TEXAS SLAUGHTER FLOWS 502 1/2 BBLs.

Hockley Discovery Well Increased by More Acid

BY FRANK GARDNER

Twenty-four hour Railroad Commission gauge on the southwest Hockley county pool opener, Texas Company No. 1 Bob Slaughter, was completed at three o'clock this morning and showed total production of 502 1/2 barrels of oil flowing through 2 1/2-inch tubing with packer at 3,930. Gas-oil ratio was 736 to 1. The test was made following re-treating of the well with 5,000 gallons of acid and represented a substantial increase over the 333 barrels it made in 24 hours last week after initial treatment with 2,000 gallons. The discovery, located in labour 83, lease 38, Zavalla county school land, is bottomed at 5,023 feet, plugged back from 5,030. It is the first producer drilled in Hockley county and has been responsible for a spirited play in the area.

Hugh Corrigan et al No. 1 Le-wright, wildcat in southeastern Terry county, section 1, block C-37, public school land, this morning was drilling unchanged at 5,008 feet in hard lime. Sulphur water encountered in upper strata could not be lowered under 1,750 feet from bottom, so operators are now balling it down only when level rises high enough to impede drilling progress.

Bond & Harrison et al No. 1 Cameron, eastern Cochran county test, is balling water preparatory to drilling plug from 7-inch casing cemented at 4,500 feet. Total depth is 4,515 feet in lime. Standard tools have been rigged up to drill into the pay section. The well is in labour 1, league 85, Great county school land.

Crane Discovery

Sinclair-Pratt No. 1-24 University, recent discovery two and a half miles west of the Waddell pool in northern Crane, flowed a total of 380 barrels through tubing on 24-hour test after 5,000 gallons of acid. Classed as a new pool opener, the No. 1-24 University is located 2,310 feet from the south and west line of section 13, block 35, University survey. Total depth is 3,615 feet in lime.

Humble No. 9 Tubb, in the Tubb pool of western Crane, rated 24-hour potential of 458 barrels, based upon the last four hours of a six-hour test. It is bottomed in lime at 4,437 and was both acidized and shot.

Find Water

Two thousand feet of water was found standing in Magnolia No. 1-55 Sealey, northern Ward test a mile and a half south of the Finley & Cherry discovery, when baller was run, and it is now shut down for orders at 3,010 feet. Previously, the well had headed 79.4 barrels of 22-gravity oil in 24 hours from pay between 2,994 and total depth. It is likely that it will be carried deeper. Location is in section 55, block F. G. & M. M. B. & A. survey, four miles west of the O'Brien pool.

Fullerton Oil Company No. 1 Sealey, possible Tubb pay test east of the O'Brien pool in section 82, block A. G. & M. M. B. & A. survey, was spudded yesterday with machine.

White and Eppenauer No. 1 Recitor-Monroe, Delaware test north of Barstow in western Ward county, is rigging up standard tools at 4,475 feet in lime and anhydrite. Seven-inch casing was cemented at 4,469 with 200 sacks.

Wealthy Cowboy Dies at Stanton Home Early Today

Frank Meeks, about 55, died at his home at Stanton today from a pneumonia attack. Ill for only a short time, his death occurred at about 6 a. m. Funeral arrangements in charge of the Ellis funeral home here, had not been announced, pending advice from his brother, a prominent Chicago physician.

Meeks, a bachelor, formerly worked on ranches in the Midland section. Although it was known that he was comparatively wealthy, he preferred the life of the open but had never invested in ranch properties of his own. He worked at Clabber Hill ranch, 35 miles southwest of Midland, for several years and later for the late J. Ellis Cowden at his ranch south of Odessa. "John Brown Camp," at Clabber Hill, was named for Meeks, he having gone by that name before retiring from "dow-punching" and settling down at a home he built in Stanton.

With his brother, Meeks was reported to own extensive city property holdings in Chicago.

RESCUERS HELP THOUSANDS FROM ONTARIO HOMES

Thames Continues To Rise, 6,000 Are Homeless

OHIO SUBSIDES Residents of Five States Gain Respite

By Associated Press

Rescuers today helped hundreds of families evacuate homes at Chatham, Ontario as the Thames river continued to rise. A large part of the city was inundated and 6,000 were reported homeless with damage at $3,000,000 in London, Ontario.

Meanwhile, the Ohio river valley made rapid progress toward normal as the menace of its third flood in 13 months flattened downstream in West Virginia.

Flood waters of three states rolled down the sluggish Ohio river leaving thousands homeless in their wake.

The river released its grip on the Wheeling industrial district of approximately 200,000 population as the third day of the flood threat ran its course.

Danger of catastrophic flood damage diminished throughout the northeast American flood area as the Ohio led the retreat of rain-swollen waterways back to their normal channels.

Municipal cleanup squads and dislodged residents followed with mops and brooms the slow recession of the waters.

Three thousand persons were homeless in Wheeling as the Ohio inched back into its banks.

NON-COMBATANTS IN BILBAO SEEKING PLACE OF SAFETY

President Appeals To World Powers For Haven

BRITISH MAY ACT

Delay Actual Help For Agreement To Be Made

BILBAO, Apr. 29 (P)—An emergency session of the Basque cabinet today mapped evacuation plans for 300,000 non-combatant men, women and children as insurgent soldiers pushed towards the capital.

The Basque president appealed to world powers for a haven for his "refugees of war." For his men, he added, "we ask nothing."

At London, British liberals and laborites moved to aid evacuation but actual help from the British navy is apparently being delayed until a Basque-insurgent agreement is made.

Eight hundred civilians were reported killed in air raids while 300 were slaughtered at Madrid after 18 days of successive bombardment.

The British navy will begin evacuation of Bilbao's civil population probably within two days, Wilfred Roberts, liberal member of the house of commons, announced last night.

Refugees will be taken from the northern Spanish port, besieged by Spanish insurgents under Gen. Emilio Mola, to St. Jean De Luz, France.

Roberts, who said he made the announcement with the approval of the British foreign office, declared:

"There is a feeling of concern at the ghastly possibilities for 500,000 people, including some 100,000 children, should Mola carry out his threat completely to destroy Bilbao as was done yesterday in Guernica."

Informed sources suggested British naval vessels would be used mainly to afford protection to Basque ships carrying refugees if the Bilbao government decided on wholesale evacuation by sea.

'SONNY' LAMB IS HUNTED AT SNYDER

Suspicious of Residents Aroused by Actions Of Former Friend

SNYDER, April 29. (P)—A posse of a dozen peace officers were searching Snyder and territory to the southward last night for Alfred (Sonny) Lamb, West Texas hijacker and automobile thief who escaped from a Fort Worth jail Saturday.

Suspicious of residents in the vicinity of Donaldson ranch, seven miles south of here, were aroused late today when a woman alleged to have shielded Lamb last summer was seen driving slowly up and down country lanes of the area.

Lamb is well-known in this vicinity, having been convicted of thievery here. For a period last year he was in hiding at a house seven miles south of here.

While ranch hands at Donaldson ranch were preparing to make a search about 10 p. m., a bridled but unsaddled horse left outside the ranch house disappeared mysteriously. A few minutes before midnight he reappeared heavily lathered and from the direction of Snyder, appearing to have been ridden hard.

Lamb has not actually been sighted, but Scurry county people were confident that he was in this vicinity and were keeping a sharp lookout in both Snyder and surrounding country.

HELP WORLD BY SAVING DEMOCRACY IN AMERICA

Harry Colmery, national commander of the American Legion, is an outspoken and intelligent public figure; and he has seldom spoken out with more intelligence than he did the other day at a luncheon meeting in New York.

Commander Colmery was saying that the aim of the American Legion is primarily to preserve for the liberty-loving people of America the heritage handed down by the founders of the republic.

"I am not interested in saving the world for democracy," he said. "I will be damned glad if we can save America."

In view of the experiment we tried 20 years ago this spring, those words are worth remembering. For in 1917 we set out bravely to save democracy and the world at large, and we wound up by losing our ideals and our shirts and by seeing both the world and democracy decline into a perilously bad state of health.

So it ought to be clear to us by now that Commander Colmery has the right slant on things. We have more than enough to do at home, and any efforts we make to save democracy can best be made within our own borders. Taking up arms to save democracy beyond the seas is a mugg's game, at best.

What we mean by that word, "democracy," is more than just a system of government under which every man has a vote. We really have in mind the whole liberal concept of society—the idea that the state exists for man, and not man for the state; the belief that an excess of freedom is infinitely preferable to a deficiency of freedom; the feeling that every man has the right to live as he chooses, subject only to the rule that he must respect the rights of others.

Far from being helped by the World War, this ideal has been profoundly harmed. All across Europe the lights have gone out, one by one. We have seen great nations boast that they have killed democracy and freedom; we have seen them exalt the state into a sort of god, killing off the rights of the individual (along, incidentally, with a goodly number of individuals), as if human society had no better model to copy than the society of the ants.

As Americans, we want to see those lost ideals restored overseas. But we should realize by now, that it is futile for us to try to thrust them down anyone's throat at the end of a rifle barrel. They just don't grow that way. Until men see for themselves that those ideals bear a bigger fruit of human happiness than any other, they will remain unconvinced.

And that brings us back to Commander Colmery and his remarks about "saving America." There is where our path of world usefulness lies. If we can make democracy work in a complicated, fear-haunted world, solve our problems without sacrificing our old liberties, and make this land in sober truth the land of promise it has always been in legend, we shall have done our full duty.

Explaining the CIO to the office blond proved useless, as she got it all backward. At least she said "OIC."

A Cincinnati doctor has found the cause of bulging eyes. It's the pituitary gland, not Sally Rand.

It seems to be a trend. A westerner wrote a book without an "e", and wasn't there a recent novel entitled "I-less in Gaza"?

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

By RODNEY DUTCHER
Reporter-Telegram Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Apr. 29—The men in charge of the republican machine are far busier behind the scenes than the audience imagines. Concerted effort to establish a party policy and a definite party record in congress is being combined with unannounced efforts to line up republican and conservative democratic members in an unofficial, loosely working alliance against measures supported by the administration.

Although it is too early as yet to foresee a new political realignment of parties along liberal and conservative lines, recent events in both senate and house have at least indicated that there exist the makings of it.

Whether the political strategists at the Republican National Committee headquarters have had a definite hand in amalgamating Republicans and Democratic conservatives on certain occasions is not a matter concerning which you will find any documentary evidence. But it is important to repeat that these able gentlemen have been very busy indeed.

plan. The list included several senators whom Republicans hope will vote with them in the future—such as Adams, Bailey, Brown of New Hampshire, Burke, Byrd, Connally, Copeland, Gerry, Holt, King, Loneragan, Maloney, Tydings, and Walsh.

The National Committee publication comments with satisfaction on the fact that Republicans joined with seven Democrats on the House Agriculture committee to defeat the administration's farm tenant plan.

The record also points with pride to Republican votes against the Guffey coal bill and Vandenberg's proposals for social security reform; also to Republican support of crop insurance, Vandenberg's child labor amendment, Republican demands for an investigation of the radio industry and other proposals by Republican members.

The American Red Cross operates under a special congressional charter granted Jan. 5, 1905.

A "colony" of African insects has been discovered atop a Scottish mountain, 4000 feet high. The insects found were of a variety formerly believed to be extinct.

some hilarity because Republicans had been so contemptuous and vocal about the New Deal "brain trust." Saxon, at the head of a small staff, is still brain trusting and has lately answered many requests from party senator and representatives for facts or studies on current issues.

The extent to which anti-administration Democrats, in the Supreme Court and other controversies have received help from Saxon and others is not ascertainable. But the National Committee is always glad to help anyone who wants to sock the New Deal.

Saxon is supposed to have been the man behind Senator Vandenberg's recent assertion that he believed the New Deal estimates of unemployment were about 5,000,000 too high. A new money-raising campaign has collected more than a hundred thousand Republican dollars in the last two months, and $50,000 more in promises, according to the Republican record.

Ready to Pounce

The Republican record is a new and interesting four-page publication of the committee, which is sent to key party officials, workers and members as part of the new activity of party leaders who watch hawk-like for the first chance to start on the way toward overturning the huge Democratic victory of last November. It attempts to trace the general line of G. O. P. policy, strategy and accomplishment. Hamilton started off with a message assuring the faithful that many Roosevelt supporters, "hurt and disappointed" by the President's Supreme Court plan, "are pondering a new political allegiance." He said that he would have the Republican party fight "unfair employers just as earnestly as it fights the lawlessness of the sitdown."

The record boasts of Republican unity behind the present Supreme Court. It explains on noble grounds the effort of Republican leaders to keep silent on the court issues, while egging on the opposition Democrats. It doesn't admit the Republicans saw that strong, united and articulate Republican opposition might help Roosevelt. It says "the Republican party has chosen with its attitude toward the proposal clearly understood by all, to put aside any political advantage."

Defeating Tenant Plan

Great stress is laid on recent voting coalitions of Republicans and Democrats. Unity of Republicans and a substantial Democratic group is cited in the vote on the Eynes amendment to the Guffey coal bill, which would have condemned the sitdown strike without mentioning any provocative tactics of employers. (Chief purpose of the amendment was to put Roosevelt on the spot by making him decide whether to place his signature under the entire measure. The amendment failed, but those who voted for it made a list almost comparable with that opposing Roosevelt's court

Tea-time Means Cake-time in Springtime

Some Delicacies For 'Four o'Clock' Can't Be Resisted

By Mrs. Gaynor Maddox, NEA Service Staff Writer
In Spring the urge toward friendliness turns greener like the trees. These recipes are irresistible invitations to drop in around four for a sip and a bite.

Orange Pekoe Cake
(1 eight-inch cake)
Two teaspoons orange pekoe tea, 3/4 cup boiling water, 1/2 cup shortening, 1 cup sugar, 2 eggs, grated rind of 1 lemon, 2 cups all-purpose flour, 2 1/4 teaspoons baking powder, 1/4 teaspoon salt.

Pour boiling water over tea. Cover and stand 5 minutes. Then strain and cool. Cream shortening, add sugar slowly and cream until light. Add eggs, unbeaten.

Tomorrow's Menu
BREAKFAST: Fresh pineapple, dry cereal, bacon and eggs, corn muffins, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Baked rice with cheese, lettuce and cabbage salad, orange pekoe tea cake with cream, tea, milk.

DINNER: Fruit cup, breaded veal cutlets, creamed new potatoes, asparagus with lemon butter, chery salad, strawberry sherbet, coffee, milk.

one at a time, beating after each addition. Add grated lemon rind. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together 3 times. Add to shortening-egg mixture alternately with cold tea. Bake in greased square baking pan in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for about 1 hour. Cut in section and for an unusual treat serve with slightly sweetened whipped cream touched up with a few drops of bitters. Tea time can be exciting, you see.

Southern Tea Cakes
(4 to 6 servings)
One-half cup butter, 1/2 cup lard, 1 3/4 cups sugar, 3 eggs, 2 teaspoons granadine syrup, 4 cups flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder.

Cream shortening (butter and lard) together until light. Add unbeaten eggs, one at a time, beating vigorously after each addition. Add granadine syrup, then sift in together the flour and baking powder. When thoroughly mixed, roll out thin on floured board. Cut into circles with cookies cutter. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until golden brown.

If friendly neighbors drop in unexpectedly, spread slightly sweetened cream or cottage cheese between plain chocolate cookies. Or try water or butter crackers spread lightly with cream cheese decorated in the center with jewel-like mounds of red currant jelly.

In England, telephone subscribers with weak eyes now can have their instruments fitted with a dial bearing figures three normal size.

For that informal afternoon tea—a surprisingly new cake flavored with orange pekoe tea, touched with especially piquant fresh whipped cream.

Modern Charlie MacArthur Won't Write Plays For Victorian Helen Hayes

By SIGRID ARNE
(P) Feature Service Writer
NEW YORK—The sedate housekeeper who works for Helen Hayes and Charlie MacArthur always is startled by her employers' brief domestic moods. The last was worse than usual.

Spring was in the air. The MacArthurs went downtown early. Miss Hayes had several hours to spare before her nightly performance of "Victoria Regina." They decided to buy something (they didn't know what) for the house. They passed a food store, so they ordered 15 pounds of pate de foie gras.

"Usually we run the house by leaving it alone," says Miss Hayes. "Good servants," MacArthur elaborates. Then he grins, and his two words are a volume.

Theatre Keeps 'Em Busy
It's really a wonder they ever assembled a house or had their little daughter, Mary, who's 7 now, or that they ever married back in 1928. They're the busiest theatre royalty extant. He writes movies and plays; she acts in movies and plays.

That means much traipsing between Hollywood and Broadway. And for Miss Hayes, much traipsing about the country. She is taking "Victoria Regina" on a 39-week tour next year.

She has been in that play since December, 1935. The theatre doorman says she always rushes in like a schoolgirl, whispering, "Oh, I'm late." He looks bored and says she just means she's not early.

The MacArthurs live at Nyack, N. Y. That's his boyhood town, 20 miles up the west shore of the Hudson. The house is evidence Miss Hayes wasn't fooling when she wanted to play "Victoria Regina." It is completely Victorian: wax flowers under glass cases, brocade love seats, and draped curtains. It seems that Helen has idolized Victoria ever since she was a child, spellbound by her English "grannie's" stories of the queen.

Upstairs, Friend Husband has gone completely modern in his suite, where he turns out such plays as "Twentieth Century," "The Scoundrel" and, remember, "The Front Page."

The Hayes-MacArthur schedule don't fit. They breakfast late together in a white dining room. Then they inspect the garden that drops down hill to the Hudson.

"It's so wonderful to find crocuses still come up in an upset world," says Miss Hayes.

"She won Rockland county's rose prize last year," says MacArthur.

Partners No More
Afternoons they work in separate studies. They eat separate dinners because Miss Hayes must get to the theatre, and MacArthur likes to dine late.

Once they did a show together. He wrote "The Sin of Madelon Claudet," and she played the lead. "After this," he announced at the end, "we do no plays together. Marriage is too sensitive to tangle it with artistic creation."

So, she now sees only the last draft of his plays, and he offers her advice "very timidly." He says she could write a good play if she tried, but as for MacArthur acting? He shivers.

He's Always Popping In
She accuses him of missing her first nights purposely. "He even went to Spain to miss one," she grins. He protests it's not true. You get the idea he really does go, and doesn't tell her.

She's more conscientious about his opening. She even coaxed her producer to close "Coquette," so she could see his play, "The Front Page," get started.

But if MacArthur doesn't really see her openings he makes up for it with startling appearances during her shows' runs. He confides that he even startled himself once. He went on the stage in a mob scene to say "hello" to his wife in the middle of the act. He got stuck for the whole act.

First Dallas Paper Called Cedar Snag

The first newspaper published in Dallas was the Cedar Snag, established in the fall of 1849, research workers in WPA writers' project in the Allen Building discovered Thursday. James Wellington Latimer was editor and publisher. Interesting facts about this early sheet were related by a granddaughter of the publisher, Mrs. W. M. Winn, 3515 Dickason.

The Cedar Snag as the name of the paper was used only for three months. The name Dallas Herald appeared at the masthead as the new title late in 1849, after Editor Latimer had asked his subscribers through the columns of the paper for suggestions for a name that would carry more force and dignity than Cedar Snag. The Dallas Herald was the pioneer newspaper in the city and county of Dallas. Under this name the paper was bought by A. H. Belo & Company and merged with The Dallas Morning News, which had been established a few weeks before on Oct. 1, 1885.

Mrs. Winn said she saw a copy of the Cedar Snag in Dallas in 1890, but could not recall the name of the owner. All files of the paper under both names prior to July, 1860, were destroyed in the conflagration that swept the business section of Dallas in the summer before the War Between the States.

The population of Dallas in 1849 was about 400; that of the county 2,740. To this sparsely settled region James Wellington Latimer came with his printing outfit in a covered wagon drawn by oxen. He had lived previously at Paris, where his wife is said to have owned the first piano in North Texas. Latimer set up his print shop in a log structure in a clump of cedars near the river. He soon became a decided influence in the community with his paper, old-timers at the present day often recounting incidents and episodes of the newspaper's early days.

In the early fifties it is related that Editor Latimer publicly branded a citizen named Wallace a "black abolitionist," and thereby precipitated a fight with Wallace in a lot back of the print shop, with half the town's population as witnesses. Latimer came out victor and next day referred to his antagonist as "a gentleman" who unfortunately was wrong in his political convictions. The two became friends and next year business partners, publishing the Herald under the ownership of Latimer & Wallace. This incident is related in a news item written by J. W. Swindells, who succeeded Wallace in the publishing firm and who owned the Herald after the death of Latimer in 1859.

Extension of Home Building Continues To be Heavy in Texas

WASHINGTON, Apr. 29 (Special) Extension of home building in Texas continues at a brisk pace, it is indicated by reports of the 88 Federal Savings and Loan Associations in that state received today by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board.

Loans for construction, purchase, reconitioning, and refinancing of residential dwellings in Texas show substantial increases during the past twelve months, the reports reveal. "Direct reduction" loans for all purposes jumped from $11,175,335 on April 1, 1936 to $15,665,284 on April 1, this year, an increase of $4,489,949.

A direct reduction loan is one in which the principal is continually decreased by easy monthly payments until the borrower owns his home free of debt. It is standard practice among all federals in the country and among many state chartered associations in Texas and other states.

Assets and accounts of investors likewise increased during the twelve month period. Assets which stood at $15,329,607 a year ago had risen to $20,114,833 this month, or $4,785,226 increase.

Accounts numbered 14,734 last year; this month the figure was 16,645, or 911 new savings accounts. Savings in all federals and many state chartered associations in the United States are protected through insurance up to $5,000 on each account by the federal savings and loan insurance corporation.

Thirty-eight of the 88 federals in Texas have put into effect a more liberal lending and investing policy through the adoption of a revised charter. This charter has already been applied for by 63 per cent of the federal associations in the United States and applications for it from other federals in Texas are pending with the federal home loan bank system.

Federal associations in Texas are located in:

Alice, Amarillo, Athens, Atlanta, Austin, Bay City, Beaumont, Beeville, Belton, Big Spring, Breckenridge, Brownsville, Brownwood, Childress, Colorado, Columbus, Commerce, Conroe, Corpus Christi, Corsicana, Crockett, Quero, Dalhart, Dallas, Del Rio, Denison, Denton, Elgin, El Paso, Fredericksburg, Garland, Gladewater, Goose Creek, Graham, Greenville, Henderson, Hillsboro, Jasper, Kerrville, Kilgore, Lamesa, Lampasas, Laredo, Liberty, Longview, Lubbock, Lufkin, Luling, Marshall, McAllen, McKinney, Mexia, Midland, Mineola, Nacogdoches, Navasota, New Braunfels, Olney, Orange, Pampa, Paris, Pecos, Quanah, Ranger, Rosenberg, Rusk, San Antonio, San Marcos, Sherman, Smithville, Stamford, Sweetwater, Temple, Terrell, Texarkana, Uvalde, Vernon, Victoria, Waco, Waxahachie, Wichita Falls, and Yoakum.

HELP KIDNEYS PASS 3 LBS. A DAY

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify your blood and keep you healthy. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, which due to functional kidney disorders, may be the cause of nagging backache, rheumatic pains, lumbago, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

RA Will Celebrate 2nd Birthday May 1

Saturday, May 1, is the second anniversary of the establishment of the Resettlement Administration, and brings to a successful conclusion two years of fast-paced action on a far-flung front to bring assistance and new life to the forgotten farmer.

The Resettlement Administration came into being to help the low income farm worker, suffering under the punishing blows of low prices, drought, dust storms, and a myriad other disabilities which sapped slender resources and threatened to drive hundreds of thousands of farmers off their farms and to the relief rolls.

Throughout two years the Resettlement Administration has battled, in a pioneering campaign, to bring new hope, new life and a new opportunity to these defeated farmers. It has fought to prevent human suffering, save farms, keep the farmers on their farms and helped them to build a more rugged agriculture—an agriculture, which would see them self-sufficient and independent.

Out of the welter of agencies created by the federal government to bring about a recovery of prosperity the Resettlement Administration has fought through as one that gives promise of being given a permanent status under the department of agriculture. Its record of service has been outstanding in helping to place hundreds of thousands of farmers in a position to continue their work and give them promise of a more secure and independent farming life.

Fishing to Open At Lake Sweetwater Sat.

SWEETWATER, April 29.—With an unprecedented demand for fishing privileges at lakes Sweetwater and Trammel for the season opening Saturday, city officials predict a new first day bass and crappie record at these two popular West Texas lakes. Licenses include boating and fishing privileges at both.

Sensing a new high in the number of visitors this year using the many and varied recreational facilities of Sweetwater, the Board of City Development set aside the week of April 26-May 2 as "Recreation Week" and Mayor L. M. Watson issued a proclamation making it official. Not only the fishing, boating, camping and picnicking assets of the lakes are being stressed, but the many other facilities of the city are being featured.

The modern swimming pool, opening next week, the softball field, tennis courts and roque courts, all municipally owned, and lighted for night use, plus the city owned play grounds, picnic units and the grass greens golf course at Lake Sweetwater, are in constant use. Eight softball games are played each week, two every Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday nights.

As evidence of the growing popularity of Sweetwater as the recreation center of a large area, the Lake Sweetwater park alone drew 68,000 visitors during four months of the busy season in 1936. Attendance figures were compiled by CCC camp enrollees, now in their fourth successive six-months period of improvement work at the park.

"Sweetwater invites all of West Texas to take advantage of her varied recreational facilities and to help us observe Recreation Week," stated Mayor Watson. "The observance closes Sunday with thousands of visitors expected at the lakes and other beauty spots around the city, but we extend invitations for the remainder of the year."

FINICKY APPETITES OFTEN ONE RESULT OF CONSTIPATION
When nothing tastes right, and you don't eat as you should, the trouble may be common constipation. Poor appetite is one of its symptoms. Others are headaches, listlessness and sallow complexions.
Constipation is usually due to "low-bulk" meals. Serve your family Kellogg's ALL-BRAN—a generous source of "bulk."
Within the body, this food absorbs twice its weight in water, and gently exercises and sponges out the system. How much better than taking pills and drugs!
ALL-BRAN also supplies vitamin B to tone up the intestines, and iron for the blood. Two tablespoons daily are usually sufficient. Serve as a cereal with milk or cream, or cook into appetizing muffins, breads, etc.
Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

'Mexico for Mexicans' Is Gold Shirt Cry In Crusade to 'Save' Nation From Reds

Outlawed Faction Is Directed From The U. S. by Self-Made Leader, Rodriguez

By NEA Service

EL PASO, Apr. 29.—Gen. Nicholas Rodriguez, political refugee from Mexico, and leader of the "Gold Shirts", awaits his opportunity to return to Mexico and rally his followers in a march on the capital to protest against socialistic tendencies of the Cardenas government.

Rodriguez, known as a revolutionary figure in Mexico for many years, slipped into the United States last August and refused to return to Mexico under President Cardenas' recent amnesty decree. He maintains a skeleton staff of fellow-exiles, with whose help he directs the Gold Shirt movement in Mexico.

He claims 11 numbers 300,000 followers opposed to "Communism." Mexican estimates place the number at nearer 5000.

Rodriguez denies any connection with Fascism, Italian or German variety, and denies any relations with Gen. Plutarco Calles, former Mexican dictator also an exile in the United States.

"We are Mexicanistas," Rodriguez asserts proudly, and we have nothing in common with the Fascists or any other organization.

CLASH WITH REDS

The Gold Shirt movement—the members call themselves Los Dorados—was started by Rodriguez in 1934, to combat "the Red menace."

Its first public appearance was in September, 1935, when 8000 of them assembled in the midst of a Communist demonstration for a professor recently returned from Russia. There were deaths and injuries in the clash that followed.

The movement, officially the Accion Revolucionaria Mecnista, took its popular name from gold shirts with the A. R. M. insignia and Texas combos, which are its uniform. It was promptly outlawed by the Mexican government and driven underground.

He was planning a "peaceful unarmed march" on Mexico City with 500,000 followers last August to protest against Communism, Rodriguez declares, when the government discovered the plan.

He was arrested and driven over the border into the United States, whence he is attempting to direct his organization by remote control and propaganda.

SELF-EDUCATED

The Gold Shirt leader is 42 and young looking despite graying temples and lines that are beginning to mark his face. Large and heavy-set, with military bearing, Rodriguez has personality and charm. He is self-educated and speaks very little English.

Since 1920, Rodriguez has been popping in and out of the United States whenever Mexico got too hot for him. He was mixed up in a revolt against Obregon in 1922, and was sentenced to jail for violating the U. S. neutrality laws.

In 1926, while attempting to invade Lower California in another revolutionary venture, he was sentenced to two years in McNeil Island federal penitentiary, but was paroled for good behavior after 18 months. He returned again to Mexico.

Seeing the socialistic turn of the present Cardenas government, the rise of Communist influence, the expropriation of estates, the persecution of churches, gave Rodriguez the idea for the present Gold Shirt organization.

Support of the A. R. M. comes from the "Fuerzas Vivas" or Industrialists, including all those who have something to lose under the present regime.

It has a "Mexico for the Mexicans" policy and claims to be out to protect the rights of all classes, not solely the working class. It would outlaw any sign or flag symbolizing an idea contrary to Mexican national ideals.

A women's auxiliary of the Gold Shirts wears a crisp white nurses' uniform, and the symbol of the organization is a "chimalli" or circular figure of tiger skin with fringe

"Golden Shirts" march through the streets of Mexico City in one of their demonstrations against Communism, now forbidden by the police.

Pretty members of the women's unit of the Accion Revolucionaria Mecnista, the official name of Rodriguez' anti-Communist band, whose leaders are now political exiles in the United States. Note the nurse-like uniforms and the insignia with the initials of the organization.

100 Thousand Advance Tickets Sold to Exposition

DALLAS, Apr. 29.—Sale of more than 100,000 advance ticket books to the Pan American Exposition, June 12 to October 31, was announced at the end of the first week's advance ticket sales campaign by representing feathers from Quetzal, the mythical feathered serpent of ancient Mexico. The gold shirt was worn by the ancient Mexican "charros" or cowboys.

Rodriguez predicts an early crisis in the affairs of Mexico, possibly resolving itself into armed conflict between government forces and others opposed to Communism and extreme Socialism.

Claiming devotion in principle to revolution by education, Rodriguez says he is preparing for armed action should that be necessary to save the country from Communism.

You can't forget Mother—Even if she hasn't asked for it, what Mother wants for Mother's Day is your Photograph. Prothro Studio, Phone 363. (Adv.)

Frank N. Watson, assistant director general.

This figure is more than a third of the total number of advance tickets. Only 250,000 advance ticket books were offered for sale, and when these are gone no more will be printed.

Sales started on April 19. "Tickets are selling more rapidly than we expected and indications are that all bargain books will be sold before June 5, closing date of advance sales," Mr. Watson says.

Most of the ticket books are being bought by churches, fraternal organizations, business houses and clubs throughout the state. A wide spread of the tickets is being made over the entire southwest.

"These results prove the entire southwest is deeply interested in the exposition this year," Mr. Watson said, "and we are gratified at the result of the initial week's sale."

Ticket books have a face value of $3.50 each, but are selling for $2.20. Each advance ticket book provides two general admissions, two admissions to "Cavalcade of the Americas" and a ticket each to the four leading concessions on the Midway.

Stamp News

BY I. S. KLEIN

GREECE has just issued a new series of 13 stamps depicting the "Greek Spirit." The issue covers the whole range of Greek history, from the mythical days of the gods to the great war of independence in 1821. The new 13 values supplement four stamps previously issued.

A new Belgian stamp pictures the late Queen Astrid holding her son, Crown Prince Baudoin. There are eight values, each with a surtax, to be used for parks and convalescent homes for Belgian children, and for a monument to Queen Astrid in Brussels.

Another Spanish government issue, despite the civil war, is a stamp commemorating the third centenary of the death of Gregorio Fernandez, famous Spanish sculptor.

France has issued a stamp in honor of the famous philosopher and scientist, Descartes.

A new country for stamp collectors is Burma, India, which has just become an independent state and has begun issuing its own stamps.

The Michigan centennial stamp has been withdrawn from sale at the Washington philatelic agency. Next may go the Oregon commemorative.

Simple Home Treatment For Varicose Veins

Swollen veins may become dangerous and sometimes break. Sufferers are advised to get an original bottle of Emerald Oil at the Palace Drug or any pharmacist, and start to reduce the veins and hunches at once. A small bottle will last a long time, because it is very concentrated and a little goes a long way. Apply night and morning with a soft brush or the finger tips as directed until the swelling is reduced. So effective is Emerald Oil that it is highly useful in reducing troublesome simple swellings due to strain and hastens their disappearance. (Adv.)

'Love Is News' To Open at Yucca Sun.

When the proverbial man bites the ditto dog, "news" is born, but when Tyrone Power, Loretta Young and Don Ameche step out as a thrilling threesome in a streamline springtime romance, it is love that crashes all headlines and sells extra editions—the hilarious theme of the Twentieth Century-Fox hit, "Love Is News", opening Sunday at the Yucca Theatre.

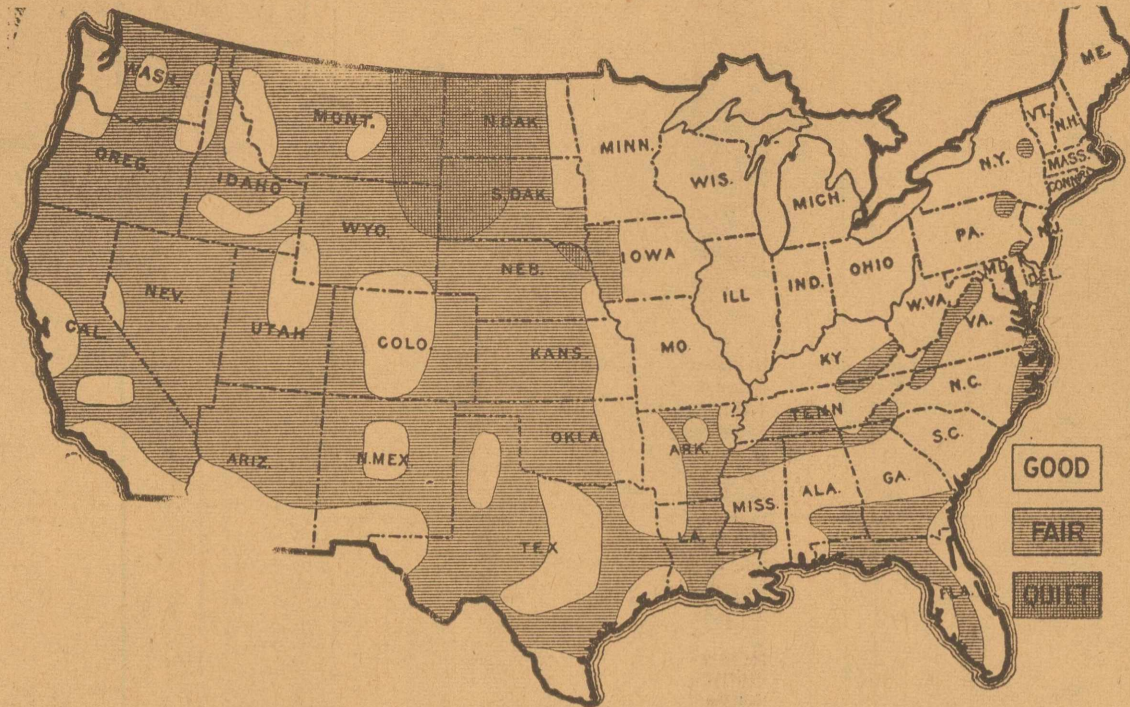

Slim Summerville, Dudley Digges, Walter Catlett, George Sanders, Jane Darwell, Stepin Fetchit and Pauline Moore are featured in the supporting cast.

FROM GIRL TO WOMAN

Mrs. Myrtle Donohue of 713 Rector Ave., Hot Springs, Ark., said: "Some time ago I was quite weak, had no appetite and didn't sleep very well. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was recommended as a tonic. After using two bottles of it I had a keen appetite, became stronger, wasn't nearly so nervous and was able to sleep better at night." Business Conditions As Of April 1

This map represents business conditions as of April 1, 1937, as shown in "Nation's Business", official publication of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

March trade and industry, aided greatly by the early date of Easter, continued and expanded the rally shown from the relative quiet of January. Collections, which seemed to lag in the February rise in trade, expanded last month. Failure returns show a steady decline in number despite the enormous growth in volume of business and number engaged therein. All in all, the April 1 exhibit of trade and industry compares favorably with the best reports of the last 15 years. A good deal of friction has been generated in the course of the improvement, as proved by the strikes which have plagued business. Some argue that these ills have done some good because they have acted as a brake on excessive production. On the other hand, they have increased costs of doing business. The agricultural situation is not as yet clearly defined but last year's short crops and present high prices seem to indicate an enormous acreage and a possible burdensome surplus. Improvement in industrial areas and higher prices for farm products are clearly indicated in the April 1 map. With all factors moving upward, the Barometer rose considerably in March, reflecting the general recovery in business, higher wage scales and rising prices for raw and manufactured products.

WPA--

Women wage-earners in nine WPA sewing rooms have produced more than 150,000 articles, including clothing, mattresses, and comforters, for distribution to needy and unemployed persons in this area. In all instances these women workers have been major providers for their families. Professional projects include library work in which books were repaired, catalogued, and circulated in nine localities; survey of tax rolls to aid in the statewide effort to secure a more equitable distribution of taxes; survey of mineral resources to determine commercial possibilities in natural deposits of Texas counties; and a survey of water well used by persons of this area. WPA also employed persons to aid in the distribution of surplus commodities to recipients of direct
