

Continuing Rains Bring Moisture To Area

WHITTLIN'

By DOLPH MOTEN

Everyone who knows anything about area agriculture knows there are good crops grown in Parmer County. Some of the same people who know that also know that still better crops than are grown are talked about in the coffee shops hereabouts.

The talk, we understand, got around to crop production in one of said coffee shops last week. The crops were getting better and better and the yields potentially bigger and bigger as the conversation progressed, so the story goes.

Finally, as sometimes happens in those kind of conversations, one individual monopolized the talk with the announcement that he had corn growing as high as the nearby electric company poles with ears so thick up and down the stalk that a man could climb all the way to the top using the ears as steps. That fellow probably should have had to buy the coffee for the crowd, but he probably got the topic of conversation changed. Surely all the stories would have had to be downhill from that one.

Anyway, if his corn crop is half as good as his imagination, he's doing all right.

If Iowa, "where the tall corn grows," has better corn . . . or corn stories . . . than that, power to 'em.

If you had something to do this summer and don't have it done yet, you're too late.

Nevermind what the calendar says, Fall is here.

The rainy weather last weekend even made the weather seem like the new season had arrived. And if that wasn't enough, there was the football scrimmage late Friday between the Mustangs and the Lazbuddie Longhorns. For still more evidence of Fall, there was a series of three football games on the telly set during the weekend. And there were no softball games here to go to.

Yep, it's Fall all right. The calendar might as well get around to admitting it.

Some folks won't get into the swing of the Fall season until after Labor Day and the beginning of regular, sur-nuf football games on consecutive Friday nights, but they're running about two weeks behind schedule.

The oddsmakers aren't giving George McGovern, the Democratic presidential candidate, much chance of winning over the Republican incumbent in the November election.

It's almost as hard to find a McGovern supporter hereabouts as it is to locate a tree native to the area or a tooth in a hea's mouth.

However, we figure McGovern will run better come November than it now appears. There's a lot of politicking time between now and then and the voters aren't really all that enthused with Nixon. He's the same guy who "just barely defeated Hubert Humphrey four years ago, you'll remember, and hasn't done anything since worth writing home about.

McGovern can come back, and possibly will, and pick up many of the mainline Democratic voters who were disenchanted, in the beginning, by the fact that he got the nomination. They didn't like that, but they like having a Republican president even less.

Remember, too, that Mccame from a long way back to win the nomination. He's bound to be a good politician or else he wouldn't have been able to come up with the delegate strength to dominate the convention. At the beginning, he wasn't given much chance of getting said nomination. It appeared that he was just in the race because he had a few loyal supporters and needed the experience. He didn't stay in that position long, though, until he had pulled up into the lead and held it through the convention.

We're not saying that he can again overcome the odds come general election time in November. But we are pointing out what has already happened and admitting that he's an effective campaigner.

Earlier in the major league baseball season, we indicated in this space that this might be the year for our favorite team, the Houston Astros, to win all the marbles.

Well, something happened; like our pitching wasn't as effective on the mound as it stacked up to be on paper and at this stage we're running a slow sec-

Monday Official Holiday

Monday, Sept. 4, which is Labor Day, will be a Bovina holiday.

The majority of businesses will be closed and there will be no school that day.

Labor Day traditionally marks the end of summer and the long holiday weekend gives many the opportunity for a final weekend trip to the mountains, lake or elsewhere before settling into the school routine and the busy autumn season.

Bovina Schools will dismiss at 2:30 p.m. Friday and resume regular schedule Tuesday morning, says Superintendent L. F. Jacobs.

Up By 40 --

Student Number Increases

Enrollment in Bovina Schools increased by 40 last week and this after the opening day total was announced, according to L. F. Jacobs, superintendent.

Total number of students as of Monday morning was 634 as compared with the total of 594 on opening day Monday of last week.

The enrollment this year is off 28 from the same time a year ago when the count was 662.

Peak enrollment during the past school year was 697.

Jacobs says he expects the number of students enrolled here to continue to increase for the next two weeks.

Most schools throughout the Plains area reported a slight decrease in the number of students this year from last year.

RAINS CONTINUE --- Farmer-pleasing rains, totaling up to three inches in parts of the area, fell here Saturday, Sunday and Monday. The slow falling rain, which had a minimum of runoff, had farmers smiling over the benefits their grain sorgehum, cotton and recently planted wheat crops will derive from the moisture. On the less satisfied side were farmers who had to halt vegetable and cantaloupe harvest operations and those who were attempting to sow winter wheat.

Completes 4-Year Project --

Final Acre Ceremony Set At Parmerton

Tuesday will mark the completion of a four-year project by the Soil and Water Conservation District of Parmer County that will have dollar-and-cents value to every resident of the county, Herb Evans, district conservatist at Friona, announced this week.

"The Parmer County Soil Survey will be complete and will yield maps of valuable soil information on every acre of land in the county," said Evans.

A Final Acre Ceremony has been set for 2 p.m. Tuesday at Parmerton. Edward E. Thomas, state conservatist of the SCS, will be main speaker at the ceremony. Earl Blakley, field specialist in soils, and Herbert Bruns, local soil scientist, will map the last acre of land at the event.

The survey, a joint project of the United States Soil Conservation Service, Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District and Texas A&M Extension Service, was in charge of Bruns, SCS soil scientist from Hereford.

"The completion of the project means there are now maps available to tell any interested person what kind of soil is found on every acre of land in Parmer County," Evans commented.

"Primarily, the survey will enable the local SCS office to work with farm operators and land owners on a farm-by-farm basis in planning conservation programs. But, the information continued in the survey also is important to fertilizer companies, banks, real estate agents, developers, farm renters, land buyers, tax evaluators, highway planners, private contractors, school districts and many others," Evans said.

The maps -- showing the county's variations lines superimposed on aerial photographs -- will be kept at the SCS office in Friona where they will be available to the public.

They yield information on the soil's texture, permeability, slope, severe erosion areas, depth of soil, amounts of sand, silt and clay in each layer, water holding capacity, and other data.

The survey maps cover both city land and rural acreage. "In the city, of course, we can't map the soil with the intensity that contractors some-

Shower Monday Totals Inch Plus

This is a wet country. Rainfall Monday night, totaling more than an inch across the area, climaxed a wet spell which began last week.

The Monday night rain brought the largest amount of several showers during the weekend.

Recorded in Bovina Monday night was 1.29. That coupled with .91 received in showers during the weekend and last week brought the total for the spell to 2.2 inches.

For the month of August, the total is 3.63, according to Bovina Weatherman Willie Williams.

Farmers viewed the moisture with mixed emotions. Those with ensilage to cut or vegetables to harvest would have preferred to have dry weather. At the same time, they know that a good rain here is usually considered beneficial in the long run.

The moisture had handicapped the harvesting of vegetables during the peak of the season. However, harvesting has continued on a limited basis as workers were able to get into the fields.

Brought to a standstill was the cutting of corn ensilage. Even with dry weather, it will be several days before this farming operation can begin again. Cutting of ensilage was just getting into full swing when the moisture came.

For the grain sorghum crop, considered the most important one from an area-wide standpoint, the moisture was ideal. The timing was considered right for the additional moisture to enable the milo to produce top yields.

Cotton, too, may benefit from the natural watering. Many farmers felt that it was too late in the growing season for irrigation for the cotton, but at the same time, more moisture was needed, in some cases. If the cotton isn't benefitted by the rain, at least it isn't hurt up to this point, most farmers believe.

This winter's wheat crop will definitely get a boost from the late August moisture. A portion of the crop was planted prior to the rain and the moisture will get it up to a good start. Also, the wheat which is planted later will receive a boost from the moisture which is now in the soil.

The showers which fell during the weekend came slowly with almost all of the rainfall soaking into the ground. The only hard rain came Monday night and even this had a minimum of runoff.

Additional showers are predicted for the remainder of this week.

Boosters Set Meet

Annual organizational meeting of Bovina Mustang Booster Club has been called for 8 p.m. Thursday.

The meeting will be in the high school library, announces Grady Sorley, 1971 president of the organization.

Officers in 1971 included Sorley; Bob Fillpot, vice president; Mrs. Leslie McCain, secretary; and Mrs. A. L. Kerby, treasurer.

Honors New Teachers --

Trustees Slate Watermelon Feed

A community-wide watermelon feed, with patrons of Bovina Independent School District invited, is set for Tuesday, Sept. 12, at the football field.

The event, which is sponsored annually by members of the board of trustees, is in honor of new teachers in Bovina Schools.

The occasion will be informal, according to L. F. Jacobs, superintendent, with no prepared program or speeches. The event is designed to give the people of the community the opportunity to get acquainted with new teachers and at the same time enjoy ice-cold watermelon.

The feed will begin at 8 p.m.

Arrest Three For Property Destruction

Three Bovina men were arrested about 10:45 p.m. Saturday on charges of destruction of private property by City Marshal Ronald Mitchell.

Fined $100 each and sentenced to 60 days in the Parmer County jail were Arthur Sierra, 19; Tony Reyes, 19; and Juan Sierra, 23.

The men allegedly slashed and punctured tires, broke the radio antenna and scratched and punctured a 1968 Ford automobile belonging to Dale Johnston of Bovina. Damages were estimated at approximately $150 by Mitchell.

Johnston had reportedly left the car near Allsup's 7-11 on Third Street when the incident occurred.

Broom Sale Set Friday

Bovina Lions Club will have its annual broom sale Friday. The club will be selling quality blind-made products to residents and local merchants.

The membership of the Lions Club will be organized to supply area residents with the quality merchandise. "We have cleaning products that every household can use and every item sold helps some blind person to help himself," Ed Isaac, Lions president, says.

Sales of blind-made products held by the Lions Club in previous years have proved successful and Isaac expressed confidence in another successful sale this year.

The sale will begin at 8 a.m. and continues until 4 p.m. The truck delivering the merchandise will be parked downtown throughout the day.

REPLACEMENT TIME --- This wooden structure, which for many years housed a city well pumping mechanism north of the railroad, has been torn down and will be replaced by a tile building. At right is a water storage tank. The improvement is being made to better protect the pump. Sherrill Lumber Co. has the contract for constructing the tile building. A top the building is Luther Robinson, who assisted in tearing it down.

 ond to the Cincinnati Reds. We're so far back, in fact, that we changed managers over the weekend, turning the club over to the well-known Lippy Leo Durocher, who was fired last month from the managership of the Chicago Cubs, who weren't doing good enough to suit their owner, either. To make way for Leo, the Astros turned Harry Walker, the old manager out for a vacation, which was well deserved, no doubt.

Nobody asked us, as usual, but we thought the Astros would have been better off to bring in a new pitcher than a good manager. Looked from here as if the manager was doing as good as he could with the pitching he had. And Durocher can't pitch a lick, as far as we know. Anyway, the Reds are running away with first place in their division of the National League and are using some Houston "castoffs" to do it. That helps keep our interest up.

 Dan Koelzer, the gas man, brought the following tribute to horses by just after Bull Town Days were over.
 Dan had clipped it from the Dimmitt paper and recommends it for horse people:

WHY THEY KEEP A HORSE
 There's fellers keep a horse because he's sumphin' they can use.
 While others keep a horse just for sumphin' to abuse. He's an animal to bully, he's a critter they can boss. There's lots of different reasons why a feller keeps a hoss.

There's fellers, too, that keeps a hoss to trade or sell or swap. It's sumphin' they can talk about most anywhere they stop. It makes 'em feel important when they put a deal across; Yes, there's several different reasons why a feller keeps a hoss.

And then there's folks that keeps a hoss to carry 'em around. To help 'em work their cattle and to help 'em till their ground. There's places where without him would be a total loss; They have lots of reasons why they ort to keep a hoss.

And then some people keep a hoss fer pleasure and fer show; They like to take him out in front of people that they know. They like to see him gitten' fat and puttin on the gloss; It's a lot of satisfaction just to own a purty hoss.

UMY Sets Dime Sale

United Methodist Youth of the Bovina church will sponsor a close-out dime sale Saturday, Sept. 9, at the parking lot of the church, according to an officer of the youth organization.
 The sale will begin at 8:30 a.m. and continue until 6 p.m. Clothing, books, shoes, toys and various other merchandise will be sold, with everything going for 10 cents.
 The sale is a continuation of the parking lot sale held earlier this summer by the youth as a fund raising project.

 times need," Bruns said, "but our maps do give a builder an indication of how much the city soil is likely to expand or contract during weather changes or other valuable data about the soil."

Next step is for the U. S. Government Printing Office to produce 1,500 or more copies of the Parmer County Survey book, complete with maps. Bruns said the printing is still about three years away.
 "The criticism we hear most often concerns the length of time between the completion of the survey and the publication of the report book," Bruns said. "This is a matter of budgeting - we don't have too much money to work with, and it takes several years to get the funds for the printing."

When published, the book will give 50 to 60 pages of text on the county's soil descriptions, soil percentages by types, soil use and management, best conservation practices for the types of soil found here, range management, engineering applications, classification of soils, and the general nature of the area.
 The main part of the book will be fold-out maps with soil "type lines" superimposed on aerial photos and soil areas classified by symbols. These are available now, but require a trip to the Soil Conservation Office.

When published, the 1,500 or more soil survey books will be made available to the Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District through the office of our congressman, Bruns said.
 Soil survey reports eventually will be available on every acre of the nation, Bruns added. But the projects nationally are only 40 to 50 per cent complete, whereas the soil surveys of Texas Panhandle counties are already 80 to 90 per cent finished because of the importance of the soil to the area's economy.

The budget calls for $247,170.13 to be spent for Bovina Schools during the approaching year.

At Home In Parmer County

Classics are back in a big way.

Seemingly as American as apple pie, styles are comfortable and neat, yet spiced with a softness to give just the right touch of femininity dear to the wardrobes of always-active women.

Don't think for a minute that a grab into mom's attic moth-balled clothes will create the classic look.

Classics revive this fall rich in mantaloring -- a variety of vests, elongated jackets and sweaters, pointed lapels and collars, wrap-arounds and the belts, sweater sets with crew necks and straight stitch.

Shades of mid-century emerge in dolman sleeves and swinging, pleated or gored skirts. Treatments of the classics make the difference and mark the fashions for today.

For one thing, designs are executed mostly in washable, no-iron fabrics and yarns -- every bit as good looking but with the built-in economy and time-saving qualities of easy care. Because of the array of synthetics and blends, save hangtags with laundering instructions and post in the laundry room for quick reference.

Although the framework is there, significant changes make today's classics a really new scene.

Softness comes with fluffy, brushed, happy materials -- plus tucks, ruffles and tiny trims. Cap sleeves, as well as traditional cuts, mark jumpers that can "go it alone." Others feature deep-cup armholes to accommodate the dolman sleeved underlayers.

Skirt lengths, too, have settled to a practical length somewhere around the knee. Exceptions occur in some mid-classics and particularly for the youth market -- a showing of six-inch-ish above-the-knee dresses.

Blazers and shirttail jackets are go-everywhere items, top-ping pants and long skirts and everything in between.

The newest in pants is wide and cuffed -- often with front pleats and high-fitted, belted waistline. Jeans go on and on in popularity, now seen with turned-up cuffs and contrasting printed lining or two-tone treatments.

A new phrase, body build-up, is fashion talk for the layered look -- well established last season and still popular this fall. Major styling here also is along classic lines but breaks out into feminizing ruffles and neckline detailing.

Basic to the build-up is the body shirt, blouse or sweater. These all-in-ones originated with the body stocking and become a full-fledged fashion. They come in a seemingly endless variety of styles, patterns and fabrics -- and in several different departments of most stores. Body suits are designed to go under other layers, go alone, or come coordinated with their own build-ups.

For underlayering, pantyhose create a total fashion statement. In monotone coordinates or hues to pick up print or plaid accent colors, a wardrobe of pantyhose links together the mixing and matching of many separate pieces.

Don't forget Parmer, Deaf-Smith and Castro counties are sponsoring a Sew Fair at the Bull Barn in Hereford from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Tuesday, Sept. 12.

2 Killed, 12 Injured -- 16 Accidents During July

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 16 accidents on rural highways in Parmer County during the month of July, according to Sergeant W. E. Wells, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

Candlelight Ceremony Unites Miss Griffith, Billy J. Charles

The wedding of Miss Barbara Griffith and Billy Jay Charles was solemnized in a double ring ceremony at 7 p.m. Saturday, August 19, in Bovina United Methodist Church with Rev. Howard Marcom, pastor, officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Griffith. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Charles, all of Bovina.

Vows were exchanged before an altar setting of numerous nine-branched candelabra holding Old Rose cathedral tapers arranged around an open Bible and single tapers. Spiral candelabra of brass were on either side flanked by arrangements of Margaret Fulton gladioli, deep rose carnations and clouds of gypsophilla in urns standing upon antique colonnades. Numerous palms of Emerald foliage interspersed the candelabra.

Centering the altar was a brass pre-dieu covered in crushed velvet on which the couple knelt to seal their vows. The bridal aisle was marked with candelabra holding pairs of rose tapers with cascades of greenery caught by orchid bows.

The bride, presented in marriage by her father, wore a formal length gown of silk organza and Cluny lace designed with a fitted bodice and Victorian yoke of lace insert. The closely fitted neckline was accented with a stand up collar. Her long, sheer lace sleeves were caught over the wrists by soft ruffles matching the ruffle on the bodice. Her empire waistline was marked by a sash of lace and satin ribbon. Seed pearls enhanced the waist and yoke of the gown. Her full skirt fell to a ruffled lace hemline and cascaded into a full chapel train.

The bride wore a matching lace Camelot coil enhanced by seed pearls and tiny iridescent jewels with a satin bow. The veil of sheer bridal illusion was edged by Cluny lace and fell to chapel length. She carried a stylized cascade of white elegance carnations and white stephanotis with an accent line of pink and white Minuet roses spilling through the bouquet with spiral eucalyptus lending further accent to the crescent.

Carrying out tradition, the bride wore an heirloom ring given to her by her mother as something old; something new, her wedding ensemble and a string of pearls, a gift from the groom; something borrowed, cameo earrings from Mrs. Glen Hromas; and something blue, the traditional garter. She carried in her shoes pennies minted in the years of the bride and groom's birth.

Miss Angela Ezell of Lubbock, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Misses Nena Spicer, Twyla Hutto and Vici Stallings, classmates of the bride, were bridesmaids.

They wore formal length gowns of pink floral organza overlaid with orchid sheer organza designed with long orchid sheer sleeves, standup collars and waistlines accented with pink ribbon sashes. The attendants wore pink flowers accented with organdy streamers in their hair. They carried clutch-style garden bouquets of Flamingo pink carnations, white gypsophilla and white daisies caught with pink ribbon streamers.

Garry Beauchamp of Canyon served as best man. Groomsman were David Anderson and Kent Glasscock, brother-in-law of the groom, both of Bovina, and Charles Zeuber of Dallas, Greg Hromas, Randy Jones and Kregg Wilson, all of Bovina, were ushers. Tim Horn of San Pablo, Calif., cousin of the bride, was ringbearer. He wore the bow tie worn by the bride's father at his wedding 43 years ago.

Ginger Glasscock of Bovina, niece of the groom, and Richard Horn of San Pablo, Calif., cousin of the bride, lighted the candles. Melissa Glasscock of Bovina, niece of the groom, was flower-girl. Melissa and Ginger wore identical formal length gowns of pink chiffon overlaid with sheer orchid organza designed with short puffed sleeves and pink sashes at the waistline.

Kyle Ray Harris of Bovina rang the church bells following the ceremony. Mrs. Jimmie Clements of Bovina, organist, played selections including "Claire de Lune" and "To A Lily, Melody" as preludes; "Bridal Chorus" and "Traditional Wedding March" as the recessional. She accompanied Mrs. Kent Glasscock of Bovina, sister of the groom, as she sang "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee" and as the couple knelt at the altar, "The Wedding Prayer."

During the recessional, the bride paused to present her mother and the groom's mother Minuet roses.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Griffith chose a pink coat and dress ensemble. The dress was designed with cotton lace bodice and shirt panel and the coat was enhanced with a self belt in back and three-button closure. She wore a pink cymbidium orchid corsage.

Mrs. Charles chose a formal length blue-gray gown with gold lame' trim with light glaze' accessories. She wore a white phalaenopsis orchid.

The couple greeted guests at a reception in Fellowship Hall of the church following the ceremony.

Miss Denise Roberson of Haskell registered guests and presented rice bags. Mrs. Mike McMeans of Bovina provided background music at the piano.

The bride's table was covered with a floor length white lace cloth over white satin with pink and orchid streamers caught at each corner with pink bows. The table was centered with an antique silver epergne holding deep rose tapers and an arrange of orchid asters with rosepink Fugli mums. A garland of ivy, euonymus and fern, encircling the punch bowl, was caught up into the epergne and wound around the cake. The wedding cake, a four-tiered Lady Windemere with the last tier formed of four separate hearts, pink punch, nuts and pink and orchid mints were served by Miss Debbie Gober and Miss Cindy Barrett, classmates of the bride.

Other members of the house-party were Mrs. Glen Hromas, Mrs. Lester Rhinehart, Mrs. Betty Rector, Mrs. Roger Ezell, Mrs. Dean Hastings and Mrs. Henry Spicer.

For a wedding trip to points of interest in Colorado and New Mexico, the bride wore a two-piece dress designed with a lilac skirt and vest with matching floral print blouse. She wore white accessories and a corsage of white pixie carnations and stephanotis.

The bride, a 1972 graduate of Bovina High School, attended summer session at West Texas State University at Canyon.

Charles, a 1965 graduate of Bovina High School, attended Texas Tech University at Lubbock. He is associated with Charles Oil Co.

Out of town guests included Denise Roberson of Haskell, Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Pote and Bill of Modesto, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Rick Blum of Phoenix, Ariz., Mrs. Bob McMeans of Amarillo, Mrs. Bobby Vassey of Bangor, Mich., Mrs. Joyce McGehee of Lubbock, Mrs. Corda Battey of Hereford; Mike Travis of Farwell, Mr. and Mrs. Marty Ezell of Portales, N.M., Glen T. Ezell of Roswell, N.M., Davis King of Panhandle, Mildred Madery and Les Thornton of Clovis, N.M., Winnell Lindsay of Odessa, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry King of Sierra Vista, Ariz., Mrs. J. D. Adams of Petersburg, Mrs. Morris Taylor and Kathy of Quanah, Mrs. W. L. Foust of Lubbock;

Also, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Ezell of Lubbock, Bruce Sampson of Clovis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zuber Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zuber III, and Mr. and Mrs.

MRS. BILLY JAY CHARLES

Richard Browning, all of Dallas, Miss Evelyn Bender and Mrs. Hilda Wassenmiller and Robert of Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Charles, Randal and Brenda of Albuquerque, N.M. and Sharon Smith, Larry Rector, Roy Rector, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Griffith, Sheri Rector, Mrs. Olive Rector, Mrs. Raymond Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Brookfield, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rector and Donna, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rector, Clyde Schilling, Vandra Nichols, Rick Rector, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Gober, Mr. and Mrs. David Lee Carson and Mrs. Grady Dodd, all of Friona.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles hosted a rehearsal dinner Friday night for members of the wedding party. Also attending were houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zeuber Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zeuber III, of Dallas. The bride's chosen colors were carried out in decorations with an arrangement of rose and pink gladioli centering the serving table. The other tables were arranged wagon-wheel style.

It's remarkable what some people will do for publicity even when most of it is worthless.

RAINY WEATHER VISITOR --- Proof that when it rains it really rains in the Bovina area is this snapping turtle, an unusual visitor to the semi-arid High Plains area of Texas, which was caught last Wednesday at the Royce Moore-Pat Collins place west of town. From tip of tail to head, the turtle measured about two and one-half feet long and weighed approximately 25 to 30 pounds, according to the men who handled the irate reptile.

Conservation --

SCD Involved In Education

The Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District is very much interested in conservation education, says Leon Grissom.

Grissom, chairman of the board of directors, states that a scholarship was offered to grade school teachers in Friona this past summer. The scholarship was to attend the Environmental Workshop at West Texas State University. This workshop covered all phases of environmental concern from wildlife management to soil erosion (pollution) and water pollution. Another phase of conservation education the district is interested in is developing an outdoor classroom with the help of the Friona school system. Several sites are being considered for development.

Soil being a part of the district title, the SWCD has developed a soils display to be given to each FFA Chapter in the County on September 5 at the Final Acre Ceremony which is at Parmerton.

Grissom stated that the district is always interested in other ways to improve the conservation education in the county.

Friday At Claude --

Mustangs Wind Up Pre-Season Sessions

Bovina Mustangs, in preparing for the 1972 football season, get their second taste of outside competition Friday at 6 p.m. The team goes to Claude for a scrimmage session with that District 2-A squad.

The Ponies took on the Class B Lazbuddie team here Friday night in the season's first scrimmage tilt.

"We were a little leery going into that scrimmage," Roger Ezell, head Mustang coach, said after the session, "but we could see a lot of progress in our boys. They gave a good effort and we were pleased about that."

Although keeping score isn't the aim of scrimmage tilts, the Mustangs scored twice. "We should have scored three times, but we fumbled once when we were in good scoring position," Ezell said. One TD was scored on a running play and one on a long pass from backup quarterback Kim Rundell to Jeff McCormick, senior halfback.

"We did all right on defense with the exception of two plays where we just broke down completely," Ezell commented. Lazbuddie took advantage of one play to make a 50-yard gain. "The main thing we feel we need to work on now is individual techniques," the coach said.

Physically, the Mustangs emerged from the Lazbuddie match in good condition. Ezell anticipates no major changes in the lineup for the second and last outside competition before the bell rings for the start of the 10-game season.

Weldon Beardain, 215-pound senior tackle, ill with a virus infection, missed the Lazbuddie scrimmage game. He and returning starter Danny McKay, junior tackle, who has been out with a shoulder injury, are expected to start at the tackle position on both offensive and defensive teams. Ezell said there was still no report on when Larry Wiseman, senior starting fullback, could begin workouts.

The Mustangs play four non-district games before jumping into District 3-A competition. The "warm-up" opponents are Boys Ranch, Friona, Sanford-Fritch and Plains. The latter two-games will be played on the Mustangs' home field.

The final six games on the schedule are with district competitors beginning with the Vega Longhorns here October 13.

On The Farm In Parmer County

By R. MACK HEALD County Agent

A two-night short course for owners of stocker cattle in the Southwest Panhandle is being sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service on the night of September 7 and 12, 1972 in the Friona High School Cafeteria. Starting time will be 8 each of the two nights. September 7, Dr. Gene Cope, Area Extension veterinarian, will discuss the health aspects of incoming cattle. Dr. Cope will deal with different types of vaccines, serums, implants and treatment of diseases common to stocker cattle being brought into this area. Also, on the program with Dr. Cope will be Dr. Cal Parrott, area beef cattle specialist. Dr. Parrott will discuss facilities and management for stocker cattle. Tuesday, September 12, the second meeting will be held at the Friona High School Cafeteria at 8 p.m. Dr. Ray Hinders, Nutritionist for Producers Grain Corporation, will discuss proper nutrition of stocker cattle upon arrival and while grazing.

Dr. Bill Clymer, Area Entomologist, will discuss cattle insects common to this area and their control. Dr. Clymer will bring everyone up to date on the scabies situation.

The last speaker on the program will be Mike Riethmayer, area economist management specialist. He will discuss profit and losses with stocker cattle under various management schemes.

These two programs should be informative and keep the cattle producers up-to-date on new changes in nutrition, herd health and management.

 Recent rains proved beneficial to most farmers in this area, although it did slow down harvest of corn ensilage and vegetable crops -- potatoes, cantaloupes, cucumbers and peppers.

The harvest was at its height last week when the rains began.

A big part of the Parmer County wheat crop has been sown. Other crops, cotton and soybeans and sugar beets are looking good at this time.

Janie Potts Listed In Awards Volume

Mrs. Mike (Janie) Potts, former home economics teacher at Bovina High School, has been selected to the awards volume, "Outstanding Young Women of America for 1972," according to an announcement by the Bovina Woman's Study Club. She was nominated by the organization earlier this year on the basis of her achievements.

Now in its eighth year, the program recognizes young women between the ages of 21 and 35 for their contributions to the betterment of their communities, professions and country.

More than 6,000 women are nominated annually by civic organizations, churches and college alumni associations throughout the country. Complete biographical sketches of all nominees are featured in the annual awards publication.

Those included in the '72 edition are now in competition for further state and national awards. This fall, 50 women, one from each state, will be named as their state's Outstanding Young Woman of the Year. From the 50 state winners, the national Ten Outstanding Young Women of America will be selected.

Mrs. Potts resigned her position here at the end of summer home economics classes. She is presently teaching in the Lometa Elementary School.
