Blondes Out

Bill Edwin Colvert of the Pan American Exposition today stated that no longer do "Gentlemen prefer Blondes." Dark haired beauties will be honored at the International Fair which opens in Dallas June 12th.

Blondes Can Look Forward to a Bad Summer in Dallas

The Golden haired ladies of Midland can look forward to a bad summer. That is according to Bill Edwin Colvert of the Dallas Pan American Exposition who was in the city last night and this morning.

Colvert stated to local civic leaders this year Exposition Officials were catering to brunettes due to the fact that the show is being given to honor Latin American Nations and as their beauties were all striking brunettes naturally they intended to take all honors from the blondes and pay homage to the dark haired "gals."

Colvert went so far as to give the measurements of the "Texanitas," name chosen for the 50 Texas beauties who were selected by Midland Barclay, noted New York Artist to act as hostess on the grounds this year.

Midland ladies can check here and see how close they come to being "Texanitas."

Height 5 feet two and one half inches; weight 112 pounds; shoe 5-B; Dress a generous 14; hips thirty-six inches; waist twenty-four inches and bust 34.

It looks like the womanly figure was coming back.

ESQUIRES THIS YEAR
Colvert while here, said they had arranged for unattached ladies to be escorted about the grounds. "Husbands are not necessary this year, he said. We have secured the services of 100 of the finest young men from Southern Methodist University who will act as "Esquires." They will take the ladies to hear and dance to Benny Goodman, Phil Harris, Rudy Vallee and other noted bands who will play in the Pan American Casino.

"Husbands and boy friends of course are most welcome, Colvert stated, but I do want the lovely ladies in Midland to know that if their husbands are too busy to attend they need not worry about being able to dance and about going over the 186 acre Exposition grounds, escorted in the proper manner.

Looks like Midland husbands will have to attend the Dallas Exposition for their own good. If they don't—well it looks as if some good looking SMU man will steal some ones affections.

Loans "Out" as Banker Gets Gift

No loans were made at the First National Bank this morning from 9:20 a. m. to 9:30.

The reason? Well, it's like this: M. C. Ulmer, cashier, and mayor of Midland, was presented his Official Scroll Invitation to the Greater Texas and Pan American Exposition by Bill Edwin Colvert, assistant director of promotion of the International Fair which opens in Dallas June 12.

"I certainly did enjoy the Centennial last year," said Mayor Ulmer, "and I'll be back this summer. It was nice and cool when I was there last year and I had a grand time. I'm sure that a great number of Midland citizens will be with you for your Pan American Exposition."

PATROLMEN WILL CONDUCT SAFETY ZONE HERE JUNE 8

Second Such Affair Here Within the Past Year

TO VISIT 12 CITIES
Entire District Is to Be Covered by Officers

Paying their second courtesy call in the past twelve months, the special trained unit of the Texas Highway Patrol will swing into this section beginning in June for one of their popular motor vehicle safety appliance check-ups, according to information made public here today by Capt. W. W. Legge of the Lubbock district.

The flying squadron of good will and courtesy evangelists will arrive in this city on June 8, according to the Lubbock patrol leader. A number of innovations have been added to the program this year including the big white radio and loud speaker equipped patrol ambulance which recently made a record run from Beaumont to New London school disaster with Sergeant Ross Dickey at the wheel.

The patrol which will spend three weeks in this district will visit a dozen cities, carrying their message of safety to motorists. The program is strictly one of courtesy and is designed to assist motorists in keeping check of their brakes, lights, horn, muffler, steering gear and windshield visibility.

"We received such wholehearted cooperation from the officials and citizenship of this district last year that members of the patrol were extremely anxious to return," Captain Legge stated, adding that "we expect to find a much lower percentage of defective cars this year as compared to the first program held in this section in 1936. I am informed from Chief Phares at Austin that 86 cities are now on the waiting list for this program and I feel that we are fortunate in being able to bill the crew for Lubbock this early in the year. It will enable many vacation bound motorists a splendid opportunity to receive a free check of their cars thus probably preventing many unnecessary accidents and possible tragic vacation sequences."

FDR RENEWS HIS DEMANDS COURT CHANGE BE MADE

Enactment of Bill Is Chief Desire of Executive

PRAISES COURT Upholding of Social Security Act Is Lauded

WASHINGTON, May 26. (P)—President Roosevelt renewed his plea for enactment of his court reorganization bill last night with an assertion that an old child labor decision must be reversed if his new labor legislation is to be declared constitutional.

Expressing pleasure and gratification at the court's decision upholding the social security act, the chief executive told reporters that he hopes the tribunal would cling to the same human point of view in cases yet to be decided.

His statement was made in response to a newspaperman's question whether the decisions of yesterday had altered his plans for the court bill, under which five new justices would be added to the court unless as many older judges retire.

The answer, the president said, was obvious. Many issues vital to the plans of his administration, issues involved in future legislation and in laws previously enacted have yet to be put to the test by the court.

Rev. Epps comparing the essential things of life which are worthwhile with the things that are not worthwhile. Starting with the negative, the speaker classed pretense, worry, discontent and self seeking as not being worthwhile and stated that they should be let go of. Then as to the worthwhile things of life which one should lay hold of, he classed, time, work, happiness, friendship and faith.

A report as to the progress of the Cubbing program which is being instituted here by the club was made by Dr. W. L. Sutton, chairman of the cubbing committee, who was very optimistic over the progress that has been made to date.

Russell C. Conking, chairman of the Lions Club carnival committee, reported that plans for the carnival, which will be staged on June 18 and 19, are well underway and that every member will be given a concession stand to operate. Stands and gaming devices to be used were named and other plans were outlined.

U. S. TO ALLOT SHIP SUBSIDIES TO 450 MILLION; CLEAR UP ALL CLAIMS

WASHINGTON, May 26. (U)—Chairman Joseph P. Kennedy of the U. S. Maritime Commission believes that the new Federal agency will be able to settle claims for $450,000,000 by American shipping lines by June 30 without need for requesting further funds from the treasury. Kennedy said the commission by a series of negotiations with the heads of the shipping companies, had entered into arrangements to pay off the claims which arise from cancellation of mail contracts under the 1936 Merchant Marine Act.

The contracts will be replaced with the new operating differential subsidies formulated under the law. Kennedy said he expected a large part of the settlement would be effected by substitution of subsidy allotments.

"One thing is certain," the former Securities and Exchange Commission chairman said, "with the money we now have we will be able to put up sufficient cash. We are conducting an audit of our books now."

THREE BOYS DIE AS POWDER HOUSE IS EXPLODED BY SHOT

Bullet Penetrates Building; Death For Marksman

SCOTTDALE, Pa., May 26. (P)—Three boys were blown to bits Tuesday in an explosion that demolished a dynamite warehouse near Pine Tree, two miles from this Westmoreland county coal town.

Coroner H. A. McMurray's office identified the boys as Wilbur Seachrist, 16, and Boyd Long, 16, both students at Scottdale high school, and Howard Stull, 15, of nearby Huntingdon township.

The investigators said they believed the boys had been using a rifle found near the scene to shoot target against the building. One bullet was discharged from the rifle.

The bodies, mutilated and unrecognizable, were found about 50 feet from the twisted timbers of the old frame building which had been used for storing blasting powder sold to nearby coal mines.

A huge crater marked the site of the building, which was leased by the Loucks Hardware company of Scottdale.

James Long, a motorman, walked into the temporary morgue at an undertaking establishment, to offer his help. He discovered one of the dead boys was his son.

(Reserves the right to "quack" about everything without taking a stand on anything.)
Nobody enjoys running through a safety lane and having the wrong color slip pasted on his windshield. There will be another safety lane campaign here June 8. Why don't you head off the job by getting your lights, brakes, horn, muffler, steering gear and windshield visibility fixed up in advance?
A ranchman who lives in north Ector told me the other day that he sees 500 cars or trucks plying about in sight of his house every day. When he starts to town, he is in more traffic before he reaches the pavement than afterward. Some people predict that Ector City will have quite a population in a few weeks.

VICTORY IN WARTIME STILL RIDES ON WINGS

If the long bombardment of Madrid has proved that airplanes alone cannot win a war or a battle, the Spanish war as a whole seems to prove equally well that neither a war nor a battle can be won without any airplanes at all. The fighting has gone on long enough now to show pretty definitely what the modern airplane is capable of as a military weapon. And a survey of the different campaigns hints strongly that when other things are equal, or nearly so, it is the airplane that yields the balance of power.

The recent rebel army drive against the Basques is the most striking example. The Basque defenders were entrenched among rugged mountain ranges. Man for man, they seem to have been as well equipped, as well trained, as disciplined and as brave as the rebels. Under odd conditions of warfare, they should have been able to hold out indefinitely.

But the rebels had airplanes and the Basques had none. Trenches and forts on impregnable heights were bombed into submission. Services of supply back of the lines were disorganized. Squadrons of bombers and "hedge-hopping" scout planes armed with machine guns constituted the spearhead of the rebel attack. And as a result the Basques were driven steadily back to the very gates of Bilbao.

It is noteworthy, incidentally, that whenever bad weather made flying impossible the rebels made no gains. Only when their airplanes could clear the way could they go forward.

Much the same thing has been true in other theaters of the war. Madrid looked like a doomed city at the beginning of this year. Then the government managed to gain the superiority in the air. The rebel drive on the capital was stopped in its tracks.

Madrid has been harassed by the bombardment, but it is not as near surrender now as it was in January. In March came the government thrust at Guadalajara. There, too, the government gained decisive superiority in the air. The result was a complete rout of the defending Italian divisions.

All of this can hardly be misinterpreted. A definite advantage in the air seems to mean victory, if the ground forces are equal. An army which has no air force at all apparently has no chance whatever against a foe which has an air force. Aviation, in brief, is emerging as the deciding factor in modern war.

This, to be sure, is no more than what the aviators themselves have been saying for the last decade and more. But now that the claim is being proved by actual trial in combat, one may be certain that every general staff on earth will let the lesson sink home.

School children will be wary of that machine which grades test papers. They know there's only one jackpot in every 250 plays.

We have some tough judges here, but think what a Spanish volunteer has to go through to be naturalized.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

By RODNEY DUTCHER, Reporter-Telegram Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Present indications are that Roosevelt will continue to fight for the essentials of his Supreme Court plan and refuse to accept any major compromise, that Senator Joe Robinson of Arkansas will be appointed to the Supreme Court and that Senator Alben Barkley of Kentucky will succeed Robinson as administration leader in the Senate. The probable Robinson appointment is likely to be delayed until after the present session of Congress, whenever that may be. Roosevelt thinks he can win sooner or later if he keeps the issue open. Most of his closest advisers, including congressional leaders, profess to believe the same thing, despite a chorus of pleas and demands from Capitol Hill that the issue be dropped. Whether or not Roosevelt in the back of his mind, is counting heavily on the possibility that three or four more justices may resign within the next few weeks, is known only to himself. Rumors of more resignations to follow that of Justice Willis Van Devanter are still just rumors.

Might Try the House

THERE is yet no administration retreat to the compromise proposed by Senator Logan of Kentucky, which would maintain a basic court of nine men but provide that when justices failed to retire at 75 the President might appoint additional justices—in such cases—at the rate of one a year. At this writing the administration crowd says Roosevelt won't stand for the one-year limit. If such a provision is the best he can get in the Senate he will try to get a much better break in the House—that is, according to present plans.

Of course, if more justices resign the situation will be altered. To understand Roosevelt's stubborn attitude it is necessary to know that one of his paramount ambitions is to establish the Democratic party as a definitely liberal, progressive party, and that he expects to name his own successor in 1940. He believes that these ambitions are to a considerable degree at stake in this court fight. And so, you may be sure, do many of his Democratic opponents—including some of the presidential aspirants in the Senate.

Also the President feels he can afford a long campaign on the court issue. He takes the self-righteous attitude that he is the representative of the people and that if he sticks to his guns the people will win in the end. To many conservatives this suggests a dangerous form of egomania. But it's Roosevelt.

Joe Robinson and Alben Barkley are another story which will be told in a subsequent dispatch.

Flowers for Spring Are Gay, Colorful

A small bowl of gay spring flowers is easily arranged in an artistic manner if some short pieces of evergreen branches are first put inside the container. This material will support the stems in exactly the position desired and do it more effectively than most metal flower holders or "frogs", although this is not the case where a shallow container is used.

'These Texas Gals,' Sighs Andy-'Oh, Me'

When oil business brought Charles Correll flying to Texas, a welcoming Texanite of the Pan American Exposition prompted him to repeat the sigh that, as Andy, of Amos and Andy, he has given on the radio networks many nights lately—"These Texas gals, Oh, me!" Victim of a "Texas gal" and her father in an oil promotion in the radio skit continuity, "Andy" gave out no details of reason for his hasty trip. He was greeted at Dallas airport by Eleanor Akers, pretty hostess of the international fair opening June 12, in Dallas.

living in classroom, office or store, it is all important that she bathe every day, keep her shoes shined, clothes clean and immaculately pressed, put on fresh underwear and stockings every morning, get the right makeup and use it correctly.

It is, of course, as bad to overdress as it is to wear too, too casual clothes in which you look just about ready for a picnic in the mountains. Rather formal prints, dressed up with furs, white gloves and hats with veils are for formal luncheons, teas, little dinners—not for the office. To dress as simply as possible is a good rule to follow, and simply does not necessarily mean too severely tailored.

For working hours, wear only rouge (enough to give your cheeks a healthy glow), powder and lipstick. Save eye shadow and mascara for evening occasions. Shampoo at least once a week, and be sure that your teeth are clean and sparkling. Use a nail brush every day of your life, hand lotions to keep hands smooth and perfectly groomed. Wear nail polish if you like, but unless you have time to remove old lacquer the moment it begins to chip and apply a fresh coat, better stay away from the vivid shades. Nothing looks more untidy than bright scarlet polish which is cracked or chipped at the edges.

Keep a small box of cosmetics in your desk or the dressing room. Clean your face and give it a fresh coat of makeup at least twice a day. Incidentally, during the hot months at least, it's an excellent idea to add a bottle of cologne and packages of cotton pads to the little makeup kit. Use these to clean your neck before you go to lunch or to freshen up arms and shoulders during the afternoon.

We've designed an especially flattering hairdress for the girl graduate! Complete hair trim, shampoo and wave

Series of Entertainments Feature Reunion of Graduating Class of 1912

Six Class Members Here for Festivities

Graduates of Midland High School of the class of 1912 held a reunion yesterday with six members of class present. The day's activities were begun with a breakfast in the private dining room of Hotel Scharbauer with Judge Charles L. Klapproth as host. Judge Klapproth extended a welcome to members of the class and to other guests present. The breakfast table was decorated with bowls of larkspur and roses.

Places were laid for the following: Mr. and Mrs. Luther Tidwell, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Beon Hardin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown, Judge and Mrs. Charles Klapproth, Mrs. Marvin Storey, Miss Nora Lackey of Fort Worth, Mrs. A. B. Duckworth of Fort Worth, T. E. Lackey of Durant, Okla., Ray Duckworth of Dallas, W. W. Lackey, who was Latin teacher of the 1912 class, and two trustees at that time, T. A. Fannin and Judge Ed Whitaker. Two other trustees, Judge Charles Gibbs of San Angelo, and Judge Halley of Kermit, were unable to be present.

Mrs. Brown Entertains

Mrs. Charles Brown, a member of the 1912 class, entertained the group with a luncheon at her home, 702 W. Louisiana. The living room was decorated with larkspur and roses, and the dining room was decorated in the school colors, purple and gold. The table had a centerpiece of a gold cake with 25 candles, flanked by candelabra with lighted gold tapers. The luncheon was served buffet style. W. W. Lackey's place was marked with a scrapbook which Mrs. Brown had assembled and which contained a tribute to Mr. Lackey from one member of each graduating class that ever graduated under him with the exception of the first two. In addition there were 35 tributes from ministers, laymen and educators over the state of Texas.

Members of the class present were Mrs. Tidwell, Mrs. Barber, Mrs. Hardin, Mrs. Storey, Mrs. Brown and Judge Klapproth. Other guests were Mr. Tidwell, Mr. Hardin, Mr. Barber, Miss Lackey, Ray Duckworth, Mrs. Klapproth, W. W. Lackey, Mrs. Duckworth, T. E. Lackey and Mr. Brown.

After the luncheon, the class went to the present, North Brown school building, from which they graduated 25 years ago, and had their pictures taken. Pictures also were taken of the class in front of ### the new building.

Open House

Judge and Mrs. Klapproth entertained with open house at 5 o'clock. Their home, 1011 West Texas, was decorated with roses, honeysuckle and larkspur. Punch was served from a table covered with a needlepoint lace cloth over green. Snapdragons and mints formed a circle around the punch bowl.

Those who registered were Beulah Graves Brown, W. W. Lackey, Minerva Towers Barber, Hope Barron Storey, Vallye Meeks Hardin, May Terry Tidwell, Charles L. Klapproth, Beon Hardin, T. E. Lackey, Ray Duckworth, Miss Nora Lackey, Mrs. A. B. Duckworth, Nan Prothro, Mrs. L. A. Denton, Mrs. M. A. Erickson, Inez Berry, Susie G. Noble, Mrs. Anna Klapproth, Theresa Klapproth, Mrs. H. E. Cummins, Mrs. Roy Tillman, Terry Tidwell, Luther Tidwell, Charles Brown, J. L. Barber, and Miss Elma Graves.

Banquet at Scharbauer

Tuesday night the class was entertained with a banquet at Hotel Scharbauer. Purple and gold, school colors, was the motif used in the decorations. Mrs. Charles Brown was toastmaster. She extended a welcome and made a brief talk on the experiences of the past twenty-five years. Mrs. Beon Hardin gave a toast to the faculty of 1912, Mrs. Jess Barber gave a toast to the trustees of 1912 and Mrs. Marvin Storey gave a toast to W. W. Lackey. Mr. Lackey gave a response.

Following the banquet, the class went to the high school auditorium where Judge Klapproth presided at a meeting in which the fortune of each class member was traced. In his talk Judge Klapproth stated that not one member of the class had been a failure. One member is now a grandmother, one is a missionary to Africa, two or three were successful teachers, others are successful wives and mothers. He jestingly stated that he was the only "failure." May Terry Tidwell presented the high school an oil portrait of Mr. Lackey as a gift of the class of 1912. On the frame is a silver plate inscribed "Presented to Midland High School by the class of 1912, May 25, 1937." The picture was accepted on behalf of the school by Arthur Yeager, member of the present school board.

Mr. Lackey thanked the class for their respect and love throughout the years. He has been superintendent of schools in Midland thirty-one years.

The senior class of 1937 then held their Class Night program and the ### class of 1912 sat in a body for the occasion.

Telegrams and letters were received from the following class members who were unable to attend: Christina Allen McElwain of California, Pearl McCormick Massey of Missouri, Roxie Tucker Roland

If you, like many others, prefer to purchase your Packard out of income, the necessary down payment on the car is one-third. Your old car, if of average value, should cover or exceed this amount, leaving convenient monthly payments. Equally attractive monthly terms are available on the other seven beautiful Packard 120 body styles.

Most people who have made a study of motor cars will tell you that today's biggest dollar value is the Packard 120.

Today you can get this big, roomy straight-eight Packard—a real Packard inside and out, with Packard's characteristic long mechanical life and Packard's enduring identity—at an astonishingly low price.

But—this season may be your last chance to buy so much fine car for so little money!

For, with the cost of labor and materials already, at much higher levels, increased prices for cars seem inevitable. It is only because Packard has been unusually well equipped to build cars economically that we've been able to give you such a sensational value for so long.

So—our earnest advice is, come in and drive the Packard 120 now. You'll find it offers genuine and thrilling Packard performance and quality. # CARDS BEAT OILERS 7-5; PLAY HOBBS HERE TODAY, THURSDAY

POTOCAR, FROST AND STINE BLAST OUT 4-BASE BLOWS

The Odessa Oilers outthrew the Midland Cardinals 16-9 in their game here Tuesday but the Cards managed and even one-third of their count for four bases each and managed to come out on top by a score of 7-5.

Three home run balls thrown by Manager Bryan spelled defeat early in the game for the Oilers and Bryan retired in the fourth inning, with Woods taking up mound duties as his substitute.

Smith kept the Odessa hits well scattered until the seventh inning but the Oilers picked up a couple in that frame, and after scoring two runs in the ninth caused Manager Davis to jerk Smith and send in Dais. The big righthander had to pitch to only one batter, striking out Woodyard on four pitches.

The Red Birds made three runs in the first inning when Orr walked, stole second, went to third on Nook's single and came home when Frost hit one out of the lot. They went scoreless in the second and third but got rid of Bryan in the fourth. Stein, first up, hit a long homer over the centerfield wall.

Schiffner popped out to Mickey, Potoocar hit a home run, Smith singled, Murphy doubled to score Smith and Orr singled to drive him to third. Woods replaced Bryan and on his first pitch Randall hit a long fly to Capps in left, Murphy scoring after the catch.

Odessa had runners left on base every inning but it was the fifth before they finally managed to tally. Terry leaped into one of Smith's curves and sent it over the left field wall. Only some dumb base running on the part of the Oilers kept them from scoring in the sixth, and the first two men up reaching first and third and being left there while the next three men went out. Pippen had two chances to run home from third after fly balls to the outfield but played safe both times and finally died there. The Oilers picked up a couple in the seventh and two walks and three hits and a couple of more in the ninth on two singles and a double. They had runners on first and third when Dais ended their rally by whiffing Woodyard.

The Cardinals will meet the Hobbs again here this afternoon and tomorrow, playing each day at 4:30.

Landis Didn't Help Cut Down Yankees' Lead By Paving the Way to Purchase of Henrich

TOM'S STICKWORK INDICATES HE'LL BE NEW DIMAGGIO

BY HARRY GRAYSON Sports Editor, NEA Service

NEW YORK, May 26. — This season's principal problem in the American League is reducing the 19 1/2 game lead which the New York Yankees held at the wire last fall. But Judge Landis didn't help the cause any by declaring Tom Henrich a free agent.

Cleveland could not bid for Henrich because it "covered him up" in the minors. It is understood that the Boston Red Sox were eliminated due to Billy Evans having inspired the Massillon Mauler to ask the commissioner for a hearing, Evans now head of the Red Sox farms, formerly was general manager of the Indians.

The Red Sox perhaps had more use for Henrich than any other outfit that could afford to compete for him, and with that rich organization out of the running it was only natural that he fell into the hands of the Yankees, the wealthiest club in the game.

The Cleveland management must now realize just how dull it was in not realizing that it had one of the finest young players in the business for Henrich stepped into left field for the Rupperts as though the position was designed for him.

Second DiMaggio HENRICH promises to do for the Yankees this trip what Joe DiMaggio did in 1936, the difference in the club being that it now has two inspirational forces, where one was plenty before. This also gives you a rough idea what is likely to happen between now and early October.

Henrich is a picture ball player who does everything well. He has started off at 375 clip, and stood out as a money player when he helped win two games in the recent important series with the Athletics by batting in seven runs. Baby-face Tom moves gracefully in the garden, and goes back on a ball as neatly as DiMaggio. With this pair patrolling the territory running from the left field foul line to a point well within George Selkirk's right field patch a base hit has to be just that against the Yankees. Henrich barely is 21 and DiMaggio has just passed 22, so the Rupperts appear well fixed in the outfield for some year to come.

Brooklyn also has come up with a fine young outfielder this spring. He is Gil Brack, who came from Louisville with no fanfare, but about whom National League players have been talking since he broke in.

Brack is hitting .389, but it is the way he stands at the plate and swings his bat that impresses teammates and the opposition.

"Brack was confident that he would make good when he joined the Dodgers," says Cap Neal, veteran head of the Louisville club.

"I saw him at Clearwater during the training season, and asked him when he thought he'd be back in a

Louisville uniform. 'I'm not going back to Louisville until next fall, and then it will be to work in the bat factory,' he said.

Confidence Helps Brack THE confidence he had in his ability is typical of him.

"The first time I saw Brack he was one of the worst catchers I ever looked at. That was in 1932, when he joined the Asheville Club, then a Louisville farm. One of our scouts saw Brack playing semi-professional ball in Chicago, and that's how we got him.

"Gil couldn't throw a ball without raising his hand 'way over his head. I told him that he never would be a catcher, and advised him to go home, and try to get a job as a third baseball player. He did, after playing another year on a Chicago semi-professional team, he came back to me as an outfielder.

"What I like most about Brack is that he is not easily disheartened. When he goes through a game without making a hit he comes back swinging the next day. He doesn't quit on himself. He makes himself believe he is just as good a player as anyone on the field, and that is one reason why he is not out of place in the big leagues."

Jeff Heath, the big Yakima, Wash. kid brought in from Zanesville last fall, started to hit for extra bases when Julius Solters' illness gave him an opportunity in the Cleveland outfield.

Heath may help Alva Bradley and Cy Slapnicka forget the Henrich mistake.

Standard Service Station Is To Be Completed June 19

Construction of the new Standard Service Station, on the former residence site of Dr. John B. Thomas, will be completed about June 19, according to W. J. Beaton, division manager of Standard Station, Inc. for Texas. The home, sold to L. P. Boone shortly after Dr. Thomas leased the 100 x 100 foot tract at Wall and Colorado streets to the Standard, was moved to a new location on West Missouri.

The station will be operated by the company which has recently entered the Midland marketing area. It will be of the one-canopy, modernistic architectural type. The rear portion will house the latest equipment for Standard lubrication and tire and battery service. The large investment in the plant reflects the company's confidence in the progress of Midland, Beaton said.

"The increasing needs of Midland motorists have made this new service outlet necessary," he said. "We are glad that we can contribute in this way to the upbuilding of this community."

On this property, Dr. John B. Thomas and his family have had their home for the past twenty-nine years. Notwithstanding the ties of long attachment and sentiment, this home, long a prominent landmark, has yielded to the march of progress which is now in full swing in this rapidly developing section. "Knowing the work of Standard Stations Inc., in modernizing and beautifying their station sites, and their reputation for service to motorists, I was glad to allow them to erect their station on this site and heartily welcome them as an additional business enterprise to the City of Midland," said Dr. Thomas. "We must always look ahead if we are to progress, and this Company is an outstanding example of foresight and progressiveness."

The new station will be managed by E. V. Hilty.

5—Analysis of commission authority over air commerce. This will be included in a report to the next Congress and will cover both heavier than air, and dirigible transportation.

May Seek Labor Act

Kennedy indicated that the commission at some future date "might" request Congress to enact legislation giving it authority over maritime labor similar to that enjoyed by the National Mediation Board over carrier workers, under the Railway Labor Act.

"The whole thing is a vast job," he said, "larger than any I ever had in private business. The time limitation makes it tough. The law provides that we can't handle any mail pay after June 30. If we don't do something—and do it fast—we are all washed up."

"The major shippers have been in to see me in conferences every day for the past several weeks. Our own staff is working day and night. I have no intimation yet as to how we will proceed in the future or what recommendations we may make to Congress. My ideas change constantly. One thing is sure—we have to learn to swim—just a few

Press Association To Hold Convention Brownwood June 10

BROWNWOOD, May 26.—Plans for entertainment and business programs of the fifty-eighth annual convention of the Texas Press Association to be held here June 10-12 are being completed by Brownwood Chamber of Commerce officials, local newspapermen and officials of the association. More than 650 persons, including members of the association, honorary members, guests and others from the allied printing trades and industries are expected to attend.

Entertainment features will include golf tournaments Thursday and Friday afternoons, side trips to nearby towns Thursday afternoon, floor show and dance Thursday night, trip to Lake Brownwood and dinner in Lake Brownwood State Park Friday afternoon and night. Business sessions will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday morning. Several outstanding speakers will appear on these programs.

Will H. Mayes, Austin, former lieutenant governor and former president of the State Press organization, will make the welcoming address Thursday morning. Mr. Mayes was in the newspaper business here when Brownwood last entered the State Press group 32 years ago, and was the program, reception and entertainment committee for that meeting.

More than 25 newspapers in this section are cooperating with Brownwood Chamber of Commerce officials in plans for the convention and a representative from each will be on the reception committee for the meeting. H. H. Jackson, publisher of the Coleman Democratic-Voice, is president of the association.

Frank Gates, Bartlett newspaperman, who attended his first press association meeting in Brownwood 32 years ago, has notified officials of the association that he will attend this year's meeting in "the City of Standpipes." Several other oldtimers who attended that first Brownwood meeting will be here June 10-12.

Brownwood has changed much in the 32 years since the Texas Press Association met here. The ramshackle Crown Hotel was convention headquarters. Convention sessions were held in the K. of P. hall, which

That's me—Your Mileage Merchant

I'LL OIL-PLATE YOUR ENGINE

Nobody but a Conoco Mileage Merchant like me can Oil-Plate your engine, because nobody else can change you to Conoco Germ Processed oil. There's a patent on it. The Germ Process is not like all the processes that "take away" from an oil—sort of like making skim milk. Instead of that, after the oil is refined in every right way, something altogether extra is put in Germ Processed oil. This is a great discovery, because then a genuine plating of oil is able to form in your engine. If you would imagine a slippery skin of oil really grown to every working surface—and not just floating around—that's a picture of Oil-Plating. A plating can't flow down while your car is parked, so you won't punish your Oil-Plated engine doing all the stopping and starting you please. Or if you're hitting a pace all day—maybe even pulling a trailer up the mountains—it does not make Oil-Plating rub away. That's letting you out of all the worst wear, at the same time that your Conoco Germ Processed oil is saving you quart after quart.
