MAMMOTH RODEO WILL BE HELD IN CITY THIS YEAR

Definite Plans And Date Settlement To Be Made

NO RACE MEET Stockholders Agree To Pass Up The Spring Meet

Dates and definite plans for Midland Fair Incorporated's mammoth 1937 rodeo will be announced in a few days, upon appointment of a committee by President Clarence Scharbauer with the approval of the board of eleven directors. This decision was reached at a stockholders' meeting Friday night, when it was definitely decided not to hold a race meet this spring.

Although the type of rodeo had not been announced, it was conceded the entertainment efforts will be concentrated on this big spectacular event, postponing horse racing until fall, or until the state legislature definitely acts upon repeal or system.

Tom Nance, A. C. Francis and Roy Parks, who had attended race meets early this year, reported lack of interest on the part of the public, with resultant financial losses, due possibly to the uncertainty of the industry's future.

Committees on finance reported at the Friday night meeting, showing that the prospect of increasing the capital stock to the actual investment of $60,000 had been made possible through paying in of additional checks, and that all indebtedness of the corporation may now be paid.

Stockholders spoke in favor of promoting a polo field at the fair's plant, of beginning earlier efforts to advertise the carlot feeder show and sale over the Corn Belt, and of other programs to get more use and possibly profit from the large investment.

FAMOUS SINGER TO BE PRESENTED IN CONCERT HERE

John Patrick Will Appear Here On April 14

John Patrick, bass-baritone of the Chicago Civic Opera Company, will be presented in a concert at the High School Auditorium on Wednesday evening April 14. Patrick is an outstanding singer and has a voice of great beauty, rare depth and richness.

As judge in the recent Hardin-Simmons choral contests, he expressed satisfaction in finding so much great talent and good training in the schools of West Texas. He commended the study of music in the schools and stated that Texas was ever going forward in the advancement of appreciation of good music in America.

Patrick has been in Texas for some time and has given concerts in several cities. He has appeared in Dallas and Fort Worth and last week gave a joint concert with the El Paso Symphony Orchestra in El Paso.

It is indeed a rare opportunity for the people of Midland to have the privilege of hearing a singer of his reputation. Details of the program will appear in this newspaper at a later date.

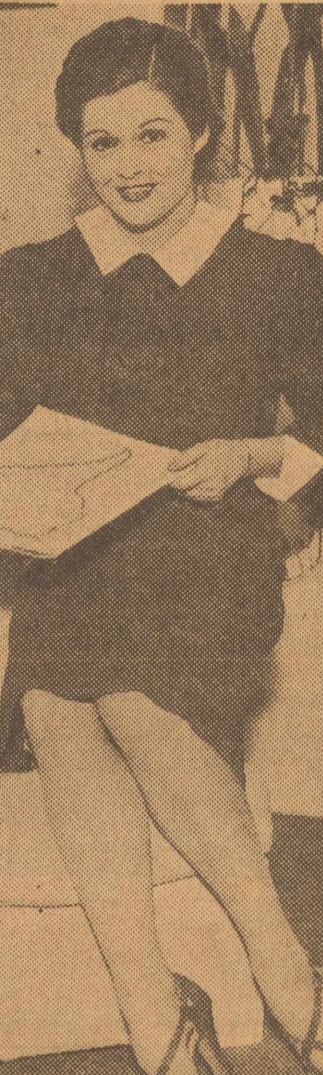

C of C Directors To Meet Tuesday Night

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Midland chamber of commerce, scheduled to be held on Monday evening, has been postponed until Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in order not to conflict with the Scotch Rite banquet to be held in Midland on Monday evening, according to Marion Flynn, chamber of commerce president. All directors are urged to be present at the Tuesday evening meeting in the chamber of commerce office in Hotel Scharbauer.

RESETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION WORK IS EXPLAINED BY SUPERVISOR HERE

In a recent interview with County Rural Rehabilitation Supervisor Bernie E. Rushing, for the Resettlement Administration, who services the supervised loans to the borrowers in Midland, Martin, Ector, and Andrews counties, some very interesting facts were revealed in connection with the work of this organization. A great number of farmers, whose income in the past few years has been very limited and who have been forced by circumstances to borrow small sums from many different sources, have been able to combine their indebtedness in one sum, which has been so arranged that it can be properly liquidated over a period of years.

Others, whose indebtedness was entirely out of line with their assets and who ultimately faced foreclosure and abandonment of the farm, have had their indebtedness properly sealed through the assistance of the Debt Adjustment Division of the Twenty-eight hundred attackers were said slain.

An official news agency reported fresh Italian troops had reinforced the insurgents on the Cordoba front.

HIGHWAY FUND IN COUNTY BOOSTED

$33,277.86 Realized By Sale of License Plates Here

Receipts to the highway fund from the registration of motor vehicles for 1937 amounted to $33,277.86 at end of business April 1, the office of the tax collector disclosed Saturday.

According to the law the county gets all of the receipts, less commissions, to $50,000, then half of the amount collected beyond that figure. The remainder goes to the state.

It is expected approximately 1,000 more passenger cars and several score commercial vehicles will be registered during the remaining portion of the year.

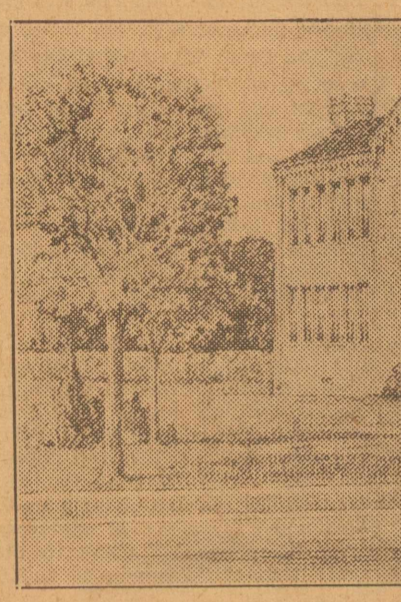

The highway fund is a part of the road and bridge fund, dependent largely upon large car registrations to bring it over on the right side of the ledger.

The amount realized this year is approximately $7,500 more than the amount taken in the first three months of 1936. The totals for 1936 were $25,798.69.

Resettlement Administration, their creditors paid on a prorata basis and their livestock and implements saved to them. Many have purchased additional horses to properly cultivate their farms. Cows, chickens, and hogs have been purchased to enable them to maintain themselves as nearly as possible through their own efforts and at the same time furnish a food supply that is of the best quality.

All are encouraged to plant gardens, small plots under intensive cultivation for current supply and canning, and field plots for the more staple varieties which are processed in various ways for family consumption throughout the year. Pressure cookers and sealers, in the opinion of Mr. Rushing, are as necessary equipment to the farm family as the lister that first breaks the soil, and he insists that each borrower own one or have access to one and

Architect's Drawing Of New Midland School Building

The new building for the Midland Public School System is to be one of the most modern of its kind in the state. Particular attention has been given to the features of safety, beauty, convenience and durability of this school.

The building is of strictly fireproof construction, the entire structure being of reinforced concrete and steel. A gypsum deck is provided under the tile roof giving added fireproof and heat insulating features.

The entrance and corridor floors and stairs are of terrazzo; the auditorium and class room floors are maple applied over the concrete structural floor. The corridors and toilet rooms are to have a glazed tile wainscot which is impervious to dirt and wear. The auditorium, offices and all class rooms will have acoustical plaster ceilings in order that the noise of the building be reduced to a minimum.

Each of the thirteen class rooms is equipped with wardrobes for the teachers and pupils. Four of the class rooms are for primary grades and are so arranged as to provide private toilet facilities for each primary room.

The building is to be heated with a low pressure steam vacuum return system having all of the most modern safety features. The building is designed in a modern Romanesque style of architecture having brick walls, stone trim and tile roof.

STANLEY BALDWIN CONTRACTOR MOVING TOOLS TO LEWRIGHT TERRY WELL

BY FRANK GARDNER
Southeast Terry county claimed attention at the week's close as Lem Peters, Midland contractor, began moving in tools to W. L. Pickens et al No. 1 Lewright, wildcat test which has been shut down for nearly a month at 4,975 with sulphur water in the hole. It was not definitely known whether the well would be drilled deeper or pipe pulled for salvage preparatory to plugging.

Hugh Corrigan, Midland operator, late in March obtained salvage of the well from G. J. Davidson Drilling company, or the contract. Previously he had made a deal with Pickens and associates by which he would receive full interest in leases on 720 acres, including the 320-acre tract the well is on, providing he deepened it as much as 100 feet.

One of the most closely watched wildcats ever drilled in West Texas, the No. 1 Lewright failed, to show oil or gas in the lime before drilling into water at 4,938. However, many believe that at 4,975, the present depth, it had stopped short of the zone in which May Albaugh No. 1 Robinson, discovery pumper ten miles farther southeast in northwestern Dawson county, found production. Location is in the center of the northeast of the northeast of section 1, block C-37, public school land.

A tentative wildcat location for northwest Terry county was announced late in the week by R. L. Force of Dallas for the No. 1 W. E. Poole. It will be in the center of the northeast quarter of section 54, block D-11, public school land, 11 miles south by southeast of the recent Texas No. 1 Slaughter discovery in southwest Hockley and about the same distance northwest of the town of Brownfield.

Andrews Location
William F. Hanagan, Midland oil man, late in the week announced location for another wildcat in Andrews county, his third in recent months. It will be the No. 1 Llanowry, W. P. Scarborough, in the center of the northeast quarter of section 16, block A-26, public school land. The test, for which contract depth is 5,000 feet, will be drilled with rotary by the Lee Drilling Company. Spudding date is June 1 or before.

Ford declined to comment on plans to unionize the Ford plants despite his statement Wednesday that he never would recognize the United Automobile Workers of America for collective bargaining.

ASSESSOR ASKS HELP OF PUBLIC

Staton Requests Owners Of Property to See Him Soon

Neal D. Staton, assessing taxes for the office of A. C. Francis, county tax assessor and collector, asked Saturday that all property owners see him as soon as possible to render property for 1937 state and county taxes.

The rolls should be completed by April 30, and both Francis and Staton requested cooperation of the property owners in having renditions completed before that time, pointing out that it is cheaper to have property on the rendered than on the unrendered rolls.

Staton said he will be glad to meet property owners at any time if they are unable to come to the assessor's office and will notify him.

She lived after their marriage they moved to where Midland now stands, where Mrs. Cowden and her husband worked together in building up far flung ranching and other business interests.

Lived in Dugout
Mrs. Cowden had never seen a dugout until she moved to Midland. There she lived in a crude dugout. After her husband's death Mrs. Cowden continued active in the management of the many and extensive Cowden business interests until February of this year.

She resigned as president of Fikes & Co. in February because of ill health, but still maintained her position as a director of Fikes & Co. and the Hub Furniture Company. At one time she was a director of the Farmers and Mechanics National Bank, later consolidated with the Fort Worth National Bank.

Gave Much to Charity
Mrs. Cowden's charitable gifts were many. She was a strong financial supporter of the Broadway Baptist church. After her husband's death she gave $150,000 to the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary for erection of a building in memory of her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Cowden moved to Fort Worth from Midland in 1907. She is survived by three children: G. E. Cowden Jr., Fort Worth; Mrs. Burleson Stanten, El Paso, and Mrs. R. T. Henry Jr., Lancaster; seven grandchildren, George Cowden Statten, Mrs. John Williams, Burleson

WAR CAUSE

So many grave events have menaced peace in recent years that the world, by now, must have become pretty callous to war scares. When such a momentous event as Hitler's remilitarization of the Rhineland, for instance, fails to bring a world conflict, the event that finally does will have to be one of calamitous proportions, it would seem.

In this connection an odd news story that appeared the other day seems analogous. An Ohio parachute jumper who had made 2226 leaps, and fallen a total of 2,000,000 feet, was seriously injured in a tumble from a truck trailer.

Thus, after facing one great crisis after another, the world finally may be plunged into blood by an apparently innocuous incident. The assassination of one man, remember, touched off the World War. When and if war finally does come, the cause, superficially at least, may not be a huge crisis. It may be something as picayunish, for example, as the ruffling of a dictator's dignity.

The Los Angeles Drive-in theater has one disadvantage. You can't tell the sight-seeing bus in front to take off its hat.

If Mayor LaGuardia, father of New York's anti-noise campaign, finds he can't concentrate, Hitler would be glad to put him up in a concentration camp.

Among certain New Guinea cannibals, it is polite to ask permission of a victim's family before eating him or her. Thus, "May I have your daughter's hand?"

Oil News--

Continued From Page One Shell Pipe-Line company is reported surveying for a welded 6-inch line to extend from the Goldsmith pool in Ector to its Barnsley station in Crane, a distance of approximately 41 miles. Humble Pipe-Line company is completing a new 8-inch line from the North Cowden pool to Judkins (Penwell) in Ector, paralleling its 6-inch line already in use. It is also buying right-of-way for a 6-inch line direct from the town of Anderson to the North Cowden. The new line will tie in with the 6-inch line from the Means pool to Andrews. At present, the connection between Andrews and the North Cowden is a 4-inch line which cuts over westward to the Fuhrman pool. Hockley Discovery No new developments were reported yesterday on the Texas Company No. 1 Bob Slaughter discovery in southwest Hockley county, other than that samples of pay zone lime were being tested for acid reaction and analyses being made of bottom-hole water. The well is bottomed at 5,023, plugged back with lead wool from total depth of 5,030 when salty sulphur water developed in the last five feet. In the middle of the week, the well headed 120 barrels after swab was run to 500 feet, and a day later it headed 90 barrels when swab was run three times. The well is in labour 83, league 38, Zavalla county school land. Bond & Harrison et al No. 1 Cameron, eastern Cochran test in labour 1, league 85, Greer county school land, is preparing to run 7-inch casing, probably to shoulder at 4,500. Cores from 4,500 to 4,515 were lime bearing anhydrite and black shale, with only a short section showing pure lime. Schlumberger electrical survey showed total depth to be 4,516 feet. In Gaines county, Carter-Conoco No. 1 Wasson, test west of Sea-graves is shut down at 3,002 feet. Drilling mud was lost in crevice between 2,944 and 2,950, which carried enough air pressure to clean the hole. Shell No. 1 M. J. Mann, east offset to the discovery on the Seminole structure, is drilling below 3,875 feet in anhydrite and gypsum. A possible location for a new wildcat in extreme northwest Gaines was announced by Argo Royalty Company on the Dr. E. H. Jones ranch, 1,320 feet from the north and east lines of section 2, block A-7, public school land. Argo holds 4,280 acres under lease. The proposed location is nine miles west and slightly north of the Carter-Conoco test and about 18 miles northeast of the Hobbs pool in Lea county, N. M.

Resettlement--

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE In keeping with this idea a pressure cooker and sealer is kept in the local office so that no one need lose a canning for the lack of this equipment.

Through this supervised plan of loaning or financing the greater portion of the borrowers have begun to see a new day dawning for them and in the light of which they will become independent farm owners with initiative and determination to steer clear of the old one crop method which reduced them to the low income class. The supervised loan of the Rural Rehabilitation Division of the Resettlement Administration will not only help the borrower but will be a lesson to the neighbor as he can readily see that producing for him consumption first is the most economical method of farming.

SECOND, Mrs. S. G. Gwyn, for the joke about the country boy's reply to the city smart-alecks, asking them if they fell off the monkey wagon.

THIRD, W. A. Nolen, for the joke about Pat and Mike eating the horse radish, thinking it was ice cream.

And here are some more jokes received too late for the contest: A little boy while walking to school one morning tore his pants while climbing a fence. When he got to school, late, the teacher said to him "Johnny, I see you're a little behind this morning." Johnny replied, "You wouldn't if I had another safety pin."

Two young Americans, fresh from college, were at the port at New York, watching the foreigners land, and decided to have some fun out of an Irish Paddy. One of them walked up to him as soon as he landed and shook his hand and said: "Pat, did you know the devil was dead?" "Is that so?" said Pat. Pat pulled out two pennies and handed them to the other two young Americans and said: "Well, I always contribute to the orphans."

And here are the winners of the Town Quack joke contest which closed last Tuesday. The committee met in a called session Saturday morning. Winners will be paid upon calling at the business office of The Reporter-Telegram.

FIRST, Mrs. L. H. Tiffin, for the joke about the judge sending the pickpocket back into the crowd to get enough money to pay his fine.

Doll of 1900 Is Added to Collection

PORT ARTHUR, Tex., Apr. 10 (AP)—Mrs. C. W. Redman recently added to her large collection of dolls the "last" doll of Miss Mary E. Page, Port Arthur's first school teacher, now a resident of Sabine Pass. The figure is "old-style" china, 13 inches high.

"Miss Page," Mrs. Redman says, "apologized for not washing the doll before giving it to me, saying it still bore mud stains from the 1900 hurricane at Galveston."

Mrs. Redman says she removed only the mud that hid the beauty of the doll's features and officially christened it for its original owner. The doll became one of three relics in Mrs. Redman's memorial collection from the storm. The others are a toy piano and "the great Galveston disaster," by Richard Spillone, former editor of the Galveston Tribune.

Mrs. Redman is famous, other than a collector of dolls, for founding the "Sprig of Green Memorial," started Christmas day, 1935, when children placed pennies in a small bank beneath Mrs. Redman's Christmas tree to build a memorial in England to Lewis Carroll, author, and Mrs. Hargrave, the original "Alice" in "Alice in Wonderland."

Good Attendance At Story Hour

Children present were: Betty Jo Greene, Eloise Pickering, Betty Ruth Pickering, Nelda Ruth Norton, Betty Jo Joplin, Billy James Jopling, Patricia Ann, Patsy Ann Patterson, Jane Patterson, Geneva Merrill, Audie Merrill, Dorothy Rose Otho, Oscar Otho, Jr., Jane Hardison, Royce Ray McKee, Lois Black, Betty Jean Merriweather, Royce and Charles Williamson, Robert Sid Story, Melba Lee Story, Marvel Gray Story, Gene Hix, Billy Pate, Toya Chapple, Ann Tucker, Carol Casselman, Sallie Jean Secor, Marinell Casselman, Ray Dudley Coles, and Wanda Coles.

The giraffe is one of the queerest animals known to man. It has the spotted skin of a leopard, the callous breast of a camel, the head of a horse, and the neck and hoof of a stag.

"Tovarich"

By Jacques Deval

Adapted by Robert E. Sherwood. A smash hit of the season came to New York via Paris, Vienna, London, and a score of other European cities. "Tovarich" (Russian for "comrade") is a delightful play.

Jacques Deval, strolling his Paris streets, met hordes of White Russian emigres, bankrupt, half-starved, bewildered but gallant. He decided their tribulations would make a play. He wrote it in French, Robert E. Sherwood fashioned it into English.

The play revolves around a high-born, poverty-pinched Russian couple who become servants in a French bourgeois family. John Halliday takes the role of Prince Mikail, the gentle and gallant ex-officer of the Tsar who was entrusted by his sovereign with 4,000,000,000 gold francs just before the fall of the Winter Palace. The money was to be used, at the Prince's discretion, for the best interests of Holy Russia. Years later, Prince Mikail is living in a Paris garret, down to his last 100-franc note and about to be dispossessed, but with the Tsar's 4,000,000,000 francs still intact. His wife, the Grand Duchess Tatiana is no less indomitable. She steals food from the neighborhood grocer with a facility which can be explained only by the fact that God is a Russian. When this tattered and charming couple learn that the French Government, not God, has been averting the eyes of the groceryman, Prince and Grand Duchess go into service as butler and maid to a banker's family. There they teach the mistress manners, the banker graces; and discipline into charm the two adolescent and demoniac brats of their employers. A Soviet Commissar, in Paris to negotiate oil leases to a combine of nations, dines at the banker's home. He recognizes the former Grand Duchess and her Prince. The banker and his family are dismayed at the royalty that has been serving them hand foot and headache.

In the kitchen, the Commissar, who in the early days of the Revolution had treated Tatiana and Mikail cruelly, atones for his early violence, gives them a lecture on patriotism, gets the four billion francs. Russia keeps its oil, is saved from exploitation. He promises them he will have the Tsar's flag flown over the oil-fields in tribute to their generosity.

Richard Watts, Jr., New York Herald Tribune; "Tovarich" proved to be a thoroughly delightful and vastly heart-warming sentimental comedy." —By Miss Stella Maye Lanham. (NOTE: This is a resume of the play read by Miss Lanham at a meeting of the Play Readers club on Wednesday.)

The thrifty way to travel First-class

1937 Ford V-8 owners pay less for their cars, pay less to run them, and travel first class all the time!

Basic reason is the V-8 engine. Eight cylinders give smoother performance. V-type construction is the most modern on land, sea, or in the air, and permits a much more compact power-plant. Space saved under the hood means more room in the body, and more comfort.

This year's V-8 engine is offered in two sizes, 85 horsepower for top-notch performance. 60 horsepower for rock-bottom economy. The latter, available in five body types, makes possible the lowest Ford prices in years and the greatest gasoline mileage in Ford history.

To this choice of V-8 engine sizes, add the other Ford first-class features—Center-Poise Ride, Easy-Action Safety Brakes, all-steel body, advanced design—and you'll realize why the Ford V-8 is the quality car in the low-price field.

LOWEST FORD PRICES IN YEARS $25 A MONTH, after usual down-payment, buys any model 1937 Ford V-8 Car—from any Ford dealer—anywhere in the United States. Ask your Ford dealer about the easy payment plans of the Universal Credit Company.

BOOK REVIEW By A. W.

I visit the Soviets, by E. M. Delafield; Harper; N. Y.

Miss Delafield did not go to Russia because she wanted to study the Five Year Plan; because she was interested in the Communistic Movement; nor because she was interested in the Women's Side of the Great Movement. No Woman's Club, University or Association sent her to study or investigate some phase of life in Soviet Russia. She didn't even go because she wanted to go. She spent four months in the USSR for the simple reason that an eminent American publisher (Harper's) sent her because no one had ever tried to be funny about the Soviet.

Her story is not hilarious—how could it be—but it is humorous and human. Miss Delafield is probably the first person to write of the Soviet with a sense of perspective rather than prejudice. The average visitor finds everything terrible, or, as Mrs. Pansy Baker, "just too lovely."

For four months Miss Delafield visited machine shops, hospitals, farms, schools, public buildings—everything that it's possible for an outsider to see. She was even able to live for a while on a Collective Farm. She listened to Soviet tutored guides giving glowing accounts of the Great Movement; she was stared at by thousands of photographers of Lenin and Stalin; she watched hours for officials who were never ready; and she learned that new rides, new shows, more fun, more amusement for everybody at Tidwell's Carnival. (Adv.)

In Russia there is no privacy anywhere. She listened to fellow tourists hotly condemn Russia—its destruction of places of worship and attempt to do away with all ideas or beliefs in a God; its group plan whereby all individuality is lost. She listened to other tourists who accepted everything as "just perfect and too grand."

From her experiences Miss Delafield wrote a 30,000 word book which she smuggled out under her elastic girdle. Readers can be thankful that she suffered to get her manuscript past the customs officers for she has given us a sane and refreshing book about Russia.

The Stones Awake, Carleton Beals; Lippincott, Philadelphia.

In 1905 Esperanza Huitron was just a beautiful girl in her teens. She had been born to serfdom; she could neither read nor write, and felt herself lucky to love and be loved by Luis Cardona, one of the foremen on the hacienda. Then rumors began to be circulated of peon uprisings in the north under Madero and in the south under Zapata. Jose, Esperanza's brother, after being cruelly punished for leaving work early one afternoon, ran off to join Madero. Jose was soon captured and returned to the hacienda. On the steps of the church he was brutally whipped and then tied across the back of a horse to be sent as cannon fodder in the campaign against Madero. Luis was also sent off because he had attempted to interfere in the punishment of Jose.

This was the revolution begun and life in Mexico changed. The peons were no longer willing to accept the landowners as masters; they demanded lands, education, and freedom. Madero won and became known as the Little Savior. But Madero was assassinated and the government again fell in the hands of selfish and unscrupulous men. During the succeeding years Mexico came under the tyranny of Huerta, Venustiano Carranza, Calles, Obregon, Ortega, and Cardenas. Esperanza learned to read and write. She met soldiers, generals, writers, artists—all kinds and types of people. From an ignorant Indian girl she developed into an intelligent and understanding woman. She never lost her love and sympathy for her people; but was always ready to help them in their struggles.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH.
"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist on Sunday, April 11.
The Golden Text is: "The Lord hath redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him from the hand of him that was stronger than he" (Jeremiah 3:11).
Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind... But is now made manifest, by the appearing of our Saviour, Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel" (II Timothy 1:7,10).
The Lesson-Sermon includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Man's individual being can no more die nor disappear in unconsciousness than can Soul, for both are immortal. If man believes death now, he must disbelieve it when learning that there is no reality in death, since the truth of being is deathless" (Page 427).

"Cabbages" To Be Presented Tuesday Night.
 "Cabbages," Midland High School's entry in the Interscholastic League Contest for one-act plays will be presented to the public on Tuesday night, April 13, in the High School Auditorium at 7:30.

The scene of the comedy is the living room of the Grossmeier's new home in one of the cities of Iowa's northeast. The Grossmeiers, erst-while farmers, have struck oil, not figuratively, but actually. One could not listen in on the family for a few minutes without knowing all about it. The Gus Grossmeier, joyous and bewildered, have landed with a great splash in the pool of oil aristocracy, and their early floundering makes possible this forty minutes or so of tomfoolery, which will be sure to delight the audience.

The characters for "Cabbages," a Samuel French play by Edward Staadt, are:

 Mr. Morris, field representative of TCU, was introduced to the student body by Rev. Pickering on Friday morning and talked on the most important lessons one carries away from school.
 The lessons of most value are cultivating an alert mind and building a healthy body. "Guard well your powers of body and mind," Mr. Morris said, "if you want to meet the tests of life successfully."
 In a conference with the seniors later Mr. Morris discussed in detail opportunities and advantages offered a student attending TCU.

Midland Students Attend Latin Tournament
 On Friday, April 2, a group of Latin students, accompanied by Miss Ina Mae Vaughn, the Latin instructor and Mr. L. W. Taylor, motored to Seymour to represent the Midland schools in a Latin tournament.
 Those who entered the contests were: in first year Latin, Neil Ruth Bedford and James Frank Johnson, in second year, Kathryn Jane Tanner and Donald Griffen, in third year, Virginia Ann Hilliard and Jane Doran, and in fourth year,

Robert Tanner, and be an old friend.
The Midnight Show
 In the morning when the alarm clock rings, you know there is something wrong. You are sleeper than usual, but yes, the clock is set right. Then all of a sudden it comes to you. "The Midnight Preview" the night before. It was a grand show and you enjoyed it immensely. Even so, you have to get up.

Places I'd Like To Visit
 There are so many places that I should like to go. First, there is Hawaii. Just think of the beautiful scenery on the islands. Then there is Egypt, with all the old ruins that we study of in history. And wouldn't it be fun to ride in a gondola down some canal in Venice? Of course, I'd like to go to Spain and see all the Senors and Senoritas with their beautiful costumes of many colors. Wouldn't it be grand to climb to the top of a high snow-covered mountain in Switzerland, or visit Holland and see all its people with their wooden shoes and queer costumes—Day dreams, you say. Perhaps, and then perhaps not.

Ten Years From Now
 Woodrow Adams will have developed enough sleeping power to enter a contest for sleeping through life and will likely win.
 Gordon English will be the world's greatest paper-wad-shooter.
 Billy Noble will be the world's smartest man or some small thing such as this.
 Virginia Ann Hilliard will be taking first place in contests which contain only one contestant and this herself.

Gum
 Gum is a funny thing. Have you ever noticed the usage of it? Just sitting in one class at least eight people are chewing gum. Some chew as though their lives depended upon this. Others use a leisurely manner, probably as they live their lives. Maybe a few do not wish to be seen, so chew awhile and look around, and if no one is watching start again. Is not this like the life of people all over the world?

Friends
 There are as many different kinds of friends as there are different kinds of fruits. There are good friends, bad friends, true friends, faithful friends, all sorts or friends. One never really knows how many friends he has until he has lost everything and needs care. The old friends are usually the ones that come back. The new friends usually like you for your social condition or your worth. Do not pick your friends for their wealth and their position; never turn from your friends if they are in need, but help

QUESTIONS THAT ARE ASKED ABOUT BANKING

"Am I asking a favor when I seek a Bank loan?"

A LOAN is a business transaction. It is no more of a favor for a bank to lend you money than it is for a property-owner to rent you a house. Both make a fair profit when the business is on a sound basis.

This bank welcomes loan applications—for this is one of the ways we make money. You do not have to say "please" or "thank you" when you borrow here. Your application is judged strictly on its merits like any other business matter. If we think your loan is a proper investment for our depositors' funds we shall approve it promptly—and appreciate getting it. If your application does not meet our requirements of sound banking we shall tell you so frankly together with our reasons.

This bank is actively seeking good loans.

Can't get around it.. "It's Buick again!"

EVERY flock has to have its leader—and you'll find plenty of proof on the road this summer that Buick's the pace-maker of this year's crop of cars.

So if you'd rather feed dust than eat it, you'll take the wise step now, and make sure that when summer comes you're up front in the driver's seat of a Buick.

There's no getting around the power a Buick can pour into the job of getting you there quick and quiet and easy—its valve-in-head straight-eight engine gives you the soaring flight of an eagle when you want to cover ground.

It's got a steady, fretless, road-leveling gait that makes travel effortless as light chasing shadow, whether you're just loafing along or shooting for a record distance for the day.

In this marvel car you ride in seats like easy chairs. You finger controls that seem to sense your next wish in advance. You've got brakes to halt its thunderbolt action and bring it gently down to rest with the smooth lightness of misting rain.

You've got a car that's a young man's fancy, light-footed, eager, adventurous—a car that's any man's pride so honest is it in the solid worth of every nut, strut, bolt and thread.

Why handicap yourself this summer when so plainly it's Buick again for value? You'll find this great straight eight easy to buy as the average run of sixes—and if you get your order in now you'll be leading the parade in a bellwether Buick when summer gets here.

LOWEST BUICK PRICES EVER!
 At today's prices, a big Buick valve-in-head straight eight costs little more than the average six outside the lowest price field! Compare delivered prices and learn how little more buys a bellwether Buick.

FENCE, CLUB HOUSE CONSTRUCTION TO BE STARTED MONDAY

PRIZE PLANT OF SOUTHWEST TO BE FINISHED SOON
 Players Expected To Arrive Later In Week

Construction of a fence around the Midland ball park is scheduled to start in the morning; construction of a club house is due to be started by mid-week.

When both are completed Midland will boast one of the outstanding baseball fields to be found in West Texas, the clubhouse, to be erected and furnished at an approximate cost of $2,000, will be used to house members of the local team and visiting teams when they desire to spend a night here. The club house will be 100 feet long and 16 feet wide, equipped with showers, beds and other living necessities.

There will be no "poop hitters" getting home runs out of the Midland park. Both the left and right field fences will be an even 340 from home base, a fair size distance to knock a ball by anyone.

The center field fence will be approximately 370 feet from home base, pretty good insurance on baseballs. Selling of ads on the fence will be started some time during the next week. When local sponsors of the club engaged Wray Query to handle the club this year all advertisement rights for this year were granted him.

The Midland club was fortunate in owning ground and a grandstand thereby letting them start the season much cheaper than several other towns in the league. Odessa is expected to be out approximately $4,500 through the purchase of land and the erection of a grandstand and fence. At Wink, more than $7,700 was raised to be used in the construction of a plant and clubhouse.

Players that will make up the membership of the local club will arrive this week and start spring training just as soon as the park can be prepared for them. Extensive work must be done on the infield before players will be allowed to use it.

The PAYOFF

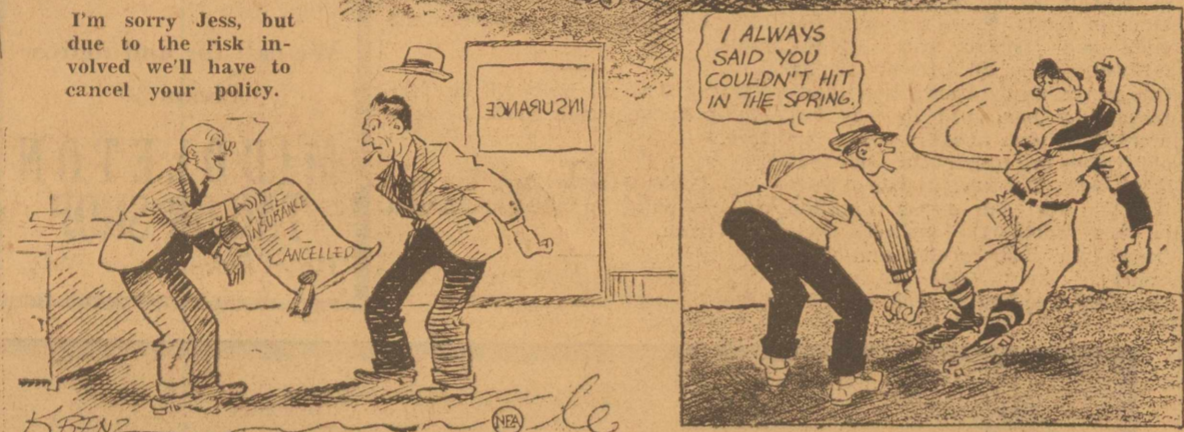

Hey, Kids, C'mere. Would you give two-bits to see 65 baseball games? You would? Well, all you have to do is start saving your pennies and in a few days Wray Query, manager of the local baseball team this year, will start the sale of "knot hole" tickets. To all kids 12 years old and under, who desire to take in the games the 25 cents will entitle them to a

New Features With The Tidwell Shows

For the past twelve years, spring has always brought the T. J. Tidwell shows to Midland. Each year it has grown both in size and beauty.

This year, will by far exceed any previous records, because the entire congress of shows and rides are almost new.

The very latest rides, on the market grace the midway this year among which is the famous "Ridee-o" which will give you thrills and chills a plenty. This is the fastest, and most thrilling ride to be introduced in years, and only a few of the larger shows on the road today can boast of having one.

Another and the newest creation is the "Octopus". There is only one other ride of this kind in the entire west, and Mr. Tidwell had this same ride as a feature at the "Fat Stock Show", Ft. Worth.

Many other new features come with the show, chief among which is a new side-show, in almost all the shows are new.

The same Minstrel show and band is featured, but with new faces and new entertainment, as snappy as ever. This is considered the best minstrel on the road today. Altogether the show is much larger than usual, and there will be nice clean amusement for every one. The free act will thrill you nightly from the dizzy heights of one hundred and fifty feet. Come early and prepare to stay late if you want to see anything like all the great features, carried by this mammoth show for your entertainment, and bring the kiddies because Mr. Tidwell has always catered to the kiddies since he launched his first show, eighteen years ago.

DEMONSTRATION CLUB NEWS

At a meeting of the Valley View Home Demonstration Club at the home of Mrs. N. P. Blanton Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Hollingsworth gave a demonstration on colors for wearing apparel. As there were not enough members present, there was no business meeting.

Mrs. Hollingsworth especially stressed the facts that in analyzing the choice of colors for your wardrobe you might ask yourself these questions: (a) Does it suit my personality? (b) Are the colors becoming to me? (c) Do the colors of shoes, dress, hat, and the entire ensemble make a pleasing harmony? (d) Are the colors suited to the occasion? (e) Are the colors appropriate for the season?

Refreshments were served to the following guests: Mesdames Leonard Oliff, Mable Gossett, G. W. Blanton, and club members: Meses. N. P. Blanton, Lois Lewis, J. D. Bartlett, and Lura Hollingsworth, county home demonstration agent.

Need Name for Club
 And now here is a chance for some person to win a season ticket to all the games.
 Mr. Query will take the money that comes in through the sale of the tickets and erect a stand for members of the gang only. There will be no grown-ups to be jumping up in front of you to keep you from seeing everything that goes on. There will probably be one man, you can decide who that will be, that will have charge of you each day but other adults will be kept out of your stands. The stand will be erected along the first base or third base line and a gate will be made in the wall so you can enter the stands without having to come in with the others.
 Mr. Query knows that all kids like to see the games and that it would be impossible for a lot of you to pay to see them each day so he is making it a cinch for you.
 And remember, the more of you there are joining the gang, the bigger and better your stand will be. There will be a screen up in front of it to keep you from getting hit by batted or thrown balls; who knows but what a roof will be built over the stand if enough of you buy tickets?
 Now all of you start saving your pennies and around the first of the month the tickets will be put on sale.
 To the person who sends in some name for the club this year, in case that name is adopted, the sender will be given a ticket entitling him or her to see all the games.
 Any name or names you might want to suggest you can do so. You may take the names of any major league or minor league team names you like and submit. Or you may submit any name you think would be a good one for the team.
 For many years the name "Colts" was used to identify the Midland teams. There is, of course, a possibility that name will be chosen again.
 Due to the fact that the team members are to be here within the next few days it is expedient that a name be chosen soon so the contest will end next Saturday.
 The winner will be named in this column next Sunday.
 Remember, you can send in as many names as you desire to. The winner will be chosen by Wray Query. He will announce how he will choose the winner some time this week. He may leave it up to

Magnolia Dealers Offer Safety Service
 In an effort to increase the safety and efficiency of automobiles now traveling the highways, the Magnolia Petroleum Company has launched an intensive campaign urging motorists to have their cars checked for safe summer driving.
 More than 8,000 Magnolia Dealers will participate in the current "Summerize" Campaign. This service, as outlined by executives of the Magnolia Petroleum Company, includes complete lubrication service for engine and chassis as well as a thorough inspection of the radiator, battery, tires, lights and other safety devices.
 According to Fred M. Lege, Jr., Vice-President in charge of Marketing for the Magnolia Petroleum Company, most car owners now realize that it is necessary to use different grade lubricants for summer and winter driving. In "Summerize Service" Magnolia has made an important step forward by offering a complete bumper-to-bumper inspection service of vital parts which are commonly neglected by the average motorist.
 Magnolia Dealers have been prepared through a series of educational and merchandising meetings and have been supplied with new Mobilubrication Charts, profusely illustrated with actual photographs of various automobile parts needing special lubrication attention.
 Regardless of what system is used, someone is going to get them a season ticket.

Pageant Body Needs Aid to Shoe Oxen

MARIETTA O. (UP)—"Calling all ox-team drivers" is the cry of the U. S. Northwest Territory Celebration Commission as it faces the question of how to shoe the oxen which will start Dec. 3, to draw a covered wagon caravan over the original trail from Ipswich, Mass., to Marietta, in a re-enactment of the pioneer journey to the Northwest Territory.

Commission officials explained their dilemma by pointing out that most of the old pioneer trail is paved road today, and oxen must be shod to be driven on these roads. While there are thousands of ox-teams available, most of them are on farms where shoeing is not a problem, and old-times familiar with shoeing of oxen are becoming very scarce.

It is known, of course, that the ox shoe is in two pieces and differs a good deal from the horseshoe. However, some say that the ox's hoof is too thin to stand shoeing, while others assert that although the white part of the hoof is thin and brittle, the black part is tough and will stand frequent shoeing.

The commission has been advised that if a nail is driven into the pick of an ox hoof it will lame the ox; but it has also been advised by others that if the nail is first pushed into a piece of fat meat it can be driven through the quick and the ox will not be injured.

There are those who insist that shoeing is not necessary, and advise the use of a special boot similar to those used by dairy horses. It is said that the Japanese make such boots from woven straw and never shoe oxen. But the late Ezra Meeker, western pioneer, said he shod his oxen 17 times during his journey westward.

Missouri Sees Patronage Row

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (U.P.)—Gov. Lloyd C. Stark of Missouri, former head of the nation's largest nursery, convinced job-seekers that he is skilled in developing and keeping political plums as well as the edible kind.

Stark, who promised a "business administration," asked applicants for jobs what qualifications they possessed in addition to the customary political endorsements.

When Stark, a Democrat, took office in January, he had ready for distribution a stack of "pink slips" for job-seekers to fill out with information that most precinct captains and committee chairmen could not supply.

In addition to the usual questions, blanks were provided for the applicant to reveal "previous experience in this work," "special training for the position sought," and "number of relatives now on the state and federal payrolls."

"I intend to run the state's business the same way I run my own business," explained the governor, "and that means getting the best person possible for the job in question."

Political leaders and legislators convening for the regular session, smiled and indicated "the governor will come around now that the campaign's over and he is in office."

But thus far Stark, a former navy officer, has not "come around." It is still necessary to fill out the "pink slips" and the governor is giving each application his personal attention.

Observers believe the test will come when Stark is confronted by powerful political groups who supported him. Most formidable of that group is the Democratic organization headed by Thomas J. Pendergast, of Kansas City, St. Louis Democratic leaders, now ruling that former Republican stronghold for the first time in 40 years, also supported Stark and they want jobs, too.

The state wonders if the "pink slips" will withstand this pressure.

"O'Malley"

Pat O'Brien, film star, is the proud wearer of a Marquette University "M" sweater. Marquette is O'Brien's alma mater. The lettered sweater was sent to him by Don Jennings, coach of the Marquette team at the beginning of the current football season. It is his second from the same school, from which he was graduated in 1920 and for which he played football. One of his gridiron feats was to score against the great Notre Dame team. O'Brien was quarterback for Marquette. He is starred with Humphrey Bogart in "The Great O'Malley," now showing at the Ritz Theatre.
