

Dozier Dies, Wife's Condition Critical

Motorcycle Patrolman Engaged for City of Midland

WILL START WORK MAY 1. OFFICIALS ANNOUNCE TODAY

Member of Force At San Angelo To Move Here

STREET LIGHTS Will be Placed At Intersections In The City

Announcement that a motorcycle policeman would be placed on duty in Midland May 1 was made today by Mayor Marvin C. Ulmer.

The new officer, Lonnie Koon, is at present a member of the motorcycle patrol at San Angelo, and boasts of seven years of service as a patrolman.

City Councilman Marion Flynn said today that Koon had been signed for service here upon recommendations by both San Angelo and State Highway officials.

Members of the city council and the mayor recently took steps to relieve the congested condition of traffic in the city by the enactment of several new regulatory measures.

Included were rules against parking in the center of the streets, within intersection, on cross walks, within 15 feet of the driveway of the fire station, within 10 feet of a fire hydrant and many other measures designed to protect lives and property in the city.

The city council also voted to place traffic lights at several of the important intersections of the city and construction of them is expected to be started in the immediate future.

A recent collision between an automobile and a private automobile caused officers today to warn that ambulances, fire trucks or any other vehicles equipped with sirens had at all times the right of way.

A city ordinance calls for all cars to immediately pull to the nearest curb at the instant a fire truck siren is heard. Fire chief Luther "Rowell" today declared that firemen were often handicapped while going to fires by cars racing with and even passing the truck, while curbing to fires. He warned that no damages could be collected by anyone who was hit by the fire truck unless they were parked. Co-operation of the public in making it easier for members of the fire department to get to fires in the least possible time was requested. Tidwell also asked that residents not call the station upon hearing the siren. The fire station telephone is often needed badly at that time and a busy connection can cause heavy damage.

In efforts to inform the public of the kinds of fires were happening he cited the following information: One siren sound means a fire within the city limits; two siren sounds indicates a house outside the city limits; three calls indicate a prairie fire; four calls indicate a practice run.

Interest Light in Liquor Election Saturday

Queen of Caves

Queen Helen, in this fierce and furry regalia, reigned over the Oregon Cavemen at the organization's ceremonies in caves near Grant's Pass, in this year 7037 A. C. (after caves). Away from the caves the queen is more simply Helen Carlson.

Second Election On Question Within 14 Months

With interest at a minimum, Midland county voters tomorrow will go to the polls for the second time within the past fourteen months to vote on the legal sale of liquor in Midland county.

Resident voters of precinct 1 (Midland) will vote on two ballots; one for the sale of liquor in the county, the other on the sale in the precinct. Voters of precincts 2, 3, 4 will vote only on the sale of liquor in the county. Interest is reported to be higher in precincts 2, 3, 4 than in precinct 1.

The election was ordered by members of the county commissioners court after a petition bearing the signatures of more than ten percent of the total number of qualified voters in the county had been presented then.

The measure was voted upon February 8, 1936, with every precinct in the county voting dry. Before the 1936 election Warfield, precinct 4, was in the wet column, never having repealed the sale of liquor. The precinct voted dry in the last election by a margin of one vote, 11-10. Precinct 1 voted dry 599-515.

An intensive campaign for votes was waged last year by the dries, members of the Pastor's Association taking the lead in keeping the county in the dry column. Radio and newspaper advertising campaigns were sponsored by the Association.

No active campaign has been waged by either side this year, residents seemingly not being greatly interested in which way the election would go.

A total of 14 absentee ballots were cast in the election as the deadline appeared at midnight Wednesday.

The voting will be conducted in the basement of the court house, the polls remaining open from 8 a. m. until 7 p. m.

British Ships Blockaded by Spanish Rebels

Four British merchantmen, loaded with cargoes of food consigned to the Spanish government, sulked in the harbor of St. Jean de Luz, France, under the ever watchful eye of two British destroyers as this picture was made. The destroyers, Brazen and Beagle, may be seen at right, with the port's jetty in the foreground. Only a few miles of the blue water of the Bay of Biscay lies between the four merchantmen, at the left, and Bilbao, their destination, but those waters are Nationalist territorial waters, heavily mined and grimly patrolled by General Franco's Nationalist warships. Britain will not protect its commercial vessels within that imaginary rebel line.

PLAINS FARMERS DISHEARTENED BY DUST STORM TODAY

Near Freezing in The Panhandle Tonight And Saturday

By Associated Press

A heavy West Texas dust storm disheartened plains farmers today as the Dallas weather bureau said that the dust may reach as far east as Dallas.

The bureau said that the low pressure area in West Texas could bring thundershowers to the Dallas area tonight, and that showers were forecast for the south and east portions of East Texas.

The Panhandle has been warned to anticipate slightly above freezing temperatures tomorrow.

A strong west wind that reached approximately 35 miles an hour whipped dust into the faces of Midland residents who ventured out on the streets today. It blew strongest during the middle of the morning, moderating somewhat near the noon hour and gave promise it would "blow itself out" by nightfall.

Crops in the country were not thought to have been seriously hurt by the "blow" today, the light rain that fell Monday causing the ground to be damp enough not to blow badly.

ANHYDRITE TOPPED BY YOAKUM WELL

First Marker Encountered At 2,325 by Magnolia 1 Taylor

By FRANK GARDNER

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 Taylor, wildcat in northeastern Yoakum county, topped anhydrite at 2,325 feet, datum of plus 1,282. It was reported today. This morning, the test was drilling anhydrite at 2,370 feet. Location is in the northeast corner of section 201, block D, J. H. Gibson survey.

Schlumberger electrical survey will be run this afternoon in Shell Petroleum Corporation No. 1 S. F. Mann, test in the Seminole area of Gaines county. The well has been temporarily bottomed at 4,800 feet in anhydrite, red sand and lime. It offsets Walsh & Adams (formerly Amerada) No. 1-A Averitt, the discovery oil well, directly to the east, and is located 660 feet out of the northwest corner of section 220, block G, W. T. R. survey.

Wentz Oil Company No. 1 P. W. Dalmont, Gaines wildcat in section 5, block A-22, public school land, southwest of the Kirk area, is drilling below 1,690 feet in red rock, with top of anhydrite expected soon. Exceptionally fast time is being made, 1,470 feet having been drilled in one 30-hour period.

In northern Gaines, Carter-Conoco No. 1 Wasson, section 48, block AX, public school land, is fishing for 7-inch casing lost when the string parted after 1,400 feet had been run. The amount of casing lost was not reported.

NO VERDICT GIVEN BY CORONER AFTER PROBE IS STARTED

Wife Clings to Life With Bullet Wound In Her Heart

CAUSE UNKNOWN

Father of Victim Is Unable to Account For Tragedy

No verdict had been returned this afternoon by Coroner J. H. Knowles in the death by gunshot of Ted Dozier, 23, oil field employe of Wink and son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dozier of Midland, Dozier and his wife, who until her marriage three months ago was Miss Kathleen Stewart, were found wounded Thursday afternoon after two shots had been heard by John King Jr., in whose apartment the Doziers were visiting.

Ted Dozier succumbed late in the afternoon to a wound in the head, and Mrs. Dozier lay near death at a Midland hospital today, one bullet from a .25 calibre automatic pistol having penetrated her heart and possibly her spinal column. The attending surgeon held little hope for her recovery, although she had clung to life for almost 24 hours after the shooting.

Funeral arrangements for Dozier had not been announced today, family members apparently awaiting the outcome of Mrs. Dozier's wounds. His body was at the Ellis funeral home.

County Attorney Merritt Hines, assisting Judge Knowles in an investigation of the case today, said that proceedings were not yet completed. Dr. W. E. Ryan, who was summoned by John King Jr., bookkeeper at Burton-Lingo Co., and whose apartment is located over the office, said when he entered the room in which the two were shot, he found Mrs. Dozier lying across the knees of Ted Dozier. The small calibre pistol was at an angle from the heads of both victims, indicating nothing definite as to who fired the shots. Dr. Ryan, assisted by King and others, placed Mrs. Dozier in his automobile, rushing her to the hospital. A Barrow ambulance took Dozier a brief interval later. Dozier lived for about three hours, and the condition of Mrs. Dozier had remained about the same, her life hanging by a thread. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Stewart, rushed here from their home at Claremont yesterday afternoon.

According to information given by officers, Mrs. Dozier had been visiting Mrs. King, having come over from Wink a few days ago. Dozier came here later and the two were alone in a room at the King apartment. Mrs. King in an adjoining room. King, working in the office below, went up the stairs and told Dozier his uncle was ready to return to the office. As he reached the top of the stairway, he heard two shots and rushed back to the room in which the Doziers were located, finding both of them on the floor. He ran downstairs and called Dr. Ryan, the room next being opened upon the doctor's arrival.

Mrs. Dozier, before her marriage, was employed at Lowe's Service Station. Both she and Mrs. King formerly lived at Claremont. The Doziers and Kings were married a few months ago in a double wedding.

Ted Dozier, former student of Midland high school, grew up in Midland. He was a musician and had been featured in broadcasts over radio stations in both vocal and stringed instrument music. For several months, he had been employed in the oil fields near Wink.

Dozier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dozier, have lived in Midland for approximately 25 years and are well known here. Ed Dozier formerly was tax assessor for the county and has engaged at ranching and in the barber business. He said he was unable to explain the tragedy.

Besides his wife and parents, Ted Dozier is survived by a sister, Mrs. Clint Coughran of Odessa, and a brother Bob Dozier, student in Midland high school.

ALLRED ASKS HOUSE RECONSIDER VOTE ON AD CAMPAIGN

Asks Amendment Be Submitted To Voters

AUSTIN, April 23. (P)—Governor Allred today urged the house to reconsider its Thursday vote refusing to submit a constitutional amendment authorizing a five-year advertising program for the state.

The senate considered a $20,000,000 departmental appropriation bill; refused to concur to the house amendments to the bill boosting salaries of higher judiciary.

The house voted again on submission of the amendment for the advertisement campaign but a majority was still short.

'Bedding Romance' With Clark Gable Claimed by Woman

LOS ANGELES, April 23. (P)—Mrs. Violet Wells Norton declared Thursday she is convinced that Clark Gable, screen idol, is the "Frank Billings" whose mistress she is in England and who she declares is the unwed father of her daughter.

The 47-year-old Englishwoman, on trial charged with having named Gable the father of Gwendoline Norton, 13, and of trying to extract money from him, made the declaration when she was cross-examined by Federal Prosecutor John Powell.

"I am still convinced that he (Gable) is one and same man," she said.

Powell asked her if she might be mistaken in this identifying the big-eared film hero.

"Not unless there is a living double of Frank Billings," said Mrs. Norton.

Before she was placed in the witness chair, the court gave her permission to approach Gable and view him at close quarters. This was while Gable was on the stand as a defense witness.

She looked him over and returned. See (GABLE) Page 8

FATHER DIVINE'S HEAVEN GETS HOT, COPS TURN ON HEAT

Inquiry Began Over Where His Coal Came From

NEW YORK, April 23. (P)—Harlem's self-styled God, negro Father Divine, was released from jail today on bond after being arrested last night in Milford, Conn., on a charge of felonious assault.

He waived extradition and was brought to New York and was arraigned with four of his disciples in a case growing out of the beating and stabbing of a white man at Divine's "heaven" Monday.

NEW YORK, April 23. (P)—More official heat was turned on up in Father Divine's Harlem Heaven yesterday as two detectives left to bring the dapper little negro back from Milford, Conn., to face an assault charge.

Assistant District Attorney John C. McDermott began an inquiry to determine the source of coal used to keep the peace mission warm for Divine's adoring "angels."

The prosecutor, assigned some months ago to halt the traffic in illicitly mined coal, voiced a suspicion that the fuel used at the place See (FATHER DIVINE) Page 8

ALUMINUM CO. IS FILED AGAINST BY THE GOVERNMENT

Anti-Trust Laws Said Violated in The Complaint

WASHINGTON, April 23. (P)—Attorney General Cummings said today that the government had filed suit against the Aluminum Company of America asking a re-arrangement of its property on the grounds that the company had established a monopoly and is violating the anti-trust laws.

Andrew Mellon, former secretary of the treasury, has extensive interests in the company.

BUNGALOW HAS GILT DOMES

SINGAPORE, April 23. (U.P)—Stocks of gold leaf in Singapore dwindled heavily when Aw Boon Haw, Chinese "Tiger Balm King," decided to have the six domes of his new home at Pasir Panjang gilded. The domes now present one of the most opulent examples of architectural design in Malaya. The house cost the equivalent of $250,000.

ELAINE GIVEN DIVORCE

LOS ANGELES, April 23. (P)—Elaine Barrie Barrymore was granted a divorce from John Barrymore, screen actor, here today.

OSHAWA WORKERS RETURN TO WORK AS STRIKE ENDS

Agreement Is Made With Officials Of G. M.

OSHAWA, Canada, April 23. (P)—General Motors strikers today voted to go back to work Monday after an agreement with officials on cutting hours and raising wages.

The settlement of the strike was effected last night in Premier Hepburn's office. Whether or not the union is to be recognized as the sole bargaining agency is in dispute.

Permian Basin Oil Men Gathering Here Today

Oil men from over the entire Permian Basin oil producing section of West Texas and Southeastern New Mexico are in Midland today attending a meeting of the Permian Basin Chapter of the American Petroleum Institute which was organized here several weeks ago and which replaced the old Midland Chapter of the API which was disbanded several years ago.

The meeting was called to order at 1 o'clock this afternoon at Hotel Scharbauer by K. L. Sappington of Midland, chairman of the Permian Chapter, Mayor M. C. Ulmer giving the address of welcome. The program for the meeting was arranged by G. A. Poole of Odessa, program chairman.

Technical papers featured the afternoon meeting, the program being as follows:

"Utilization of Bottom Hole Pressure and Formation Sampling Data," by Ralph Schiltus, Research Department, Humble Oil and Refining Company.

"The Application of Gas Lift in West Texas and New Mexico," Robert R. Kynes, of Kilgore, sponsored by Harvey Hardison of Midland, "Plugging Back With Cement," C. B. Parsons, vice president of the Halliburton Oil Well Cementing Co.

Banquet This Evening

The meeting will be climaxed with the staging of a banquet in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Scharbauer at 7:30 o'clock this evening, all members of the oil fraternity being invited to attend. J. C. Hunter of Abilene will be the principal speaker at the banquet session.

Officers of the Chapter are as follows: K. L. Sappington, Midland, chairman; G. A. Poole, Odessa, H. L. Johnson, Hobbs, Ben LeFevre, Big Spring, and L. F. Shiplett, Wink, vice chairmen; and E. A. Beasley, Midland, secretary.

Members of the advisory committee are: W. T. Doherty, Harvey Hardison, Earl Griffin and J. W. Jordan, Midland; Glenn Bish, W. E. Cunningham, and T. B. Sud-dert, Hobbs; J. F. Hufendick, and T. E. Keefer, Wink; H. B. Hurley, Big Spring; P. E. Hatfield and L. A. Neal, Odessa.

Speaking of Sit-Downers--

'WE THE PEOPLE' ARE BOSS, AND PROVE IT!

There is a good deal to be said for the Iowa farmer who heaved a dead skunk into the state capitol at Des Moines to show his disapproval of a law recently passed creating a closed season for these pungent little animals.

Not that people ought to go around tossing dead skunks into legislative chambers. Not that a closed season on skunks may not be a very good thing indeed. But just because there is an up-from-the-grass-roots independence about this sort of thing that stems directly from the finest traditions of American democracy.

The citizens of a democracy must have a number of qualities in order to make their democracy work as it ought to, and one of the greatest of these is a spirit of rowdy and irascible independence. As long as they have that spirit, their officeholders are never in any danger of forgetting who is really boss in the republic; and if the spirit occasionally leads to skunk-throwing, it is an excess that can be forgiven.

Consider the case of this angry Towan, for example. He raises pheasants, and the skunk is a natural enemy of the pheasant. Here is the way the Towan explains himself:

"Your silly senate passed a bill yesterday putting a closed season on skunks in my county. Last night a skunk got at my coops and killed eight pheasants and three chickens. I killed him this morning. And the next time a skunk gets any of my pheasants I'm going to kill him and bring him down and toss him in the middle of the damn senate."

Shakespeare once mentioned, as one of the crosses suffering man has to bear, "the insolence of office." We Americans know all about that, for somehow we do seem to have a way of breeding officeholders who are insolent beyond Shakespeare's most pessimistic dreams. But democracy always has the remedy at hand, if it is only brash and forthright enough to use it.

The Iowa farmer, with his dead skunk and his uncultured language, had the right idea. So did the Kansas City fireman's wife who went into the city manager's office with a horsewhip to protest nav cuts in the fire department. Such things may disturb orderly souls, but they are healthy signs.

The grandest words in the constitution of the United States are the first three—"We, the People." That tells where the sovereignty resides. It is good to have officeholders reminded of it now and then.

Fort that sort of thing is the final and invulnerable defense against misgovernment and dictatorship. A nation which can toss skunks at its legislators and horsewhip its city managers may have its faults, but it is in no danger of losing its liberties. For in such a nation, "we, the people" are perfectly well aware who is boss.

MACHINE MENACE?

People who believe that machines will ultimately become a Frankenstein's monster and ruin mankind can get a grain or so of comfort from the recent Detroit speech of B. M. Anderson, New York economist.

For it is Mr. Anderson's contention that whenever new machines have inspired fears of technological unemployment, this period of apprehension has invariably been followed by an era of improved conditions for workers.

He points to the 1925-27 decline in the number of manufacturing workers, often cited as evidence of technological unemployment. These men weren't thrown out of jobs, Mr. Anderson maintains.

The workers, he pointed out, were absorbed by other lines. There had been a great increase in service industries, for instance. Concern for the esthetic side of life was reflected in increased production of luxuries, and in a growth of school population, both trends that accounted for many of the workers.

All in all, if you take Mr. Anderson's word for it, the machine is sadly overrated as a menace.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

By RODNEY DUTCHER
Reporter-Telegram Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Government attorneys and private attorneys are confident that the Supreme Court will take its first Social Security act decision by a vote of 5 to 4.

They are not sure, however, what the decision will be. The answer to that, affecting about 18,000,000 persons now covered by unemployment insurance laws, seems to rest with Justice Owen Josephus Roberts.

The other justices, it is gathered from their questions and comments during argument by counsel, are split along familiar lines—with Hughes, Brandeis, Stone and Cardozo appearing to favor the federal-state unemployment insurance system set up by the act, and the conservative quartet of McReynolds, Butler, Sutherland and Van Devanter in opposition.

If this is correct, Roberts again will be in an all-powerful position—a one-man balance of power, making vital interpretations of a constitution which governs a nation of 130,000,000 human beings. Roberts played that part in the invalidation of the New York minimum wage act and again in the opinions upholding the Wagner labor and Washington state minimum wage acts.

There are signs that the responsibility is beginning to wear on Roberts and high officials are suggesting in private conversation that he, the youngest of the nine justices, may be the first of the present bench to retire.

He looks older and more careworn. Throughout recent arguments on the Alabama unemployment insurance law and validity of the federal unemployment insurance tax, Roberts seldom if ever looked at government counsel. He asked no questions.

Two Memorable Phrases
The rest of the court, however, was demonstrating that it functions much like a group of elderly gentlemen who violently disagree with each other. The backstairs gossip is that the four unyielding conservatives are especially bitter at Hughes, Roberts and Stone; at Hughes and Roberts because they have joined the liberal justices in recent decisions; and at Stone because he gave the court's critics two memorable phrases to quote enthusiastically—"personal economic predilections" in the New York minimum wage case, and "a tortured construction of the Constitution" in the AAA case. The apparent attitude of Justice McReynolds toward the unemployment insurance law was indicated when he asked: "Well, didn't we get along without this for 150 years?"

And Justice Butler at one time asked Assistant Attorney General Robert H. Jackson: "Are you inviting us to consider this on the basis that there is no limit on the power that can be exercised by the federal government?"

Lawyers raised their eyebrows when the 80-year-old Brandeis handed Butler an implied rebuke. It was the latter who suggested that if the Social Security Board could regulate terms of state unemployment insurance laws, the time might not be far away when the federal government could set up educational requirements for states.

"We've got to decide whether this particular purpose and these particular limitations exceed the power of Congress," Brandeis interposed. "It is very interesting to see just where the line should be drawn, but difficult to see how it is involved."

Hughes, Brandeis, Stone and Cardozo all participated in what in less dignified circles might be called heckling of corporation lawyers attacking the act. The best reason for believing that Roberts will join them in upholding the act is the fact that when the court last fall failed to kill the similar New York unemployment insurance act in a four-to-four tied decision it was generally supposed that Roberts, Hughes, Brandeis and Cardozo had taken the liberal side. Stone was ill and absent.

The old age benefits section of the Social Security Act is not yet before the court. But Attorney General Cummings is getting it there as rapidly as possible, following the first circuit court's decision that the all-important tax provisions of that section were unconstitutional.

Rail Towerman On Guard Since '17 at Crossing

HUNTINGTON, Ind. (UP)—John Sylvester (Yes) Ladig has started his 21st year as watchman at the same railroad crossing tower. The elderly resident first mounted the stairs to his lofty tower in April, 1917.

Yes recalls that at the beginning of his service there were two watchmen, one working from 6 a. m. until 11 a. m., and the other working until 9 p. m.

The operation of the gates has been extended until now they are lowered at all hours of the day and night, with three watchmen on duty in eight-hour shifts.

In the last 20 years, Ladig has found time to plant and tend a small flower garden near his tower

A local woman plays bridge every day. Her husband plays moon. A lot of people regard him as a bum, yet she is in the heaviest society. It's a funny world when you boil it down.

Steve Debnam, scientific farmer, is said to be secretly working on a plant which will produce tomatoes on the vines and potatoes on the roots.

Another local woman plays bridge for the love of it. She belongs to one club which meets on the same afternoon each week. Her husband was ill only one day last year and it happened to be on the day she went to the bridge club.

"Go ahead," he said. "I'll try to live until you get back, but if I can't you'll have a whole week to get the funeral out of the way before your club meets again."

What has become of the old fashioned man who worked from sun to sun and then thanked the Lord for the privilege of working?

All my life I've heard women telling men to pick up their dirty socks off of the floor and to quit leaving their stuff scattered carelessly about the house.

But the other day I heard a statement from a woman who is maid at a hotel. She said she would rather clean up a room after men any time than women. She said women leave powder and hair scattered over the rugs, and wipe their lipstick off on the towels.

Another paper conducted a joke contest, and I'll have to admit that the prize winner was a shade better than ours. The joke was this: It was in an insane asylum, and one of the inmates was asked to preach.

"Why are we all here?" he exclaimed, waving his arms.

"Because we are not all there," answered a calm voice in the rear of the room.

What has become of the old fashioned man who worked from sun to sun and then thanked the Lord for the privilege of working?

London Coronation Modes Have Regal Air

Dramatic and utterly charming is this coronation gown of hand-loomed English satin in antique ivory with gold and silver floral appliques. Notice the dropped shoulder line, slim bodice, normal waistline and full skirt, split at the front to show a gold and silver brocade slip. The House of Reville designed it.

This stunning evening gown by Reville reflects the coronation influence on current fashions. Of flashing gold sequins, it is gay in spite of its extreme formality. A glittering tulle, transparent gold net gloves and a small lace fan, are correct accessories for the gala coronation evenings in London.

PLAY REVIEW

"Jane Eyre," a drama in three acts, is a passive old-fashioned romance, steeped in moods and subtle sensations of the English countryside.

The play opens with the central character's arrival at Thornfield where she is to be the governess of the owner's ward. An air of darkness and bitterness hangs over Thornfield. Its owner, Rochester, a morbid, tortured man whose life has been marred by a sordid tragedy at once terrifies and fascinates Jane. The central dramatic conflict of the play hinges on the increasingly passionate relationship between these two strange characters—the tortured and cruel man who is fundamentally gentle and the delicate girl who is steadfast and strong, in spite of her mercurial sensibility.

This is, of course, the story of Charlotte Brontë's "Jane Eyre," but Helen Jerome's remarkable achievement in adapting this story to the theatre is her rendering of the elusive wit of the novel and the lightness of fancy which enlivens it and prevents it from ever becoming completely sombre.

Katharine Hepburn plays Jane Eyre with exquisite grace of movement, making the play a distinct and financial success.

(NOTE: This is a resume of the play read by Mrs. W. Bryant at a meeting Wednesday of the Play Readers Club.)

University Receives Unique Gift of Art

AUSTIN, Texas, April 23—A unique and valuable gift has been made to the art collection which will find a place in the Memorial Museum of the University of Texas, which building is now under construction. It was presented to the museum authorities by Malcolm R. Jameson of New York City, son of Mrs. Hamilton Ward of Austin. The donation is in the form of a map of the original domain of Texas, as it was when a republic, painted and traced upon the outer surface of a large wooden salad bowl. Mr. Jameson traced the map with a red hot iron and tinted it with mercurochrome.

In the recent twenty-first annual exhibition of the Society of Independent Artists held at the Grand Central Palace, New York City, Mr. Jameson exhibited two groups of these bowls, which he prefers to call "segmaps," and they were highly praised by celebrated artists, newspaper and magazine critics, and others who viewed them. These published criticisms are regarded as especially outstanding because of the fact that of the great number of displays of various artists, his was one of the few given specific newspaper and magazine mention.

Royal Cortissoz, art critic for the New York Herald Tribune, wrote a four-column article about the exhibition, in which he made particular reference to Mr. Jameson's collection of chopping bowl segmaps as follows:

"The group of salient exhibits I have touched upon may seem small enough out of a total of more than a thousand. But the proportion they bear to the whole is no smaller than that which might be identified in almost any big miscellaneous display of the kind. And I would add to it, for their delightful draughtsmanship, the two groups of 'segmaps' by Malcolm R. Jameson."

The critic for the New York Times wrote, "The Independents, however, have not entirely lost their ingenuity, as is indicated by the exhibits of Malcolm Jameson of 42 East 52nd Street, for ten years a lieutenant in the United States Navy, who specializes in decorative maps etched on salad bowls with a hot iron pick."

The New York World-Telegram, Time, and other publications also commented most favorably on Mr. Jameson's exhibit.

Mr. Jameson is employed by a private business concern and makes art his hobby. His painted chopping bowls are valued at $400 to $1,000 each. He is a native of Austin and the son of the late Joe Lee Jameson who was a prominent member of the administration of Governor Joseph D. Sayers. He is a former student of the University of Texas.

Death Ends Long Vigil Of Lake Crib-Tenders

CLEVELAND, (U.P.)—Death broke the usual eight-month vigil kept by the three Holzworth brothers at the water intake crib isolated out in Lake Erie five miles from shore.

They returned home on a Great Lakes Towing Company tug after receiving a radio message telling of their mother's death. The 76-year-old mother had become used to the long, lonely hours of waiting, as her husband had been crib-tender before her sons for 15 years.

HE ATE ALL-BRAN AND IMPROVED WONDERFULLY

Read this voluntary letter: "In regard to your ALL-BRAN, it is marked on the package 'best as a cereal, best for cooking,' and, as far as I am concerned, you might add 'best for health.' Since I have begun to eat it, I have improved wonderfully."—Mr. H. E. Poole, 312 W. Franklin Street, Jackson, Mich.

ALL-BRAN corrects common constipation, due to meals low in "bulk." Within the body, it absorbs water and forms a soft mass, gently sponging out the system.

ALL-BRAN also supplies vitamin B to tone up the intestines, and iron for the blood. Isn't this food better than taking weakening pills and drugs?

Eat two tablespoonfuls daily, either as a cereal with milk or cream, or in recipes. In chronic cases, with each meal. Sold by all grocers. Made and guaranteed by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

BLIND PIANIST

Alec Templeton, blind English pianist, is heard on the Ford program "Universal Rhythm" program with Rex Chandler's orchestra, every Saturday night over the Columbia network. He is equally adept at both serious and swing music and can improvise any type of tune on the spur of the moment.

- CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH.
"Probation After Death" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 25.
- The Golden Text is: "I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them." (Revelation 14:13)
- Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself" (Philippians 3:20, 21).
- The Lesson-Sermon includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "In the illusion of death, mortals wake to the knowledge of two facts: (1) that they are not dead; (2) that they have but passed the portals of a new belief. Truth works out the nothingness of error in just these ways. . . . As death findeth mortal man, so shall he be after death, until probation and growth shall effect the needed change" (pages 251 and 291.)

BALDNESS CAN BE CORRECTED WITH OUR NEW CROSLY XERVAC VACUUM MACHINE

In laboratory tests, a series of over 200 individuals were treated. Most patients received treatments twice a week, 30 minutes each. Definite, beneficial results were obtained in substantially all cases. Clinical work has indicated the following results:

1. Abnormal falling of hair was arrested in nearly every instance after 5 hours treatment.
2. After 7 to 10 hours of treatment, "previous fuzz" usually begins to grow and to develop color.
3. From this point persons treated progress towards a full growth of hair, dependent upon the follicles that are present, and living at the beginning of treatment. Growth usually occurs in the following manner: Up temporal regions, closure of bald pate, elimination of widow's peaks.
4. The time required for recovery of hair varies according to age, duration of baldness, amount of baldness, blood pressure, physical types (blondes respond slower than brunettes) and a multitude of other factors.
5. Hair already present apparently grows at a faster rate.
6. The hair present tends to become more naturally oily, as the sebaceous glands are also stimulated.

England's Premier Political Dynasty Nears Its Zenith

Neville Chamberlain is Expected to Be The Next Prime Minister, He'll Realize A Family Ambition

By MILTON BRONNER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Apr. 22—Hawk-nosed, dark-eyed, saber-toothed, straggle-moustached Neville Chamberlain, at present Chancellor of the Exchequer in Premier Baldwin's "National government" cabinet, some time in the early summer probably will have the honor of being the first Prime Minister to "kiss hands" in the reign of George VI.

Baldwin is a hold-over from the reign of the late King George V. and from the very brief reign of abdicated Edward VIII. Chamberlain is expected to be the first in the line of the new Georgian leaders of Parliament. Baldwin has indicated that shortly after the King's coronation, May 12, he intends to resign. He is seventy. And he is tired. He probably will go where tired British statesmen go—to the House of Lords with an Earldom conferred by his "gracious monarch."

The advent of Neville Chamberlain to the greatest post a politician can achieve in British life will sign and seal the Chamberlain family as one of the greatest dynasties in modern English political history.

Joe Chamberlain's Boys
The first of the family to break into the political game was Joseph Chamberlain, who followed his father's footsteps as a screw manufacturer in Birmingham, which town ever since has been a Chamberlain political fief. In 1874 Joe Chamberlain retired from business with a big fortune. As a radical reformer he was three times elected Mayor of Birmingham—1873-76. He made of Birmingham a great modern city. All his life he favored the poor and tried to remedy their condition. He had the doubtful honor of being hated and feared by old Queen Victoria who dreaded his radical, outspoken, almost republican views. He entered Parliament in 1876 as a Liberal and held office under the great Gladstone. Because of his opposition to Gladstone's advocacy of Home Rule for Ireland, he quit the Liberal party and ultimately joined the Tories.

He came to the United States in 1888 as one of the British Commissioners for the settlement of the Canadian fisheries dispute, fell in love with and married a daughter of William Endicott, then Secretary of War in President Cleveland's cabinet. This was his third marriage. He had been twice a widower. A son by the first marriage became the famous Sir Austen Chamberlain, who died several weeks ago. A son by the second marriage was Neville Chamberlain.

Joe Chamberlain became secretary for the Colonies in several Tory cabinets and at one time advocated an alliance between England, the United States and Germany.

His eldest son, Sir Austen, had a distinguished career in Tory governments and in coalitions. He held nearly every post except that of Premier. Postmaster General, Chancellor of the Exchequer, Secretary for India, member of the World War cabinet, Lord Privy Seal, Lord of the Admiralty and Secretary for Foreign Affairs.

Like Father, Like Son

Neville Chamberlain, the next Prime Minister at the head of the national government, like his father before him, started in politics after having been a success as a business man. He took a part in the family manufacturing business in Birmingham. For seven years, from 1890, he lived in the Bahamas in the West Indies, looking

Dionne Quintuplets Thrive on Oatmeal

For many weeks every man, woman and child watched with tense interest to see what would happen to the Quins. The fate of these famous babies was a source of speculation and wonder. The Dominion of Canada, making their welfare a National obligation, put them in the care of a top-notch staff of child-experts. The amazing results of this special care is that the Dionne Quintuplets are miraculous examples of the glowing health that science can give. Their diet is composed of things which do them good and which they like—such as oatmeal.

Oatmeal was given to these charming babies by the dieticians because oatmeal with milk contains such an abundance of body-building materials, muscle-building protein, energy-making carbohydrates, and Vitamin B for keeping fit.

Vitamin B is the best safeguard against those dangerous enemies of childhood—nervousness, constipation, and poor appetite due to lack of that vitamin in the diet. Therefore the Quins thrive on Quaker Oats.

after some family plantation interests.

Returning to Birmingham, like his father before him, he entered local politics. He was chosen to the City Council in 1911 and became an Alderman in 1914. He was Lord Mayor of his town in 1915 and 1916. The national government made him Director General of National Service during the war years. Entering Parliament, he was Postmaster General in 1922, Minister of Health in 1923 and from 1924 to 1929. For the past three years he has been Chancellor of the Exchequer.

His father fought in vain to have the Tory party plump for a protective tariff. To the son fell the honor of introducing the budgets which made of Britain a protective tariff, instead of a free trade, country.

As King George VI's own first Premier, Neville Chamberlain will never set the Thames afire with eloquence as Lloyd George used to do; he will not impress with a Roman dignity like Asquith, nor amuse with apt literary allusions like Stanley Baldwin. As a speaker, he is rather arid, sticking to facts and more facts. But he is a hard worker, a capable executive and eminently safe and sane.

He will do nothing spectacular. He will not have a passionate House of Commons following, because there is considerable ice water in his veins and he smiles as if he feared it would crack his face. But he will get jobs done, because his gospel is work. At 68 he is still untiring.

Invalids "Perk up" with PURSANG

It is remarkable how much better Pursang makes invalids feel. And not only invalids but those who always feel "half sick" because illness, overwork, wrong food or lack of exercise have reduced the iron content of their blood. Physicians and hospitals now often prescribe Pursang as an aid to convalescence. It is a scientifically developed hematinic, containing copper and iron compounds which help to correct iron deficiency in the blood. Pursang aids in building red blood corpuscles, so necessary to all-around physical well-being.

If you are tired, run down and nervous, can't sleep or eat well, or find it hard to recover from simple illnesses, try Pursang. See how much better you feel after two or three days. In a week or more you'll hardly recognize yourself for the same person!

A CLEVER AFTER-DINNER TRICK WITH KNIVES

Book of Magic, Revealing Secrets of 62 Different Tricks, Offered Youngsters

Simple, isn't it?—this little trick of lifting five table knives at once? And the secret of 61 other amazing feats of magic are clearly and simply described in the book, "Dick Darling's Bag of Tricks," a fascinating expose of seemingly impossible tricks, and now available to all Midland boys and girls through the courtesy of the Quaker Oats Company and The Reporter-Telegram. See the page advertisement in this issue for details on how to get this book of tricks. A supply of the books is on hand at The Reporter-Telegram office.

Steel Workers Face Job Tests

McKEESPORT, Pa. (U.P.)—When the steel mills hired men in the old days, the employment manager walked to the gate where applicants were assembled, gave them a hurried, professional "once-over" and then pointed out the ones he wanted.

"You, you and you," he shouted. The new employe reported to the timekeeper and went to work.

Times have changed. A. B. Holmes, employment superintendent of the National Tube Works, has interviewed more than 8,000 job-seekers in the past seven years.

"The company knows all about every man hired now," he said. "The employment office records the applicant's birth, age, weight, height, color of eyes and hair, his parents' names, social status, education and past experience.

"Physical examinations play an important part. The job-seeker must undergo a physical examination by the company doctor to determine his fitness for steel mill work."

Every Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Holmes receives applications. The applicant who stands around the employment office on any day but Monday hasn't a chance. And the best way to go about getting a job in the steel mills which this spring are riding a prosperity wave is to "tell the truth about yourself, but don't brag," Holmes advised.

"The applicant should come in and talk in a friendly manner," he said. "This is better than trying to put something over on the fellow who has been examining applicants a long time.

"It's up to the applicant to sell himself, but some overdo the part."

LAND PROBLEM CALLED KEY TO FUTURE OF U. S.; MISUSE DETERS PROSPERITY

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22. (U.P.)—Misuse of the agricultural lands of the United States has jeopardized the dream of a great, prosperous and stable American democracy, according to Dr. Lewis C. Gray, executive secretary of President Roosevelt's Committee on Farm Tenancy.

Dr. Gray also is director of the Division of Land Utilization of the Resettlement Administration, a member of the government's Great Plains Committee and various other governmental organizations for the bringing about land reform and conservation of resources.

A large part of the nation's land resources are gone, Dr. Lewis declared, and much of the remainder is in a state of deterioration.

The greatest danger to the United States as a whole, Dr. Gray foresees, is the creation of an immense landless, homeless and wandering class that would start the decay of American institutions from within.

Cites World History
"The decay of many nations," he declared, "has begun with the revolts of landless populations. This was the case of ancient Rome just as it was with modern Russia, and it was for that reason that Karl Marx chose as a basis for his Socialistic theories the possession of land.

"Our land problems of today have been faced by other nations and peoples for centuries past and are the same as have caused the disappearance of many nations from the earth.

"In our present highly industrialized life, we have lost sight of the agricultural needs of the country until floods, droughts, dust storms, tenants' union, and farmers' strikes have called our attention to them, while at the same time they have started the roaming about the country of a vast number of homeless, landless people who may eventually constitute the nucleus of a revolting element against American institutions. Revolution always begins easiest with dissatisfied agricultural classes."

Low Income Group Grows
Dr. Lewis declared that one-fourth is to create a vast class of small landed farm proprietors who can profitably work their land on a permanent basis and, second, to create in the American mind the consciousness that land ownership offers not only a means of making a living but involves the responsibility toward the nation.

Warns of Speculation

Steps, he declared must be taken to prevent all misuse and deterioration of land, speculation and everything else which is not only exhausting the nation's land resources but breaking up the possibility of a permanent, prosperous class of farmers and land owners.

At present, Dr. Lewis said, only half of the nation's farmers enjoy anything like economic security, while many of the others have been reduced to the status either of tenants, laborers or even crop sharers.

Dr. Lewis advocated a system that will permit a vast amount of land to revert to the government, which will be charged with its redistribution in such a manner as to make it profitable to those who work as well as to insure conservation as part of the national resources for future generations.

Summer Vacation Delayed

EAGLE NEST, N. M. (U.P.)—Pupils of the Moreno Valley school near here fear their school term will be in session until the Fourth of July. No school has been held for several weeks because of roads made impassable by heavy snows. The New Mexico law requires 180 days of school each term.

Swimming Prodigy Found

SYDNEY (U.P.)—Australia has found in 15-year-old Bob Newbiggen a boy swimming prodigy who is being groomed for the 1940 Olympics in Tokyo. Within a week he broke the 110 yard Australian junior record four times and the 220 yard record once.

The first water power mill in America was established at South Berwick, Me., in 1620, by Ferdinando Gorges, who obtained a grant from England empowering him to develop water power on the land lying between the 40 and 48th latitudes from sea to sea.

More than 2,131,600 American children ride to school in motor buses daily.

We Too Can Have Our Swim

This little girl, smiling gratefully despite the circumstances that she must do her paddling under the ever watchful eye of a nurse, is slowly developing movement in legs once thought hopelessly crippled.

Continued treatment of this kind will do much to help make her a happy, useful member of society.

Swimming pools of this type where children with crippled limbs can undergo the beneficial exercises obtained in no other way are common in some cities, unprovided in others.

Not long ago they would have been considered a luxury at many hospitals, and schools where less expensive equipment would bring a smile to the bright faces of youngsters, starting life bravely, but questioningly. Today a pool of this kind is regarded as almost essential in the treatment of infantile paralysis.

Each year at this season thousands of "Easter Seals" go out to help national, state and local societies in financing their work to bring these children out of this shadowland and into a sunnier atmosphere where facilities for their care, treatment and education are provided.

The seals this year show a little girl with a crutch under one arm, the other raised to the sun and the "Joyous Life," which is the slogan of the campaign. They sell for a penny each.

The sale of seals will open here Monday.

Oatmeal Chocolate Tempting Dessert

A gay dessert, certain to tempt the most jaded appetite, is Oatmeal Chocolate. Served either hot or cold with cream (or molded and served in slices), Oatmeal Chocolate tops off any luncheon or dinner in grand style.

For making Oatmeal Chocolate you need only:

- 2 cups Quaker Oats.
- 4 cups water
- 1 tsp. salt
- 4 tbsps. Cocoa
- 4 tbsps. sugar
- 1 tsp. vanilla

Bring water to a boil. Add cocoa and sugar, stirring to paste; then stir in oats slowly. Cook 3 to 5 minutes. Add vanilla, and serve.

Warner Wants Just One More Great Football Team

PHILADELPHIA. (U.P.)—Glenn S. (Pop) Warner coaching mentor of Temple University's football squad, is going to retire from the profession—some time within the next four years—according to a statement he made when he celebrated his 60th birthday.

Warner has been a football coach for the past 42 years and has seen his teams score 299 victories. "I would like to have one more great team before I retire," Pop said, "and if I can show the doubting Thomases that I am not a 'has been' by producing a nationally recognized eleven that is going to be the end of my career."

His contract with Temple University expires in 1939, and if he does not achieve his goal by that time, Warner hinted that he is going to quit anyhow.

Tutoring such teams as Georgia, Iowa State, Cornell, Carlisle, Pittsburg, Stanford, and now Temple, Warner is next to the oldest proctor on the job. He began coaching football in 1895.

Hints on Life Offered By Four Centenarians

BOSTON. (U.P.)—If you would live long:

"Be moderate in all things," advises Miss L. Anna Dudley, 103, of Boston.

"Take good care of your health," recommends Mrs. Caroline L. Flagg, 102, of Wellesley.

"Keep good health and a good disposition," suggests Mrs. Caroline M. Conant, 100, of Brookline.

"Maintain a serene mind and temper and trust in God," says Mrs. Electa P. Stratton, 101, of Shelburne Falls.

Of these four Massachusetts centenarians, only Mrs. Stratton considers use of tobacco in moderation not harmful. All condemn liquor.

His Code: Show Must Go On: And it Does

It is the code of the famous Barrymores — Lionel, Ethel and John — never to delay production, either for the screen or stage. The show must go on.

Lionel Barrymore, the oldest, was determined to uphold the code. As a result, he was forced to his bed suffering severe pain.

Barrymore was ill at his home when he heard that an important scene in "A Family Affair" was being delayed at Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer by his absence. He arose from his bed and drove to the studio. As he walked onto the sound stage, he swayed and started to collapse but was caught by nearby stage hands.

When Barrymore partially recovered, he insisted on going through with the scene. Nurse Peggy Coleman administered sedatives. Revived, Barrymore completed the difficult scene, was assisted to his car, and returned to his home with a nurse in attendance.

Dr. Henry C. Gernand stated Barrymore was suffering from a toxic condition and a 102 degree temperature aggravated by an old leg injury. The injury was received several years ago in a friendly wrestling bout with Zbyszko, then the world's wrestling champion.

"A Family Affair" was completed on schedule and comes to the Yucca Theatre today and Saturday.

Simone A Sensation In 'Seventh Heaven'

The honors in "Seventh Heaven" — and there are plenty of them for all concerned — are divided primarily between the tremendously moving picturization of this, the tenderest romance of our time, and the fact that in it emerges fully an actress destined to be known as the greatest star on the screen — Simone Simon, co-starred with James Stewart in the Twentieth Century-Fox production which opens preview Saturday night, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Yucca Theatre.

Austin Strong's immortal love story, adapted from the stage play produced and directed by John Golden, presents once again that star-crossed pair of lovers, Diane and Chico, who lift your heart to the sky.

Simone Simon, as the little waif, Diane, surpasses all hopes expressed for this sensational French screen find, who has the strange gift of touching the deepest places of your heart. And James Stewart — tall, laughing, gray-eyed — shines opposite her as Chico of the valiant spirit and the shy, yearning love.

Deanna Durbin, new discovery whose voice has been heard on the radio by millions of listeners in this country, makes her screen debut in Universal's "Three Smart Girls," which opens at the Ritz Theatre on Sunday. Deanna, an American girl, was born in Winnipeg, Canada, Dec. 4, 1922. When she was a year old, her parents brought her to California. Vocal experts marvel that so young a girl should have such a finely developed voice. Deanna portrays the youngest sister of the "Three Smart Girls."

Oil News--

Last week, after treating with 2,000 gallons, it gauged 333 barrels in 24 hours, with swab lost in tubing. After a shut-in of several days, but before pulling tubing, the well was opened up and made 114 barrels of oil in 20 minutes. While pulling tubing, it flowed 168 barrels. Swab and 165 feet of line were found lodged in the second joint from bottom. The following night, the well headed 178 barrels through casing while shut down. Tubing was re-run, and yesterday it swabbed 80 barrels of oil in 18 hours. The discovery is in labour 83, league 38, Zavalla county school land. It is bottomed at 5-023, plugged back from 5,030 to shut off water.

Tops Gray Lime
Top of gray lime was called by some at 4,448 feet in White and Eppenauer No. 1 Rector-Monrore, Delaware test in Western Ward county, and plans were to make a few more feet of hole before running casing. It is in the east corner of section 3, block 1, W. & N. W. survey, a mile and a quarter east of the old Shipley No. 1 Monroe, a small producer from the Delaware.

In the Mason pool of Loving county, which produces from the Delaware, Mason Oil Company No. 3 Kyle, west offset to the discovery, is drilling lime at 3,670 feet, while Standard No. 1 Kyle, south offset to the pool opener, had reached 3-272 feet in anhydrite.

Father Divine--

was of questionable origin. This development followed a series of jarring blows that have shaken the serenity of Divine's Heaven-On-Earth during the last few days, one of which was the stabbing of Harry Green, a white man who had accompanied a process server to Divine's Mission.

The "Father" himself disappeared and was on the police fugitive list until Connecticut authorities found him at Milford.

The corpulent woman known as "Faithful Mary," who had helped him organize his mission on a national scale, subsequently renounced his leadership and said she would refuse to turn over the Heavenly properties held in her name.

Gable--

to her attorney, Morris Lavine. He asked her a question. She replied, "Yes."

Gable has testified that he never was in England, and that during 1922 and 1923, when Mrs. Norton says, "Frank Billings" was her lover in Essex, England, he was doing odd jobs in Oregon.

As a defense witness, Gable, who has denied that he ever saw Mrs. Norton before the trial, was quizzed regarding letters Mrs. Norton sent to him in which she represented her daughter, Gwendoline, 13, as Gable's daughter and asked him to help support her.

"SAY, DAD, MY EYES HURT!"
When your boy says that do not overlook the importance of his fretting statement. Do not carelessly dismiss it from your mind. The chances are that his eyes need attention. A thorough examination will tell.

Why? Why?

WHY do the liquor dealers want a legalized liquor traffic in our County and City?

Because they POSITIVELY KNOW that it will mean MORE LIQUOR SOLD and MORE MONEY MADE FOR THEM!

OF COURSE, it also means more drunkenness, more poverty and misery in homes, more murder and fatal accidents especially on our highways, more danger and ruin to our young people.

But the liquor dealers care far less about these tragedies than they care for their profits.

WHY do the "dry forces" fight against a legalized liquor traffic?

Because we would protect the security and happiness of the homes.

We would stop murder and fatal accidents from drunken driving.

We would protect the physical, the mental and the moral welfare of our young people against the menace of the liquor traffic.

We solicit the help of every citizen. Work and vote to make and keep our County and City free from the blight of a legalized liquor traffic.

Will you vote to turn a liquor flood of destruction loose in Midland County? Do you want your husband or wife, son or daughter to drink it? Is there a living being foolish enough to think that it would make them happier to legalize the sale of liquor in Midland County? If you vote the wet ticket, and husband comes home and drives the car through the back end of the garage, or through two panels of the neighbors fence—remember that's what you were voting for. Drunk men often reach for the brake and hit the accelerator.

Or if son comes staggering in and falls across the threshold of your home and vomits on the living room floor, remember that's what you were voting for. It is nothing uncommon for drunk sons to do that.

LIQUOR IS MAN'S PUBLIC ENEMY NUMBER ONE

It allies itself with every enemy of human society and makes each one a far worse demon. Automobile accidents took a toll of human lives in our country last year of over 38,000; to say nothing of the hundreds of thousands who were injured, many permanently; and the millions of dollars of loss in property damage. An all time high record. Liquor was the cause of much of this slaughter of lives and dollars. It has allied itself also with murder, rape, adultery, and all other enemies of society, and multiplied their toll of death, wrecked lives, debauched brains, and damned souls.

LIQUOR IS MAN'S GREATEST ECONOMIC ENEMY

Every thinking business man knows that whiskey is the most devastating parasite this nation has ever tolerated. Every dollar spent to pour destruction down the throats of men, leaves less money for dry goods and groceries. More sick people, but less money to pay the doctors, nurses and druggists. Fewer cars and less money to buy the gas and oil to run them. The liquor interests talk of revenue—but any derived is blood and soul money. The moral answer to this claim is the word of God who said to Cain, "Thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground." Every person who votes to legalize liquor is particeps criminis to every dire consequence that results. He who votes and works against it has on the other hand met his responsibility to God and man in this regard.

The financial answer to this claim is that any revenue derived from such traffic, is far more than offset in a financial way by cost of extra police force and prosecution of crime, border patrol, etc., plus the individual financial loss to every legitimate business and profession.

Let every right thinking citizen go to the polls tomorrow and VOTE. Let him VOTE RIGHT, and against legally countenancing this hellish traffic.
