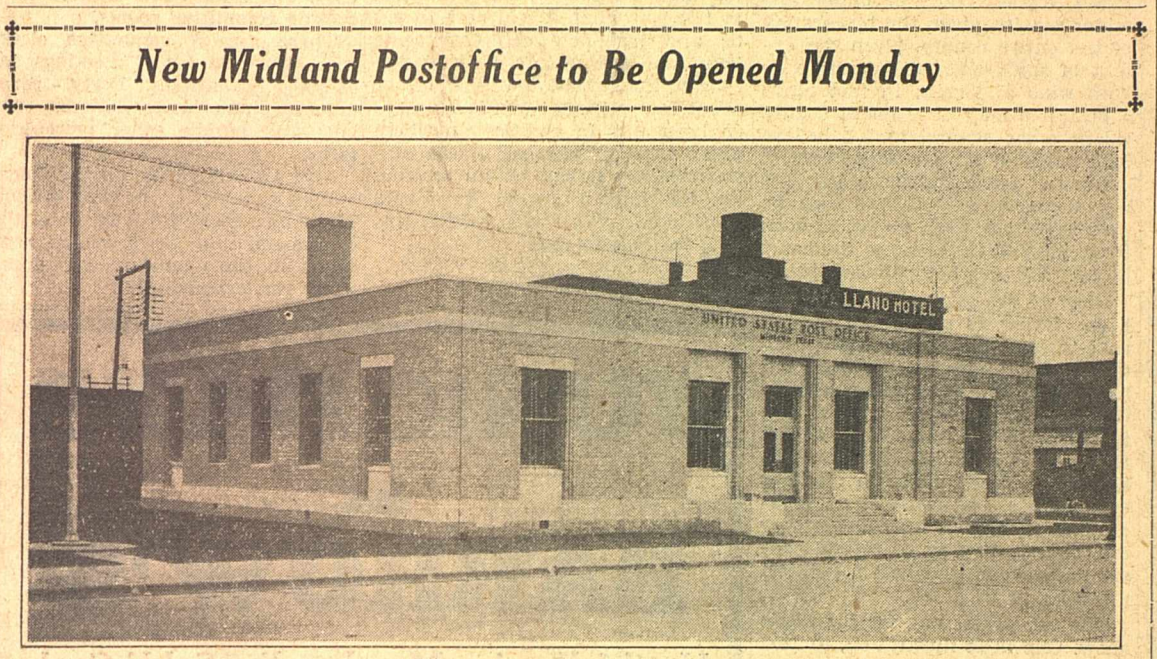

A total of 454 lots in the West End, College Heights and Garrett place additions were sold from Tuesday to Thursday afternoon, with approximately 90 per cent of the total amount paid in cash, McCall said.

During the time before the final sale, F. P. Elkin, trustee of the property, has authority to represent the auction company which still has full rights to sell the property. Elkin may sell lots at a price stipulated by McCall to home builders desiring not to wait for the August auction sale.

McCall personally withdrew the sale before its completion Thursday, due to the bad weather which arose. He said he believes the delay will be fair to the public and to those who already have made purchases there, as well as to the lot owners and to his own company.

He issued a statement thanking the general public, the business men of Midland and especially to F. P. Elkin, trustee, for the cooperation shown in the sale. The location of the property, he declared, is the best he has handled from Houston to Los Angeles and he predicts great development in new home construction there during the spring and summer.

New Midland Postoffice to Be Opened Monday

B. N. AYCOCK, PIONEER OF HEREFORD INDUSTRY, DIES SATURDAY NIGHT OF PNEUMONIA ATTACK; FUNERAL TODAY

B. N. Aycock, 73, cattleman who with John Scharbauer was credited with bringing the first white faced cattle to this section, died at a Midland hospital Saturday night at 9:15 o'clock, after a two weeks illness from bronchial pneumonia and kidney complications. He had been sinking gradually since Thursday afternoon and had been under oxygen since Friday at noon.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the First Methodist church, with the Rev. Winston F. Borum, Baptist pastor, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Cliff M. Epps, Methodist pastor. Mr. Aycock operated a ranch with headquarters twelve miles northwest of Midland. He was a deacon of the Baptist church and otherwise active in civic and community affairs throughout his long residence here.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, T. R. Aycock of California and R. W. Aycock of Midland; two daughters, Mrs. M. F. King of Stanton and Mrs. R. H. White of Midland; one sister, Mrs. J. H. Barlow of Midland, and one brother, Chas. S. Aycock of Midland. Burwell Newton Aycock was born July 3, 1864, at Alta Springs, three miles from Koose, in Limestone county. At the age of fifteen years, in 1879, while living with his family at Marlin, he went with the trail herd of Wash Bryan to Buffalo Gap and has remained in West Texas since that time.

He freighted with wagon teams between Abilene and Fort Concho. (See PIONEER, Page 8)

MASON PIPE LINE IN LOVING COUNTY REPORTED NOW UNDER CONSTRUCTION

Will Extend to Junction of Paso-Tex Line And Santa Fe Railroad in Reeves

By FRANK GARDNER
It was reported late in the week but unconfirmed that Mason Oil Company, opener of a new Delaware pool on the Kyle ranch in Loving county, had already started construction of a 4-inch pipe-line leading from the field to the junction of the Paso-Tex pipe-line and the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad. Maps show the junction to be in section 26, block 56, township 2, in northern Reeves county, about ten miles southwest of the Mason pool.

Mason will build a station at the junction with facilities both for loading rack on the railroad and a tie-in with the Paso-Tex line. The Paso-Tex 8-inch line, running from the Hendrick field in Winkler county to El Paso, also serves the Wheat pool in southern Loving county, the only other Delaware producer in the West Texas district.

An intensive play for Delaware production extending northward into Eddy County, New Mexico, and south into Pecos County, Texas, was precipitated by the Mason No. 2 Kyle discovery well, drilled in last January and completed this week for 299.5 barrels of high-gravity oil daily flowing through 5 3/16-inch casing, with total depth of 3,910 feet and six inches. Location for west and south offsets to the pool opener have been staked by Mason and Stanolind, respectively, and other wells are expected to be started soon by Argo Royalty Company and Eppenauer Drilling Company.

Tops Anhydrite High
Andrews county wildcat developments at the close of the week were dominated by the topping of anhydrite at a high point by Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1-B J. S. Means. The well hit the marker at 1,885 feet, 1,273 feet above sea level, or at practically the same datum as Humble No. 8 J. S. Means, a relatively high well in the Means pool. The No. 1-B Means, a wildcat, is two and three-quarter miles southeast of the southernmost producer in the pool and is located 660 feet from the north and west lines of section 11, block A-45, public school land. It is drilling ahead below 5,000-gallon acid treatment.

WESLEY HENRY IS FOUND DEAD HERE BY HIS ROOMMATE

Last Letter Written By Deceased Hints Took Own Life

WAS FEELING ILL 'Sick' He Reported Shortly Before Death

Mystery last night surrounded the death of Wesley (Swede) Henry, about 32, Midland cowboy, whose almost nude body was found in bed by his roommate, Bill Creighton, about 9 o'clock last night.

According to Creighton, he left Henry last night about 7, prepared to go to a dance. He said that as he left Henry was complaining of not feeling well and that he went back out to the small house on South Colorado in which the two of them stayed to see about him, only to discover him dead. He came to town and first told Frank Roberts that he "believed Swede was dead," he said.

Officers were immediately notified, as was a doctor. Creighton told them that Henry had some medicine he was taking, and when the bottle, remembered by Creighton as being a "small one," could not be found an inquest was ordered by the attending physician and officers.

Justice of Peace J. H. Knowles was called to the scene but had not rendered his decision last night. Creighton told officers that Henry was writing a letter earlier in the evening and a short note, identified as the one being written by Henry by Creighton, read as follows:

"Dear Kids:
"Wes is leaving you. My side hurts so bad I can't stand it any longer."
"Wes."

Creighton said that Henry had not appeared despondent lately and was unable to account for any reason why he would desire to take his own life. He did say, however, that Henry had been drinking heavily lately. A half-empty gin bottle was found in the room next to the one in which Henry was found dead.

His body was moved to a funeral parlor to await funeral arrangements.

2 MURDER CASES WILL BE TRIED IN DISTRICT COURT

Mexican, Negro To Be Tried During The Week

District court will be resumed here tomorrow with two murder cases scheduled to be tried during the week. The first of the two is called for Monday when the picking of a jury will be started for the case of State of Texas versus Ramon Navarette for murder.

Navarette was indicted for murder in connection with the death of Juan Martinez last August 26. Navarette was the object of a wide hunt by officers of this area until his capture north of Stanton at the home of officers four days after the death of Martinez. The case was scheduled to be held at the last session of district court here but was postponed because of illness of state witnesses.

The other murder case due to be tried this week is the case of State of Texas versus Lucius Davis. Davis was indicted by the grand jury for murder in connection with the death of Willie (Little Jack) Brown, negro, here last December 21. The alleged murder took place in Moody Addition. Davis is expected to plead self-defense; testifying to officers at the time of the shooting that the negro had drawn a pistol and threatened to shoot him.

COMMITTEE GIVEN SOLE BARGAINING RIGHT BY COMPANY

Representation Plan Is Accepted In Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 6 (AP)—Members of an employees' grievance committee of the Carnegie-Illinois steel corporation disclosed today they had been recognized by the corporation as a collective bargaining agency under an employees' representation plan.

The committee, comprising four members, expressed confidence recognition by Benjamin Fairless, corporation head, would aid their efforts to prevent John L. Lewis' union from getting control of the leadership of 65,000 Carnegie-Illinois workers in this district.

The committee drafted new plans for war on Lewis' steel union in the fact of a refusal by William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, to join their movement.

Green rejected their invitation to advise with them on strengthening the so-called company union in opposition to the steel workers' organizing committee which was recognized by the corporation Tuesday.

Committee members refused to comment on Green's statement that he might meet with them and help them oppose Lewis' industrial union if they decided to form a new union entirely free of company influence.

Water would not boil at an altitude of 20 miles above sea level.

Letters To Editor

EDITOR'S NOTE: The communications published in this column are for the purpose of giving free expression to opinions of readers of The Reporter-Telegram, and do not represent necessarily the thought or opinion of the newspaper.

Editor Reporter-Telegram:
I was raised on a stock farm in Coleman county, came to Midland fifteen years ago as a farmer, have gained from nothing to a hundred bales of cotton per year here, sold it in Midland, spent the money here, live in town, don't owe anyone anything, not even house rent, hence I feel like I am entitled to say a few words.

I have just finished nine months work on the county wide tax survey project as field man, have driven 3,750 miles in Midland county, seen every house, every windmill, put them in the exact spot on their respective section and block as was provided without a compass and chain, made a note of major and minor repairs, given the topography of the entire county, given the extent of acres affected by erosion by both wind and rain; in fact made a complete map of Midland county thirty miles square, and I believe have satisfied all parties concerned.

"Anyway I was offered a job just like it elsewhere. You will soon be able to see the work we did in book form, painted in colors, at the court house. We did the painting too.

Now we are getting to the point, I am trying to make. We did all that without kicking up any furor or creating any excitement, but here they come with soil conservation of ranch properties from two to ten or fifteen in a bunch to tell us about it after we have read about it in every paper in and out of the state, and some of us probably knew about it long before they did, but wasn't first or second cousin to someone that had a political pull to give us a job.

The tax payers pay for the whole show. One little illustration, in 1932 one Mr. _____ came here in a crop production loan job and said he had a brother that got him the job. He said he never lived a minute on a farm but was supposed to tell you approximately any time of the year what your crop was worth.

Legislative Service is De Luxe; 25 Doormen For 131 Lawmakers; Employes Outnumber Members

ST. PAUL, (U.P.)—Such tasks as opening and shutting doors, for pre-occupied state legislators, hanging up their topcoats, writing letters to constituents back home, filling the water coolers and scrubbing the cuspidors are going to cost Minnesota taxpayers some $135,000 for the present legislative session.

The price has gone up on those little services that leave legislative minds free to legislate. The total for this session will be more than $2,000 higher than it was two years ago, a survey reveals.

The records in the state auditor's office show that the legislature is doing its bit to reduce unemployment. A total of 246 employees are ministering to the "wants" and "needs" of the 67 senators and 131 representatives this session—an increase of 24 over payrolls two years ago.

It counts up to 124 employees per legislator.

The house of representatives has 150 employees and the senate 96. Every fortnight the state treasurer signs checks for them totaling about $14,000. And there usually are nine or ten paydays per session.

Twenty-five employes in the house organization, for instance have nothing to do but open and close doors and say, "Good morning, senator," or "Good night, sir."

They have seven doormen to watch during a session, so that every time a member passes through a door, he can bet even money that at least three men will be available to handle details of the passage.

These doormen watch other doors, naturally. They often get a chair and a magazine and sit down outside committee rooms.

There are 37 committee clerks who keep minutes of meetings for 46 house committees. Forty-three stenographers write letters, copy bills and handle other secretarial tasks.

Five janitors brush up the house every evening after the work is done. Three men sit at the entrance of the cloakroom, and three others keep order in the chamber. A dozen pages run errands.

Long Editor Long came to Kermit from Austin where he was INS correspondent on legislative news. His wife formerly was capitol correspondent for Galveston and Wichita Falls papers. We join in welcoming the Jacksons to West Texas and the Permian Basin. Kermit is an up and coming town and needs a paper of its own. Judging from Vol. 1, No. 1, of the Sun, Kermit will have a good one.

The auction sale of western Midland property is to be completed in August, having been called off when the bad weather set in. But you haven't heard the last of this fellow McCall. He's laying bigger plans than ever to help build up this elite residential city of the Permian Basin.

I've heard the Jewish lullaby was "Bye-Bye," but they say the Scotch favorite song is "Let the Rest of the World Go Buy."

We received on our exchange table this week a copy of the first issue of the Winkler Sun, published at Kermit. The new weekly paper is published by Stuart Long, his associate editor being Emma Jackson

"Hilton Kaderli On Way To Goal;" and his last paragraph said, "All hail to a home boy who makes good."

Speaking to a local boy who is making good, Fred Wemple has built a service station in Midland which merits a lot of applause on account of its architectural beauty. If all "filling stations" had been as modern in architecture since the time filling stations began, there never would have been any kick about their being located on prominent corners.

The pie factory employes who staged a sit-down strike had plenty of crust.

Air Fuel Tank Fireproof
LONDON, (U.P.)—A new gasoline tank for planes, which, it is said prevents fire breaking out when ships are forced down, has been approved by the British Air Ministry for use in civil aircraft. If the tank proves invulnerable to machine-gun bullets, it will be adopted by the Royal Air Force.

The new "Dragon" bomber of the U. S. army is a twin-engined model with 1250 horsepower. There are accommodations for a crew of 10. The equipment includes an automatic pilot, deicers, slinger rings for ice prevention, and feathering propellers.

WHY FORD USES ONLY

V-Type

8 CYLINDER ENGINES

FORD CARS have always been built around a basic idea. The Ford became famous because it filled a fundamental need—"Dependable, economical transportation."

As roads and cars improved, Ford kept ahead. In 1932, a new fundamental step was taken—the introduction of the V-type 8-cylinder engine in a low-price car.

The V-8 engine was not new. It had been used for years. But always in large, expensive cars. Ford found the way to produce this really superb power plant in a really low-price car.

Today, more than three million owners are enjoying brilliant Ford V-8 performance on the road. Their cars are set apart from other cars by a fundamental principle—the V-type 8-cylinder power plant—not merely the temporary styles and fancies of the day.

Eight cylinders give smoothness, performance and flexibility that a lesser number of cylinders, naturally, cannot give. And V-type is the most advanced power-plant construction—on land, water, or in the air.

Still pioneering, Ford provides for 1937 a choice of two V-type 8-cylinder engine sizes, 85 horsepower for top-notch performance, 60 horsepower for rock-bottom economy.

Each is built into the same big, roomy car, with the same modern features. Each will prove to you, in its own way, how much the modern V-8 engine helps to make the Ford V-8 THE QUALITY CAR IN THE LOW-PRICE FIELD.

The Auxiliary expressed their appreciation to all of those who contributed in making the style show a success.

PIANIST KEEPS HANDS WARM

PASADENA, Cal. (AP)—California's famous mild winters received jolt when Sergel Rachmaninoff, famous pianist, during a concert here kept his hands encased in an electrically heated pad between his concert numbers. But just to spare the feelings of Californians about their weather, he explained that he always does that anyway.

Today's Sunday School Lesson

HERE AND HEREAFTER THROUGH CHRIST
John Chapters 14 and 15. Read: John Chapters 14 and 15; 8:31-40; 10:22-29; Acts 4:1-12; Eph. 3:14-21; II Tim. 4:1-8; Heb. 10:19-25.

I. THE GOSPEL OF JOHN:
1. "No created being could possibly have improved this address."
—Webster.
2. 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th chapters of John—"Holy of Holies of the Bible."
3. "In the beginning was the Word. . . Word was with God. . . Word was God."
4. "That ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ. . . might have life."

II. TROUBLED HEARTS:
1. "Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me."
2. "Father's house, many mansions"; A prepared place for a prepared people.
3. The present life: Our needs, our refuge, our strength, our helper.
4. "Whither goest thou?" The second coming, and the hope of the Christian.

III. THE HOLY SPIRIT:
1. Most important teaching on person and work of Holy Spirit in Gospels.
2. Comforter, advocate, teacher, guide, quickening, regenerating, witness.

2. Christ, the complete revelation of the Father; in wisdom, power, and love.
3. We know the way; Our own fault if we take detours and get lost.
4. The way, the truth, the life; "No man cometh unto the Father, but by me."

VI. SENTENCE SERMONS:
1. "Without the Way, there is no going; without the Truth, there is no knowing; without the Life, there is no living."—Thomas a' Kempis.
2. "Life is an arrow, therefore you must know what mark to aim at, how to bend the bow, then draw it to its head, and let it go."—Francis G. Peabody.
3. "O grant us eyes of faith to see.
The hope of immortality!
Truth's rays shall banish gloom and doubt—
Triumphant, Life goes on—not out."—Maria Briscoe Croker.
4. "Thou who art Light, shine on each soul!
Thou who art Truth, each mind control!
Open our eyes and let us see
The path which leads to Heaven and thee."—John Hay.

PLAY REVIEWS

"You Can't Take It With You" is a delightful play, though simple comedy, bordering on a farce, written by the authors of the well known "Once in a Lifetime." Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman. The play was produced at the Booth Theatre, New York City, December 14, 1936, by Sam H. Harris, featuring Josephine Hull, Henry Travers, Margot Stevenson, and George Tobias. It is listed among the six first-ranking hits current on Broadway.

It is the story of a crazy cat family who follow their own hobbies, whims and fancies, caring very little about many things other people give their lives to—a family noticeably free of the modern prevalence of "nerves." There is a deep affection for each other and a sort of nobility that holds this family together, where whatever one wishes to do is all right with everyone else. It was thirty-five years ago that Grandpa Vanderhof realized that, with no time to enjoy the things he liked best, he wasn't having fun. So, as his income was enough for his family to live on in their simple sort of way, he quit business and relaxed. "Why not?" he said. "You Can't Take it with you."

This Hart-Kaufman comedy has the same quixotic and suave material of their previous success, "Once In A Lifetime," yet it does have a fleck of its satire. The play is clever with its many caricatures of the human race. Once again this combination of brilliant playwrights proves that something important can be said with laughter.

tally unfitted by temperament and environment for the career on which he deliberately embarked. From the time he learned to read he wanted to write and he became one of the foremost newspaper writers of the present day. His name has been submitted three times for the Pulitzer Prize in Journalism, and he won honorable mention, and a medal for his work on the Italo-Ethiopian war.

For twenty-four years Webb Miller has sought peace, and he has found none anywhere, either in himself or in the world around him. He covered the pursuit of Villa in Mexico, The World War on the Western Front, the fighting in Spanish Morocco, the Gandhi revolution in India, and the Italian invasion of Ethiopia. And as his book came off the press he wrote from Spain, "I find no peace."

QUESTIONS THAT ARE ASKED ABOUT BANKING

"Do Banks want to make loans now?"

THE answer to this question is emphatically, "Yes!" . . . Banks, generally, are making loans every day—and would like to make more of them. In the first place, banks have funds to loan—for restored public confidence has greatly increased bank deposits. Secondly, loans are a chief source of a bank's profits. No bank knowingly refuses to make a good loan for the same reason that a merchant does not lose a good sale if he can help it.

Bank loans are made when business men see clearly a profitable use for the money and the bank is satisfied the loan will be repaid when due.

This bank is willing to loan its funds to business concerns and individuals whose qualifications give adequate protection for our depositors' money entrusted to our care.

BOOK REVIEW By A. W.

"Texas Navy or Thunder on the Gulf," by C. L. Douglas; Turner Publishing Co., Dallas, Texas.

Very few people, even natives, know that Texas once maintained a navy. It was small but efficient, and played an outstanding part in her fight against Mexico.

When Texas began her preparation for freedom she knew that she would need a navy. There was no money to provide for the purchase of ships, so Letters of Marque and Reprisal were issued to owners on sea-going vessels. These papers permitted the owners to blockade any Mexican port and to seize any enemy ship and confiscate its cargo. The Texas government was to be given 20 per cent of the loot. This legalized piracy continued until 1839 when Texas received the ships she had had built in Baltimore.

Although the navy of the Lone Star state seldom numbered over four ships it time and again proved its superiority over the much larger Mexican navy. The Texans lost only one ship to the enemy. The ships it captured and the food, ammunition, and other goods it seized weakened the Mexican army and provided the poverty stricken Republic with necessary supplies.

So popular did the navy become with the people that when Sam Houston put the ships on the auctioneer's block, possible bidders were warned against bidding, and crowds of Texans, armed with guns, were present to see that the ships went back home. When Texas was admitted to the Union in 1849 her navy became the property of the United States.

The history of the Texas navy is full of exciting adventures; the strategy employed in capturing the enemy ships, mutiny, fierce battles, narrow escapes, and brave deeds. Mr. Douglas has done extensive research in the archives at Austin. All the accounts in "Thunder on the Gulf" are based on facts. They deal with a part of history that has been neglected too long. The book is readable, interesting, and packed with dramatic incidents. It is a real contribution to Texas history.

"Salute To Dawn," by Ruth Averitte; Tardy Publishing Co., Dallas, Texas.

If Poe could read "Salute to Dawn" he might feel that the diction and meter of some of the poems are more than faintly reminiscent of some of his own. However, I think he would be pleased with the results; I was. It has been many days since I've read lines with such a felicitous choice of words as some I found in this little volume.

"Salute to Dawn" is divided into four parts. Part One, "When night draws down her sable shades," contains such poems as "Lost Rapture," "No Goal," one of Mrs. Averitte's best poems, and "To Little Girls in Heaven," which includes her own little daughter, Frances, to whom the book is dedicated. Part Two, "Earth awaits the coming of new glory," is happier in tone and thought, "Faith," "Paradox," "Rape of the Wind," and "Salute to Dawn" are included in this section. "Prairie Motif" is the title for Part Three. In it is a series of sonnets based on the life of Quanah Parker, and "Panther City," one of the best poems ever written about Ft. Worth. The heading which the author has chosen for Part Four is "Six of one and a half-dozen." The last poem in the book, "Aerial Cowboy," was inspired by Paul Whiteman during the Frontier Centennial.

Mrs. Averitte is a native of Texas who make her home in Ft. Worth where she is active in club work and literary circles. Her poems have appeared in several publications but this is the first collection ever printed. I confidently predict that it will find the lasting and widespread appreciation it so richly deserves.

"Tell Us About Texas," by Mrs. Grover C. Johnson, Tardy Publishing Co., Dallas, Texas.

"Tell Us About Texas" is a sort of Grandfather's chair series of stories about Texas. Bob and Betty, aged twelve and ten, have always lived in New York. When their father learns that he is to be transferred to Texas, they go ahead of their parents for a visit with their 94 year old great-grandfather.

Each day the old gentleman tells them a story about their new home. He tells them how Texas got its name, how the arrow came to be, and how Texas is governed. He tells stories about Sam Houston, Cynthia Ann Parker, Bowie, and Fannin. These are only a few of the tales that the old man tells his grandchildren. In this little volume are retold many of the little incidents that make Texas history so interesting. The book was written for children but adults will enjoy it too.

A bill introduced to Canada's House of Commons would increase the permanent air force from 147 officers and 933 airmen to 198 officers and 1498 airmen. With the same percentage of increase in the non-permanent air force, the total strength will be 331 officers and 2444 airmen.

Scientists now are experimenting with rayon as a substitute for cotton for the cord in auto tires. The new substance is supposed to enable tires to travel about 25,000 to 30,000 miles, a great deal more than the average tire goes now.

MADE TO MEET TODAY'S COOKING NEEDS

the Newest MAGIC CHEF SERIES 2700

SEE THESE EXCLUSIVE ADVANCED FEATURES THAT REVOLUTIONIZE MODERN GAS COOKING SERVICE

Here is a new Magic Chef that sets a new high standard of modern gas cooking service. With its exclusive, revolutionary features of convenience, efficiency and economy, it completely meets the requirements of the homemaker of today. Yet with all of its unusual value it is very moderately priced. A demonstration of its advanced features will amaze you.

"SKYSCRAPER" CONSTRUCTION

A radical reversal of ordinary gas range construction. A strong steel interior frame supports the removable outer porcelain enamel parts, which are relieved of the strain of carrying the structural load. Entire top surface in three parts can be lifted out for easy cleaning. Sturdy, convenient, dependable.

SWING-OUT BROILER

Broiler pan, with grid, is attached to door. Opening the door swings the broiler with contents out and away from the hot flame, making it easy to turn or remove food, without touching the hot broiler pan or grid. Door and side shield operator against heat. Convenient height enables operator to stand comfortably erect. Permits efficient, carefree broiling with the door closed.

DIVIDED COOKING TOP

Divided cooking top, readily removable, provides more space for large cooking vessels with cool, convenient working space in between. Especially convenient for serving. Two can cook at same time without interference.

NEW HIGH-SPEED OVEN

New principle High-Speed Semi-Direct-Action Oven with exclusive "Cross-Fire" burner bakes and cooks faster with less gas consumption than any oven yet developed. Makes possible greatly reduced heating-up time, lower minimum oven temperature and substantial savings of gas.

DEMONSTRATION CLUB NEWS

As yeast bread gives us a better and more tasty food, and also adds variety to the menu, the demonstration clubs of the county are taking up that work as an aid to make a more varied menu in our farm food supply demonstration. "Breads and rolls made from both whole wheat and white flour give this added touch," said Mrs. Lura Hollingsworth. County Home Demonstration Agent at a yeast bread demonstration in the home of Mrs. L. B. Stewart on Tuesday March 2, 1937. Bread and rolls were made from both flours and a study on Yeast Cake making was taken up.

Following the demonstration, the president completed the list of committee appointments as follows: Recreation, Mrs. G. C. Brunson, chairman, Mrs. H. L. Matteson and Mrs. B. L. Mason; Educational, Mrs. J. B. Bartlett, chairman, Mmes. L. B. Stewart and Marion Holder; Expansion, Mrs. W. S. Hudson, chairman, Mmes. Doyel Lester and N. P. Blanton; Program, Mrs. L. M. Bartlett; Exhibit, Mrs. E. D. Sanders, chairman, Mmes. L. M. Jones, and C. C. Carpenter.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Jack Tisdale, and will be further demonstrations made with yeast breads.

Refreshments of the bread and rolls and doughnuts were served to: Visitors, Mesdames H. M. Carpenter, Earl Fain, Archie Booth, C. E. Kennedy and Phelan Porter; Members Mesdames G. C. Brunson, L. M. Jones, W. S. Hudson, N. P. Blanton, Lois Lewis, C. C. Carpenter, H. L. Matteson, L. B. Stewart, Lura Hollingsworth, C. H. D. A. Marion Holder, Nancy Tisdale, B. L. Mason, Doyel Lester, E. D. Six Weeks Tests Held Last Week
Six weeks tests were given Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of last week. As many of the students were very ambitious to make good grades, or at least passing grades, a great deal of hard work was the result. When the time for six weeks tests rolls around the students who have studied diligently during the entire period greet this time without fear. But on the other hand, the student who has loafed finds much work to be done if he is going to pass the six weeks work. These six weeks tests marked the ending of a period of hard work, and students and teachers alike look forward to the six weeks with pleasure.

One-Act Play Studied
The public speaking classes are working on one-act plays as part of their advanced work in dramatics. They are planning the stage settings to be used in the productions. Miss Bruner, public speaking teacher, states that she hopes to present the plays for a public performance at a later date. Those which the classes are studying are: "Neighbors," by Zona Gale and "The High Heart," by Adelaide Rowell.

Music Supervisor Visits School
The state supervisor of music, Miss Nell Parmley, visited assembly Wednesday morning. She sang "When the Moon Comes Over the Mountain" and "Grandmother's Patchwork Quilt."
The girls' quartet sang and the student body read several poems and sang several songs.
Miss Parmley said that she enjoyed the program and said that she had never before witnessed such a remarkable assembly program. She told the students of the praise which she had heard given them by Centennial supervisors for the program given last fall in Dallas.

An Interview With The Winners In Recent Contest

On Thursday of last week the students of Midland High School nominated and elected the most popular boy and girl, and the most representative boy and girl.

Those chosen were: David Wafford, most representative boy; Dorothy Lou Speed, most representative girl; Woodrow Adams, most popular boy; and Wanda Ticknor, most popular girl.

In Wanda's freshman year she was most popular and Dorothy Lou was most representative; the same results this year.
"This is one of the nicest things that has happened to me since I was a fish," declares Miss Ticknor. She says that she really appreciates the many supporters that she has.

Dorothy Lou was "tickled pink" over winning the race for the most representative girl.

She says, "This is the sweetest thing that can happen to a senior." She, too, sincerely appreciates the support she got from her good, kind, and cheering friends.

David Wafford was a bit bashful when interviewed, as usual. He expressed his opinion that being most representative boy is just about the greatest honor next to getting to be president of the United States.

He can not imagine any reason why people should vote for him except that they "just did."

Mr. Wafford said, "I think that it is very nice to hold such a representative office as I now possess."

Woodrow Adams, who was elected most popular boy, has seen nothing yet to take the "big head" over.

He seems to think that the reason he won the election is that he made good in athletics last season, but nevertheless, he sincerely appreciates and enjoys the honors.

"I think it is indeed very nice to have so many friends," says Woodrow.

Miss Kirby's Trip to Mexico

Miss Kirby, our 11th grade English teacher, decided she would like to go to Mexico for a trip, so on the first round she went to the Davis Mountains. From there she went down by the Rio Grande and across the border into Mexico.

In her travels she had an experience with a hermit. She told us he had a long white beard just like all the pictures show us. He invited her to dinner (red beans,) but she had to come home so she thanked him and said good-bye.

Band Plays for Auction Sale

The Midland High School band, at the request of the Midland Auction Sale management, put on a brief program down town Tuesday, March 2. The band played Repasz Band, Zacatecas, Activity, New Colonial, Ell Capitan, and Thunder and Blazes. During an intermission the German Band, consisting of Frank Nixon, Fred Gordon Middleton, Val Borum, Robert Dunnagan, Bobby Walker, and Billy Noble, played two numbers.

Debate Team to Abilene

The debate team, composed of Jack Walton, Robert Payne, and Val Borum, and the extemporaneous speaker, Adale Reiger, went to Abilene Saturday morning to a state invitation meet sponsored by the Abilene High School.

The subject for debate this year is Resolved That the Manufacture of Munitions of War Should Be a Government Monopoly.

The subjects of extemporaneous speech are topics dealing with: Texas Republic, Spanish Civil War, National News, and State News.

Contest Preparation in Music

The choral and glee clubs have been very busy for the past week and will be much busier in the next few weeks. This time it is for the contest held every year at Abilene. The quartets and trios have also been working and hope to bring back many cups.

Midland is entering in the contest as Class-A, which this year is second class. The highest one is Class AA. Something new.

The songs required for the choral club are: "Around the Gypsy Fire" by J. Brahms, and "Cradle Song" by Fritz Kreisler. Songs required for glee club is "Anchored" by Cowan and Watson. The girl's quartet is singing "Sundown" from "Londonberry Air," arranged by Ira B. Wilson, and "Four Leaf Clover" by Brownell.

The girls' trio will sing "Lift Thine Eyes" from Mendelssohn's "Elijah," and "To a Wild Rose" by MacDowell.

Mrs. Douglas has picked the boys who are to sing in the quartet, and has given permission for us to announce their names: Tenor, Val Borum, low tenor, R. O. Brooks, high bass, Lynn Stephens, low bass, Kenneth Dodson.

Typing Record

In the commercial department Velma Johnson, or "Pug" as she is known to her classmates, has made the highest net speed per minute of any typing student this year. Within approximately a week she has increased her net speed per minute from an average of 45 to 53.8. Velma was the first student to qualify for a typing award. The bronze medal was presented to her Friday morning in assembly.

Other students who may make the typing team this year are Mary Beth Scruggs, Frank Nixon and Virginia Ann Hilliard. Early and late these students report to Mrs. Scruggs for speed tests and coaching. Who will rank highest Tuesday in a contest with students from Big Spring?

Bulldog Bites "Winchel" English
The "track" season has opened, led by the gallant, galloping letterman of last year. We have "Tall Feller" Wafford, "Loverboy" Adams, "Bronze Medal" Cowan, and that "Cinder Burned" Jesse Barber. The team have their eye on another district championship this year, so all you rival schools had better hitch up your pants for Midland is going to town this season. If "Loverboy" and "Tall Feller" are not affected by their love affairs, they should really be a couple of gold medal men. And "Bronze Medal" Cowan is much faster than people think he is. Why, he only looks slow; he is running nip and tuck with "Cinder Burned" Barber and the season has just started. By the time of the district meet he should show you some real galloping speed.

Did You Know That:

Helen Barber has a crush on Harold Barnes? Don't tell anyone though; I don't think she wants it to be known.

Frances (Punk) Jones and Johnnie Howe are rivals? Could it be because of Fad? My, what popularity!

E. P. Lawson makes a habit of going to sleep in history class?

It is rumored that Alta Mae Soules is married?

B. C. has gotten in the habit of telling off on people? Maybe we should make him a reporter.

Woodrow (Loverboy) Adams is a teacher's pet? I heard one say that he "surely was cute."

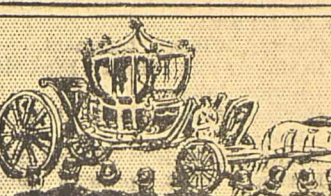

Mr. Taylor gave all the basketball boys, in his classes, a geometry test in the hotel while in Alpine? Such crust!

The four pep squad leaders got a bill from the Midland Drug, Wednesday? Could it have been for Miss Vaughn's present?

Stamp News

BY I. S. KLEIN

BRITISH dominions and other possessions are planning special stamps for the coronation of King George VI. May 12. Canada announces such a set, to be placed on sale immediately after the coronation and to be available for several weeks thereafter. Before this set appears, however, Canada expects to issue a regular series of George VI stamps.

Newfoundland will be included in the colonial issues planned in London, but will add 11 stamps of its own, making a total of 14 values.

South Africa plans a series of five pairs of stamps, in English and Afrikaans, making a total of 10. Southwest Africa will issue similar pairs in seven values, or 14 in all.

Coronation issues also will come from Southern Rhodesia, Papua Australia, New Zealand, and other British units.

Cover collectors should prepare envelopes for first day issue of the forthcoming 4-cent army and navy stamps. Send self-addressed covers (not more than 10 for each type), with money order covering total of stamps required, to Postmaster, Washington, D. C.

Although it may be too late to arrange for covers on the first return flight of the Pan-American clipper ships between the United States and China, envelopes may be prepared for the first flights to Macao and Hongkong, scheduled to leave San Francisco about April 1.

(Copyright, 1937, NEA Service, Inc.)

I found that Mr. Taylor is a cop in the faculty play? Oh, well, Brooks is a father in the one act play, so what's the difference?

Nearly 1,000,000 persons were injured during 1936. About 36,800 persons died because of injuries sustained.

Sportraits

No game—rain!
And as the rain hit town Joe Pate left town. But before doing so he cancelled the proposed meeting here today at which time the new West Texas League was to be organized. But he left on business that concerns the league so I guess that will be alright. In fact, his trip is concerned with organization of the league that if his trip is a failure the league will probably never be organized this year.

Right now it appears that a four club league could be put over but no one is in favor of this. That will bring the same faces back to a park too often and will also double the transportation expenses. A six-club league would be bad—a four-club league impossible.
In both Monahans and Odessa baseball men who have some money (they're not saying how much) have moved in to take charge of the clubs. All they are asking of the towns is a place to play and the purchase of 50 season tickets. Wink is using much the same system. Hobbs is the only one of the prospective franchise holders that has a local man in complete charge.

J. Alvin Gardner, Texas League proxy, was here the other night and voiced the opinion he could find someone willing to take over the Midland and Big Spring franchises on the same basis as have backers in Wink, Monahans and Odessa. There is small doubt in this department's mind that the clubs could be put over that way. But it is doubtful if they will be put over any other way.

Just rambling—Richard McCann, NEA sports scribe, says young Bob Feller is getting $15,000 for this season's work with the Cleveland club. That's real money for a feller 18-years-old. Whenever the make-up man gets around to it the Reporter-Telegram is going to start a series about what former sports champions are doing today. The first article is about Jerry Travers, the Bobby Jones of golf a long, long time ago; the second Jess Willard. Here's predicting TCU won't be as tough this year in football as they were last season. Dutch and Bud may have already started spring training here—if they have not they probably will soon. Also, track is coming up and if the Bulldogs have just a little bit of material they are probably ahead of any other school around here. They romped off with district honors last year and have about the same bunch back. Attention R. C. Hankins, you are invited to attend a homecoming for ex-students and ex-teachers of Alvord high school March 28.

Vienna Schools Slump

VIENNA, (U.P.)—Characteristic of Vienna's rapidly sinking birth-rate is the fact that, according to official statistics just published, the number of pupils in municipal primary schools deceased by 8,331 in 1937 compared to 1936. It is now 123,964. Private schools also showed a similar reduction by 400 to 10,313.

Don't Say She 'Can't Take It'

It is an interesting fact that one of Midland's pupils takes the monthly examination given in the public schools of New York, and makes passing grades on them. Her mother, educated in the New York schools and for a number of years a very successful teacher, receives the examination questions from New York each month, gives them to her daughter, and then grades the papers according to the rules of the game, according to which strict rating the daughter has been making passing grades. The process carries no significance, other than to satisfy the curiosity and pleasure of the mother and the daughter.

AFRAID OF LIGHTNING?

The crash of thunder and the flash of lightning terrify with visions of sudden death. Yet such storms seldom take toll of human life.

Nature warns humans insidiously. Pain, exhausting fatigue, headaches or like distress often are signals of deep disorders. Don't jeopardize health by guesswork. Visit your physician. Let him accurately diagnose the trouble and he will prescribe a regimen and treatment for its correction.
